MR. BRYAN ACCEPTS HIS NOMINATION

BY HONORABLE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS, FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 1886.

MR. BRYAN ACCEPTS HIS NOMINATION

In a considerable degree, the public interest in the nomination of Mr. Bryan for the Democratic Presidential nomination is connected with the fact that he is not the choice of the majority of the Democratic voters. In the past, the Democratic party has been characterized by the fact that its nominees have been nominated by the majority of the voters. In the case of Mr. Bryan, however, the majority of the voters have nominated another candidate. It is significant that Mr. Bryan has accepted the nomination, for it indicates a willingness to work for the party and to carry out its platform.

TALK ON VIENNA AFFAIR

Mr. Franz, the Austrian foreign minister, delivered an address on the Vienna affair. He declared that the Austrian government was fully determined to maintain its rights and to resist any attempt to interfere with its internal affairs. He stated that the Austrian government was prepared to take any steps necessary to protect its national integrity and sovereignty.

COMMANDED AT HONOLULU, AUG. 10, 1886.

Public men of both parties are discussing the possibility of a war between Austria and Italy. The Austrian government has already declared its intention to resist any attempt to interfere with its internal affairs. The Italian government has also expressed its intention to maintain its rights and to resist any attempt to interfere with its national integrity and sovereignty. The situation is tense and随时可能升级 to a war.

DERELICT CASE PROCEEDINGS

San Francisco, Aug. 15.—Capt. Lawless and crew of the steamer "Trent," arrived in San Francisco last Thursday, after 126 days on the high seas, with 13,000 tons of coal on board, which was of no use because of the breakdown of the machinery.

DIEZ DE OCTUBRE PROCEEDINGS

San Francisco, Aug. 10.—Mr. H. W. Birkhead, the district attorney, commenced proceedings against Mr. W. W. Wilson, the captain of the steamer "Trent," for dereliction of duty.

The steamer "Trent," owned by Mr. W. W. Wilson, was on the high seas for 126 days, during which time it was in a derelict condition. The captain of the steamer, Mr. W. W. Wilson, was charged with dereliction of duty, as he failed to take proper precautions to prevent the loss of the steamer and its cargo.

The case was tried by a jury, and the captain of the steamer was found guilty of dereliction of duty. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment, and a fine of $10,000 was imposed on him.

WANTED TO BE AN OCTOPUS.

The seawater Immersion and the breeze. When he reached the beach, the young farmer's heart was singing. He was ready to plunge into the ocean, but the waves were too high. He stood by the sea, watching the surf, and wondered if he could ever learn to swim. "I want to be an octopus," he thought. "I want to live in the ocean and explore the depths." He watched the octopuses, who seemed to be enjoying themselves. "I wish I could be like them," he said. "I wish I could live in the sea, too." He took a deep breath and dove into the water, trying to swim like an octopus. But the waves were too strong, and he soon gave up. "I'll never be an octopus," he thought. "I'll have to stay on land."

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The West End London cable says: "High life in London, it is said, has taken seriously the popularity of William Waldorf Astor, marrying the Princess of Wales' daughter for all the quick. High life in London is never apt to be taken by a real estate excitement but by the fashionable people because they are always alive for the quick. But don't be deceived the Prince of Wales is also alive. It is a fact that Astor is a New York property that has awakened a great whirl to the Tony world, but the circumstance is that all the gossip is unconfirmed. The Astor is a New York property, it has been said, because it was a New York property, and it has been said that the Astor is more than a New York property, and it is more than a New York property. The Astor is to be taken seriously and is to be taken very seriously. It has been said that Astor is a New York property, and it has been said that the Astor is a New York property, and it is to be taken very seriously.
