KING HUMBERT ASSASSINATED

Victim of the Anarchist Plotters.

ITALY'S SOVEREIGN KILLED WHILE DRIVING FROM A PUBLIC FUNCTION

The Prince of Naples Succeeds With the Title of Victor Emanuel Third—Pope Celebrates Mass For King's Soul.

MONZA, July 29.—King Humbert was shot and almost instantly killed at 10:15 tonight by an anarchist who gave the name of Angelo Bressi. He died at 11:30. The assassin boldly proclaimed himself an anarchist from Tuscany and cynically avowed his guilt of the crime.

NEW YORK, July 29.—A cable to the Sun from Rome says: The leading Milan newspaper, the Corriere Della Sera, thus describes the assassination of King Humbert: The King took his place on the platform amid the tumultuous cheering of the people. He wore civilian attire and appeared in excellent health and spirits. In distributing the prizes His Majesty made a speech which he concluded by saying: "It gives me great pleasure to be among my own people after so long an absence from Monza."

These, as it proved, were the last words King Humbert uttered publicly. The distribution of prizes ended at 10:30 o'clock, and on leaving the platform the King entered the first of two four-wheeled court carriages that were waiting and sat on the right of Lieut. Gen. Ponzio Baglia, chief aid. As the carriage began to move the second carriage was sent to a local hospital for surgeons. Before these could reach the castle the King had died.

The body was borne tenderly up the long flight of steps and carried into the chamber and placed on the bed. The King's eyes opened, but he gave no sign of life. His hand threw herself on the body of her husband alternately calling to him in tones of anguish and praying the doctors to tell her the truth. When they were convinced that the King was dead the Queen submitted to be led gently away. The surgeons then removed the King's clothing and examined the wounds. The Queen afterward returned and kept vigil beside the body, praying until a late hour.

Upon receiving the terrible news the Archbishop of Milan hastened to Monza and solemnly blessed the corpse. MONZA, July 29.—Few details of the murder of the King are available. No special precautions had been taken. Very few police were in attendance, and only a small guard of soldiers was keeping the way clear for the carriage. The King, amid the cheers of the crowd, came out smiling, accompanied by his aid-de-camp, Gen. Ponzio Baglia. He had entered the carriage and was just driving off when the revolver shots were fired in quick succession. Some witnesses assert that Bressi was seen just previously waving his hands and cheering. The first shot wounded the King in the neck, the second, the fatal one, pierced his heart, and the third broke the arm of the already dying sovereign.

The crowd was stunned by the unexpected scene, but speedily a rush was made toward the assassin. He did not attempt to escape and was roughly treated until the carabinieri formed a cordon and secured him from the fury of the people. An eye witness says that immediately after the shots were fired, the King fell back pressing his hand to his heart. He was instantly supported by Gen. Baglia, who told the coachman to drive with all speed to the castle. The King exclaimed, "It is nothing," but did not utter another sound. Blood gushed from his mouth.

The royal carriage covered the distance between the gymnastic society clubhouse, where the crime was committed, and the royal villa at full speed, requiring but three minutes. The King expired on the way, and, although placed on a bed, was a dead when the doctors arrived. When Queen Margherita arrived at the villa it was still hoped that the King would survive, and when the truth was broken to her a heartrending scene ensued. Bursting into tears she exclaimed: "It is the greatest grief of the century." Humbert was good and faithful. No person could have loved his people more. He was one who bore ill-will to none. When the Queen's mother arrived there was another affecting scene. The room where the embalming is proceeding is already filled with flowers. The Queen herself placed a wreath on the pier and knelt and prayed beside the body, and, in spite of the entreaties of the Princes and Princesses, she refused to quit the death chamber, which is in charge of Count Jourri, the late King's aid-de-camp. The expression of the dead King's face is tranquil and even smiling. The corpse was blessed immediately after death.

President Carnot of France shot while driving at Lyons, June 24, 1894. Senor Canovas del Castillo, Premier of Spain, shot at a Spanish watering-place, August 8, 1897. Empress of Austria, stabbed in the back with a file while walking in Geneva, September 10, 1898. President Borda of Uruguay, shot down on the steps of the Capitol at Montevideo, October 25, 1897. Nasr-ed-Din, Shah of Persia, killed by a native agitator as he was leaving a mosque in Teheran, May 1, 1894. President Barrios of Guatemala, assassinated by political opponents, February 8, 1898. King Humbert of Italy assassinated, July 29, 1900.

ALL ITALY MOURNS THE DEAD RULER. ROME, July 29.—Thousands of telegrams have been received from all parts of the country indicative of the deep sorrow felt by the whole nation. Everywhere work was suspended today and the houses and theaters were closed. In the principal cities the municipal authorities are considering plans to honor the memory of the murdered monarch. At Messina, a procession marched through the streets cheering for the house of Savoy and the young King. At Palermo an imposing demonstration proceeded in solemn silence to the municipal offices to express the sorrow and indignation of the population, after which a vast crowd cheered the new King. There were similar demonstrations in other towns. Telegrams from all the towns and villages of Italy show that all the country deeply mourns the dead King. Everywhere flags are half-masted and shops are closed. All garrison towns at noon saluted with 109 guns, while at the naval ports minute guns were fired. The municipality of Milan half-masted its flag and published a manifesto obiturgating the horrible tragedy. The houses at Rome have closed and not a shop is open.

POPE LEARNS OF THE KING'S DEATH

BRUSSELS, July 29.—A special dispatch from Rome says: Mgr. Angelo di Pietro, prefect of the Congregation of the Council, took it upon himself to inform the Pope of the assassination of King Humbert. He entered the chamber of Leo at an early hour. The latter was already awake. The Cardinal cautiously first stated that an attempt had been made upon the life of the King, whereupon the Pope immediately asked if the wound was dangerous. The prelate replied, "Very dangerous," but his anxious air was noticed by the Pope, who at once divined the truth. His emotion was such that he was unable to speak for some time. When his distress had passed he wished to leave his bed and to celebrate mass for the repose of the King's soul. Later he summoned Cardinal Rampolla, Papal secretary of state, whom he requested to send a dispatch of condolence to the Princess Clotilde, sister of the Queen. The audiences fixed for today were suspended.

ASSASSIN BOASTS OF HIS BOLD CRIME

MONZA, July 29.—Angelo Bressi, the assassin of King Humbert, boasts of his crime and says he came from America to kill the King. The assassin is strictly guarded in prison. He continues to preserve absolute indifference and took his meals today without any sign of being affected by his position. A second revolver was found on the public street near the gymnastic grounds. Bressi had a narrow escape from death at the hands of the enraged crowd. He was attacked and was in a fair way to be beaten to death when the soldiers rescued him and took him to prison. The assassin on reaching the guard-room of the carabinieri, was in a pitiable condition, his hands and arms were lacerated and bloody and his clothes torn by the angry crowd. Replying to questions, he hissed through his clenched teeth: "Tell them I came from America on purpose to kill Humbert. I have only just arrived from America and know no one. I spent a day at Bologna, and then came on to Milan."

A search made at his home at Prato resulted in the finding of several compromising letters from New York. One, signed by a woman, was dated June 25th. In this letter the writer asks whether all is ready and expresses a hope that he will soon return. Bressi has been absent from Prato for six or seven years. His parents live there, and he has a brother in an Italian infantry regiment. In reference to the finding of another revolver it is asserted that Bressi had been seen in company with a young man in the park at Monza, near where the King was in the habit of riding. After his arrest he appeared wakeful and nervous until about sunrise, but from that time he slept soundly until midday. Bressi is young, tall and swarthy.

The assassin's name is variously given as Angelo and Gaetano Bressi. He was born in Prato November 10, 1869, and is a weaver by trade. He said he had no accomplices and that he committed the deed because of his hatred of monarchial institutions. He reached Monza July 27th.

PRINCE OF NAPLES SUCCEEDS TO THRONE

ROME, July 29.—The Prince of Naples, who succeeds to the throne of Italy, was born November 11, 1866, and entered the army at an early age. He married four years ago Princess Helene, daughter of Prince Nicholas of Montenegro. The young couple have no children. The Prince, who will reign as Victor Emanuel III, is away on a yachting trip. REGGIO DE CALABRIA, July 27.—King Victor Emanuel III arrived here at noon aboard his yacht, preceded by a torpedo boat, which had been sent in search of him. The King started for Rome at 1 o'clock p. m.

LONDON, July 29.—A special dispatch from Rome says: King Victor Emmanuel III arrived at Brindisi today unexpectedly. The dispatch adds that the young Queen fainted when she was informed of the assassination of King Humbert. The King and Queen started for Monza immediately after reaching Brindisi.

MONZA, August 1.—The King and Queen of Italy arrived here this evening. In the midst of a touching demonstration of welcome to King Victor Emmanuel, two strangers cried "Viva l'Anarchia." They were arrested and narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of the furious crowd. An Eberfeld dispatch announces the arrest there of Giuseppe Bernardi, an avowed anarchist, who is charged with the deed of declaring that Emperor Wilhelm's turn to be assassinated would come next. He denied the charge, but is believed to be an anarchist.

MONZA, August 2.—King Victor Emmanuel III, upon arriving here, met his mother, Queen Margherita, at the castle. She fell into his arms weeping. The King knelt before the body of his father and repeatedly kissed and embraced it. Afterwards for an hour he, his mother and his wife, prayed in the death chamber. Subsequently the King received the members of the Cabinet, the audience lasting an hour and a quarter. All the Ministers, with the exception of the Ministers of War and Justice, who are in Rome, took the oath of allegiance.

LONDON, August 2.—A dispatch to the Central News from Rome says it is reported that the assassin has confessed that it was his intention to assassinate either the King or Queen as their Majesties were passing through the town of Ivrea. A suspect from New York, whose name has not been made public, has been arrested. It is thought he was Bressi's companion at Monza. A minute search has failed to discover Humbert's will. The Quirinal will be searched for the document, as it is almost certain he left one.

ROME, July 29.—King Victor Emmanuel III, in ascending the throne, has performed the painful duty of announcing to the country the awful calamity which has violently cut short the valuable life of King Humbert. The nation, wounded in its sincere affection for the august dead, and in a sincere feeling of devotion and adhesion to the dynasty, while execrating the cruel crime, will be plunged into profound grief for the venerated

FOREIGNERS DEMAND THAT CHINA SHALL BE GRANTED SMALL MERCY

CHEFOO, July 19 (via Shanghai, August 2).—Public opinion and the foreign press at the treaty ports are alarmed at the possibility that the Chinese would prevail upon the powers to consent to the establishment of peace without inflicting punishment befitting the Chinese Government's crime. Officials, persons engaged in commercial pursuits and missionaries of all nationalities are remarkably united. They believe Peking should be destroyed as an object lesson and that if the dynasty is continued it should be forced to establish the capital at some accessible city, the Americans suggesting Nankin. This is considered important as the Chinese believed that China defeated the powers in 1860 because the capital remained intact. It is also thought that guarantees to prevent excessive armament should be demanded and that China should be compelled, publicly and definitely, to renounce the fiction that the foreign Ministers are representatives of tributary powers. There is a strong demand for unusual punishment, like the destruction of the King's tombs.

The American and English missionaries advocate a program similar to the foregoing. All foreigners believe that the Chinese Government engineered the outbreak and is trying to call off its troops after the downfall of Tien-tsin and the receipt of reports that the Powers are sending armies to China. A German legation telegram saying that the bombardment of the legations ceased on July 17th, supports this theory. The foreigners think that the ministers who suffered should, if rescued, conduct the settlement with the Government for the effect it would have on the populace. An intensely bitter feeling prevails against Li Hung Chang. The papers denounced the honor paid him at Hongkong and Shanghai and call him the most corrupt anti-foreign official in China and express the belief that he proposes to save China from the penalty of her acts by embroiling the powers. The destruction of foreign property continues. United States Consul Fowler estimates that the losses of the American missions amount to $1,500,000. The trade losses through the suspension of trade are enormous. Chinese bring many stories of horrible outrages upon native Christians, who have been murdered, tortured or compelled to renounce their religion. Several have been skinned alive. Dr. Ting, a graduate of the American College, refused to renounce Christianity after receiving 2,000 lashes. A cable is being laid between Chefoo and Taku. The land line between Chefoo and Shanghai is managed and operated by Chinamen, and is inefficient. The line is overcrowded with work, and business is in hopeless confusion. Messages over the wire are public property. There should be a cable between Chefoo and Shanghai so managed as to give satisfactory service.

THE ENVOYS STILL ALIVE

Authentic Message From Conger.

THE BRITISH, JAPANESE AND GERMAN MINISTERS ALSO SEND WORD.

The Allies Have Begun Their Advance on Peking to Rescue the Imperilled Diplomats—Hundreds Held as Hostages.

NEW YORK, July 31.—A cable to the Sun dated Tien-tsin, July 27, 4 p. m., via Chefoo, July 30, and Shanghai, July 31, 9:45 a. m., says: A courier reached here from Peking today with dispatches addressed to Major Waller, commander of the American marines. These dispatches were dated July 21st, and were from Minister Conger and the representatives at Peking of the British, Japanese and German Governments. There were also several private messages, all of which corroborated the previous reports. The courier also reiterated the statements as to the bad condition of the roads to Peking and the numbers of Chinese who lined the way.

Minister Conger, in his note to Consul Ragsdale, says: "Since 15th, by agreement, there has been no firing. We have provisions for several weeks, but little ammunition. If they continue to shell us, as they have done, we cannot hold out long and a complete message will follow. I hope relief can come soon. We are glad to hear of the victory at Tien-tsin, but regret the terrible cost. All safe and well."

This last refers to the Minister's family. Sir Robert Hart, Imperial Maritime Commissioner of Customs, sent word to Commissioner Drew and the customs staff that he and his family were still safe. The missionaries report that all Peking and Yung Chow Americans and also the Walkers, Chaplins, Smith, Wyckoffs, Veritys, Hobart, Terry and Mackan are safe at Peking. All mission property has been destroyed. This Terry has previously been reported killed at Tsunhua. The British officials decline to give out Sir Claude MacDonald's message, saying it is similar to that from the Japanese Minister yesterday. The German message is of the same tenor and adds that the Chinese are keeping Minister von Ketteler's body.

An undated message says: "Yesterday under a flag of truce a messenger brought a note from Yung Lu to Sir Claude MacDonald, the British Minister, asking if he was willing to agree to a truce. MacDonald replied that he was willing, provided the Chinese would cease shelling and not come near the legations. Shelling has now ceased and everything is quiet. There is plenty of food in the shape of rice and horses. The great danger is that the defeated Chinese army from Tien-tsin may enter the city. The Americans made a gallant sortie on the night of the 2d and hit the Chinese hard. Captain Myers of the American marines was slightly wounded. Sir Claude Mac-Donald, the British Minister, who was formerly an army officer, is chief in command of the defenses. It is reported that the Chinese are anxious to secure the advice of Sir Robert Hart as to their future policy."

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The forward movement for the relief of the foreign legations in Peking began Sunday, July 29th. A message from Tien-tsin on that date says the advance guard of the Russians occupying the right flank and the Japanese pushed to the river without opposition. The expectation is that the whole allied expeditionary force, 20,000 men, would be on the march by Tuesday, July 31st. Sixteen hundred Americans and 2,300 British are co-operating. It is supposed to follow the river, using boats to carry food, ammunition and artillery.

The telegraph office at Chefoo appears to be blocked and newspaper and official telegrams are subject to indefinite delays. Shanghai's correspondents learn that Russians were defeated north of New Chwang and that a body five thousand strong is endeavoring to relieve the force besieged at Toshi Chow by 40,000 Chinese and numerous guns. Four Russian steamers on the Amur river are said to have been sunk or damaged by the Chinese fire.

The Chinese military commanders at Shanghai have formally notified the foreign consuls there that the enlistments now proceeding are to provide large forces for the protection of foreigners, and have expressed the hope that they will not entertain groundless fears or suspicions, adding that the increase of the army is entirely to secure their safety.

As target practice at the Chinese forts alarms foreigners at Shanghai, the commanders announce, it will be abandoned. The smuggling of arms continues. A junk was seized at Canton on August 1st with seventy rifles and 10,000 cartridges on board. Foreigners at Macao fear an outbreak. An imperial irade authorizes the passing of the Bosphorus by Russian transports with which are material bound for China.

News Agency dispatches dated at Shanghai, Thursday, August 2nd, say: The ferocious Li Ping Hong, formerly Governor of Shan Tung, has arrived at Peking with a large following of troops. On the way north he killed two French priests and many hundred converts. Li Hung Chang is alleged to have sent a message to Peking to keep Li Ping quiet. WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The State Department today issued the following: The State Department has received a dispatch from Mr. Fowler, Consul at Chefoo, dated at night on the 2nd of August, stating that when he learned from the Shanghai papers that doubts were entertained of the genuineness of the Conger cipher telegram, he wired on the 27th to the Governor of Shan Tung to send him the original by courier. The Governor at once complied with his request, sending a special postman, who by traveling night and day for five days, made the journey which in ordinary times would have required twelve days. He delivered to Mr. Fowler the original of the Conger dispatch. It is signed by Mr. Conger and dated the 15th of July. It is precisely the same as the message received at the State Department with several words prefixed which came in an unintelligible form to the Chinese legation here. The dispatch in its complete form says that the members of the American legation had been besieged for a month in the British legation. Mr. Fowler has no doubt of the genuineness of the dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The State Department makes public the following telegrams received today, August 3rd, from the Consul-General at Shanghai, and the Consul at Chefoo: "SHANGHAI, Aug. 3.—Secretary of State, Washington.—Americans left Chungking yesterday. Li told French Consul today no messages will be delivered ministers before foreigners advancing on Peking. Two pro-foreign members of the Tsung li Yamen headed 27th for urging preservation ministers, by Li Ping Han now com-memory of a good, brave and magnanimous King, of his people and the worthy perpetrator of the traditions of the house of Savoy, by rallying with unshakable loyalty around his august successor. Italians will prove by their deeds that their institutions do not die."

Queen Margherita has invited Verdi to compose a requiem mass. If he declines, Mascagni will be commissioned. Late this evening it is reported that the body of King Humbert will be brought here on Sunday. Queen Margherita desired to accompany the remains.

Emperor William has notified the Government of his intention to attend the funeral.

A dispatch of condolence has been received from Li Hung Chang.

MONZA, July 31.—The formal act of recording the death of King Humbert was drawn up at 1 o'clock this morning in the King's bedroom. It was witnessed by Count Rudini, former Minister, and the royal household, the President of the Senate and the Secretary for the Crown. The Ministers and other officials were present.

The body of King Humbert, dressed in black, lies today on the bed ordinarily used by him. Around the massive candelabra holding burning tapers at the foot and head of the bed are flowers placed by Queen Margherita, who passed the long hours of the night in prayer by the bed in which the body lies. Father Bignami, the court chaplain, is in immediate charge of the rites. The Cardinal Archbishop of Milan has ordered a requiem mass in all the churches in his diocese.

Enormous numbers of telegrams and letters of condolence continue to arrive.

PLOT ORIGINATED IN UNITED STATES

NEW YORK, July 31.—A cable to the World from Florence says: The World's correspondent has just returned from Prato, where he obtained a detailed account of the antecedents of Gaetano Bresci, or Bressi, the slayer of King Humbert.

Bresci was born November 10, 1869, in Cojano, a mile from Prato, a manufacturing town of 15,000 inhabitants, beautifully situated fifteen miles north of Florence. He began work as a shoemaker, but studied in the technical school at Prato for a time, and thus became a weaver, which avocation he followed for eight years at a large factory in Prato.

After the strike in 1892 he left Prato and went to work in the Unnini factories at Florence. A year later he returned to Prato, where he was employed in the Zecchi mill. He left Prato again for Lucca on January 1894, and sailed from Genoa for New York on February 25th of the same year.

Bresci returned to Prato on June 4th last, and about that time the Italian Consul in New York advised the authorities in Italy that Bresci had interested himself in an anarchical newspaper published at Paterson, N. J., and edited by Ciancabelli and Malatesta, revolutionary Italians.

Bresci traveled from New York via Paris, and on June 14th he applied to the municipal authorities of Prato for a birth certificate, that he might secure a permit to carry arms. This was refused, because of his character and the past offenses which he had committed against the municipality.

On June 16th he secured a passport for New York, describing himself as a shoemaker. Early in July he went to Castel San Pietro to visit two of his young nieces. On the evening of July 15th he took the train for Milan via Bologna.

Lorenzo Bresci, interviewed at Cojano by the World correspondent, said: "I knew of Gaetano's anarchist opinions, but never attached any importance to them. I always thought him a quiet, good-natured fellow, though unsettled. For my part, I curse the anarchists, my opinion being that for workingmen like us the chance to eat, drink and work should be enough. I don't think much about politics. Gaetano, who was always interested in such matters, was quite peculiar in that respect."

The police today visited Lorenzo's house and took charge of the murderer's belongings, including a target at which he practiced with a revolver.

MONZA, August 2.—The remains of King Humbert were today placed in a casket of walnut covered with lead and glass in such a manner as to leave the face exposed. The ceremony, which took place in the presence of the royal family, was very touching. Queen Margherita placed the Italian flag with the arms of the house of Savoy over the corpse.

WHERE THE PLOT WAS INCUBATED

NEW YORK, August 2.—Detectives have found the room in which it is claimed that the plot to kill King Humbert was formed. It is on the second floor of a West Hoboken (N. J.) resort for anarchists, and is in the heart of the Italian settlement. The place has not been known as a meeting place for anarchists. There have been no public meetings held there and the room where the men met was kept for the most secret conference purposes.

These detectives say they learned last night from socialists who attended a meeting at the place that less than four months ago two Italians, a man and a woman, arrived in Hoboken, and an important conference was held in this room. At the conference there were anarchists from New York, Brooklyn, the Italian colony in Philadelphia, and from Paterson and West Hoboken. This socialist never saw Bresci and never saw Quintavalle, but the description of the men tallies with that of two of the men at the conference. Mrs. Bresci, the destitute wife of the assassin, with her little daughter, are in this city from their home in West Hoboken for the purpose of seeing the Italian Consul General. Mrs. Bresci said she wanted to write a letter to her husband, but the Consul General told her it would not be delivered. The woman asked if it would be possible for her to get any valuables her husband had in his possession when arrested. He had a diamond of considerable value, she said. The Consul General promised to do what he could for the woman. When she returned to West Hoboken she found a man representing himself as a United States Secret Service agent awaiting her. He questioned her at great length, but she was unable to give him any more information than has already been made public. Mrs. Bresci, who is in delicate health, was so overcome by the fatigue of her trip to New York that she had to take to her bed soon after her return, and last night her condition was considered serious.

It is learned that the assassin Bresci was a member of what is known as the "International Group" of anarchists. The police have also learned that prior to Bresci's leaving this country he was tendered a banquet by a group of anarchists in this city. The celebration took place in an anarchist resort in Eleazer street. Eight persons were present. Besides Bresci there were Salvatore Quintavalle, a man named Sassi and a man named Lenner or Lana, all of whom are under arrest in Italy. The other guests are not yet known to the police, but one of them was said to be a woman. This would indicate that there were at least eight persons concerned in the plot to kill the King. The feasting continued into the early morning hours, until it was almost time to reach the steamer on which they embarked on their murderous mission. Teresa Brugnoli, the woman arrested in Italy, is believed to have been the same who was present at the banquet.

ITEMS GLEANED FROM TRAGEDY

The wife of Bresci, the assassin, is destitute in Hoboken.

Pennsylvania anarchists rejoice over the murder of King Humbert.

It is said that King Humbert's insurance policies aggregate $7,000,000.

Two unsuccessful attempts had previously been made to kill Humbert.

The United States will investigate the anarchist groups in this country.

The new King is a man of considerable force, who is popular in the army.

Monza, the scene of the assassination, is a summer resort about nine miles from Milan.

On the public appearance of Victor Emanuel III the Reds raised the cry of anarchy.

Antonio Lanas, accomplice of Bresci, says it was intended to kill Queen Margherita also.

Italy has the strong sympathy of England in return for her moral support in the Boer war.

Bresci is said to have gone to Barcelona last spring to kill the Spanish Minister of the Interior.

Police carelessness cost Humbert's life. No precautions were taken after warnings had been received.

Baron Fava, who heard the news at Seabright, N. J., said: "I am shocked and deeply grieved. King Humbert was a good man and loved by all his people."

Arrangements have been made to place the whole country under martial law if the revolutionary party assert themselves. This is the gravest crisis that ever confronted the monarchy, but the Vatican authorities are said to use all their influence to assist the established order of things. The new King is neither mentally nor physically of great account. A strong man is needed to meet the perils of the hour.

A cable to the Sun from Rome, says: Queen Margherita has sent the following reply to a telegram of sympathy from Cardinal Prisco, Archbishop of Naples: "May God hear your prayer that I be given strength to bear up against my troubles. How great my sorrow is. My heart finds no comfort, no consolation to mitigate my misfortune, except in divine grace and resignation." The message is signed: "Margherita, a desolate woman."

GRIEF IN HONOLULU.

Editor Advertiser: Permit me to state through your columns that the flag of the Italian Consulate here will be hoisted at half-mast on Friday, the 10th of August, 1900, in commemoration of the sad and untimely death of His Majesty Umberto, King of Italy, and also to request the Federal officers and the Territorial Government, as well as the foreign Consuls here, in like manner to join in this expression of grief and sympathy.

I am, sir, yours respectfully,
 F. A. SCHAEFER,
 Consul for Italy.

POSTAGE RATES.

Ruling on Mail for Guam, Philippines and Samoa.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Postmaster-General Smith has promulgated an important general order giving the postage rates between the United States and island possessions. It directs that all mail sent from the United States to the island of Guam, the Philippine archipelago or Tutulla, including all adjacent islands of the Samoan group which are possessions of the United States, or from all these to the United States, or from one island to another, shall be subject to the United States domestic classification, conditions and rates of postage. The term United States includes Porto Rico and Hawaii. All mails sent from the United States or its island possessions to Cuba or vice versa will be subject to the Postal Union rates and conditions, except that the domestic rates, etc., will apply to mail sent by or addressed to persons in the United States military, naval or civil service in Cuba if properly indorsed and marked and postage is fully prepaid.

Unsealed packages containing only gifts or souvenirs sent by persons in the United States military, naval or civil service in Porto Rico, Guam, the Philippines or Cuba to members of their families in the United States, and similar personal articles sent to such persons from the United States, shall be subject only to domestic rates or regulations if such packages do not exceed four pounds in weight and are properly indorsed and marked.

ITCHING PILES.

From the Melbourne Age.

Ever have any irritation of the skin? There are many forms of it, any of them bad enough to tax your patience. Hemorrhoid, a plague of the night; no rest for the sufferer from that complaint. Eczema, too; hives don't sound dangerous, but they cause much misery to those unfortunate enough to be troubled with them. Doan's Ointment is "A wonder" for any such trouble. Any troublesome irritation of the skin can't resist its healing, soothing influence. Lots of Honolulu people know this now.

Mr. H. Ryall, of No. 11, Grosvenor St., South Yarra, is a very old resident of Melbourne. He states:

For some considerable time I have been a sufferer from that annoying complaint known as irritating piles. At times the irritation was very annoying, especially at night, and in the warm weather. I applied some of Doan's Ointment which I had obtained and I am pleased to say that it gave me the desired relief from this annoying disease.

Doan's Ointment is splendid in all diseases of the skin: Eczema, piles, hives, insect bites, sores, chilblains, etc. It is perfectly safe and very effective. Very frequently two or three boxes have made a complete cure of chronic cases that have not yielded to other remedies for years.

Doan's Ointment is sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

CHEFOO, afternoon, August 2.—Secretary of State, Washington.—Just received telegram from Governor of Shan Tung requesting me to transmit to you the following:
"Have just received telegram dated July 30th, Tsung H. Yamen stating various ministers, the German legation and others (foreigners) all well; not in distress. Provisions were repeatedly sent. Relations most friendly. Now conferring as to proper measures to protect various ministers to Tien-tsin for temporary shelter, which conference will soon be ended. (Signed) "YUAN, Governor. "FOWLER."

ADVANCE OF ALLIES SAID TO HAVE BEGUN

BRUSSELS, August 1.—M. de Paverseau, minister of Foreign Affairs, has received the following dispatch, dated Shanghai, August 1, from M. de Cartier de Marchienne, Secretary of the Belgian Legation, now acting as Charge d'Affaires of Belgium at Shanghai:
"The allies are marching on Peking. They are eighteen miles from Tientsin, and should reach Peking in eight days. All the Europeans have taken refuge in the inner inclosure of the imperial city."

TIEN-TSIN, July 26, via Chefoo, July 26, and Shanghai, August 1.—The American commander received orders from Washington today not to delay the advance on Peking. He was also informed that heavy reinforcements are en route.
Great activity is noticeable at the Japanese headquarters. Transport preparations are being hurried. It is exceedingly unlikely that either the Japanese or the British intend to be left behind, though the British preparations are a long way from completeness. The Japanese organization, on the other hand, excites the admiration of all. The total strength of the allies here is 17,000. Reinforcements are arriving daily.

NEW YORK, August 1.—A cable to the Sun, dated Tien-tsin, July 29, says: It is reported that the Japanese vanguard has been repulsed in the march on Peking, and 150 of them killed or wounded.
The Russians are reported to have captured some forts ten miles from Tien-tsin, in the direction of Peking. Ten thousand Chinese who were garrisoning the forts fled.

NEW YORK, August 2.—A cable to the Herald from Shanghai says: Trustworthy information reaches me that Chinese troops are steadily advancing northward from the Yang-tse Valley, and also from the north and may attack and flank the European armies.

SHANGHAI, August 1.—The allies advanced toward Peking today. It is estimated that the expedition numbers 20,000 men of all arms, with 170 guns. It is hoped to reach Peking by August 15th.

NEW YORK, August 2.—A cable to the Sun from London says: A dispatch to the Central News from Tien-tsin, dated July 27, says a courier who left Peking on July 23d reports the legations still besieged and that the situation was unchanged. The imperial troops who had been ordered to resist the allies, were deserting in large numbers. Severe punishments had been ordered for captured deserters, it being hoped by this means to deter others from deserting. The Boxers were gaining many recruits, but most of them were boys and youths.

A Central News dispatch from Taku, dated July 27th, says that 730 United States cavalry from Manila were due to arrive at Taku on July 28th.
LONDON, August 2.—Another Tien-tsin version of the message from the British legation at Peking, from Sir Claude MacDonald of July 21st, describes him as saying: "We have provisions for many weeks, but little ammunition."
The Russians are constructing armored trains in the Tientsin shops, and intend constructing the railway as fast as the column advances to Peking.

LONDON, August 3, 3:45 a. m.—No word comes this morning regarding the fortunes of the comparatively small body of troops believed to be forcing their way toward Peking. The silence is probably due to diligent censorship rather than lack of developments.
A Shanghai special announces the receipt of an official telegram from the Tsung-li Yamen asserting that the Ministers were all well on July 30, and that the legations and other supplies had been sent to the legations on several occasions. "Friendly intercourse," the official telegram says, "is now being carried on between the Ministers and the Imperial Government."

According to the Daily Express, however, cablegrams from Chefoo announce that the Imperial troops, advancing to oppose the relief force, have completely wiped out a Christian town near Peking, killing five foreign priests and 10,000 native Christians.
General Gaselee, says this correspondent, was strongly opposed to an immediate advance, but he was overruled by the other commanders and influenced by Washington's order to General Chaffee to "proceed without an instant's delay."

From Shanghai the Daily Express has received confirmation of the reported murder of fifty missionaries in Shanai, with the additional information that eight English women were dragged out of the mission buildings by a Chinese mob, who beheaded them in the streets of Chu Chou.
French troops are reported to have occupied Meng-tze, in the Province of Yunnan.

The Tien-tsin correspondent of the Standard says: "A heartrending letter has been received from the Japanese Legation, dated July 22, stating that the casualties number sixty per cent; that only twenty-five cartridges per man are left, with sufficient food for five days, and that it is feared the legations will succumb within a week."

IT LOOKS LIKE A LIVELY TIME AHEAD

WASHINGTON, August 1.—Bad news came this morning from Admiral Remy in a report indicating that serious resistance had developed to the progress of the Peking relief column. His advice confirms the opinion of the experts here of the fight reported near Tien-tsin being nothing more than the result of a strong, but no inconsiderable force, and the fact that the Japanese suffered severely is regarded here as proof positive that the relief column will have some lively fighting ahead.
A feeling akin to indignation was expressed here by the press report of the Tien-tsin fight of the apparent indifference of the commanders there to the critical state of the legations at Peking. The War Department officials are satisfied that Chaffee, at least, is blameless, for he undoubtedly is exercising all of his influence with the other commanders to get the column in motion. Meanwhile the sharp check received by the Japanese scouting party is an indication of what he might experience should he take the desperate chance of pushing forward alone.

Secretary Hay and Minister Wu added much to their credit today when a dispatch came from United States Consul Fowler at Che Foo, apparently removing all doubt as to the authenticity of the famous cipher Conger dispatch.

WASHINGTON, August 2.—A Cabinet meeting was held today which lasted about an hour. The Remy dispatch, telling of the check to the Japanese scouting party, was read but was not considered as of serious importance as affecting the general advance. It was stated that the Government has no assurance that a general advance against Peking has been begun by the American or military contingents of the international force. The Fowler dispatch was also discussed and one of the members said that it was accepted as putting an end to any possible controversy as to the authenticity of the original Conger cipher dispatch.

ANARCHY REIGNS IN CHINA'S CAPITAL

CHEFOO, July 26 (via Shanghai, August 2).—The latest reports from Peking were brought by disaffected officers of the Chinese army. They are considered reliable. The officers left Peking on July 15th. They say anarchy had reigned in Peking for months and the streets ran blood, the Chinamen fighting among themselves. Jung Lu, commander in chief of the Chinese forces, and Prince Ching, espoused the cause of the foreigners and endeavored with the part of the army loyal to them, to expel the Boxers. Later, with the majority of the Imperial troops, under anti-foreign leaders, Prince Tuan and General Tung Fuh Sian were victorious and Jung Lu and Prince Ching with their followers were prisoners in their yamens when the bearers of these reports left Peking.

Prince Tuan and General Tung Fuh Sian appear to control the Government, according to the officers, and issued edicts, printed in the Gazette, exhorting the Chinese to kill all foreigners and native Christians. One officer says that there are 16,000 troops in Peking, including Tung's army and 8,000 more at Yung Tsun. The soldiery hold all the streets within a mile of the Legations. The foreign troops, when the officers left Peking, had buried and abandoned their munitions. Their ammunition appeared to be failing and their quick-firing guns had been silenced for some days before July 15th and they were using their rifles only when hard pressed. The officers said that every foreign bullet kills a Chinaman. The reports state that the American and English troops engaged General Ma in a night battle on July 19. The reports from Chinese sources are to the effect that all the Legations forces were killed. Chinamen caught a messenger who was trying to leave the Legations on July 10th, with the following message: "To any foreign commander: Make all haste if you intend to save us. We can hold out but a few days."

ADVANCE MAY BE A FATAL BLUNDER

NEW YORK, August 3.—A dispatch to the World from London says: "This fresh advance upon Peking, I believe, will prove a terrible military and political mistake," said Mr. Pritchard McGraw. "My latest information," he continued, "is that there are 70,000 Chinese troops between Tien-tsin and Peking and probably 30,000 in and around Peking itself."

An expedition probably will be compelled to return like Admiral Seymour's. Besides, the Chinese Government may lose the power to protect the Legations any longer when the news that a foreign army is advancing becomes known.
"The release of the Ministers could have been secured by Li Hung Chang if the Powers had consented to negotiate through him. But the Ministers refuse to leave Peking, because while they are there the Chinese Government is responsible."
The failure to agree upon a commander in chief of the allied forces creates consternation. Labourers cynically observed: "When the allied armies begin to fight with each other the Boxers will have to be called in to restore peace."

CHASED ACROSS THE DESERT OF GOBI

NEW YORK, August 3.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Tholozan, Transbaikalia, Siberia, says: "Seven American missionaries from Peking, with their families, have arrived here. They escaped from Peking and were chased across the sand and mountains of the Gobi desert for 40 miles, suffering fearful tortures from the hot sand, exposure and lack of food and water."
The Russian Government of Transbaikalia sent 500 Cossacks, who galloped south 40 miles into the desert and rescued them. The cavalry gave them food and shelter and brought them to Tholozan, where they are receiving care at the hands of the authorities.

Thousands of Christians have been massacred, they report, and thousands more will die at the hands of the Boxers unless the Powers send large reinforcements.
The Chinese troops have been ordered to kill all Christians and burn all their property.
Foreigners all safe in Mongolia, where all is quiet.

Hawaii Merchandise.

NEW YORK, July 27.—The board of classification of the United States General Appraisers today announced its decision in a test case regarding the right of the Government to assess merchandise imported from Hawaii, and overruled the protest of the importers, W. H. Crossman & Brothers, and affirmed the assessment of the duty by the Government.
This decision covers the passage of the joint resolution of Congress on July 7, 1893, admitting Hawaii, and the passage recently of the law declaring Hawaii United States territory.
The status of Hawaii since it became a regular territory of the United States was not passed upon.

Epidemic of Regicide.

LONDON, August 2.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, wiring yesterday, says: "A rumor has reached here from Belgrade that an attempt was made to assassinate King Alexander this afternoon while he was driving through the town. It is said he was shot at, but was not injured. The rumor is unconfirmed."
The grape crop of California will be short this year.

THE CHINESE WAR TALK ITEMIZED

England opposes China's partition. Japan is ready to send 70,000 men to China.

The Czar's troops have retreated from Moukden. The United States gunboat Bancroft may go to China.

Kang Yu Wei is planning a war on the Empress Dowager. The French flagship Redoubtable has left Cherbourg for China.

Admiral Seymour has taken charge of the defence of Shanghai. Nine missionaries at Chang Chow are reported to have been killed.

Ten thousand Chinese troops are said to be threatening Shanghai. An imperial edict is issued declaring that the envoys are held as hostages.

The German press credits American influence with the advance on Peking. The British officers at Tien-tsin take an optimistic view of conditions at Peking.

A number of American missionaries at Pootan are reported to have been killed. The Kaiser's speech advocating no quarter for Chinese is generally condemned.

A Russian camp at Algon, on the Amur river, has been destroyed by Chinese. The Americans in Peking and Fung Chow are safe, but their property is destroyed.

England offered Japan financial aid in her Chinese campaign, but Japan declined it. The American widow of Baron von Ketteler is believed to be with the surviving envoys.

It is stated that only the Russians and Japanese, 23,000 strong, are starting for Peking. Three North German Lloyd steamers have been chartered to carry German troops to China.

It is reported that the Chinese court may flee to Tsinanfu, and may take the Ministers as hostages. Eighteen hundred head of horses have been bought by Germany in California for use in China.

A story from Chinese sources says that thousands of Christian converts have been killed in Peking. Governor Yuan wires from Peking, July 27th, that the Ministers were well and had been given provisions.

The transport Hancock has sailed for China with a battalion of marines and four batteries of the Third Artillery. The German Government is taking steps to prevent the unauthorized publication of the Kaiser's war speeches.

Li Hung Chang promises to give the foreign governments easy access to the envoys if the march on Peking is stopped. It is learned from foreign sources that American marines especially distinguished themselves in the fighting at Peking.

The Russian situation at Port Arthur and vicinity is precarious. There has been much fighting on the Liaotung peninsula. The Russians have taken the city of Hung Hun, driving off 4,000 Chinese and taking fourteen Hotchkiss and ten other guns.

messages from whom have been received. All Presbyterian missionaries are now accounted for.

Emperor William in an address to troops bound for China, is reported to have commanded them to spare nobody and make no prisoners.

The Yang-tse Viceroys are insisting that China must be kept intact in spite of all, and that the safety of the Dowager Empress must be assured.

Another Chinese exodus from Shanghai has commenced. It was caused by disquieting rumors published in the native and some foreign newspapers.

The Kaiser is reported to have addressed a note to England, Austria, Italy and Russia, urging harmony in dealing with the Chinese situation.

Serious complaint was made just before the advance on Peking of the social gayeties of the military at Tien-tsin and their defects of organization. The commanders of the allies before Peking believe that 28,000 men, the number of allied troops now there, is not sufficient to justify a march on the capital.

It is reported in Washington that the imperial authorities of China have secured possession of the official cipher of Minister Conger and are using it to deceive.

The Governor of Shantung has a note from the Tsung-li Yamen (August 3) saying that the Chinese Government is arranging to escort the Ministers to Tien-tsin.

A Chinese student sent from Tien-tsin returned after attempting to enter Peking, and reported that Chinese imperial troops surround the city, and would not let him pass.

Emperor William preached an extraordinary war sermon on his yacht from the text, "And it came to pass when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand Amalek prevailed."

A Chinese banker of Peking, who represented a Russian bank, escaped from the Tartar capital July 7th and reached Shanghai. He reported the legations destroyed, but knew nothing of the condition of the Ministers.

A dispatch to the Herald from Shanghai says: "Trustworthy information reaches me that Chinese troops are steadily advancing northward from the Yang-tse Valley, and also toward the south, and may attack and flank the European armies."

Liu Kun Yi, Viceroy of Nanking and Sheng, administrator of telegraphs and railways and Postal of Shanghai, have both declared officially that the Foreign Ministers are held by the Chinese Government as hostages, and that if the allies march to Peking they will be killed.

A Tien-tsin dispatch says: "Disregard of all sanitary regulations by certain troops is a serious menace. The streets are full of refuse and an insufferable stench pervades the town. The police and sanitary work compares unfavorably with the American work in the Philippines."

The Chinese Government is detaining 600 Europeans as hostages, including the Ministers and their families and the members of the legations. It is believed here that when war is officially declared these will be ordered to leave Peking within twenty-four hours. They will then be at the mercy of the Boxers. China, it is thought, will consider that war has been declared as soon as the allies begin to march on Peking.

A Tien-tsin dispatch says: "The Japanese are giving a splendid exhibition of organization. Their whole machine moves like clockwork. There have been forwarded from Japan small boats or lighters for moving troops and stores, and every regiment is landed quickly and without confusion and started for Tien-tsin within a few hours after the transport has been anchored in the harbor. The management of the Japanese army, and the bravery, spirit and intelligence of the Japanese troops are a revelation that commands the respect and admiration of all foreign officers."

CHARM OF THIRTY SUMMERS.

Tribute to All Women From a Representative of the Sex.

A crafty penswoman deliberately goes out of her way to flatter her sisters who have reached thirty. Could any woman who has brushed by her twenties ask for a more sugary bit of comfort?

"Give me a clever woman of thirty, and I will back her any day against a pretty, inexperienced debutante of twenty. It is little feminine ways which appeal so irresistibly to a man's heart. These ways are the result of careful, tactful practice, generally speaking, the result of knowledge of the world that can only come after one has lived amongst men and women, after one has lived and been loved! La jeune fille is to my mind most irritating and unattractive. She is so helplessly self-engrossed, so prejudiced; she has still to learn such a vast amount, when first launched into society (though, of course, a clever mother can help her simple ingenuities enormously). Girls are as a rule taken from school much too soon; they should be allowed to finish their education by traveling abroad for a couple of years before they can mix on equal terms with other women who have seen so much more, and know so formed chit of eighteen can possibly do much more, than any insipid, unlovely, the stupidity of the average chaperone! No wonder they sit and watch their soulless daughters being cast into the shade by the smart married woman or the finished and desperately attractive, though still unmarried, siren of thirty."

The woman of thirty will accept this compliment as a debt which the world owes her. The role of charm is no sinecure, so I pray you look not with envy upon the munch-sought-after lady, who, in the fairest of garbs and with the sunniest of smiles, trippingly makes her way through life.

She merits success. She has worked for it. Her youth have been spent in learning arts which give the plain woman of uncertain age the right to fascinate where more beautiful women fall to please.

There are chains of mind which charms of the body cannot rival. Neither winsome youth nor beauty finds much of a show beside the subtleties of the soul.

Only after hours of discipline can one learn to conceal one's feelings, learn to subdue one's rashness of speech, pleased when people are tactless, learn to excuse the hopelessly self-centered, selfish individuals with whom life's roadway is thronged.

Hypocrisy is a harsh term. It is applied to the tactics of the woman of the world. This is unjust. Besides, hypocrisy is soon unveiled. Then the game is lost.

Tact, sympathy, is not hypocrisy.

THE PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser

WALTER G. SMITH - EDITOR.

SATURDAY AUGUST 11

Uncle Estee is a forty-niner and a hot tamale. It is up to brother Jack now.

Where is the leak in the Grand Jury which enables an esteemed contemporary to print the secrets of that body? Hadn't Judge Humphreys better turn his eagle eye on the tale-bearers?

Base ball is played out; the races are over; we have no funny papers; the prize fighters have all gone to Hilo, that land of the blessed; shark stories are a back number and the fighting editors and attorneys have laid up for repairs, but we will not die of dry rot while the courts are with us.

The Daily Humphreys states that the Advertiser, while pretending to give all of the charge of Judge Humphreys to the Grand Jury, "tabooed" the part which refers to the Insane Asylum because it reflected on the "family compact." Far be it from the Advertiser to omit any part of Judge Humphreys' numerous "charges." They are too entertaining. In the present case we published all that the Judge supplied us with, as an inspection of the Ms., which is preserved at this office, will show. How the paragraph about the Asylum came to be omitted is a matter for Judge Humphreys and not the Advertiser to explain. Possibly the Judge wanted his paper to score a beat in its single news specialty.

JUDGE HUMPHREYS.

It is a well known fact that Abram S. Humphreys did not have the support of the Advertiser in attaining the position of Circuit Judge. His knowledge and ability as a lawyer were and are conceded, but regardless of other qualifications or disqualifications his discretion and judicial temperament were doubted. At the same time once appointed, this paper was willing to give the gentleman due credit for all there was in him which time and events might bring forth.

Judge Humphreys has now presided on the bench for a few days. This is not ordinarily sufficient to measure a new magistrate's work or capability, but the large share of public thought and conversation stimulated by Judge Humphreys during the past week has caused some conclusions to be reached. To his credit be it said that he is prompt and industrious, but in all friendliness the Advertiser is bound to say that the Judge has neither added to his own reputation nor to the dignity of the bench by his official conduct. The adventures of Attorney Davis and ex-Editor Marshall have heretofore afforded the town a mild tonic from time to time and prevented mildew from gathering on the reportorial desks, but Judge Humphreys has eclipsed these lesser lights by furnishing sensations in such numerous and varied forms as to leave little room for competition.

Sensationalism is in its proper place on the melodramatic stage, where it can be bought and paid for by those who want it. In the public press it can be avoided by those who do not like such things, by letting the paper alone which indulges in it. Sensationalism is wholly out of place on the bench and is offensive to the many citizens who are compelled to come in contact with it.

Judge Humphreys' ex parte attacks on the High Sheriff and on Dr. Herbert, under cover of a charge to the grand jury, are unjust to those gentlemen and not calculated to increase public respect for the bench.

His arbitrary treatment of suitors by dismissing their cases entirely because the attorneys were not on hand at the drop of the hat is not justice but the height of injustice.

Furnishing sensations, harrying attorneys, fining court attendants for contempt, and ignoring long established rules of procedure, have not heretofore been found necessary to the orderly progress of justice in Hawaii, nor is it what Judge Humphreys is being paid for.

BETTER SAFEGUARDS WANTED.

The increasing number of idle and lawless Japanese in these Islands does not, as yet, menace the peace and order of the group but things are gradually tending that way. Since the contract labor law was deprived of its self-enforcing attribute, more and more Japanese have left the cane fields and are leading the lives of tramps or petty criminals in all the towns of the country. The number that has come to Honolulu and Hilo is known to be large. These coolies sleep anywhere they happen to be and eke out the slender subsistence which suffices for them in a variety of ways including blackmail of their prosperous countrymen. Pilfering goes on all the time and as the coolies take courage from the inability of the well-to-do to protect themselves they become bold and overbearing. In their strikes they do not hesitate at violence; who shall say that they will always keep the peace when they are trying to live without work on the communities on which they have forced themselves. They are known to be the dregs of their country and in all moral and physical respects they are the sort of people to create a dangerous class. Considering their numbers they assuredly need to be watched and in the meantime disciplined so far as the law will permit. The wisdom of such a course is clear enough now but it will be clearer yet if the planters begin to bring in a class of laborers with whom to permanently offset or supersede the coolies from the Orient.

It seems to the Advertiser that a place so inflammable in its social organization as Hawaii deserves more Federal protection than it gets. Here are a few little colonies of Americans and other whites surrounded by what? By a vast majority of Asiatics of the worst class, to say nothing of other elements that are unfriendly. The property, especially the plantation property of the whites, is all exposed. We have to safeguard our interests, a small militia and a mere nucleus of a Federal garrison. If trouble should come, perhaps Honolulu could be held and perhaps not. But what of the other islands where there are no large towns—nothing but plantations and the hamlets contiguous to them?

A proper regard for the welfare of this Territory should impel the United States government to keep a large permanent garrison in the Hawaiian Islands, with posts on Oahu, Hawaii, Kauai and Maui. Every Territory of the Union except this one is so provided. Arizona is dotted with the cantonments of troops on the lookout for a few thousand Indians long since subdued. The same is true of New Mexico, Oklahoma and the Indian Territory are well-guarded; Alaska has a suitable force. One island of the Hawaiian group has two batteries and it is a long time since the Navy was represented here with anything bigger than a tug. Could we not ask officially with good grace for a permanent regiment and at least two gunboats? And could the United States Government show valid cause, assuming that any troops can be spared from foreign service, for refusing the request?

The Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha (Prince Alfred), second son of Queen Victoria, is dead. He was a victim of alcoholism, and had a cancerous growth at the root of his tongue. He will be succeeded by the Duke of Albany, whose German subjects, however, are critical of his English blood. An amusing incident in connection with the coming marriage of King Alexander of Serbia is, that the wedding has been postponed because the Serbian throne is in Paris, whether it was sent to embellish the Servinn exhibition. So the throne has been packed back to Belgrade as quickly as possible, and the wedding is timed for any day before Sunday. The royal couple are coming to Paris in the course of their wedding trip. The American rights for "The Little Minister," which in its dramatized version, is said to have played to over $1,000,000 in this country, were sold by the author, James Matthew Barris of London, for $20, or about $100, to John W. Lowell of New York. The ownership of the copyright eventually passed into the hands of the Publishers' Plate Renting Company of New York, and now that company is using to get a slice of the enormous earnings of the play.

THE FIRST U. S. PRISONER. Lau San Figured In a Writ of Habeas Corpus Yesterday.

The first United States prisoner was taken into custody yesterday afternoon upon the order of Marshal Ray and is now detained in the keeping of High Sheriff Brown to whom the Marshal's order consigned the prisoner until he shall be tried before Judge M. M. Estee, of the United States Court. The man who holds the unique honor of being the first bona fide United States prisoner in the Territory of Hawaii is a subject of Her once Imperial Highness, the Empress Dowager of the Chinese Empire, and was rejected by the local officials when he endeavored to enter upon these shores from his native land. After his rejection he was detained on Quarantine Island, there to await the coming of the steamer which would carry him back to the war-embroiled land whence he originally came.

The Chinese's name is Lau San. Yesterday attorney F. M. Brooks applied to Judge Estee for a writ of habeas corpus for Lau San which was granted. A. W. Neeley, U. S. Deputy Marshal, who was but recently appointed to that office obtained the Chinese on the Marshal's order and brought him to High Sheriff Brown in whose custody he will remain until his case is tried and disposed of. The writ was applied for on the ground that the man is unlawfully detained by J. K. Brown, United States Chinese Inspector, who secured Lau San's rejection.

BULLET FOR THE SHAH

Persian Ruler's Narrow Escape.

HE HAD JUST BEEN WARNED

Hesitation of the Would be Murderer Averted Another Regicidal Tragedy in Europe.

PARIS, August 2.—Muzaffer-Eg-Din, Shah of Persia, who has been a visitor to the exposition since Saturday as the guest of France, narrowly escaped an assassin's bullet at 9:15 o'clock this morning. It had been arranged for him today to visit Sevres and see the national pottery works, going afterward to Versailles, and it was just after he had left the sovereign's palace on his way to the Seine to go on board a yacht placed at his disposal for the trip that the attempt upon his life was made.

Only five minutes before the pistol was presented at his breast he was the recipient of a letter which warned him that his life was in danger. No serious thought, however, was given to the contents, so numerous had been former warnings of the same character. As he was seated in the landau before leaving the court of the palace his secretary brought him a letter dated Naples but posted in Paris last night, signed with a name bearing an Italian termination. It said: "Today you shall meet the same fate as Humbert."

In no wise disconcerted, the Shah handed the letter to the officer on guard and gave orders for the carriage to start. The gates of the palace were thrown open and as the monarch emerged a large crowd of curious onlookers broke into cries of "Vive le Shah." Hardly had these exclamations died away when a man dressed in the ordinary clothing of a Paris workman darted forward from between two automobiles, where he was hidden, and rushed toward the imperial carriage, overthrowing a bicycle policeman, who rolled under the feet of the horses.

In an instant the assassin was on the carriage step. Holding the door with his left hand, with his right he pushed a revolver toward the breast of the Shah. He seemed to hesitate for a moment as though undecided where to aim. This hesitation saved the Persian monarch's life, for before he could pull the trigger a strong hand grasped his wrist and wrenched it so that the weapon dropped harmlessly to the bottom of the landau.

"I'd like to have a photograph of that man," nonchalantly exclaimed the Shah. Then, addressing a few words in his native tongue to his companions in the carriage, he told the coachman to drive on.

Seated in the landau with the Shah at the time the assault was made were the Grand Vizier, the personal physician, of the monarch, and General Parent, his personal aid. General Parent, in the course of an interview, subsequently said: "I was the court physician who met the criminal's advance. It was he who seized the individual by the wrist and arrested the movement of aggression for a sufficient time to allow the pistol to be knocked from the assassin's hand. I am inclined to the belief that the man is an Italian."

A crowd of 500 people who witnessed the attempt rushed toward the would-be murderer and tried to attack him, but there were many police in the neighborhood acting as guards of the Shah, and these prevented the mob from doing violence to the miscreant. The prisoner was taken to the police station.

The Shah carried out his program for a trip down the Seine to Versailles.

An eye-witness of the attempted assassination says the courage of the Shah was remarkable. He acted with perfect coolness and was among the first to seize his would-be murderer.

The letter received by the Shah a short time before the attempt to assassinate him was made was as follows: "I think fit to warn you that an attempt will be made against your life during your stay in Paris. I am a member of an anarchist association, meeting at No. 5 Piazza di Napoli, which has decided upon your death. If I warn you it is because feelings of humanity get the better of my desires for vengeance on sovereigns and potentates."

"I confide this letter to one of my friends, who leaves for Paris, and who, on his arrival, will immediately post it. I add, in conclusion, that he who is chosen to kill you is a friend of him who killed the King of Italy."

PARIS, August 3, 4:20 a. m.—It now appears that the police have secured a piece of evidence going to support the popular belief that the Shah's assailant had an accomplice. M. Massey, an artist, says that a quarter of an hour before the outrage he saw the criminal in company with a well-dressed man impatiently awaiting the appearance of the royal visitors. The criminal stamped his feet and exclaimed: "Lord, what a time he is." At this, his companion pulled a fine watch from his pocket, saying: "It is five past nine and it won't be long now."

PARIS, August 2.—An eye-witness of the affair said: "When the gate of the palace opened the first carriage to appear contained the Shah. He sat at the right-hand side of the carriage, with his doctor at his side. Opposite was the Grand Vizier, and at his side General Parent, the personal aid of the Shah. They were on their way to the Pont Alexander III, where they were to take the boat on the Seine for Sevres to visit the pottery works there."

"The landau turned to the left toward the Avenue Bois de Boulogne. It had not gone far when a man dressed as a carpenter rushed towards the carriage and put his right foot on the step, resting his left hand on the door to assist him to mount. Then drawing his right hand from his pocket, he pushed it towards the breast of the Shah. This hand carried a revolver. The Shah was surprised, but did not really pay much attention to the man until he perceived the weapon. Then he bounded aside, and standing up in the landau, lifted a cane, a second later bringing it down upon the head of his assailant. At the same moment the Grand Vizier jumped to his feet and seized the man by the arm and twisted his wrist, actually raising him from the ground. The Grand Vizier is a veritable giant, and without apparent effort he held the aggressor suspended in the air. Then a policeman, following on a bicycle, jumped from his machine and grasped the man and drew him back. Other police arrived and the man was overpowered and led away."

"The Shah did not appear to be excited by the attempt on his life, and when the man was taken away he reentered himself in the carriage and quietly spoke in Persian to the Grand Vizier. Then he said to the coachman: 'Drive on' and the carriage proceeded to the Alexander III bridge, where a boat was taken for Sevres.

The pistol carried by the would-be murderer was of the bul dog type, loaded with .45 cartridges. When the police seized the map he tried to break away, and said: "Vive children of the people!" An officer tried to stop him, but he shouted: "To my assistance, friends!" Then, he quieted down and submitted.

When a knife was found on his person an officer remarked: "You also had a knife," to which the man replied: "Yes, I took some precaution."

"Why did you attempt to assassinate the Shah?" the officer asked. "Because," was the reply, "it pleased me. That does not concern you."

To all other questions the prisoner remained dumb.

PARIS, August 3.—At the meeting of the Cabinet this morning it was announced that the would-be assassin of the Shah of Persia had given his name as Salzoo. A man of this name who had been regarded and watched as an anarchist disappeared from Paris in 1895 and had not since been located.

NEW YORK, August 3.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Paris says: The young man who attempted to assassinate the Shah of Persia this morning still maintains the reticence which so far conceals his identity and even his nationality. He appears to be highly intelligent, but uneducated, and bears all outward signs of being a laborer accustomed to work with pick and shovel.

The prevailing opinion is that he acted as an agent, like Bresci, but of this there is no evidence except that his face contracted and that he shed tears when the policeman said to him: "Now that your friends have made use of you as their tool, they will abandon you altogether."

Popular indignation against the would-be assassin is nowhere more marked than among the working classes here. The leaders of the Socialists and of the Proletariat, such as Jean Jaures, Viviani, Gerault, Richard and others, denounce the criminal attempt in the strongest possible language, and even Henri Rochefort attacks the criminal with his heaviest sledgehammer adjectives. The congratulations received tonight by the Shah amounted almost to an ovation. The presence of mind and sang froid shown by the Shah and his Grand Vizier in instantaneously seizing and disarming the assassin and the off-hand way in which the Shah remarked to a police agent, "Be sure and have a good photograph of him ready for me when I come back from Versailles," add greatly to his popularity here.

ANXIETY IN INDIA.

One Quarter of the People of Central Province Under Relief.

LONDON, July 30.—The following dispatch from the Viceroy of India, Lord Curzon of Kedleston, to the Secretary of State for India, Lord George Hamilton, was received today: "Considerable anxiety is felt owing to the weakness of the monsoon. The situation is serious and critical in Guadajarat, Baroda and Rajputana West, which are not sown. No fodder whatever is available in the southwest part of the Punjab. Sown crops are in imminent danger, as rain continues to hold off. Fodder is scarce and cattle are dying in the central provinces of the Thesora and Hyderabad. Good crops are possible only in case the monsoon improves."

"One-quarter of the inhabitants of the central provinces are on relief. The total number requesting relief is 6,200,000, with incomplete Bombay figures."

The Governor of Bombay telegraphs that there were 895 cholera cases in the famine district during the week ending July 21st, of which 593 resulted fatally. The total deaths in the relief works of the British district were 6,753, or 45 per 1,000.

There has been a good rainfall in North Gulfarat and Kathiawar, and agricultural prospects are favorable in the remainder of the affected tracts. The numbers on relief works are decreasing and gratuitous relief is increasing.

Philippine Lepers.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 1.—The leper settlement on the island of Molokai of the Hawaiian group is to be duplicated in the Philippines. This matter has had the attention of the medical staff of the army for some time and the conclusions formed from an exhaustive study of the situation have resulted in the issuance of the following order from the office of the United States Military Governor in the Philippine Islands: In view of the fact that a large number of people in these islands are afflicted with leprosy and have in consequence become a menace to public health, and for the purpose of initiating measures for preventing the further spreading of this disease and eventually stamping it out of existence, a board of officers is hereby appointed to select an island for the segregation of lepers, to prepare plans and estimates for suitable buildings thereon, to submit an estimate of salaries for the necessary officials and employees, and to fix the ration and other allowance for the support of such leper colony.

Detail for the Board—Major Louis M. Maus, Surgeon, U. S. N.; Captain George P. Ahern, Ninth U. S. Infantry; Captain W. E. Horton, Assistant Quartermaster, U. S. V. By command of Major General McArthur a board of officers has been appointed to select an island of the group for the new settlement and to prepare plans for the structures to be used.

London Has the Plague.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The Marine Hospital Service has received the following telegram from Past Assistant Surgeon Thomas announcing the outbreak of the bubonic plague in London: "LONDON, Aug. 3.—Surgeon General, Marine Hospital, Washington.—There have been four cases of plague and two deaths from plague in London. Diagnosis confirmed by bacteriological examination. Do not think there will be further spread."

ESTEE TAKES COURT ROOM

Federal Judge's Radical Step.

DISPOSSESSES SILLIMAN Orders United States Marshal Ray To Take the Keys and Retain Possession.

Judge Estee of the United States District and Circuit Courts yesterday took possession of the room hitherto occupied by Judge Silliman and announces that until he secures other suitable quarters he shall keep possession of that room for his court.

From the bench Judge Estee directed United States Marshal Ray to take the keys of the room and keep it for the uses of the Federal courts.

This action caused a sensation of no small dimensions about the Judiciary building yesterday and was almost the sole topic of conversation during the day. It was the outcome of correspondence between Judge Estee and Superintendent McCandless of the Public Works department in which the two took issue on the point of whether the United States government or the Territorial government were the owners and controllers of the Judiciary building and the Capitol.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning Marshal Ray appeared at the Judiciary building and took possession of Judge Silliman's court room, and a few moments later Judge Estee came up and the court was opened. Immediately Judge Estee produced a number of letters and announced that he had a matter of importance to communicate to the bar and the public at large. He then read several communications that he had exchanged with the Superintendent of Public Works with reference to the court room. The first of these was a letter which he sent to Mr. McCandless asking the Territorial government to furnish tables, desks and a witness stand and bench for the court room. This was sent to Mr. McCandless on Tuesday and brought a reply from the latter in which he said that he could not do so as when making the appropriation for repairs and alterations in the Judiciary building, the matter of fitting up these offices and other work made necessary by the provisions of the Organic Act was not considered, hence the appropriation would not cover them, for it was already nearly exhausted.

This letter was followed by another from Mr. McCandless in which he stated further that the rooms at the Waikiki end of the Judiciary building were assigned to the Federal courts for temporary use only and that the matter of rental would be later decided upon. Judge Estee paused after reading this letter and then he picked up from the bunch of correspondence at hand his own letter in reply. This was as follows:

Honolulu, H. I., August 8, 1900. J. A. McCandless, Esq., Superintendent of Public Works, Honolulu, I. I. Sir—Your two letters of August 7, 1900, one in relation to the preparation of the courtroom and offices of the United States District Court, notifying me that the Board of Public Works cannot prepare said courtroom and judge's chambers, and the other of the District Attorney, District Clerk, Marshal, for use; the other assigning for temporary use for myself and the officers of my court, offices on the Waikiki side of the main hallway on the lower floor of the Government building, known as the Judiciary building, and adding in regard to the rental of these offices that the same can be satisfactorily arranged at some future date, have been duly received by me.

In reply thereto I wish to state that it was expected, as I have been informed, that your department would prepare the courtroom of the United States District Court and the offices of the respective Government officers for use.

I am not authorized to accept any place for a courtroom temporarily. I confess I do not understand what your letter means by saying temporary use of a part of the building referred to.

I do not admit that any rental of these offices is either due or ever will be due the Territory of Hawaii, or its Territorial Government for the use of any part of this building by the United States District Court or its officers.

I had supposed that this building was the property of the United States; but be that as it may, I have no authority to put off to a future date or to agree to any matter of the rental of any of these rooms or any one of them. Very truly yours, MORRIS M. ESTEE.

I decline to enter into any arrangement for the rental of portions of the building referred to in your letter as a courtroom.

Then Judge Estee read the reply which he received on Wednesday from Superintendent McCandless. It was as follows: Department of Public Works, Honolulu, H. I., August 8, 1900. Hon. Morris M. Estee, United States District Judge.

Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your favor of this day's date, in reply to our letters of the 7th inst. in regard to the matter of fitting up your courtroom and offices connected with the same, and to say in reply that the courtroom assigned to your temporary use is the Legislative hall of the Territory, and during the occupancy of the same by your court this Government will have to make temporary arrangements for the meeting of the Territorial Legislature elsewhere. You can see by this explanation why the offices assigned to you and your court will only be temporary.

In regard to the ownership of the Judiciary building, I beg to call your attention to Section 91 of "An Act to provide a Government for the Territory of Hawaii," which provides: "That the public property ceded and transferred to the United States by the Republic of Hawaii under the joint resolution of annexation approved July 7, 1898, shall be and remain in the possession, use and control of the Government of the Territory of Hawaii, and shall be maintained and cared for by it, at its own expense, etc., etc., etc."

This Government fully recognizing the necessity for more room for public offices, has communicated with the Secretary of the Interior at Washington, pointing out the necessity of the United States Government erecting a building for the uses and purposes of the United States federal officers, and it is to be hoped that a favorable reply will be received.

In conclusion I beg to assure you that there has never been any attempt on the part of this Government to embarrass any department of the United States of America, but to the contrary it has always been willing to render them all assistance in its power. Yours very respectfully, J. A. McCANDLESS, Superintendent of Public Works.

Thereupon Judge Estee proceeded to dictate the order appended whereby he takes formal possession of the courtroom:

It is ordered that the United States Marshal be and he is hereby directed to take possession of this courtroom, keep the keys and hold possession of it for the purpose of public business of the United States District Court in and for the District of Hawaii until further order of this Court.

It is further ordered, that the Marshal proceed immediately, under the laws of the United States of America and procure such shelve (plain shelving) as may be necessary for the accommodation of the books belonging to the Judge of this Court, and that the shelving to be placed in the chambers of the Judge of this Court as above specified; the books being for the use and examination of both the Judge of this Court and the members of the bar practicing before this Court.

The Judges of the Circuit Court had consented to the making of this order, he said, so there was no friction whatever between himself and the members of the Judiciary Department.

Superintendent McCandless said yesterday afternoon that he understood from the provisions of the Territorial act that the buildings of the Territory were returned to the Territory by the United States Government.

"I understand that in other Territories and States of the Union the United States Government hires offices for the use of the Federal officials. We are now expending several thousand dollars for the addition to the postoffice building. We have furnished the custom house and with warehouses that would have cost it many thousands of dollars.

"I am in correspondence now with Washington in regard to the need of a Federal building. In every State in the Union the Federal offices, courts and all else occupy buildings erected for them. The State courts occupy the State capitol building or county court-houses, the Federal courts their own building erected for them, and other Federal officers by the United States Government.

"That is why, in my correspondence with Judge Estee, I spoke of his occupancy of the old Legislative hall as temporary in nature. The United States Government will eventually erect a building here for the Federal officers without doubt, and until then, they will occupy quarters in the Capitol or the Judiciary building.

"Some of the Federal officers seem to have a peculiar idea concerning the state of affairs here since annexation. One of them came into my office not long ago and looked over the table I am using. 'That's a nice table,' he said. 'I think I'll have that sent over to my office.' Of course, he was joking, but he was half in earnest, for he seemed to think he had a right to do so, if he wished. And that is sufficient to show the spirit of some of them and their attitude toward the Territorial Government.

"Governor Dole set apart the Waikiki end of the lower floor of the Judiciary building for the use of the Federal courts, and already several hundred dollars has been expended in putting it in order. But the Territorial Government did not give the Federal Government absolute and permanent control of the rooms, and that was the reason of my letters to Judge Estee. Nor was I intended to charge him as 'and' in my letter that matter was reserved for decision later."

In response to a request for a statement of his position, Judge Estee said: "My theory in regard to this matter is that these buildings, the Judiciary building and that one over across the street, are the property of the United States. If they don't belong to the United States, whose are they?"

"As soon as I learned that my occupancy of that courtroom was only temporary, and that it was expected that a rental should be paid for it, I made up my mind at once that that would not do.

"The United States is willing to furnish the furniture of the courtroom, but not the fixtures. They are to be furnished by the Territorial Government.

"I am here to hold court, and hold court I will somewhere. I don't care where. I don't propose to hold it in the street. Here are these buildings, some with lots of empty room, some occupied. Was it to be supposed that I should hold my court out in the open air?"

"Of course, I don't intend to exclude that judge, what's his name?—Judge Silliman from the use of the courtroom, but he may use it. However, it is my courtroom until other quarters are provided for me."

The statement that he had been "evicted" by Judge Estee was vigorously denied by Judge Silliman last evening. "Judge Estee had a conference with Judge Humphreys and myself last evening," he said, "and he asked us for the use of one of our courtrooms. We immediately tendered the use of either one, and he decided to occupy my courtroom. What I shall do when it comes to the trial of jury cases, I do not know. I shall decline to try any jury cases in chambers, and suppose I shall be provided with a courtroom, or that Judge Estee's courtroom will be fixed so that he can move into it."

"According to the law of the matter Judge Estee seems to have the right of it. According to the section of the organic act quoted by Superintendent McCandless, public property ceded and transferred to the United States by the Republic of Hawaii shall be and remain in the possession, use and control of the Territory of Hawaii until otherwise provided for by Congress, or taken for the uses and purposes of the United States by direct action of the President of the United States or the Governor of Hawaii."

This precludes the idea of any temporary occupancy of the Federal courtrooms, and likewise the idea of paying rent for the use of the rooms. They were set apart by Governor Stewart for the use of the Federal courts, and by the plain terms of the organic act they are under the control of the Federal Government and not of the Territorial Government.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION. Attorney General Dole gave the following opinion:

Section 91 of the act to provide a government for the Territory of Hawaii provides:

"That the public property ceded and transferred to the United States by the Republic of Hawaii under the joint resolution of annexation, approved July seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, shall be and remain in the possession, use and control of the Government of the Territory of Hawaii, and shall be maintained, managed and cared for by it, at its own expense, until otherwise provided for by Congress, or taken for the uses and purposes of the United States by direction of the President or of the Governor of Hawaii. And all moneys in the Hawaiian treasury, and all the revenues and other property acquired by the Republic of Hawaii since said cession, shall be and remain the property of the Territory of Hawaii."

If the possession, use and control of the public property ceded by the Republic of Hawaii to the United States has been given to the Territory of Hawaii by act of Congress until taken for the uses and purposes of the United States by the President of the United States, it seems to be the duty of the Territorial Government and the interest of every citizen and taxpayer of the Territory, that the Territory should avail itself of the fairness and generosity of the American Congress. The Territorial Government has no desire to claim more than it believes it is honestly entitled to, and certainly the honored Federal Judge who presides over the District Court of Hawaii can have no intention to claim on behalf of the United States anything more than he believes the United States is entitled to. It is no difference of opinion, which will undoubtedly be determined with justice to all concerned by the supreme authority at Washington. The local government removed the Board of Health from its old quarters, and did, I think, everything in its power to prepare a temporary home for Judge Estee's court.

CASE REINSTATED. Judge Humphreys yesterday granted the motion of J. A. Magoon for the reinstatement of the case of Desky vs. Lack, which was one of the numerous cases which were dismissed on Tuesday for the non-appearance of the attorneys. He likewise heard arguments for the reinstatement of the Koolau cases against Palea and Bull, but in them he reserved decision. The application of Attorney Peterson for reinstatement of the case of Young Chung vs. Joe Davis was, however, denied.

EVERY SUES KING. Eugene Avery brought a suit for damages of $5,000 yesterday in the United States District Court against William C. King, who caused his arrest on the charge of embezzlement. His complaint alleges that he had made all arrangements and had purchased a ticket to proceed on the Australia to his home in San Francisco. He was obliged, he says, to furnish bail in the sum of $300, and to pay counsel fees and other money, and when brought into court he was dismissed as being not guilty.

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS. Lau San, a Chinese who is restrained from landing in Honolulu by Commissioner Brown on the ground that he has not proper papers, applied yesterday to the United States District Court for a writ of habeas corpus. The matter will be taken up on Monday.

WANTS ALIMONY. Adelaide Andrade, whose husband, John S. Andrade, recently brought suit against her for divorce, applied yesterday for $175 temporary alimony to defend the suit.

ASSETS OF JURGENSEN. George R. Carter as administrator of the estate of Jacob Jurgensen has acknowledged the receipt from himself as temporary receiver, of $12,825.70, assets of the estate.

COURT ORDERS. Achi vs. Keopulupulu, stricken from calendar for trial in vacation. Republic vs. Isadore Issabet, bond forfeited, appeal dismissed. Territory vs. L. Rose, nolle prosequi. Republic vs. J. B. Dias, fine $150 and costs.

In re estate of Antonio Rodriguez, appeal taken from ruling of court. Lee Hoo vs. Lee Chong, stricken from calendar. Yung Chung vs. Joe Davis, motion to reinstate denied.

Kalaka vs. Iki, judgment for plaintiff for $20. FINED THE BAILIFF. Court Officer Runs Afoul of Judge Humphreys.

Judge Humphreys yesterday clashed with Albert McGurn, bailiff of his court, and as a result McGurn was adjudged guilty of contempt of court and fined $15. This sum he refused to pay and all day yesterday he remained in custody of High Sheriff Brown.

The incident took place shortly before noon yesterday and was a fruitful source of comment all over the city. It arose as a result of Judge Humphreys' dismissal of the case of Desky vs. Lack on Tuesday. The case came on a motion for reinstatement and Bailiff McGurn asked that he be permitted to say a word or so in reference to it. He stated that when he had been sent to summon Mr. Magoon at the time the case came up he had asked the stenographer in Judge Silliman's court if he was in there, and had been told that he was not. Subsequently he learned that Mr. Magoon had been in the room and he asked to change his statement. Judge Humphreys took the bailiff to task heavily and in the course of his lecture he told him that he should have been attending to business instead of "sneaking around." To this statement McGurn took exception, and said that he had been insulted by the court. Judge Humphreys ordered him to cease speaking but McGurn rashly reiterated his statement, whereupon Judge Humphreys fined him $15.

Attorney-General Dole arose and paid a tribute to McGurn, telling of his years of faithful service in the courts and asking the court to be lenient with him. J. A. Magoon also spoke a word for him, but when T. McCants Stewart arose to add his word Judge Humphreys refused to hear anything more on the matter.

McGurn was taken to the police station and there kept in custody for he refused to pay his fine, saying that he would go to prison rather than do so.

Honolulu's Population. SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The following is a despatch from Honolulu: Census Superintendent A. T. Atkinson will get his report off to Washington inside of a week more. The population of the islands is in the neighborhood of 150,000. Honolulu has only 40,000 people against 45,000 by the plague census taken in January of this year.

HE CAUGHT JEFF DAVIS

Now Bound for China's Scenes.

GENERAL J. H. WILSON HERE

Celebrated Brigadier Passes Through on America Maru to Fight The Boxers.

Brigadier-General James Harrison Wilson, U. S. V., the famous Cavalry leader in the Civil War and who had the honor of capturing Jefferson Davis, the president of the defunct Confederacy, was a passenger yesterday on the America Maru en route for China.

General Wilson was commissioned a Major-General out of private life at the outbreak of the Spanish war and was ordered to Cuba where he took a prominent part in the Santiago campaign and was later placed in command of the department of Matanzas and Santa Clara provinces.

The distinguished officer is the hero of the famous "Wilson's Raid" which spread terror through Alabama and Georgia in '64-'65, culminating in the capture of President Jefferson Davis, not far from Macon, Ga. In private life General Wilson is a railroad magnate. He is president of the New York and New Haven Railroad. He built the Louisville Air Line from St. Louis to Louisville and afterwards became its Receiver.

there. He wants to confer with them as quickly as he can. In case the road to Peking is open when he gets on the other side, he will change his route and go direct there.

Unquestionably, said Mr. Rockhill, the United States will insist upon damages for the loss of the lives and property of their subjects in China.

Hubbard S. Smith, now acting Consul of this country at Canton, is to be Mr. Rockhill's secretary and will join him at Shanghai.

BITS OF SPORTING NEWS OF YESTERDAY

Saturday's division of the track will consist of a one-mile heat race for $50 a corner between three-minute-class horses owned by Messrs. C. Bellina, W. Diggs, C. H. Judd, Samuel Decker and one or two others.

Prince David does not care to match Violin against Octoborn at present.

A prominent local horseman on hearing that a scheme was on foot to secure a lease of the track from the Park Commissioners made the following statement to an Advertiser reporter yesterday: "I am willing to lease the track myself provided no one else does."

Honolulu horse-owners appear to be unanimously in favor of a meeting in November, and the few whose opinions have already been canvassed have declared their willingness to enter their stock liberally should such a meeting be held.

Latest News of the Transports.
Tugboat to Round Cape Horn.
Chilean Coming Here.

The America Maru, which arrived from San Francisco yesterday afternoon with a week's later news and mail, got away for Japan and China shortly after midnight.

She carries a number of distinguished passengers to the zone of trouble. More cargo than the vessel could carry was offered in San Francisco and she left there full. Among her passengers are Special Commissioner Rockhill, General Wilson and his aid, Captain Drake and Commander Miles of the Nashville.

The America Maru has been overhauled and extensively repaired during her stay in port at San Francisco. A new gangway has been constructed from the lower to the hurricane deck; the social hall has been enlarged and made more luxurious and comfortable, and an electric spray has been put in. The improvement which will be probably most appreciated by male passengers is the new barber shop.

MOVEMENTS OF TRANSPORTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 3.—Captain Pierce of the Warren has been transferred back to his old command, master of the Sheridan. When Captain Hart was taken sick he was given command of the Sheridan and Captain Pierce was sent out on the Warren. During the voyage of the Warren to Manila, Captain Hart died and Chief Officer Frazier of the Sheridan was made captain. Frazier now goes out as master of the Warren and Pierce takes back his old command.

The Warren is now scheduled to take the Ninth Cavalry to China, and another vessel—probably the Logan—will go to Manila. The Universe is nearly ready to sail for China with food for the men and horses in China. Lorentz Ford, the well-known ship chandler, is going to make the round trip in the Universe.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 1.—The Meade sails today at noon for Taku, China. She will take away a battalion of the Fifteenth Infantry, a squadron of the Third Cavalry and a company of engineers. The ship will be rushed across the Pacific, and it is expected that the troops will be landed on Chinese soil inside of three weeks.

The transport Warren is to have her cabin accommodation remodelled before she sails for the Philippines again. Beginning tomorrow all the men will live ashore and the carpenters will go to work. As the Warren is now she can carry more troops than the big vessels, but there is little or no cabin accommodation. This will be rectified and the carpenters will work night and day for the next week in order to get the accommodation into proper shape.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The transport Hancock finally got away for Taku yesterday morning, passing out through the heads about 10 o'clock. She got away from the dock soon after midnight, but dropped anchor in the stream. Captain Struve preferring to wait for daylight. There was a "hot old time" aboard all night, because many of the marines had managed to get whisky aboard and proceeded to stow it away before the authorities had time to search the ship.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—The Rosecrans was brought here from Seattle in a hurry to load for China. She will take away a siege battery composed of 140 men and 174 horses. She was docked last night and the work of getting her ready will be rushed. In a week the transport will be ready to sail, and if the battery is here she will go out next Saturday.

The Warren will not go to China, but will sail for Manila on August 16 with recruits and supplies.

The Hancock sails today for Taku via Nagasaki. She will carry 200 marines, a battery of artillery and a number of soldiers. She will be followed by the Meade next Wednesday.

The next transport due here from Manila is the Logan, and she should arrive today or tomorrow. Just as soon as she can be got ready she will sail for China if the circumstances warrant.

TO ROUND THE HORN.
NEW YORK, August 1.—Tugboat trips from New York to San Francisco are still unusual enough to deserve comment, although one vessel of this type recently completed the journey without incident and another is now on the way. The last to essay the voyage is the tug L. Luckenbach, a craft which was recently sold by her New York owner to John D. Spreckels & Co. of San Francisco.

The Luckenbach is to sail as soon as she can be equipped for her long voyage. Captain McCoy, who will command her on the trip to the Golden Gate, has no doubt that he will take her safely through the Straits of Magellan and to her destination. The Luckenbach is of the type called "ocean-going," and it is the boast of those who sail this type of tug that they can outride a storm which would swamp much larger steamers.

The Luckenbach is one of the biggest of her class, measuring 135 feet in length. Her gross tonnage is 260. Steaming at a 12-knot gait the vessel can carry coal sufficient for three weeks.

THE ALAMEDA'S GOLD.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Officials of the Oceanic Steamship Company on the dock and aboard the steamship Alameda will feel considerably relieved this morning when the $2,700,000 worth of golden sovereigns stowed in the after stowage are removed to the Mint. The steamer did not get alongside the dock until after banking hours on Saturday, so that the treasure had to be left on board over Sunday. The treasure is the most valuable ever came to this port from Australia and comes very nearly being the most valuable that ever crossed the Pacific. The responsibility of guarding it is very great.

A deck boy by the name of Colburn, a strapping youth of 20, was entrusted with the duty of keeping guard at night on the way across. Just why he was selected nobody aboard the ship seems to know, except that he is known to be perfectly honest and does not seem to know what fear means. Every night during the trip across Colburn sat on the steering hatch with a revolver in his hand and neither passengers nor crew were permitted to visit that portion of the ship. Before entering and after leaving were perfectly called on the voyage the hatch was opened and the treasure boxes counted and carefully inspected to see that the seals had not been tampered with.

CHILEAN COMING HERE.
SAN FRANCISCO, August 1.—The Chilean training ship General Baquedano arrived from Esquimalt, B. C., yesterday. She is bark-rigged, but has auxiliary machinery that can drive her at a speed of thirteen knots.

The General Baquedano is a new vessel on her maiden voyage. She was built at Newcastle-on-Tyne to the order of the Government of Chile and went into commission in April last. She sailed from Talcahuano for Easter Island on April 23 with a crew of 228 all told. Of these twenty-eight are midshipmen and 150 apprentices.

From Easter Island the General Baquedano went to British Columbia, thence came to San Francisco. From this port she will go to Yokohama via Honolulu, and from there to Hongkong. From China the training ship will go to Australia, New Zealand, Fiji and then back to Valparaiso, the home port.

SHIPPING NOTES.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 3.—The Kincaid Steamship Company's John S. Kincaid will have her trial trip Saturday. She is one of the handsomest vessels ever built on the Coast and her owners expect her to do better than fourteen knots.

Captain Hall of the steamer Walla Walla, which arrived yesterday from Victoria and Sound points, tells of a strange experience on his voyage from San Francisco to the Sound. When the vessel was off Cape Blanco a dark object was made out in the water ahead. Captain Hall took it for a whale, but as the steamer got nearer to it, the object proved to be the largest sea lion he had ever seen.

"Old Ben Butler was a pigmy to this fellow," said the Captain. "He had caught a 200-pound halibut and having a great time with the fish. He would throw the halibut high into the air and catch it in his mouth, then shake it like a cat would a mouse. Then he would let the halibut get away from him. The bewilderment fish would swim away a few yards when the sea lion would jump for it and catch it again in his mouth. Thousands of birds were hovering about, waiting, no doubt, till the sea lion got through with the halibut. We were then in about 200 fathoms of water."

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—An official survey has been made of Shag Rock No. 1 by the United States engineers, as a result of which the work has been accepted by the Government and the contractors will receive their pay. The survey demonstrated that there is thirty feet of water over the rock at extreme low tide, which is more than was expected when the work of blowing up the obstruction was attempted.

The four-masted schooner Commerce was successfully launched from Hay & Wright's shipyard at Alameda Point Saturday afternoon. She is a sister ship of the Philippine, Expansion and Luzon. Miss Nellie von der Merden, the daughter of D. von der Merden, one of the owners of the new vessel, christened the Commerce as she slid from the ways. The schooner is owned by Martin Sanders, Henry Kirchman, S. Forter and others. The Commerce is a little larger than her sister ships and the largest sailing vessel ever built at Hay & Wright's shipyard.

The steamer Tellus, which was in collision with the Belgian King, has been pumped out and will go to the drydock today. It was necessary to use a special pumping plant on a barge alongside of the big collier to get the water out. It can now be seen that the Tellus was cut down nearly to her keel.

FRANK SHARP'S DEPARTURE.

Well-Known Musician Departed Unceremoniously on Australia.

Mr. William Sharp, the popular conductor of the Orpheum orchestra, on being interviewed yesterday on the subject of his brother Frank Sharp's unceremonious departure to the Coast on the Australia, said:

"I did not have the faintest idea that my brother intended leaving Honolulu so suddenly, and was not aware of the fact that he had gone until Wednesday evening. He did not take his trunk nor a considerable amount of money, which he had left in my keeping. I last saw him at 1 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. As far as I know, Frank was in no financial difficulties whatever, which, if such had been the case, might naturally have been accepted as an explanation of his disappearance. If he owes any money in town I will gladly meet his bills."

"My brother came here last November and was first of all engaged in a music store. He then obtained a special police commission and later on served under the Board of Health during the plague epidemic. He then resumed his old position of music-store manager, which he filled until my recent return from the Coast."

"As far as I can find out, Frank bore an excellent reputation in town, but I am afraid that being perhaps short of money he yielded to financial influences brought to bear in connection with the Donahue illicit liquor selling case, in which he was subpoenaed as a principal witness."

"Had I known of his projected departure I should most certainly have stopped him, as I had given High Sheriff Brown my word of honor that he would appear in court when the Donahue case was brought up for trial, and I naturally feel pretty bad about his leaving, more especially as I was entirely ignorant of the fact."

Good For Every One

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

With the Change in Tariff

Comes a sweeping reduction in the price of all goods of American manufacture.

We have cut on every piece of jewelry and silverware in the house, and you will be surprised at the great difference from former prices. No fear of comparisons here, where quality and pattern are considerations.

What do you think of full-sized solid silver teaspoons being reduced to $3.00 a dozen, with engraving thrown in, and all articles of silverware reduced in like proportion.

These are by no means catch prices, but regular prices which will prevail here from now on, on all the different lines of goods from the States.

While reducing all our American goods we have not changed the prices on any of our European potteries, glass and chinaware, and although the present cost is forty per cent more than formerly, while out present very large stock lasts we will sell at the old rates. This is a very large saving to you, and we recommend that you make your purchases from these lines now, before an advance becomes necessary.

DUNREGGAN SAVED FROM SHIPWRECK
AND SAFE AT FISHMARKET WHARF

THE "ADVERTISER'S" CHARTERED TUGS ON THE SCENE.

THE TUGS FEARLESS AND IROQUOIS WOODS LINES ON THE ILL-FATED VESSEL.

THE British bark Dunreggan was pulled off the reef within a quarter of a mile of the lighthouse at Diamond Head at ten minutes past 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the united efforts of the tugs Fearless, Eleu and Iroquois. The Fearless, Captain Gilbert Brokaw, the tug which first got hold of the Dunreggan on Wednesday, was the tug which towed the big steel bark safe into port and shoved her comfortably up alongside the old Fishmarket wharf. The Fearless, once she got hold of the Dunreggan, never let her go, but held on from Wednesday morning, shortly after the bark went aground, until she was brought into port. Captain Brokaw knew there was something like $20,000 at the end of the hawser and held on with the tenacity of a famished bulldog.

As the Fearless came through the channel about 5 o'clock last night with the Dunreggan in tow, the red paint below the tug's water line could be seen in generous quantities, showing clearly how nearly her coal supply was exhausted. It was quite a sight, the coming of the close-called bark into the harbor. People crowded to the edges of the wharves and gazed. They were anxious to know how big a hole the vessel had in her bottom and if Captain Dixon had handed over the $20,000 in good, cold British gold to the rescuing tugs' captains.

As above stated, the tug Fearless kept up her pulling at the Dunreggan all Wednesday night and right up to the time when she came off. Yesterday afternoon the United States tug Iroquois went out again and got a line to the Dunreggan and pulled away with the Fearless. The position of the bark had changed somewhat about 11 o'clock in the morning and hopes were entertained then of getting her off the reef at the next high tide, about 3 o'clock. Not long before the time of high tide, Captain Macauley, commanding the tug Eleu temporarily, towed the ship Drigo out to sea, when he let the Drigo go it suddenly dawned upon him that the Dunreggan would never get off the reef without the Eleu's help. So, heading the tug for the scene of disaster, he gave the chief the signal for full speed and hurried through the water in great haste. Arriving at Diamond Head, he observed the efforts of the Fearless and Iroquois had not yet proved successful. Backing in close to the bark on the reef, he gave a heaving-line aboard the Dunreggan. Captain Dixon was on the point of suggesting terms but changed his mind and in a few minutes the Eleu was pulling with the rest. The Fearless, the Iroquois and the Eleu tugged away together for nearly an hour, when suddenly the big bark gave a jump forward of about three feet and then hesitated. Again she moved with a quick jerk, as if the greedy reef were loth to part with her so soon and were holding her back from deep water and safety. Once more her keel felt motion, not sudden and convulsive this time but slow and sure. The men on the tug saw her coming and the tugs strained every effort to pull her off. They were rewarded. She came, gliding off the dangerous reef as easily and gracefully as slipping off an iceberg. Captains Brokaw, Pond and Macauley of the Fearless, Iroquois and Eleu felt joyful sensations of success. They had pulled her off; she was safe, and now for a little matter of ready cash. Captain Dixon gazed over the side and saw the bark moving; gave a sigh of relief and scribbled a few figures hastily in his note-book.

Captain Macauley brought the Eleu into port first. "I've got something to say about the saving of the British bark," he shouted. "The Eleu pulled her off—helped to do it, I should say." Then came the Iroquois—the sturdy, strong, modest, white Iroquois. She never said a word, but she's got an awful pull—when she pulls. And last came the Fearless with the Dunreggan coming along sulkily behind at the end of the Fearless' hawser. Captain Brokaw hitched up his trousers, cast a look of pride over his tug and simply beamed with delight. He had a right to beam—scarcely here a week, the Fearless tumbles into a small fortune.

When seen by an Advertiser reporter aboard the Dunreggan, Captain G. N. Dixon had the following to say: "When the bark struck I was two miles off-shore and away outside where the charts show reefs. The chart must be wrong. The place where I struck is some distance from the place where the bark lay just before she was pulled off."

"Yes, we jettisoned some cargo, of course, but I can't say how much. Some of the men but should last night to help chuck it overboard, when they started to get up a lot of boxes which came first from the main hatch, thought that the boxes contained gin. Do you know those fellows were awfully disappointed when they found it was olive oil. I can't answer half your question; I don't know the answers to them. What's that? I don't remember—I didn't count—I can't say now. I haven't said half the things I've been reported as saying."

It is thought that about 100 tons of the cargo was jettisoned Wednesday night and yesterday. When the Dunreggan got up to the wharf she had about twenty inches of water in her hold and was not gaining much, if anything, on the pumps. The pumps have been manned ever since she first leaked, and are going yet.

Yesterday morning Captain Dixon called for a board of survey and one was appointed, consisting of Captain Williamson of the British bark Woolahara, Captain Thompson of the British ship City of Hankow and Captain Jackson of the British ship Halewood. These captains were taken out to the Dunreggan in Larzer's launch. Captain Dixon has never before met with disaster during his many years at sea.

MOANALUA A GAY SCENE TO HONOR ENGAGED PAIR

Reception at the Beautiful Country Home of S. M. Damon for Miss Alice Wall and Frederic Smith.

Beautiful Moanalua, brilliant and sparkling amid the glimmer of myriads of Chinese and Japanese lanterns strung in the branches of trees and palm leaves, was the scene last evening of one of the most picturesque receptions ever given in Honolulu. From afar off Moanalua resembled a diadem in a sylvan setting. The numerous artificial lakes for which the country-residence is famous made rippling and glittering flashes of light, the strong breeze from the valleys behind Moanalua raising embryo waves on the surface of the water. Everywhere the grounds were ablaze with a picturesque glow. The rustic bridges crossing the ponds and leading to the flag mound, guarded with its antiquated cannon, were strung with gay-colored lanterns forming a pleasing ensemble. The residence was charmingly decorated with flowers, palms and potted plants. The dancing pavilion, erected in honor of Brigadier-General King two years ago, was made a bower of beauty. The interior was splendidly lighted and wore the general air of festivity. The roof beams were trailed with malle and ferns and the windows decorated tastefully. Beneath the spreading branches of an algaroba tree a massive bowl was placed from which lemonade was served the dancers, and similar refreshment was served in the lanai of the pavilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Damon assisted by Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Damon received the guests on the pretty lanai of the residence from whence they had the freedom of the foliage-embowered expanses which dot the landscape of the vast estates.

Probably four hundred guests availed themselves of the invitation to meet Miss Alice Wall and Mr. Frederic Smith in whose honor the reception was held. The guests of honor were greeted and congratulated by all. Two special trains from Honolulu, one leaving at 7:30 and the other at 8:30 o'clock, carried the guests to Moanalua, the second one taking the largest number. The return was made at midnight and an hour later. Many drove out in carriages preferring the novelty of the moonlight ride on the roads through the estates. A quintette club discoursed the sweetest of Hawaiian songs for the dancers and the pavilion was crowded with merriment seekers. Many and Mrs. Frank Nichols, James Kennedy, Wells Peterson.

Travelers to Egypt should beware of the treasures they purchased in Cairo. The other day an enterprising Australian selected a mummy, and for the trifling sum of £20 was permitted to ship to the Antipodes a distant relative of one of the Pharaohs in good order and condition, considering all things. On mentioning his purchase a medical friend in Sydney, says the Sydney Mail, suggested the Roentgen rays being turned on the relative of Pharaoh. They disclosed no mummy within the swaddling rags. The purchaser thereupon set to work to undo his purchase, and inside he had the melancholy pleasure of discovering stones, newspapers dated 1898, and any quantity of bulrushes. After this we should await some new Roentgen ray discoveries at the British Museum with much interest.

A clergyman who gave evidence in a horse-dealing case became somewhat confused in his account of the transaction in dispute, and the cross-examining counsel, after making several blustering but ineffective attempts to obtain a more satisfactory statement, said, "Pray, sir, do you know the difference between a horse and a cow?" "I acknowledge my ignorance," replied the reverend gentleman; "I hardly know the difference between a horse and a cow, or between a bull and a bully—only a bull, I am told, has horns, and a bully—here he made a respectful bow to the advocate—"luckily for me, has none."

WHO ARE VOTERS?

Attorney General Dole's
Opinion.

QUALIFICATIONS NEEDED

Questions Propounded by Registrar of Elections Wray Taylor Answered.

Attorney General Dole yesterday sent to Wray Taylor, registrar of elections, the following answer to a number of questions as to the qualifications necessary to enable an individual to vote at the coming election:

Sir: Your favor of August 6th is at hand, enclosing a list of questions propounded by the chairman of the Board of Registration for the Islands of Maui, Molokai and Lanai, relative to the coming registration of voters, and I have the honor to submit the following opinion:

Q. The law states that registration of voters shall take place between the last day of August and the 10th day of October in the year 1900. Are both days included?

A. I think that both days are excluded.

Q. If a man was born in the United States but came to his majority in the Hawaiian Islands, what qualifications would be necessary to make him a voter? Does birth in the United States alone make a man a voter, age and educational qualifications understood?

A. Article XIV, Section 1 of the amendments to the Constitution of the United States provides that, "All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State in which they reside. Even before the passage of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States it was held in the case of Lynch vs. Clark that a person born in the United States of alien parents, temporarily residing there, but who left the United States with her parents before she was a year old, was a citizen of the United States although her parents never returned. This is the leading case on the subject in the United States and there have been many cases in line with it.

Irrespective of the Fourteenth Amendment, the settled principle of English and American law seems to be that citizenship arises from birth in a country, the person so born being within its territorial limits and subject to its jurisdiction; that is, in its power and amenable to its laws.

If a man was born in the United States, subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, and has not renounced his allegiance or been naturalized elsewhere, he is a citizen of the United States.

To be a voter here he must have the qualifications prescribed by Section 99 of the Organic Law.

Q. If a man was a citizen of the United States but afterwards became a citizen of some other country than the Hawaiian Islands, he should be regarded as an alien, should he not?

A. If he has renounced his allegiance to the United States and has been naturalized in some other country than the United States or the Hawaiian Islands, he is an alien, and can become a citizen and a voter only by being naturalized again.

Q. Has the Board of Registration any power to administer oaths except the one under which a man gives testimony to the Board? Or has the Board power to administer the oath of allegiance to the United States?

A. Boards of Registration are created "for the purpose of examining applicants for registration as voters and determining their eligibility."

Section 29, App. to Civil Laws of 1897. The power to confer citizenship by naturalization is confined to the Courts, specified in Section 2105 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and the Boards have no authority to administer oaths for that purpose.

E. P. DOLE,
Attorney General.

FRUIT SAID TO CURE GOUT.
Uncooked Product of Tree and Shrubs
Finds Adherents.

While the vegetarian regards meat as a poison, the fruitarian looks with no enthusiastic eye upon the Lenten fare of the vegetarian. To him uncooked fruit is the only natural food, and, though but a small body, men do exist in this cold country who eat nothing but fruit. For a long time they have found their chief opponents in medical men, who affirm that for gouty patients fruit is dangerous, some even asserting that fruit may actually engender gout.

Now, however, a little ray of sunshine penetrates the gloom where they sit in glorious isolation cracking nuts and chewing raisins with all the sylvan simplicity of monkeys. A medical man has arisen to declare that he has frequently cured gout with grapes and oranges. Further than this, he declares that his standing advice to gouty friends is, "Eat plenty of fresh, ripe, uncooked fruit." But while the "tendency" of fruit is to get rid of gout altogether, it seems that severe gouty headaches and bilious attacks may be caused by eating it, particularly by patients who have long ago shut the tempting apple and pear from their regimen. Therefore, though the fruitarian wax bolder for this medical testimony, the gouty would be wise to take their fruit sparingly at first, and not by any means make it their one and only form of sustenance. It is, at any rate, interesting to find that medical men are beginning to look with kinder eyes on fruit, but at present it would probably be difficult to encounter two doctors agreeing over one suffering gouty person that his salvation lay in a fresh diet.—London Globe.

The Board of Health will then have the entire lower floor of the Kapuniwa building.

PORTUGUESE LABORERS COMING.

Schooner John G. North Bringing Them From the Coast. The Examiner makes a sensational story of the fact that forty Portuguese laborers were taken on board the schooner John G. North bound for Honolulu. The story states that the laborers are under the direction of John Dureo of Honolulu, who asserts that he gathered the laborers in the oil fields of Pennsylvania and is taking them to Hawaii to work on sugar plantations.

Laborers for Hawaii.

SAN JUAN, (Porto Rico), August 2. T. Alexander, the representative of the Hawaiian Planters' Association, who has been here for some time, sailed for New York yesterday. Mr. Alexander, who has traveled all over the island and persuaded many Porto Ricans to emigrate to Hawaii, said that he believes they will prove good workmen and creditable citizens of Hawaii. He left local agents with power to contract with emigrants. His plans, however, seem to be undeveloped, as transportation for those whom he has engaged has not been arranged.

News of Col. H. C. Cochrane.

Colonel Henry Clay Cochrane, commandant of the Marine Barracks at Boston, has been ordered to China to take command of the United States marine forces in that country. He will start immediately for San Francisco and will take passage on the Army transport Warren, scheduled to leave there on the 16th of August. Colonel Cochrane has a distinguished Civil War record, having been frequently praised in reports for his bravery and judgment. He is well known here having been stationed in Honolulu for a long time.

ALSEN PORTLAND CEMENT

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED a large shipment of this celebrated Cement, which is the STURDIEST AND MOST SERVICEABLE CEMENT MADE. It will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand and gravel, with less loss of strength, than any other brand; it is therefore the most economical. ALSEN has no equal in color, fineness and sand carrying capacity. It weighs less per bushel, measuring about 10 per cent more cement to a barrel than other brands, which very materially reduces its cost as compared with other cements. It is therefore an economical cement to use, and specially adapted for fine concrete work.

The following tests, made in actual work by Col. D. C. Houston, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., at the sea wall arounds; seven days, 600 pounds; thirty days, 818 pounds. One day, 384 pound Governor's Island, New York Harbor, 818 pounds.

For sidewalks it gives the best color and the most enduring wearing surface.

A few of the large contracts in which Alsen Cement was used: Cable R. R., Baltimore, 35,000 barrels; Quebec Harbor Improvement, 20,000 barrels; Northern Pacific R. R. Bridges, 20,000 barrels.

By buying these rugs before the change, a saving of about fifty per cent was effected, which our customers are to profit by, as we do not intend, for the present, to increase the price of these rugs, but to sell them, while they last, at the old prices.

Under these conditions a buyer here, now, can buy these for much less than they are sold for on the Mainland.

We have made a display of these rugs in our large central show window, where their beautiful designs and harmonious colorings are sure to attract attention.

SALE OF LEASE.

OF GOVERNMENT LOT NO. 60, ESPLANADE.

On Wednesday, September 12, 1900, at 12 o'clock noon, at the front entrance of the Capitol (Executive Building) will be sold at Public Auction the lease of Government Lot, No. 60.

Upset Rental, $450 per annum, payable quarterly in advance. Possession of this lot will be given October 1, 1900.

This sale is upon the conditions provided for in Sections 2 and 4, of Act 7, of the Laws of 1896, viz:

SECTION 1. Every such lease shall contain a covenant on the part of the lessee that he shall during the first four years of the term of the lease, cause to be erected upon the leased property a fire-proof building of brick, stone, or metal, in a workmanlike manner, satisfactory to the Superintendent at not less than two-thirds of its value, for the benefit of the lessor; and shall keep such building in good repair during the remainder of the term of the lease, reasonable use and wear thereof only excepted, and in case of damage or destruction of such building by fire shall make good such loss or damage by the necessary repairs or reconstruction, or else surrender the insurance to the lessor.

SECTION 4. Every such lease shall also contain a covenant on the part of the lessor, that upon the request in writing of the lessee or his representatives, before the expiration of the term thereof, the premises, with the improvements, shall, if all the conditions to be performed by the lessee have been satisfactory performed, be put up at auction for a lease for a term of not over twenty years, unless said premises shall be required for public use, of which the lessee shall receive at least one year's notice.
