Commissioned Collector-General of Customs.

L. K. McGrew, Supt. Post al Savings Bank.

Chances Made Today—Successor to McGrew Named—Paihc nals rewarded.

Paul B. Metzker will assume the duties of Collector-General of Customs, succeeding James C. Currie. Mr. Metzker was appointed Collector-General by President Taft, effective from Dec. 31, the date when the previous Collector-General, Mr. Currie, will have completed his term of five years. Mr. Metzker is a native of Philadelphia, born in 1864. He was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1882 and began his career in the United States government service in 1887, as a clerk in the Treasury Department. He was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of Columbia in 1899 and has held the position ever since. Mr. Metzker is a man of great ability and has demonstrated his capacity for handling large and complex problems. He is well respected throughout the country and is expected to make an excellent Collector-General of Customs.

IN CONVENTION.
One Man Doubles Qualifications of Candidates. Mr. Metzker will be in a strong position to lead the Republican party in the coming election.

TO REFINISH SUGAR
Star Mill to Commerce Operations January First.

Islanders to be Hired to Help in Refine Sugar Comprised.

The Chronicle of Aug. 31 says that the Star Mill is about to begin operations January 1st. The mill is expected to employ a large number of Islanders, who will be hired to assist in the refining of sugar. The mill is a large and modern plant, and is expected to provide much-needed employment for the local people. The Islanders will be paid a fair wage for their work, and will be provided with necessary equipment and training.

Many people, after a long spell of oppressive heat, begin to feel weak, loss of spirits, and a general “sick feeling.” For this purpose the course of Ayer’s Sarsaparilla, a medicine which has received many testimonials to its value and is highly recommended, Ayer’s Sarsaparilla, in a bottle of this wonderful medicine restored my health and spirits. My health was never in a better state and I am greatly benefited from the use of this wonderful medicine.

WONDERFUL MEDICINE

“While I was in Cape Town the past winter I suffered greatly from the long continued heat. I was compelled to go down every day to my blood cooled by the ocean. Ayer’s Sarsaparilla, a medicine which has received many testimonials to its value and is highly recommended, Ayer’s Sarsaparilla, and a bottle of this wonderful medicine restored my health and spirits. My health was never in a better state and I am greatly benefited from the use of this wonderful medicine.”

Just now some valuable volumes is presented a specimen of the year’s work to the T. R. C. S., which will begin in September. This will contain full and complete information regarding all departments of the institution, and will designate a number of the various rooms of the hall, recently built in Kawahe, where the meetings are held.

The subject of providing an extension to the present library has been discussed in the public and Press of the Island, and the committee of management has been appointed to take steps in the matter.

The number of books which have reached the library is now considerable, and there is a great demand for them.

Mr. Black, now in the possession of a considerable number of books, has received permission to have them transferred to the library, and the committee of management has been appointed to take steps in the matter.

The Government still decline to give an official explanation of the passage in the report on the annexation.

"It is a serious consideration that the annexation will mean the acquisition of a vast amount of territory, which will be of great value to the United States."

The Japanese Government has been informed of the fact that the United States is prepared to take possession of the islands.

"We cannot permit the annexation of the islands, as it would be a violation of our national policy," said the Japanese Foreign Minister.

The American Government has been informed of the decision of the Japanese Government.

"We cannot agree to the annexation of the islands," said the American Secretary of State.
