GET THEIR WISH

New Yorkers are to Return to Mainland.

ORDER FROM WASHINGTON

Engineers are to Remain—Cause of Departure—Description of Camp McKinley.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—The First New York Regiment will be brought back from Honolulu as fast as transportation can be provided, and on their arrival will be sent to New York. The military authorities have become alarmed at the prevalence of sickness in the regiment. Typhoid is epidemic, and with dysentery is filling with patients the hospitals at Honolulu, both military and civil. The death rate at Camps McKinley and Otis has increased rapidly during the past month. Gen. Merriam received a report of the conditions of the camps from Col. Barber by the Australia. He was so impressed with the serious condition of affairs that he immediately telegraphed the Secretary of War his recommendation that the New York Regiment be relieved at once from duty and brought back to the continent. Yesterday an answer was telegraphed from Washington approving Gen. Merriam's recommendation, and directing that they be carried out with all possible dispatch. The authorities here have not yet been advised as to what will be done with the New Yorkers on their return to the East, but the general belief among the officers is that they will be mustered out at once.

Col. Barber, the chief officer of the regiment as well as the commanding officer of the District of Hawaii, is relieved of the latter distinction by the Washington order and will return with his regiment.

The departure for Manila of Gen. King and his command on the transport Arizona will leave as garrison of the post only the battalion of engineers, who now share Camp McKinley with the New Yorkers. On the departure of Col. Barber the command of the post and district will fall upon Maj. William C. Langfitt, in command of the battalion of the Second Regiment of Volunteer Engineers. It is believed here that Maj. Langfitt will only be a temporary commandant, and that an officer of higher rank will soon be detailed for that position.

Immediately on receipt of the order General Merriam sent for Depot Quartermaster Long to advise with him as to means of transportation for the New York Regiment. Col. Long made a preliminary report later in the day. He found that ships could be secured so that the regiment could be landed in San Francisco between December 6th and 12th. It is probable that a contract will be made for the use of the Australia to bring a part of the regiment.

Regarding the condition of Camp McKinley a prominent officer said yesterday: "Gen. Merriam has feared for some time that sickness would greatly increase in that part of the camp occupied by the New York Regiment. When he was there many weeks ago he noticed the uncleanly condition of the surroundings. The sinks were in a bad condition, and refuse was allowed to accumulate in the streets. On the other hand, the engineers who camp by the side of the New Yorkers, kept a camp as clean as could be. As a result they have had no deaths and scarcely any sickness. An officer of the engineers told Col. Barber at that time that typhoid would make its appearance among his men within a month. Just two weeks later it broke out, and is now epidemic."

All of the New York boys about town were delighted to learn that they had been ordered home. There is a much better tone in all the hospitals and convalescent camps.

It is expected that 500 New Yorkers will leave by the Australia and 500 more by the Mariposa if there be room on the Mariposa.

(Chronicle, 11th.)

According to the Australia's officers, the health conditions at camps in Honolulu are causing the residents of the island town considerable anxiety. There is a funeral nearly every day, and an increasing number of the soldiers are lying down beneath the deadly hand of typhoid.

The camp is situated in an ideal locaiton from a sanitary standpoint. There is an abundant supply of fresh water, and close at hand there is a beach where the whole regiment might go in bathing at any time of the day or night. Honolulu has always been considered an ideal health resort, and such a thing as typhoid was almost unknown until the soldiers arrived. The whole blame is laid on the incompetency of the officers and the lack of interest taken in sanitary matters by Col. Barber. The Honolulu people are doing everything in their power for the sick soldiers, but the disgust at the conduct of the officers who think of nothing but their own immediate comfort is growing into a very bitter feeling.

MOTHER AND POET.

(ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING).

Dead! one of them shot by the sea in the east,
And one of them shot in the west by the sea.
Dead! both my boys! When you sit at the feast
And are wanting a great song for Italy free,
Let none look at me!

Yet I was a poetess only last year,
And good at my art for a woman, men said.
But this woman, this, who is agonized here,
The east sea and west sea rhyme on in her head
For ever instead.

What art can a woman be good at? Oh, vain!
What art is she good at, but hurting her breast
With the milk-teeth of babes, and a smile at the pain?
Ah, boys, how you hurt! you were strong as you pressed,
And I proud, by that test.

What art's for a woman? To hold on her knees
Both darlings! to feel all their arms round her throat
Cling, strangle a little! to sew by degrees
And broider the long-clothes and neat little coat!
To dream and to dote.

To teach them . . It stings there. I made them indeed
Speak plain the word "country." I taught them no doubt
That a country's a thing men should die for at need.
I prated of liberty, rights, and about
The tyrant turned out.

And when their eyes flashed . . O my beautiful eyes! . .
I exulted! nay, let them go forth at the wheels
Of the guns, and denied not.—But then the surprise,
When one sits quite alone!—Then one weeps, then one kneels!
—God! how the house feels!

At first happy news came, in gay letters moiled
With my kisses, of camp-life and glory, and how
They both loved me, and soon, coming home to be spoiled,
In return would fan off every fly from my brow
With their green laurel-bough.

Then was triumph at Turin. "Ancona was free!"
And some one came out of the cheers in the street
With a face pale as stone, to say something to me.
—My Guido was dead!—I fell down at his feet,
While they cheered in the street.

I bore it:—friends soothed me: my grief looked sublime
As the ransom of Italy. One boy remained
To be leant on and walked with, recalling the time
When the first grew immortal, while both of us trained
To the height he had gained.

And letters still came,—shorter, sadder, more strong,
Writ now but in one hand. "I was not to faint.
"One loved me for two . . would be with me ere long:
"And 'Viva Italia' he died for, our saint,
"Who forbids our complaint."

My Nanni would add "he was safe, and aware
"Of a presence that turned off the balls . . was imprest
"It was Guido himself, who knew what I could bear,
"And how 'twas impossible, quite dispossessed,
"To live on for the rest."

On which without pause up the telegraph line
Swept smoothly the next news from Gaeta:—Shot.
Tell his mother. Ah, ah,—"his," "their" mother: not "mine."
No voice says "my mother" again to me. What!
You think Guido forgot?

Are souls straight so happy that, dizzy with Heaven,
They drop earth's affections, conceive not of woe?
I think not. Themselves were too lately forgiven
Through that Love and Sorrow which reconciled so
The Above and Below.

O Christ of the seven wounds, who look'dst through the dark
To the face of Thy mother! consider, I pray,
How we common mothers stand desolate, mark,
Whose sons, not being Christs, die with eyes turned away,
And no last word to say!

Both boys dead! but that's out of nature. We all
Have been patriots, yet each house must always keep one.
'Twere imbecile, hewing out roads to a wall.
And, when Italy's made, for what end is it done
If we have not a son?

Ah, ah, ah! when Gaeta's taken, what then?
When the fair wicked queen sits no more at her sport
Of the fire-balls of death crashing souls out of men?
When your guns of Cavalli with final retort
Have cut the game short,—

When Venice and Rome keep their new jubilee,
When your flag takes all heaven for its white, green, and red,
When you have your country from mountain to sea,
When King Victor has Italy's crown on his head,
(And I have my Dead).

What then? Do not mock me. Ah, ring your bells low,
And burn your lights faintly!—My country is there,
Above the star pricked by the last peak of snow.
My Italy's there,—with my brave civic Pair,
To disfranchise despair.

Forgive me. Some women bear children in strength,
And bite back the cry of their pain in self-scorn.
But the birth-pangs of nations will wring us at length
Into wail such at this!—and we sit on forlorn
When the man-child is born.

Dead!—one of them shot by the sea in the west,
And one of them shot in the east by the sea!
Both! both my boys!—If in keeping the feast
You want a great song for your Italy free,
Let none look at me!

(The women of Italy displayed an intense patriotism in the war for the unity and independence of the country, under the reign of Victor Emanuel. It was in this war that Garibaldi "tore out his heart," in making Italy free from the Alps to the Adriatic).

A DEATH CERTIFICATE CASE

Fault in System Brought Home. Recommendations—Laboratory Courtesy Extended.

At its meeting yesterday afternoon the Board of Health had one of the irregular or peculiar or unusual "certificate of death" cases. Keikie, an aged Hawaiian, well known as one of the promnent native residents of Waikiki, appeared at the session of the Board and asked for a burial permit. His wife had expired suddenly in the forenoon. She had been ill the evening before, had taken some home treatment or remedy and at daylight was better. The pain was on the left side, which was eased by lomi-lomi. There was no medical or professional attendance. In the early morning the woman sat on the beach as her sons launched their canoes for fishing. She was asked to come into the house. Then she complained that the wind from the sea had become mixed with her sickness and that she was worse. The woman fell over on the floor, perspiring profusely and with a few gasps died before she could be carried to a bed.

Mr. Reynolds was instructed to issue the burial permit, with cause of death unknown, though Keikie had suggested that the death certificate be made out with fever as the cause. The intance was a typical one in showing that it is the custom to report, in unattended cases, a fever as causing death.

The physicians were very outspoken in this matter. They believed there should be a coroner to whom all such cases should be promptly reported, investigation to follow at once.

There was disposed of by the Board a considerable amount of Settlement detail business, generally on report from Mr. Reynolds. A request for permission to import awa to Molokai was rejected.

Mr. Keliipio reported fish receipts at the public market during the past week 45,039.

Beef consumption is on the increase. Dr. Monsarrat has recorded the slaughtering of 274 bullocks, 33 calves, 189 hogs and 305 sheep in the last week. The fluke cases were: Bullocks 91, calves 10, hogs 0, sheep 0.

There was read the exhaustive report of Special Agent Manson on the Waikiki district between the King street turn and Long Branch. The document is published in full elsewhere.

Dr. Wood suggested that the Waikiki road for its entire length be made tabu for hog raising.

President Smith said that he would go with the sanitary committee for a visit to the district in question.

Dr. Day thought hog farms should be removed from the low-lying or marsh district. The water is standing and there is on this point alone danger to the health of the community.

President Smith suggested that there be a regulation forbidding the keeping of hogs within a certain distance of any public highway.

Dr. Emerson said such a rule would work a hardship upon some Hawaiian families. Drs. Wood, Day and Alvarez agreed with this.

Action was postponed until after Board members had visited the district, but there was a little further discussion.

Dr. Alvarez advanced a proposal for

SHE YET INSISTS OF HEALTH WALL

Spain Tenaciously Clings to Philippines Claim.

PEACE WORK IS SLOW

Exchange of Long Documents at Paris—Protocol Quoted—United States In Preparation.

SPAIN INSISTS.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The meeting today of the Spanish-American commissioners began at 2:15 p. m. and ended at 3 p. m.

The Spanish commissioners presented a long document in answer to the American argument which was submitted last week. By mutual consent the memorandum of today was handed to the Americans without being read and the meeting adjourned until Saturday next. The Spanish communication will be translated this evening and its contents will be discussed by the United States commissioners tomorrow at the usual daily session.

The Spaniards in their communication today, reaffirmed the position which they assumed against the discussion here of Spain's Philippine sovereignty. They insist that the words "shall determine the control, disposition and government of the Philippines," in Article III of the Peace Protocol, do not warrant any reference to Spain's withdrawal from the Philippines except on her own terms, and therefore the Spaniards propose arbitration on the construction to be placed on the words "the control, disposition and government."

AGAINST EMERGENCY.

WASHINGTON Nov. 16.—There has been remarkable activity about the War Department for several days in the way of preparing troops for service in lands beyond the United States. An order has been issued directing at least ten regiments of the regular army, now stationed in Northwestern forts and posts, to hold themselves in readiness for immediate transportation and service in tropical climates. Most of these regiments were sent into the Northern and Western points a few weeks ago for recuperation after their Cuban campaign. While holding themselves in readiness for service, the regiments will be recruited to their full strength.

NOT THE LAST.

MADRID, Nov. 16.—The Minister for Foreign Affairs, Duke Almodovar de Rios, has received dispatches from the Spanish Peace Commissioners, now in Paris, indicating that today' meeting of the joint commissions will not be the last. The Commissioners, it is added, have received additional instructions to defend Spain's rights in the Philippines.

THE LOST PRIZE.

Maria Teresa Found Beached on Cat Island.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The official report of the Navy Department of the finding of the Maria Teresa was contained in the following message received from Commander Craven of the wrecking tug Potomac, which had been ordered to Cat island from Santiago:

"NASSAU, November 12.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington: Potomac arrived. Maria Teresa near Bird Point, Cat island, one mile off shore in two fathoms of water. Tide rising and falling inside. Temporary deck broken up. Movable articles removed by natives. Vulcan not seen. Natives at work since Saturday."

The fact that the Teresa, a vessel drawing twenty-three feet of water, and waterlogged as she was when abandoned is probably drawing nearly thirty feet, has been driven in twelve feet of water is regarded by naval officers as evidence of the great force of the storm which caused her crew to leave her.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Capt. McCalla, after examining the Teresa, has wired the Navy Department that, in his opinion, it will be impossible to rescue the ship.

A Successful Dinner

There were no less than 150 special or extra guests for the Thanksgiving dinner at the Hawaiian hotel last evening. The meal was voted a huge success and the new chef a jewel. It was an elaborate feast with great variety and the best of everything cooked and served in first class style. Manager Lucas could well be proud of the praise he received. Music was supplied by the Original Quintette Club, which was at its very best. The decoration in the dining room and hallways was exceptionally tasteful. There were ferns and palms and evergreens all about the place, with an ample draping of flags.

Dinners for Soldiers.

A good many of the First New York boys and members of the volunteer engineers, will dine with friends about the city. The ladies, headed by Mrs. Dole, wife of the President, will serve dinner at noon to the engineers at Diamond Head, to the First New York at Waialae and to the convalescents at Buena Vista. Senator and Mrs. J. N. Wright will provide a dinner for the men in the hospital at Independence park. All arrangements were completed yesterday for the big dinner at Waialae.

a system of permits from the Board of Health to the hog growers.

Mr. Lansing, replying to an inquiry, believed that hog raising as conducted on the wet lands near a public road was a nuisance of which the Board could take cognizance legally.

Dr. Wood advocated a special regulation on the Waikiki road, keeping the ranches 500 feet or more from the driveway.

President Smith commended the work of Mr. Manson and it was agreed that the Board should visit the hog ranch reserve Saturday afternoon.

Dr. E. C. Rhodes, the physician at Ewa, had applied for the same position at Waianae. The people most interested wish a resident at Waianae instead of a visitor from Ewa. It was remarked by Dr. Wood that Waianae was not an inviting place for a physician. It was voted to have Dr. Rhodes, still at Ewa, act pending another arangement.

Dr. Watt, of Kauai, was appointed to examine animals killed at Lihue slaughter house. Dr. Monsarrat does not believe there is any considerable or dangerous amount of disease amongst cattle on Kauai. The complaint has been concerning tuberculosis.

The work for the odorless excavator has piled up till there is too much for the one plant. Another cart will be secured to keep the single pump going all the time. Mr. Lansing said the plant should be enlarged. It may soon come to the pass that the excavator will be worked day and night.

President Smith spoke of the sharp requirement for further cemetery accommodation. It is proposed that the Board secure burial land through the Oahu Cemetery Association. Every member of the Board hastened to protest at once against the utilization of Punchbowl crater for cemetery purposes.

Dr. Alvarez stated that he was asked by the physicians' committee to place at the disposal of the military surgeons the Board of Health laboratory. This was willingly done on motion of Dr. Wood. His further recommendation that apparatus for bacteriological work be brought to the Board of Health offices was adopted.

Those who attended the meeting were: President Smith, Secretary Wilcox, Executive Officer Reynolds, Dr. Day, Mr. Kelilpio, Mr. Lansing, Dr. Wood, Dr. Alvarez, Dr. Emerson, Inspector Dr. Monsarrat.

CHLORO-NAPTHOLEUM.

"The Great Disinfectant and Insecticide."

It is especially to be recommended in all cases where ODORS are prevalent, as it acts by combining with the cause of the smell, and rendering it inert, as well by its germicidal action in destroying micro organisms, and thus prevents the development of gases which give rise to foul odors. In itself, it has a pleasant odor, does not simply supply an odor to mask offensive exhalations, BUT STRIKES AT THE CAUSE, AND REMOVES IT.

No household can be properly conducted without the use of Disinfectants, for kitchen sinks and foul smelling places, for destroying Ants, Cockroaches, Bedbugs, etc. CHLORO-NAPTHOLEUM positively does the work.

For Water Closets of all kinds, we have the West Disinfecting Machines, filled with refined Chloro-Naptholeum, which we place in the Closets, and keep them FREE FROM ANY SMELL WHATSOEVER.

READ WHAT SOME OF OUR PATRONS SAY.

ST. LOUIS COLLEGE SAYS:—We are using quite a number of the West Disinfecting machines and they give all the satisfaction claimed for them.
G. BERTRAM.

THE ENGLISH ST. ANDREW'S PRIORY:—Have the Disinfecting Appliances in use and find them very satisfactory, they quite destroy all disagreeable smells.
SISTER ALBERTINA.

OAHU INSANE ASYLUM SAYS:—We have used your CHLORO-NAPTHOLEUM as a disinfectant at the Asylum for the past two months, and find it to be most satisfactory, and all it is represented to be.
F. T. CUTTER,
Assistant Supt. Oahu Insane Asylum.

OAHU PRISON SAYS:—We are using your CHLORO-NAPTHOLEUM as a vermin destroyer and are much pleased with the results. We hope others may be benefited through this testimony.
WM. HENRY,

Other testimonials can be seen at our office.

Chloro-Naptholeum is used exclusively by the Board of Education, Police Department and Fire Department of the cities of NEW YORK, CHICAGO, ST. LOUIS, CINCINNATI and SAN FRANCISCO.

We will place our Disinfecting Machines in your Water Closets on 10 days approval; if it does not do the work we will remove the same, free of all charges.

AN ISLAND DAY

California Club Indulges in New Diversion.

Everything Hawaiian at a Popular Function—Decorations and Native Music.

The mother country is doing a great many things of late to cultivate the adoption of her first foster child in the Pacific. Various societies have given parties and receptions in honor of Hawaii, but the California Club of San Francisco went rather ahead of all others by setting aside a whole day, November 15, to be celebrated as Hawaiian day.

In the afternoon the entertainment for was the members of the club. In the evening a substantial sum was netted for the benefit of the Public Playground, a large and fashionable audience being present on both occasions.

The commodious rooms of the society which are situated in the Y. M. C. A. building were decorated with a profusion and luxuriance well representing the Paradise of the Pacific. Rare palms and other tropical plants were loaned by the Golden Gate Park. In glass cases and all over the walls were paintings, tapa cloths, nets, fans, leis of shells and beads and flowers, the exquisite leaves of the bread fruit tree, Hawaiian flowers, photographs of royalties and celebrities, mats from Niihau, shells from Kauai, polished poi calabashes from which fat fingers had formerly twisted the pasty poi, and all imaginable trinkets and curios that could be brought from the Islands. Chief among the attractions were two large and striking paintings of the volcano of Kilauea, by Joe Strong, lent by Major Hooper. Other paintings were by Tavernier, Hitchcock and others who have found inspiration in Island scenes. Consul Charles A. Wilder had been exceedingly kind in lending flags, and had one large Hawaiian flag made expressly for the occasion. Old silver, Kalakaua porcelain, koa calabashes and objects of art innumerable had been lent by Charles R. Bishop, Dr. Winslow Anderson, and others.

The programs, both for the afternoon and evening, were representative of the occasion. Papers and essays on Hawaii, native songs and music, accompanied by the taro patch and the ukulele, made quite an object lesson in the entertainment. The speech of the evening was made by Samuel Shortridge, who talked upon the Islands, their past and future. The evening was closed with a delicious cup of Kona coffee and very dainty refreshments served by pretty young girls. During the supper there was Hawaiian music to taro patch and ukulele accompaniment. The day was pronounced one of the most successful in the history of the club.

SUGAR WAR.

Trust Makes an Advance—Struggle Outlook.

On the 14th the American Sugar Company put up its price ¼c all round. The advance was immediately followed by the independent refineries. It is claimed that all have been losing money at the low prices which have prevailed since October 26th. Doscher's new refinery at Brooklyn was started lately, and its product is now on the market. An exchange says: "With the selling by the Doscher refinery there will be twenty sugar refining companies in active operation in the United States, and if seventeen of them are run as they have been running, and Mr. Arbuckle and the Doscher Company run as they have been built to run, there will be left but 52 per cent of the sugar trade for the American Sugar Refining Company, whereas when the Suga: Trust was formed it had 87 per cent of the trade and to recent date has held 72 per cent."

Chinese Inspector.

J. K. Brown, who was ordered to San Francisco to act as Chinese Inspector and afterward transferred to the same position in the Hawaiian Islands, arrived here yesterday morning. He is a man well advanced in years. He stated that his instructions were to enforce the exclusion laws of the United States without regard to the Geary act. In other words, if Collector Jackson at San Francisco gave a laborer returning to China a certificate which would entitle him to admission on the soil of this country within a year and the Chinese, in returning, should attempt to stop off at Honolulu, Brown would be forced to refuse permission. Mr. Brown and wife are at the Hawaiian hotel. At an early date the new official will consult with the local government.

The Silent Barber Shop.

Joe Fernandez, successor to the firm of Pacheco & Fernandez, proprietor of the Silent Barber Shop, on Hotel street, has been instrumental in building up one of the best trades in the city. When this shop was opened up on the elaborate scale of the present day, many predicted that the business was short lived, but by the courteous treatment and manner of handling their customers this shop has built up a handsome trade and a reputation for cleanliness.

WHAT A LOT OF THEM NEED.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

What a wonderful lot of people there are who suffer from backache! From the millionaire sitting in his office clipping coupons down to the humble citizen who swings a pick for a dollar a day, nobody is free from it.

And it all comes from the same cause.

The kidneys are to blame.

Backache is really nothing but kidney ache. You can be perfectly sure that it means a disordered condition of the kidneys.

And if you are wise you will heed the warning immediately.

Backache neglected means severer forms of kidney disease, diabetes, urinary troubles, Bright's disease—death.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are the one simple remedy that can be relied upon in all forms of kidney trouble.

Mrs. William H. Williams, of 1403 Luzerne street, Scranton, Pa., says: "I had a dull, aching pain all the time right in the small of my back. There were times I was quite comfortable, but if I did any work to amount to anything the pain would begin. I was always worse when I did washing, ironing or heavy house work. Every morning I was stiff and lame when I got up and it hurt me to straighten up after stopping. I got Doan's Backache Kidney Pills and used them regularly. In a short time I noticed an improvement, and continuing the treatment was soon entirely cured. I am feeling better now than for a long while, and I have great faith in Doan's Backache Kidney Pills and recommend them at all times."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Mailed by Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., Honolulu, general agents, on receipt of price.

See that the name of the pills you buy is Doan's BACKACHE Kidney Pills.

THURSDAY : : NOVEMBER 24

"THANKSGIVING." "SUSPENSE."

We write over our doors this morning the word "Thanksgiving." With high resolution we commit ourselves to the taxing of the digestive powers beyond human endurance, as a sign of gratitude, and millions of people, after enjoying some happy hours will go down in dyspeptic sleep tonight. It is the way of the world.

The splendor of the day, however, is in the reunion of some millions of families, the blazing on the hearths of those kindly fires, which warm the flesh and blood of those who have been separated, and today, are together again.

But upon this day also, there are many thousands of families, who write, not "Thanksgiving," but "Suspense" over the door. For the sword is not yet sheathed. It yet hangs in the air by a thread. The great guns are only limbered up. The muskets are stacked in the field and not in the arsenal.

The women know it. They live in the monotony of valleys, in the silence of the prairie far over the mainland. The hearts of these mothers, sisters, wives and sweethearts are leagues beyond the sea, in the strange lands with the boys who are "in the east by the sea, and by the sea in the west." In each heart, infinite in its capacity of love, God only taken into confidence, there is the secret and abiding hope that one will be brave and return a hero.

It is said that there is no war today. But there is war. Disease still flies its flag from Cuba to the Philippines. This awful ally of war never declared or agreed to an armistice. He remains restless, vigilant and implacable. Did you not hear, yesterday, the bursting of three volleys out on the still air of our valley? It was its signal of conquest. It defies Maxims and rapid firers, and earth works. The women, these mothers and wives know it, on prairie or mountain, in a thousand homes, and are now on their knees beseeching the Christ of the seven wounds to intercede for them, that the cup may pass their lips. For these, it is a day of supplication, and "Suspense" is written across their doors.

Since language was written no sharper cry of anguish has been expressed in words, than that of the Italian mother, over the death of her boys in the ransom of Italy. It is printed in another place.

"Dead!—one of them shot by the sea
in the west,
And one of them shot in the east by the sea!
Both! both my boys!—If in keeping the feast
You want a great song for your Italy
free,
Let none look at me!"

The women are the real sufferers, when men, by the mysterious order of Providence, must build the highways of Christian civilization with the bodies of those created in the image of God. The glory of it, if there is glory, is not theirs. The agony of it, and there is agony, is theirs with their love to consecrate it.

"STATESMANSHIP."

The people, and there are many of them, who believe that important matters of State, are discussed with the utmost solemnity and dignity, may read the following account of the interview of M. Pouhier-Quartier with Bismarck, regarding the payment by France of an indemnity which was finally fixed at $1,000,000,000, but which Bismarck had insisted on, should be much greater:

"Pouhier-Quartier, a hard-headed Norman, was appointed by the French Government to negotiate with the German chancellor the terms of the indemnity after the Franco-German War. The chancellor received his visitor with great ceremony, and gave him an excellent dinner, followed by deep potations. They drank Rhenish wine and French wine, and the old Norman showed no sign of weakening on the indemnity. Then they drank "Bismarck," a tremendous mixture of champagne and stout, and still the Norman head was clear and obstinate. Next morning at 5 o'clock, Bismarck, in full uniform, burst into his visitor's bedroom, and threatened that if his terms were not agreed to, the German armies would resume hostilities at once. The old Norman, in his nightcap, sat up in bed, as cool as ever, and vigorously refused to yield. Then the chancellor broke into a hurricane of mirth, seized the old gentleman by both hands, wrung them warmly, and owned himself beaten. For the first time he had met a diplomatist who was his match in will and courage."

The only occasion in our own diplomatic history, when the example of Bismarck might have been followed with success, was that which involved the payment of indemnity to Japan. At that time, the method adopted by Bismarck was not recorded in any of the books on international law, and therefore our Minister of Foreign Relations is excused from failing to follow this precedent. Without knowledge of it, our minister would not have been justified in seeking to reduce the amount of indemnity demanded by Japan, by saturating Mr. Shimamura with okolehao. However reprehensible the act would have been, in private morals, it would be in accordance with international morals, that the end justifies the means. At the same time, even if the Bismarckian method of diplomacy had been followed in the Japanese negotiation, it might not have resulted as favorably to Hawaii, as it did to France. A negotiation carried on, under the auspices of okolehao, might have brought the distinguished negotiations, after an all-night session, to a question of "indemnity" before Judge Wilcox, in the place of indemnity to Japan.

Our little Republic must be congratulated for its decorous behavior in the negotiation. A matter involving $1,000,000,000, and the fate of two vast nations, may have justified two statesmen like Bismarck and Pouhier-Quartier in cautiously trying to drink each other into concessions. The amount involved in our last act of successful diplomacy did not.

KIPLING.

On one of the lanais, close to the beach at Waikiki, it is the custom at the dinner table to drink, at the full of the moon, a toast from Rudyard Kipling's ballad of the "Native Born."

"To the cool of our deep verandas—
To the blaze of our jewelled main,
To the night, to the palms in the moonlight,
And the fire-fly in the cane."

During his recent visit in England, Dr. Maxwell met Mr. Kipling and related the incident of the frequent drinking of a toast in the words of his poem. Mr. Kipling said that he was quite familiar with the Waikiki beach, and the beauty of the union of land and ocean views about it. Mr. Louis Stevenson had, he said, often described the place to him, with many details. In writing the poem "The Native Born," he had the island of Ceylon in mind, but it pleased him to hear that his words expressed the feeling of those who were fortunate enough to live on that well-known beach.

A Paragon of Excellence.

ALASKA is attracting an enormous amount of attention just now, and every line of matter containing reference to it, is eagerly scanned by thousands.

In view of this, perhaps it is not out of place to mention a few facts worth considering.

1. The Alaska is constructed upon strictly scientific principals, by which low temperature and dryness of air are naturally and inevitably obtained.

2. The Alaska has preserved fresh meats perfectly for three weeks in the hottest weather.

3. The Alaska produces better results with less ice than any other.

4. The Alaska possesses the only provision chamber free from odor.

5. Between the outer and inner walls there is an inch and a half space filled with pure charcoal, and experience extending over three and a half years, has convinced us t at the Alaska is without doubt, the best refrigerator on the market, in construction, in power to preserve perishable goods, in economy of ice, and in fact, in all points necessary to make them first class in every respect.

We have them in several sizes, at from $15 to $25 and also keep the Alaska Ice Chests.

IS AN EYE-OPENER

Some Revelations By a Health Board Special Agent.

CHINESE ARE OFFENDERS

Wash Houses and Hog Ranches on Waikiki Road-Menace to Health. Haoles Prepared to Move.

The subjoined exhaustive report of Special Agent Geo. Manson to the Board of Health refers especially to the district on either side of the main Waikiki road between the King street turn and Long Branch:

To the Hon. W. O. Smith, President of the Board of Health.

Sir:—I have the honor to report that since my appointment as agent of the Board of Health for the Waikiki District I have thoroughly investigated the same with reference to the suppression of various nuisances and beg leave to submit the following report of my operations to date, which I trust will meet with the approval of the Board.

WASH HOUSES—I found at the outset of my investigations that several Chinese wash house owners were washing clothes on their premises contrary to the law which provides that no washing shall be done for hire within a radius of three miles from the junction of King and Nuuanu streets. These were all instructed by me through an interpreter furnished by the courtesy of Marshal Brown, as to the law, and given notice that any further infractions would result in arrest and punishment. To enforce obedience to the law it was found necessary to arrest two of the offenders and make an example of them and they were duly convicted in the Police Court, sentence being suspended to enable them to procure the regular permit to wash at the Iwilei wash house. One of these Chinese is still trying to evade the law by washing at night and at such times when he knows that I am absent in town, and he will be arrested again as soon as the necessary evidence is obtained. This man, Tai Wo by name, has a wash house directly on the road with no drainage whatever, the waste water running under the house and over the swamp beneath at will. Two other wash houses on Beretania street opposite the car stables, which have been in operation right along for years and using water from artesian wells on the premises were complained of and being outside of my jurisdiction I notified Marshal Brown, who promptly served notice on them to stop washing, and I understand they are now patrons of the Iwilei wash house. Still another wash house was about to be started near the Bishop switch but I notified the parties that no washing could be done on the premises and the proposed building was not erected. I am informed that other wash houses along the road are constantly breaking the law by washing on their premises, but as this is only done occasionally and generally at night it is hard to procure the necessary evidence to convict, but I submit this could be easily obtained were the mounted patrolmen on duty instructed to watch these places.

THE HOG RANCH NUISANCES—I have personally visited nearly every hog ranch in the district, and it will probably surprise the Board to learn that there are over 500 hogs being kept there, and in many instances quite close to the road. With few exceptions the pens and surroundings were in a filthy state, some without any drainage or attempt at the same. In some places only a few hogs were kept, in others 15 or 20 and in about half a dozen cases fom 45 to 55 in each. In the larger places I found it was the practice to wash the floors of the pens out daily, the waste being conducted by means of wooden troughs to a large wooden box sunk in the ground. But these conducting troughs are never cleaned and consequently soon become a nuisance of themselves. The water being so near the surface in these marshes it is impossible to procure sufficient depth for these containers, which I found invariably to be full and in a rotten and sometimes uncovered state. In almost every instance I found it necessary to order a general cleaning up under the pens and for several yards in their vicinity and in some instances I ordered on the makai side canals dug a short distance connecting the pens with tide water. My instructions were in each instance plainly interpreted to the parties by a Chinese policeman with me and I met with no refusal to carry them out, except in one case where the owner preferred to sell his hogs. I have thought it advisable and only fair to give the parties two or three weeks in which to carry out the suggested changes, which in some cases have involved much labor. I expect, however, that several arrests will be necessary to make the people understand that the present inspection is not a casual one like some of the previous ones, and that in this instance the Board of Health is in earnest and that my orders must be obeyed.

DUCK PONDS—There are about 2,000 ducks maintained in the Waikiki district. As a rule the pens were kept in fair condition, and while occasionally the ponds used were small there was sufficient depth of water to prevent their becoming a nuisance. My observations led me to the conclusion that the keeping of ducks and fowls has little to do with the foul odors prevailing along the road, but that they are caused by dirty hog pens, the distribution of hog manure over the gardens, the carrying of the same from place to place in uncovered containers and wagons and from the abundant pools of stagnant water in the neighborhood.

STAGNANT POOLS—There is more or less stagnant water on both sides of the Waikiki road, to do away with which necessitates the digging of drainage canals. The urgent necessity of a systematic draining of these marshes has been pointed out to me by several parties who think that I have the necessary power to order the work done offhand; it can be made apparent to the Board any time they will take the trouble to make a personal examination of the locality. The neighborhood of the old Macfarlane ranch is the worst place on the road in this respect and the stench therefrom is almost insufferable, especially at night.

SUGGESTIONS—I beg leave to submit the following recommendations and trust they will receive due consideration:

First. That the members of the Board of Health, and especially its president, pay a visit to the locality under my guidance.

Second. That the Board pass a general regulation prohibiting the keeping of hogs within the same radius as the washing of clothes is forbidden, say three miles from the corner of King and Nuuanu streets.

Third. That in case the second suggestion cannot be carried out that a committee be appointed and empowered to draw up certain necessary rules and regulations regarding the keeping of hogs within the city limits, the same to be translated into Chinese and to take effect immediately after the same are published.

In support of the above I would call the attention of the Board to the fact that while the value of real estate has virtually doubled throughout the city in the past three years, in the Waikiki district alone it is at a standstill, and it may be set down as a foregone conclusion that there will be no change in this respect just so long as the keeping of hogs is allowed and the building of little Chinese shacks encouraged. At present no one will build in the vicinity nor purchase a building lot along the road at any price, and yet by reason of the constant breezes from the Manoa Valley the locality is an exceptionally and convenient one, as well as being on the main and only drive in the city. There are property owners like Fred Harrison, Frank Hustace, the McChesney Brothers and others who are not only willing but anxious to improve their holdings along the road, but I think every member of the Board will admit that they would be foolish to do so under existing conditions. By absolutely prohibiting the keeping of hogs within the three mile limit, which is at the bridge near Sherwood's, the lessees and property owners would be forced to put the land to some other use. It is my opinion it would be immediately turned into vegetable patches, and where similar land has been so used there has been no trouble with stagnant water between the vegetable patches. The remedy suggested may be somewhat heroic but I submit it is the only effectual one, and that it is high time this blot on our civilization was removed. With the germs of typhoid fever scattered throughout the park and the neighborhood of the Military Hospital it is high time the district lying between received special attention, if only from a sanitary standpoint.

There is another matter that the Board should not forget. The evil is increasing at a very rapid rate. In the last few days no less than three new hog pens have been started, one directly in front of the Gilbert residence. If this keeps up the people living along the road may as well prepare to leave, sell their property for a song and abandon one of the prettiest districts in the city to the hogs and Chinese. The magnitude of the evil I have feebly endeavored to picture to the Board is such as to demand the almost constant presence and supervision of a paid inspector of the Board. I have already given more of my time to the matter than I feel that I can afford or that the Board has any right to expect, but if I have succeeded in bringing the Board to a proper realization of the evil and the proportions it is assuming I shall consider myself well repaid. Very respectfully,

GEORGE MANSON.

WHY ONE MAN IS THANKFUL.

I am thankful because I am redhaired, I might be bald.

I am thankful there is a young lady next door who practices on the piano two hours a day. She might practice four, and in addition, might have a brother addicted to the cornet habit.

I am thankful I am the father of twins. Suppose they had been triplets?

I am thankful I wear a number nine shoe. I might have to wear elevens.

I am thankful I am poor. I might be in debt.

I am thankful I possess quiet tastes. Suppose I had been fond of Wagner's music?

I am thankful I learned to smoke cigars. I might have tackled cigarettes.

I am thankful I can't think of any more things to be thankful for. If I could I should feel obliged to write them down.—Puck.

STORY BY HALE

Recounting a Thanksgiving Day in Paris.

AT TIME OF REVOLUTION

A Gloomy Outlook at First—Word From Washington—Securing a Turkey.

By Edward Everett Hale.

"Grandpapa, are we not going to have Thanksgiving? Philippe says we are not going to have Thanksgiving!"

The boy who spoke was not the grandson of the old gentleman whom he spoke to, but he was a sort of grandnephew. The old gentleman himself was no less a person that Benjamin Franklin, at that moment the accredited Minister of the rebel colonies of America, who represented them at the court of France.

But, to tell the truth, at this moment the court of France did not want to have much to do with him. The affairs of the rebels seemed to be in a very bad way. Gen. Burgoyne had swept everything before him. He had taken Fort Ticonderoga, he had marched where he chose, and was well advanced on his way to New York. Howe, the other English general, had gone toward the South, had driven the rebel forces away from their capital city, Philadelphia, and had beaten their great general, George Washington, in a battle where Washington had the choice of ground, and was in the city of Philadelphia, his ships having forced their way up the Delaware river.

Things did not seem in a very good way for the "rebels," or "insurgents," or "Sons of Liberty"; and the French Government were by no means so cordial to the venerable Dr. Franklin as they had been at the time when he arrived in France.

So it was that the old gentleman smiled with a very wan smile, as he said to the little boy:

"Why, yes, Jeremiah, we will have a Thanksgiving. We will thank God that we have bread and butter to eat, and if we should have no butter we will thank Him for the bread."

The child was not satisfied with the answer. He knew his great-uncle too well to think that this was the last he should hear, and he said:

"But the turkey, grandpapa; are we not to have any turkey? It will not be Thanksgiving unless we have turkey and plum pudding and squash pie and mince pie."

But the old philosopher shook his head again and said: "I do not think we can have any turkey. We cannot have any turkey while our soldiers are starving in America. I will tell you what we will have, Jeremiah; we will have a nice salt codfish, one of the fish that came the last time that your father sent me a parcel from Nantes. Very nice fish they are, and if Philippe does not know how to cook them, you must tell your mother to show him how. When I was a boy we used to call a codfish a 'Cape Cod turkey.' You can call it a Cape Cod turkey now, and then you shall have turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner."

The old man tried to smile again upon the boy, but it was rather a wan smile, as it was before. And then he said a little unwillingly, as he always spoke when he drove away children:

"Now you must go. Your cousin is waiting for me, and I must write some letters that are to go home. Come again in the afternoon, and we will settle all about Thanksgiving."

So the little boy had to go off to his sister and his play with but cold comfort from the philosopher. And the philosopher was as good as his word. It is the first remark one makes of Franklin, that he united a vein of drollery with his wisdom. This went so far that it showed itself on his face, and one side of his face seems like the face of a humorist, while the other side is the fact of a philosopher. Richard Greenough, the sculptor, made this discovery, and he has perpetuated it for posterity in that admirable statue of Franklin which stands in front of the City Hall, in Boston.

In the afternoon he called the boy to him again and told him that they were quite too late for Thanksgiving. He said: "Thanksgiving day has to come in November and you have asked me for a Thanksgiving day when it is too late for one at the proper time. Take care, though, that you are at dinner on Thursday on time, with your best clothes on, and tell your mother that she must have on her best clothes too, and tell your father that I shall not hear of his dining with any of his grand friends, so that everybody must dine at home; and, as I do not go into the kitchen often, ask Philippe what he can do with that codfish. We will not forget the Cape Cod turkey."

Accordingly, everybody in the family knew, and indeed only too well, that the doctor meant that no engagements should be made from home for that day. All of them respected his wish in that regard, and in the beginning of the gayeties of Advent—for such gayeties were in Paris at that time—everybody was certain that he would be home on Thursday. It was whispered aroung among the younger members of the diplomatic staff that they must eat salt codfish if they dined with the doctor. But it was to be hoped that Philippe would provide some side dishes, besides the fish; and no one supposed that at Dr. Franklin's table, anybody would starve.

This was the outlook for a Thanksgiving dinner on the morning of the 4th of December. The clouds were as dark as ever on the political sky. Mr. Lee was grumpy and Mr. Deane was fairly cross, and Dr. Franklin was very silent. The dispatches which they waited for would not come. Probably they had been lost at sea. In those days it happened, again and again, that every one of the four quadruplicates which were sent from Philadelphia to Paris by the foreign secretaries would be thrown into the sea from some hard-pressed American vessel to avoid capture by an English cruiser. Every sort of rumor was put in circulation by the friends of England as to the success of Burgoyne, as to the success of Howe; and you would have supposed that Gen. Washington's army had melted away to nothing, and that there never was any army under Gen. Gates. The hangers-on at the little legation disappeared. Instead of the crowds of adventurers who used to be in there asking for places and trying to feather their nests in one way or another there were only a few of the most steadfast rebels in Paris. These men came in to see if there were any news, and when they found that all the news was bad they skulked away again.

Such was the condition of affairs when, as they all sat at work one morning in Franklin's large parlor of the Hotel Valentinois, the sudden crack of a whip was heard, and in an instant the concierge's bell rang and they heard the heavy iron gates of the courtyard swing open. This was not very frequent. The carriage of visitors were a little apt to stop at the outer door; but on this occasion the concierge was evidently affected by surprise, and thought it important that the post-carriage at the gate should come in. One of the young men ran to the window, and said in a moment: "It is a post-carriage and the horses have been running."

Dr. Franklin started up and looked out, and saw in a moment that it was clear that the carriage brought a bearer of dispatches. He was as impatient as any one, and he hurried down the stairway, the other gentlemen of the legation following him.

The driver, meanwhile, cracked his whip again, made an unnecessary circuit around the courtyard, and brought up at the door just as Dr. Franklin stepped upon the lower step. An eager young man, who was pale with excitement, without opening the carriage door sprang over the side upon the pavement. He carried in his hand a large folded envelope, but he did not at first instant deliver it. He simply bowed to Dr. Franklin, whom he had seen before, and said: "It is Dr. Franklin?"

The old man hardly recognized the salute. He only said: "You are from Nantes?"

And the young man said: "I am from Boston."

"Sir, is Philadelphia taken?" said Dr. Franklin.

"It is sir," said the young man. And he saw Dr. Franklin turn away. He cried out on the instant: "But I have greater news than that. Gen. Burgoyne and his whole army are prisoners of war!"

It is one of the most dramatic and critical sentences which was ever pronounced in history. The messenger was young Austin a Boston boy, who had been sent by the Executive Committee of Massachusetts to bring this great news to their distinguished friend. He had landed at Nantes, after a shorter passage than any other vessel made. He had ridden with post-horses day and night from Nantes to Paris with his news, and had the exquisite pleasure of announcing it in this dramatic way.

Franklin folded him in his arms and kissed him. The whole party went back into the great salon and tore open the dispatches which he had brought them. He was compelled again and again to tell the story of the arrival of Gen. Gates' express in Boston and of the joy there. He had at once been selected for the mission, and a little vessel fitted out for the swiftest passage that could be made. Alas, the wind had been contrary for four days in Boston Harbor, and it is matter of tradition that young Austin was himself at the First Church in Boston when Dr. Chauncey prayed for a short passage for the messenger. A story, perhaps somewhat exaggerated, says that in the prayer Dr. Chauncy asked that even if, in battle or in storm, the messenger be lost, his dispatches might be saved.

With laughter, and sometimes with tears, with exclamations of surprise, and with hopes for the future which fate never gratified, the young messenger and his new friend, the aged philosopher, spent the morning. Others of the party rushed to the city, that they might use the news to the best advantage in their stock speculations; and he in whom our readers will be the most interested, little Jeremiah, stole down to the kitchen and told Philippe that he was sure now that they might have turkeys on Thanksgiving for dinner.

And truly, when the dinner came, there was a little menu, which young William Franklin and Jeremiah had themselves put in type in Dr. Franklin's own private office; and at the head of the menu were these words:

"1. Dindod roti, a l'Americaine.

"2. Dindon roti, au Louis Treize."

These were for two ends of the table. At both sides of the table were dishes of cranberry sauce, and under the special direction of Jeremiah's mother Philippe had constructed Marlborough pies and what, for the purpose of the occasion were called pumpkin pies, that the festivities might be complete.

Twenty years of successful experience as a Real Estate Agent enables me to state that I have done well for investors, when they followed my advice.

The attention of those having money to invest is called to the fact that there are great opportunities to make splendid investments in San Francisco Real Estate at the present time. The condition of realty at present favors the buyer. This is the time to invest when properties can be purchased at low prices.

San Francisco has a great future; all unite on this point. It is to be the great city of the Pacific Coast and the man who buys now will make himself rich.

I offer my experience and knowledge of values of property to those who desire to purchase business properties for income, or improved lots or blocks for investment. Information cheerfully given in reference to all matters pertaining to Real Estate in San Francisco. I will be happy to correspond in relation thereto.

Sometimes estates are divided, and the property has to be sold; in this way fine purchases can be made. The undersigned possesses information of all such sales and can advise buyers as to values.

Money invested on Real Estate security for those who desire to loan their money.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

What does it do?

It causes the oil glands in the skin to become more active, making the hair soft and glossy, precisely as nature intended.

It cleanses the scalp from dandruff and thus removes one of the great causes of baldness.

It makes a better circulation in the scalp and stops the hair from coming out.

It prevents and it cures baldness.

Ayer's Hair Vigor will surely make hair grow on bald heads, provided only there is any life remaining in the hair bulbs.

It restores color to gray or white hair. It does not do this in a moment, as will a hair dye; but in a short time the gray color of age gradually disappears and the darker color of youth takes its place.

A BOY CAPTAIN

How a Mere Lad Was Master of the Kenilworth.

TELLS OF THE SUGAR FIRE

Trouble From the First—Death of Capt. Baker—Part of G. Ernest Thrum in the Disaster.

NEW YORK, November 15.—An accident made Victor H. Generaux, a San Francisco boy, master of the Kenilworth, a four-masted ship, and one of the largest under the American flag.

The Kenilworth belongs to Arthur Sewall & Company. She anchored off Liberty Island tonight.

This is the story of young Generaux, a slim, wiry lad, with a shock of dark hair that tumbles upon his forehead:

I shipped on the Kenilworth as boatswain, but at San Fransico was promoted to be second mate. The crew, made up of all nationalities, were a troublesome lot, and complained that they were ill-treated. At Hilo they refused to work the cargo. Two weeks before sailing the carpenter, J. B. McChesney, discovered a fire in the sail locker, and native Hawaiians put it out. The crew were sent to jail, and brought back, three deserting.

"When forty-two days from the Hawaiian Islands and 2,500 miles west of Valparaiso, Arthur B. Piper, the mate, saw smoke coming from the poop ventilator. It was at 3 p. m. on Thursday, July 8. At midnight I called to Mr. Piper to relieve me. The odor of gas was very strong in the passageway. There was no response from the mate's room. I found the bodies of the mate and boy on the floor of Mr. Piper's room. They had been suffocated from the gas of the burning sugar.

"Though almost overpowered by the gas, I rushed back to the captain's room. With a smile on his face Captain Baker lay dead in his berth. On a settle in the after cabin lay G. Ernest Thrum, of Honolulu, a passenger, unconscious. For three hours we worked over the inanimate forms. It was not until 6 a. m. that Mr. Thrum came to. Thrum read the burial service at 11 a. m. the next day over the others.

"For 2,500 miles, and sixteen days, I was acting captin of the Kenilworth. At Valparaiso the fire was extinguished. The old crew, who may have set the ship on fire, deserted, and Captain James Murphy was sent from New York to bring the ship home, which he did in the record-breaking passage of 9,000 miles in sixty-five days."

Superintendent Crawley.

The directorate of the new fertilizer company, which has taken over the business of A. Frank Cooke, held a meeting yesterday and elected as manager of the corporation Professor J. T. Crawley, who has been chemist with the Planters' Experiment Station for four years and who came to Hawaii from a sugar cane experiment station in Louisiana, his home. Professor Crawley, then, is just the man to supply fertilizers of the correct make up for cane fields here. Besides, he has friends and acquaintances throughout the islands and has business ability. Mr. Crawley goes to his new position the first of the year, but leaves his present place on the last day of this month, securing a leave of absence for December.

Returned From America.

Andrew Brown, superintendent of Water Works and of the Public Market, is back from the coast. A series of baths with proper massage, at Bartlett Springs has completely relieved him of the gout. Mr. Brown had numerous adventures during his trip abroad. He made a number of investments at San Francisco, buying among other trophies, according to a letter from Arch Gilfillan, a nice gold brick. Mr. Brown inspected all water systems within 200 miles of San Francisco and gave close attention to fire protection matters, as he is one of the Fire Commissioners here. This was the second visit of Mr. Brown to the United States and he finds the country improving, especially in campaign methods.

Eczema, scald head, hives, itchiness of the skin of any sort, instantly and permanently cured. Doan's Ointment. At any chemist's. 50 cents.

FARRAGUT REJECTED.

WASHINGTON, November 15.—The report from the trial board at San Francisco on the recent trial of the torpedo boat Farragut shows that she fell the fraction of a knot below the speed of thirty knots required. The contractors have asked that the boat be accepted on the record made, but the department finds itself bound by the contract to refuse, so the boat must be rejected, or on another trial she must make the thirty knots required.

LI IS SHELVED.

PEKING, November 13.—Li Hung Chang has been ordered to proceed to Tse Nan, capital of the province of Shantung, to concert measures with the Viceroy of Shantung to prevent future inundations of the Yellow river (Hoang Ho). This appointment is regarded as virtually shelving Prince Li.

Annexation Thanksgiving Dinner.

Men of sound opinion may differ on political or financial questions, but there can be no difference of opinion when it comes to discussing a good dinner. The people of the Hawaiian Islands have many things to give thanks for—if not for one thing it is for another.

With us it is that the people have come to realize that we are carrying as fine a line of groceries as can be found anywhere, and have shown their appreciation of our efforts in their behalf by patronizing us.

This year we have a handsome line of holiday delicacies to offer you, all of the "pure food" grade. Read this list:

TODAY'S BIG GAME

Punahou and Town to Meet on the Gridiron.

COMPOSITION OF ELEVENS

Individual Prowess vs. Team Work. Captains and Colors—Music. to Be no Hurts.

Today the Punahou eleven will attempt to win back the coveted championship held for the last three years by the Town Team.

In the year 1890 the Charleston eleven, captained by Lieut. Dan Carlin played a Town Team the first intercollegiate foot ball game ever played in these Islands. The Charleston boys were victorious. Since that time intercollegiate foot ball has had a large following and the game has grown steadily in popular interest. Every year has witnessed a match game between the Punahou and Town elevens. During the last three years the Towns have been victorious, largely due to the excellent individual work of the players, especially in last year's game.

Such men as Whitehouse, Schimerhorn, Cornwell and Conradt could not be resisted by the Punahou boys, and as a result the "Town" had a walkover the "gown" last Thanksgiving Day.

Another Thanksgiving day comes around and the expectations of the friends of both elevens are to be realized or disappointed.

The Punahou team has a large number of friends who will be present to urge on the "buff and blue" to victory, and many a "rooter" who has stood by the Town eleven for the last seven years will be on hand with his sisters, cousins and aunts, just to let Captain Armstrong know that he and his "tigers" are not forgotten. The more, the merrier.

Last year about a thousand persons witnessed the struggle, and it is confidently hoped that this number will be doubled today. Don't forget your colors—"Buff and Blue" for Punahou, and "Black and Yellow" for the Town.

The Town boys have been somewhat discouraged this year and will be strongly handicapped because of lack of practice, but individually they will be stronger than the Punahou line-up. Any one who knows anything about foot ball is painfully aware of the fact that individual strength in a foot ball team will not as a rule, be victorious. The Punahou eleven showed a splendid resistance against the Pennsylvania eleven and Mr. Babbitt has worked hard to bring his players into good form. He has had very few men from which to pick a strong eleven, but the faithful practice and determination of his men may prove more effective than the individual strength of the Town Eleven.

Punahou is also stronger than the Town Team in kicking and will doubtless rely much upon this style of a game. Very few players can punt a ball as far as Captain Soper can when he is in good trim. The chances for victory seem to be pretty evenly divided and the lovers of good sport will be treated to a clean and manly game.

George Carter has kindly consented to umpire and Hiram Bingham Jr., to referee the game and Captain Berger will be present with his boys to arouse and enthuse and cheer up the crowd during the intervals. The managers have stated that there will be no accidents today, so the timid fair ones should not hesitate to come out in full force.

Following is the line-up:

Early Thanksgiving Days.

The first recorded Thanksgiving was the Hebrew feast of the Tabernacles.

There have been but two English Thanksgivings in this century. One was on February 27, 1872, for the recovery of the Prince of Wales from illness; the other, June 21, 1887, for the Queen's Jubilee.

The New England Thanksgiving dates from 1633, when the Massachusetts Bay Colony set apart a day for thanksgiving.

The first national Thanksgiving proclamation were by Congress during the Revolutionary war.

The first great American Thanksgiving day was in 1784, for the declaration of peace. There was one more national Thanksgiving in 1789 and no other till 1863, when President Lincoln issued a national proclamation for a day of thanksgiving. Since that time the President has issued an annual proclamation.—Journal of Education.

IS TO BE QUEEN

Grand Play Miss O'Neil Gives This Evening.

High Praise for the Young Star. Difficult Character—Brings Elizabeth Back.

This is what the Bulletin, San Francisco said of the performance at San Francisco of Elizabeth by Nance O'Neil, supported by the McKee Rankin Company:

Nance O'Neil had the greatest triumph she has yet won here in Elizabeth, Queen of England, at the Columbia theater last night. When it is remembered that many actresses who have acquitted themselves creditably in other roles have been absolutely idotic when they have attempted Elizabeth, when the awful caricatures to which Modjeska has played her Mary Stuart are recalled, it is seen how hard a character the Virgin Queen is to portray. Unlike any modern type, a woman by, in and of herself, England's great Queen has seemed to defy the most skilful interpreters of dramatic character.

Nance O'Neil brought Elizabeth back to us. She was imperial and stately, even while she was swayed by as many caprices as the floating particles of the air. Virago, termgant, despot, fury, she was yet all these in royal fashion. The womanishness of the role was never allowed to overcome the ruler. "I am not a woman," she says, "I am a king."

To form an estimate of Miss O'Neil's great ability it is only necessary to remember the difficulties of portraying in one character the iron will of the born commander with the tender fascination of the woman, the tantrums of a jealous woman and the supreme egotism of a sovereign.

Miss O'Neil moreover looked the part, a beautiful, queenly Elizabeth whose subjects were both on and off the stage.

The play is one of the best of its kind. Historically representative, it is of keen dramatic interest.

Those who are desirous of securing seats for this evening will please call at Wall, Nichols Company before 12 o'clock, as the store will then close for the day.

In a letter dated November 16th, information is received that the St. Paul would sail from San Francisco on the following day. The St. Paul is loaded down with all sorts of Christmas goodies for the boys at Manila. Almost all kinds of dainties, except those that will spoil on the way are included in this big Santa Claus cargo. The transport will carry two officers, forty-two enlisted men and two civilians, including Second Lieutenant Martin Dismukes, First Tennessee, twenty-four recruits of the Eighteenth Infantry; three men of the Twenty-third Infantry, five men of the Wyoming Light Artillery, one man of the First Washington Volunteers, four men of the First Tennessee, two men of the Fifty-first Iowa, one man of the First South Dakota, one man of the Twentieth Kansas, Captain R. M. Kirby Smith, assistant surgeon, First Tennessee, M. Timke of the Subsistence Department and Henry D. Wolfe, interpreter.

IS PERFECT.

People recently from the Coast pronounce the Enterprise Beer, as served at the Merchants' Exchange, as the best in the city.

Remington Standard Typewriter!

WHAT IS IT?
A simple, compact, and durable machine, which successfully performs the work of the pen, with a tremendous saving of time and exertion.

WHAT WILL IT DO?
It produces, with speed and certainty, in clearly legible printed characters, one or many copies of any kind of writing, excepting such as must be done in books.

TO WHOM IS IT USEFUL?
To every one who has writing to do. In business circles its desirability is assured. Lawyers and journalists cannot do without it. Professional and scientific men realize its worth to them. The author and thinker find it invaluable. It conserves the most potent kind of energy—that of the brain—by reducing to a minimum the mechanical labor of writing, and distributing it among all the fingers of both hands. Writer's cramp disappears where it is used. It presents the printed appearance of the work to the mind at once.

WHO CAN OPERATE IT?
Any one of ordinary intelligence. A very few trials enable any one to write upon it readily. Thereafter it is only a matter of practice.

Military Sanitation.

(San Francisco Chronicle).

The New York Regiment, on duty at Honolulu, is the latest volunteer command to show how small a figure sanitation cuts in the education of the citizen soldiers. While the regulars in camp at Honolulu have kept their health, owing to their knowledge of how to do it, the New Yorkers have been sick from the beginning. It was all a matter of cleanliness and camp discipline, in which, throughout the various campaigns, the volunteers have been lamentably deficient. Hereafter, in commissioning volunteer officers the government, state and Federal, would do well to inquire as particularly into the sanitary knowledge of the candidate as into their acquaintance with drill regulations.

ON DECK AGAIN.

Revival of the Hawaiian Rifle Association.

There was much earnestness and enthusiasm in the meeting held at the Hawaiian hotel last evening to reorganize the old Hawaiian Rifle Association. Walter E. Wall opened the session with characteristic remarks. He believed that the time had arrived to have in Honolulu a gun club that would be able to cope with anything of the sort anywhere. There was here the material, and all that was needed was co-operation and practice. There was hearty approval of this statement. The roll was presented and was signed by the twenty-eight gentlemen present, many of them veterans at the butts and champions of by-gone days. The roll will be open for charter members to January 1. The by-laws of the old Association were adopted without change. John G. Rothwell, secretary and treasurer, made a report showing $158 balance to the good after paying for the new range, lately purchased from the disbanded Sharpshooters.

A shoot will be held January 1.

The election of directors resulted: John G. Rothwell, J. D. McVeigh, F. B. Damon, C. Elvin, W. E. Wall, E. O. White, C. Crabbe, E. Hingley J. H. Fisher and Q. H. Berry. From this number J. G. Rothwell will be elected president and F. B. Damon secretary. Walter E. Wall presented to the new association a $50 trophy, which was named for the donor. A vote of thanks was given Mr. Lucas for use of a meeting place. The directors will be called together in a few days.

Boys at Football.

The High School and St. Louis College football teams will play at the Makiki baseball league grounds at 2 o'clock this afternoon. They will charge admission, but will finish up an hour before the big game begins. The High School, captained by "Bob" King lately defeated the St. Louis College eleven led by Pasty Gleason. It is said that the boys put up a spirited and quite a scientific game.

Hawaiian Commercial Factor.

Mr. James B. Castle, ex-secretary of legation at Washington and formerly Collector General of Customs here, is back from San Francisco, smiling and in good health. Mr. Castle was yesterday heartily congratulated everywhere on the complete success he made of the great deal in Hawaiian Commercial stock. This was perhaps the largest stock transaction ever put through by an Island man.

Rugby Next.

A. St. M. Mackintosh will call the first practice game of the Town Rugby football team for Monday evening next. A good attendance is pledged. Singer and Prestidge have done good work in organizing a Regiment team. The third aggregation in the series will represent Iolani College. Minister Cooper has given general permission for the use of the N. G. H. drill ground for Rugby practice.

DAWSON'S BIG FIRE.

VICTORIA (B. C.), November 14.—The people of Dawson City have paid dearly for failing to provide for the protection of the big mining town. They have found out that buildings constructed of heavy logs will burn as quickly as wooden buildings of the cities where lumber is obtainable. Early on the morning of October 14th, when all but the latest of the sporting fraternity had retired, a fire started in the Green Tree saloon, and within a couple of hours had wiped out forty log buildings, more costly than many of the brick and stone block in San Francisco, and destroyed their contents.

DIED.

TENNEY—Lucien Pomeroy Tenney, November 5th, 1898., suddenly of heart failure, at Cromartan, Florida, aged 73 years.

Mr. Tenney leaves a widow, Mrs. L. P. Tenney, also three children, Vernon L. Tenney, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. G. P. Castle and E. D. Tenney, of Honolulu. The deceased was also a brother of Mrs. S. N. Castle, of this city, and Mrs. H. N. Peck, of Kenova, West Virginia.

WHARF AND WAVE.

The steamer Iwalani sails today for Kauai with coal.

The United Etates ship Philadelphia was to come off thedrydock at Mare island November 15th and proceed at once on her voyage to Samoa.

Customs Inspectors seized 2,600 cigars found secreted in the crew's quarters on the steamship Belgic, upon her arrival in San Francisco on the 10th inst.

The ship Edward O'Brien, which arrived in San Francisco on November 1st with coal from Baltimore, will sail as soon as discharged, for Honolulu, where she loads sugar for New York.

The Australia's cargo yesterday of 1816 tons was one of the largest genera merchandise cargoes ever brought to this port. This popular liner will bring another big freight on the next trip, as she arrives a few days before Christmas.

The ship Tacoma, chartered by the Government for the transportation of horses to Honolulu, went to the Union Iron Works November 11th in Potrero, to discharge the coal ballast she brought with her from the Hawaiian Island port. She will be made ready for a return trip, but it is not expected that she will get away for about thirty days.

One of the most popular appointments made in the shipping world for some time was the promotion in San Francisco November 12th of Chief Officer A. McAllman of the barkentine Archer to the command of that vessel. Capt. McAllman has been chief officer of the Archer for more than three years. He stands well with his employers, and is known al along the water front as a fine seaman and a good fellow. Captain Calhoun, whom McAllman succeeds, takes command of the R. P. Rithet.

BAILEY'S BIKE BITS.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO BICYCLE BUYERS AND RIDERS.

The signs are that prices on well known makes of wheels will be cut, and cut deep. One very large maker has made a cut of 33 1-3 per cent, and at the same time advertises the fact that '99 wheels will be the same as '98, with 30 inch wheels as an extra line at $5.00 more.

With cheap bikes and good, the trade may be said to have only just begun in the matter of quantity of sales. 100 wheels at $40.00 can be sold where one would sell at $100, or even $75. Always we have the cheapest bike in town. A good second hand bike for $15.00. Good for a track or to learn on. Good value anyway, anywhere.

A special feature made of contracts to repair punctures and to clean your wheel for $1 per month.

BAILEY'S HONOLULU CYCLERY, Established 1892. 231 King St.

BY AUTHORITY.

IRRIGATION NOTICE.

Holders of water privileges, or those paying water rates, are hereby notified that the hours for irrigation purposes are from 6 to 8 o'clock a. m. and from 4 to 6 o'clock p. m.

II. Holders of water privileges on the slopes of Punchbowl above Green street, and in Nuuanu Valley above School street are hereby notified that they will not be restricted to the irrigation hours of 6 to 8 a. m. and 4 to 6 p. m., but will be allowed to irrigate whenever sufficient water is available, provided that they do not use the water for irrigation purposes for more than four hours in every twenty-four.
