ASHFORD TALKS.

He Expresses His Views of the Hawaiian Situation.

Volney V. Ashford, the leader of the recent conspiracy in Honolulu and who has been connected in nearly all the revolutionary eruptions in the Hawaiian Islands since 1889, is at the Vendome for a few days.
Mr. Ashford arrived in San Francisco about four weeks ago on a sailing vessel from one of the islands south of Hawaii as the wear and tear of the political climate did not agree with him. He was seen at the hotel last evening by a Mercury reporter, and in regard to the political condition of the islands at the present time he said:

"It is not a very good country to go to live in just at present. The scenery of the islands is grand and this is worth seeing, but the present revolutionary condition of the country is unpleasant.

"When the King died, the present Queen was looked upon as a patriotic woman who would strive to give the natives their rights. They were mistaken, however. Mr. Ashford spoke of the necessity of some government taking a hand in the Hawaiian problem and says if the United States does not, the Japanese Government will. The Japanese are flooding the country.

"The late political troubles in the islands," he said, "the arrests which were made, and the fuss over them, were causeless. The Hawaiian Patriotic League, of which some people said I was President, was designed for purposes which were best for the islands. The day before the arrest of some of the members of the League, two of the Queen's subjects came to R. W. Wilcox, a member of the League, and said that the Queen wanted to see him, as she was about to have the constitution of 1887 repealed at the next meeting of the Legislature. Wilcox quarreled with her. The palace party say they could not use us, so they got out warrants for our arrest.
It was the intention of the Queen to use us to establish the Constitution. If the Queen had been dethroned a new independent republic would have been organized. We were tried, and by an arrangement with the judge, we were discharged, and before the Attorney-General had time to file another complaint I had left the islands, and the judge went on a yachting trip to avoid issuing the warrant. I later got on board a sailing vessel and came to San Francisco.
Some country will get the islands.
People in this country say the islands are worthless, but before long, if the United States Government does not act, some other government will."
(San Jose Mercury.)

Bantams Again.

Mr. Editor: The appearance of the Liberal seems to have fallen like a bombshell amongst the small fry, and scattered their brainy intellect all roads. One thing may be promised, however, that, as they commenced to throw mud, their case will be attended to in the next issue of the Liberal.

VERITAS.
Honolulu, Sept. 8, 1892.

Where's the Coin?

Mr. Editor: The lottery scheme is not a joke. It is a piece of impudent assurance on the part of a handful of Yankee fillibusters.
They have associated with them,
the names of some of our own citizens, who ought to know better than to pose in a ridiculous tableau.

They talk glibly of paying five hundred thousand dollars a year for a lottery franchise. What nonsense!

I do not believe that Messrs.
Phillips, Williams, or Foote ever received a nickel from the promoters of the impudent scheme. Lots of golden promises no doubt! But the voters of Hawaii have the right to challenge our three friends named above, to show the coin.

Put half a million dollars in gold on exhibition somewhere, and people may be found to listen to your "golden era."

The people of this country may be pretty gullible, but they are not fools.

Promises or affidavits are not wanted. Its the coin, and nothing else.

SAVED!

What is saved? Your money and valuable papers, by providing yourself with a reliable safe. Not simply an iron box, stuffed with kakaako sand, but a trustworthy safe, lined with steam-generating cement. Such a safe will carry your treasures safely through a fire.

The HALL'S PATENT SAFE always protects, both against the fiery elements and foot-pads. Throw the money intended for the purchase of another make of safe, into Pearl Harbor, and do not sus-tain a far greater loss by trusting your property in an inferior, and therefore a dangerous safe.

It costs money to make good safes; it costs money to make good sugar, but a very cheap article is likely to contain some sand in its composition.

THE DAILY

PACIFIC COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER

SIX-PAGE EDITION

Be just and fear not; let all the ends thou aim'st at be Thy Country's, thy God's, and Truth's.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1892.

The Bulletin, in its last night's issue, charges the ADVERTISER with discharging S. K. Pua from its office for being one of the followers of Mr. Wilcox. We do not charge the Bulletin with intentional misrepresentation, but as a matter of fact, the statement in question is absolutely false. Mr. Pua was taken out of this office one night by a warrant of arrest. His place was filled, and six or eight months later he came back and was employed in the job office, but did not stay, because in the opinion of the foreman he did not earn $20 a week, and, as a member of the Typographical Union, he could not take less.

THE CASE OF THE QUEEN AGAINST THE CONSTITUTION.

We publish this morning a full account of the political events of the past few days, which will enable every reader to judge of the situation for himself. Everyone has known it to be critical, but how critical can only be realized after reading this account. The country is passing through a constitutional crisis. The Queen is pitted against the Legislature. The Law and the Constitution are arrayed against Personal Prerogative. Which is going to win?

The facts published this morning show that the reason why no Cabinet can be formed is that the field of choice is limited by the personal preferences of the Queen. She is determined not to commission certain prominent leaders of the three parties, because she does not like them; or because she believes they will dismiss from office a man whom she wishes to retain. There is a spirit of conciliation among the factions of the Legislature to-day. They have united upon a principle, and have thus far stood firm in maintaining it. Under the circumstances, it would not be difficult to form a Cabinet which would command the support of a majority of the Assembly, but there is just one thing which stands in the way and that is the arbitrary will of the sovereign.

We are anxious to speak of Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani in terms of respect, such as are suitable to her elevated station. But it is also necessary to speak the truth, and the truth is that she is on a wrong and dangerous path. The Constitution, in making the tenure of office of Cabinet Ministers dependent on the will of the Legislature, does not take account of the personal preferences of the sovereign. The monarch who wishes to govern constitutionally must subordinate those preferences to the will of the people. Imagine Queen Victoria refusing to call Mr. Gladstone because she disliked him or because she feared he would remove some government official whom she wished to retain. Queen Liliuokalani's rights in this matter are precisely the same as Queen Victoria's. The two do not differ one jot. It may be added that if Queen Victoria should insist on such a course the days of the British monarchy would be numbered.

The great stumbling block between the Queen and her people is, of course, C. B. Wilson. But the question now involved is greater than that of his merits and demerits. There is a principle in play, by comparison with which the person of Mr. Wilson sinks into insignificance. Is the Queen to be allowed to dictate to the Cabinet whom it shall appoint or dismiss? Is the policy of the Government to be shaped by the will of the people or the whim of the Sovereign? Is the ruler to usurp functions which are not hers, or is her power to be confined within the bounds set to it by the law and the Constitution? These are the questions which the events of the past few days have put in issue. Their solution is in the hands of the Legislature. On their courage and steadfastness the fate of Constitutional liberty in Hawaii depends. If they are true, the nation is safe. If they prove weak or wavering, this country will be no place for Anglo-Saxon freemen.

What the outcome may be for the moment no man can say. But the final issue cannot be uncertain. The experience of the world teaches that in every struggle between king and people, the people win in the end. Monarchical usurpation is certain to be punished. The ruler who is so fond as to precipitate a conflict invites his own destruction. It will not prove otherwise here. Kings and queens must yield if they wish to avoid being discarded altogether. In the nineteenth century, they are not the highest trumps. We earnestly counsel Queen Liliuokalani, in the interest of her own family and throne, to seek to govern solely as a constitutional monarch, with strict respect to the forms of law.

The Legislature cannot accept any Cabinet not selected in the manner laid down by the majority. If it stands faithfully to its guns, it will earn the gratitude of the community; if it recedes, it will humiliate itself and the nation.

FOREIGN OPINION.

A Few Remarks on the Odious McKinley Bill.

The finances of the Hawaiian Kingdom have become so depressed lately that the Legislature has passed a bill placing a duty on a long list of articles which have hitherto been admitted into the islands free, says the San Francisco Chronicle. As there is not the slightest intention on the part of the islanders to engage in the production of any of the articles placed on the new tariff list, it must be set down as a strictly revenue tariff. Its effect will no doubt be to diminish the purchasing power of the islands, for there is no escape from a tax for revenue only. Where it falls there it lies. When our free-trade contemporaries begin to note the diminishing exports, they will probably say "I told you so," but if they do, the protectionist will probably call attention to the fact that the trade hitherto enjoyed with the islands was chiefly owing to the fact that we made them an annual present of five or six million dollars. On the same terms we might renew our exports, with the islands, for the islanders charge all their woes to the infamous McKinley bill, which put sugar on the free list.

Rice and Flour.

Regarding these articles in San Francisco, at the date of the sailing of the Australia, Williams, Dimond & Co.'s Circular says:

RICE.—The tone of the market is decidedly lower, owing to overstock. About half the importations ex Australia were sold from wharf at $4.25 to $4.30. This is the lowest point reached in several years and with present outlook will not be higher for some time. We quote price to-day for Island $4.25. JAPAN.—Large stocks arrived by steamer, and cannot be sold except at a loss. Importers will have to carry and work off in small lots. With a large lot Rangoon fully due (a similar rice), we cannot see what the immediate future will be for Japan. We quote price nominal, $4.50.

FLOUR.—G. G. Ex. Fam., $4.25 per bbl, f. o. b.; G. G. El Dorado, $3.25, per bbl, f. o. b.; Crown, $4.20 per bbl, f. o. b. There has been a combination formed of some of the flour mills, but there are still several large mills outside this trust, and we think competition will be very keen during the next few months.

The Illustrated Tourists' Guide

That popular work, "THE TOURISTS' GUIDE THROUGH THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS," is meeting with a steady sale both at home and abroad. Tourists and others visiting these islands should be in possession of a copy of it. It is a perfect mine of information relating to the scenes and attractions to be met with here. Copies in wrappers can be had at the publication office, 46 Merchaut street, and at the News Dealers. Price 60 cents.

Hawaiian Hardware Co., L'd.

Monday, Sept. 5, 1892.

Fashions for ladies usually strike the islands about a fortnight after they are comfortably settled in San Francisco, but the latest, the very latest must have been carried through to Australia. It is to be hoped the innovation will remain there. Fancy waiving out with your very best girl and having to hustle around for a shingle nail when her "gal-lus" break down. Imagine the embarrassing position for a young lady to have to excuse herself from her newest fellow to go and make repairs to her embroidered suspenders. The fashion should "die a bornin'."

For the convenience of people who prefer saving their horse rather than have it wear out by frequent drawing across the sanded walks we have imported a number of very superior hose reels. It is a well known fact that more rubber hose is ruined by pulling it around the yard than by any other means. By using a reel the life of the hose will be increased two, possibly three years, and the reel will pay for itself many times over. They are a convenient article in addition to their saving expense.

The barkentine "Wilder" brought us many new goods, but nothing more useful than the Clothes Wringers. There is probably not a house in Honolulu where certain pieces of the weekly wash are not attended to. Next to one of our new Charcoal Irons with fluting attachments, there is nothing more generally needed than a wringer. These we mention are the very latest design. The Charcoal Iron of which we have only a few is made of the best quality of metal, nickel plated on the bottom and gilded on sides and top. Just under the handle is the fluter which is readily removed and attached to the side of the iron. One heating of the iron is sufficient for an hour's fluting. By using a fluter made on such a simple plan as this, there is less liability of injury to the apparel.

We have advertised a great many things in this column and invariably called attention to the usefulness of the article mentioned; so often has this been done that many people who read the ad. look upon this part of the statements as mere matter of form made so by force of habit. This is not the case. In most instances the article is given a fair trial by one of our employees a part of whose duties it is to investigate each of the advertised merits of an article and search for undiscovered virtues. In this way we are sure our statements will not be questioned. Very few houses go to this trouble. We do.

We call your attention to an enormous paper bag hanging just inside our door-way. From its size you might suppose it was intended for a young lady's wardrobe; it won't answer that purpose but it will hold a ball dress and have room to spare. The bag is moth-proof and is entirely free from the unpleasant odors which usually pervade clothing kept in campholene, etc. You'll find them convenient and cheap.

Have you tried taro-maloo?

A mail will be dispatched to San Francisco on the S. S. China today.

Miss Berry's select school for children, on Emma street, is now open.

The fleeing lottery scheme has died an unnatural death. Public opinion killed it.

Four engines will be used tomorrow afternoon at the line drill of the Fire Department.

A subscription list for the Liberal, the new paper, is open at the office, Cummins' Block.

The P. M. S. S. China will sail for San Francisco late this afternoon, the exact hour could not be learned last evening.

The Bishop Museum will be open to the public on Fridays from 9 until 12 o'clock a.m., and on Saturdays from 2 until 5 p.m.

The very efficient Marshal is notified that the che fa bank on Queen street has been running in full blast for the past two days.

This morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Pedlar, on Fort street, Jas. F. Morgan will hold a sale of household furniture.

The Legislature was in session just three minutes yesterday. A member remarked that if the Queen has her way there will be no further need of that body.

The stockholders of the Oahu Railway and Land Company will hold a special meeting, on next Monday morning at the Chamber of Commerce.

It has been suggested that the general public should subscribe enough money to purchase a cup, to be contested for by the Healani and the Myrtle boat clubs.

The residents at Waikiki are in good humor again, as the regular water supply is to be furnished them now, instead of the brackish water from "Mahope's" well.

The Board of Representatives of the Honolulu Fire Department held their regular monthly meeting last evening at the Bell Tower.

The bicycle school at the Army has caught public favor, and any day or evening a number of people can be seen at that place learning to ride the silent steed.

Miss Hattie N. Foster, whose marriage is noticed in this issue, is a daughter of the late Mr. Daniel Foster, of this city and Pahala, and sister of Judge Foster of the Police Court; she is, moreover, a native of Honolulu, and is well known to our citizens.

Mr. Edward S. Taylor, whose marriage is noticed in this issue, is announced elsewhere, is the eldest son of Mrs. Persis G. Taylor, of that city, and a member of the well-known firm of Baldwin, Taylor & Co. (Oils, Paints, Varnishes, etc.), of 112 Front street, San Francisco.

THE WATER SUPPLY.

Honolulu is in the Height of Another Drought.

That portion of the city mauka of King street was without water yesterday afternoon after 4 o'clock, caused by the lower reservoir running dry. Mr. J. C. White, Superintendent of the Water Works, was seen last night, and stated that at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon there were 73 pounds of pressure at the Electric Light Station, and during the afternoon it steadily declined, until about 4 o'clock, when not a single pound was registered.

Mr. White expects a repetition of last year's drought, and expressed the opinion that unless we have some rain soon, the experience of yesterday afternoon will be a common one for the district mentioned.

He made a wise suggestion which should be acted on by every housewife; it is for people living mauka of King street to store enough water in the morning to last through the day.

The wisdom of the suggestion will be seen when one considers that only one million gallons of water were expected to be collected last night and that it takes three million gallons to supply the city.

Store water in the morning, unless your dinner can be prepared without that common necessity.

A New Society.

New Yorkers have formed a society, with branches in Philadelphia and other American cities, for the suppression of the "intolerable annoyance created by the frequent noisy clanging of inharmonious church bells."

THE LEGISLATURE.

Eighty-Fifth Day.

THURSDAY, Sept. 8. The House met at 10:05 A.M. The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

The President stated that it had pleased Her Majesty to sign the following bills:

Bill 141, relative to authorizing the killing of the mynah bird.

Bill 129, relating to the erection of buildings within the fire limits of Honolulu.

Bill 142, relating to the disposition of Hospital tax funds.

Bill 28, relating to the amendment of the law relating to the Postal Savings Bank.

The President stated that he had heard nothing about a Cabinet. On motion of Noble Corwell, the House adjourned at 10:06 A.M.

THE HEALANI ANSWERED.

The Myrtle Club is Ready to Row Their Rivals.

The members of the different boat clubs were surprised yesterday morning, when a challenge appeared in the ADVERTISER from the captain of the Healani club to the captain of the Myrtles.

Members of the latter club remarked freely during the day that they were anxious to meet their rivals, but wanted a purse of some kind for the winner, but, as the Healani boys are adverse to rowing for money, no agreement could be arrived at.

In the appended acceptance of the challenge it will be noted that the race must be for a cup valued at $50, and, while it is not definitely known to be a fact, it is likely that the Healanis will accept the offer.

The Myrtle Boat Club hereby accepts the challenge of the Healani Boat Club to a six oared sliding-seat boat race, and agrees to all the conditions named therein, except that the race must be for a cup valued at $50, the losing crew (or the crew failing to row) to pay for same; and that the race be rowed on or after September 24, 1892.

It is desired that the above be answered within twenty-four hours from date.

J. A. LYLE, Captain, Myrtle Boat Club. Honolulu, Sept. 9, 1892.

OAHU CEMETERY.

A Meeting of the Association Held Yesterday Morning.

A statement prepared by the Secretary (Mr. Paty), which was taken from the cash book of the late Treasurer, A. J. Cartwright, was read; it covered the period beginning July 1, 1892, to September 1, 1892. The receipts during the time mentioned, from all sources, amounted to $9,995.12, and the expenditures for current expenses, improvements, etc., footed up $11,551.53.

After some discussion, the report was accepted, and further action was deferred thereon until the next meeting of the Association to be held on the 15th inst.

MORE DOPE FOR HAWAII.

The Halcyon May Pay Us a Visit In a Short Time.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Aug. 24.—The famous smuggling schooner Halcyon sailed from Victoria last night with 2590 pounds of opium and sixty Chinese on board. An agent of the Treasury Department who had the vessel under surveillance for several days reported the facts to the authorities at Washington, D. C., and orders have been issued by the Treasury Department notifying all revenue officers on the Pacific Coast to be on the alert to intercept the vessel. The crew is supplied with firearms and ammunition and the supposed destination of the vessel is the Oregon or California coast. The opium cargo is valued at $20,000, and if the cruise is successful a profit of $10,000 will be realized. The Halcyon is the fleetest yacht on the Pacific Coast, and the customs officers regard the task of overhauling her as very dangerous and prophesy bloodshed if it be attempted.

The New Hotel Diningroom.

The Hawaiian Hotel has an acquisition quite worthy of notice, having opened a private dining-room for ladies only.

It is so provided that a lady can with all propriety go alone to the Hotel for a meal or may entertain company without the embarrassing gaze of the other guests of the house.

This provision of the management is a modern convenience and will no doubt be greatly appreciated and patronized.

The British flag ship Warspite turns out to have done herself considerable damage in Discovery Passage. There are three places where the sheathing is torn away, and three holes are made in the false bottom. Some three or four of the big frames of steel or iron are badly bent having been jammed in by the force of the concussion. There were six fathoms of water where the chart gave seventy.

LONDON, August 22.—The British steamer Caradac, from Oran for Newcastle, has put into Spithead roadstead with her cargo burning. All efforts to extinguish the fire have proved unavailing, and it is probable the vessel will have to be scuttled.

Many American vessels, supposed to be seal poachers, are hanging around the northern islands of Japan. Some of them have landed armed parties, who have taken seals.

CAPE TOWN, August 22.—The British steamer Roma, from London for Brisbane, has been wrecked near Algoa bay. It is thought that everybody on board was drowned. Four bodies have already washed ashore.

Great Britain is again scheming to establish a naval station at Port Hamilton, on the Korean Coast.—[Hongkong paper.]

The United States steamer Alliance, which has been attached to the Asiatic squadron during the present commission, started from Shanghai, China, homeward bound for San Francisco, August 1st.

The court-martial on Commander McCurley of the steamer U. S. Alliance in regard to the stranding of that vessel on the 26th of February, 1892, was convened on the 11th of July, 1892, says the Japan Mail. There were two charges. First, violation of the 9th clause of article 8 of the articles for the government of the navy; second, violation of the 11th clause of the same article. Commander McCurley was found not guilty of the first charge, but guilty of the second.

"German Syrup"

Here is an incident from the South—Mississippi, written in April, 1890, just after the Grippe had visited that country. "I am a farmer, one of those who have to rise early and work late. At the beginning of last Winter I was on a trip to the City of Vicksburg, Miss., where I got well drenched in a shower of rain. I went home and was soon after seized with a dry, hacking cough. This grew worse every day, until I had to seek relief. I consulted Dr. Dixon who has since died, and he told me to get a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. Meantime my cough grew worse and we and then the Grippe came along and I caught that also very severely. My condition then compelled me to do something. I got two bottles of German Syrup. I began using them, and before taking much of the second bottle, I was entirely clear of the Cough that had hung to me so long, the Grippe, and all its bad effects. I felt tip-top and have felt that way ever since." PETER J. BIRIALS, JR., Cayuga, Hines Co., Miss.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH OF THE SITUATION.

Doings in Caucus—Peterson as a Ministry-Maker—No Anti-Wilsonites Need Apply.

It is due the members of the Legislature who have taken a stand concerning the Cabinet question, and due the community that a clear statement should be made of the situation, in order that the public may know what the issues are, and what is being done.

THE SITUATION.

The situation is as follows: On Tuesday, August 30th, the Legislature, by a vote of 31 to 10, voted want of confidence in the Cabinet.

On Wednesday, August 31st, Minister Parker announced to the House that the Cabinet had tendered their resignation, and that Her Majesty had requested them to retain their offices until a new Cabinet could be formed.

The Legislature forthwith adjourned, and since has continued to adjourn from day to day, awaiting the appointment by the Queen of a new Cabinet.

Up until Saturday night, September 3d, the Queen did not send for any of the members of the Legislature who voted in the majority on the want of confidence resolution, to form the new Cabinet, nor to advise her in the matter; although she was numerously advised by others, and persons of more or less semblance of royal authority, were endeavoring to make cabinet combinations.

THE QUEEN'S REPLY.

On Monday morning she replied to the committee that they were too late; that she had already appointed a committee to select a Cabinet.

Immediately upon this reply being made known, a conference was had with the Liberal leaders, and it was agreed to hold a caucus of all who voted in favor of the resolution of want of confidence. Such a caucus was held on Monday afternoon, lasting from 2 o'clock until 5 o'clock.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The principle involved in the resolutions, and which the Legislature is now claiming and standing for, is the principle which, under like circumstances, has been claimed and established in England, viz: That the people are the source of all authority and all power; that they are represented by their elected representatives—the Legislature; that the Executive branch of the Government is at all times subject to the control of such representatives; that the Sovereign has no right to obtrude her individual likes and dislikes into the transaction of the public business; that in forming a new Cabinet the will of the majority of the House is to be taken into consideration, and govern the selection of the members, and not the private preferences of the Queen; that responsible persons who hold the delegated power of the people shall be the advisers of the Sovereign, instead of the horde of irresponsible backstairs politicians who always surround a court; in short, that a recognized leader of the opposition should be called to form the new Cabinet.

The resolutions were presented on Tuesday morning, and the Queen replied thereto on Wednesday morning accepting the principle claimed by the Legislature, and called Mr. Peterson to form the Cabinet.

THE DIMINUTIVE DICTIONATOR.

A further caucus of the opposition was held, and a committee was appointed to confer with Mr. Peterson. He first informed the committee that he would not take office himself. To the suggestion that in that case he should report to the Queen and advise her to call some member who would form and enter the Cabinet himself, he replied that he intended to try and form one without going into it himself. He further stated that there were no conditions attached to his selection of the Cabinet. A further development of the situation revealed the fact, however, that no one was considered available for Attorney General except Mr. Neumann, he coming to the front in all combinations, Mr. W. O. Smith being unavailable because his brother-in-law was said to be an annexationist, and Mr. C. L. Carter because he was not yet graduated. To the question whether the underlying reason why Mr. Neumann was available and the others were not was not because Her Majesty thought he would retain Mr. Wilson and the others might not, the cheering information is said to have been conveyed that no matter who was called as Attorney General, the Queen proposed to hold Mr. Wilson in office, which was afterwards qualified by the statement that he had not heard her say so in so many words. The names of various and sundry other persons were enumerated whom Her Majesty would not under any circumstances commission, including Mr. Thurston, owing to personal objections which she had to them.

LITTLE PETE OEDERATE.

Under these circumstances no agreement was come to between Mr. Peterson and the committee, and the latter went back to the caucus in the evening, whereupon the caucus adopted a resolution to the effect that the person called to form the Cabinet should himself go into it as its head, and that, as Mr. Peterson would not do this, he should advise Her Majesty and recommend her to call a member of the opposition who would do so.

THE QUEEN RESPONSIBLE.

Another twenty-four hours has rolled around; neither Mr. Peterson nor the Queen have been heard from; the Legislature is at a standstill; business is disturbed; the Treasury situation is daily becoming more serious, with no one but the temporary incumbent to grapple with the situation.

The one who is responsible for the further continuance of this situation is Her Majesty. Her plain duty is to send for a member of the Opposition and place upon him the responsibility of selecting his colleagues. This can be done at any time at an hour's notice. The Queen has in writing agreed to this method of procedure; will she live up to it, or will she continue to ignore the principle involved. The Legislature have taken a just stand in support of popular rights and representative government and against personal prerogative. They deserve the united support of the community.

A New Directory.

We are indebted to the Hawaiian News Company for a copy of Husted's Directory of the Hawaiian Kingdom, copies of which are now for sale by them. The volume is about the same size as the one for 1890, but not quite so thick. It contains Dove's new map of Honolulu, printed on very thin paper, which is more suitable for a book than those on thick paper, before referred to in this journal. There are 265 pages of names, averaging say 33 to a page, making 8750 names, not counting a few repetitions. Following the list of names, several pages are devoted to a classified business index. The remainder of the book is made up of local and foreign advertisements.

Besides the map referred to, the volume is embellished with a neat photograph of the crater as it now appears. In various parts of the book are brief descriptions of the islands, and some of the more noted localities to be found on them. Some of these are original, others extracted from various sources, to which credit is given. On page 43, however, we find "Howard Glendon's" beautiful farewell to Hawaii, inserted without credit to the ADVERTISER and GAZETTE, for which it was written and where it originally appeared. It is a gem in its way, such as should never be copied without acknowledging the source from whence it was obtained. Giving simply the name of the author does not clear a publisher from the charge of "literary piracy."

IT IS REPORTED

—That Rep. Kauhi said in caucus, "There is something between the Queen and the House. It is the devil, and he lives at the Station House."

—That Noble Cummins remarked in the same caucus that Peterson had been the Queen's adviser for the last three weeks, and that the reason the Queen preferred Mr. Neumann to other candidates for the Attorney-Generalship, is that Mr. Neumann will keep Wilson in office and others might not.

—That the conundrum around town these days is: Have we a people in this country, or only a King and Queen?

—That the absence of a Cabinet has caused a scarcity both of money and water.

—That it would take a very dull pencil to libel Wilson's subsidized gang of queer petitioning police?

—That certain members of the House are drumming up native members to get their support to put in Neumann, Parker, Pratt and Gulick as the new Ministerial body.

—That the alleged American letter writer lost a bet on the ADVERTISER voting contest, and had to pay for a kit of tools in consequence. No wonder he feels very sore.

—That little Pete is the Marshal's henchman.

Query—Has the Man Friday dug up that $50 yet?

—That if a law were passed to make the receipts of the Police Smuggling Bureau a Government realization there would be no more hard times.

—That the che fa-dope business is the only one which does not share the general depression.

THE LIBERALS.

A COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO NAME A CANDIDATE FOR NOBLE.

"OILY BILL" TALKS ABOUT THE FLEEING LOTTERY SCHEME-A SPEAKER CALLED TO TASK FOR IMITATING THE HON. SAM PARKER.

The meeting of the Liberal party at the Queen street Armory last night was quite well attended. Hon. J. E. Bush presided. The following committee was appointed to nominate a candidate for Noble, and to report next Thursday:

J. E. Bush, J. Nawahi, D. K. Kamakauwila, J. N. Bipikane, D. K. Kahauakai, J. Kahahawai, J. K. Prendergast, Sam Kekukahiko, J. Kailimai, L. W. P. Kanealii, G. W. Kualaku, R. Palau, D. W. Pua, W. Kalachao, J. K. Paelo.

Mr. John Poe wanted the committee to select a native Hawaiian as their candidate for Noble as he said holes had too often proved false to their native constituents.

Hon. G. P. Kamaooha reproved Mr. Poe for his anti haole sentiments. Continuing, he said: We must remain peaceful and watch the attitude of our Queen. We trust that she will appoint capable men for her Cabinet, and that her appointments will merit our approval. The Liberals are an important political body and should ever be awake to the true interests of the country. The selection of a Cabinet is an onerous task, therefore we should not be hasty.

Hon. J. W. Bipikane said that the Liberals have not been successful in obtaining a new Constitution because their number is small, and he blamed the Liberal voters for returning to the House such a small number. There are plenty of petitions before the Legislature asking for a new Constitution, but the Liberals are powerless to carry out the wishes of the people. Do you now advise us to select only Hawaiians? Why did you not vote that way before? You can't teach Bipi! You are foolish! I am not a ragging haaka stood up and denounced Mr. Bipikane for using such improper language before the Liberals. He blamed him for not making a firm stand in the interest of his constituents. The speaker, however, was hissed by the audience and he was obliged to take his seat.

Hon. L. W. P. Kanealii wanted the Liberals and the Hui Kaliaiaina to unite, as that would be the only way of gaining victory in the last election. He was proof of the folly of a split. The native must take a stand as a Hawaiian, and not to make a vain boast as either Liberal or Independent. An anti-Hawaiian spirit was displayed by the Legislature when a Hawaiian introduced a certain resolution, but was voted down because it emanated from a Hawaiian. I tell you without fear, that our leaders have abandoned us! We do not want a weak man to be a leader! [A voice: Pololei; correct.] To-day, the different political parties in the House are at variance. They would not agree as to a Cabinet. They submitted a Cabinet to the Queen, but she would not have it because they are annexationists. Place your trust upon an independent and trustworthy leader, and not on one who has played false to you. The Banking and the Lottery bills are before the House, and they are causing much opposition from the members. There are only six true Liberals in the House now.

Hon. William White: One of the greatest questions before the nation—the new Constitution—must come before the House now. Another important measure is the Louisiana Lottery bill. This bill has been denounced because it would bring poverty and misery upon the nation. Are there not worse evils existing in this country to-day? Why do not the missionaries put an end to them? The missionaries are dead against the Lottery bill because they want the country to be annexed to America. [Cheers.]

We are on the verge of bankruptcy to-day, and how are we to avert it. I have been reproved for introducing this measure, but are they going to help me when I am needy? The wealthy class renounce the licensing of opium, yet they are the very ones who are bringing opium into the country. Some are saying that if Pearl Harbor is annexed to America, the country would be flooded with money.

Hon. Jos. Nawahi desired the Hawaiians to unite and cast off party spirit. He gave his opinion on the situation.

Hon. J. E. Bush could not see why the member from Waialuku should encourage vice, and say that the introduction of lottery and other evils would be the means of bringing salvation to this country. Continuing, he said: My conscience stands approved to-day as to my conduct in voting against the Cabinet. Hon. S. K. Pua brought in a resolution to dismiss the Marshal, but that resolution was set down upon by the Cabinet. Those who voted on the Cabinet did not do so on account of the defeat of Wilcox's resolution. (Mr. Kanealii: I am prepared to argue with you in public; you are not speaking the truth.) Mr. Kanealii then left the building. If Mr. Wilcox had been present to-night the member from Waialuku would not have uttered those words against him—the man who had unified the Hawaiians. It is shameful conduct to do so in his absence. The new Cabinet will be composed of foreigners only, because some of the Liberals have not been firm. I cannot approve of any Cabinet who have flooded the country with opium. (Mr. Nawahi wanted to explain his position to the meeting. A sharp contradiction took place between Mr. Alapai and Mr. Bush.) Lottery and gambling will not enrich the land. Have any of you who are playing the game become rich? I detest Kanealii for saying that gambling and vice would be the means of giving us prosperity. I had not been long on the Opium Committee before I succeeded in finding opium. I assure you there is a schooner hovering off this island with a large quantity of opium on board belonging to some Government officials. An old sea captain had gone to Molokai in Mr. C. L. Hopkins' sloop to look for that schooner. However, I am not doing police duties. The meeting then adjourned.

HAMBURG IN A PANIC

The Cholera Making Headway in Germany.

A PANIC IN HAMBURG.

HAMBURG, Aug. 25.—One hundred and sixty-nine bodies of cholera victims are awaiting burial in this city. So great is the terror caused by the cholera that it is difficult to get men for the work of burying the dead, and many assistants of undertakers have deserted their places of employment. Business is prostrated and shipping is going to other ports. So serious is the panic that Russian immigrants now in the city find it difficult to procure food, as everybody tries to avoid them. At Altona the army surgeons have been ordered by their superiors to assist the civilian doctors in caring for cholera victims.

THE EXCITEMENT IN ANTWERP.

ANTWERP, Aug. 25.—The excitement caused by the acknowledgment of the physicians that Asiatic cholera is in the city has not subsided, and those who can afford to do so are making ready to flee to various places to escape the disease. There is no appreciable change in the situation. It is decidedly believed that the disease reached here from some vessel from an infected port, and there is considerable indignation that the authorities did not enforce the quarantine regulations until after the disease had got a firm foothold in the city. It has transpired that the first persons to fall victims to the disease were dock laborers. They were taken to the hospitals where the doctors, though they were probably fully aware that the disease was Asiatic cholera, stated to newspaper representatives and others that that nothing was to be feared from it.

BERLIN PEOPLE FRIGHTENED.

BERLIN, Aug. 25.—There are serious fears that the cholera has broken out in this city. The wife of a merchant named Landrock, living at No. 10 Golden street, died at midnight with symptoms of Asiatic cholera. The case is being investigated. At a conference of leading medical men held yesterday the opinion was unanimously expressed that an epidemic of cholera was unlikely.

RIPE FOR THE CHOLERA.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—The condition of many of the Jewish emigrants who pass through this city is such that should cholera break out among them it would find a fertile field for its spread. The Jewish committee here state that within a month 1000 Jews, refugees from Russia, have passed through Paris, most of whom were on their way to the United States. Those who have recently arrived here are in a most filthy condition. The places where they passed the nights were made so dirty by the occupants that it was found necessary to thoroughly disinfect the premises after they had left.

NO LONGER EPIDEMIC IN ASTRACHAN

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 25.—Advices received here from Astrachan on the Volga show that the cholera, which has been ravaging that city, has lost its epidemic character.

THE CHOLERA IN RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 25.—The official cholera report continues to show the usual fluctuations in the cases and deaths reported. Yesterday's new cases were 174 in excess of those reported on Tuesday, while the deaths were 84 in excess of those reported on the same day last week. Yesterday's totals, according to the official figures were 5,979 new cases and 2,843 deaths. The disease is spreading in this city, but the people now show little concern about it. Though the number of new cases reported here is larger the death rate is smaller. The doctors say that the disease is less virulent in its character and that in addition to this the number of deaths has been lessened by the better arrangements for the treatment of patients.

EMIGRANTS ON SEPARATE SHIPS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The officers in this city of the Hamburg-American Packet Company received to-day the following message by cable from the headquarters of the company in Hamburg: "As danger of infection may come from emigrant passengers booked together with first and second class passengers, we have decided, in order to secure for our passengers the best sanitary conditions possible, to separate emigrant traffic from first and second class entirely, forwarding emigrants on separate ships exclusively. Besides the express may meet will run until further notice between Southampton and New York only, beginning with the Columbia, due at Southampton to-day."

SANITARY MEASURES IN LONDON.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—One of the official acts of the Right Hon. Henry H. Fowler, President of the Local Government Board, to take steps to prevent the introduction of cholera. A conference between Mr. Fowler, Sir Hugh Owen, permanent Secretary of the Board, Dr. Thorne, Dr. Bridges and others was held to-day at the offices of the Board at Whitehall to decide upon measures for the protection of the metropolis from cholera from eastern ports. The Lancet, the British medical authority, says it is probable that the metropolitan Board will provide facilities for the isolation of all cases of cholera that may occur here and will make arrangements so that the hospitals will be ready to meet any emergency that may arise.

NEW YORK OFFICIALS HAVE LITTLE FEAR.

In spite of the spread of the cholera in Europe the local health authorities adhere firmly to their belief that there need be no fear of the disease getting a hold in this country. All possible precautions have been taken and will be taken. President Wilson of the Board of Health, said to-day that he did not feel called upon to give the details of the measures adopted. "I am sure the public has enough confidence in me to be satisfied with the statement that every precaution has been taken. I think it would be extremely unwise to say more on that point at the present time."

OYSTERS AND SEEDS

Are valuable for what's in 'em. Good and bad oysters look alike in the shell. Good and bad seeds often have the same appearance. Any one can tell a worthless oyster on opening it. The value of a seed must be determined by its growth. This makes its quality worth considering. You want seeds that will grow, and you want the product to be of value. There is but one guarantee; the reliability of the firm from which you buy.
