AN HAWAIIAN CABLE CERTAIN.

The Senate Votes for a Big Appropriation to Commence Work.

A CABLE CHARTER ASKED FOR.

Introduction in the House of a Bill to Incorporate Under United States Laws—The Incorporators Are Prominent San Francisco Capitalists.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—By a vote of 36 to 25 the Senate this afternoon took action in favor of the proposed Hawaiian cable. Twenty-four of the twenty-five voting in the negative were Democrats, the one Republican was Pettigrew of South Dakota. Of those who voted in the affirmative twenty-seven Republicans, six Democrats and three Populists. At first it was feared that the Senate would be divided on party lines, most of the speeches in opposition being from Democrats, and those in favor of the measure being from the Republicans. Senator White of California, was one of the Democrats who voted in the affirmative.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—By the decisive vote of 36 to 25 the Senate decided today to inaugurate the project of laying a cable from the Pacific Coast to Hawaii. An amendment to the diplomatic and consular appropriation was made, giving $500,000 for beginning work on the cable and authorizing the President to contract for the entire work, estimated to cost $3,000,000. This was the first practical result coming from the intermittent Hawaiian debate, lasting more than a year, and renewed with intensity the last week in connection with the proposed cable.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The diplomatic appropriation bill will probably go to the House on Monday for conference in Senate amendments. As the House reports are privileged, it will doubtless cause immediate consideration. There will be a hot fight in the House on this cable amendment. It will be strongly opposed by McCreary, chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, by Hooker, member of that committee, by Chairman Sayers of the Appropriations Committee, and other leading Democrats. The fight for it will be led by Hitt, the ranking Republican member of the Foreign Affairs Committee. Boutelle of Maine, and the entire Republican side will support it.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Ceslo Cesar Moreno, well known here and in San Francisco, is again trying to secure an extension of the cable charter granted himself, Leland Stanford, Senator H. D. Porter, Alfred S. Hartwell, Edward B. Pond, John C. Irwin, Ray Stone, A. C. Hawes, Herman Oelrichs, Charles R. Bishop, G. W. McNear, Louis B. Parrott, W. M. Buckner, C. I. Taylor, O. D. Baldwin, Henry F. Allen, W. J. Adams, John D. Spreckels.

The bill proposes to give the company the right to hold the requisite connections in the land offices and stations, and to exercise such powers as may be granted by any other government, with the provision that nothing in the action shall be construed to commit the United States Government to any financial liability or guarantee of carrying out its contracts.

The capital stock is to amount to $5,000,000 in 50,000 shares of $100 each, with the right to increase the stock to 200,000 shares by a vote of two thirds of the stock, and the shareholders are to organize when $1,000,000 of stock has been subscribed for and 10 per cent. of the subscription paid in. Nine directors are to constitute the board, to serve three years and hold their meetings in the United States. The bill includes an authorization for 5 per cent. bonds to the amount of $20,000,000, to constitute a first lien on the property and provide for an annual report of the company's affairs to the Secretary of the Treasury.

The cable project has been the work of Admiral John C. Irwin, who recently retired from active service, and at whose request Mr. Stone introduced the bill. Admiral Irwin has extensive interests in Hawaii and Japan. Of the other incorporators Hartwell, who was in Washington in 1891, working in the interests of a cable; Charles R. Bishop is the richest man on the islands; Hugh Craig is a prominent New Zealand capitalist; John D. Spreckels is a son of Claus Spreckels, and the others are prominent California business men.

It is understood the incorporators will endeavor to obtain subsidies from the governments interested, and will try to secure the patronage of the United States for their company. Representative Stone says he is heartily in favor of the Senate provision for a cable survey, and does not think the plan for incorporation of this company need interfere with the Government's course, or is necessarily antagonistic to the Senate plan.

The bill is the outcome of the private cable schemes of four years ago. The new company had no connection with the cable amendment adopted by the Senate Saturday. That action means the construction of a submarine cable by the Government of the United States as a quasi-military work, but open to commercial business at regular rates, exactly as in the case of a postal telegraph system, should one ever be adopted.

If the cable scheme which passed the Senate with flying colors should get through the House, which is somewhat doubtful, the new cable company will have nothing to do. If the Government cable scheme fails, the new company will be on hand at the next session and the subsidy scheme will be pressed for all it is worth.

Senator Perkins, who was to have introduced a similar bill in the Senate, said tonight: "I shall not introduce it until we dispose of the Senate amendment providing for an appropriation of $500,000 to begin work on a cable. If the Government will build a cable to Hawaii, of course we are willing to let it do so."

Admiral Irwin, the originator of the project, said: "The American terminus will probably be in a small cove near Monterey, Cal., and run to Honolulu and thence directly to Japan, with a station on Midway Island, owned by the United States, about a thousand miles west of Hawaii on the direct road to Japan."

Minister Thurston, of Hawaii, was waiting in the corridor for an opportunity to talk with Representative Stone. He seemed to be very much pleased to learn that the bill had been introduced. Speaking of the incorporators, he said to the Chronicle correspondent that he knew several of the gentlemen interested in the project, and that they were all men of the highest business standing.

Hugh Craig, on being interviewed in regard to the bill, said: "Its object is to ask simply for permission to incorporate under the laws of the United States and nothing else. No subsidy will be asked for."

"Having obtained this permission the incorporators would then ask concessions from the Russian, French, Japanese and Hawaiian Governments in order to gather funds sufficient to lay the cable on such routes as are necessary."

"Such concessions being obtained they will be in possession, when the next Congress meets, of all the necessary facts to lay before it to serve as arguments in favor of further assistance from the American Government."

"The plan contemplated is to build first a connecting cable from California to Honolulu, thence radiating to Japan and Australia."

"The Japanese Minister here intimated his strong desire to assist the proposition and of communicating with his Government relative to the necessity of granting assistance."

"The Russian and French legations have not yet been seen, but from the fact that the French already have a cable from Australia to New Caledonia on a direct line to Honolulu, and from the further fact that the French in Honolulu recently informed the Hawaiian Government that such a company was anxious to proceed with its cable to Honolulu, shows the sympathy of the French Government, while the warm interest taken in the proposition by the Russian Government in 1890 leads us to believe that subsidies can be obtained from both those governments."

Minister Willis Calls.

Minister Willis made an official call on Minister of Foreign Affairs Hatch yesterday morning. The interview is supposed to be in connection with the attitude taken by the American Minister regarding the deportation of Cranston, and possibly to inform the Government as to the stand taken by the United States government in accordance with last advices touching the capital punishment sentences found by the Military Court. Minister Hatch said last evening there was nothing in connection with the visit of Minister Willis that could be made public at this time.

Disabled out at Sea.

QUARANTINE, Feb. 11.—La Gascogne, the long overdue French steamship, limped into port last night with three red lights hanging from her mizzen mast as a signal that she was disabled. Her passengers were all on deck, some of them singing and most of them cheering, as persons are wont to do when their minds are suddenly relieved of a heavy strain. For thirteen days of a voyage lasting sixteen days the ship had been disabled.

When the Military Commission opened its Monday morning session there were a large number of native women present, mostly relatives of the twenty-one prisoners whose cases were not concluded on Saturday.

At 9:40 Recorder Jones read the minutes and the Court proceeded to business.

When called upon the prisoners pleaded as follows:

Kallona Reopos—Guilty to charge and first specification.

William K. Pua—Guilty to charge and first specification.

Haha—Declined to plead on advice of counsel.

J. K. Kamali—Not guilty.

William Kauwanoole—Not guilty.

George Markham—Declined to plead on advice of counsel.

Attorney Kane read the usual objection to the jurisdiction of the Court in behalf of the several prisoners represented by him, which was overruled by Judge Whiting.

Chas. Warren was the first witness called. He told of the early movements of the rebels and those present at Kahala on Sunday and Sunday night, and Monday. Several of the prisoners were identified by Warren; they were at Kahala cleaning guns.

Kawika's testimony was of the same nature as Warren's. He identified a number of the prisoners as being at Kahala on Sunday evening.

THEIR FATE WELL DESERVED.

Minister Thurston Defends President Dole and the Government.

AN INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

The Ex-Queen Has Applied Twice for Protection While She Was Plotting Against the Government—No Policy of Revenge—Stern Action Necessary.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. — L. A. Thurston, the Hawaiian Minister, being asked whether he had any information concerning the alleged sentencing to death of some of the leaders of the late Hawaiian insurrection, and whether in his opinion such sentences, if given, would be carried out, made a statement from which the following is extracted:

"If there is any particular policy in which the Hawaiian Government has erred in the past two years it has been in having been too lenient in dealing with those who have continuously schemed to overthrow it, first by strategic diplomacy and then by force.

"From its inception the Government has exhibited a leniency toward its enemies that is unparalleled in history. This extreme leniency has been a feature of the administration of Dole, which has caused criticism from many of his strongest supporters. I will state a few facts in substantiation of what I say:

"The penalty for treason from the foundation to the overthrow of the monarchy was death and confiscation of all property. On the 20th of January, 1893, three days after its creation, the Provisional Government passed an Act providing an alternative penalty for treason of fine and imprisonment, and otherwise mitigating the harshness of the former law.

"Again, although the revolution of 1894 was caused by the attempt of the queen to abrogate the constitution and disfranchise nearly every person connected with the new Government, she has since been treated with the utmost consideration by the Government. She has been allowed to occupy her comfortable residence in Honolulu within a block of the Executive Building in peace and without molestation, although she has unceasingly, publicly and privately, plotted for the overthrow of the Government, and finally made an arsenal in which were discovered forty rifles, two dynamite bombs, pistols, swords and ammunition in quantities.

"Again, although Liliuokalani has made no claim for compensation, the Annexation Commission, in the interest of harmony and to avoid even the appearance of harshness, secured the insertion in the proposed annexation treaty of a clause giving her an annual pension of $20,000, and until she began to openly work for the overthrow of the Government, the salary which she had received as queen continued to be paid to her by the Provisional Government and until Princess Kaiulani came to Washington to work for restoration she also continued to receive her former allowance.

"The ex-queen has twice applied to the Government for protection against supporters of the Government whom she feared might do her harm, one of the times being when she was in the act of negotiating with Mr. Willis for her restoration and the overthrow of the Provisional Government. Upon both occasions a squad of police was detailed to guard her from harm for as long a period as she desired.

"Her only response to all this treatment has been the beheading proposition made to Minister Willis and a continuous plotting to overthrow the Government, culminating in last month's insurrection.

"The royalists have been allowed and have repeatedly availed themselves of the privilege to associate unmolested in the public square in front of the Executive Building at Honolulu and unrestrictedly to pass such resolutions as they chose, condemning the Government, protesting against annexation, against the constitution and the Republic, and declaring in favor of the restoration of the monarchy.

"One of the serious features of the situation in Hawaii is that a number of leading insurrectionists are what may be called 'professional revolutionists.' The rank and file are ignorant dupes. Wilcox, the military leader in the late insurrection, whose doings on the island in the past decade have proven him to be a turncoat, ready at any minute to support the side which best suited his purposes, is cited as one of such a class.

"This is a fair sample of the material of which the leaders and organizers of the late insurrection are composed. Most of them are foreigners. Their class and character is that kind which furnished the commune in Paris and the anarchists' riot at Chicago.

"What is the Government of Hawaii to do? Is the Government to condone every offense that can be committed against a government, and upon capturing insurrectionists in the act of shooting down its citizens, allow them to again go free to repeat the operation at the first convenient opportunity?

"Amid hostile environment, amid opposition, treachery and revolution at home and depressing effects of continuously hostile influences from abroad, President Dole and his associates, to the best of their limited powers and with all the wisdom which God has endowed them, are maintaining their outer breastworks of civilization in the Pacific, with a reserve consisting of a handful of professional and business men, mechanics and clerks.

"The policy is not how to achieve revenge. It is how to prevent Hawaii from gravitating into the catalogue of chronic revolution. The gospel of forgiveness and forbearance has been practiced. Whatever measures are taken, the white men who organized the late insurrection and furnished the arms therefor, but had the adroitness to keep out of sight when there was fighting to be done, will be held to an equal degree of responsibility with their native companions, who had at least the manliness and courage to attempt to carry out their ill-conceived plan; and further, I know that Abraham Lincoln did not possess a more patient, loving, kindly disposition than does Sanford B. Dole; that there does not exist in the United States today a more generous-spirited, peace-loving, forgiving and unrevengful community than that residing in Honolulu and furnishing the leaders of the present Government."

GETS ANOTHER PRESENT.

Marshal Hitchcock is Presented With a Handsome Portrait.

During the past week Marshal Hitchcock has been agreeably surprised by receiving a number of useful and appropriate presents.

Last night there gathered in the Marshal's office a party of friends composed of Attorney-General Smith, Deputy-Marshal Brown, Andrew Brown, C. A. Brown, Capt. F. B. McStocker, Capt. Pratt, Judge Robertson, J. W. Jones, George P. Castle, C. D. Chase and several others. They congregated there for a purpose, and it was some little time before they could accomplish that purpose.

Marshal Hitchcock was inveigled out of the room for a few minutes, and during his absence all necessary arrangements were hastily executed. As the official entered the door Capt. McStocker laid a detaining hand upon his shoulders and said to him that on an occasion like this it was generally expected some one should make a speech. Several of your friends now here and who desire to express their aloha for you, have delegated me to introduce to you the gentleman who stands there, pointing to a portrait of the Marshal on the top of his new desk.

Marshal Hitchcock was taken completely by surprise. He thought there was some conspiracy being concocted and threatened dire vengeance against and would get even with all those concerned in it. When he had sufficiently recovered his composure, the Marshal said: "I thank you gentlemen."

The picture is a splendid likeness of the popular Marshal, is about 22 x 26 inches inside and contained in a handsome gilt and white frame. On the left lapel of the coat is shown a correct representation of the gold badge worn by Marshal Hitchcock. The portrait was executed by E. C. Hagg now in the city under engagement with J. J. Williams.

Accompanying the present was a card with the list of donors printed in neat type. It contained the word "Compliments" and bore the following names: J. A. King, W. O. Smith, F. B. McStocker, A. G. M. Robertson, Alfred W. Carter, Andrew Brown, C. A. Brown, Cecil Brown, A. M. Brown, W. A. Kinney, C. D. Chase, W. H. Rice, Geo. P. Castle, W. R. Castle, J. B. Castle.

WALLACE R. FARRINGTON, EDITOR.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1895.

MINISTER THURSTON'S able review of the situation in this country, given in another column, ought to be put in every home and newspaper office of the United States. It is a concise, honest and unbiased statement of facts, upon which no amount of sympathy can cast an untruthful reflection.

It is either a feast or a famine and now the Hawaiian cable comes up in the roll of the feast, doubly welcomed by the famine of the past. The efforts of prominent capitalists of this country, among whom General Hartwell has been an active worker, and their friends in the States have finally been rewarded not only by the passing of a bill to incorporate the International Pacific Cable Company, but by the proposition of a cable to be constructed and controlled by the United States Government. While the contest in the House over the Senate amendment which gives the former, will undoubtedly be a warm one there seems to be little reason to anticipate its defeat. This country must reap a dual benefit from the consummation of this project as Hawaii will be made the half-way house in the telegraphic communication which will be established between Pacific shores of the continents. Rapid transit in commercial intelligence will bring about rapid transit in commercial delivery and an increased development of the resources of every country of the Pacific brought into closer relations with the world of commerce. Every citizen will hail with satisfaction the approach to a realization of their hopes announced by the late advices from the Coast.

TWO WAYS OF LOOKING AT IT.

The attitude of the United States toward Hawaii today has become so thoroughly mixed up that, were it not for the serious nature of the matters at stake it would actually be amusing. There is certainly more or less of the ridiculous about it which we hope will be worked out as the voice of the American people makes itself felt. To the casual observer President Cleveland, Secretary Gresham and Secretary Herbert each appear to have their own peculiar views and have tempered their orders to subordinates in these islands accordingly. The Democracy in the Senate is divided, Senator Morgan leading the aggressive foreign policy movement, and Senator Gray posing as champion of the new Cleveland idea. Whatever changes may have been rung in the past, the return of Secretary Gresham to the old principles indicate a possibility that the Administration is coming to a realizing sense that it cannot hold to the sentiments expressed by Secretary Herbert.

The United States can no more cast aside the duty of practical suzerainty over the Hawaiian Islands than a well-to-do father can cast the child of his own flesh and blood into the street because he happens to take a personal dislike to one whom he is in duty bound to protect. After all the spirit of Mr. Gresham's order is to an extent a reflection of the Americanism that displayed itself in a universal condemnation of the policy that many Americans regarded as a more or less direct cause of the insurrection. Whether this order was prompted by a desire to carry out the will of the people or to baffle the efforts of the Republic, it is not for those suing for favors and a closer relation than mere moral support, to say. There are two ways of looking at it, and time alone will tell the story. Meanwhile the Republic of Hawaii has only to continue in the even tenor of its way and preserve law and order according to its own ideas. If Secretary Gresham will raise "Old Glory" over the Executive building and station a marine with a rusty musket to protect it, the country would be safe in letting every prisoner go, Scott free, otherwise it will have to keep to the mark of rigid prosecution until some future day when the pendulum of friendship swings this way.

The San Francisco Chronicle states one side of the case pretty clearly when it says: "In matters of construing and enforcing their own laws, a small nation stands on precisely the same footing as a great one. If an American citizen were duly convicted of treason against the German Empire or the French Republic, we should have no shadow of reason on which to demand, or even ask, his release, and the rule with regard to Hawaii is exactly the same as with regard to Germany or France. Hawaii is kindly disposed toward the United States, and might be willing to grant a commutation of sentence as a favor, when she could not, in honor, concede it were it demanded as a right. If American diplomacy shall succeed in saving anybody from the gallows it will be because the Administration will have done better than it ever has done since Grover Cleveland took his seat for a second term as President."

HAWAII AND THE PARTY WHIP.

Already the American press is beginning to forecast the place the present foreign policy of its Government, in which Hawaii plays a prominent part, will take in the national campaign of 1896. This is forecasting a new order of affairs that can be looked upon by the friends of Hawaii only with growing apprehension—bringing the party whip into play upon Congressional representatives in their voice and vote upon the Hawaiian question. Already, by the vote taken in the Senate, we have seen party lines strictly drawn, and at every turn of the wheel there are indications of the Hawaiian question being used as a political club to be swung for campaign purposes. A Washington correspondent, after referring to the division among the Democrats, says: "The Republican attitude is likely to be clearly defined by the next Congress, and in the platform of the next National Convention. A declaration in favor of the annexation of Hawaii is thought to be certain."

Although pleased with this show of friendship, previous history of American political parties makes it a very proper inference that if Republicans declare for annexation, Democrats are very liable to come out against it. Once the party leaders map the policy, the rank and file follow in the footsteps of their forefathers, and, as a rule, are willing to close their eyes to a little matter of personal friendship for Hawaii when the fate of a party is at stake. Brought to the front as a purely party measure, Hawaiian annexation is placed in an unfortunate position, to say the least.

The press, voicing the sentiments of the theatre-going people, is crying for a new opera house, now that the old one that stood idle month in and month out, is gone they want a place of amusement. There's nothing like being deprived of a thing to make people feel they must have it. But where is the money to come from? The people here who have money to spare are not those who build theatres or anything else through public spiritedness, there must be in sight some return for the investment and none can be seen in the theatre project. It is pretty well understood that the old opera house was an expense of about two thousand dollars a year to its owners with an offset of about $1500 per year for rentals. Not much money in the investment is there? Americans will tell you that there is not a city the size of Honolulu anywhere in the West but what has its opera house and two or three electric railway lines, but if you ask who built them you will learn that it was through the energy and enterprise of men who had corner lots and outside property for sale. Honolulu is one place on the map that has not had, and probably never will have, a real estate boom; its "just a stiddy growth." An opera house will not bring any better returns in Honolulu than would an ice factory at the North Pole and the people who want one built know it. How many people are there in Honolulu that would subscribe a thousand dollars each toward building one? Not a dozen outside the editors of the newspapers; but show an investment that will bring them a guaranteed return of 25 per cent. and they would tumble over each other to put their names down on the subscription list.

If you are thinking about painting your house you can do nothing better than examine our cards showing colors of Hendry's Ready Mixed Paints. You can find in the assortment, just what you need for either inside or outside work, and you can get more satisfactory results than if you bought white lead and oil and mixed your own colors. The pigment in our mixed paints is the best that can be found anywhere; the lead is just lead, and the zinc is pure zinc. You get no whitening and oil in our compounds. These mixed paints will stand the wear and tear of this climate better than any other paint manufactured. We simply ask you to try them and see that our statements regarding the quality of the paint are not exaggerated.

Solid silverware is almost as much in demand as it was Christmas time—it is useful twelve months in the year and just as acceptable to your wife as it was two months ago. Our stock is kept filled up at all times so that we can supply any demand made upon us.

The Haviland China we show you is rather better than anything we have ever shown before; the designs are different and probably more inviting to persons who have a penchant for fine China. We will be pleased to furnish prices on application.

JUST A FEW WORDS

on a subject which we know will interest every one: For years we have done the fine watch repairing in Honolulu.

Difficult work of every description which had formerly been sent to the Coast, was first properly handled in our Repairing Department. Such work as repairing complicated watches of every description; demagnetizing; making by hand any lost part of a complicated watch; in fact any difficult work pertaining to the repairing of fine watches is our especial forte.

The number of watches which find their way into our Repairing Department after having been through the hands of numerous EXPERTS (?) is beyond belief. Whilst we are at all times ready and willing to do every conceivable kind and condition of a job—would it not pay you better to bring your watch to us in the FIRST PLACE and be assured of an honest amount of work at a reasonable price, rather than take it from one to another, causing you delay and annoyance, to say nothing of the greater expense?

We Charge Less For Perfect Work

than you have been used to paying for inferior work right along.

As a matter of fact, the expert (?) who cleans your watch with a pair of bellows and a crow-bar for 50 cents makes more money than the honest workman who does an honest job and charges an honest price.

Because your watch is returned to you running fairly well, it is no criterion that it has been properly repaired. The great annoyance attendant upon the repairing of a watch, is that 99 out of 98 cannot tell if the work is well done—but are satisfied if the watch is keeping somewhere near the correct time.

Who can see the jewel protruding half way out of the plate, or worse, sunk down through the plate, fastened in with a little glue, or hammered in with a sledge. How often the expert grinds off the broken staff, sinks the jewel a little lower, tells you he has put in a new staff and charges you a little less than the price and you go on your way rejoicing. But some day you will discover the fraud, such work cannot last long. It is dear at any price, which you soon discover to your sorrow.

Moral: Make no mistake; take it where you know it will be well treated and that is the Repairing Department of

HIND'S Honey and Almond Cream

What It Is.

The superiority of Hind's Honey and Almond Cream consists in its wonderful purifying and healing properties and cleanliness. It is unlike any other preparation for the skin and complexion in that it contains no oils, greasy substances or chemicals, neither starchy nor mucilaginous principles to obstruct the pores of the skin, is quickly absorbed, leaving no visible trace of its use and cannot injure the most delicate or sensitive skin.

Its General Use.

For rough or hard skin Honey and Almond Cream possesses in a remarkable degree, the properties for which it was designed, of softening the skin, no matter how hard or dry, of cleansing and purifying all humors, scaly eruptions and indolent ulcers, destroying acid or irritating exudations from the skin or mucous surfaces, stimulating same to healthy action, thereby preparing the parts for the healing process sure to follow its use.

Burns and Sunburn.

For burns and scalds it affords instant relief. In cases of sunburn it will both alleviate the pain and prevent the skin from peeling.

For Use After Shaving.

Its use for gentlemen after shaving will be found delightfully soothing and grateful, allaying all irritation, and as a protection against the weather, preventing chaps, soreness, and all infections.

Not a "White-Wash."

Lastly it is not a white-wash, and its effect is not to cover up imperfection, but to so correct them and the cause, by its purifying and emollient properties as to leave the skin soft, smooth, pure, and in its natural, healthy condition.

VALUE OF BALL BEARING.

An experiment with ball bearings was recently made in Canada. A street-car fitted with ball bearings was drawn a distance of several hundred feet by men pulling on the three strands of ordinary sewing thread. A carriage manufacturer put another style of ball bearings on the axles of a coach ordinarily pulled by four horses. A trained dog was hitched to the pole, and he drew the coach around the yard with little effort.—(Daily Bulletin.)

THE MAKEE-HATFIELD WEDDING.

Manager Fairchild is Visited by His Mother and Sister—Colonel Spalding Gives a Grand Luau in Honor of An Old Friend—Description of Wedding.

KEALIA (Kauai), Feb. 16.—Last Saturday evening, the 9th instant, George H. Fairchild gave a very pleasant party at Kealia in honor of his mother and sister, Mrs. George E. and Miss Kate Fairchild, who recently arrived from Oakland, California, and are now the guests of the genial young manager of the Makee Sugar Company. A large number of friends and acquaintances gathered to greet Mrs. Fairchild and her daughter, who formerly resided at Kealia, and were delightfully entertained with the following enjoyable programme:

Duet—"Poet and Peasant"—Mrs. S. G. O. King and Miss Cummins.
 Recitation—"Salvator"—Miss Alice Kitchin.
 Solo—"Son of a Desert"—F. B. Smith.
 Piano Solo—"Tarantelle"—Miss Cummins.
 Recitation—"Courtship"—Miss Kate Fairchild.
 Piano Solo—Miss Mae Weir.
 Guitar Solo—Geo. H. Fairchild.
 Piano Solo—Miss Kate Fairchild.
 Song with guitar accompaniment—Messrs. Smith and Fairchild.
 Song—Miss Gertrude Toms.

After which refreshments were served, and then dancing was indulged in until nearly midnight. Among those present, in addition to local society people, may be mentioned General Mendall Churchill and niece, Miss M. L. Pratt, of Zanesville, Ohio; Miss Alice Kitchin, of New York; Mr. R. T. Coulter, of Southern California; Mrs. D. Noonan, Miss Helen Wilder and Miss Kellitt, of Honolulu; the Misses Maud and Emma Hatfield, of Hanalei; Dr. McGettigan of Lihue, and Dr. Raymond of Koloa.

Perhaps one of the largest—certainly one of the gayest—parties ever held at "Lily Heights," the beautiful home of Charles B. Makee, was that which gathered there on St. Valentine's Day "in the evening" to take part in the festivities which followed the wedding of Miss Emma Puniani Harriet Hatfield, of Hanalei, Kauai, to Charles Brewer Makee, of Kapaa. The ceremony, which was private, took place at 8:30 in the evening, the Rev. Hans Isenberg officiating. A lovely gown of white brocade satin, trimmed with chiffon, ribbons and pearl passementerie; diamond ornaments, a veil of white tulle—exquisitely looped with orange blossoms, and dainty white satin slippers completed the bride's toilette, which, added to the charms of form and feature that Nature has bestowed upon this young lady with great prodigality, presenting a tout ensemble that would certainly convert the most confirmed and obstinate celibate. The groom, in full evening dress, looked handsome and happy, as usual. The bride was given away by her father, Captain Hatfield, of Hanalei; Miss Kellitt, of Honolulu, was the bridesmaid, and C. B. Mackenzie, of Kapaa, acted as the groomsmen. The floral decorations were very pretty and artistically arranged, reflecting great credit upon the ladies—Mrs. Noonan, Mrs. King and Miss Helen Wilder—who did so much toward making this occasion the very enjoyable affair it was. The refreshments were delicious, and included the sparkling vintage of Mme. Clicquot which flowed freely and added zest to the occasion.

The James Makee arrived off port Wednesday morning after a twenty hours passage, owing to rough weather and head winds. She did not come in to her moorings but sent her freight and passengers ashore and then put in at Hanamaulu. Among the passengers for Kapaa was Miss Nellie Kitchin who came to attend her uncle's wedding and is a guest at Lily Heights.

This evening, February 14th, there will be a surprise party at Kealia, given in honor of Miss Kate Fairchild's birthday.

Tomorrow, February 15, there is to be a grand luau given by Col. Z. S. Spalding in honor of his guests, General Mendall Churchill and niece, Miss M. L. Pratt, to which all the elite are invited and which will be a grand affair, judging from preparations now in progress.

The General and Colonel Spalding were brother officers of the 27th Ohio infantry regiment in the civil war in America, and although the Colonel is not here in person to welcome his guests he has made all necessary arrangements for their proper entertainment until he arrives, which will be in the near future, possibly by next steamer.

The health of the general public is good, the weather fine, and the wind—a gentle zephyr—from the northeast, as usual.

In the case of Maria Kaanaana v. Keahi (k) et al. decided by this Court October 19, 1893, it is held that a new trial should be ordered on the ground of misconduct of the jury, certain jurors having held conversations with parties defendant showing hostility against them. In that case this subject is fully discussed by the Court and the conclusion arrived at is supported by a large number of authorities, and we adopt them as applying to the case at bar. We are of the opinion that the grounds held to be sufficient for ordering a new trial in the above cited case are not as strong as the grounds in the case at bar. This exception is sustained,

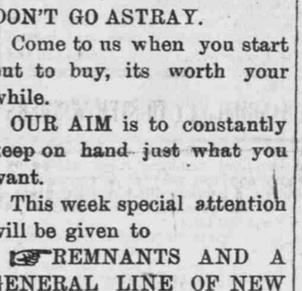

OPINION OF THE COURT BY BICKERTON, J.
 This case was heard at the November Term of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, having come there on appeal from the District Court of Honolulu. The jury found a verdict of guilty against the defendant Kaniku, and a verdict of not guilty in the cases of the other five defendants. A motion for a new trial in the case of Kaniku was argued and overruled and the matter comes here on a bill of exceptions. The grounds raised in the motion for a new trial were:
 First. That the verdict was contrary to the law and the evidence.
 Second. That one of the jurors, after the prosecution had closed its evidence, but before all the evidence in the case had been put in,—was heard by an outsider to say to defendants "One of you is (he) guilty," and also "Repent ye for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand."
 Third. That one of the jurors was a poundkeeper.
 Fourth. That one of the jurors had not taken the oath required by Art. 101 of the Constitution. It appears that the juror has taken the oath since the trial.
 As to the first point, after a careful review of the evidence, we find that it is ample to warrant the jury in finding as they did.
 As to the second point, which may be properly termed misconduct of jurors, the affidavits of Frank Pahia, F. Kaniku Pahia, Kukona (k), Kimona, Kaimi and Kaimawaho, set forth that one, John Noble, one of the jurors in the case, said to the defendants (presumably during recess) at the Court House, while the case was going on and before the evidence was all in, "One of you is he" (guilty) and advised them to repent. Kaimawaho in his affidavit also states that he heard both John Noble and Kaapa (also one of the jurors in the case) say the same thing to the defendants. The affidavit of Frank Pahia states that he heard John Noble say this to the defendant at the Court House and in the presence of other jurors, and some strangers on the 7th of November, which was seven days before the trial. These affidavits are uncontradicted. This was undoubtedly improper conduct on the part of these two jurors, but the question for us is, was it such misconduct as would require us to order a new trial. The use of such language before the trial and in the presence of jurors might tend to create prejudice or bias against the defendants or any of them and certainly such language, when used during the time the trial was in progress, would indicate that those two jurors had formed and expressed an opinion as to the guilt of one of the defendants before they had heard all the evidence in the case on both sides. It would also seem from the affidavit of Frank Pahia that the juror Noble had formed an opinion and expressed it before he had heard any evidence at all. These declarations certainly showed bias on the part of these two jurors. The conduct of these jurors was not that of unprejudiced and unbiased jurors. "A new trial has been granted on account of expressions made by a juror to his fellows showing such prejudice against the accused as unfitted him for a juror."
 Thompson on Trials, Sec. 2557.
 "Where the misconduct was of such a nature that prejudice might have resulted from it, a presumption of prejudice arises, which, unless rebutted by the successful party, will require the granting of a new trial."
 Thompson on Trials, Sec. 2617.
 It is not only the fact that the mind of one or more jurors was biased and prejudiced against any or all of the defendants, and that it might work an injustice against the defendants, but it might be the wrongful influence of these jurors over the remaining jurors against a fair and impartial consideration of the case on its merits, which the defendants in every case are in every way entitled to.

UNCLE SAM TO HAWAII—"Come in youngster."

CLAIM OF EXILE CRANSTOUN.

He Intends to Sue the Hawaiian Government for $20,000.

HIS SHADY CAREER IN SEATTLE.

The Deported Men Will Sue the Steamship Company—The United States May Interfere, So a Dispatch Says. Cranstoun is Said to be English.

VICTORIA (B. C.), Feb. 10.—It was not until they arrived here that Johnstone, Cranstoun and Mueller, the three political prisoners deported from Honolulu by the Warrimoo, learned the nature of the charges preferred against them—that they had conspired to destroy with dynamite the Central Union Church at a time it was sheltering many friends of the Hawaiian Republic, and the Executive Building. This charge they pronounced absolutely false and ridiculous in the extreme, and their sworn denial will be forwarded to Honolulu by the returning Warrimoo. In the meantime the trio refuse to leave the steamer, and have initiated damage proceedings against James Huddart, owner of the Canadian-Australian line, claiming they were forcibly kidnapped from the Hawaiian capital.

VANCOUVER (B. C.), Feb. 10.—On their arrival here, Cranstoun, Mueller and Johnstone, the Hawaiian exiles, requested the Examiner correspondent to call the attention of Colonel Peterson to their case. Colonel Peterson, on hearing their story, had the men provided with board and lodging, and reported the matter to Washington. None of the men are provided with clothing fit for this climate, and Cranstoun shook like an aspen leaf as he stood on the deck of the steamer in his thin suit and straw hat.

DIPLOMATIC COMPLICATIONS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The Herald's Washington special says: Hawaii may be called upon for an apology and indemnity as a result of the alleged action of the Dole Government in exiling J. Cranstoun, American citizen, without trial.

Some excitement was created at the State Department today by receipt of a dispatch from the U. S. Commercial Agent in Vancouver, Wm. Peterson, confirming the press dispatches concerning the banishment of this man from Hawaiian territory. The dispatch was short, but it was sufficient to create a stir. It read in this way:

"The British steamer Warrimoo arrived today, having on board J. Cranstoun, a destitute citizen of the United States, banished from Honolulu without trial."

The action of the Hawaiian authorities is regarded as one of the most serious phases of the recent trouble in the Paradise of the Pacific. Administration officials have anticipated that difficulty would arise with the Dole Government, in which Americans would be involved, but they have never believed that President Dole would go so far as to dare to banish American citizens, at least until after they had had a fair trial.

Should later information bear out the contents of Mr. Peterson's telegram today, the United States will follow its usual course and demand an apology and full indemnity for damages sustained by Cranstoun.

Minister Willis has been instructed to furnish the Department with full details, and it is expected that the report will soon reach Washington.

The authorities are not at all worried at the advices contained in the press dispatches today, that the Hawaiian Government has not yet made a reply to the request of Minister Willis to defer the execution of certain condemned men, reported to be all citizens of the United States. When he has forwarded all the facts to Washington, for they believe that the Dole Government will not dare to disregard the request, especially with the Philadelphia in the harbor of Honolulu.

A BAD REPUTATION.

SEATTLE (Wash.), Feb. 11.—John Cranstoun, the man who threatens to enter a claim for damages against the Hawaiian Government for banishment from the country, is well known in this city, having worked for about five years for the Seattle Transfer Company as foreman of the dray teams and also been in the draying business for himself, in which he failed. He bore an unsavory reputation, both in business and domestic affairs. He is considered by those who know him well to be unscrupulous in all his dealings, and for this he was discharged from the employ of the transfer company on April 1, 1894. After being discharged he remained in the city until the latter part of May. He was in hard straits when he left, and barely had enough money to take him to Honolulu.

His friends were not at all surprised when they heard that he had taken part in the rebellion, and say he is just the man to get into such affairs. Many predicted that he would get into some kind of trouble when he went to the islands.

Cranstoun is an Englishman, having been born and raised near London, and is believed only to have declared his intentions, and not to have been fully naturalized. He is described as being intensely English in all his thoughts and actions.

During his residence in this city, Cranstoun had several shady transactions with dissolute women, and about three years ago was buncoed for about $2000 by one of them. Cranstoun deserted his wife and babies for this woman, who, when she had fleeced him of his last cent, threw him and his clothes out of her house. He brought suit against her, but the case was thrown out of court.

A fellow passenger on the steamer Warrimoo, which brought Cranstoun and his two associates from the islands, stated that Cranstoun had told him that he intended bringing suit against the Canadian-Pacific Steamship Company for $5000, and against the Hawaiian Government for $20,000. He stated that he intended going back on the return steamer and prosecuting his case.

He laid all the blame for being banished to the California merchants in Honolulu, who, he says, were jealous of him because of his shrewd business affairs.

A MONUMENT TO POE.

CITIZENS OF FORDHAM TO HONOR THE POET'S MEMORY.

The Quaint Cottage in Upper New York Where Poe Wrote Many of His Best Poems and Tales Still Stands and is Visited by Hundreds Daily.

Hustling, bustling New York does not allow sentiment to stand in the way of its march of progress, but thus far one of the most interesting literary landmarks in the city, Poe's cottage at Fordham, has escaped the hand of the contractor and builder. With Poe "the fever called 'living,'" as he termed life, has been conquered for 45 years, but the little cottage he occupied during his most active time of literary productions still stands, looking much as it did when, protected by its humble walls, he penned many of the poems and tales that have given him such great posthumous fame.

The representative citizens of Fordham now propose to erect a statue of the poet or a monument to his memory. The idea originated in the brain of Mr. Charles F. Smith, and the Fordham club is raising the money to carry it into execution. When completed, the monument or the statue will be erected in Bronx park or upon the grounds where Poe's cottage stands.

Poe was already famous as the author of "The Raven" and several prose tales of a high order of merit before he made the little cottage in Fordham his home in 1846. The country about it was then somewhat wild and unsettled, and it was in reality a farmhouse of a primitive character. The northward march of New York during the past half century has caused Fordham to be included within the city limits of New York and has given the tiny cottage many neighbors. The cottage is of wood and looks not unlike one of the Shantytown houses built by the numerous squatters on the rocks in upper New York.

Its roof is covered with shingles, and the walls were once painted white, but the rains and storms of passing years have worn the paint away. Along the front runs a narrow porch, in front of which is a sturdy cherry tree that Poe planted in 1847 and which still bears a good crop of fruit. On the lower floor are two large rooms and a kitchen. The front room was the bedroom of the poet's child wife, Virginia Clemm Poe, and here her gentle spirit took leave of earth. She died of consumption in 1847, and it is related that the family was so poor that there was not sufficient bedclothing upon the bed to keep her warm, and that the poet's overcoat covered her and a pet cat nestled in her bosom.

The other large room on the ground floor was the dining and sitting room where Poe received his visitors. At one end of the room is a huge stone chimney, and there is a narrow hall from which steep stairs lead to a low attic which the poet utilized as his study. There are tiny-paned windows, and the sloping sides of the roof are so near the floor that one can barely stand erect in the room. Yet here Poe is said to have written his marvelous musical poem, "The Bells," the pathetic "Annabel Lee" and his last notable poem, the weird "Ulalume." There is some dispute as to where "The Raven" was written, but the poet doubtless composed it at different times and in various places, and not in the quaint attic of the Fordham cottage.

The cottage is at present owned by Austin E. Ford and is in such an excellent state of preservation that it will stand many years if spared by fire and the real estate speculator. It is open to sightseers, and hundreds of tourists visit it every day. There is a visitors' book, and the registration shows that people from all over the world are drawn to the spot.

Not far from the cottage is St. John's college, which Poe often visited, and there are several residents of Fordham who knew the poet well. They described him as a quiet, courteous man who was a gentleman even when pursuing his unsteady way along the Kingsbridge road as the result of his intemperance. The rent of the cottage was only $65 a year, but it was largely unpaid when he left, owing to his impoverished condition, and he was also mourned by his butcher, grocer and milkman. Literature was an unremunerative field in New York in Poe's day, and it is said that part of the time while Poe occupied the Fordham cottage his salary on The Evening Mirror was only $10 a week.

Poe is buried in the old graveyard of the Westminster Presbyterian church, Baltimore. There were but two vehicles at the funeral, a hearse and a carriage, and only four persons followed the dead poet to his grave, which was unmarked until 1875, when the schoolteachers of Baltimore erected a simple marble memorial costing $1,000.

SEWARD'S CAREER.

Masons Asked to do Something to Save Him. RIVERHEAD (N. Y.) Feb. 11.—Colonel William T. Seward, condemned to death in Hawaii, formerly lived at Orient, Long Island. He was very prominent in Eastern Long Island. It first became known today that the unfortunate Colonel Seward of Hawaii is the same William T. Seward who for many years had charge of the extensive Long Beach fish works. Colonel Seward came to Orient many years ago from Hartford, Conn., to be employed at the fish works as a chemist. The fish works were sold ten years ago, and Seward went to Fort Royal, S. C., and engaged in the phosphate works. That was not successful. From there he went to San Francisco and sailed for the Hawaiian Islands. After leaving Orient, Mr Seward met with little success. He finally became dependent, his place was sold and his family moved to Guilford, Conn., where they now reside. Mr. Seward is 55 years old. He was a member of the Masonic lodge at Greenport. He was a personal friend of Senator Hawley of Connecticut. He served in the Union Army. A letter was received today by Secretary Greenport of the Masonic lodge from Mrs. Seward, asking the lodge to take some steps in behalf of her unfortunate husband. This interested many of his friends on Eastern Long Island, and the letter has been sent today to Congressman Covert and to David B. Hill, urging them to interest themselves in the matter.

WHARF AND WAVE.

DIAMOND HEAD, Feb. 18.—10 P.M.—Weather, hazy; wind, fresh, northeast. The Oceanic is due today from San Francisco.

The H. F. Glade is discharging at the Nuuanu street wharf. The Transit and the S. C. Allen are loading at San Francisco for this port.

The schooner Aloha arrived at San Francisco on the 10th inst., 18 days from this port. The ship Levi G. Burgess, Captain Youngre, cleared at San Francisco on the 11th inst., for Hilo.

The schooner Anna, Norberg master, sailed from San Francisco for Kahului on the 2d inst. The barkentine W. H. Dimond arrived at San Francisco on the 9th inst. She was 25 days out.

Captain A. S. Barker, formerly commander of the Philadelphia has assumed his duties as Captain of Mare Island Navy Yard. Dr. Soule of the Australia remained in San Francisco. He will rejoin the vessel on her next trip. Dr. Reilly is acting for him.

The R. P. Rithet, sailed yesterday afternoon for San Francisco with 32,283 bags of sugar. The Sonoma hauled in from the stream and took her place. She will load sugar today.

The steamer Australia arrived yesterday afternoon, 6 days and 6 hours from San Francisco. She brought 26 cabin and 15 steerage passengers and 10 bags of mail. Purser McCombe reports a pleasant trip. The bark Leahi arrived at San Francisco on the 10th inst., from Kahului making the passage in fifteen days, and reported encountering some heavy weather. On the second day out a wave broke over the bows, carrying away the port bulwarks and tearing the forward house from its fastenings.

Maguire's Shipping Commissioners' bill, which is intended to ameliorate the condition of American seamen, has finally passed the Senate and now only awaits the President's signature to become a law. An amendment was adopted in the Senate, which adds a section providing for arbitration between masters and sailors when there is any dispute concerning wages or allowances.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The withdrawal of the steamer Rio de Janeiro scheduled to sail from San Francisco on the 28th, with mails for China and Japan, has been announced at the Postoffice Department. Accordingly notice was given today that after the sailing of the Oceanic on the 12th inst., there will be no sailing from that port for China and Japan until March 5. Mails ordinarily forwarded from San Francisco will be taken to Tacoma to connect with the Victoria, scheduled to leave on the 26th for the two countries.

Shipbuilding in the United Kingdom during 1894 showed an increase of nearly 200,000 tons over 1893, although it does not attain the average of the years preceding. Steamers were built aggregating 966,219 tons, and sailing vessels 109,384 tons. This represents 793 vessels in all. The proportion of steamers to sailing vessels, which is steadily increasing every year, is now 90.18 per cent. During the year marine engines were built with a total of 971,616 horse-power. The market feature of construction was the effort to obtain enormous capacity for a limited gross tonnage, with a nine-knot speed on a minimum coal consumption. This economy, Engineering thinks, has been carried beyond the danger point as such engines are unable to hold a fully laden ship up to a gale.—Ex.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

A Determined Effort to be Made to Pass the Bill. WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—In spite of the efforts of opponents of the Nicaragua Canal bill Representative Geary says he thinks the bill will come up before long. He had another talk with Speaker Crisp, who has given his consent to Geary's plan to have a petition asking for consideration of the measure signed by a majority of the members of the House presented to the Committee on Rules. The Californians expressed their willingness to aid in this matter, so on Monday next Geary will come into the House prepared to start in his canvassing tour.

Representative Caminetti and others think the bill will be passed, but that the best efforts of its friends will be needed to support it. Their opponents will insist on certain amendments. Those who favor the canal are willing that certain changes may be made, so long as there is a chance for the work to be commenced. Representative Outwaite, who is a member of the Committee on Rules, gave it as his opinion that the Nicaragua bill will not receive consideration, and, on the other hand, Representative Mallory, who is a member of the Committee on Commerce, insists that the bill must be considered.

Accident to a Naval Officer. VALLEJO, Feb. 9.—First Lieutenant R. M. McDunton of the Marine Corps, while riding near the barracks on Mare Island on Thursday, was thrown from his horse and received painful injuries. His face was bruised and several teeth were broken.

The Olympia Out of the Dock. VALLEJO, Feb. 9.—The Olympia undocked at 1:30 o'clock today, the tug Sea King being here from the tug bay to assist in case of an accident. The big vessel was safely handled and now lies alongside the quay, where coal and stores will be put on.

Once I Was Blind But Now I Can See

Thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla. "I have suffered everything possible with sore eyes and headache, the sores so severe that I was blind. I tried everything I heard of without benefit, and went to the Rhode Island Hospital, but found no relief there. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla, so I bought a bottle and a box of Hood's Pills. With More Than Thanks I want everybody to know that since I have been taking these medicines, I have become as well as ever. My eyes have perfectly healed and the headache is cured. From my picture you can see there is nothing the matter with my eyes now." MRS. ELIZA LOGREE, Potter Hill, Westerly, R. I.

National Cane Shredder

(PATENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS)

Mr. John A. Scott, Manager of the Hilo Sugar Company gives the following wonderful record of the working of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER, which was erected by their works at the commencement of the crop just harvested: "During the past week the Hilo Sugar Company's mill exceeded any of its former records by closing the 125 hours grinding with an output of 3004 tons. This is fully 10 per cent more than the best work of former years.

"The three roller mill being 26 in. by 54 in. and the two roller mill 30 in. by 60 in. The first mill doing this amount of work in an efficient manner and with great ease, compared with work on whole cane, owing to thorough preparation of the cane by the National Cane Shredder, recently erected by the Company. And by its use the extraction has been increased from 3 per cent. to 5 per cent. on all kinds of cane, and in some cases 80 per cent. has been reached; the average being 75 to 78 per cent, according to quality.

"I continue to find the megass from shredded cane better fuel than from whole cane. The shredder has been working day and night for seven months and has given me entire satisfaction, having shredded during that time about seventy thousand tons of cane, and a large part of it being hard ratoons.

"The shredder and engine require very little care or attention." Plans and specifications of these shredders may be seen at the office of
