THE DAILY

PACIFIC COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER

Six Pages.

Be just and fear not; Let all the ends thou aim'st at be Thy Country's, thy God's, and Truth's.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1892.

It is understood that Her Majesty has sent for the Hon. G. N. Wilcox, and entrusted him with the formation of a Cabinet. This conduct indicates an acceptance of the Constitutional principle for which the Opposition has been contending and sovereign and country may both be congratulated upon the outcome.

SATURDAY'S ADVERTISER contained a strong plea for athletic sports, which has brought out another from the pen of Mr. Bomford, on behalf of the English national game. Lovers of athletics will endorse both these letters. The effort to stimulate an increased interest in athletic sports generally meets with a lack of responsiveness which is very depressing to the enthusiast. On the whole, however, there has been an increased activity in this direction of late years. Boating and base ball are established on an organized basis. Tennis, foot ball and mountaineering should follow. The establishment of a mountaineer's club in particular would be of use to the general public as well as to members, for it would lead to the making of many bridle tracks, trails, and eventually carriage roads, thereby rendering accessible the solitudes of mountains which are as beautiful as they are unknown.

ANOTHER LIBEL.

Not more than a fortnight since the publishers of the Liberal claimed to have discharged an editor for the publication of a grossly libellous article. The then editor claimed, however, that instead of having been discharged, he resigned because he found his billet was one of all work and no pay. It begins to look as though the editor was about right in that controversy, for the paper has apparently as much taste for libellous articles as ever. The Saturday issue, instead of discussing the issues of the day, was practically given up to ringing the changes on a wearisome libel. We do not pretend to know anything of the merits of this controversy, and the positive tone of the Liberal seems to imply an army of affidavits in the rear. What we do know is simply that Mrs. Dr. Potts and the Drs. Harrison are in possession of the very highest recommendations, from persons like Ex-Governor Alger of Michigan and others of similar high standing. We know further that a public attack upon the character of a lady can only be justified when made in the public interest upon the strongest proofs, and we know finally that the Liberal would be better employed if it gave more space to matters of national concern and less to the dissemination of social scandals.

TREASON.

The indictment of the Home-stead strike leaders on the charge of treason has led to much unfavorable comment in the American papers, and among the number is the Christian Union. The reasoning of Judge Paxson may possibly be sound, but it is not a construction of the law which will commend itself to the lay mind. The Court seems to have taken the ground that any organized effort which paralyzes the law in a particular locality is an overthrow and intended as an overthrow of the government so far as that locality is concerned. On this subject the Christian Union makes the following observations:—

The criticism to be made upon this course of reasoning is not the absence of ancient precedent for each particular step, but the absence of the modern American spirit, which has repudiated the refinements by which truckling courts converted common offenses against public order into high treason against the State. Such a setting aside of the local government was constructively attempted by the organized mob at Homestead was at the same time avowedly attempted by the organized mob which invaded Johnson County in Wyoming. Perhaps it was the Western sense of humor which kept the Wyoming judges from arraigning the managers of the cattle companies as traitors, but it is surely to be regretted that the offense which bids fair to escape punishment altogether in Wyoming should be branded as treason by the Chief Justice of Pennsylvania. Chief Justice Paxson complains of "the diseased state of public opinion that is growing up" with regard to lawlessness on the part of the poor. There is nothing which does so much to spread the contagion as the spectacle of courts serving as the defense for the rich, and as prosecuting attorneys against the poor, where the offense is identical.

The truth is that the crime of treason is one which the spirit of our age confines to the narrowest limits. Governments are no longer sacred. Kings do not hold their power by divine right. The people rule, and the "Majesty of the People" is only a phrase. The People is simply an aggregate of commonplace individuals. Thinking men now recognize the fact that forms of government have only a relative value, and that the present organization of society is not necessarily permanent. In the light of these views the crime of treason loses its place at the head of the list and yields in importance to murder, as well as some other private wrongs. The respect for law necessary to the maintenance of government will of course always keep the crime in the code, but its heinousness under Victoria is not what it was under Henry VIII. The rarity of prosecutions for treason in the United States bears striking witness to the changed conditions, as does the circumstance that the Pennsylvania law attaches a penalty of but twelve years' imprisonment to the crime.

LONDON, October 15.—The great death has been devastating the continent without mercy this summer, but England must prepare for the coming of a spectre, only less terrible. Great hunger will soon invade Britain. The signs of his coming are everywhere. Those whose business it is to aid others in fighting him say that he has already gained a foothold in London. They explain that not for many years until now has there been genuine distress in the metropolis, due to great commercial and economic causes.

A gentleman from Kauai writes to this office about the eclipse of the moon on that island from 2 to 6 o'clock a. m. He says it was a glorious sight, but complains because they had no previous notice of its occurrence.

AT REMOND GROVE.

The Sons of St. George Entertain Their Friends at a Picnic.

The picnic and dance given under the auspices of the Sons of St. George took place on Saturday during the day and evening. The attendance was not up to expectations owing to the threatening appearance of the weather, but those present had a good time.

During the afternoon races and games were indulged in, but the most interesting contest was a game of base ball between a nine from the Boston and the "How do you like it" club, which resulted in a victory for the sailor boys by a score of 7 to 2. The Boston had a professional player named Donovan in the box, who proved to be an enigma to the local boys.

Outside of the unfortunate affair in the evening, nothing occurred to mar the pleasures of the day; and as the cowardly knife-wielder was not a member of the society, the members cannot be held responsible for his actions.

THE RACE PROGRAMME.

Appended will be found a full list of the races and the winners of the same. Every boy and girl received a prize of some kind. The racing programme was under the direction of Mr. Thomas Wright, who conducted affairs in a very successful manner.

Something New In Ranges.

THE PACIFIC HARDWARE COMPANY, Limited, have just received an invoice of the M. & D. Wrought Steel Ranges which are superior to anything of the kind yet invented. They have been adopted by the United States Navy after a severe test and are in use on the Charleston, San Francisco, Boston, and other new vessels, as well as on several of the new vessels lately built for the trade between Honolulu and the Coast.

An examination of these Ranges will at once show their many advantages over all competitors.

November, 1892.

Come in, out of the rain! or, if it has quit raining when you see this, just come in out of the sun, and we will show you a fine lot of new goods just at hand ex "J. C. Glade," "Aloha," "Discovery" and S. S. "Australia". You may want one of those new Patent Plyers, very handy about the house to use either in wire or as a pipe wrench, in fact your tool chest is not complete without it. It will turn anything it takes hold of, from a piece of pipe to "an honest penny."

Is that your pup? You don't say so, part "Sooner" is he; well, the sooner you cut off that old dirty collar, and pick out a nice one from our new stock, the better your dog will look. That leather one you are looking at, is very strong and with its nickle trimmings looks very neat, but if you prefer an all-metal one, the one in the next box is what you want. You will notice that they differ from the ordinary link collar in that all the links are solid and no soft solder is used. If you want to see a sad dog, just look at one just after he has tried to break one of these collars, the way he used to break the old soldered link kind by walking to the end of his chain and then finding that he had an engagement to keep in the next yard.

Those waterproof linen Lariats, one of which you see in our front window, have been tried by a number of ranchmen and they all report them a good article, "better than rawhide," and they do not cost as much. We have them 50ft. long, in two sizes of rope and for anyone wanting a longer or shorter "lass" we have the article in 300ft. coils and will cut you off any number of feet you want, and we will have the "hondas" and metal grips that are used with the rope. Like the metal dog collars, the same animal never tries to break them more than one.

Those new style Pruning Shears and those steel edge Dust Pans, are goods that will please the ladies. With this kind of a shear, you don't have to screw your mouth up, and say "Oh!" before you get that tough piece of vine or rose bush cut through, and the dust pans, well, you know how you felt the other day when you had a little dirt to brush up and 67-100 of it slipped under the pan, because the edge was so bent. The steel edge Pan "keeps straight," and don't let dirt get by. Are any of your fine old shade trees troubled with the blight? If so, the only way to save them is to spray them. We have the Spraying Pumps complete with Nozzles and Hose, and if you get an outfit in time, it may save many a valuable tree. We have a new lot of hair clippers, and can sell you one that will clip your wife's, your boys', or your hair, so that it will be any where from 5-16 to 1-16 inches in length.

We have just added to our large stock of Buckles which fills up on many sizes we were short of. Among articles received by the "Glade" are Pig Lead, Steel and Iron Wire Rope, Fence Staples, Colza Oil, English Horse Shoes, Coal and Stockholm Tar, Sheep Shears, Shot, assorted numbers 2 to 10; Paris White Galvanized Fence Wire, Galvanized and Black Chain, Sal Soda, Lamp Black, White Castile Soap, Galvanized Plain Iron, Anvils, Bar Iron, Yellow Metal, 14 to 28 ounces; Red and White Lead, Boiled and Castor Oil in drums.

Next steamer we will have another big lot of those fine Western Pocket Knives, and by the "Martha Davis" now due from Boston, we will have a store full of new goods, but these you will hear about later. If you want anything in our line, come and see us, we will be pretty sure to suit you, both in quality of goods and in price.

Yours truly,

E. O. HALL & SON, L'D.,

Another Stabbing Affray at a Remond Grove Picnic.

The Sons of St. George, a local society, held a picnic at Remond Grove on Saturday. Everything passed off pleasantly during the day and evening until shortly after 10 o'clock, when a murderous ranchman named Ward made an assault with a knife on two men, inflicting painful injuries.

An eye witness to the affair states that at about the time mentioned arrangements were in progress to hold a foot ball game on a lot adjoining the picnic grounds, when two men named White and Ward, who live at Pearl City, appeared on the scene, and by their manner it was evident that they were in search of a fight. They immediately commenced to apply vile oaths to people present, when a young man named Wilkinson, who is employed as an oiler on an island vessel, remonstrated with Ward and finally struck him a blow in the face, after which action he started to leave the spot. While Wilkinson's back was turned Ward whipped out a knife and made a savage lunge at the young man, making a serious flesh wound, as it was afterwards learned. The young man did not know he was wounded and after turning around he struck Ward again, who retaliated by striking again with the knife, but the blow did not reach.

In the meantime George Harris, who was attracted to the scene by the noise saw the knife in the hands of Ward and courageously stepped up to the would-be murderer and attempted to wrest the bloody weapon from his grasp. Ward then devoted his attention to Harris and made three slashes at him, one piercing the coat sleeve on the right arm, the second cutting through the coat, vest and underclothing, but luckily not making even a scratch on his body, the third wielded cut the left coat sleeve, besides ripping open the fourth finger on the same hand. As soon as the cutting was done White and Ward jumped into a brake and drove rapidly off, but were captured shortly after by a policeman, who looked both men up.

Friends of the injured men took them over to George Ashley's residence where they were patched up, after which they boarded a train and were conveyed to this city for medical attention.

Harris' injury is not a serious one, but a wound of about four inches long and one inch deep was found just above the hip on Wilkinson's back, which will lay him up for some time.

Ward, the knife-wielder, is employed at Ewa on a ranch which is owned by Mr. C. A. Brown. His reputation is not of the best.

FLASH LIGHT EXPLOSION.

J. J. Williams, the Photographer, Has a Narrow Escape.

For some days, J. J. Williams, the photographer, has been busy taking views in and about Honolulu for the San Francisco Examiner.

On Saturday morning he entered a cave near Kalihi with the intention of photographing it. The place was very dark, necessitating the photographer to resort to a flash light to get the requisite picture. Mr. Williams does not know exactly how it happened, but when the fuse was ignited the powder used in the torch exploded and the flame burned the right side of his face in a serious manner, besides singeing his moustache, eyebrows and hair.

The injured man immediately came into town for medical aid, and, after being examined by a doctor, it was found that the right eye was burned to that extent that at first it was thought necessary to have it removed, but luckily that extreme measure was not resorted to, and last night the condition of Mr. Williams was reported as being very much better.

CABINET TALK.

Hon. G. N. Wilcox Will Name the New Ministry.

All the Cabinet talk of the past few days ends in smoke, as it was learned positively last evening that Her Majesty had decided to yield to the wishes of the Opposition in the House, and had sent for Hon. G. N. Wilcox, of Kauai, to name the next Ministry.

Mr. Wilcox has been absent from town for some days and only returned yesterday morning when he was notified to present himself at the Palace.

It is not likely that the new Cabinet officers will be presented this morning at the re-assembling of the legislature.

WHARF AND WAVE.

DIAMOND HEAD, Nov. 6.—9 P. M.: Weather, clear; wind, light N. E.

The bark Matilda is having her topsides recaulked by ship carpenters.

The schooner Aloha will receive sugar this morning from several coasting steamers.

The steamer Kaala will leave to-morrow morning for a circuit of this island.

QUEENSTOWN, Oct. 23.—The bark Chieftain, from San Francisco, reports that she encountered a fearful gale on September 29. She was washed by huge seas until she almost foundered. Her sails were torn to shreds, the coverings of the hatches were blown away and portions of the copper on her port side were torn away, the result of which was an alarming amount of leakage. Her bowsprit and deckhouses were also badly damaged.

The schooner Fannie Woolston, abandoned a year ago off Cape Hatteras, has been sighted near the Azores in a dismasted condition, but otherwise in a fair order, with her cargo of lumber intact. She has been storm-tossed for twelve months.

Ocean steaming continues to make advances. The voyage between Queenstown and New York is now reduced by the City of Paris to five days, fourteen hours and twenty-four minutes! It is an improvement upon a previous record voyage of the same steamer. On four successive days the log showed a run of over 500 miles. The number of knots run in one day (530) exceeds the performance of any other vessel. Such a speed would have been considered mythical for ocean voyages twenty years ago. It is better than the average of train journeys.—[Ex.]

"German Syrup"

We have selected two of three lines from letters freshly received from parents who have given German Syrup to their children in the emergencies of Croup. You will credit these, because they come from good, substantial people, happy in finding what so many families lack—a medicine containing no evil drug, which mother can administer with confidence to the little ones in their most critical hours, safe and sure that it will carry them through.

Ed. L. Williams, of Mrs. Jas. W. Kirk, Alma, Neb. I give it Daughters' College, to my children when Harrodsburg, Ky. I troubled with Croup have depended upon and never saw any it in attacks of Croup preparation at like with my little daughter. It is simply marvelous, and find it an invaluable remedy.

Fully one-half of our customers are mothers who use Boschee's German Syrup among their children. A medicine to be successful with the little folks must be a treatment for the sudden and terrible foes of childhood, whooping cough, croup, diphtheria and the dangerous inflammations of delicate throats and lungs. @

"A NOBLE GAME."

The Decline of Athletics—A Word for Cricket.

Mr. Editor: In your issue of Saturday last a correspondent writing under the non de plume of "Non Bonus," deploras the lack of interest in many sports and athletics in Honolulu, and as one who takes more than ordinary interest in all sports which tend to develop both body and mind, I join issue with him and crave the indulgence of your open columns for a few remarks with regard to what I have always been accustomed to hear designated "the noble game."

only proved himself to be the premier knight of the gloves in the world, but has taught those who indulge in the noble game what, before he made his appearance, was never dreamt of. I fear, Mr. Editor, that I have already somewhat transgressed, but my object in this letter is to point out what rapid strides cricket has made under the burning sun of Australia, and to commend the game to Hawaiians most earnestly, feeling sure that if once inaugurated the pastime would take deep root, and that the residents of these islands would become proficient in the game which is so popular in nearly every part of the civilized globe where the English language is spoken.

LEPERS INCENSED.

They Had a Desire to Revenge Themselves for a Fancied Wrong.

The steamer Mokolii which arrived from Molokai on Saturday morning brought the startling news that certain of the lepers at the Leper Settlement threatened to burn, fire, and do havoc generally at the Settlement one day last week. The principals in this nefarious business wanted to burn all the property owned by the Board of Health. They held secret meetings among themselves and decided to carry out their plans, with the view, it seems, of regaining their liberty.

They proposed to set on fire the house of the Agent of the Board of Health, to bind Mr. R. W. Meyer hand and foot, together with his family, and throw them alive into the burning house. They were greatly enamoured of this little scheme that would surely regain them their personal happiness. The leading conspirators were given particular wards and they were to rise and set fire to the property at a given signal.

MR. EDISON

in designing the Mimeo-graph took as his principle, the stylus, the writing implement of man since the art was first invented. It is the natural instrument by which the hand can trace characters. This is one of the reasons why this machine has achieved such popularity.

The pen or stylus glides easily over the prepared stencil paper with just enough friction to make writing identical to that done with a hard lead pencil.

It is used by jobbers sending out price lists; retail stores use it sending circulars direct to their customers; secretaries, in printing notices of meeting, programmes, etc.; hotels, printing bills of fare and printing bill and letter heads; musicians, sketching, maps in colors, and in fact anything that a lead pencil can do, this machine does. It is simple, cleanly and strong. Prints on any kind of paper. Reproduces copies of type-writer work that are exact fac similes.

HONOLULU POST OFFICE. The Edison Mimeo-graph was purchased of you, is a splendid success. It is a great economy of time. We would not like to be without one. WALTER HILL.

THE RAIROAD COMPANY

Will Issue a New Trust Deed and Borrow a Large Sum of Money.

A special meeting of the Oahu Railway & Land Company was held on Saturday morning to consider the question of issuing a new trust deed and extending the road around the island.

General H. J. Willey, who was sent here to make an examination of the road, by a New York Investment Co., was present at the meeting and addressed the shareholders. He said he was favorably impressed with the country and its resources, but as to the report to be made to his company, he was silent.

Before the meeting adjourned it was decided to issue a new trust deed and extend the road providing the necessary capital can be obtained. Mr. B. F. Dillingham, the General Manager of the road, who is now in New York, was authorized to borrow on the company's property, a sum not to exceed $1,750,000.

AT KILAUEA.

Mr. Walker Returns From His Volcano Trip.

Mr. F. G. Eyton-Walker, the intended tourist agent of the Hawaiian Bureau of Information to Japan, returned from the Volcano by the W. G. Hall last Friday. He reported the Volcano as being very active during the nine days he was there. Both Mauna Kea and Mauna Loa were capped with snow for several days, but the snow was beginning to melt away about the time Mr. Walker left. The rainy weather had put the Punaluu road in a bad condition.

Mr. Walker took several views of the Volcano, etc., which will be placed on exhibition at Williams' shortly.

After Whales in the Antarctic.

An experimental voyage, which, though its main object is commercial, is not without interest of a more general kind, says Science, is about to be undertaken by Captain Gray, of Peterhead, the well-known Arctic whaler. Captain Gray is of opinion that the value of the Antarctic Seas as a whaling ground has never been properly tested, and he has, according to the "Proceedings of the Royal Geographical Society," succeeded in raising the capital necessary for prosecuting an experimental voyage with a couple of vessels of some 400 or 500 tons register, propelled by auxiliary engines of 70 or 80 horsepower nominal.—Ex.

On Saturday afternoon, at the Makiki grounds, a game of base ball was played by the Iwileis and the Lusitana Portuguese Club. The last named team won the game by a score of 16 to 13.

Wating's Island, one of the Bahamas, the first land that Columbus saw and landed on in his voyage toward the new world on the morning of October 12, 1492, lies in the direct path of the regular steamers plying between Santiago de Cuba and Philadelphia.

So near do the vessels pass that it is within a stone's throw. Fields of seaweed and flocks of birds can be seen for miles around this historic spot, and these were the reasons that induced Columbus the day before to believe that land was only a few miles distant. The present inhabitants of the island have no resemblance to Columbus or his adherents, but are scantily attired wreckers, who long for the stranding of a vessel to fill their depleted purses.—[Ex.]

Persons possessing files of Magazines can have them bound up in any desired style at the Gazette Book Bindery, which is doing as fine work as can be done in any San Francisco or Boston Bindery. None but the best workmen employed.

MAUI NEWS.

A Longfellow Evening by the Makawao Literary Society.

[SPECIAL TO THE P. C. ADVERTISER.]

Sunnyside, the Paia residence of Rev. and Mrs. T. L. Gulick, appeared last evening most cozy and attractive, nestling amid the trees on the hill-side, with its pretty veranda lights casting a dim, languid radiance against the brilliancy of the round, monthly moon.

And vine-decked portieres, a daintily framed life-sized crayon of the author rested on and fascinated all eyes.

Every original sketch of a life. This picture is a stic production of a MAHAWA. Mr. Gulick's resume is an interesting nature as the most flattering attention his many auditors.

Second event de la programme rather plaintive song, which tly contralto voice of Miss Daines rendered effectively.

(A recitation, "Miles Standish," and Baldwin was an ideal Pemsiden in all her purity, pisty Pgdry, and she made Priscilla quite cunning and arch in the reading of the lines, "Speak for yourself, John."

The tableaux, "John Alden and Priscilla," was so interesting as to receive a recall.

Number five was a reading, "The Children's Hour," by Mrs. Beckwith, which aroused sentimental thoughts of "home and mother."

The tableaux of flaxen haired children, "Storming the citadel of the poet's heart," elicited applause. Miss Milly Beckwith rendered that solo so pregnant with old-time memory and deep pathos, "The Bridge," most sympathetically.

Then Mrs. Gulick read extracts from the poetic story of the sad and beautiful Evangeline, which recital was followed by a suitable tableaux (the silhouette of the young lady posing as the heroine being of a striking Evangelinesque order.

The next was a quartette, composed of Miss Beckwith, Messrs. Chas. Baldwin, Lindsay and Nicoll. They sang the frolicsome song, "Beware, she's fooling thee," most prettily. "Les Tableaux Vivants"—a young lady and gentleman—showed that they have had considerable experience in the "motif" of the piece—fickleness and coquetry. The piano solo by Miss Lottie Alexander, though not a la Longfellow, exhibited a fine artistic touch and called forth an enthusiastic encore.

The recitation "Hymn to Night" was prettily and simply executed by Miss May Baldwin.

The representation of Nox, goddess of night, by a young lady of brunette style robed in black gauze with golden stars and crown which the flame of the traditional torch made luminous, was perhaps the most effective living picture of the evening.

The quartette "Stars of the Summer Night" from the Spanish Student brought to an end the "poetic frenzy" of the occasion.

After the historic sandwich had been nibbled and the anti-soporific coffee sipped the guests departed, long to remember—the night when the cares that infested the day did fold their tents like Arabs and as silently steal away.

A HALLOWEEN PARTY.

The evening before All Saints' Day was charming with its "sweet moonlight, kiss moonlight" (as the native song goes) and surely the Makawao young people riding or driving to Mrs. H. G. Alexander's mansion appreciated fully the first part of the sentiment, as for the last—quien sabe? Apples, almonds, vinegar, sugar and water—all acted important parts in the evening's play. The first is a fickle, aggravating fortune teller, and few lads or lassies would e'er obtain sweethearts if they had beforehand to bite the fruit swinging on a cord or catch it bobbing tantalizingly on the water's surface. Sugar, vinegar and water in bowls were the accessories for a sort of a Fortia casket scene, into one of which receptacles the victim after being blindfolded and confused as much as possible was commended to dip his finger—if he touched sugar then his life's vis-a-vis would be charming; if the vinegar, of sour temper; if the water, then his lot would be deplorable—one of single wretchedness. As for the almonds, they of double kernels meant philopena.

Many other humorous tests, larks and games finished up a most pleasurable evening.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wilder, Capt. Kimball, and Mr. V. A. Vettesen, all of Kahului, have been spending the week and enjoying delightful autumn weather at Olinda.

On Sunday, the 30th inst., Rev. T. L. Gulick, at the Paia foreign church continued his account of Rev. John Peyton in his missionary efforts on Aniva, an island of the New Hebrides. During the afternoon the reverend gentleman baptized ten new members of the Japanese church at Paia.

"Gen." Jack Beuregard has moved the base of operations to Kula, and has pitched his tent on the Pelehu hills, preparatory to operating on the stones and gravel of the new road.

It is rumored that H. W. Dryden, formerly principal of the Wailuku school, is engaged in the electric light business in Indiana.

This second "hoomaha" of the legislature has brought to Maui only Hon. R. D. Walbridge.

It is learned with deep and universal regret that Sheriff Henry G.

Treadway has resigned his position as the chief executive official of Maui. If the number of sincere regrets are a measure of popularity and friendship, then Mr. Treadway can number more friends and boast a greater popularity than any other citizen of this island. It is rumored that in a few weeks he will fill the combined positions of Tell and Myers on Molokai.

The new Sheriff, F. H. Hayselden, has been seen for several days past at the Wailuku Court house, though at the present writing he is at Lahaina.

HERE AND THERE.

The Wailuku Water Case, which should have been brought up on Wednesday, the 2nd inst., is postponed until further notice. The reason for postponement is that the attorneys must wait the action of the Court in the Halstead-Kaine matter. On dit that perhaps the affair will be compromised—in fact—that such a movement is now on foot, that neither party are over anxious to push matters if they can be settled satisfactorily outside the court room.

During Tuesday, the 1st inst., the Portuguese in festive attire, most thoroughly celebrated Halloween, or All Saints' Day. Father James officiated at the Makawao Catholic Church.

Between 11 and 12 p. m., on the evening of the 1st inst., an acre of cane was burned at Paia. Cause unknown. At 3 a. m. Tuesday morning the plantation people were again robbed of their slumber by the burning of some trash; no damage of any value.

At the meeting of the Wailuku Gun Club, at the Kahului telephone office, held during the evening of Oct. 21st, it was determined to have a team shoot for the three club medals on the 28th of this month. It was also voted to change the range so that shooting shall be with the wind and not against it as has been the custom. They thus fondly hope for better scores.

The lease for the Makawao Polo Grounds has expired, and last Saturday afternoon probably witnessed the final game of the season.

Maui is agitated concerning the new election caused by the resignation of Hon. W. H. Cornwell. Rumors are rife concerning the candidacy of several gentlemen, and it is also reported that Mr. Cornwell will again be a candidate.

Next Tuesday evening, the 8th inst., will witness a grand concert by the members of the Kaahumann Church of Wailuku. There is no admission fee, and several of the prominent church ladies will sing solos.

The Salvation Army of Wailuku now numbers more than 150 members.

Weather delightful all the week. The partial eclipse of the moon was noted between 4 and 5 a. m. of yesterday.

Maui, Nov. 5, 1892.

HANA SNAP SHOTS.

The only social event of the past week was a "stag" given by Mr. J. Bryant, the popular manager of the Hana market, last Saturday evening. The bachelors of the district turned out in force and a few of the married men also attended. It was quite a success.

Hana can see Makawao's heavy rainfall and go it one better. On Monday, October 23d, four inches of rain fell in a little less than two hours. The storm was one of the heaviest in some time, but fortunately no damage was done.

The Hana Plantation Co. have just put up a new smoke-stack on their mill at Kauki.

Weather has been very fine and the moonlight nights are perfect.

Hana, Nov. 4, 1892.

More Crime.

Yesterday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, the police were notified that a body of a still-born infant was lying in a stream of water in the vicinity of Smith's bridge.

An officer was immediately sent to the place mentioned and found the decomposed remains of a child lying in a shallow part of the stream, and conveyed it to the Police Station.

Last evening about seven o'clock, a horse slipped on the car track in front of Mr. Egan's residence on Nuuanu avenue, and threw his rider. The man was stunned by the fall and was conveyed to his home. His name could not be ascertained but it was learned that he is employed by Mr. M. P. Robinson.

It is reported that a native on Kauai has sent a letter to Her Majesty, the Queen, advising her to dismiss the Legislature and to promulgate a new Constitution. The writer evidently has his gall with him.

Girls from the Dressmaking Department of Kawaihae Seminary may be employed to go out sewing by the day or week to do plain dressmaking or sewing.

The search light on the high tower of the Transportation Building in the World's Fair grounds, which was tested, is the largest and strongest in the world. It was made in Nuremberg, Germany, and brought over by Professor Tischendorf, who claims that its rays will be visible at a distance of 60 miles.

CONVERSATION OVERHEARD.

It Was'nt About a Cabinet Either.

"Are you going to buy a Safe when you get your new office," said a business man of Honolulu to a recent arrival.

"Think of it," he replied. "A Hall's Safe?" "Certainly."

"Why a Hall's?" "When I spend my money for a Safe, I want reputation, reliability and a record back of it."

"But, there are other Safes." "Undoubtedly, but I know the Hall's Safes are all right, and I don't want to take any chances. Have they an agent here?"

"Oh, yes, Mr. T. W. Hobron represents them. You will find him at the New Drug Store. Do you know where that is?"

"Yes indeed, been in the store frequently. By the way their fresh fruit flavors are delicious."

"You are pretty well informed, I see; good morning."
