

HILO GETS A SHAKING.

Unusual Number of Law-Breakers Before the Courts.

MILLS GETTING READY TO GRIND.

Library Association in New Quarters. Society Movements—Street Improvements—Competition in Soda Manufacturing—Santiago Arrives—Notes.

HILO (Hawaii), Dec. 15.—This has been a busy week in the Hilo courts. An unusual number of law-breakers have been brought to trial. John Kerrigan, a white man, once a noted jockey all over the islands, was called to answer a charge of stealing barley and a saddle from the livery stable of J. R. Wilson. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to labor on the road for nine months in addition to being fined $27 and costs of court.

The driver of Wilson's bus, who caused the accident to John Kaee, the drayman, has been charged with furious driving, but not yet arraigned. It is thought the case will be settled out of court. A number of other cases of furious riding have come to the notice of the court this week. It is about time something was being done toward the checking of heedless riding. For months it has been the practice of some school boys to ride up and down Waiannuene street at a furious rate of speed just at the time when the school children are going to and coming from school. It is really marvelous that no fatalities have occurred among the tiny tots that fend their way to and from the kindergarten, more especially. However, this careless riding is not confined to school boys. We have a few residents on the hill who seemingly find it necessary to ride at an unusually fast-flying gait at all times, and hope some day the police will make it their business to notify one white man in particular that it would be well for him and the rest of us if he would reduce his pace.

At present there are thirty-two prisoners at work on the Hilo-Hamakua road, all in charge of Jailer Stark, two guards and two lunas.

Our neighboring plantations are getting ready for grinding sugar. The first sugar will be taken from Waiannu and Waikaka by the bark Santiago, which arrived from San Francisco today. Hakalau plantation will not be ready before the middle of January.

A new enterprise has been instituted at Hakalau. Norman Lyman, who has been employed by the Hilo Soda Works for some years, will have charge of a branch business for the company at that place. The company intends putting in machinery and stock complete for making soda there. Mr. Lyman will also open a butcher shop for the Central Meat Market of Hilo, of which R. A. Lyman, Jr., is proprietor. Competition in the soda business is growing rife. Hilo has two establishments of the kind now, and it is said a third will soon be ready for business.

George Weight, who went to Honolulu last week in consultation with the owners of Kakaia plantation, has sent word of his acceptance of the management of that plantation. Mr. Weight has been in the employ of the Onomea Sugar Company for a number of years, and his many friends here, while they congratulate him upon advancement, will regret to see the departure of himself and family.

The rooms of the Hilo Library Association, pleasantly located in the Spreckels block, are now open to the public as a reading room. On the tables are to be found a great number of popular magazines, while on the shelves are nearly two thousand volumes of standard books, to which, it is hoped, many new ones will be added. Mrs. Stephens is in charge temporarily.

The new five-foot board walk from the corner of Front and Waiannuene streets to the wharf is certainly a great improvement and an added convenience to the public.

The Misses Porter entertained the Hilo Social Club last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Terry. The evening was pleasantly spent in social chat and listening to some splendid music. Delicious edibles and drinkables were served.

On Friday evening, the 13th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Loebenstein was the scene of a very jolly party, the place was brilliantly illuminated and most tastefully decorated under the efficient management of Arthur Richardson, who had the party in charge. During the evening a band of native boys stationed on the veranda discoursed sweet music. Several games with cards were played and then all repaired to the dining room, where they were invited to gather round the festive board and partake of the tempting delicacies with which the table was laden. It was a late hour before the party broke up. All report having had a good time.

very valuable riding horse while crossing the lava beds eight miles from Kailua, Kona. He was going along steadily when the animal suddenly dropped dead, presumably from the bursting of a blood vessel. Mr. Van Camp was obliged to walk fully eight miles to the home of Mr. Johnson, where he procured another horse. J. F. Brown is at the home of the Severances.

Mrs. J. H. Boyd and child who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Loebenstein, returned to Honolulu by the Kinau.

Mr. Smith of T. H. Davies & Co., Hilo, returned to Hilo this week after an absence of several weeks at Honokaa. A heavy earthquake shock was felt here shortly after eleven o'clock Sunday night—the first for months. It was followed by a lighter shock two hours later.

The bark Santiago, Johnson captain, arrived this noon, eighteen days from San Francisco. She brought a large cargo of general merchandise, ten animals and thirteen passengers: Messrs. George Deacon, C. F. Fischer, Alex. Lindsay, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Keyworth and child, Mrs. Fulcher and three children and Mrs. Johnson, the captain's bride.

Weather: Fine and bright.

A MYSTERIOUS FLUID. Seems to Cure Everything From Itch to Consumption.

Wonderful Cures Reported by a Physician Who Gives His Experience in a Medical Society.

The new York County Medical Association listened at a meeting, to a relation of marvellous cures by means of a fluid which apparently is yet without a specific name. Dr. Hubbard W. Mitchell gave the results of experiments.

Dr. Mitchell said that about two years ago, a friend of his gave him a fluid which he claimed was good for almost everything, curing ulcerative and suppurative processes, and that some of the worst diseases to which mankind is subject could be cured in a few days. He put the bottle on the shelf, the usual place for unknown and untried remedies, but a few days afterward a patient visited him with a large carbuncle on the back of his neck. He treated the carbuncle with the fluid.

The man returned the next morning, and Dr. Mitchell was surprised to find that the inflammation had nearly gone and all the symptoms were improved. Two days later a complete cure was effected.

Then Dr. Mitchell went to Dr. Taylor, of the Van derbilt clinic, and asked to be allowed to treat some typical cases of infectious diseases which result in eruptions of a distressing character. The patients were from the lowest strata of society, users of tobacco in large quantities and hard drinkers.

ONLY FAILED IN ONE CASE. He treated 30 cases. In one case he failed, but with the rest he was successful.

One of the worst cases was cured in about a week. In a case of hernia, where the patient was at death's door, he tried the fluid as a last resort, and the man recovered in a surprisingly short time. He tried 30 cases of ulcerative tonsillitis and was successful. Bad cases of cancer also yielded under this peculiar treatment.

Dr. Mitchell said that, seeing the great results achieved by external application, he thought he might obtain the same by internal application, and he, therefore, tried it on the ulcerative process going on in the lungs in a case of phthisis, or consumption. He introduced the fluid into the stomach through the mouth when the stomach was empty, so that the liquid might be the more readily absorbed by the blood.

The patient took the medicine three or four times a day. He gave a young man, who had the true bacilli tuberculosis, drachm doses four times a day. He began June 1st. In one week the patient ceased spitting blood, and in December the doctor was unable to find any trace of the disease. He described other cases of consumption in which he was entirely successful.

KOHALA NEWS BUDGET.

Greatest Shake-up Felt for Many Years.

GRINDING SEASON HAS BEGUN.

People Hope for Special Trip of Claudine in Order to Spend Holidays in Honolulu—Dramatic Entertainment—School Attendance Small.

KOHALA (Hawaii), Dec. 16.—The season for grinding cane has fairly begun, and the sound of the mill whistle is heard in the land. The nights are inclined to be rainy and the days warm.

There were quite a number of arrivals by the last Kinau. Among them were Mrs. Fraser and infant, Mrs. H. Renton and Dr. Nichols. The doctor intends staying over another steamer on account of pressure of business here, where he has a host of patients anxious to get their teeth in order for holiday festivities.

Quite a number of people from Kohala would like to spend Christmas in Honolulu, and it is hoped the Claudine may be induced to call at Mahukona toward the end of the week. Such courtesies on the part of Wilder's Steamship Company help us out until such time as they get their regular five days' service established.

The great event of the past week was the dramatic entertainment in the Music hall. There were two short plays given, fairly equal in merit, with a pleasant intermission between, affording opportunity for refreshment and social courtesies. The first part was entitled "My Turn Next." The fun of the farce turns upon the suspicions of a village apothecary who has just wedded a widow, whose previous husband, owing to pecuniary difficulties, had found it desirable to live in different places under different names. Part of this information comes to the ears of the new-made husband, who looks upon his wife as a sort of "female bluebeard," with designs upon his life. Many of the situations were very ludicrous. The principal parts were:

Twitters, the apothecary..... S. Tibbs Tim, his assistant..... F. C. Paetow Twitters's wife..... Miss A. Wright Peggy, the housekeeper..... Mrs. R. Wallace

The second part of the program was a farce, entitled "A Box of Monkeys." The play is a burlesque on the "Fighting" of young America, offset by English affectation. Mrs. Ono-go Jones, a wealthy American, "an admirer of rank," is chaperone to two girls. A prairie rose from the wild and woolly west and a scion of aristocracy, both of whom have lovers after their kind. These lovers are impetuous partners in a doubtful gold mine. These four all meet at Mrs. Jones's house in New York and the fun is fast and furious. But the gold mine pans out well at last, and it all ends in red light and the maternal blessing. The Kangaroo dance, executed by Mrs. Wallace and J. Hind, was, in the language of the play, simply immense. No verbal description could do it justice. The characters were:

Mrs. Ono-go Jones..... Miss A. Wright Sierra Bengaline..... Mrs. R. Wallace Jones's driver..... Mrs. C. Kynnersley Ed. Ralston..... J. Hind Chauncy Oglethorpe..... H. Kempster

In both farces the acting was above the average, and the actors merited the liberal applause with which they were rewarded. A string band did orchestral duty in a most satisfactory manner. The whole entertainment was a decided success from every point of view. The net profits were some $70, which goes towards reducing the debt on the hall.

There is a move being made looking toward a public ball on New Year's eve. The schools, owing to the late epidemic and kindred causes, have had a comparatively small attendance this autumn. But with the New Year, it is expected such matters will have settled down into their usual course.

The earthquakes that shook up Honolulu were also felt here at the same hours. The one at 11 o'clock began with a preliminary shock that awakened most of those who were asleep. After an interval of a second or two it was followed by a strong tremor that continued with decreasing force for probably thirty seconds. Some reckon it at a full minute. The undulation proceeded from mauka to the sea. The waves were longer, and the shock less violent than is usual with such a considerable earthquake. At 3 o'clock there was a second prolonged tremor, less violent than the former; but characterized by the same long graceful undulations, so happily suggestive of our general decorum. On the Kona side the shocks are reported as being much more violent. Altogether it was the greatest shake up Kohala has had for years.

STAMPED OUT.

New York Independent on Epidemic in Honolulu.

When the phrase "stamped out" is used in regard to the late epidemic in the Sandwich Islands it means exactly that—the words are so hackneyed that they do not convey an image to us of a man setting his foot on a blazing match or other combustible, but energetic action, directed by intelligence, has caused the cessation of a pestilence that for a few days was most threatening. News comes from Honolulu, dated October 17th, via San Francisco October 24th, that twenty-nine days had elapsed since the cholera epidemic ended, and fifteen since the last one of three later, scattering cases. Early action and the willing vigilance of a community which realized the value of sanitary law enforced is the secret. Most of the restrictions are removed, the children are free to attend school, but bathing and fishing in the harbor and in the Nuuanu stream are still prohibited. The epidemic has cost the Government $20,000, including a disinfecting plant yet to arrive, which will, no doubt, be diligently used, for it will be long before ships arriving from Japan and China will be free from suspicion; but that small country has been a splendid object lesson to the whole world.—N. Y. Independence.

BOILED WATER FOR SCHOOLS.

Dogs to be Kept Out of the New Market—Mangy Curs Must Go—Tenders for Settlement Supplies Called For.

The regular weekly session of the Board of Health was held yesterday afternoon. After the meeting had been called to order President Waterhouse read his resignation.

Others present were Drs. Day, Wood and Emerson, members Lansing and Waterhouse, Agent Reynolds, Prof. Alexander was in attendance on matters connected with the educational branch of the Government.

Records of cattle slaughtered as furnished by Inspector Mousarrat were read and filed.

Fish Inspector Kelippo returned weekly report of fish sold—67,000 of various kinds.

Agent Meyers wrote from the Molokai settlement chronicleing events there. He thought the Board's action in allowing Father Conradi to remain at the settlement until after the holidays was wise.

The end of the year drawing to a close, it was ordered to advertise for tenders for furnishing supplies to the settlement during the coming annual period.

In the matter of catching and killing mangy dogs, Marshal Brown informed the Board that the work could be facilitated if J. Fernandez, the officer who is attending to the matter, was made an agent of the Board of Health.

A communication was read from Professor Alexander, president of the Board of Education, stating that the appropriation for furnishing the schools with boiled water was exhausted.

President Smith believed the danger of the epidemic had passed, but deemed it advisable that the schools be still furnished with boiled water.

Additional claims against the Board of Health in connection with the cholera epidemic to the amount of $1386.65, over and above the $60,000 appropriated by the Council of State, were taken cognizance of.

Pinau, an aged native, was present. He wanted permission to occupy one of his houses that had been ordered vacated during the epidemic.

The Board previously ordered that these houses could not be occupied until placed in proper sanitary condition. There was no reason to change the order, as the places were still in bad order.

"Disfigured For Life"

Is the despairing cry of thousands afflicted with Unsightly skin diseases. Do you realize what this disfiguration means to sensitive souls? It means isolation, seclusion. It is a bar to social and business success. Do you wonder that despair seizes upon these sufferers when Doctors fail, Standard remedies fail, And nostrums prove worse than useless? Skin diseases are most obstinate to cure or even relieve. It is easy to claim to cure them, but quite another thing to do so.

CUTICURA REMEDIES Have earned the right to be called Skin Specifics— Because for years they have met with most remarkable success. There are cases that they cannot cure, but they are few indeed. It is no long-drawn-out, expensive experiment. 25c. invested in a tablet of CUTICURA SOAP Will prove most convincing. In short, CUTICURA WORKS WONDERS And its cures are simply marvellous. Now is the time To take CUTICURA. CURES made in season Are permanent.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

ISSUED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

W. R. FARRINGTON, EDITOR.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1895.

In connection with an article published in these columns on Monday, upon the extension of Japanese manufactures, we note that that pushing nation is to establish two cotton mills in Shanghai, one financed by a Tokio company with 30,000 spindles, and one by a firm from Osaka with 50,000 spindles. This is pushing into the enemy's country indeed.

Mr. ALEXANDER YOUNG seems likely to be the unanimous choice of the Hilo District. He undoubtedly is well acquainted with the agricultural and economic resources of the district and is personally well known to most of the citizens. He is also well known and popular in the other sugar growing districts of the big island, so that he is likely to prove a very strong candidate.

The night school for pupils who are deficient in the Alderman's celebrated three R's should make a good start under Mr. J. Lightfoot. The Board of Education certainly made a step in the right direction when they inaugurated this school. Nearly every city in the United States and in Europe is working to give its citizens an opportunity for improvement, even if they failed through their own fault or through adverse circumstances to take advantage of the education offered in early life.

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. Honolulu has at present a circus and the Japanese acrobats, but it has been a long time since we had any form of public amusement. The community need some form of innocent recreation. It is to be hoped that on Mr. Irwin's return some arrangement can be come to to rebuild the theatre and attract actors to our shores. The influence of public amusements, well conducted, is for the public good and all efforts in that direction should receive liberal support.

The alleged conspirators have had their trial carried forward till Monday next. An important witness was not to hand. The inner story of what these men thought they could do is given in the affidavit of the Deputy Attorney-General. It was a crazy scheme, and the men engaged in it show how utterly ignorant they were of the condition of affairs here. There is no chance of rousing up rebellion here, and there is no chance of any large force coming down upon us unawares. Both at home and abroad, friends of the country may make themselves assured that filibusters or picayune revolutionists will have no show on these islands.

It is pleasant to see the busy, bustling streets and the crowds buying Christmas goods. The children are just having a "beautiful time," as the somewhat slang expression goes. The little toddlers are on the tender hooks of expectation, and they haunt the various stores, feasting their eyes and minds on the many wonderful things that are displayed, some of which the beneficent Santa Claus may bestow upon them when the great evening arrives. The pretty legend still finds a home in their innocent hearts, and long may it continue to do so. In a prosaic age, when so much of the glamor of life has been swept away, it is refreshing to think that some poetic myths are left to the very young, that life to them is not a series of unalterable, angular facts, but that it contains the romantic and the beautiful. We pity any one who is not touched by the dainty and poetic side of childhood, whose heart does not expand at least once a year; it should expand all the time, but the hard grubbing for the necessary wherewithal to clothe and feed the flock naturally hardens and contracts it.

COFFEE.

The coffee industry on these islands is bravely pushing forward. A few years ago there was nothing done in the way of scientific planting, our coffee came almost entirely from North and South Kona, where the trees were uncared for and allowed to grow as they pleased. The undergrowth choked them, the berries in a large number of cases grew far out of reach of the pickers, who used to spread a mat under the trees and wait for something to give them a shake. A good quarter of the crop used to be lost.

Now every thing is changed. Coffee is planted on scientific principles, the trees are properly cultivated, not allowed to put forth their strength into wood and leaves only. To reach this position several gentlemen have acted as pioneers, who boldly went into the work and of course made mistakes by which those who followed them profited. Foremost among the pioneers stands Mr. Rycroft of Pohoiki and Olaa, Puna. Mr. Rycroft's plantation at Pohoiki is a picture. The trees are regular in their rows, those in bearing are loaded with fruit which is easily picked by hand. The ground between the rows is kept as clean as a flower bed in a lady's garden. Another pioneer is Mr. Miller of the Hawaiian Coffee and Tea Company of North Kona, Hawaii. He has shown the Kona people how to plant coffee and has completely revolutionized the industry in that locality. Mr. Sunter proved a hardy pioneer along the volcano road and it was from his original plantation, now owned by Captain Eldert of Puna, that the first direct shipment of coffee from Hilo to the Coast was made.

Thanks to the courtesy of Mr. T. G. Thrum, we are enabled to give our readers the latest statistics with regard to coffee-growing on these islands. There are in all, according to the best estimates, 4806 acres under coffee cultivation in the various districts at the present time. This is divided as follows: Newly cleared land, 777 acres—land newly planted, 1484 acres—land having trees from one to three years old, 1882 acres, and land having plants in full bearing, 663 acres. These are most important statistics. They give us a bright outlook for the future.

In the Olaa District there are fifty plantations, the largest among these being that of the Kona Coffee and Commercial Company—a misleading name to some, for this company has nothing to do with the District of Kona. This company has 50 acres newly cleared land, 75 acres newly planted and 75 acres with plants from one to three years old. Mrs. Hattie Lewis has 30 acres newly cleared, 50 acres newly planted and 30 acres with trees from one to three years. The Kona report thirty-four plantations. Of these the Hawaiian Coffee and Tea Company easily stands first with 30 acres newly planted, 147 acres with trees from one to three years and 3000 trees in bearing. J. Monsarrat follows with 70 acres newly planted, 60 acres of young trees and 10,000 trees in bearing, while the McStocker company have 20 acres newly cleared, 50 acres newly planted, 70,000 young trees and 8000 trees bearing. Hamakua, Puna, and Laupahoehoe, North Hilo, all show up well in these statistics. Oahu has only three small plantations. Maui reports one, W. Y. Horner's, of Honokowai, Lahaina district. This has 50 acres newly planted and 100 acres with young trees.

It is by no means an over estimate to say that in four or five years from the present time the income from the coffee plantations will be close on to half a million dollars. This sum will not go into the pockets of capitalists alone, but will be divided among men of small means who have invested their modest savings in the industry. Coffee has a splendid future before it.

ROADS.

Roads! Roads! Roads! This is the crying need of many of the districts where the small farmers are settling. Especially is this the need of Puna. In that district there are thousands of acres, suited to all kinds of cultivation and capable of supporting a large population of thrifty agriculturists. A beginning has been made and a number of holdings have been taken up, but the people work at a great disadvantage. All supplies have to be taken out on the backs of pack animals, not even a two-wheeled brake can be driven over the bridge path. The houses, in consequence, have been built of sods instead of wood, in a few cases roofed with corrugated iron, but chiefly thatched with leaves. It requires a hardy pioneer indeed to meet the difficulties of living and of transport. A dozen or fifteen years ago the GAZETTE, then a weekly paper, advocated a special loan for roads. At that time the late Robert Sterling talked over a general plan for road-making throughout the country. Mr. Sterling was for many years connected with the public works department, and from frequent visits to the various islands of the group was very well acquainted with the needs of the various districts. Road-making out of the road tax is but a patch work affair. A little is done here, a little done there, but no sooner do the rains come than another patch has to be put on. Under these circumstances the present Government has done well by the public works, but they are hampered for means to carry them on efficiently. Road making systematically, and not by piecemeal, is really a good investment. Lands will bring double, treble, and even quadruple what they do now if there were only good roads for the produce to reach the sea. It would be far more profitable to build the road first and sell the land afterward—the Government realizations would be far larger. We have spoken only of the crying need of a road in Puna—there are many other places in equal need. The coming legislature should authorize a special loan for the roads. The increase in values and products would soon pay it off. Such money, however, should be used properly, and by that we mean should not be frittered away in patching roads in Honolulu, Wailuku or Hilo, but should be judiciously laid out in opening out country already settled or which is eligible for settlement. Good main roads should be made, capable of sustaining traffic of heavy wagons, and not such as will degenerate into a sea of mud after the first heavy shower.

The exercises at the Kamehameha schools yesterday were the yearly tribute paid by the recipients of the bounty of the late chiefs: Bernice Pauahi Bishop. Any one who visits that spacious domain on which the schools are located, who sees the youths, bright, intelligent, well trained, both morally and physically, will acknowledge how wisely the late chiefs provided for the spending of her wealth after her decease. The Kamehameha schools will be more enduring than their own walls. The influence of the schools will be felt in every town and hamlet of the group. Already have the graduates of the boys' school taken a prominent stand for advancing the good of their own race. As time rolls on intelligent and well trained helpers in the work of social and moral advancement will come from the girls' school, which has only been recently opened. The memory of Mrs. Bishop should not only be honored by the schools, but should be held in sweet remembrance by every one on the islands, who has the true interest of the country and its people at heart. She was a noble woman and her deeds live after her.

Morgan held a very successful sale of toys and fancy goods last night. His auction room was packed during the evening. Genuine bargains were secured.

DEVELOP THE ISLAND.

We have in Honolulu a large number of property holders and merchants. These all desire that the value of their property should increase, not lessen; that their business should increase, and not be merely divided. Such people must look ahead, and their best means of looking ahead is to develop their own island. We of Oahu are deeply interested in the development of every island in the group. The more development of Hawaii, Maui and Kanai there is, the better for us who form a part of the whole, but while taking a deep interest in the other islands, we have clearly neglected our own island.

We have here an island with a fine strip or ribbon of flat land skirting almost the whole shore. We have deep and fertile valleys running up into mountains by no means inaccessible or sterile. The total area is 600 square miles. Let us compare this with the island of Mauritius, whose climatic conditions are somewhat similar to ours. With an area of 700 square miles and with mountain masses far more broken and rugged than ours, that island supports a population of 350,000 people. We, with an area one-sixth less, support a population of a little over 30,000 people. The length of railway on Mauritius is eighty-seven miles, and it is so constructed that it taps every part of the island. The consequence is that in sugar alone over 200,000 tons are raised annually.

One primary need we have here is to push forward the railroad and thus properly develop our shore line. When the Ewa plantation was first talked of, it was at once said that the soil was of no use; that was proved to be wrong. Then there was no water; it was pumped up and an ample supply obtained. Then it was too expensive, and yet today Ewa plantation can make, and does make, sugar as cheap as such old-established and favorably situated estates as Hamakua and Paia. Besides the large tracts there are many rich patches which can only be utilized profitably if tapped by the railroad. They are not large enough to put up a mill for, but the cane can be raised and then freighted per car to the mill. This would give an opportunity to the small capitalist. It would be carrying out the co-operative idea, and it is in co-operation that part of the agricultural safety of the country lies.

But it is not only the sugar industry that we must look at. Think of Oahu with 30 acres of cleared land for coffee, 95 acres of newly planted trees, 61 acres of trees from 1 to 3 years old and about 10 acres of trees in bearing. Coffee grows as well here as any where, and with proper inducements the coffee area here might be made of vast importance, and yet at the present moment there are but 196 acres in cultivation for this product.

We want a proper bureau of information for this island as well as for the whole group. We should be able to take out settlers and show them the lands, let them see the means of transport and the advantages of living within easy reach of the city. Human beings are wanted, not hoofs and horns, human beings who will need lumber, hardware, dry goods, who will want schools, who will pay taxes and enable the state to grow to its proper proportions. Again we say develop Oahu!

BISHOP WILLIS is out in the Diocesan Magazine with his monthly snap at the Government of this country. This time he says there is "an impassable barrier between the Nation"—capital N—"and the present rulers." The good Bishop may rest in peace, there is no such impassable barrier as his distorted vision seems to see. The nation is behind the present rulers and means to strengthen their hands. The "Nation" the Bishop is thinking of is the little knot of disgruntled partisans that have been led astray by the teachings of the Diocesan Magazine. Between them and any free form of government there is indeed an "impassable barrier." Government for the good of the whole people is not among their wildest aspirations. The worthy prelate is accustomed to "impassable barriers," however, he has one in his own church.

If nothing were done to look after smugglers the opposition press would howl. When any attempt is made to put down smuggling they howl. The fact is the opposition is at heart deeply sympathetic with smugglers or any others engaged in evading the necessary laws.

A Significant Departure.

With the departure of another year when a review is made of the condition of affairs, it is only right that some thought be given to the physical body which enables everyone to battle with life's problem and figure for themselves the profit or loss on the trial balance sheet. Though the bank account may be large and each one's material gain be great, it would not be surprising if it suddenly dawned upon many that good health has been greatly impoverished by the low condition of the blood. It is in this state that the lactic acid in the vital fluid attacks the fibrous tissues, particularly the joints, making known the local manifestations of rheumatism. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla the great blood purifier, a positive and permanent cure for rheumatism. HOBSON DRUG CO., wholesale agents.

Timely Topics

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

You often hear the remark made about "Silver Beauties" but we are the first to adopt the phrase "Aluminum Beauties."

These goods are one of the many useful as well as ornamental articles we offer our patrons for the holidays.

ALUMINUM TOILET SETS

These goods are something new in Honolulu and should be seen to be appreciated.

The sets consist of hand mirrors, comb and brush. They are guaranteed PURE ALUMINUM and will not tarnish like Sterling Silver, is not as heavy and has no plating to wear off. In speaking of the merits of the Hair Brush we are warranted in saying that it is the most sanitary brush made, the entire surface is aluminum, and the bristles besides being surrounded by the aluminum, are securely held in a strong cement that is absolutely unaffected by water, whereas the wooden blocks ordinarily used, quickly shrink from frequent wetting and drying and become loose, and it is impossible to keep them clean.

We have these sets in engraved back and raised gold filigree work. The combs in white celluloid and tortoise shell. The mirrors are of the best French plate and heavily silvered. These goods are remarkably cheap; you will be surprised when you hear the price. In connection with these goods we wish to mention our Pocket Whiskey Flask. This article is made of heavy silver with neat design in silver and enamel. Especially appropriate for gifts to your traveling friends.

The Bradley and Hubbard Lamp is the standard for the world. Where you see the stamp B. & H. on a lamp you can rest assured that you are getting the BEST. It gives the best light, is as easy to light as gas and has the double center draught. No soiling of hands in extinguishing or lighting of this lamp. We carry a fine line of this lamp in the Piano, (with stand) Banquet, Study, Hanging and wrought iron hanging styles.

Another neat contrivance is the 5 o'clock Tea Lamp, placed on a wrought iron stand with Brass Lamp and Kettle, and is a work of art in metal goods.

When making presents to your friends why not give then something useful instead of an article that is all for show. They will constantly use any or all of these articles we have mentioned, and consequently their attention will always be attracted to the articles and the donor.

The Kinau will leave Honolulu on Monday, December 30th, at 3 p. m., and will return to this port during the afternoon of January 7th. The change in the vessel's sailing time was to avoid spending New Year on the deep blue sea. See notice to shippers elsewhere.

KONA COFFEE YIELD. New Steamer for Hilo Trade. Choice Oranges From Kona.

The coffee industry in Kona is exceedingly bright. It is now harvest time, and from all of the coffee plantations, as well as in every shady dell, coffee is being picked and shipped. One of the largest crops will be from the estate of the Hawaiian Coffee and Tea Company, which will probably yield not far from 15,000 pounds. C. D. Miller, its manager, reports the most satisfactory results at an elevation of from 1000 to 2000 feet. The blight has entirely left the plants in his care and the trees now appear thrifty.

It is rumored that the new 650 ton vessel now being built for the I. L. S. S. Co. of Honolulu is intended for the Hilo trade.

It is worthy of note that Kona is picking and shipping large quantities of choice oranges this year.—Hilo Tribune.

Y. H. I. Social.

The Y. H. I. had a little social time among themselves at their hall last night, and it is needless to say spent a most enjoyable evening. Five tables were devoted to cards; afterwards light refreshments were served, to which the boys did ample justice. The musically-inclined rendered various songs, and everyone in the room joined in the chorus.

Nearly a Runaway.

A calm and peaceful looking horse was suddenly awaked by a troublesome fly outside Thrum's book store yesterday morning and broke loose from the hitching rope and tore the bridle into several pieces. He was about to run away when a stalwart young man stepped forward, grabbed the animal by the ears and enforced submission.

PALETTE AND BRUSH.

Howard Hitchcock Writes of the Kilohana Art League.

Last Open Week of the Association. Present Exhibition a Very Creditable Affair—Marine Studies.

Kilohana Art League exhibition has been open now nearly a month. This being its last open week, it has been suggested that a few remarks on the work there exhibited would not be out of place. I take it for granted that all who would be interested in reading this have already visited the exhibition.

In my own judgment the present exhibition is a very creditable affair when everything is taken into consideration; the limited number of professional artists, the isolation from all art centers with their advantages for study and comparison, and the few opportunities amateurs here have heretofore had for study and advancement. One of the primary objects of the Art League is to afford such an opportunity—and I believe it is justified in feeling itself successful to a certain degree. It must be remembered our limitations are marked; that the League has had to work within specified bounds. Taken as a whole, the present exhibition is as good, and in some respects better, than any preceding.

The work of Kate More Wells is in itself an attraction, and serves admirably as a foil to the smaller canvasses surrounding it, with its vigorous handling. It presents strong examples of broad brushwork—especially instructive to the student and seen with an artist's eye. The atmosphere and diffused light in No. 18 is especially charming, while the children grouped about the table are naturally at their play, and not posing "to be looked at."

Among the works of other artists are a number of marines, which show a feeling for our softer atmospheric effects, and which, while modest in scope, give promise of work on sight lines.

Several still life studies show a conscientious, careful study of local color in painting flowers, though in some the ensemble of the group as a whole, was not fully enough considered. These flower pieces serve to vary the large line of landscapes. A study of Hau blossoms in particular shows qualities that should be noted, but when one attempts to mention the works in detail the limits set in a note of this nature are exceeded.

I would like to state here that the Kilohana Art League desires all who are following lines of original production in art work to join and become exhibitors in these semi-annual exhibitions. I shall be pleased to meet any such at my studio any Friday afternoon, from 1 to 4 p. m. and give any information that may be sought concerning the Art League.

NOW A STRANGE STEAMER

Captain Clarke Saw One While Crossing Maui Channel.

Deputy Marshal Hitchcock Is Investigating—Some Excitement Caused by the News.

Instead of small schooners to chase in quest of opium smugglers, the tug Eleu will probably have to test her speed with a steam vessel. Captain Clarke of the steamer Kinau has given the authorities information that has caused a great deal of excitement.

The captain reports having seen a strange steamer to the windward as he was coming through the Maui channel Tuesday. The light appeared between Miller's Hill and Kinau light, and the captain at first thought it was the Iwalani or some other island steamer. On his return to port, however, he found that no vessel from here could have possibly been in that vicinity.

It was about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning when the strange vessel was seen, and both Captain Clarke and Purser Beckley are positive that it was a steamer. The vessel was steaming to windward, and owing to the dim light they were unable to make out her size or appearance. The matter was reported to Marshal Brown and Deputy Marshal Hitchcock and detailed to make an investigation.

AT THE CENTRAL UNION

Reception to Deputation of A. B. C. F. M. from Japan.

PRESENTED TO PRESIDENT DOLE.

Religious and Educational Institutions Visited—Drive to Waikiki—All Delighted with what they Saw—Farewell at the China—Work in Japan.

The deputation of the A. B. C. F. M., returning from Japan on the China, took advantage of the ten hours' stay in Honolulu to see something of the religious and educational work. It had been hoped that there would be time for a public meeting at Kawaiahaeo church with the Hawaiians in the evening, but the early departure of the steamer prevented carrying out that part of the program.

On arriving again at Central Union church, the Honolulu ladies with their usual skill and facility had prepared a bounteous collation, salad, curries, bread and cake, with Kona coffee as only the Central Union people know how to prepare it.

On arriving again at Central Union church, the Honolulu ladies with their usual skill and facility had prepared a bounteous collation, salad, curries, bread and cake, with Kona coffee as only the Central Union people know how to prepare it.

Taking carriages again the party visited the Chinese and Portuguese Churches, Lunalilo Home, Oahu College, the rooms of the Hawaiian Board, the Y. M. C. A. Hall and the Public Library.

NOT IN SECRET SERVICE. Marshal Brown Certifies that C. H. White is not a Special.

SIR:—There is a rumor in circulation in Honolulu at present, and which has been in existence for many months, that I am, and have been, employed in the secret service of the Government.

I have to the present time simply tried to "live the matter down," but as I have learned that a man named Osmer, in an affidavit made by him on February 14 last, which has been used officially by the Hawaiian Republic, states that he told Mr. E. B. Thomas that I was employed in the secret service, and that, according to his own language, was "giving you fellows away"—whoever they may be—I must now ask you for a distinct contradiction of this, as it is well known that Osmer was in the employ of the department of which you are the head.

The insinuation in this man Osmer's affidavit that I was working or taking any part against the Government is absolutely untrue. I took the oath to the Republic of Hawaii in August, 1894, my letters of denization are dated September 7, 1894, and I am not ashamed of either. I have never had, nor have I now, any inclination to oppose the present Government, nor can anything ever influence me to do so. I ask you, therefore, in your capacity as head of the Police Bureau, to state officially, in writing, that I have never been on the pay rolls of your department or any other of which you have knowledge, so that I can publicly contradict these false statements. I do not ask this for any reason of enmity or animosity to yourself, or the department, or to our Government, but simply because it has injured me (and will continue to do so) to be classed as a spy or any one who has at any time given information of any kind to the police authorities. So in justice to myself I ask that you will certify that I have never been engaged in any such work.

I am, sir, yours truly, C. HENRY WHITE. MARSHAL'S OFFICE, HONOLULU, H. I., Dec. 11, 1895. DEAR SIR:—In reply to your communication of this date requesting me to certify that you are not in the employ of this department, I beg to state that I am willing to do so and do hereby so certify that during my incumbency as Marshal, you have not been in any manner connected with this department and to the best of my knowledge you were not so connected prior to my appointment to such position.

Yours truly, A. M. BROWN, Marshal Republic Hawaii

COMPANY D PROTESTS.

Action Repudiated in Asking for Outside Officers. There was a spirited meeting of Company D Wednesday. An item in one of the afternoon papers stating that no election of officers would be held caused some misunderstanding, as it was generally believed such was to have taken place. It was finally ascertained that no election would be held, and other business was proceeded with.

T. P. Severin read a resolution in connection with the request to Lieutenant W. E. Wall, of the Sharpshooters, to be a candidate for first lieutenant of Company D. After citing the resolution adopted by the Sharpshooters, the document viewed with astonishment and indignation that Company D found itself in the position of a suppliant for leadership. Also that the recent suggestion for lieutenant of Company D was without warrant, no action of the kind having been taken by the company.

The noted lecturer has been in poor health for some months, his mind becoming impaired as a result. He insists of thinking that death is near for both himself and his wife, who is accompanying him.

Central Union Officers. At a meeting of Central Union church last evening the following officers were elected: Dr. Whitney and R. W. Andrews, deacons; Rev. S. E. Bishop and William Boyd, members of the standing committee; Miss H. S. Judd and Mrs. Andrew Brown, deaconesses; W. W. Hall, clerk; T. R. Robinson, treasurer; H. Waterhouse, J. Shaw and Alexander Young, trustees; A. B. Wood, Sunday school superintendent, and Professor French and E. A. Jones, assistants.

The challenge is the outcome of considerable talk that has been indulged in on the subject recently.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.

Petition to Legislature for Saloons to Close at 6 p. m. There was a very good attendance at the regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. in the parlors of the Central Union church Tuesday afternoon.

The committee from the Loyal Legion reported that they had been addressed by Mrs. McCully-Higgins and Mrs. Thrum at the last meeting. Miss Mary Green made her usual report on the work among Hawaiians and spoke of everything pertaining thereto as being in a very flourishing condition.

Miss Mattie Chamberlain reported on the Woman's Exchange, of which the ladies of the W. C. T. U. have charge. While everything is in a very promising condition, the ladies feel that they are not getting the patronage which a community so fond of the good things of life should give them.

A committee was appointed to confer with the various employers of the city with a view to changing the regular pay day from Saturday to some other in the week. It is a recognized fact that Saturday is one upon which more pleasure is expected than any other during the week.

A committee was appointed to draw up a petition to be presented to the next Legislature, asking that the saloons be made to close their doors at 6 p. m. every day.

THE CONSPIRACY CASES

Judge Perry Grants a Continuance Until Next Monday.

AFFIDAVIT FILED IN COURT.

F. H. Hayselden, of Lanai, Cited as an Important Witness—The Defendants Wanted Island of Lanai for Colonization Purposes—Other Facts, Etc.

The hearing of the charges of conspiracy against W. J. Sheridan and Dr. Frank Underwood attracted a large crowd to the District court Tuesday morning. Miss Kate Field was among the curious throng. The audience was booked for disappointment, as the hearing was again postponed, this time until next Monday.

Attorney Robertson appeared for the defendants and was ready to proceed, but the prosecution asked for another continuance on account of the absence of a very material witness. In asking for more time, Deputy Attorney-General A. W. Carter filed an affidavit sworn to before Deputy Marshal Hitchcock. The petition stated that F. H. Hayselden was a most important witness for the prosecution, but at present was on the island of Lanai. Hayselden had been subpoenaed to appear on the 23d of December, which would be next Monday, and a continuance to that date was asked for in order to have his testimony. The affidavit went on to say that Hayselden is a resident of Lanai, and while on that island he was approached by the defendants, Sheridan and Underwood. Their opening talk was ostensibly for the purpose of procuring the island of Lanai for colonization purposes. Their main motive, however, was soon apparent by the further talk of the men. It was to the effect of securing Lanai for establishing a nucleus on that island for the overthrow of the Republic of Hawaii.

Sheridan stated to Hayselden that he was able to procure a large body of men and all the necessary arms and ammunition to do the work. The men also informed Hayselden that they were deputed to secure these islands for the purpose of establishing a lottery for a syndicate in San Francisco. For their assistance in overthrowing the present government, they were to secure from the to be restored Queen, upon her reinstatement, the necessary franchise for conducting the lottery scheme. Sheridan and Underwood claimed that they had already signed agreements with responsible parties to the effect that this franchise was to be their reward for the assistance of themselves and associates in San Francisco in overthrowing the present Government and restoring the monarchy.

For his assistance, Mr. Hayselden was to be given a nice, comfortable Government position, besides a money consideration. He gave the men no encouragement, and refused to give a final answer unless he was given further time to consider the matter. Meanwhile he communicated with the authorities.

Attorney Carter attached his signature to the document, and, on the strength of the above stated facts, asked for a continuance until next Monday in order to secure the presence of Mr. Hayselden in court. His petition was granted by Judge Perry without any objection from the defendants' counsel.

LIEUT. WALL REMAINS.

Sharpshooters Refuse to Sanction his Retirement.

Was Wanted as First Lieutenant of Company D—Could Not Accept if Opposition was Met With.

It isn't often that a man hears as many pleasant things about himself as was expressed about Lieut. Walter E. Wall at the special meeting of the Sharpshooters Company Tuesday, but he bore them with becoming dignity nevertheless.

For several days there has been more or less talk about Mr. Wall going into the volunteer military service as lieutenant of Company D. The gentleman had been prevailed upon to accept the position, and much pressure had been brought to bear to make Mr. Wall believe he could best serve his country by joining forces with the military. As was just and proper under the circumstances the crack shot of the riflemen and leader of a band of men good and true, would not consent to leave the Sharpshooters without first getting the sense of the company on his retirement. He found that out last night and a great deal more. If a gentleman ever had occasion to feel proud of achievements, certainly the records of the utterances made by members of the Sharpshooters ought to satisfy Mr. Wall of the aloha in which he is held by the organization.

The meeting was opened by Lieut. Wall, with Secretary Johnson at his post. After the roll had been called and seventeen members answered to their names, the object of the gathering was explained by the acting commander. He believed it was well known to all present. Certain inducements had been made to him to accept the first lieutenantcy of Co. D, it being pointed out that he could be more useful to the cause by becoming connected with the military. No promise could be made without first laying the matter before the Sharpshooters, with whom he had been intimately associated and for whom he had the kindest of feeling. If there was the least opposition the proposition would not be entertained. Mr. Wall then asked to retire and let the Sharpshooters discuss the matter. This was voted down for the reason that the members were in the habit of saying what they had to say about each other to their faces. Applause greeted this remark and the lieutenant occupied the chair throughout the meeting. Explanation was made that invitations had been given Colonel McLean, Major Jones and McLeod to be present and take part in the discussion.

Second Lieutenant J. L. McLean introduced the following resolution, which received a second immediately after being read, followed by lusty cheers:

Whereas our First Lieutenant, Mr. W. E. Wall, has been asked by the Commander-in-Chief and certain officers of the Regiment, to run for election as first Lieutenant of Co. "D" N. G. H., and whereas, his election to such office, would cause his withdrawal from his present position as officer and member of the 1st Co Sharpshooters of Hawaii, and whereas such action on his part, would greatly injure and impair the present efficiency of the Company he at present commands, therefore he it resolved that the members of the 1st Co. of Sharpshooters of Hawaii, in special meeting assembled, do hereby protest against the efforts made, to cause his withdrawal from said Company and earnestly request him to decline the office offered him, and to remain an officer and member of the First Company of Sharpshooters of Hawaii. While so feeling, we wish to express our hearty sympathy with all those who are trying to improve the efficiency of the military.

Mr. McLean spoke feelingly of the good work performed by Lieutenant Wall and was not in favor of his leaving the Sharpshooters. Colonel McLean outlined the necessity for a good man being selected to build up Company D. In looking around for suitable timber Mr. Wall had been selected. He was just the man wanted, and hoped the Sharpshooters would consent to his retirement and addition to the military, he believing that the gentleman could best serve the country by accepting a unanimous call to the first lieutenantcy of Company D. Major Jones added his endorsement of Lieutenant Wall's fitness for the position, and spoke of his sterling work as a member of the Sharpshooters and as a leader of men.

Almost every member present spoke on the matter of Lieutenant Wall severing his connection with the Sharpshooters. The expressions left no doubt in the minds of those present that such was not desired. So able a lieutenant as Mr. Wall has proven to be could ill be spared. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Lieutenant Wall informed the meeting that he would not entertain the proposal, and the meeting closed with loud, long and continued cheers.

CO. G ELECTION.

Jno. M. Kea Captain and Chas. Wilcox First Lieutenant.

The special meeting of Co. G Wednesday was largely attended, 57 members being present. Captain Camara, of Co. C, presided. Captain Broome was an interested spectator.

The first business was the election of a captain to succeed the late Henry Kaia. There were two candidates, First Lieut. J. M. Kea and Second Lieut. Charles Wilcox. The former received 44 votes and was declared elected. Second Lieut. Wilcox was promoted to the first lieutenantcy without a dissenting voice, Secretary Jas. K. Keola being instructed to cast a ballot to that end.

The election for a second lieutenant was the most interesting of the evening. There were five candidates, viz: S. L. Kekumano, Gus Rose, E. S. Boyd, I. H. Sherwood and Joseph Morse. After the first ballot, Boyd and Sherwood withdrew. Kekumano also withdrew after the second ballot. The third count resulted in favor of Joseph Morse.

The newly elected officers will appear for examinations before a board composed of Majors Jones and McLeod and Captain Camara during the next two weeks. The result of the election was satisfactory to the company, and many happy expressions were made by different members. Co. G has the best Glee Club in the National Guard.

A STRANGE SCHOONER.

Missionary Packet Logan Towed In by the Eleu.

HAS LARGE CARGO OF BIBLES.

Little Vessel Becalmed and Drifting Southward When Sighted by the Tug—En Route to Caroline Islands. To Be Overhauled and Provisioned.

About half the population of Honolulu was on the water front Tuesday p. m. to catch a glimpse of the terrible-looking mysterious schooner which the tug Eleu has been chasing for the past two weeks. Their curiosity was gratified to the extent of seeing the tug having a schooner in tow; but, instead of a formidable-looking enemy, they gazed on a handsome little white schooner, the Robert W. Logan, twenty-nine days from San Francisco. Bibles constituted her cargo instead of opium. The schooner was very, very glad to meet the tug, having been away from land much longer than her occupants desired.

The Robert W. Logan left San Francisco November 19th, and has been becalmed off the islands since last Saturday. She was drifting around Waialua when the tug sighted her, and gave desired aid.

The Logan is commanded by Captain I. Bray, who is accompanied by his wife and daughter. G. I. Foster, the mate, also has his wife with him. Henry Gilman of Boston and Hugo Fischer, a newspaper man of San Francisco, were passengers on the trip. She is bound for Ruk, an island of the Caroline group, where she is going to do missionary work.

Captain Bray was formerly in charge of the missionary schooner Morning Star, in which vessel he visited Honolulu some years ago. The schooner will be completely overhauled here and her stores replenished. Her day for sailing is uncertain as yet. Captain Bray reports encountering a series of calms and head winds and was very glad to dock.

The voyage consumed just twenty-nine days. The Robert W. Logan is sailing to the Caroline islands to do missionary work for the Mortlock Mission, which has several members already on that group.
