HAMPTON INSTITUTE.

General Armstrong is again with us, improved in health by his summer rest. The Southern Workman has been held back these few days to give our readers the pleasure of reading this announcement and the editorial from his own pen which follows:

Since last June I have been chiefly in New England, seeking health in the most invigorating climate I could find, and on the 7th inst. returned to duty at Hampton, Va., where I have resumed the charge of the year's work. I find the school in excellent condition, with a very fine attendance of a fine class of earnest, promising pupils, under as good a corps of teachers as we could hope or wish to find. An excellent class of Indian pupils has come. The outlook is most hopeful, and as good results as this school has ever produced may be looked for in this, the twenty-fifth year of its work. I earnestly hope that the gifts of annual scholarships and donations for general purposes, which keep this work alive, will be supplied as the year's work shall go on, and prevent any critical financial situation. The school is always pressed for funds to meet its obligations.

The hoped for, but long delayed endowment of upwards a million of dollars, may, and we believe will, in time appear, and would relieve the great present wear and tear of collecting funds. Such work costs, and the time and strength spent in it had better be put into direct personal work of teaching and doing for these people. The great difficulty and delicacy of carrying on the industrial problem at the same time is realized by but few. Yet its results, in intelligent, self-helpful and valuable citizens of two races, seem to more than justify the labor and expense of it all. Capacity and respect for intelligent labor is here a fundamental idea, as well as supplying good teachers for the 25,000 Negro free schools of the South, furnishing of ten well trained teachers of farming or of trades.—[Southern Workman, Nov. 15.]

WAGONS FULL OF GOLD.

The Precious Cargo of the Monowai Now in the Mint.

"What's that?" asked a teamster yesterday morning at Spreckels' dock as he saw the crew of the Monowai landing little boxes from the steamer.

"Gold," was the laconic reply of the sailor; "tons of it." And he returned to the steamer's steel vault for another load of the precious metal.

The Custom House had barely opened when permits to land $400,000 in Australian sovereigns and gold bars were issued to three young men, who were soon on the Oriental dock looking for the Captain of the Monowai. It was a simple matter to move all this gold away. Nobody seemed suspicious. The Captain looked at the papers and then opened the treasure receptacle, and without questioning or investigating on either side box after box was carried out on the shoulders of the crew. One distinction was made in favor of the gold. No ordinary longshoreman was allowed to handle it.

The sturdy little chests were about eighteen inches long and nine or ten inches square of Australian hardwood inch boards and bound at each end with bands of iron, and to make them doubly secure great red seals were attached over each joint. As none of the seals were broken the bank men were satisfied and accepted their gold as if it were ordinary merchandise. Forty boxes, each one containing $5000 were placed in an express wagon, and twenty each in two other wagons. The larger load weighed nearly a ton.

There was no escort for these millions except two banking men and the driver on each wagon, as it was moved to Uncle Sam's chests. The Anglo-Californian Bank received $200,000 in sovereigns, the Bank of British North America £100,000 in sovereigns and gold bars and the London, Paris and American Bank £100,000 in sovereigns. These banks will get back from the Mint an equivalent in value in $20 pieces. Insurance cost them one-fourth of 1 per cent, and freight about the same, yet a nice profit is made on these large transactions through the medium of exchange on England and the balance of trade. Bills are sent to London to English bankers and in turn are utilized in payment of Californian wheat growers, flour millers, etc. Australia owes England and England owes America for products, and by such a transaction as this the first debt is paid by sending money here instead of to London. The saving in exchange pays the bankers.—[S. F. Examiner.]

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1892.

THE reconsideration of Noble Horner's Railroad Bill was the first in the order of the day yesterday, and occupied the House until ten minutes past four in the afternoon. After the exhaustive and exhausting debate the same result was reached as last week, the bill being referred to a commission to report to the next Legislature. Perhaps this was the best thing that could be done under the circumstances, as it would have been useless to force the measure on an unwilling and unbelieving Ministry, which would have done nothing to carry out its provisions even had it passed. In the meantime the attention of the country has been drawn to the matter by a full discussion, so that a future Legislature will be better prepared to deal with the matter than the one now sitting. We hope that before 1894 the Cabinet will have entered into contract with Mr. Dillingham, or someone else, to build the road, and that the session of that year will find it already under way.

THERE is war between the Panama Railroad and the Pacific Mail S. S. Co. It appears that for a long time an agreement has existed between the railroad and the steamers, by which the former bound itself not to carry any freight, except for the latter line. In return for this concession it receives a guarantee of a certain quantity of freight. The Pacific Mail line, according to the Baltimore Sun, is in the transcontinental combination which has for its object the maintenance of exorbitant rates between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. The company accordingly establishes a high schedule of charges; the result is that the freight goes by rail while the steamers are compensated by a subsidy. As the Panama railroad does not get any benefit from this arrangement, it is weary of it, and proposes to carry freight for whom it pleases. A controlling interest has been bought in the road by the French Canal Company, which may possibly bring the matter into the field of diplomacy.

THE TACOMA LINE.

The fact that a transcontinental combination exists for the purpose of keeping up the high rates for transportation from the Pacific to the Atlantic seaboard makes the attempt to establish a line from Tacoma to Honolulu seem doubly commendable. The Puget Sound ports offer facilities for shipment East which San Francisco cannot equal. It is perhaps questionable, however, whether the line to Tacoma, if it relies on a trade with Honolulu alone, will be found profitable. It will not get sugar freights, and there is at present very little sent away from Honolulu besides sugar. The new line if it succeeds will have to do so by building up a new export trade. For this purpose the steamers should touch at Hilo, both going and coming. There is some sense in subsidizing a vessel to furnish direct steam communication between the great island of Hawaii and the Pacific Coast, and the establishing of such a line would be sure to give a great impetus to the agriculture and trade of that island. Honolulu on the other hand has already her share of facilities for communication and travel. It therefore seems a pity that the House in passing a subsidy for the Tacoma line, should have killed Noble Horner's motion providing for the payment of an additional subsidy to induce the steamer to take in Hilo. Instead of doing so it would have been wiser to make the entire subsidy payable upon the establishment of a line to run between Puget Sound, Hilo and Honolulu returning via Hilo. It is not yet too late to modify the appropriation in this direction. Such a course need not interfere with the O. S. S. Co.'s putting on a steamer to touch at Hilo on the down trip, as the object of that company would be the promotion of tourist travel rather than the carrying of freight.

Five steel turret revolving forts are to be erected at the entrance to the harbor of San Francisco. Each will be heavy enough to resist the heaviest fire from shipboard and each will be armed with two 100-ton guns.

FLYING TIME

A NEW STORY TOLD FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

How the World's Markets Have been Overhauled.

SEEK NO FARTHER.

SALUTATORY.

Steadily old Father Time rolls on and Christmas is again upon us. It hardly seems, but yesterday since Christmas 1891 was heralded in and yet, within a few short days one year will have come and gone since then. Although a wave of hard times has struck our island community it has not deterred us from laying in our usual stock of seasonable goods to supply the demands of our customers and friends who desire to perpetuate the time honored custom in vogue at this season of the year. We feel that in spite of dull times, the demand for good reliable and servicable articles will be stronger than ever, and that gew-gaws and articles of neither use nor ornament will be dead stock on their owner's hands.

THE WORLD PAYS TRIBUTE.

With that idea in view, we have out-done ourselves if anything this year. We have spared neither time or expense, our agents have ransacked the great manufacturing centers of Europe, Asia and America, and the products of the foremost manufacturers are here to show for our efforts and theirs.

SPECIAL FOR THE LADIES.

For the ladies we have increased our usual good stock of Hose—Silk, Balbriggan, Lisle and Cotton, in all conceivable shades and colors, and a special line of extra quality black Lisle Hose. By the Yamashiro Maru, we got a fresh invoice of Japan Silks in the piece, a beautiful article to present to a lady; a large lot of the famous Japanese Cotton Crepes.

Dozens of ladies' beautiful hemstitched and plain and embroidered Silk Handkerchiefs and many other good things including some very neat Hand Bags.

FOR THE GODS OF CREATION.

For the men, we have such an endless variety of everything in wearing apparel that it is impossible to enumerate all in the short space of a newspaper article. Underclothing of all grades and weights—Silk, Balbriggan, Lisle, Cotton, Gauze, Merino, and a full line of Jaeger's Sanitary Woolens and Scriven's Elastic Seam Drawers.

Neck Wear in endless variety—Four-in-hands, Ascots, made up Scarfs, and a fine assortment of Windsors and washable Four-in-hand Ties, Office Coats, Pajamas, Wool, Silk and Cotton, Suspenders, Hose in great quantity, Handkerchiefs, Silk, Linen and Cotton; some very beautiful designs, hemstitched, plain and colored borders.

FOR A RAINY DAY.

And now, that the rainy season is setting in what more appropriate present than an elegant Silk Umbrella or one of Chas. Makintoshes' celebrated Rain Coats could be desired?

HOW ABOUT PAJAMAS?

Bathrobes and Towels, a good assortment, and for your gentlemen friends who do the other islands where barbers are scarce, we have some elegant Dressing Cases completely filled. We have just received a nice new stock of Panama Hats, just in time to catch some of the boys who were foolish enough to bet that "Grover" couldn't get in. We sold lots of 'em, but we've got lots left and some Silk Puggaries to go with them. We have some handsome Silk Shirts that would make the heart of any man rejoice, and last but not least our stock of ladies' and gent's gold and silver Waltham Watches is as complete and varied as ever.

TO BE CONSIDERED.

Think twice before you make your purchases, and give us a chance to furnish you with something reliable and sensible that will be a credit to you and of lasting benefit to the recipient.

M. McINERNEY.

E. O. Hall & Son, L'd.

December, 1892.

FLOODED!

We can honestly say that we have been flooded with new goods during the past few weeks. The Martha Davis from Boston, had for us Oakum, Horse Shoes, kegs Wire and Cut Nails, Turpentine, Ship and Cut Spikes, Pitch, Benzine, Cotton Duck, Wrapping Paper, assorted Oars, Mast Hoops, assorted Handles, Rakes, Road Scrapers, Pick and Ax Mattocks, Axes, Hatchets, Forges, yard Brooms, Batteries, Shovels, Spades, and Scoops, horse Nails, boat Nails, Hinges, Sand Paper, ball Wicking, Tacks, Fodder Cutters, Scales, Blocks, copper Paint, mixed house Paint, dry orange Shellac and many other items.

Those Wostenholm pocket Knives we spoke of have come, and you are sure to find one among the lot to suit you in price and style. Our assortment of those fine drab Fish Lines is now complete from 0 to 9.

If you want a good pocket Cork Screw, we now have the article, compact and strong.

We carry the largest and most varied stock of Oils to be found in the islands, among which are several brands of Cylinder Oil, light and heavy engine Oil, black or Carbox Oil, Castor, Olive, Peanut, Colza, Coconut, Parrafine, Sperm, Polar, Dynamo, Sewing Machine, Mineral Castor, Lard, Neatsfoot, pale and dark boiled Linseed, Raw Linseed and Tar Oil. We can sell you anything from a quart bottle to a barrel of any of these oils. We have a Cylinder Oil and an engine Oil both of which give perfect satisfaction, and we will at any time send samples to any one wishing to try them, free of charge. While we are speaking of oils, we may as well say that we handle a good many thousand cases of Kerosene Oil every year.

We were going to say something about Wood and Schultz Powder Cartridges this time, but it's no use, we had a sample lot of five thousand by the Mariposa and have only 600 left of the lot. We will tell you when the next lot comes, in a few weeks; it will pay you to wait for them. To those who load shells we would say that we have just received a lot of Dupont's & Hazard Powder, also new lot of Metal and Paper Shells, Wads, Chilled Shot, etc.

By the Australia yesterday we received a large lot of goods, including nine rolls of Leather.

We are putting away Goods received by the Albert and we have a lot more on the Transit due next week.

Yours truly,

E. O. HALL & SON, L'D.,

Danger in Bananas.
James Cregan and J. E. Emerson, employees of D. G. Camarinos, were investigating the condition of a consignment of Hawaiian bananas yesterday morning when the former pulled his fingers out of a bunch with an unpleasant and painful centipede attachment.

Emerson was to Cregan's rescue and was also bitten on the hand before he succeeded in killing the venomous bug, which was fairly bursting with long accumulations of poison. Prompt attention saved the young men from serious consequences of the bites.—S. F. Examiner.

LEPER CHILDREN.

Everybody Can Assist In Making Their Christmas Merry.

Holiday time is here, and the ADVERTISER suggests to the people of Honolulu not to forget the leper children on Molokai.

In regard to gifts, most anything is acceptable. The Christmas offerings can be left with Mr. J. T. Waterhouse, Jr., who will see that they are delivered promptly.

The appended extract is from a letter written to a gentleman in this city by a Sister at the Bishop Home. It will explain the wants of the exiled children.

"I shall be thankful for dolls and material to dress them. Fifty of the inmates of the Bishop Home are girls, and I believe little and big would appreciate a pretty doll."

"With regard to giving pleasure to the boys, Cigarette tobacco is always a welcome gift. Marbles, pocket knives, tops, lumber for swings, strong twine for fish line or for flying kites, base balls, foot balls, fish hooks, garden trowels, carpenter tools for good boys, tin drinking cups, are things which will please them."

"I feel that I have been too free in making suggestions, but it is good to have a list to choose from. We will be thankful for anything you may kindly send, and I am sure our children will appreciate the gift."

In regard to the foregoing, the public are requested to read the advertising columns of this journal, as they may suggest something not down on the list.

THE TOURISTS.

Whaley and Foote are in Yokohama.

From what several of the officers of the China say, the cablegrams sent from this city to Yokohara did not have the effect of keeping the wealthy Oakland widow and her New York friend from joining William Whaley and Dr. Foote in the Mikado's realm.

All four are living at the Grand Hotel, the best establishment in Yokohama, but so far have not behaved in a manner to attract attention.

Although Whaley borrowed money to leave Honolulu, he is giving no evidence of poverty in Yokohama. His expenditures are as lavish as ever, and during a swell dinner he gave some of the officers of the China he told about a number of handsome presents he had purchased for friends here and in Honolulu.—S. F. Examiner.

Canadian Exodus.

A New York dispatch says: The extent of the exodus from Canada to the United States is shown by figures derived from the Census Office at Washington through the efforts of Erastus Wiman, who, knowing the importance of the matter, has expedited the preparation of the figures.

The facts show that the number of Canadians in the United States at the taking of the census of 1890 was 983,000, compared with 717,000 in 1880, showing an increase of over 37 per cent.

Adding the national loss by death for the aggregate, there would be in the aggregate about 180,000, making the total figures of increase about 446,000, showing a percentage of exodus from Canada to be equal to more than sixty per cent.

The information gleaned from outside sources by Mr. Wiman indicates that since the taking of the census of 1890 the exodus from all quarters of Canada to the United States has been in much larger proportion than that which prevailed in the previous ten years, and it is no exaggeration to say that at present there cannot be less than 1,000,000 Canadians in the United States.

Making Preparations.

When the Joint Committee on Ceremonies of the World's Fair meets, December 13th, the programme for the formal opening of the Exposition on May 1st will be decided.

The committee has already sent an invitation to Senior Castelar of Spain to be the orator on that occasion, and now it is announced that the committee will invite Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," to write the Columbian ode.

The committee hopes, also, to secure the learned poet for that occasion. Dr. Holmes is the last one alive of that trio of remarkable men whose fame belongs to the nation—Whittier, Lowell and Holmes. To him the honor belongs of writing the May-day ode, and it is earnestly hoped by the World's Fair officials that he will accept.

San Diego, Cal., has a grim sensation in the killing of a 16-year old boy by Captain Sam Smith, a fisherman. Smith threw the boy overboard and then shot him. It is believed that he has committed similar crimes before, as several men who went out with him were reported to have fallen overboard and drowned. The citizens are anxious to lynch him.

WHARF AND WAVE.

DIAMOND HEAD, Dec. 13.—9 P.M.: Weather, hazy; wind, calm.

The barkentine S. G. Wilder has been moved to the Fort street wharf.

Queen Dowager Kapiolani's racing gig Puuaha was sent to Hilo by the steamer Kinahu yesterday for the use of Governor Baker, of Hawaii.

The steamer Pele is at the P. M. S. S. Co.'s wharf having her deck recaulked.

The bark J. C. Glade has been moved back to the Fort street pier, where her hull is being painted.

The steel bark R. P. Rithet, 1019 tons register, was hauled on the marine railway yesterday to have her bottom cleaned and repainted. The Rithet is the first steel bark to be hauled on the dock.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Captain Healey of the revenue service, in his report to the department, confirms the loss of the whaling bark Helen Mar with a number of her crew. He says the seals are leaving the rookeries. He estimates that but 5000 remain at St. George.

The steamer Colon has put into Montevideo with her anchors and chains gone and her machinery and propeller badly damaged from an encounter with an electric storm. The Colon is en route here from New York to go on the Panama line. Captain Carver is in command.—S. F. Exchange.

VICTORIA (B. C.), Nov. 28.—E. B. Marvin & Co. this afternoon became the owners of the celebrated smuggling schooner Halcyon, which they propose adding to their sealing fleet. The syndicate which sold the Halcyon gave as their reason for disposing of her that she was too notorious to be useful, and they were therefore glad to take $5,200, not one-fourth of her cost, and be rid of her. The Halcyon will be fitted out for sea immediately and sail early in the spring as a bona fide sealer.

The trial trip of the coast defense vessel Monterey will take place on the bay the latter part of this month. It was at first thought that it would take place on the Pacific, but the Union Iron Works received a dispatch from the Secretary of the Navy directing otherwise in view of the fact that the trip is to be made simply to determine the horse-power of the engines. The Union Iron Works guaranteed that they would reach 3000 horse-power under natural draft and 5400 horse-power under a forced draft. The contractors expect the engines to exceed these figures on the trip, and if they do they will receive a premium from the Government. Captain Miner Goodall will command the vessel during the trial and United States naval officers will be present and will report to the Government on the test.—S. F. Chronicle.

"August Flower"
For two years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and was for all that time under treatment by a physician. He finally, after trying everything, said stomach was about worn out, and that I would have to cease eating solid food for a time at least. I was so weak that I could not work. Finally on the recommendation of a friend who had used your preparations with beneficial results, I procured a bottle of August Flower, and commenced using it. It seemed to do me good at once. I gained in strength and flesh rapidly; my appetite became good, and I suffered no bad effects from what I ate. I feel now like a new man, and consider that August Flower has entirely cured me of Dyspepsia in its worst form. JAMES E. DEDERICK, Saugerties, New York.

W. B. Utsey, St. George's S. C., writes: I have used your August Flower for Dyspepsia and find it an excellent remedy.

THE LEGISLATURE.

One Hundred and Forty-Fifth Day.

TUESDAY, Dec. 13. The House met at 9 A. M. Roll call: 17 members present. Quorum at 9:17. The minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

Noble Baldwin, from the Finance Committee, reported on Petition 431, from A. B. Lindsay et al., praying for payment of election expenses. After thorough investigation, the committee recommend the insertion in the Appropriation bill of $80 for the relief of petitioners.

Tabled for consideration with the Appropriation bill.

Rep. Waiulani, from the Public Lands Committee, presented a report on Petition 455, from residents of Hilo, asking for the establishment of a fire department at Hilo. The committee recommended that the prayer of petitioners be granted and that provision be made for the purpose.

Laid on the table for consideration with the bill.

RESOLUTIONS.

Rep. Waiulani moved that the Public Lands Committee be authorized to employ an attorney to draft certain important measures relating to the proposed Hilo fire department. Since the department of Noble Thurston there was not a competent person on the committee.

Rep. Smith favored the resolution. The resolution was adopted.

Minister Wilcox announced that he had pleased Her Majesty to sign the Vaccination bill.

At 9:50 A.M. the House proceeded to the ORDER OF THE DAY.

Second reading of Bill 113, relating to authorizing a National Loan. The bill was read section by section.

Rep. Wilder moved that the report of the Finance Committee on the subject be adopted.

Noble Baldwin said the Finance Committee had the bill under careful consideration. They doubted the advisability of the Government taking up such a measure now. If the Government takes this measure, it is in hand that will establish a precedent in that way which will be followed by future Legislatures.

The question was whether a railroad through Hamakua would pay a private individual; if not, the Government might not carry on such a large project.

Mr. S. G. Wilder was extremely anxious to obtain money in England to carry on that railroad. What killed his interest was that the Hamakua plantations were not ready to send their crops to the railroad.

So the English syndicates refused the loan. He doubted whether the new way of shipping freight by way of Hilo would be cheaper than the present method in vogue. No reliable information as to how much new land would be opened up that way. The estimate provided by Noble Horner was a very rough one. What will be the probable products of this land? The committee does not know that. Two hundred thousand dollars are needed, and it is only the beginning of that road, and a new bill will come up next Legislature for the road.

Therefore it was wise to give the matter to a commission. Let Mr. Horner himself be on the committee. There are some very grave defects in the bill. The Government might be obliged to pay 6 per cent. interest on the bonds issued. The information required could not be obtained in Honolulu.

Rep. Smith stated that he did not favor the bill in its present form. He wanted careful surveys done. If the commission is to do the work, an appropriation is required. The bill makes it discretionary for the Ministers. What are they to do with it? He considered, however, that if the bill be taken up in a careful way, it would be the means of counteracting the evil effects of the fall in sugar. It would be one of the greatest benefits happening to this country. He had great doubts as to the Government taking up the railroad, but it was desirable that such a road to Hilo be opened up. If given to a commission they would be handicapped. If there is anything needed in this country it is going into it with pluck. God helps those who help themselves. He did not believe in postponing for another two years, but wanted prompt action.

Minister Jones favored referring to a committee as suggested by Rep. Wilder; an item could be inserted to defray the expenses of such a commission. This bill required a loan of $200,000. It was very easy to talk about borrowing $700,000, but it was not so easy to raise the money. What was the good of talking on $200,000 more. It might affect our credit. He did not think it wise for the Government to build railroads. Private parties would do it.

Noble Baldwin said the projectors proposed to take up the whole scheme as projected by the late S. G. Wilder. That would cost probably eight times as much as the amount appropriated by this bill. This scheme was based on a large wharf and large warehouses. Would it pay to undertake that scheme? We had not data here to justify any such undertaking. The Ministers would start out blind on the subject, and would have to investigate. If they came to the conclusion that a small wharf and warehouse would be sufficient, they could not build it, because the bill contemplated a large wharf and warehouse. Let the matter be referred to a commission, to report to the next House, and give it something on which it can act. It would never pay in the world, if the road was to stop at Waimanu.

Attorney-General Brown did not believe in the Government building railroads. If it had a large surplus revenue, it might be different. The road proposed would cost, as he was informed, more than seven or eight millions of dollars. Moreover there was an exclusive franchise to build this road in the hands of private persons. The estimate for building a road around Oahu is about $700,000. At that rate would the Hamakua road cost? There would be no proportion at all in the cost. How are the running expenses of the road to be paid, if it loses money? The people would have to be taxed for it. It was better that a private corporation should take up such a thing, and then the Government would have no responsibility.

Rep. Smith wished to know what the facts were as to the existence of an exclusive franchise.

Rep. Wilder said he did not understand that the franchise was exclusive. It had been granted to himself and others, and the terms had been complied with by the building of the Kohala Railroad. They had surveys made in detail and intramural ones covering every particular, which had cost them $20,000. Any committee might have the benefit of all this for nothing. He questioned whether the road would pay, because it would have to compete every few miles with a water landing.

Noble Young had favored referring the bill to a commission; was still of the same opinion, and would be if the debate lasted a year. Unless the planters would make contracts to give their freight to the road, he would not more build it than he would throw himself into the sea. There were landings all along the coast, where freight could be taken off without much trouble. Water freights are cheaper every time. Before the road was built by anyone, this matter should be investigated and contracts made. The late S. G. Wilder had planned this road with the idea of shipping from Hilo to San Francisco, which was a good idea, but we must go about the accomplishment of it in a sensible way. He had the honor of representing the island of Hawaii and was interested in Pepee-ko, but if he owned the whole plantation he would not give his freight to the railroad without considerable concessions. A wharf in Hilo would be an excellent thing, and he believed one could be built where vessels could discharge in ordinary weather, but even then he questioned whether they would do so, especially if wharfage was high. It would be proper to pay something for the surveys, etc., in the hands of the Wilder estate. It was a piece of gammon to try to build this road now, and to pass the $20,000 was preposterous.

Noble Horner said Rep. Wilder had answered all the arguments of the gentlemen. They wanted a committee appointed to collect information and make surveys. Now here all the information was in existence, down to the most trifling detail, and could be purchased as the bill provided. The minds of the gentlemen were narrowed down to the little strip of land on which the plantations were situated, forgetting the great belt back. As the bill was so anxious to have information he would give them a little. The member proceeded to question Noble Young about the distances from Kukuiahae along the coast, and the quality of the land up to the mountains. He estimated that there was 600 square miles, or 400,000 acres, of good land, of which only about 50,000 acres had been taken up.

Attorney-General Brown—Is anything growing there? Is there any fruit?

Noble Horner—No; because there is no way of getting to market. Even if it didn't pay private parties to build the railroad, it would the Government because it would bring the land into cultivation. It is worth from a dollar to forty or fifty dollars an acre. Estimates from Guatemala showed that a good grove of coffee was worth a thousand dollars an acre. This gave a hint of what could be done in that district if people could get in and out, without the cost of a stage. The face every time they got in and off the boat. At his landing a boat was upset by a little wave, a year or two since, and two natives were drowned. Not long ago a whole boat load, including a woman and child, were drowned at Honokaa. As for the landings he might state that he had paid $2,500 a ton to get his sugar put down at the foot of the bluff. A great deal had been said about tourist travel. If this road were built, there would be more to be seen than anywhere else, not of the volcanic nature. An extensively traveled gentleman had said, a year or two ago, that he had never seen anything like the Waipio Valley.

Noble Young doubted whether the tourists would pay for the coal.

Noble Hild said the road would not reach the upper country at all.

Noble Horner—That is just up above. It is easy to roll down hill. It looked like a road built for so many old fogies among the white people in this House that it would be very difficult to build this road. When an individual got to a point where he refused to advance he is an old fogey. If these Ministers have the capacity enough to carry out this business, we can find the Ministers who will. (Calls of kokua.)

Rep. Smith said all agreed that an investigation should be made, and such an investigation could be made by the Government with its corps of engineers. There were none so blind as those who would not see. The objection was made that the Ministers should not be trusted. He was willing to trust them.

Noble Young asked whether he had not seen Ministers there whom he would not trust?

Rep. Smith—Certainly. Noble Young—And you may again. Rep. Smith continuing said there was nothing in the bill to justify No. 18. Baldwin's remarks about a large wharf and warehouse. The bill said nothing at all about it.

At noon the House took a recess until 1:30 P.M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At 1:35 the House re-assembled. Rep. Kamaooha opposed reference to a commission. Neither was he in favor of passing the bill.

Rep. S. K. Pua supported the motion to consider the bill section by section.

Rep. Josepa opposed the bill. Attorney-General Brown opposed the bill arguing that there were no people to settle the Hamakua district.

Noble Williams opposed the bill. He did not believe in Government railroads. The people in Australia were sick of them. Hon. S. G. Wilder had not been able to get the money, because he had no contracts for sugar freights and could not get any. If the railroads were put through the steamers would put their freights down and freeze it right out. The road would not pay. If it was poor policy for a private company to take it up, it was a great deal worse for the Government. There was nowhere near so much arable land as the gentleman estimated, because of the gulches and because the land above the 2000 feet elevation was not suitable for tropical products. This bill was not a business proposition. It offered nothing that one could consider. There had been no demand for this road from Hilo. It was being pushed through by a few cranks. It was like a child crying for the moon, and it would be about as much use to Hilo as the moon to the child if it got it. He moved the bill be laid on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was lost on the following division:

Ayes—Ministers Wilcox, Robinson, Jones and Brown; Nobles Pua, Cummins, Maile, J. M. Horner, Hoapili, Marsden, Young, Baldwin, W. Y. Horner, Walbridge, Anderson, Kanoa and Dreier; Reps. Wilder, Bipikane, Aki, Pua, K. W. Wilcox, Bush, A. Horner, Kaunamano, Waipulani, Nabuni, White, Kaneali, Edmonds, Kaluna, Aki and Smith—23.

Absent—Nobles Hopkins, Peterson, Cornwell and Thurston; Reps. Ashford and Koahou.

A motion to adjourn was made and lost.

The motion to adopt the report of the Finance Committee (referring the bill to a Commission), was carried on the following div:

Ayes—Ministers Wilcox, Robinson, Jones and Brown; Nobles Berger, Ena, Williams, Maile, Kamaooha, Hind, Marsden, Young, Baldwin, Walbridge and Dreier; Reps. Wilder, Kauli, Waipulani, Kapahu, Kaneali, Aki and A. S. Wilcox—22.

The House adjourned at 4:11 P. M.

General Advertisements.

Rep. R. W. Wilcox said if the value of the land was increased to $100 per acre, that would add nineteen millions to the taxable values of that district alone. That was a good return on a two-million dollar railroad. If the people of Hilo did not want the road, as Noble Williams intimated, then they should be classed among animals and not human beings. He knew these lands well and they were very rich. There was no reason why the Government should not be able to carry on the work as well as a private corporation. If he had more men in the country like Noble Horner, we would be better off. He was a man of experience who had seen for himself what a railroad could do for a country. The business men of Honolulu lacked push and enterprise.

Rep. Kamaooha strongly opposed the bill.

Rep. White favored it. The secret of a great deal of the opposition to the bill was the jealousy of Honolulu people.

At 3:53 the previous question was moved and carried.

Noble Horner said he had no more personal interest in the bill than he had in the deepening of Honolulu harbor. He would vote for any sound improvement. He viewed it as an investment. He thought he had proved that this was a useful improvement which would develop a valuable country.

The motion to indefinitely postpone was lost on the following division:

Ayes—Nobles Berger, Ena, Williams, Kamaooha and Hind; Reps. Kauli, Kamaooha, Kapahu, Josepa and A. S. Wilcox—10.

Noes—Ministers Wilcox, Robinson, Jones and Brown; Nobles Pua, Cummins, Maile, J. M. Horner, Hoapili, Marsden, Young, Baldwin, W. Y. Horner, Walbridge, Anderson, Kanoa and Dreier; Reps. AMERICAN POLITICS.

It looks as though Cleveland would be forced to call an extra session of Congress. Three-fourths of the Democratic members at Washington are strongly in favor of such a course for political and economic reasons. As a compromise it has been proposed to begin the session two months earlier than usual, but a plan that now meets with still more favor is to call Congress together in March, organize the House, appoint the Ways and Means Committee, let it begin its hearings and prepare its bill during summer, both Houses adjourning in the meantime until fall. By this method the new tariff could become a law by October, a full year sooner than it could be enacted if the first steps were postponed until the regular session.

Lackless "Jerry" Simpson, of Kansas, has been airing his ideas of the recent election. He says: "I don't believe the voters who gave the victory to the Democrats this time did so for partizan reasons. The great mass of independent citizens want a complete revision and a very decided cut of the tariff. They are tired of the protection policy of the Republican party, and have decided that it shall be uprooted. They voted the Democratic ticket this time because promises had been given in line with popular sentiment on the tariff question. If the Democratic party fails to make the cut that they people have a right to expect, they will be given as bad a licking when they go home as the Republicans got this year. The cut should be deep enough to leave an average duty of not more than 20 per cent. The country will not be satisfied if this much is not done. I think Congress should get at the work as soon as possible and make an honest revision of the tariff, as I believe they will."

Senator David B. Hill is now accused of knifing Cleveland in the last election, and it is said that the Senator is in such a peculiar position that he will perform be hostile to Cleveland in Washington.

With the aid of the People's party members, the Democrats will control the California Legislature, and elect the next United States Senator. The Examiner, the party organ in San Francisco, is strongly urging the election of W. W. Foote. W. B. English and Steve White are also candidates.

After the official count, it is found that Harrison secured one elector in California. Cleveland got the others.

Charles S. Fairchild, of New York, will be appointed Secretary of the Treasury by Cleveland.

It takes four pounds of fresh taro to make a pound of TARO FLOUR. This may give you an idea of its strength and of its value. Some people have used the flour and found that it does not "dough" as it should. This is because the taro as thoroughly cooked before making into flour and for gems, puffs or hot cakes should be mixed with a small portion of wheat flour.

For babies it has no equal as a health food when mixed with either cow's or condensed milk; the youngster thrive on it better than any baby food on the market. It is healthier and is absolutely free from any thing that will effect the bowels.

Pacific Mail Wins a Point in a Case Against the Government.

A company has been organized at Los Angeles to manufacture glass.

Denver, Colorado, has a 11-year old murderer whose object was robbery. He is now on trial.

Cleveland, Ohio has a flourishing branch of the Mafia. Two attempts were made to murder policemen, and a witness who appeared against the cut-throats was shot at in his own door.

Wm. Mayber, of Rireton, Iowa, is under arrest charged with poisoning five wives. Each, it is alleged, was killed to secure a life insurance policy.

Kansas City is mystified over the death of a well-known citizen, who went to his forefathers after a long prayer that he might die. He was young and healthy. Grief over the loss of a child was the cause of his death.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The Court of Claims to-day gave a decision favorable to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company in its suit against the United States to recover $178,583 additional compensation for the conveyance from October 9, 1875, to September 26, 1885, of mails "from San Francisco to New Zealand, New South Wales, Queensland and Victoria—otherwise the Australian colonies"—upon the ground that the company has not been paid the full sea postage on the letters and has been paid nothing on the other articles contained in the mails referred to.

The findings of the Court, which were prepared and read by Judge John Davis, settled two points in the controversy which will have a most important bearing on the final settlement of the case. One was the definition of "sea" postage, as being the difference between the total postage and the United States "inland" postage, plus the inland postage of the foreign receiving country, and plus all intermediate transit charges.

The other was the conclusion that the statute of limitation in this case began to run at the end of each trip and that plaintiff can recover only for the period beginning six years prior to the presentation of his claim to the Post Office Department.

The Silver Conference.

The International Silver Conference which has been in session in Brussels for some days past, has made no progress towards an agreement. Baron Rothschild, the great banker, made a proposal that America shall continue the purchase of silver and the European powers shall buy an amount equal to £5,000,000 a year for five years at 43d. If silver should rise above that price purchases are to be immediately suspended. This was finally rejected and Rothschild then declared that unless the conference came to some understanding and made arrangements to relieve the strain on gold, a panic would follow the end of which no man could foresee. He proposes also that the legal tender of silver be raised in England from £2 to £5.

It is not thought that an agreement can be reached as there are so many divergent views.

Stopping Immigration.

At a recent meeting of the U. S. Senate Immigration Committee a proposition was advanced that bids fair to be carried, which prohibits all immigration except from North or South America for one year from March, 1893. The committee has also decided to submit to Congress propositions as follows: That no immigrant shall be admitted into the United States between the ages of twelve and fifty-five years unless he can read and write freely his native language, nor shall any person above fifty-five be admitted as a member of a family; no immigrant shall be admitted unless he possesses $100 in money or its equivalent, except that the head of a family may bring or send for other members of the family if he or they possess $25 for each member; all intending immigrants must bring certificates from United States Consuls abroad; all persons seeking final naturalization papers must give reasonable notice to the court and some official representing the government must investigate the application. That there is good reason for these measures is seen in the following government figures of immigration for the ten months ended October 31st, this year. From Bohemia and Hungary, 65,333; Poland, 26,600; Russia, 51,606; Italy, 51,842; Germany, 102,700; while from the United Kingdom, Switzerland, Scandinavian countries, etc., the immigration is comparatively small. All of the above countries where figures are given, save only Germany, immigration is highly undesirable, and Germany itself is furnishing more than the United States wants of anarchists and paupers. The total immigration from Europe this year to November 1st, foots up to 493,276 and under the present conditions further increase can, for a time at least, be dispensed with to advantage.

HEARING NOVEMBER 22 AND 30, 1892.

In the Matter of the Petition of the Wailuku Sugar Company for a Writ of Prohibition against S. E. Kaine, Commissioner of Private Ways and Water Rights for Wailuku, Maui, Claus Spreckels and twenty one others.

In the Matter of the Petition of Claus Spreckels and others for a Writ of Prohibition against the Wailuku Sugar Company, and Wm. H. Halstead, Special Commissioner.

BEFORE JUDD, C. J., BICKERTON AND DOLE, J. J.

OPINION OF THE COURT PER JUDD, C. J.

These two cases were heard together. The essential facts are as follows:

On the 24th August, 1892, one S. E. Kaine the commissioner of private ways and water rights for the district of Wailuku, Island of Maui, issued a summons to the Wailuku Sugar Company to appear before him on the 14th September to show cause why judgment should not be rendered upon the complaint of Claus Spreckels and some twenty others, they claiming certain obstructions and diversions by defendant to the water rights of complainants.

On the 25th August notice was served upon complainants' counsel that the Wailuku Sugar Company objected to the case being heard by Mr. Kaine for the reason that he was interested in the land affected by the water in question. This notice also contained the statement that the Wailuku Sugar Company would be unable to go to trial until the presence of Mr. W. H. Bailey of California could be obtained, he being a material witness. The case was then postponed by written agreement of counsel to the 21st and further to the 28th September. Meanwhile, counsel for complainants admitting Mr. Kaine's disqualification, a commission was procured from the Minister of the Interior under Section 2 of the Act of 1888 respecting private ways and water rights to W. H. Halstead as "commissioner pro tem. of private ways and water rights for the district of Wailuku, Island of Maui, to act in place of S. E. Kaine in the hearing of a certain case of Claus Spreckels and others against the Wailuku Sugar Company in which matter the said S. E. Kaine is not qualified to act as commissioner he being personally interested," etc. The commission was issued 24th September. Mr. Halstead was then in Honolulu, Island of Oahu. On the 27th September counsel for the Wailuku Sugar Company having given notice of such intention to counsel for Spreckels et al., moved the special commissioner Halstead, then in Honolulu, to grant a further continuance of the case for not less than two weeks, owing to the absence of Mr. W. H. Bailey who, as appeared by the affidavit of Mr. W. O. Smith, was expected to arrive on the steamer Australia of October 5th. Counsel for Spreckels et al. objected strenuously to the entertaining of this motion by commissioner Halstead while in Honolulu, claiming that he had no jurisdiction to hear any proceeding in the case outside of the district of Wailuku, Maui, for which he was appointed, and also that the day of hearing set by stipulation had not arrived. After hearing counsel on both sides, Mr. Halstead granted the continuance to the 12th October. Counsel for Spreckels then notified Mr. Halstead in writing that they would be at Wailuku on the 28th of September, the day previously agreed upon, and would be prepared to and would insist upon proceeding with the case. Mr. Halstead did not go to Wailuku nor did counsel for Wailuku Sugar Company. Counsel for Spreckels et al., however did proceed to Wailuku, and on the day of their arrival, the 28th September, Mr. Kaine and his wife executed a deed of their land in Wailuku to one Kooiako, and considering that his disqualification was thereby removed, Mr. Kaine proceeded on that day and for several days thereafter to take the evidence of witnesses for the complainants, and further continued the case to the 2d of November.

On the 11th October, the Wailuku Sugar Company petitioned this court for a Writ of Prohibition against Claus Spreckels et al. and Mr. Kaine to prevent them from proceeding further with the case. At the same time Claus Spreckels et al. filed a similar petition to prevent Mr. Halstead and the Wailuku Sugar Company from proceeding further with the case. Both writs were made returnable before the full court.

BY THE COURT. The crucial question in this case is which commissioner had jurisdiction of this controversy on the 28th of September. We are of opinion that it was Mr. Halstead, the commissioner pro tem., and not Mr. Kaine, the regular commissioner. The statutory provision for the appointment of a special commissioner to hear a certain named controversy respecting water rights, in case of the disability of the commissioner, having been complied with, and Mr. Halstead having accepted the appointment as such special commissioner, the case was fully and completely transferred to him, and he was clothed with all the powers conferred by the statute upon a commissioner. We consider that his appointment to hear this special case gave him jurisdiction over it from the moment he accepted the appointment. The question which of two tribunals of concurrent jurisdiction has obtained authority over a case does not arise here. The appointment of Mr. Halstead removed the case from Mr. Kaine as completely as a change of venue or any other method of removal of a case from one court to another. This leads to the result that Mr. Kaine's attempted resumption of jurisdiction of the case on the 28th was illegal and the proceedings thereupon had by him were void. If it be admitted that the conveyance of his wife's land to another person removed his disability, it could have no effect in destroying the jurisdiction of Mr. Halstead which was complete over this case. But we do not deem it necessary to hold in this case that a disability of this character once existing may not be thereafter removed and the tribunal become qualified. In the matter before us it is of no consequence that Mr. Kaine has seen fit to sell his land, his authority over the controversy was gone by the appointment of Mr. Halstead. We therefore find sufficient cause shown why Mr. Kaine as commissioner for private ways and water rights for Wailuku should not proceed further with the case in question, and an order may issue forbidding him from taking cognizance of the case and forbidding Claus Spreckels and others to prosecute it further before him.

We do not regard as serious the objection made that Mr. Halstead is now incompetent to hear the case because he entertained a motion for and granted a continuance of the case while in Honolulu. If this was a mistake on his part it certainly does not disqualify him from proceeding further in the case. If Mr. Halstead could not, without inconvenience to himself, be present at Wailuku on the 28th of September, the date agreed upon by counsel and presumably with the consent of Mr. Kaine after his disqualification was mooted, or because he thought the Wailuku Sugar Company should not be forced to trial until their witness had come, it was not improper for him to make other arrangements and fix another time for the hearing of the case. It was his duty not to subject counsel to the expense and trouble of a trip to Wailuku when he would not be there to hear them. He was no party to the agreement fixing the hearing on the 28th of September. Counsel cannot bind the court to hear their cases by agreements inter se without consulting the court's convenience. Generally the court's convenience is a stated time merely because counsel have agreed that it shall be then heard. We do not go to the extent of saying that a commissioner has jurisdiction of a case without the district for which he was appointed, when we say that we treat Mr. Halstead's action as an intimation to counsel that they need not be present at Wailuku on the 28th and that no proceedings in the case would be had that day.

It would be necessary for us to decide the validity of Mr. Halstead's act in postponing the case if counsel for the Wailuku Sugar Company had appeared before him on the 12th of October and had insisted on proceeding with the case and the commissioner had proceeded with it against the objection of the other side. But as both the 28th of September and the 12th of October have now passed, the question has no importance, and Mr. Halstead will be free to make a new appointment of a day of hearing.

We are therefore of the opinion that the writ applied for by Claus Spreckels et al. should be dismissed, and we allow Mr. Halstead to proceed to the trial and judgment of the case in question.

Messrs. W. O. Smith, Thurston & Frear for the Wailuku Sugar Company; Messrs. F. M. Hatch, P. Neumann and C. W. Ashford for Claus Spreckels et al.

The most important question agitating the minds of people at the present time, is where to do their Holiday Shopping to the best advantage.

Look at our display of New Goods before purchasing elsewhere, and be convinced that you can dress better for less money than your neighbor (if she is ignorant of the high class of goods we import and our prices); nothing escapes the well-trained eye of our buyer.

Per Australia we received a complete assortment of Novelties suitable for Christmas gifts, among which are hand-painted, jeweled, and embroidered chair Drapes, and fancy silk painted handkerchiefs, gloves and necktie Sockets, delicate shade embroidered chiffon shoulder Scarfs and chiffon Handkerchiefs, Metal and Oxidized Collar and Cuff, Shaving and Toilet Sets, all sorts of Plush Toilet Cases, from $1.25 to $20 each, besides most beautiful hand-painted tissue Fans, (always an acceptable present to a lady,) and gloves and handkerchiefs galore. We can afford to undersell any of our competitors in Handkerchiefs; our immense stock is imported direct from the manufacturers; they are cheap, of good quality and worth more than we ask. If you are looking for real Lace or hand sewn, we have them also. Be sure and see our full line while looking at these goods. Elegant Parasols and Gent's Silk Umbrellas.

Were you thinking of Linen goods? We can suit you there; our Tea Cloths, pure linen, at $1 are excellent value, besides sideboard and table runners, scarfs and tray covers. Doilies, etc., etc., in quantities.

A few choice leather goods, such as purses, card cases, necessities, and ladies' hand satchels. Unique amber and burnt celluloid maniere trays, suitable for lady or gentleman. Come to think of it, we have some fine goods in the gentleman's line, among which are fancy silk negligee shirts, silk pajamas, stylish neckwear, and the latest in handkerchiefs.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES. We haven't forgotten the children; we usually have a lot of pretty things for the Little Ones, and this season more than usual. Among the most useful are cashmere and silk coats, (white and colored,) silk Mikado hats, shirred mull, and muslin, tiny parasols for 25 cents, also cunning little fans, bonnets of mull, lace or silk, and fine California crib blankets—these are only a few of the many new goods we have just opened.

You may not be in need of a hat or bonnet, but it is well to know where the new and most stylish hats are designed. Among our millinery goods by the last Australia we received a quantity of late styles in Children's Hats, also new Toggles and Bonnet shapes with suitable trimmings. Our "Tom Tugs" are all the rage; you can see them any time you feel inclined to step in our Millinery Department, they are simple, inexpensive and generally becoming.

ISLAND PLANTERS.

Hawaiians at San Francisco for the Holidays.

There are a large number of Hawaiian planters and merchants in the city at present, says the San Francisco Call. They propose to spend the Christmas holidays here with their families, and will return home about the beginning of the year.

There is some talk among them of sending a delegation on to Washington to look after Hawaiian interests and to try if possible and bring about legislation that will benefit the islands.

James A. Hopper, who is here with his family on a visit, is a well-known Honolulu merchant. In speaking about the condition of affairs in the Hawaiian group he said: "Something must be done to revive the trade between San Francisco and Honolulu.

"The removal of the tariff on sugar has caused a loss to the islands of nearly $7,000,000 a year.

"Now," said he, "take the Custom House returns, and they do not give a true indication of affairs. They show a falling off of exports from this port to Honolulu of only about $2,000,000. This is not so very bad by any means, but then take the matter as it really is and you will see what an actual depression there is."

"The Americans by a great majority control the sugar interests of the islands. They invest all their money in San Francisco and buy their goods here.

"They come up here in flush times by the hundreds and bring their families with them.

"They buy all their clothes, millinery and jewelry in this city. They go to the theaters and spend money at the hotels. Thousands, nay, millions of dollars flow to San Francisco in this way, not counting the millions invested in safe California securities and in property.

"Taking it all in all, every dollar that finds its way to Honolulu is returned to this city.

"Under the tariff, when the reciprocity treaty was given full force and effect, the Hawaiian planters coined money. Now there is but little money in the business.

"We hope the next Congress will repeal the bounty Act, and place a duty of 1 cent a pound on sugar. This will give the Government of this country a revenue of $37,000,000 a year and effect a saving of $9,000,000 in bounties, a virtual gain of $46,000,000.

"You see, we Hawaiians have it all figured down fine," remarked Mr. Hopper, with a smile.

"But this is not all. I believe that a new refinery would be erected in this city, which, together with the Spreckels concern, would make San Francisco the sugar center of the West."

Mr. Hopper stated that all the Americans are well satisfied with Minister Stevens.

"He is," said he, "as capable a man for the place as ever filled it. The only real complaint that can be made against him that I can see is that he keeps a Chinese cook."

Several hundred acres have been set out in coffee by the Hawaiian planters, and the probabilities are that the area will be greatly increased during the coming year.

TROUBLE IN SAMOA.

The English Send a Warship to Protect Their Interests.

The last mail to this city brought information to the effect that the natives at Samoa had been quarreling between themselves, but it now seems that they have commenced to make war on the foreign residents, as the following telegram will show:—

"LONDON, Dec. 1.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says news has been received from Samoa to the effect that native insurgents have attacked the English residents. Orders were telegraphed to the commander of the Australian Squadron to send the warship Ringarona to Apia without delay."

The S. S. Alameda, which is expected this afternoon from the Colonies, will bring later news regarding the foregoing.

The Tourists' Guide for the Hawaiian Islands can be had at this office. This handy book is invaluable for strangers visiting this country. It contains descriptive matter pertaining to the different islands with handsome illustrations and maps. No tourist should be without the guide as it will save them a lot of bother and questions.

FREE SILVER!

The White Metal Asserts Itself in Honolulu.

A PROPOSITION TO BE CONSIDERED.

TEMPTING SCHEME!

The Question of a Christmas Present Solved in a New and Unexpected Way.

In the United States the friends of free silver made a brave fight at the last election; they demand that the government should coin silver in the mints, and make it a legal tender for the amounts. This demand of the silver men was taken up by either of the two great parties, and it is not likely that the United States will ever adopt a double standard. But down in Hawaii things are different. There is a scheme on foot to furnish free silver for general use. In these hard times, this will be welcome news, indeed, and doubtless a large number will avail themselves of the opportunity.

WHAT IT MEANS?

Possibly the reader is becoming impatient and wants to know what it is all about, anyway. It seems that one of our retail merchants secured a large invoice of silver goods; as he is not in the jewelry business, but is only interested in dry goods, he concluded to give his customers the benefit of his stock of silver. To be plain, he proposes to furnish Christmas presents in a novel way that should be very taking. Those who purchase goods to the amount of $2.50 are entitled to a present of some article of silverware. For cash $2.50 expended, a present can be had without further cost.

MORE INDUCEMENTS.

As a further concession to hard times, the whole stock of dry goods is being sold at a sensible reduction from usual rates. Everything is to go, and to go without reserve. With the low price, and the silver inducement, it is natural to suppose that business would be brisk, and so it is at Fishel's.

MILLINERY STORE.

Among the bargains to be had are men's all wool Suits for $12.50, reduced from $22.50; endless special bargains in Millinery; fancy silk Hosiery for ladies; a fine line of black lace Flouncings, all widths, at 50 cents on the dollar; woolen dress Goods; ladies' silk ribbed Vests at 50 cents each, former price $1.75; gimp trimmings at less than cost; best quality of Kid Gloves at 95 cents per pair, and every pair warranted, and a thousand other bargains.

A GENUINE SALE.

Fishel is certainly selling out; he offers his store for lease, and the fixtures are for sale. The contents of the store must be disposed of, and the opportunity to secure attractive bargains should not be neglected by the careful housewife.

IN CONCLUSION.

The distribution of silverware will continue during the holiday season, but every day sees a reduction in staple goods and the number of bargains is less as time goes by. Be wise, and visit Fishel's establishment, and participate in the "free silver" policy.
