Phillips & Co. vs. F. W. McChesney, Assignee in Bankruptcy of W. H. Daniels.

AGREED SUBMISSION.

C. J., BICKERTON AND DOLE, J. J. (M'CULLY, J., ABSENT.)

...rgagee of a stock of goods is entitled ...e remaining goods that were in pos...n of the mortgagor at the date of the ...rgage.

...rgagee holding a chattel mortgage on ...k of goods and after acquired stock, ...e take actual possession of said stock ...ods before the intervention of third ...ons or the commencement of proceed...s in bankruptcy, to give him a legal ...m to the same.

...ON OF THE COURT PER BICKERTON, J.

...e is an agreed submission. ...ollowing is the statement of ...submitted:

...H. Daniels, of Wailuku, on ...st day of May, 1889, then com...ng business as a retail trader, ...a mortgage to said M. Phillips ..., a copy of which is hereto an...d and made a part hereof, which ...fully placed on record.

...id mortgage was given to se...the account of said M. Phillips ...for goods sold and goods ...ld to be sold to said Daniels.

...id Daniels since giving said ...rtgage has carried on said busi...and has purchased goods from ...r dealers, and has made pay...ts on account to them and is now ...bted to them for such goods.

...n March 25th, 1891, Phillips & ...ade demand upon said Daniels ...yment of the balance of his ...unt due them for said goods and ...r goods sold to him from time to ...e, then amounting to $4,513.36.

...pon said Daniels refusing to ...the same, Phillips & Co. de...ded of him, at said Wailuku, ...ession of all of his stock in trade, ...ds, wares and merchandise, chat...s and fixtures then in his said ..., claiming to be entitled to the ...e under said mortgage. De...ery of possession was refused.

...th March 31st, 1891, a petition ...filed in the Supreme Court to ...e said Daniels declared bankrupt, ...on April 13th, 1891, a decree of ...kruptcy was entered against him. ...F. W. McChesney was chosen ...gee in bankruptcy of said ...iels, and is in possession of said ...t of goods of said Daniels."

...e questions of law are as fol...:

...1. Are M. Phillips & Co. entitled ...e possession of such portion re...ning, if any, of said stock which ...in said Daniels' possession at ...date of said mortgage?

...2. Are M. Phillips & Co. entitled ...e possession of all of the goods, ...ds and fixtures in said stock ...ired by said Daniels after the ...of said mortgage and in his ...ession at the date of their de...d?"

...The first question of law must be ...wered in the affirmative. It has ...ays been held by this Court that ...ttel mortgagees are entitled to ...possession of such portion re...ning of the stock that was in ...ession of the mortgagor at the ...of the mortgage. See ...Hardy vs. Ruggles et al., 1 Haw., ...

...Spencer vs. Bartow & Lenehan, 3 ...r. 719.

...This was also held to be the law in ...e recent case of W. C. Parke, as...ee, vs. L. J. Levey, and in other ...ases not reported.

...The second question of law raises ...new point. There is a clause in ...e mortgage which reads: "All my ...ds in trade, goods, wares, mer...dise, chattels and fixtures in my ...re in Wailuku aforesaid, and all ...her acquired goods, wares, mer...dise and chattels that shall be ...chased by me out of the proceeds ...sales of the present stock."

...In the first place it does not ap...r by anything before us that any ...the goods in the possession of ...ide the mortgagor at the date ...the bankruptcy were bought ...the proceeds of goods in his ...p at the date of the mortgage. ...the case of Spencer vs. Bartow ...ve above, it was shown that a set ...furniture that was covered by the ...rtgage was exchanged for a ...rse, the Court held that the ...rtgagee was entitled to the ...rse, for it was substituted for the ...set of furniture, and that would be ...o different from selling the furni...ture and with the proceeds purchasing the buggy. Nothing of the sort appears here, how could it in a general retail store like this one; goods were being sold and new goods bought from a number of dealers, and became commingled in the general stock of the store. It would be impossible to say that any particular lot of goods were bought with the particular proceeds of the original goods covered by the mortgage. But the plaintiff does not seem to rely much on this, but claims that he is entitled to the possession of the after acquired stock of goods, the payment of the debt having been refused after due demand, and demand having been made of Daniels at Wailuku for the possession of all of his stock in trade, goods, wares, etc., etc., then in his said store, the mortgagee claiming to be entitled to the same under said mortgage. Delivery and possession was refused. There is no question as to the right of the mortgagee to the possession of the remainder of the original stock at date of mortgage, the authorities cited by plaintiffs sustain this position, but the question is, what is necessary to be done in regard to the after acquired property or stock to secure to him the title in it. The plaintiff relies strongly on the case of Chase vs. Denny, 130, Mass. 566. In that case the mortgagee of his own motion, four days before proceedings in insolvency were begun, and nineteen days before the mortgagor was adjudicated a bankrupt, took actual possession of all the property covered by the mortgage. The mortgage covered after acquired property, and it was admitted that all the property taken was acquired by the mortgagor after making of the mortgage. Soule, J., in giving the decision of the Court, says: "It has been repeatedly held in this commonwealth that a mortgage purporting to convey all the chattels of specified kinds which may thereafter be acquired by the mortgagor, does not give any title to those chattels when acquired by him unless the mortgagee takes possession of them." * * * "If, however, the after acquired property is taken by the mortgagee into his possession before the intervention of any right of third persons he holds it under a valid lien by the operation of the provision of the mortgage in regard to it. This was held to be the rule in the case of Moody vs. Wright, 13 Met., 17, and we see no reason to question its correctness."

In that case the mortgagee did not gain possession of the after acquired property before the proceedings in insolvency was set on foot, and the mortgage was held to be inoperative against the assignees in insolvency.

Soule, J., further says: "Such taking of possession, though effected immediately before insolvency proceedings were instituted, and with full knowledge of the insolvency of the mortgagor, would not be the acceptance of the preference, but the assertion of a right which had been previously acquired by the mortgagee under an instrument in writing made when the parties to it were both competent to contract, and when there was no qualification of the right of either to deal with the other."

In the case at bar, the plaintiff mortgagee did not take actual possession of the chattels; on the contrary, he was refused possession by the mortgagor.

In the case of Mitchell vs. Wiselow, 2 Story 630, cited by plaintiff, the agent of the mortgagee took actual possession of the property. "Constructive possession under a chattel mortgage is ineffectual. The right to possession is by virtue of the contract and not as in an execution, by virtue of the law. Possession must be taken in fact; it cannot be taken by words and inspection. It must be actual, open, public." Jones on Chattel Mortgages, Sec. 186.

There is not a case cited nor do we find a case that supports the position taken by the plaintiff, viz: That upon making demand for possession of the mortgaged stock, the estate of the mortgagee becomes absolute and that they had the legal title to the property. On the contrary, the authorities seem to be all the other way. The mortgage creates a lien on the after-acquired property, but to complete his title to the property the mortgagee must take actual possession of it before the proceedings in bankruptcy is set on foot, or before the intervention of third parties.

We have therefore to answer the second question of law in the negative.

SATURDAY, : OCT. 3, 1891.

THE Custom House returns, showing the exports for the three months ending September 30, prepared by Deputy Collector G. E. Boardman, are published in another column. The export of sugar from January 1 to September 30 have been over 131,000 tons (262,910,279 lbs.), or larger than the entire crop of the year 1890. It now appears probable that the sugar export for 1891 will exceed 140,000 tons.

The figures in the rice column show a large falling off, and an apparent decline in rice culture. This, however, is not the case, and the quantity produced this year is undoubtedly larger than that of any previous year. The demand to supply the wants of over 30,000 Chinese and Japanese now in the country has very largely increased, and probably amounts to fifteen millions of pounds annually.

The value of our exports for the third quarter has fallen about one-half over the similar periods for 1890 and 1889, owing to the decline in the value of sugar. In 1890 it was $2,407,099; this year it is $1,280,543.

Other exports show the usual variations from previous years.

VERDICT BEFORE TRIAL.

On Wednesday last, September 30, we announced that Mr. Aseu had been arrested at the suit of sundry Chinese immigrants by the Pactolus, and that the examination is set for the 8th inst.

It is generally considered proper by all reputable journals to abstain from comment, or at all events from expressing any decided opinions, pro or con, on any matter before the Courts of law while still "sub judice." How far Ka Leo is governed by the wholesome rule may be seen on the same page as that on which its political platform is set forth in its issue of September 30.

Here is a case in which the first hearing has not yet been had. The very complaint has not yet been made public, nor its particulars formulated, yet in the paper named, the complainants are spoken of as poor deluded Chinese, whose eyes have been opened to the inconsistency of their agreement in China with their treatment here. Has the man who wrote the above seen the said agreements, and does he know any thing of the treatment which he thus prejudges? The defendant is abused beforehand. The shipping of the men in China is described by one who can know nothing about it, as the "diabolical system practiced by the agents of the Sugar Barons." The "four men that participates and allows such a practise" (sic) are probably the late Ministers.

Again, "the Pactolus coolie slaves have revolted." Is it any wonder that one who writes in that style should find the laws of libel, contempt of Court, etc., too stringent for his approval.

Skirmishing at Punahou.

Quite a novel entertainment was given at Oahu College yesterday evening. Over one hundred pupils, boys and girls, and many friends of the institution were present. The grounds were lit up with torches. A little after 8 o'clock the girls and boys formed in single file on the veranda and from there marched into the dining hall to the strains of soft music played on the piano by Miss Wing. They marched around the hall in single file and then in twos and fours. The marching movements were peculiar yet most enjoyable, affording no small amusement to the spectators, while the pupils themselves were overwhelmed with mirth Mrs. Lyons and Miss Dale relieved Miss Wing at the piano in turn during the performance.

When the marching ended, a company of little boys and girls appeared and passed around lemonade, ice cream, cakes, etc. The Boys' Glee Club, under Prof. J. Q. Wood, entertained the audience with some very pleasing musical selections. Miss Dale favored those present with a song, "In Old Madrid," which was very charmingly rendered, Miss Wing playing the accompaniment. Continued applause obliged Miss Dale to give as an encore, "Annie Laurie."

Honolulu Zither and Musical Club.

A treat is promised to music lovers in the concert to be given at the Opera House next Friday evening by the Honolulu Zither and Musical Club, assisted by the string orchestra of the Royal Hawaiian Band. The concert is a benefit to Prof. Aug. Schmidt, who will play two zither solos. A delightful feature of the evening's entertainment will be two songs by the Hon. Paul Isenberg and one by W. H. Hoogs. The programme, which is printed in full in another column, is a very alluring one and ought to draw a crowded house. The box plan is already open at the office of Mr. L. J. Levey.

Hawaiian Hardware Co., L'd.

MONDAY, Sept. 28.

At certain seasons of the year drinking water everywhere becomes impure from different causes, and frequently disease follows its use. The water here is no exception—not even that taken from artesian wells. If you take a drop of water and place it under a powerful microscope you will see more snakes than an anti-prohibitionist would see after a prolonged spree. If you drink ordinary water, fresh from the taps, you take these snakes, or whatever they are, into the stomach, and then trouble follows: Snakes won't assimilate with plain every-day food, and the physician's fee is so much per visit—good fellows these physicians; it's their medicines that are unpleasant, and none of us like to taste of bitter things when we can get a chance at the sweets. Now then, to remedy the trouble bad water has caused, and prevent disaster in the future—get a Filter. You want the best and we have it. Nothing equals a Gate City Stone Filter to purify bad water. It's all natural stone and nothing to get out of order. Don't think because you are drinking artesian water that there's no bugs in it. There are and you've got to filter it to make it pure.

How often do you sweep your carpets; one, two or three times a day? The oftener you sweep the sooner you have to get new ones. The best of carpets are not made of iron and the more you sweep the thinner they get. Sweeping takes the nap off. Have you ever tried a Carpet Sweeper; one of those arrangements with brushes, that you push over the floor once and then sit down and smile at the ease with which you have done what everyone who don't use them growls about? No blisters on the hands; no backache; nothing but an easy push and a clean floor. We haven't many, but what there are are good.

An article that has become almost a necessary ornament in a well furnished parlor is an Easel. There are some perfect gems of art in Honolulu and one cannot always get a wall space where there is a good light. An easel may be placed in any corner and you can hardly miss the light. We have metal Easels in oxydized silver or imitation of it that looks better than wood, and they are better in styles. Buy one, throw a scarf over the top and then place your Tavernier, Hitchcock, Strong, Stratemeyer or Furneaux on it and you'll be pleased.

If you have any brand new babies around the house, you should have an alcohol Lamp on which to heat milk for it. Young babies have a fashion of calling for meals at unusual hours; and it's too much work to make a fire in a stove just to heat a little milk. Nearly everyone has an alcohol lamp, but there may be some people who never had any use for them before. They're the ones we're aiming at.

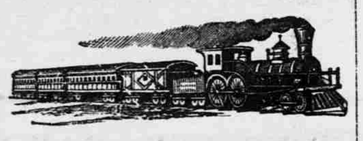
SEASIDE RESIDENCE SITES



FOR SALE!

At Auction

WEDNESDAY,

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 21, 1891.

By order of the Oahu Railway and Land Company, I will offer for sale at Public Auction, at my Salesroom,

QUEEN STREET, HONOLULU,

On Wednesday, Oct. 21, 1891

At 10 o'clock A. M.,

A LIMITED NUMBER OF VALUABLE SEASIDE AND COUNTRY RESIDENCE SITES ON

The Peninsula of Pearl City!

This truly enchanting location for suburban homes must be seen to be appreciated; a lovely grove of algeroba trees covers the entire grounds, streets 80 feet in width are laid out, and 6-inch pipes are being laid to conduct water from a 10-inch artesian well which is pronounced by McCandless Bros. to flow the sweetest water of all the wells they have bored on this island. The Railway Co. have constructed two reservoirs with a storage capacity of over two million gallons, and built a flume extending 3½ miles into Waiawa Valley, which in years of ordinary rainfall will supply an abundance of pure water for a large population; to guard against such droughts as we have experienced during the present year, the Company have ordered a Blake Pump with a capacity of 450,000 gallons per day, which will be replaced by one or more of larger capacity when needed. This pump now due from the manufacturers will be placed at once at the artesian well from which water will be forced into the reservoirs, when not supplied from the mountains.

A block containing an area of five acres has been reserved for a Hotel, and another beautiful lot of the same area is also reserved for a Public Park, which the Company propose to make one of the most delightful and attractive resorts to be found anywhere.

This place has all the charms of Waikiki, with the addition of an inland sea seven miles long and four miles wide, affording boating and yachting facilities second to none in the world.

Pearl City is situated about half-way between the extreme eastern and western points of Pearl Harbor. The makai end of Pearl City Peninsula points to the entrance of the harbor, and is destined some day (not so remote as some people may think) to be the great commercial emporium of the Pacific. The Pearl City Branch of the Company's line extends down the centre of the Peninsula within say 1,000 feet of the shore on either side.

Intending purchasers are invited by the O. R. & L. Co. to call at my office for free tickets and maps of Pearl City.

The Company will bind themselves in the deed to carry purchasers, their families and servants for a term of nine years from date of purchase at 1½ cents per mile first-class, and 1 cent per mile second-class. Those who build on their lots within 12 months from date of purchase will thereby secure a reduction from the above rate, for the whole time, of say 20 per cent., making the fare each way 15 cents first-class and 10 cents second class.

This rare spot of earth is quite limited in area, and those who would secure a lot valuable now but destined in the near future to be worth many times its present value, will be wise to improve their present opportunity.

TERMS:

ONE-FOURTH CASH!

One-fourth 1 Year,
One-fourth 2 Years,
One-fourth 3 Years,

Secured by Mortgage, Interest at 7 Per cent. Per Annum, Payable Semi-annually.

Company will furnish Deeds and Mortgage free of charge.

Stamping, Recording and Acknowledging at expense of purchaser.

OREGON KIDNEY TEA!

Is the Most Wonderful Medical Discover Modern Times.

CURES BACKACHE
—AND—
KIDNEY TROUBL

It is strictly a vegetable production and will not injure the smalle nor the most delicate woman, but will cure pain in the back and kidney retention of urine, diabetes, inflammation of the bladder or kidneys, bri deposit in urine, leucorrhoea, painful or suppressed menstruation, nerv and all complaints arising from a diseased or debilitated state of the kid urinary organs of either sex.

Many mistake the pains arising from defective action of the kid rheumatism, and in attempting to cure the latter by outward applicatio entirely to reach the seat of the disease. We do not offer the OREGO NEY TEA as a specific for rheumatism, but are satisfied that many case called rheumatism would yield to its remedial virtues.

The leaf is put up in air tight tin caddies which preserve intact its properties and the decoction is made by the person using it, thus securing solute purity.

There are thousands afflicted with diseases of the kidneys or urinary who suffer in silence rather than make known their troubles. Others see by the use of various patent medicines, which, if they do not aggravate ease, at least do not lessen it. Even those who secure the advice of phy often fail to get relief, owing to the very complicated and delicate nature organs affected.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, the Fort street and King street cars collided at Hall's corner, throwing both cars off the track. Fortunately both cars were about empty at the time, and no damage was done beyond a few scratches to the paint. The horses were not injured. Both cars were going fast, and not at the regulation pace.

Two natives, George Malina and Wm. Ikuwa, were arrested yesterday, charged with robbing a Chinaman. The second-named was to be married in the morning, and he was in a great state of mind for fear he would turn up missing at the wedding feast. He was bailed, however, and got home in great haste to arrange the luau. He will be married first and tried afterwards.

A poster is up, issued by the Marshal, announcing that two Chinese from Kohala, Hang Lock and Shen Tong, have deserted their contracts. Twenty dollars reward is offered for the capture of one of them. The runaways are doubtless in hiding in Honolulu somewhere. These were Pactolus Chinamen, and they are doubtless tired of trying to get their clothes, incidentals and fun out of $2.50 per month.

The departure of the Chinese from the Quarantine Station yesterday morning was quite an interesting sight. There were over a hundred hacks at the station to carry passengers to the longed-for mainland. These were very necessary, for among the Chinese were quite a large number of ladies in Oriental costumes and with gaily painted faces, whose feet were so small that they could hardly walk. It took two or three hours to transfer all the passengers to dry land.

When the Japanese man-of-war flying a white flag with a red ball arrives, the near advent of which is promised by the Bulletin, it would be better employed in bombarding the place on Merchant street referred to by the ADVERTISER than in attacking the town. The place is a bad one, and if the flag is not an obscure hint at che fa it probably hints plainly enough at something quite as bad. The place is the scene of gambling, quarrelling and flourishing of knives, and would be a good one to be raided by the police.

LECTURE AT EMMA HALL.

Dr. Hammond lectured last evening at Emma Hall, taking for his theme the Savior's prayer, in John's Gospel, "That they all may be one." He said, among other things, there is not so much difference between the ancient Egyptian hieroglyphics and the printing of today; not so much difference between the old fashioned stage coach mode of traveling and the modern lightning express steam engine; not so much difference between light and darkness, as there is between the way in which the Gospel is preached to-day and the way it was preached 1800 years ago. The wild cry of apostatizing Corinthians is being repeated to day. Men are blinded to Gospel truth. Here in Honolulu, their theory is no more denominations, yet they speak louder with their purses.

On Thursday evening, he said, one of our ministers went to him and asked if he were going to start a Baptist church here. The question astonished the lecturer, for wherever he had traveled or labored he had done his utmost to have all the people do away with sectarianism, destroy man-made creeds and take the Bible alone for their guide. Christ gave no uncertain sound when He prayed "that they all may be one." Paul followed with no uncertain sound by nipping sectarianism in the bud—"Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you," etc. Sectarianism is the life-germ of the great apostacy, and yet there are shoals of creeds and creed-makers; and, as though there were not divisions enough in Honolulu, the managing committee of the Y. M. C. A. employ and pay a large salary to a man who is actually "serving his first year" as a traveling Methodist preacher, and as such is as good as sworn to preach the doctrines or creed of the Methodist Church, and thus build up a new sect, while he "patiently worries through his duties as secretary of the Y. M. C. A." The world will never be converted so long as men preach "Accept our creed and cast in your lot with us." The Bible condemns sects. Let one and all, in everything that pertains to religions, speak where the Bible speaks, and be silent where the Bible is silent, then the Savior's prayer will be answered—"they all will be one." Unity of faith and not unity of opinion is what God requires.

Another Exhibition.

Both show windows of the Pacific Hardware Co. now contain exhibits, Indian curios filling one and base-ball coming to the front in another. The winning team of '91 are there in all the glory of a large photograph by J. J. Williams, enclosed in a frame appropriately decorated by Jacobsen with colored sketches of base-ball bats, a catcher's mask and gloves. The boys are placed side by side with the splendid trophy which they covet, but haven't got yet—the cup presented to the Hawaiian League by A. G. Spalding & Brothers. This cup is adorned with an engraving of a ball game in full swing, and is a fine piece of work. It is to become the property of the club winning it three times in succession. Last, but not least, except in point of size, is a photo of the "Mascot," a fine boy, a scion of the house of Lucas, in a base-ball suit, holding a ball in the hand.

A FINISHED PRAYER.

As It Closed on Earth Its Echo Was Caught Up in Heaven.

The sick-room was very still; the night-lamp burned low, and the watchers made fantastic shadows on the wall, but no one moved or spoke. The doctor said this was the turning point of the disease, and there was nothing to do but to wait—wait, writes Mrs. M. L. Rayne in the Detroit Free Press.

The boy slept and his father kept his eyes fixed upon the thin, wasted features, and watched for what he hoped would prove a new lease of life. The mother had gone to lie down and rest. The nurse sat near and dozed. At last the sick child suddenly opened his large bright eyes and said in a clear voice:

"Papa."

"What, dear boy?" answered the father, softly.

"Is it near morning?"

"Yes, dear boy!"

"And will I be well in the morning?"

"I—I hope so," sobbed the poor father faintly.

There was a long silence, then the sick child moved restlessly on his pillows.

"I want to say my prayers," he murmured.

The father beckoned to the nurse and she brought the mother, who stole softly in and knelt on the other side of the bed.

"Lift me up," said the dying child in a full, clear voice; "hold me, papa, while I say my prayers."

He clasped his hands together and repeated like one who was dreamrng:

"Our—Father—which art in heaven—hallowed—be—thy—name—thy kingdom—come—thy kingdom—come—"

"Papa, I can't remember! I can't remember!"

"No matter, my dear boy, you can finish it in the morning."

Again he lay among the pillows like a pale lily and his eyes were open wide.

"I can't see you, papa," he murmured. "Will it soon be morning?"

"Yes, dear boy."

"And will I be well then?"

The poor father could not answer. No one spoke, and a faint light stole into the room that drowned the flickering rays of the night-lamp and shone rosy on the wall. Then suddenly a little voice filled the room. It was so sweet and clear that it sounded like a strain of music from celestial spheres. It was the dying boy finishing his prayer! When he came to the last clause he seemed groping in doubt.

"Forever and ever—forever and ever—" and with the words on his lips he drifted off to sleep again.

The rising sun shone into the room and lighted up its dim obscurity. It lay in golden bars on the white pillows, and touched the little face with a mocking glow of health and strength. Perhaps it wakened him, but in the valley of the shadow of death he could not discern, and with wide-open eyes that saw not, he murmured plaintively:

"Is it nearly morning, papa?"

"It is morning now, dear boy."

A smile trembled on the closed lips, there was a flutter of breath that came and went as the child clasped his thin hands togetger: "For-ever-and-ever—Amen!"—[Ex.
