The following certificate which was procured from the United States Brewers' Academy for the purpose of ascertaining the good quality of the "Budweiser Beer" brewed by the FRED. MILLER BREWING CO., Milwaukee, Wis., explains itself:

NEW YORK, April 9, 1892.
FRED MILLER BREWING CO.,
MILWAUKEE, WIS.

GENTLEMEN: The sample of beer which we examined for you contains in 100 parts:

	Per cent.
Alcohol	3.41
Extract	5.45
Sugar	1.32
Dextrin	2.68
Albuminoids	0.36
Lactic Acid	0.10
Mineral Substances	0.14
Hop Extract, etc	0.81

According to this analysis, we beg to state that in our opinion, the Beer has been well brewed, well fermented and well stored. It has a good life and shows good keeping qualities. The Beer has a good and nice round taste, and we can safely recommend it as a wholesome beverage. Yours respectfully,
UNITED STATES BREWERS ACADEMY,
per M. Schwarz.

In addition to the fact that this Beer contains remarkably little alcohol, we beg to say that it is brewed of genuine hops and the very best Wisconsin barley, known as "Scotch Fife," and the water is taken from the celebrated Wawatosa mineral springs well known throughout the Northwest; in fact it is the only Milwaukee Beer brewed with mineral spring water.

FRIDAY, : FEBRUARY 17, 1893.

THE Hale Naua Society evidently stands in need of some investigating. According to a statement made in the Council the other day, and reproduced in the ADVERTISER, it, or some one on its behalf, has appropriated books belonging to the Government Library by the neat and simple expedient of pasting the society's label over the Government stamp. This is not a lawful method of acquiring title, and it might be well to have a look through the Hale Naua's library and see how far it has enriched itself by this or analagous methods.

THE ISLAND OF WINGLESS BIRDS.

We have received from Mr. J. J. Williams a number of very excellent views of birds that make Laysan Island their home during certain seasons of the year. One variety manages to thrive very well without the means of aerial locomotion, which fact has earned for Laysan Island the title of "Land of the Wingless Birds." The views made by Mr. Williams are gems of photographic art, and include specimens of forty odd varieties of birds, from the diminutive snow bird to the black gooney. One picture shows the birds nesting; so many of them and so close together are they that it is impossible for a person to walk over the island without stepping on them. Another shows the snow bird on its nest, and a peculiarity of the bird is admirably illustrated. When the mating season arrives this bird, instead of building a regular nest as members of other feathery tribes do, selects a branch of a small bush and lays her egg on it without further ceremony or preparation. It is a very rare instance when the mother bird leaves the egg until the young comes forth, the male bird attending to her wants in the matter of food. Views of the mutton birds leaving their burrows under the sand are also shown to advantage. It is understood that Mr. Williams will put the views on sale in a few days.

ANNUAL RAINFALLS.

The meteorological branch of the Survey Office issues, besides other valuable matter, a table of the annual rainfall of the Hawaiian Islands at all the stations where there are observers. The table gives the elevation of each station with the name of the observer, and shows the rainfall for each month and the total for the year. Copies of the table are mailed to each observer, and others may obtain them by application at the Survey Office.

Honomu took the palm last year for rain, and leads the procession with 176.92 inches at an elevation of 900 feet. Six hundred feet lower down the fall was over 55 inches less. Olaa, on the Volcano Road, comes second with 143.06 inches, and Luakaha third with 127.02. Hilo town is not reported, but Waiakea shows 109.09. Hanalei leads Kauai with 100 inches and no report for January and February. As 22 inches fell at Kilauea during those months, it will appear that Hanalei, with 100 inches for ten months, has not been suffering from drought. Less than 73 inches have fallen at the Volcano House, which confirms the praises showered upon the climate of that favored spot.

Maui confirms its reputation as a dry island, the highest rainfall being 44.53 inches in the district of Kula, at an elevation of 4000 feet, while Honolulu proper ranges between 36.52 inches at Punahou and 24.28 at Kapiolani Park. As the mountains are approached the rainfall increases until high water-mark is touched at Luakaha.

The value of these careful records of meteorological phenomena is very great, and thanks are due to the many observers whose voluntary efforts make these extended statistics possible. The meterological department is in competent hands. and it is to be hoped that its inquiries may be pushed still further. All that is wanting is a large appropriation.

FOR ANNEXATION.

Secretary of State Foster is in Favor of It.

WASINGTON, Jan. 30. — Secretary of State Foster has informed the President that he will not go to Paris as was intended to look after the seal question, but will stay in Washington and fight for the annexation of Hawaii.

When asked if he expected any opposition to annexation by the Democrats or any resolution of inquiry from Mr. Outhwaite, Secretary Foster made a statement which clearly indicates that the policy of the Administration is in favor of annexation.

"There is nothing in the situation to disturb my equanimity, and I am not at all disturbed," he said. The people must bear in mind that the condition of affairs at Honolulu was not brought about by this Administration at Washington, nor by the Republican party, but by the acts of the Hawaiians themselves. Hawaiians are coming asking the United States to annex them."

Scotch Sugar.

A Philadelphia dispatch says: Since the removal of the duty upon all grades of fine sugar up to sixteen, Dutch standard, a large importing trade in Scotch sugar has grown up at this point. Scotch sugar is said to be equal to all grades of American sugar up to sixteen, Dutch standard, and has found a ready sale.

This means that the work of refining has been done in Scotland instead of this country. The duty on refined sugar is only half a cent a pound, and the cheaper labor of the old country enables them to undersell the American refiner in the American market. The fact that the sugar refining business of this country is largely in the hands of a combine will deprive the American company of much of the sympathy that would otherwise be felt for it in a contest with foreign refiners. The condition which is described in the dispatch will apply to other industries when the protective features are eliminated from our tariff policy. It will be found that a great deal of work can be done cheaper abroad than at home. Sugar refiners said that with free raw sugar they could compete with foreign refiners. They find, however, that their market is being taken possession of by foreigners with a duty equal to about one-fourth of the selling price of their product in their favor. A measure which gives foreign works possession of a country is a ruinous way to break up a home combine.—|San Francisco Call.

May Protect or Annex.

Sir Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, who questioned the British Government on Hawaiian affairs, is an American who has naturalized himself as a British subject. His brother is the husband of the very wealthy Baroness Burdett-Coutts. Sir Edward Grey, who replied, as Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, is of the family of Lord Grey, who carried the Reform bill of 1832, and a relative of the family of the present Earl Grey. He is a young and ardent Liberal of conspicuous ability. The reply he gave shows that England does not intend to interfere in Hawaii. No vessels of war will be sent, English interests being considered safe in American hands, and there will only be a chance call from a cruiser en route. Furthermore, no protest in any shape has been sent to Washington. Evidently the United States may protect or annex as it pleases without ruffling the feelings of other nations.—S. F. Call.

"Two Weeks' History."

The entire edition of "Two Weeks' of Hawaiian History" being exhausted, there will be another pamphlet issued by this office, comprising a careful revision of all contained in the "Two Weeks' History," and a complete record of all important events connected with the recent revolution, up to date of publication. The pamphlet will be ready and on sale in time to mail per O. S. S. Australia, Wednesday, March 1st. Orders from parties on the other islands will be promptly attended to, and if accompanied by a list of addresses, they will be forwarded respectively from this office. The cost of postage is 2 cents on each copy to the United States, Mexico or Canada; other parts of the world 4 cents per copy. The price of the pamphlet will be 25 cents per copy or $2.50 per doz.

For plain and fancy home-made cake, leave your orders at 116 Beretania street.

IN THE COUNCIL.

THURSDAY, Feb. 16, 1893.

The Council met at 10 A. M. and the minutes of the previous day were read and approved.

The reference of the Loan Act to a Special Committee was re-considered and a new committee was appointed consisting of President Dole, Messrs. Damon, Jones, Tenney and Cooper.

The report was adopted.

The Attorney-General stated that a petition for a writ of habeas corpus had been filed in the Sheldon case, at the instance of G. Carson Kenyon. The writ was addressed to Judge Whiting and returnable that morning. A large number of lawyers, Ashford, Creighton, Kaulukou, etc., represented Sheldon, but Ashford had withdrawn and Creighton did not appear. The petttioner was not ready and the hearing had gone over until 11 o'clock A. M., to-morrow.

Mr. Young asked why the examination could not proceed at once. Messrs. Cooper and C. Brown held that the Council had the right to proceed, and the Attorney-General confirmed that view.

Mr. Young moved, and Mr. McCandless seconded, that the Council proceed at once.

President Dole questioned the wisdom of becoming involved in a conflict with the Court, as the point that the Court did not have jurisdiction had not been raised in Court.

Mr. Damon took the same view. The Government was strong, amply strong, and should show that it had no fear of taking the cases before the Courts.

Mr. C. Brown believed in upholding the rights of the Government, but appreciated the force of President Dole's remarks.

The Attorney-General thought very much as the President and Mr. Damon did. He did not question the authority of the Government to proceed for one moment. He believed the writ should not have been issued and that the Court would take that view.

The motion to proceed with the examination was carried, and the prisoner was produced and notified that his examination would proceed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. This motion was re-considered later and it was decided to postpone action pending the action of the Court.

The Act to appropriate $50,000 to defray the expenses of Provisional Government was taken up and passed.

Mr. Cooper for the Judiciary Committee reported the Act to repeal the governors law.

Attorney-General Smith questioned somewhat the wisdom of this Act. The office was a useless one, but the Council should not do any unnecessary legislating. It should confine itself to what was necessary.

The bill was deferred to the next special session of the Council.

Mr. Cooper reported the bill amending the road board law. The principal amendment provides for the appointment of road boards by the Minister of the Interior when for any reason none has been elected.

The bill after some discussion passed.

Mr. Cooper for the Judiciary Committee reported a draft of the bill on the Fire Department. It was read by title and made the order of the day for Friday at 2 P. M.

The bill concerning the Hilo Judicial Districts was passed.

At 12 o'clock the Council adjourned.

A Crushed Foot.

Early last evening while the band was playing at the rooms of the United Chinese Society, a native on horseback recklessly rode through the crowd of people who were congregated on the street enjoying the music, knocking several of them down. A white man, said to be the mate of one of the merchant vessels in port, was trampled upon by the animal. He was picked up and carried to a neigboring store, where, upon examination, it was found that his left foot was badly crushed. The wounded member was dressed and the man conveyed to his ship. The native was not apprehended.

The duty of the United States in the Hawaiian problem is recognized by the people of the United States with remarkable unanimity. In every quarter and by every party it is seen that the United States must grant the request of the Hawaiians and annex the islands.—S. F. Examiner.

AMERICAN

Waltham Watch Co

Our last talk with you was about Dr. Jaeger's Sanitary Underclothing. We hope you have taken our advice and commenced to profit by it already.

We have another subject to discuss with you to-day. The cut at the head of this will show you that our remarks will be on TIME.

You are not perhaps aware that we are the Agents of the American Waltham Watch Co. of Waltham, Mass. We have been such for many years and keep constantly on hand a large assortment of Time Pieces of this company's make. In fact we make a specialty of their goods and handle none of any other make,

Let us tell you something about this famous Watch Co.:

Established in 1854 at Waltham, Mass., the pioneer of American Watch Co.'s, with a daily capacity of 2000 Movements, 500 Gold cases and 1000 Gold filled, Silver and Metal cases; and in the making and sale of these, employment is given to about 4000 people.

Big concern aint it? We carry a big assortment of their goods; all sizes and grades.

Come and see what we can do for you before purchasing elsewhere. We have Open face and Hunting cases in Gold and Silver Pendant, Lever Setting, and non-magnetic movements. In these days of common use of generators of electricity, your Watch should be non-magnetic to secure accuracy in time-keeping.

☞We guarantee all our Watches to keep good time. We have in our employ a reliable watchmaker and can repair watches of any make with accuracy and dispatch and at the most reasonable prices.

THE CHINESE NEW YEAR.

The Emperor's Subjects Celebrate It in the Usual Manner.

Chinese New Year was ushered in with the appropriate fire-cracker ceremony and an occasional bomb thrown in. The trouble commenced in earnest at midnight on Wednesday and continued without interruption until the early morning. Enough noise was made to put a "hoodoo" on all the evil spirits which had the temerity to journey to this earth while the exploding of fireworks was in progress. In consequence the Chinese citizens are very happy. Enough noise was made to assure the public that the foreign allies of a native paper had commenced to shell the town, but that idea turned out to be untrue. All day long the Chinese residents attired in their best clothes paid visit after visit to their friends, and before nightfall many of them had exceedingly red faces, caused no doubt by a too liberal acceptance of sam shu, which was dealt out with a generous hand.

Business for the day was virtually suspended and the Chinese New Year was celebrated in a hearty manner. A number of arrests were made for discharging bombshells contrary to the orders of the police, but, aside from that offense, the enthusiastic celestials caused no bother to the authorities.

The holidays will be observed to-day and to-morrow.

There are now five war vessels in port. It is the largest number centered here for some years.

Many ladies with escorts could be seen in the Chinese quarters last evening visiting different stores.

F. A. Schaefer advertises for tenders for machine-made poi to be supplied to the Queen's Hospital.

The three reservoirs in Nuuanu Valley are well supplied with water. The reservoir at Makiki is also full.

Several new laws enacted by the Executive and Advisory Councils, appear in the official column in this issue.

All Sir Knights of P. H. Brooks Division of K. of P., are notified to appear at Myrtle Hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

At a special meeting held last evening, the Fire Police elected L. H. Dee to act as Captain until the return of Captain Downey.

The long looked-for football game between the Pacific and Punahou clubs will take place to-morrow afternoon at the league grounds.

John Sheldon, the alleged editor of the Holomua, will be brought before Judge Whiting this morning at 11 o'clock on a writ of habeas corpus.

To-morrow at noon at the old Central Union Church lot, Jas. F. Morgan will hold an auction sale of coral stone and other building materials.

N. S. Sachs' popular millinery house is exhibiting some pretty styles in feminine headwear. Their stock of fine dry goods has been increased of late also.

Nineteen Chinese were arrested yesterday morning for violating the "fire-cracker" rules of the Marshal. The were reprimanded and discharged by Judge Foster.

The schooner Carrier Dove will leave for San Francisco to day. All marked mail will be forwarded on her. Letters will be received until 10 o'clock at the Post Office.

Hobron, Newman & Co. have overhauled their soda fountain, and now it turns out better soda than ever. Their ice-cream soda with fresh fruit syrup cannot be excelled.

Frank Godfrey was the only passenger on board the steamer C. R. Bishop which left port on Thursday night in search of the missing sailors of the wrecked bark Lady Lampson.

Captain Wiltze, of the U. S. S. Boston, will leave for home on the next Australia. Previous to his departure, he will be tendered a farewell reception by the citizens of Honolulu.

Mr. Mellis asked the government for $15,000 to start his Kona coffee cafe at Chicago. The committee has reported unfavorably on his petition for aid, so in all probability he will not receive any.

Whenever any holiday comes along, a flag is hoisted on a flagpole on the McInerny building, and many people at a distance cannot make out just what country it represents. If you read M. McInerney's new advertisement in this issue it will tell you all about it.

Charles Brown, the second mate of the wrecked bark Lady Lampsen, was ordered yesterday to furnish a bond of $100 to keep the peace. It will be remembered that he was arrested the other day for making threats against Mrs. Peterson, the wife of the captain of the vessel.

Superintendent White, of the Water Works, likes a good story, but the little anecdote about cigars—yesterday's issue—was too much for him. He says that when employees of the water bureau want to smoke they buy cigars at their own expense. It turns out that the bill for cigars was contracted by the fire department, and not by Mr. White's employees.

Goo Kim, the Chinese Commercial Agent, and the members of the United Chinese Society, received their friends yesterday at the rooms of the Society on King street. Members of the Diplomatic and Consular corps called to pay their respects, besides a large number of prominent citizens. The Hawaiian Band was stationed on the balcony and played lively airs at intervals.

JACK ASHORE!

A Mob Congregates on the Corner of King and Nuuanu Streets to Spur It On.

Several hundred people congregated on the corner of Nuuanu and King streets last night and stood for an hour and a half in momentary expectation of seeing a general riot break out between sailors belonging to the Garnet and men from the American warships now in port.

Ever since the British warship has been in port it has been a common remark around town that the sailors representing the two nations would meet some evening and during the inevitable argument regarding supremacy the men would have a free fight. Up to last night there had been no serious expressions of any bitter feeling between the sailors representing the two flags, and if it had not been that some English seamen had too much whisky on board there would not have been any signs of fight then.

The Garnet's men started the ball arolling early in the evening, when about a dozen of them, who were under the influence of liquor, stopped in front of the United Chinese Society's rooms on King street. They commenced to sing "Britannia Rules the Wave," and after they had finished the song, one man took a position on the steps and made an insulting remark about the stars and stripes, and then challenged any American in the crowd to take it up.

The sailors then went over to the Pacific Saloon. Later on some American sailors made their appearance, and thanks to the good sense of a petty officer belonging to the Mohican the sailors did not show fight when offensive remarks were made about them by the Englishmen. He told his men not to get into any trouble and they obeyed him.

In the meantime the crowd outside the saloon was increasing every moment until a small mob had been collected.

The onlookers were disappointed, however, as but one blow was struck, and then all fistic encounters were at an end.

"The importance of the local authorities to take some action in the matter is clearly apparent," said a citizen last evening. "In the first place the police authorities should never allow such a large crowd of people to congregate on the streets, as their presence is like giving encouragement to the sailors to spill blood. Then," continued the speaker, "all saloonmen who sell liquor to quarrelsome and drunken men should be closed up by the Minister of the Interior, or some other action should be taken in the premises."

The foregoing suggestion is a good one and it might put a check on the amount of drunken sailors who can be seen any night on Nuuanu street just spoiling for a fight.

Another suggestion was made to the effect that the Marshal should appoint about six reliable white men to guard Nuuanu street while the sailors are ashore. Their presence would do much to put an end to the petty squabbles which are common in one or two saloons in that thoroughfare. In a case of this kind native policemen will not do, and if Marshal Ashley wants to preserve peace he will have to take some decided action in the matter.

A Plain Talk to Men.

Mrs. M. Clement Leavitt delivered a very interesting address at the Y. M. C. A. last night to a pretty fair audience. She gave a plain talk, on the "Conduct in Life of Men and Women," especially to younger members of society. Mrs. Leavitt talked of the vices of almost every city in the world that she had visited. She concluded her remarks by introducing the White Cross Society, urging men of Honolulu to form such a society here for the elevation of the morals of the community and prevention of youths from impurities early in life. Her remarks were listened to with great attention.

The Wheelmen.

The Pacific Wheelmen held a meeting last evening at the skating rink. It was decided to have several races about the latter part of next month, probably along King street. Several new members were admitted. The meeting ended after the election of the following officers:

President, H. E. Walker.
Captain, H. A. Giles.
Secretary and Treasurer, W. M. Bush.
Lieutenant, R. A. Dexter.

WHARF AND WAVE.

The schooner Carrier Dove takes to San Francisco to-day 21,555 bags sugar, valued at $88,879.93.

The barkentine Hilo will leave for San Francisco to-morrow.

The W. G. Hall will arrive this afternoon from windward islands.

The bark Ceylon has gone down to the Kinau wharf to load sugar.

The schooner Aloha is expected to leave for San Francisco next Wednesday.

The wreck is just reported of the bark Eliza, which was built 120 years ago. She appeared in the register long before steamers came into existence, and for some time ran between Plymouth and Halifax, N. S., as a packet ship. With the advance of a more modern vessel and then the introduction of steamers, the Eliza had to fall out of the front rank, and subsequently went into the fish-carrying trade between Newfoundland and the Brazils and thus ended her career. The Eliza, in ballast, was leaving the Brazilian coast for Gaspe to load fish, when she got ashore and became a wreck.—[Am. Ex.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Captain Leutt of the schooner Minola, of Windsor, N. S., his wife and five sailors were rescued at sea on January 5th and brought to this port to-day by the ship S. D. Carleton. For three days and three nights they had been drifting about without provisions when rescued.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 18.—The steamship Samoa, the largest freight-carrying vessel in the world, is moored at the West Wego elevator, where she arrived yesterday. After taking on 175,000 bushels of wheat the big ship will come down to the city and finish out her cargo with 7000 bales of cotton and 1000 tons of cotton-seed oil cake and meal. The Samoa will lie at the wharf here for about two weeks. She is 445 feet in length, 52 feet beam, 34 feet 8 inches depth of hold, and carries 9259 tons, with 25 feet 5 inches draught. Her speed is ten and one-half knots an hour.—Special dispatch to Globe-Democrat.

ACT 12.

An Act to Restrict the Importation and Sale of Opium or Preparations thereof.

BE IT ENACTED by the Executive and Advisory Councils of the Provisio nal Government of the Hawaiian Islands.

SECTION 1. The importation of opium or any preparation thereof into the Hawaiian Islands, except as authorized by Section 2 of this Act, is hereby strictly prohibited, and whoever shall import, sell, give or furnish opium, or any preparation thereof, to any person in the Hawaiian Islands, except as provided in Section 2 of this Act, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than two thousand dollars, and to be imprisoned at hard labor for any term not less than six months, nor more than two years; one-half of which pecuniary penalty shall be paid to the party giving the information which shall lead to the conviction of the offender.

SECTION 2. The Board of Health may from time import such quantities of opium, or preparations thereof, as the said Board shall deem necessary for medical purposes in the Hawaiian Islands, and shall furnish it at cost price to any physician or surgeon having a diploma or certificate from some medical college or university, and who has a license to practice medicine in the Hawaiian Islands; also to the person in charge of the medicines at the Leper Settlement at Molokai, to be issued exclusively for medical purposes. And the said Board may also furnish it to the captain or surgeon of any vessel bound to a foreign port for use on board of such vessel.

SECTION 3. Any person who shall have in his possession opium, or any preparation thereof, which he shall not have received from the Board of Health, or from a duly licensed physician or surgeon, as prescribed in Section 2 of this Act, shall forfeit such opium or preparation thereof to the Government, and the same shall be seized and delivered to the Board of Health; and such person shall be liable to a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or to be imprisoned at hard labor for a term of not less than one month nor more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the magistrate, one-half of which pecuniary penalty shall be paid to the party giving the information which shall lead to the conviction of the offender.

SECTION 4. Any physician or surgeon who shall sell, prescribe or furnish opium, or any preparation thereof, to any person in the habit of smoking or otherwise using the same, or to any other person, except as a remedy in case of sickness, shall forfeit to the Government all opium, or preparations thereof, which may be in his possession; and it shall be seized and delivered to the Board of Health, and he shall be fined in the sum of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars; and if he shall violate this Act more than once he shall not again be furnished with opium by the Board of Health.

SECTION 5. All confiscated opium or preparations thereof which shall have come into the possession of the Board of Health, shall be securely kept until such time as the same shall be disposed of as hereinafter provided, except that where the quantity of opium seized shall be less than one one-half pound tin the same shall be destroyed.

SECTION 6. The Board of Health shall as soon as practicable sell all confiscated opium or preparations thereof which shall have come into its possession, and at such price as it shall deem fit, such sale may be either public or private, in the discretion of the Board; provided that all opium so sold shall be exported from this country. One half of the gross proceeds derived from the sale of confiscated opium shall go to the informant in addition to the compensation as provided in Section 1 of this Act, and the balance shall be the property of the Government.

SECTION 7. The several District Magistrates are hereby invested with authority to try and determine all cases arising under this law.

SECTION 8. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to exempt any person or vessel from the pains and penalties prescribed by the laws of the Hawaiian Islands against smuggling, nor to affect any prosecutions pending at the date of the approval of this Act.

SECTION 9. An Act entitled "An Act to Provide for and Regulate the Importation, Sale and Use of Opium and Preparations thereof," approved on the 13th day of January, A. D. 1893, and all other laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Approved this 16th day of February, A. D. 1893.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the statements made or opinions expressed by our correspondents.

MR. EDITOR: "Veritas Prevalebit" in Wednesday evening's Bulletin, seems to think that I do not wish the natives to have justice done to them, by the United States Government. Nothing could have been wider of the mark than this thought, and one of my strongest reasons in favor of annexation, is, that the natives will have their true rights and liberties more respected under the American flag, than under any other.

They will not be allowed in the future, however, to endanger the capital invested in this country, as they have done in the past, and will have to allow the rights of others, besides themselves, to be respected.

That they have had every chance to successfully govern their native country, no one can deny, and that they have utterly failed in doing so, is universally admitted by all persons of common sense.

Would there be more justice shown to the natives then, in allowing them to continue to misgovern their country, and rule or ruin, as they desire to, than to make the stability of the Government unquestionable, by making it a part of the American Union, and who will have more rights Mr. Editor, than the natives after annexation takes place.

How much did the natives think about the "rights" of others on January 14th last, when they tried to persuade the then Queen, to choke the best people here, with a new constitution that would allow them to play the fiddle and dance, while the taxpayers could pay for it.

Justice to the natives, fair play, etc., sounds very good, but the United States Government will no doubt take ALL of the facts into their consideration, when deciding the question of admitting Hawaii into the Union.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the space allowed me in your valuable paper. TRUTH.

MR. EDITOR: Will you please allow the space for the publication of the correspondence herewith, which the Holomua would not publish but instead gave a very lame excuse for damning the name of the Portuguese colony.

A. SENTINELLA.

Honolulu, Feb. 16, 1893.

[COPY.]

EDITOR OF THE DAILY HOLOMUA: My attention was called to a certain article in the English version of the Daily Holomua of the 14th inst., referring to the Portuguese colony as being a "filthy, ignorant and undesirable class," one that would not be admitted as citizens of the United States.

Mr. Editor, I am greatly surprised at your cowardly attack in trying to blacken the name of the Portuguese colony, for the sake of hindering the progress of annexation (in your mind), when you are well aware that the Portuguese immigrants have been the most desirable class amongst all that have come here, including some of the Anglo-Saxon immigrants.

And in regard to annexation of this our country, to the United States, the Portuguese can give you a pointer that it is better to be poor under the Stars and Stripes than to be wealthy under England, because she soon will impoverish you as was the case with us in Africa.

THEY FAVOR THE ANNEXATION OF THE ISLANDS.

HOIST THE STARS AND STRIPES

The United States is suddenly brought face to face with a state of affairs in the Hawaiian Islands which must be managed promptly. We are confronted by a situation that is insistent. The revolution is an accomplished fact, and the Provisional Government has been recognized by the American Minister, as well as by the representatives of most of the powers which maintain diplomatic relations with the islands. This new government has dispatched a special commission to Washington, asking for annexation, though not for Statehood. The measure of its desire is that Hawaii should become an American Territory.

These islands are an outpost of the United States. Their naval and commercial importance are recognized. Shall we, because of a conservative instinct which renders departure from traditional policy unpleasant, sacrifice solid advantages and permit their transfer to England?

The business and the wealth of Hawaii are in the hands of Americans. The monarchy has been overthrown by our countrymen, not as adventurers, but as sober men defending their lives and their interests. There will be questioning of motives, accusations of selfishness under the guise of patriotism, and a cry that the natives are being robbed of their birthright. But one incontestible fact stands out above all the confusion and ruck of small ambitions. It was the Queen who precipitated the crisis by attempting to break through every legal restraint and impose a new constitution on the kingdom that would have deprived the whites of the rights and privileges solemnly guaranteed them. This was revolution undisguised. The counter revolution was clearly an act of legitimate self-defense. Liliuokalani brought her fate upon herself and forfeited the sympathy of all who believe in constitutional government.

It is a condition and not a theory with which the United States has to deal. Common sense and sound policy dictate that the Hawaiian Islands should be annexed. The group must not pass under European ownership.

THE HAWAIIAN REVOLUTION.

Queen Liliuokalani, of Hawaii, has been deposed, a Provisional Government has been formed to administer affairs pending annexation to the United States, and a Commission has arrived here on Saturday en route to Washington, to propose such annexation.

This result has been brewing for years. The principal business interests of Hawaii are in the hands of white foreigners, Americans predominating. The royal government of the kingdom has been much of the opera bouffe style, yet having a serious influence upon the fortunes and prospects of the country. It has been well understood for years that the foreign interests were the real power in Hawaii. The monarchy existed largely on sufference, and as a concession to native tradition. It would be maintained so long as the sovereign was on good behavior.

On the accession of Queen Liliuokalani in 1891 it was hoped that a new policy would be adopted. This hope has not been fulfilled. The Queen has sought to extend her prerogatives. Her last scheme was to promulgate a new Constitution, disfranchising foreigners, abolishing the elected Upper House of the Legislature, and substituting in its place one appointed by the Crown; in fact, restoring the status previous to the revolution of 1887. In this course she has had the support of a certain element. There has been a cry raised for some time past of "Hawaii for the Hawaiians." Several irresponsible white adventurers have instituted native sentiment to that effect. Royal ambition has allied itself with demagogy and the least intelligent native element against this movement, and to the interest of political security and business progress the present revolution has been directed.

The proposition for annexation to the United States is a natural result of the movement. So far as the interests of this country are concerned this much may be put down as imperative. No European Power must ever obtain a foothold in Hawaii. It is our outpost in the Pacific. If the Hawaiians distrust their ability to govern themselves, government by the United States is the only possible alternative. England would jump at the opportunity of acquiring the islands. They would complete her chain of stations from Australia via Fiji and other Southern Pacific islands to Vancouver and Esquimalt, representing her commercial and military interests.—S. F. Bulletin.

ESTABLISH AMERICAN AUTHORITY.

The necessity for decisive action is pressing, and fortunately the initiative has been taken by the islands. Should the United States annex Hawaii it would comply with the demands of its de facto government, and at the same time establish American authority over territory which commands the North Pacific, and is at once the naval and commercial key to its supremacy and trade. In possession of these islands the United States could establish a naval station there which should be impregnable, and which would certainly dominate the ocean. When the Nicaragua canal is built Honolulu will be in the direct track of the world's commerce, and as Pearl harbor, where the naval station would be established, is only nine miles distant, it follows that this country would be in the strongest possible position after annexation. — Exchange.

NO HESITANCY ABOUT IT.

For political reasons, therefore, we advocate the annexation of Hawaii. There need be no hesitancy about it, as there are no treaties which could bar this enterprise. The treaty between Great Britain and France recognizing the independence of Hawaii bound these powers not to annex the islands. The United States recognized the Hawaiian Government, but refused to bind itself not to assume territorial jurisdiction should it be deemed expedient. The way is therefore diplomatically clear, and there should be no hesitation in acting now that Congress is in session.—S. F. Report.

OUGHT TO EXTEND THE FLAG.

As a measure of farseeing statesmanship the United States ought to extend their flag over the Hawaiian Islands in order to prepare for the eventualities of the future. He must be short-sighted indeed who does not foresee that in the coming centuries the Pacific Ocean will become the chief center of human activity, and that the extension of commerce and intercourse on Pacific waters will lead, as such extensions always have, to wars and territorial conquests. When that era comes the possession of the Sandwich Islands will be a matter of prime importance. They will be to the North Pacific what Malta has been to the Mediterranean. The power which holds them, with impregnable modern fortifications fully equipped dockyards and an ample stock of coal, will dominate the Pacific north of the equator. And though it is no part of the purpose of the United States to work out its destiny through the agency of war, yet still it must not be forgotten that the occupation of the islands by a foreign power — not necessarily European, but more likely Chinese or Japanese, when those nations become aggressive, as they may—would interfere very seriously with the pacific purpose of the United States to extend commerce and civilization through the lands that are washed by the great ocean of the world.—S. F. Call.

THE ONLY COURSE.

There is but one logical course to be followed by the United States in settling the Hawaiian problem. Hawaii must be annexed.

It goes without question that no foreign power can be allowed to seize the islands. This government would be compelled to resist any such movement by all the resources at its command. A joint protectorate is not to be considered. The United States has had enough of the joint protectorate in Samoa. At best it is a system that secures the least efficient government at the greatest expense. It can satisfy neither the governed nor the people of the protecting powers.

Annexation must come. There is no permanent middle ground between absorbing the islands and turning them over to England. The better judgment of the people realizes this fact. The press of the country is almost unanimous in recognizing that the islands must be taken. The public men of the country show hardly two opinions. The politicians alone hesitate, waiting for the voice of the people. The strength of the response from every quarter of the country should reassure them.

BRITISH COAL STATIONS.

England Has Them on Both Sides of the Continent.

The U. S. Naval Intelligence Office at Washington has prepared a list of the British stations in the Atlantic and Pacific. In the Pacific are the following: Esquimalt, where there is a coaling station and dry dock, partly fortified, but not finished; Panama, where the British Government has a contract with the Pacific Navigation Company to supply English ships with coal; Callao, where another contract of the same kind exists; Coquimbo, where there is a pile of 5000 tons of coal; Suva, on the Fiji islands, where an old hulk is stationed and kept loaded with coal by contract; Port Kenyon, on Thursday island, where there are fortifications.

In the Atlantic there are: Halifax and Bermuda; Port Royal at Jamaica; San Lucia, where there is another 5000-ton coal pile; Briegeton and Port of Spain.—Ex.

MILLIONS FOR THE FAIR.

Money Appropriated by Foreign Nations and the Various States.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 18.—The report of President Palmer, of the World's Fair Commission, will show that the foreign governments have altogether set aside for the Fair about $5,843,598, distributed among eighty-six nations, colonies, principalities, etc. Germany heads the list with an appropriation of $800,000; France is second, having appropriated $733,000; Japan comes next with $630,000; and Brazil is fourth with $600,000. The next largest is Great Britain's appropriation of $291,000.

Thirty-one of the States are erecting pavilions, their appropriations aggregating $3,600,045. Illinois leads with $500,000, while California, New York and Pennsylvania come next with $300,000 each, Colorado, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Washington have each appropriated $100,000 or over, and the other States range from $20,000 to $75,000.

THE ALLIANCE.

Arrival of the American Warship From Samoa.

The U.S.S. Alliance, Commander J. C. Rich, arrived off port last evening, about eighteen days from Samoa. She will come inside this morning and take her place in Naval Row. It is understood that she will remain in port about ten days and then leave for San Francisco.

The Alliance was at this port during last October, having been sent here to relieve the Boston, but the cruiser was ordered to remain here and the Alliance received word to proceed to Samoa, at which port no American vessel was present.

After a short stay at Pago Pago the vessel then made a cruise, after which she left for Honolulu about the 29th of January.

The Alliance is a wooden vessel of 1375 tons, and belongs to the class of third-rate sloops of the old type of United States war vessels. She was built at the Norfolk Navy Yard, Va., in 1875, and first went into commission in 1876. During her period of steady cruise of seventeen years she was out of commission but once, and that was in 1889, when she underwent a thorough overhauling for four months at the Norfolk Navy Yard. She possesses engines of 1000-horse power, capable of giving the vessel a speed of about eleven knots per hour. Her battery consists of smoothbores, placed on the main deck.

In 1881 the Alliance was despatched to the Arctic ocean in search of the Arctic Exploring Expedition party in the Jeanette. The Alliance on this voyage went up as far north as latitude 80 degrees, 10 minutes, which is north of Spitzberg. There are only three other vessels which have reached a higher latitude than this. Two of the officers on that memorable expedition are still on board.

Commander: J. C. Rich.
Lieutenants: S. P. Comly, M. L. Wood, R. Henderson.
Ensigns: C. C. Marsh, J. C. Drake, T. Washington, F. Boughter.
Surgeon: J. C. Wise.
Paymaster: Reah Frazer.
Chief Engineer: H. N. Stevenson.
Assistant Engineer: H. Hall.
Lieutenant: E. K. Coll, U.S.M.C.
Pay Clerk: E. S. Updike.

Girls from the Dressmaking Department of Kawaiahao Seminary may be employed to go out sewing by the day or week to do plain dressmaking or sewing.

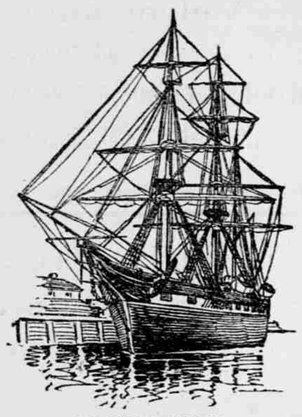
THE NEW CABLE SHIP.

The Wonderful and Strange In Our Midst!

LIVELY TIMES ARE COMING

A Tidal Wave is Predicted. Read On

Our Special Artist has not been idle, as may be known by the following cut which is a gem in its way:



THE BARK PROGRESS.

This is the bark Progress. It is the bark that will bring the cable to Hawaii, and Progress is what we all want. There cannot be any progress unless you buy your hosiery from Fishel.

A girl will wear hose with a hole in the heel, but ducks like rainy weather, and FISHEL'S bargains are the talk of the town.

What's the matter with the anchor? FISHEL has an anchor in low prices and steady sales. He don't sell anchors, but peanuts should be roasted before eaten.

Why does an anchor resemble an old tomato can? Because it don't. Buy toys of FISHEL. Goats like tomato cans and hard times melt away when bargains are offered. FISHEL has 'em—not tomato cans, but bargains.

Now we have a cunning little fellow who is waiting for a holiday. He has a bald headed doll, and papa is going to see FISHEL about some new toys. FISHEL is the man for these times. He doesn't want the earth by any means, but will sell everything in his store for Kalakaua Dollars. Horner's money won't go.

LIVES ON NUTS AND APPLES.

Mrs. Le Favre Is a Vegetarian, a Delsartean and a Club Woman.

Mrs. Carrica Le Favre, of Chicago, has several claims to distinction not possessed by many women. In the first place, she is a vegetarian so pronounced in her views on the subject of vegetable food alone that it is ten years since she has even tasted anything out of the realm of cereals, fruits, vegetables and nuts. She subsists largely upon the last mentioned article of diet, and regards nuts and apples as the best and most elevating food for mankind. Once she lived three weeks upon apples alone. Apples stewed, baked, boiled and fried—but always apples.

MRS. LE FAVRE.

Mrs. Le Favre's next claim to distinction is that she is a Delsartean who has succeeded in adapting Delsarte principles to everyday life. "How to carry an umbrella," "How to walk," "How to look at flowers" and "How to bow" are among the accomplishments taught by Mrs. Le Favre. She has written besides many short articles several books, among which are "Mother's Help and Child's Friend," "Physical Culture on Delsartean Principles" and "Royal Road to Beauty and Health."

Mrs. Le Favre is a member of the Woman's Press club of New York, the Woman's Press club of Chicago, the American Society for the Promotion of Physical Culture, American Society of Authors, the American Delsarte association, the New York club and six other clubs and societies, besides being lecturer on elocution in the Tourgee conservatory of Chicago.

"How does one woman manage to accomplish so much?" is frequently asked by admiring sisters who find time pressing with not half so many engagements on their hands.

Well, no one knows. But this is certain. The energetic Mrs. Le Favre finds time to attend to all her official duties, lectures, classes, etc. And in addition to these she keeps house, has many social demands, dresses in the latest styles and is always a perfect picture of blond loveliness. She says it is because she is a vegetarian. AUGUSTA PRESCOTT.

THE ETIQUETTE OF WINE DRINKING.

As Applied to Abstainers and Their Entertainers.

In these days of dinner giving and of the very usual serving of wine upon the tables of the rich and well to do the conscientious abstainer finds it difficult as ever to do his duty. He is often the guest of men and women whom he feels to be in many respects far better than himself, and yet they serve wine, which his sense of right will not allow him to drink. Of course he allows the servant to fill his glass. If toasts are offered he lifts his glass to his lips. Of course also he says nothing to any one unless compelled to do so regarding his feelings in the matter.

There is an equally plain code, it would seem, for the host and hostess of such a guest, but from the fact that it is seldom observed it may not perhaps be quite so obvious as at first it appears.

It seems reasonable that a host or hostess, upon observing that a guest sits through course after course without touching his wine, should reflect that a mention of the subject would very likely produce embarrassment. It is a rule of good society that no word should be uttered therein which may produce embarrassment. The guest presumably does not care to admit to one at whose table he is sitting, and whom he sees partaking of wine and pressing it upon others, that he does not think it right to enjoy that beverage. Only a pharisee of the pharisees could relish such a course as that.

If attention, therefore, is called to his abstinence he can only, as thousands have done before him, make some pretext to cover his eccentricity. He can say, "Wine does not agree with me," or "Wine affects my head," or his nerves or digestion or something of that sort, some one of which must be true. If pushed further he must of course admit that his conscience supplies his chief reason, thus indirectly condemning his host and hostess, and very likely every other guest at the table.

Upon stating the case in this plain way the breach of propriety committed by those who question a guest concerning his reasons for refusing to drink wine becomes glaringly evident. Yet this is done constantly by otherwise well bred people. A host and hostess should never seem to observe that a guest does not drink his wine. He has manifested his good opinion of them, in a general way, by appearing at their table. They should not drive him to emphasize, in such a place, whatever differences there may be between them.

A lady was once entertaining at luncheon a woman whom she had supposed to be a lady also, and whom, although a stranger, she had called upon and invited to her table out of regard for the mutual friend for whom the party was given. No wine was served with this luncheon. One of the ladies present, a warm prohibitionist, injudiciously remarked upon the fact. The stranger took up the subject with unnecessary energy and calmly declared amid the silence of the astonished company that she was rendered very uncomfortable by being obliged to take a meal without wine.

The hostess, unable to endure the reflection that a partaker at her table should be afflicted with the pangs of indigestion in consequence, managed to linger with her strange guest for a few moments after the rest and ordered brought for her a glass of peptonized sherry, the only drink of the kind which the house contained, and which she condescendingly drank.

The Right Time.

LOQUACIOUS SQUATTERS.

Queer Folks One Meets While Traveling Over Stretches of Prairie.

Journeying across the prairie in whichever way the road runs, we at length overtake the strangest looking cavalcade imaginable—a dilapidated wagon with a dirty, ragged cover, drawn by an ill assorted team of a very small horse and an oversized mule long since fit subjects for the boneyard. The driver is a dirt begrimed, tobacco stained, low visaged man, while his wife and family, which last is much too numerous for even a wealthy man, are if anything more dirty, more ragged and more disheveled than himself. On a tall, gaunt mule rides the eldest son and heir (?), driving before him a herd of two cows, a calf, one sheep, a goat and an old, blind, lame horse, while two mangy, mongrel curs trot in the rear as if only too fully aware of their miserable existence. Occasionally the jaded team essays to move out of a walk, but as quickly relapses into the pace which for many weary months has been its accustomed gait.

As we rode up the following dialogue ensued:

"Howdy."

"Howdy."

"Traveling?"

"Travelin rite smart."

"Come far?"

At which point there is a lull in the conversation, during which each surveys the other. Suddenly the knight of the tobacco quid turns interrogater:

"Say, stranger, what might yer name be?"

At this an insane desire takes possession of us to reply like the schoolboy, "It might be Jones, but it ain't," but we tell him our name, after which the way is open for an endless string of inquiries, the first of which are invariably:

"What might your business be?"

"Where be you goin?"

"Where'd you come from?"

"How's crops there?"

This sort of thing is bad enough to go through once, but when one passes a dozen such each day in the week, with each of whom he is expected to go through the same performance, it becomes a terror by day and a nightmare in our dreams. Moreover, one is expected to stop and go through it, and I have more than once heard myself characterized as "too high toned to talk to common folks," and merely because I had no time to stop and talk with them. The absurdity of this is at once apparent to those here in the east, where to mind one's own business is the universal custom. As a matter of fact, a live, energetic man has no time to talk or fool with people by the way. It matters not a picayune whom he meets, what their business is, where they are going or anything else concerning them.

At night we camp at the only water hole we have seen during the day and are soon joined by three bands of movers. Presently as many fires are burning, and as the darkness gathers the scene is by no means unpicturesque. Children are playing about, women are cooking, the men are tending the horses and staking them out for the night, while the flickering of the campfires, the harsh talk and coarse laughter of the men lend a certain something hard to describe. If everything we possess is not borrowed by our neighbors we are lucky, even to provisions, which last of course are borrowed with the mental understanding on both sides that they are not to be returned. Supper over, the siege begins. Visitors pour in from all sides, mostly from the male element, and for hours we are entertained with a complete history of each. We cannot ask them to go, for are they not "gentlemen" and as good as we? So there we sit, until finally one by one they drop off and leave us to ourselves.

This is a fair sample of a ride over Texas roads, and the same may be repeated every day in the year. In fact it was during my stay until I hated the sight of a wagon on the same road.—Washington Post.

A Cozy Nook.

Apropos of upright pianos a scheme for utilizing their backs in the formation of a cozy corner was recently seen. The piano was placed between the mantel and the window, the back toward the fireplace and quite out in the room. The straight back was covered with old gold silk, laid on in straight, lengthwise folds. A bench or settle, with end arms, but no back, was drawn across it and provided with a flat seat cushion of old gold corduroy and two pillows covered with the same material. Between piano and fireplace, in a position to throw its rays on the music rack, stood a piano lamp with a shade of old gold chiffon, and at the other end a palm was growing in a jar of dull Japanese effect.

When this cozy nook, which was still further protected at the opposite side by a "crane pole" portiere swinging out at an oblique angle with a door space, was lately intruded upon there lounged in it a husband with a pipe, and at the piano his wife struck scattering chords and gossiped with him between whiles.—Her Point of View in New York Times.

Progress in Artificial Rubber.

The discovery made by Dr. H. A. Tildin that isoprene, which can be prepared from turpentine, under certain conditions changes into what appears to be genuine rubber, has been followed up by experiments, the result of which points to an early utilization of the new process. It is now announced that Bouchhardat has produced the same change by heat, and the product is a material resembling pure Para rubber in every way and amenable to vulcanization.—New York Telegram.

Enemies of the Oyster.

One to two million oysters are produced from a single parent, and their scarcity is accounted for by the fact that man is not the only oyster eating animal.

The starfish loves the oyster and preys upon it unceasingly. A variety of whelk is also very fond of young oysters, to get at which it bores right through the shell and sucks the fish up through the hole thus made.—Buffalo Express.

The Illustrated Tourists' Guide

That popular work, "THE TOURISTS GUIDE THROUGH THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS," is meeting with a steady sale both at home and abroad. The Yost

WRITING MACHINE.

Years ago, Mrs. Yost built a typewriter, the Remington No. 2 and Caligraph which were good enough then. But the family has increased by thousands. Other folks have hitched on extensions to hold 'em. But it's the same old typewriter, same ribbon, same scales, same rickety print. We want something modern, and we get it in the NEW YOST, which rises superior to the difficulties of any ribbon machine. The ribbon blurs print, wears full of holes, clogs type, takes power to pull it along, weakens manifolding and costs $8 or $10 a year. Our ink pad outlasts twenty ribbons. Can be changed in ten seconds, and costs less than $2 a year. And as to permanent alignment the YOST is the only machine which accomplishes this much desired feat.
