SALARIES OF MANY MINOR PLACES ARE UP IN THE HOUSE

Registrar Thrum Comes in for Some Hot Scoring by the Members.

Clerks in His Office Specified as to Rates of Pay—Refuse to Consider Campell.

It was a day for airing a grievance in the House, and under the guise of considering the appropriation for salaries in the office of the Registrar, several members took flings at Mr. Thrum, some of them being laughed at by reason of their very absurdity.

The occasion furnished an opportunity for Speaker Beckley, from the floor, to sound the note of race and call upon all Hawaiians to stick together and wield the power which he declared they had, but which might pass from them. The only rejoinder was a very timely statement of personal privilege by Harris, who told the House that when he made up the report on the subject he had no thought of race.

There was a little flurry over the journal of the House, which has not been placed in the hands of Secretary Carter as provided by law, but as there is no penalty there is little worry, and as Judge Gear has the records in his court, and did not return them upon the request of the House, there is no telling when the organic act will be obeyed.

No public business was done in the Senate. Owing to the absence of Senators Baldwin, Wilcox, Paris, Woods, J. T. Brown and Nakapahu, it was deemed well to defer the third reading of the eighteen months' appropriation bill. Senator Achi put a settler on the president's suggestion of limiting the clerk's obedience to the subpoena of the Circuit Court, commanding production of the regular session journals, by the point of order that the Senate in extra session had nothing to do with the matter. Adjournment was taken until Tuesday. Senator Achi gave notice of a motion to ask the House to grant the Senate a vacation of one week.

IN THE HOUSE.

Speaker Beckley resumed his seat after three days' illness.

The Senate's message on House Bill No. 3, the six months current account bill, which was deferred for two days, was brought up and on motion of Kellinohi the House refused to concur in the amendments of the Senate and a conference committee of five was then ordered.

Senate Bill No. 11, making a special appropriation of $4,000 to cover the shortage in the appropriation for tax office incidentals, was read and passed a second time under suspension of rules.

UNPAID BILLS MEASURE.

The House then went into committee of the whole on Senate Bill No. 4, the unpaid bills measure. The bill as amended was read and the committee rose and recommended that the bill with the changes made pass. The report of the committee of the whole was then adopted, passing the bill a second time.

Again the House resolved into committee of the whole on the six months salary bill. Aylett reported on the pay roll, electric light, recommending that the total be increased from $4,350 to $4,590, the salary to be as follows: Superintendent, $1,200; lineman, $600; extra lineman, $420; 3 trimmers, $1,170; dynamo man, $480; assistant, $390; station man, $350.

As soon as the report was read there were motions to adopt and by Kaniho to pass as in the bill. The Kaniho motion was lost and the report was then accepted.

REGISTRAR THRUM'S DOINGS.

The committee on the Bureau of Conveyances salaries reported in favor of the passage of the item as in the bill, $4,710, saying that there should be the opportunity given for the head of the department to reward services, as men who have been longer at the work are worth more than new men. A letter from Mr. Thrum was read, showing the salaries paid.

Kumalae moved to reject the report, saying he had worked there three years, and that the head of the department did not pay his help the salaries provided by law. He said that $75 was provided for his salary yet he received only $60. He said that when he resigned a malihini was given the place at $75. He said the head of the office did not pay the salaries as provided in the law of 1901 until the grand jury made an investigation. He argued also that the only way was to bind the registrar to a list of salaries which must be paid.

HARRIS FOR PROMOTIONS.

Harris argued that it was not good business policy to make certain salaries for the various places, but rather the chief should have the power to pay the men just what they are worth, suggesting that a new man at copying was not worth so much as a skilled and capable man. Long defended the report showing why it was wise to offer opportunity to young men.

Mr. Beckley said that so long as Mr. Thrum was at the head of the office there would be no justice for the clerks. He said it was an old story of how the clerks were underpaid, the balance of their salaries kept as realizations. He said if records were kept in the salary list would run into hundreds, for the white men would not copy Hawaiian deeds. The last legislature provided specific salaries yet the Registrar did not care a snap for that. He thought the legislators were only kanakas and their opinions had no weight.

To get even with Kumalae and himself, Beckley said, Thrum discharged Nakuiua, his step father, who had really run the office for twelve years. He declared that the majority of the people were Hawaiians and so it was not drawing the color line to look out for them. He declared there was enough talent in the country to run it, and there was no necessity to bring people here and give them places. He closed by asking the Hawaiians to reject the report, saying the day would come when the white men would be capable of taking the places of the Hawaiians, but while the House had the power they should use it.

GANDALL WANTS FACTS.

Gandall said that as a Representative from Kauai, he needed full information. He said in his case if he should

NEGRO CONVICT MAKES A BREAK FOR LIBERTY

Escapes the Chain Gang But the Guards Open Fire and Bring Him Down With a Bullet Furrow Along the Top of His Head.

Grant Snow, one of the gang of burglars which terrorized the residence portion of Honolulu a few months ago, attempted to escape from the chain gang yesterday afternoon and was shot for his pains. Snow is serving a twelve years' sentence for burglary in the first degree.

Yesterday he was taken, together with thirty-six other prisoners, to work in the Makiki quarry as usual. Snow didn't appear to be meditating escape while at work during the day, and the guards were not prepared, when, upon the return to the city about four o'clock, Snow leaped the fence on the Punchbowl road and disappeared into a grape arbor. Snow entered the first yard he came to, evidently thinking that the numerous cottages in the vicinity would defer the police from shooting. The guards gave immediate chase firing as they went. One shot from a revolver in the hands of either Cockett or Morris struck Grant, and the negro gave up. He had got away about a hundred yards when struck by the bullet. The leaden missile inflicted quite a severe scalp wound ploughing furrows on the top of the head and eight or ten stitches were required to repair the damage. No one else attempted to join the burglar and it was no doubt a sudden thought on his part, the curve in the road and the many houses with their thick grape vines affording him a fine chance to hide.

Snow was one of a trio of burglars which robbed many places in Honolulu during the month of January and February last. He was found guilty of entering the home of "Russian Frank" and stealing a bottle of whiskey and twenty-five dollars in gold and was sentenced by Judge De Bolt to twelve years at hard labor. He was also indicted for the robbery of the residence of Adolph Knust, the old German who has been in the courts frequently on the charge of illicit distilling. Snow claimed that he was innocent of all the charges, but when his confederates, who had been previously convicted turned against him he had no hope, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty within a few minutes. Snow is a negro thirty-five years of age, and came here from Australia only a few months before his arrest. He is known among his pals as the "Australian Kangaroo." He claims to have a wife here. The wound received by Snow was not serious and he will probably be able to go to work again within a few days.

SPEAKER BECKLEY RUNS AFOUL OF CIRCUIT COURT

Hon. Geo. D. Gear, Judge Circuit Court, First Judicial Circuit.

Sir: I am directed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives to demand the immediate return of the minutes of the House of Representatives for the regular session of said House for the year 1903, and to inform you further that these minutes, under the rules of the House, do not constitute the journal of that session, but that the stenographer of the House, under instructions of the speaker thereof, is now engaged upon the compilation of such journal, and until said compilation has been completed and certified to by the presiding officer of the House of Representatives and the clerk thereof, respectively, the same cannot and will not be recognized by this Honorable Body as its official journal.

Very respectfully,

SOLOMON MEHEULA,
Clerk.

Approved:
F. W. BECKLEY,
Speaker.

The foregoing communication was handed up to Judge Gear in court yesterday afternoon, and he opened and read it although the House official envelope in which it was conveyed bore the address, "Hon. A. V. Gear, First Judge, etc." Having perused the missive the Judge handed it to Attorney McClanahan, who characterized it as "an impertinent communication."

Judge Gear asked Bailiff Ellis who had brought the letter and, being told it was the sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives, directed the bailiff to instruct the sergeant-at-arms to present his compliments to Mr. Beckley and inform him that when he sent a courteous message to the court it would be answered.

Upon dismissing Stenographer Thielen from the witness stand in the morning, Judge Gear asked him to give his compliments to Speaker Beckley with regrets that the business of the House should have been unavoidably delayed by the stenographer's detention in court.

HOW THE HOUSE WOULD COERCE DOLE

Gossip has it that the House will try to force the Governor to name a Superintendent of Public Works satisfactory to it by withholding appropriations for the office until the Governor shows his hand. The House wants E. C. Winston. The Governor is said to be willing to choose from three names, Marston Campbell, Eben Low and E. R. Adams. Should the Governor not send in a name, adjournment may be had until after July 1 when Supt. Cooper goes out. Then, with the Legislature in session, a nomination would have to be made. There are seven applicants for the place, including Jimmy Boyd. The Republican Territorial Committee is taking an active interest in the matter.

CRABBE READY TO TESTIFY

President Clarence Crabbe of the Senate said last evening that he had been misquoted as to his advice to Clerk Savidge of that body. He said that he advised Mr. Savidge to obey the summons of the court to testify, and that if he should be summoned, and the hour at which he was called was one when his absence from the Senate would not in any way interfere with its work, and consequently incommode fourteen other members of the body, he would feel it his duty as a citizen to appear in any court which might summon him as a witness.

WANT TO PREVENT CARTER FROM BEING GOVERNOR

Want of confidence votes promise to be resumed in the lower House. It became the property of several persons yesterday that some members of the opposition to the governor, intended to attack Secretary George R. Carter, in the matter of his prospective elevation to the post now occupied by Governor Dole, and the following resolution was dug up as the means to be employed by those who oppose him, to scotch his ambition, if he has any in that direction.

The rumor had it that the resolution was to be offered and passed yesterday, but the club session was given over almost entirely to Thrum, with a few digs at pilots and others. The session passed without incident, and the men who prepared the mine for the Secretary did not have a chance to spring it. The proposed attack is this:

WHEREAS, it is commonly reported and generally believed that the President of the United States has under consideration the appointment of George R. Carter, now Secretary of this Territory, to succeed Hon. S. B. Dole, as Governor, upon the expiration of the latter's term of office; and

WHEREAS, in order to promote the political peace and the business prosperity of the Territory, there should be appointed as Governor a man possessing an even temperament and sound judgment, and who is not an active factionist; and

WHEREAS, Secretary Carter is excitable and intolierant, and is an offensive factionist; therefore

RESOLVED: That it is the sense of this House that the appointment of Secretary George R. Carter as Governor would result in increased factional and partisan strife, and would not be acceptable to the people.

RESOLVED: That the Clerk be and is hereby directed to send a copy of this resolution to the President of the United States.

Tax Appeal Court Ruling Set Aside.

Leasehold Assessment
Declared to Be Absurd.

Estate of E. R. Newman—Divorce Trial Under New Law.
Assent to Foreclosure.

Chief Justice Frear writes the opinion of the Supreme Court, in which he is joined by Justice Galbraith, regarding the tax assessment of Lam Wo Sing. The appeal of the taxpayer is sustained so far as reduction is concerned, though the valuation fixed is upon property returned as not having value. Justice Perry concurs in part. Holmes & Stanley for taxpayer, Robertson & Wilder for assessor.

The taxpayer returned his rice plantation at Waikiki as separate items: real property in fee, consisting of many small pieces, $14,332; leasehold interests in many small pieces of land, nothing; rice, paddy, etc., $13,152; growing crops, $9000, and live stock, $630. The assessor raised nearly all the valuations to a greater or less extent. The fee simple property was raised about fifty per cent. The taxpayer acquiesced in all the increased amounts except that of the leasehold interests, which the assessor had placed at $19,621. As to that he appealed to the Tax Appeal Court, which reduced that valuation to $900, from which he appealed to the Supreme Court.

Omitting the land held in fee and about thirty acres held at will, there remained about 120 acres held under thirty-one separate leases having from about one to thirteen years to run. The court has this to say:

"The assessor in nearly every instance adopted $500 per acre as the value of the land without the lease, deducted the amount of eight times the rental as the value of the lessor's interest and assessed the balance to the lessee with, of course, absurd results. For instance, one lease of less than half an acre on which rent was paid at the rate of $40 per acre per annum and which had only ten months to run was valued at $75. That a lessor's interest cannot be valued in this arbitrary way is evident." (Six Hawaiian decisions are noted). "The assessor also considered the value of a lease that was about to expire as equal to that of one having a long term to run, because the lessee could make out of it during the year as much in the one case as in the other. This, of course, was erroneous. The tax was a property tax, not an income tax."

The court reviews the action of the Tax Appeal Court, commenting on valuations. As to one leasehold of 5.3 acres with an artesian well, it is held it must remain as assessed at $1250 because, not having been returned, there can be no appeal regarding it. It is stated that bad leases cannot be used to offset good ones, when they are returned and assessed separately. The conclusion is this:

"Without going into details we think that such of the leasehold interests as have value, including the 5.3 acres unreturned, might properly be assessed at $2000, and it is so ordered." Justice Perry says: "I concur as to the unreturned piece of land, but as to the appellant's leasehold interests in the other pieces my finding, upon the evidence, is that they have no salable or taxable value."

The syllabus of the ruling opinion establishes the following as law: "A lessee's interest cannot be arbitrarily valued for purposes of taxation by fixing the value of the land without the lease and deducting therefrom eight times the annual rental supposed to be the value of the lessor's interest."

"The value of a leasehold varies with the length of the term of the lease as well as with the income derived therefrom."

"An assessment of unreturned property is held unappealable."

SAVED HER LIFE

Mrs. Brooks Feared She Was Going Into Consumption.

Whether or not consumption can be cured, it is certain that it can be avoided. Proper treatment and plenty of sunlight will banish the first warning symptoms of this insidious disease and the following statement will be of priceless value to those who follow its advice:

"They feared I was going to have consumption," says Mrs. W. L. Brooks, of No. 453 West Main street, Meriden Conn. "I was in a wretched condition both in mind and body, completely run down and unable to attend to any of my household duties for three years."

"I was thin and pale, awfully nervous with frequent headaches, and sometimes dizzy spells came over me so that I could not stand up. There were almost continual pains in my back and limbs and all over me. The doctor called nearly every other day but I did not seem to improve and my friends were alarmed for me when my mother persuaded me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They cured me. After taking them faithfully for a while my flesh and color returned, my nerves became quiet and all my old troubles disappeared. I am strong now and in perfect health and have no more fear that I shall go into consumption. I will always recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

The pills which cured Mrs. Brooks are an unfailing specific for all diseases arising from disorders of the blood and nerves. Among the many diseases they have cured are locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions and all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, fifty cents a box; six boxes for two dollars and a half, by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Do not trust the word of a man who says he has the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills bulk. None of these famous pills ever leave the factory except in packages bearing the well-known trade-mark composed of the seven words—"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

sell the premises covered by said mortgage and prays that the court will, in ordering such sale, make such directions and give such instructions as to the time and manner of sale as will best protect the defendant's interests and secure the largest returns for said property."

Judge Robinson has made orders extending the time for perfecting appeals of defendants in the cases of Robert Fuller vs. Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Co. and E. K. Kalamakee et al. vs. Henry Wharton and Waiialua Agricultural Co.

In the matter of the estate of Edward R. Newman, deceased, H. A. Bigelow presented a petition before Judge De Bolt for the appointment of W. W. Hall as temporary administrator. The petition was granted, the bond to be $2500, and it was ordered: "That said administrator do take immediate possession and control of the property and hold the same until the appointment of a permanent administrator."

TOURIST HOTEL AT HOOPULOA

Franz Buchholtz of Hoopuloa, Hawaii, one of the most successful of modern horticulturists in the Territory, is about to start an enterprise that will be greatly prized by many tourists. At his farm, "Papa," he is about to open a hotel for the especial benefit of travelers who do not wish to take the rough sea trip from Hoopuloa to Honolulu, the Volcano port of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company. This section of water is the exception to the generally smooth voyage of the Kona route.

With hotel accommodation at Hoopuloa, the tourist may at a moderate extra expense cut across country. Besides avoiding the terror of sea-sickness he will also see a good deal more of the interior scenery than he would by staying aboard the boat.

DREIER AND HIS HOPEFUL

Lively Times Last Night for the Police.

Why Neighborhood Was All Broken Up.

Dreier, Jr., Went for Beer and Sardines and Father Chased Him With a Gun.

A rattling telephone call for help aroused the Police Station at eleven p. m. It came from up Beretania street near where August Dreier lives. It said that an insane man with a gun was terrorizing the neighborhood and the police must hurry or blood would flow. The police hurried indeed and when they got there they found August Dreier, nearly spent of breath and with a huge revolver in his hand chasing his hopeful son around the block. From the Dreier house a shrill feminine voice shouted "Owgooste, Owgooste!" In the street was a hack in which the driver and a native girl were laughing uproariously.

Officer McDuffie headed August off and caught the boy, who was taken to the station where he told his story. "I sent for a hack," he said, "so I could take a ride with a girl I knew. We drove up near my house and I got out to get the girl something to eat and drink. I slid into the house by the back way and copped a bottle of beer and a can of sardines. I also took along a can-opener. The old lady heard the hack stop in front of the house I guess. Anyhow she looked out and got next. Then she woke up the old man and he got his gun and came out in his pajamas. I had nothing but the can-opener and it was in my pistol pocket. When the old man played up with his gun I drew the can-opener on him, thrust it in his face and said 'Ps-s-t!' He jumped four feet backwards and five feet sideways all at once and then came for me with a warwhoop. I ran and dodged all over the place but he kept after me shouting: 'Vat iss! Vat iss!' You know the old man is pretty stocky and I didn't think he could run so well. I made up my mind that if I ever got out alive I would enter him for the 11th of June races."

The police questioned young Dreier closely and concluded to let him go if he would promise not to go home that night. The young man demurred. He said he wanted bondsmen and mentioned Judge Humphreys as his next friend. But the police wouldn't call the Judge and the young man finally left, not forgetting before he went to call for his hack again.

WAR BULLETIN NO. 1.
At one o'clock this morning August Dreier, driven by a servant, arrived in his carriage at the Police Station. The junior Dreier had been home and stirred things up again. "I was mine bed in," said Mr. Dreier, "ven in my ear a shaking of the window came. I looked and saw dot worthless poy pointing somedings at my het and saying, 'Sharley Shillingsworth, Sharley Shillingsworth come here ven I shoot him at.' You was come mit me and arrest both dot poy and Sharley Shillingsworth."

It appears that the hopeful son had gone home, found his father reading in bed and after shaking the window to attract his attention, had pointed the can-opener at him and threatened to shoot. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth was, of course, nowhere near but Dreier, Jr., made out that he was and brought the old gentleman down town in a high rage at the officer who could abet his son in crime.

On the whole it was a great night.

EWA'S SALOON QUOTA IS FULL

"The judicial district of Ewa includes Waianae. There are already three wine and beer licenses in this district. Therefore a fourth cannot be opened."
With these words on the margin signed by Governor Dole, the application of William A. Fernandez for a light wine and beer license at Aiea is denied.

Treasurer Kepoikai had advised its denial for the reason given by the Governor, although the attached petition was signed by 37 Ewa people and approved by High Sheriff Brown and Deputy Sheriff John Fernandez, the applicant's uncle.
Mariano J. Borges has petitioned for a light wine and beer license at Kamehameha IV. road and King street, Kalihi.

seek work there he would not accept a place unless the salary was sufficient. Some one had said the clerks got a raise when they struck. He thought then it would be best to appropriate a lump sum, then all the clerks should strike immediately and together and have their wages raised in a rush. Gandall had the floor when the committee rose.

The Speaker announced that the conference committee on the expense bill would be appointed on Tuesday, to which day the Senate had adjourned. The House then went into recess.

WANT THE RECORDS BACK.
Upon reassembling Speaker Beckley said that it had come to his knowledge that the minutes of the regular session of the House had been called for by the courts. The minutes as submitted were not the journal of the House. If these minutes were not returned promptly then the journal could not be completed and turned over to the Secretary in accordance with law. The stenographer had a great deal of work to do, he said, and the minutes were necessary. He therefore directed the clerk to communicate with the courts and see if it was not possible to secure the minutes.

In committee Gandall resumed and when informed as to the course of Thrum in drawing the pay and then apportioning it he deprecated the course, but still thought there should be some differentiation of clerks.

HARRIS DISCLAIMS PREJUDICE.
Harris rose to a question of personal privilege saying that as a member of the House and of the committee the question as to who was employed there did not enter. He said that during his membership in the House he did not think he had acted or spoken in any way which would indicate feeling as between Hawaiian and haoles. He said he came into the House representing Hawaiians as well as haoles and had striven to be fair throughout. He declared his best friends were Hawaiians and that the report made would have been the same had the employees been haoles.

Vida argued against the lump sum and wanted the matter sent back to the committee to have salaries specified. Long and Harris opposed this and Kumalae declared that there was no such officer as examiner employed. He said he favored rejecting the report of the committee and he was ready to submit a list of clerks with the proper salaries which they should receive.

KUMALAE HAS A PLAN.
The report was rejected and Kumalae then submitted his list of employees for the office as follows: Five copyists, one at $90, two at $75 and two at $60; indexer, $110; book clerk, $50; four extra clerks at $60, a total of $4,550 for the half year.
In support of his plan he spoke at length saying there was no such officer as examiner; that Thrum works only three hours a day; that there are many errors because of Thrum's failure to do his work. Keliinoi said there seemed to be a grudge against the head of the office, and he thought the proper thing was to demand his resignation or if this could not be had then there should be no appropriation for registrar. Kumalae's amendment was adopted.

FEW FIGURES RAISED.
Kalama wanted to increase the salary of the Walluku and Kahulu water works from $450 to $600, but the House would not and went on passing items as in the bill until the park items came, when Fall wanted to know how many people were employed at Thomas and Emma Squares, and wanted a committee to investigate, and then wanted the salaries specified, one man at Emma and three at Thomas Square, $40 each, to which the House agreed, the total being that in the bill, $950.

On the question of public building guards, two men at $50 a month each, Aylett wanted $80 for each of the four guards which carried. Long moved to increase the salary of the mausoleum guards from $250 to $450. He said that the difference between the amount in the bill and that he asked was paid by the Kapuni Estates and if the people had any love for their allies they should provide for proper care of their resting place.

When the Fire Department was reached Kupihua wanted a special committee but Harris said he would submit the estimate of the chief engineer and move the item pass. The item was referred to the Oahu members. The Hilo item passed as in the bill, but the Walluku item was referred to the Maui men.

FIGHT OVER PILOTS.
On the item "Salary of four pilots, $6,500," Kumalae made a characteristic speech devoting most of it to the ills of the boat boys. He suggested that $300 was the old salary and seemed sufficient. Harris in response said the great ships coming here were valuable and to handle them involved the greatest responsibility, and if there was danger through cheap men, the insurance rates would go up and the big ships would not come.

Vida moved to reduce the amount to $5,400, saying the Fearless had reduced the amount of work to be done. The amendment was carried. The Hilo pilot was then cut from $1,200 to $1,000. The Kahulu pilot was next up and a motion to cut from $1,200 to $1,000 brought up the Maui men and there was a hot fight by the men who were ready enough to cut down the Honolulu pilots, to keep up their own man's salary. But the House by the close vote of thirteen to twelve cut down the salary to the $1,000 figure.

PILOT FOR MAHUKONA.
Pulaa proposed $150 for a pilot at Mahukona, saying a pilot is now working there for $25 a month to bring in vessels. After a struggle the item was voted into the bill by thirteen to twelve.
Harris moved to reconsider Item 174, the salary of the Assistant Superintendent of Public Works, and then the storm broke. Vida moved the committee rise and Harris made a hot fight, as that was his last chance to secure a reconsideration. The chair held the motion that the committee rise was privileged and the struggle was hot, but the chair could not be changed.

The committee rose and the House adjourned.

IN THE SENATE.
A communication from the House of Representatives, in reply to an inquiry as to its action on House bill No. 3, stated that action had been deferred until that day.

Third reading of the departmental appropriation bill for eighteen months beginning January 1, 1904, was the special order of the day.

Senator Dickey said it would save a day to the House to have the bill passed and sent down promptly.
Senator McCandless thought, as many members were absent, such an important bill should not be rushed. He moved the Senate adjourn until Tuesday.

THE COURT TROUBLE.
President Crabbe asked the mover to wait, as he had a statement to make. The previous day their clerk was summoned to the court with an order to bring the journals. He ordered the clerk not to take any papers over without consent of himself or the Senate, but the clerk was threatened with contempt proceedings and, fearing he might have to go to jail over night, produced the papers in court. The court wanted all of the journals, but it was impossible to furnish them. They were scattered about between clerk, printer, proofreader, etc. He suggested that the clerk be allowed to produce in court the journal for any particular day required. It appeared they wanted all reports and proceedings bearing on the case. They were fighting the County Act.

Senator Dickey held that the journals of the regular session were out of their hands entirely. The clerk under a subpoena of court would have to produce them. To the suggestion of Senator McCandless, that the journals were in the hands of the president, he answered: "They are in the hands of the president and other officers of the regular session. We have nothing to do with the matter."

SEEMING PREDICAMENT.
Senator McCandless deprecated having the journals tied up as evidence in court, when the law required them to be in the hands of the Secretary of the Territory within thirty days of the close of the regular session.
"No," the president explained; "the clerk can take them right back." He went on to say that the journals were not complete, the copies having not yet been compared.

ORGANIC ACT VIOLATED.
Senator Achi contended that the Senate had nothing to say about it. The journals were in the hands of the president and clerk, who had possession of them. Not only that, but he claimed that the president and clerk, by not hurrying up, had caused the Organic Act to be violated.

Senator Cecil Brown—"What is the penalty?"
Senator Achi—"I do not say there is a penalty, but it is a command that the journal shall be in the hands of the Secretary of the Territory within thirty days. I would advise the president not to disobey the order of the court. We are not called here for this purpose, but to pass appropriation bills. I raise the point of order that any talk about the journals of the regular session is out of order."

SETTLED WEATHER.
A calm that could have been sliced with a cake knife ensued.
Senator McCandless broke the stillness by moving that the third reading of Senate bill No. 9 be deferred.

until Tuesday next. When Senator Dickey asked why not Monday, the mover with a laugh harking back to the point of order said the clerk was ordered to appear in court on Monday. The motion carried.

WANTS A VACATION.
Senator Achi desired to move that the House be requested to allow the Senate to take a vacation of one week after passing the pending bill. There was no use in meeting day after day, waiting for business from the House.
Senator Cecil Brown—"Where do you want to go, to Kona?"
Senator Achi—"I want to do some work." He deferred his motion until Tuesday.
At 10:30 the Senate adjourned till 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

STUNG.
Playing with bee-hives is a very harmless pastime provided there are no bees hanging around. But add a little collection of variegated stings to the bee-hive halo and things begin to get busy. Apropos to this there is a story about a man who thought he knew all about the general market and could place a value on anything from a vat of soft soap to a collection of poetic effusions. Yet he was biased against certain things and gave as his reason for their, to him, worthlessness simply that they were "no good." He tickled the market's ribs and got stung. Next time he will do different. He'll go to Bath, the plumber, and get a Douglas Patent Closet.

A little boy in his night dress was on his knees, saying his prayers, and his little sister could not resist the temptation to tickle the soles of his feet. He stood it as long as he could, and then said: "Please, God, excuse me while I knock the stuffin' out of Nellie."

WHY MOTHERS WORRY

Did you ever hear a mother worry over a plump child? There is no better bank of health for a child to draw from than a good supply of healthy flesh.

Scott's Emulsion not only gives a child weight and plumpness, but it feeds the brain, bones and nerves with strength and active power. Fewer mothers would worry if they knew more about Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion is substituted by cheap emulsions and so-called wines, cordials and extracts of cod-liver oil. They can do you no good and are dear at any price. Why buy them? Scott's Emulsion has been the one reliable preparation of cod-liver oil for nearly thirty years.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

WALTER G. SMITH - - EDITOR.

AN ACTIVE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Editor Advertiser: I note your criticisms of the Chamber of Commerce, etc. If it is a fair question: What constitutes "an active Chamber of Commerce?"

1. An active Chamber of Commerce would give every desirable citizen of Honolulu and Hawaii a chance to become a member at a specified fee per month.

2. The money would be used to establish an exhibit and literary bureau, under charge of a paid superintendent; and as much money as could be collected besides and got from the Legislature, would be used for special public purposes.

3. The Chamber would have active committees, whose business it would be to build up Honolulu; a committee on legislation to prepare and press bills of public interest; a committee on entertainment to see that no distinguished man or capitalist came here without having a chance to see the best Hawaii has to offer; a committee on commerce to look after ocean carrying rates and offer inducements to new steamship lines, and to act when there is a chance to get transports to stop here or to keep them from avoiding the place; a committee on settlers to look after lands and occupants for them, and to take an interest in an annual agricultural fair; and finally a committee on tourists to see that Hawaii gets its share of pleasure and health-seekers.

The Honolulu Chamber of Commerce has an active committee on legislation and a more or less active committee on commerce, though it cannot be said that the latter sees all of its opportunities. But none of the other committees named exist or if they do they are backward about coming forward.

PHASES OF FARMING.

An evening paper prints a letter which begins as follows:

Editor Evening Bulletin:—The writer of a recent editorial in the Advertiser which opines "that the fine old Spanish Hidalgo was not a believer in the profits of agriculture in California," etc., is telling more than he knows, and in the telling has strayed far afield from his Bancroft.

The Bulletin's correspondent does not recall the difference between the Spanish Hidalgo and the Mission priest. The Hidalgo was a stockraiser; the priest, in somewhat the spirit of the Carthusian monks, did something with small fruits, wine and even grain, using the Indian neophytes as slaves to till the soil. But the cultivated oases were small and unimportant; the greater part of California was a range for wild cattle, which cattle, periodically, were rounded up and stripped, their hides being sold to Boston firms.

When this state of things was changed, as it had to be to enable California to support a large mining population and the cities which mining built, the thing was done by the small farmer. He fought the stockmen, he secured the enactment of a fence law, he bought and cultivated the arable spots close to lines of travel and he finally made the State what it is. He had every discouragement save one. He had aridity, drought, coyotes, snakes, rabbits, gophers, cutworms, sand storms, dishonest commission men and high freight rates to contend with but one pest he escaped—the presence of people of his own vocation who, having made money by farming wrote letters to the press to discourage other farmers from coming into the State lest they should make money too and, perhaps, in the long run, lower prices.

Now that the Manchurian crisis is getting towards the deadlock stage, Admiral Evans is turning up in Chinese waters with his squadron. This is thought to be "significant," but the probability is that Fighting Bob merely means to look on if the Russians and Japs get to fighting and see whether they do things in the true Santiago style.

Probably a "vote of want of confidence" from a body which has the record of the Hawaiian House of Representatives, would not only make Secretary Carter the next Governor but get him a letter of congratulation from the President.

According to Kumalae it's a waste of other men's time to put them on committees. He has the whole government business down fine, and is intolerant of any opinion other than that which is born in his own liver.

It really seemed to hurt the Maui men when after cheerfully reducing salaries on other islands, they found a majority against keeping up their own little budget.

THE LAW THAT DROVE E. R. NEWMAN TO HIS DEATH.

The Legislature passed a bill, that became a law on April 28th last, which E. R. Newman charged, a few days before his death, was drawn for the express purpose of "doing him up;" in other words, of keeping him out of the drug business in Honolulu. Whatever its object, it certainly has succeeded in accomplishing that purpose. The law is Act 70, entitled "An Act to regulate the Practice of Pharmacy and the Selling, Compounding and Dispensing of Drugs, Chemicals and Poisons in the Territory of Hawaii."

On the face of the act it is innocent enough, but an examination of its provisions shows that purposely or by chance it barred Mr. Newman from practicing his profession in this Territory. Mr. Newman was an expert pharmacist. He was a university man; had served his apprenticeship with a druggist in New York; was a duly licensed pharmacist under the laws of New York; had owned and managed a drug store in Honolulu for years. He was acknowledged to be a master of his profession. And yet in spite of all this, so cunningly, or curiously as the case may be, was this law drawn that Newman was barred from again practicing his profession here.

The way it was accomplished was as follows: First, the law provides that a man cannot act as a pharmacist or even "conduct or manage" a drug store in Hawaii, unless he obtains a license as a pharmacist from the Treasurer.

Second, it provides that the Treasurer cannot issue such license unless the applicant is recommended by a Board of Pharmacy.

Third, it provides that the Board cannot recommend the applicant unless he passes a satisfactory examination AND is a graduate of a school of pharmacy.

The applicant may be the leading pharmacist of his generation, and yet if he did not acquire his special knowledge inside of college walls, he may practice his profession elsewhere or he may starve, but he can not sell ten cents' worth of quinine in Honolulu without making himself liable to the criminal law. Newman was a good druggist. He could pass any required examination; but he had learned his profession by practical work in a pharmacy and not in a college. Therefore he could not get a license in Hawaii.

Surely this drastic law can not have been intended to apply to those who have proved their ability as pharmacists! Certainly not! Hawaii takes care of her own. Every pharmacist and drug store manager in Hawaii is taken care of by the law; but again, cunningly or curiously, but none the less surely, was Newman barred out.

The law provides that any person who has had experience as a pharmacist or drug store manager in the Territory, for two years, shall be entitled to a license "without examination or recommendation by the Board." This smacks of fairness, but there is a rider on the provision to the effect that the two years must have been "immediately prior to the approval of this act!"

Again, by a remarkable coincidence, Newman, although he had practiced his profession in Hawaii for much more than two years, happened not to have been located on the sacred soil of Honolulu during all of the two years "immediately prior to the approval of this act." He had been here only a beggarly five months of that period, having been on the mainland during the remainder of the time. Consequently he could not claim the privilege freely extended to all the other druggists of Hawaii.

It is customary in laws of this character, to recognize and license those who have been examined and licensed by responsible authorities of other States.

Hawaii is not behind in all the adjuncts of civilization, and accordingly we find this provision in the new pharmacy law; but again Newman was left beyond the outer walls by the addition of a provision that this exception should not apply UNLESS "such State or Territory accord similar recognition to the licentiates of this Territory."

It just so happens that no State or Territory possesses a law specifically recognizing the pharmacy licenses issued by Hawaii. Therefore, so far as Newman was concerned, this exception could do him no good until he could get the State of New York to pass a special law recognizing holders of Hawaiian pharmacy licenses. As Newman had limited means, a store leased, a stock of goods on hand with which to open business and a wife and two children to support, this opening was sealed to him, and the fact that he had been licensed by the New York Board of Pharmacy and practiced his profession under that license for years, gave him no more standing here than if he had been a Hottentot medicine man.

Financial trouble, to a limited extent, added to Newman's worry, but what drove him to distraction and turned his brain till he was no longer responsible for his actions, was the grinding sense of injustice, and his feeling of utter helplessness when, being able to work and willing to work, with all his little capital invested and ready to open business, he found that he had been craftily tied hand and foot.

The foregoing was written for publication in yesterday's Advertiser. Before the paper went to press Mr. George W. Smith said to a representative of this paper that there was absolutely nothing in the statement that the pharmacy law was intended to bar Mr. Newman out, or that it did bar him out. That he, Smith, was responsible for the drawing of the law, that it was a copy of the New York statute, and was the same as a bill that was introduced in the Hawaiian legislature but failed of passage in 1898.

Recognizing that if these statements were true, they would materially affect the charge made by Mr. Newman that the act was aimed particularly at him, although not affecting the fairness of the act in itself, the publication of the article was withheld until Mr. Smith's statements as to the origin of the act could be investigated.

THEY WERE INVESTIGATED YESTERDAY AND BOTH STATEMENTS WERE FOUND TO BE INCORRECT.

The laws of New York of 1900, section 194, require three things of an applicant for a full pharmacy license. (1) That he shall have had five years' experience as a druggist, two of which shall be within five years prior to the application; (2) That he pay a fee of $5; (3) That he pass an examination satisfactory to the board.

There is no requirement in the New York law that the applicant shall be a graduate of a college of pharmacy.

In order to make assurance doubly sure, the laws of many other States were examined. In not one of them was graduation from a college of pharmacy made a requisite. In practically all of them, graduation from such a college entitles the graduate to a license without examination. IN ALL OF THEM, an examination "satisfactory to the board," also entitles the applicant to a license.

The bill introduced in the Hawaiian Legislature in 1898 is drafted on the same lines. It entitles applicants to a license who "shall have passed an examination before the board of pharmacy, OR who shall present satisfactory credentials of their attainments to the said board." It does not contain the requirement that the applicant shall be a graduate of a college of pharmacy or either of the other two provisions that have since been added to the law and which barred Newman out of Hawaii.

COL. FITCH GOING TO TONOPAH MINES

On Tuesday's steamer Col. Thomas Fitch will leave Hawaii to settle elsewhere. He and Mrs. Fitch are dismantling their rooms at the Moana Hotel and the Colonel is packing up his law library. They are bound for Tonopah, Nevada, the newest, liveliest and most promising of all mining camps.

Tonopah bids fair to beat the Comstock. Under a vast cap of lava, forty feet thick, a tenderfoot found pay ore. Prospects all over the region developed sudden riches. Since the opening of spring 5000 people have settled in Tonopah, the place has electric lights, will soon have a railroad and will need Tom. And so the most picturesque of Honolulu's boom acquisitions, the genial, story-telling, inimitable man of the silver tongue will go. Those who know him best can spare him least. "I tell you," said the Colonel yesterday, "the mining fever is in my blood. I can't hear of a new camp without my pulses responding. So I'm going home. I want to be where every other man will give me a whack on the back and say: 'Come along, you d-d old rascal!' Here things are too decorous. You have all the virtues and none of the mitigating vices of the sewing society."

The Colonel will return in September to try some cases for which he has had retainers, but after that Honolulu will be only a solemn memory to him.

Parson Johnson—"Ah wish de mudders ob dis congregation would bring dey babies to church wif dem. Nevah mind how young dey am, Jess bring 'em erlong. If dey too young to appreciate de significance ob de service, dey can, at least, 'an' keep de dragons awake!"—Puck.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic.

"I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." EDGEE FORBES, Lebanon, Kan.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens mucous membranes and builds up the whole system.

BEFORE WE CAN use them, iron and gold must first be got out of the ore. The same principle applies to cod liver oil. Its virtues are not in its fatty matters; much less in its sickening taste and smell. No consumptive, or sufferer from any other wasting disease, was ever greatly benefited by the so-called "plain" cod liver oil. The shock it gives to the nerves, the repulsion and disgust it excites in the stomach, the outrages it commits upon the senses of smell and taste, are enough to spoil any medicinal potency that may be in it for the majority of people. This—to say nothing about its being indigestible. Yet there has always been reason to believe that, among the elements which form cod liver oil, there existed curative properties of the highest value. But it was necessary to separate them from the nauseating waste material with which they were combined. This was successfully accomplished in WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION and in this effective remedy, made palatable as honey, we have the very heart and soul of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. These constitute a tissue builder, a blood purifier, a health renewer beyond comparison. Disease yields to it with a completeness and rapidity which astonishes medical men quite as much as it delights their patients. In all wasting conditions, Scrofula and Blood Disorders, La Grippe, Chronic Bronchitis, Pulmonary Affections, etc., it never fails to relieve and cure. Dr. Louis W. Bishop says: "I take pleasure in saying I have found it a most efficient preparation, embodying all of the medicinal properties of a pure cod liver oil, in a most palatable form." It stands in the front rank in the march of medicine. Effective from the first dose. Sold by all chemists here.

She can carry 10,300 tons on a draft of twenty-two feet eight inches, in classed by Bureau Veritas, and will steam ten and a half knots an hour. She has fourteen masts, twelve hatches, twenty-four derricks, twelve double-ended winches, enabling her to discharge the whole of her 10,300 tons in thirty hours. Her engines are placed aft, so that she may coal while discharging. This steamer has been built by Messrs. W. Doxford and Sons, Limited, Sunderland, and is for Messrs. W. H. Muller & Co., for their ore trade between the Baltic and Rotterdam. She had her trial trip on April 25.

ARCHER WAS THREE DAYS OFF OAHU

The barkentine Archer, Captain Calhoun, arrived yesterday afternoon, fifteen days from San Francisco and was docked at the new Bishop wharf. The Archer had very light northwest and northeast winds ever since she left the coast. She sighted Molokai and Oahu three days ago and for seventy-two hours has been unable to get into port. The Archer brought a general cargo of merchandise. She sighted neither steamer or sailing vessel on her way down.

WORK BEGINS ON OCEANIC WHARF

Contractor De Fries put a force of men to work tearing down the old Oceanic wharf yesterday. The electric wiring has already been removed and yesterday workmen began dismantling the corrugated iron roof. All the piling and lumber needed in reconstructing the wharf is at hand and there will be no delay in pushing the contract to completion.

W. G. Hall Brings Koa.
The island steamers, W. G. Hall from Kona, and the Nihaia from Honouliuli arrived yesterday morning. The Hall had in its cargo two fine pieces of koa wood which Walter Wall obtained near Napoohoo. The log from which two pieces were cut was originally twelve feet long and thirty-three inches square, but this was more than the steamer could handle and it was cut in two. One of the pieces weighs 3700 pounds, the other 3110 pounds. Mr. Wall intends to use the wood in the construction of a piano.

A CITIZEN'S STORY

Told by a Honolulu Citizen for the Benefit of Honolulu People.

The greatest importance attached to the following is that it concerns a Honolulu citizen. It would lose three-quarters of its interest if it involved some resident of Kalamazoo, Mich., or Woonsocket, R. I. Like all the testimony which has appeared here, and like all which will follow about the Old Quaker remedy, Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, it comes from residents, fellow citizens and neighbors. No other remedy can show such a record of home cures. Read this case:
Mrs. Emma Vieira, of King street, this city, says: "For three or four years I had the misfortune to be afflicted with an aching back. The pain and discomfort this entailed on me can be better imagined than described. I have two children, and it was of course difficult for me to attend to them while oppressed with suffering. The way in which I found relief eventually was by using Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, procured at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. They did me a large amount of good, as I now testify. I should certainly recommend those who have backache or any other form of kidney trouble to try Doan's Backache Kidney Pills."
Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box (six boxes $2.50). Mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
Remember the name Doan's, and take no other.

MAY GET NEW STEAMSHIP LINE

A brief cablegram received in the Advertiser news dispatches a few days ago told of the probable establishment of a new steamship line, which it was said intended to make Honolulu a port of call. The head of the new company is R. A. Alley of Tacoma and he is now in Australia. The following story published in an Australian paper would indicate that Honolulu is to get the go-by.

"Mr. R. A. Alley, the principal of the firm of Messrs. R. A. Alley and Co., Australian and Puget Sound chartering and shipping agents, of Tacoma, Washington, U. S. A., arrived at Sydney from Wellington (N. Z.) yesterday by the steamship Victoria for the purpose of completing arrangements for the establishment of a new line of cargo steamships to trade between Canada and New Zealand via Australian ports. Mr. Alley has spent several weeks in New Zealand, and has visited all the principal ports there. Four steamships have already been secured to inaugurate the new service. Two of these vessels, the tonnages of which are 5379 and 5387 gross register and 5498 and 5473 net respectively, are quite new, having been launched but a few months ago. All the steamers to be employed in the trade are modern cargo-carriers of great capacity. The service is intended to be purely a cargo one, and no provision whatever will be made for passengers. Speed will not therefore, be the first object to be aimed at, but all the steamers are capable of maintaining an average rate of 11 knots per hour.

The headquarters of the proposed service will be Vancouver, but calls will also be made at Tacoma and Seattle to pick up cargo for Australia and New Zealand. The firm of Messrs. R. A. Alley and Co. has already completed arrangements by which the service will connect with the Great Northern and Northern Pacific arterial lines of railway. This will provide for communication with about five millions of people in some of the most important States of America, and will place Australia and New Zealand within easy reach of an enormous market. The founders of the line are confident that there will be ample freight, both inward and outward, to ensure the success of the new service. From his investigations, conducted in various ports of New Zealand, Mr. Alley is of opinion that an excellent trade can be opened up in wool, kauri gum, hemp, frozen mutton, butter and tallow.
"Mr. Alley will remain in Sydney for some time and will probably visit the other capitals, the object of his visit being to make inquiries which will enable him to select the Australian ports to be called at by the steamers. It may be mentioned that British vessels will be exclusively employed."

Shipping Notes.
The Alden Besse sailed for San Francisco yesterday with a cargo of sugar. The steamship Aorangi is expected to arrive this morning from Vancouver and Victoria.
The Oceanic steamers will use the new Hackfeld wharf while the old wharf is being rebuilt.
Members of the Hawaii Yacht Club are planning a trip to the Peninsula today in their yachts, provided the weather is all right. The club gives a dance tonight at the club house.

FRIENDS OF YOUTH HOLD A MEETING

The last monthly meeting of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association before the vacation was held yesterday at the rooms of the Y. W. C. A., Mrs. C. M. Hyde the president presiding. After the opening prayer and the secretary's report, the treasurer reported as follows: Received $1477.69 disbursed $799.75, on hand in the Savings Bank $350.00 and in cash $327.85. Mrs. S. M. Damon, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, reported several generous donations during the month from visitors and also from the plays given at the Schaefer home. There is no form of charitable work which is done in these islands that appeals more to the hearts of the people at home and tourists than this beautiful work among the children of all nationalities who play in our streets.

The reports from each school were then given. Chicken pox has been prevalent in some of the schools and lessened the attendance during the past month. There have also been some cases of the dengue and whooping cough. A very successful Mother's meeting was held at the Kawaiahaeo Kindergarten at which thirty mothers were present. They were Portuguese, Hawaiian and Japanese. Mrs. Thompson gave them a very valuable talk on the care of children which was fully understood and appreciated by most of the women present.

The secretary was instructed to send a hearty vote of thanks to Capt. Berger and the band for the concerts given the children of kindergartens. Nothing during the year is more enjoyed by the children than these band concerts. A letter of thanks was also sent to Miss Cross of the Castle Kindergarten for her instruction in physical culture to the kindergarten assistants.

The directors and assistants of the kindergartens give an entertainment to the patrons of the Association this evening in the Kawaiahaeo Kindergarten. A pleasant time is anticipated. There was no report from the Ways and Means Committee of the Castle Home, but the treasurer reported great shortage of funds. There is not sufficient money to meet the expenses of the coming month.
This fact should appeal to the community for the Castle Home is doing for unfortunate children what Christian homes are doing for their fortunate brothers and sisters, training them up to be good and useful citizens of this territory. Requisite funds should not be lacking for this worthy institution. Two new children were admitted to the Home.
The Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association was called upon at this meeting to accept the resignation of its president, Mrs. C. M. Hyde, who has held the office since the organization of this Association. There was a very general expression of regret at this necessary action, and also of appreciation of the faithful, wise and efficient leadership of Mrs. Hyde. A large share of the success of the Association is due directly to her. The wisdom, tact and breadth of view with which she has met and solved the problems of the growing work have been notable and her place will be difficult to fill. The Association wishes her Godspeed wherever her duty may lead her.

ONE JAILED TO SAVE TWENTY

Chinaman Grinned As He Got Sent Up.

The Gambling Fraternity Made Him "Forget" First Oath.

Swore One Way Previously But Laughingly Changed His Mind Yesterday.

Chu Hung went to jail for perjury yesterday rather than see twenty of his countrymen go to the same place for gambling. Of course it is barely possible that the Chinese had some other inducement which made him seek the retirement of a cell, though it wasn't apparent at the trial of the twenty Chinese whom Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth caught in the raid in Chinatown a few nights ago. Chu Hung took his honors lightly and grinned as he was ordered into confinement, while his countrymen marched from the court room. Those who watched, might have seen glances of understanding pass between the men who had exchanged places before the bar of justice.

Chu Hung was engaged by the Sheriff to get evidence of a gambling game. He had no difficulty in finding the particular game which was being watched, in full progress, and the whole crowd was arrested, when it was raided. Chu Hung agreed to swear to the information charging the defendants with being present at a gambling game, and was taken before Judge Wilcox for that purpose.

There the contents of the complaint were carefully explained to him and he was asked also as to his understanding of the nature of the oath The Chinese knew all about it, and was willing to swear that he had seen the game in progress. His statements were carefully noted and then after reading the complaint Chu Hung swore that it was correct and affixed his name. That was where he made a grievous error. It is not a bit unusual for Chinese to agree to testify against their countrymen with the hope of escaping themselves, but it is unusual for one to go so far as to swear to a complaint. Chillingworth also had another Chinese who was willing to testify that he had been a witness of the gambling game. When he went on the stand, though, his memory was a total blank. He had never seen the defendants play; the game had stopped before they had entered.

Then Chu Hung told the same story. Chillingworth asked him if he hadn't signed the complaint detailing a very definite state of affairs. The witness admitted that he had. Then the Sheriff asked him if he was telling the truth in the complaint or on the witness stand.

The witness said he happened to be telling the truth at the moment, he hadn't really seen the defendant's engaged in gambling. Chillingworth wanted to know then if it made any difference to him what he said when under oath. The witness said it don't, one story was as good as another. Yes, he understood what an oath was, it meant the truth. About that time the deputy thought he had heard enough. Turning to Judge Wilcox he said "Your honor, you heard this man's statement today, and also when he swore to the complaint. I don't think anything further is necessary and I ask that he be committed for perjury without further action."

"You swore to a warrant charging these men with being present at a gambling game," said Judge Wilcox to the witness, "today you come into court and swear that they were not at a gambling game, that all the gamblers had gone. I think I will have to commit you for perjury."

Chu Hung laughed and started to walk away. Then he was placed under arrest. Sheriff Chillingworth said that he intended to prosecute the man to the end. As soon as he had a witness in a gambling case, some influences were put to work to make him forget all about his testimony, and he intended to make a lesson of this man, who fortunately had made a sworn statement in signing the complaint.

OTHER POLICE COURT ITEMS.
Two native boys who made insulting remarks to a Hawaiian girl on River street were released by the court after a severe reprimand. The woman was in court and Judge Wilcox compelled the boys to make a public apology.
Judge Wilcox committed three insane persons to the asylum yesterday. Two were women a Portuguese and a native, and the third was a Chinaman whose mind had been affected by business reverses.

W. R. Sims was before Judge Wilcox yesterday on the charge of stealing two photographs of his wife, from his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary A. S. Rose. The case was continued until Monday.

The County Act Case.
It was mostly forensic proceedings in the County Act mandamus case yesterday. There was a contest in the morning over the admission of evidence from H. P. Thiele, stenographer of the House of Representatives. It was admitted under exceptions noted by Attorney-General Andrews. The most of the morning was taken up by the argument of Mr. McClanahan.

Cools the Blood

Hot weather takes the life out of everybody. You become languid, debilitated, nervous, depressed. You lose your appetite and you have indigestion. Your blood becomes impure, your head aches, your nerves are weak, and you are tired all the time. You want something to purify your blood and make it cool and healthy.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitations of Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's. Ayer's Pills are Liver Pills. They cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, nausea, and all liver troubles.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY. THERAPION. This successful remedy, used in the Continental Hospitals by Broussais, Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the elements to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed. THERAPION No. 1 maintains its well-known and well-merited reputation for its management of the kidneys, pains in the back, and kindred ailments, affording prompt relief where other well-tried remedies have been powerless. THERAPION No. 2 for impurity of the blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swelling of joints, gout, rheumatism, & all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla &c., to the destruction of purifier's teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates all poisonous matter from the body. THERAPION No. 3 for exhaustion, sleeplessness, and all distressing consequences of dissipation, worry, overwork, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigor to those suffering from the enervating influence of long residence in hot, unhealthy climates. THERAPION is sold by the principal Chemists and Druggists throughout the world. Price in England, 2s. 6d. and 4s. 6d. in order to state which of the three numbers is required, and observe that the word "Therapion" appears on the British Government Stamp (a white letter on a red ground) affixed to every genuine package, by order of His Majesty's Home Commissioner, and without which it is a forgery.

SPORTS OF THE DAY

BASEBALL FOR BLOOD

Two Games With Best Teams Out.
 1:30 O'CLOCK.
 Punahou-Forbes, rf.; Babbitt, p.; Tucker, cf.; Hemenway, c.; Lishman, ss.; Steere, 2b.; Woods, 1b.; J. Marcellino, lf.; A. Marcellino, Campbell, 3b.
 Kamehameha-J. Kekuewa, 1b.; Sheldon, ss.; Lemon, 3b.; Vannatta, 2b.; Reuter, p.; D. Kekuewa, c.; Jones, rf.; Cockett, cf.; Richards, lf.
 3:30 O'CLOCK.
 H. A. C.-Ensuie, ss.; Gleason, 1b.; Louis, 2b.; Williams, 3b.; Kaanol, rf.; Leslie, c.; Joy, p.; Aylett, cf.; Hanesman, lf.
 Maile-Fernandez, 3b.; Kiwa, lf.; Woods, Wilbur, rf.; Kiley, c.; Anderson, cf.; Akau, 1b.; Smith, 2b.; Jones, ss.; Clark, Rodgers, p.
 It will be out for blood this afternoon at the Punahou campus, and the prospect is that the closing of the season on the college grounds will be in a blaze of glory. The teams are in fair shape, the Mailes alone showing a somewhat broken front. The Honolulu are putting in a batting team and the Kamehamehas will try and break the record of the Punahous, by some hard work.
 The first game of the afternoon will be between the leading Punahous and the Kamehamehas. For this game there promises to be a large crowd for both teams are popular, and they will put into the field this afternoon as strong teams as they have. The Punahous will be weakened by the substitution of Cooke at third. Cooke has played an excellent game thus far. He is out of the city and his place must be filled by Campbell or A. Marcellino. Otherwise the team will be the same. Babbitt will pitch, and the veteran has not recently been in better form. There are others ready to take his place if he should fall to fool.
 The Kamehamehas will present a team which should be a batting nine and may be called as strong an aggregation as can be had without some of the old time players among its numbers. Lemon will go to third base, and Sheldon will cover short field. Cockett will be in center. Reuter will be the delivery end, and he will be given every chance. He is one of the coming pitchers with experience. Now he plays the game himself. With no one out he pitches for a strike out as hard as with men on base. The others in the game have little show for play if he can help it.
 The H. A. C. will face its friends with a new form. Aylett returns to the field, Ensuie remains at short and Williams at third. They put up good games there last week, and the team with the addition of Aylett should be a heavy batting outfit. Joy is feeling well and will keep the Zebras guessing.
 The Mailes will be altered materially in position and makeup. Clark is scheduled for pitcher, with Rodgers, the soldier as his understudy. It will not be settled until today which will face the batters. In the diamond there will be very great alterations in makeup. Akau will switch across the diamond. Jones will cover short and either Woods or Wilbur will be in right.

WILL OPEN THE CRICKET SEASON

The cricket season will be opened on the Makiki grounds this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with a game between the Captain's and Vice-Captain's teams. The sides will be picked from the following members who have promised to turn out:
 R. Anderson, L. G. Blackman, H. Birkmyre, J. H. Catton, R. R. Catton, J. L. Cockburn, Prince Cupid, A. Dunn, T. Clive Davies, D. Glass, A. R. Hatfield, A. G. Hodgins, T. Gill, R. A. Jordan, A. T. Miles, C. P. Morse, A. Tullett, H. W. Willis.
 Mr. Everton of the Seamen's Institute who takes lots of trouble to provide his "boys" with recreation will send out a number of sailors from British ships in port to take part in the game.
 All intending members of the club or visiting cricketers are invited to attend and take part in the opening game.

Mixed Tennis Doubles Next.

The drawings for the Tennis mixed doubles will close at noon today at Pearson & Potter Cos., and the outlook is that there will be a fairly good entrance for this, the last of the year's entrance events. The tennis of the summer has been exceptionally good. Cunha and Elston alone have broken into the ranks of champions, the others holding on, but the game has been fine and the prospect for a good doubles is likewise good.

Polo—East and West.

The Polo match this afternoon will be between the East and West as divided by a line drawn down Emma street. This will put into Capt. Damon's team Judd, Dole and Ballou, while President Dillingham will have Shingle, Castle, Dennison, Macfarlane, Brown, Giffard and others to pick from in making his team. The play will be as hard and fast as in a match.

HORSES IN FINE FORM FOR RACES

Not only a very different park, but in some ways a better class of racing will be seen by the throngs which will attend the June 11 events this year. The changes being made in the park have extended to the race track and its surroundings, and there will be a pleasing prospect for all who go to the races, either to enter the enclosure or to look in from the outside.
 The thinning-out of the trees, which has been going on, has reduced the fringe about the track perceptibly. Within the quarter stretch there has been removed all the underbrush, so that there will be nothing but the clear way in view of the spectators. The grass is kept in good shape by the polo men and the stretch will be inviting in the extreme.
 All the old stands Waikiki from the grand stand have been taken down, as they had passed the limit of their usefulness, and they had to be torn out or the danger of an accident from their use would be too great to be contemplated. This in itself has changed the outlook of the park materially, and when race day comes the visitors will find everything cleared up and made to look inviting.
 There will be some racing fit for a king on the great day. Before the one mile dash, as it now appears, all other races for the distance in this country will have to take a back seat. Already there appears some little speculation on the event, and the outlook is that each of the three horses will go to the post fit to race for a kingdom. Weller has somewhat surprised his trainer thus far. He has stood the work right well, despite the hard track. His legs have bothered him only a little, and that quite recently. He has not had a hard tryout, the fastest mile being in the neighborhood of :47. Racine Murphy is going like a clock and quite as easily. He is in the pink of condition, and his owner will ask a deal of him on the day. He should be able to deliver the goods, but it seems likely that to win he will not only have to beat two older and better campaigners, but will have to make a mark for the track.
 Just what is the condition of Carter Harrison will not be known until the Kinau lands the Hilo crack and his stable companion, Dixie Land, this afternoon. They will have only four days for work here, but it seems likely that the animals have been worked to a finish by O'Rourke in Hilo and all that they need is the acquaintance with the track, which will come in the polishing.
 The mile and a half will be a good race too. It is asking a deal of Weller, who was prepared for the mile, to repeat, yet he may be able to do it if his tendon does not bow after the hard drive that he probably will have to stand in the dash. Dixie Land is a great long route animal, and will give all a hard race.
 The short distance dashes will be between Bruner and Virgie A., but this will not in any way prevent them from being close and exciting. The longer ones will give Mollie Connor a chance.
 In the harness division there promises to be two at least as fine events as have been seen here. The 2:30 class race is anybody's as yet. Jim Jeffries and Lemp are going hard and fast, while Oak Grove, in the hands of Cunningham is an unknown quantity. Eva M. may prove a surprise as well. In the 2:18 class there are several good ones and it will be a case of going all the way. Sambo, which is being handled by Quinn, has not shown right in the feet recently, and may have only three legs, but it is safe to say that the shavetail will be able to make them all go a brisk mile. The Hawaiian bred race promises to be as good as is possible, and the driving race will be full of interest as well.
 It is a great pity that Hollinger was not able to get Waldo J. in shape for the free for all. With the gray ready it is safe to say that the track record would be broken. Cyclone, the big black, is going fast, a mile in 2:16 being a recent performance. Indicating that the race is his beyond peradventure of a doubt. It is said that G. Schuman will donate the purse to the Leper's fund, as it was cur down after the horse had been prepared for it, to a sum which will not meet the training expenses. It would not surprise any one if the track mark should be notched.

YACHTS TO RACE AT THE LOCHS

After the yacht club dance this evening at the Peninsula, which by the way promises to be attended by a large number, many will remain for the yacht racing tomorrow. This will consist of races for all classes of yachts over the regular Peninsula course, slightly modified from the first chart. This course has been designed with a special idea of allowing a full view of the race from the new club house site and has also the advantage of giving the boats an opportunity on all lines of sailing.
 Two of the stakes have been slightly altered to allow of the deeper draught boats, such as the Helene, sailing the course without fear of grounding. The race starts from an imaginary line between the railroad wharf and a moored buoy, runs from thence to a stake placed nearly off the point separating the middle from the west lock, tacks from there to a stake off Akai's and rounding that reaches to another stake off McGrew's. From there a spinnaker run takes the boats past and around Peninsula point and up the middle lock a short distance to another stake, returning across the starting line between the wharf and the buoy. The course is sailed over twice each stake being rounded for the second time and the race finally ending over the starting line.
 No time is taken, the boats, starting with the smaller classes, being considered to have crossed the line at fifteen minute intervals half an hour after the preparatory flag has been hoisted. Charts of the course with instructions on the back have been prepared and will be handed to each captain by the regatta committee. George Turner will act as starter. The only stakes that have been moved from their position on the regular Peninsula course are those in the middle lock and the one off the ferry boat landing. Both of these have been removed farther seaward to allow of deeper water.
 The race will start approximately at 10:30 o'clock, or as soon as in the opinion of the regatta committee the wind is sufficiently strong to make a race. Most of the third class boats will enter while in the first class the La Paloma, Gladys and Helene will compete. The second class is limited and Skipper Johnson of the Dewey is discouraged at the outlook, as the Hawaii has not been out this season and the second class cups are not therefore available.
 Cups will be given in all classes for these races. The Roth cup will be presented at the dance tonight to the winner of the trophy, Prince Kuhio.

TRANSITION PRISONERS MUST DON PRISON GARB

Since Judge Gear Ordered Their Release They Have Been Loafing at Oahu Jail and Wore No Stripes.

There are a half dozen badly disappointed prisoners in Oahu prison. These are the men who expected to be released through the instrumentality of Judge Gear, and who now will have to serve out their sentences. That isn't the worst of it either. Since Gear ordered their release more than a year ago, the convicts affected have not been compelled to work, nor have they worn the striped uniform, the common garb of all other felons. They have in fact been having an easy time of it, as they were not treated as prisoners undergoing sentence, but only as men held for trial. It might be held too that they were not serving their sentences during the year, and another year may be added to the term of their imprisonment, but this isn't at all probable.

At any rate the decision of the United States Supreme Court has left some of the transition period prisoners in anything but a happy frame of mind, and they are sorry they ever saw the attorneys who promised to get them off, and who also got all the money they had in exchange for the promises.

The number of prisoners who would have been released by the order of Judge Gear, but for the appeal in the United States court has dwindled down materially since the trouble started originally. The terms of some of them have expired, one actually escaped, while some of them did not call upon Judge Gear for help, taking Warden Henry's advice in the matter. Only one man actually escaped punishment through Judge Gear's efforts. This was Goto, a Japanese who was serving a life sentence for burglary. He was ordered released by Judge Gear, but was rearrested, and finally when the Attorney General was forced to secure new indictments the grand jury failed to indict Goto as the witnesses against him had disappeared since his first conviction. He is now said to be in Japan.

Since the first writ of habeas corpus was sued out in these transition cases, the following prisoners have been discharged through expiration of their sentences: Ben. Kupihea, sentenced March 3, 1899, to three years for rape; Lun Kon, larceny, sentenced to eighteen months on March 18, 1900; Hainada, burglary, sentenced April 5, 1899, for three years; Leen Lang, sentenced October 18, 1898 to four years for larceny; Chow Yuen Toon, sentenced March 5, 1900 to two years for assault with deadly weapon; Nalopi, sentenced May 8, 1900 for two years for malicious burning; and Anne Sang, sentenced October 18, 1898, for four years for larceny.

The men who are still in prison and who will have to remain there, with the date of sentence and term of imprisonment are:

- May 22, 1899, Ihara Ichigoro, murder 1st degree, Honolulu, hang, commuted life.
- May 22, 1899, Osaki Mankichi, manslaughter 1st degree, Honolulu, 20 years.
- May 22, 1899, Chida Manzaboro, manslaughter 1st degree, Honolulu, 20 years.
- May 22, 1899, Yamane Nenchiro, manslaughter 2nd and 3rd degrees, Honolulu, 15 years.
- August 10, 1899, Geo. Wade, murder 2nd degree, Honolulu, life.
- August 15, 1899, Genji, assault with deadly weapon, Honolulu, $100 fine and 7 years.
- December 9, 1899, Yong Lock Nee, murder 2nd degree, Maui, life.
- May 14, 1900, Kaluna, burglary 1st degree, Honolulu, 15 years.
- May 25, 1900, Wm. Ester, manslaughter 1st degree, Honolulu, 20 years.
- June 8, 1900, Lono Opio, rape, Maui, 4 years.
- June 12, 1899, Ah Quong, rape, Hawaii, life.
- January 12, 1899, Wong Cheung Hung, manslaughter 2nd degree, Hawaii, 10 years.
- April 8, 1899, Huekoni alias Kaie, burglary 2nd degree, Hawaii, 5 years.
- October 6, 1899, Hanale Napuupahae, murder 2nd degree, Hawaii, 20 years.
- October 18, 1898, Lo On Pau, burglary 2nd degree, Hawaii, 12 years.
- July 13, 1899, Makihara Katsataro, manslaughter 2nd degree, Hawaii, 7 years.

Of the above only Ihara, Mankichi, Chida, Yamane, Geo. Wade, Kaluna, Wm. Ester and Quong had been ordered released upon a writ of habeas corpus. The Japanese and Ester are the only prisoners who are working, though all have discarded the stripes. "They might have had an action for damages against me if they had been confined as felons and then the order for their release confirmed," said Warden Henry yesterday. "As soon as the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the Osaki Mankichi case arrives they will don their prison garb again and all of them will be put to work. Two of these prisoners are at work now, one in the laundry and the other in the tailoring shop. They requested work though, and I have an agreement with them in writing."

Clever Story From China.

The new Chinese ambassador is a conversationalist of some brilliance. Here is a Chinese story he told in Washington the other day:

The ruler of a province had occasion to visit a certain prison. The prisoners gathered about him and each besought a pardon. Each prisoner, in a word, was innocent, and each demanded, therefore, his liberty.

But the governor noticed one convict who said nothing. This fellow with a cheerful air kept at his appointed task, giving the august visitor no heed. He was sent for.

"My friend," the governor said to him, "why do you look so well content, and why do you alone refrain to ask me for a pardon?" "Your excellency," replied the convict, "I was a great villain in my time. The crimes I committed are almost beyond number and the sentence I received for them was much lighter than I deserved. Hence I am of good cheer and hence I make no claim to liberty."

The governor smiled and summoned the lord of the prison. "Discharge this wicked dog at once," he said. If he is suffered to remain here he will infallibly corrupt all his innocent companions."

Doesn't Want Her American Friends.

London is stirred by a report that the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough will close their town house and move to Blenheim, their country home. The news is causing still more of a sensation in New York, however, for it is hinted that the young American duchess takes this method of balking the social ambition of numerous Americans whom she met in Newport last summer. These might look for favors in the British capital this season and as some of them are said to be impossible the duchess will now be able to avoid them.

Virginia's Democratic University.

It was Thomas Jefferson's idea that the University of Virginia should be and remain forever a thoroughly democratic institution—the instructors equal, free and independent, the students under no rules except the universal ones regulating the behavior of men in civilized society. Up to now the university has had no president—only a chairman of the faculty. Last winter the general assembly of Virginia overhauled the charter and the trustees are now at liberty to elect a president whenever they see fit. It is predicted that they will choose either Professor John Bassett Moore, of Columbia University or President Charles W. Dabney, of the University of Tennessee.

"I recall a remark that General Grant made to me once at dinner," said boastful Woodby Graft, "which was most characteristic of the man." "I think I can guess what it was," said Peppery. "What?" "Keep the change for yourself, my man."—Philadelphia Press.

LONDON, England, June 5.—The Manchester race, run today, was won by Zinfandel.

BYRON, Minn., June 5.—The Baptist Church of Byron was completely demolished by a dynamite explosion.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 5.—More complete reports show ten more deaths as a result of the floods in this city.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—Secretary Hay today signed the treaty with England providing for tariff favors in Zanzibar.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 5.—The steamer Deutschland, of the Hamburg-American Line, which went ashore yesterday in Gedney channel was floated today. The injury done the vessel is not serious.

MANILA, P. I., June 5.—The hurricane prevailing throughout the Philippines has done an immense amount to the shipping in many of the island ports. The American vessels Pearl, Devizayas, Haurafel, Mayflower and Samsui have been wrecked.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 5.—President Roosevelt arrived in Harrisburg today on his way home to Washington. A very short stop was made at the station and though a crowd was present the President appeared only in response to the cheers. Roosevelt is somewhat travel-worn from his long trip, but he is in splendid health and returns to his duties highly pleased with the courtesies extended him during his long journey.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—A. W. Machen, formerly superintendent of the Free Rural Mail Delivery System, was today indicted on the charge of bribery, laid against him by Postmaster General Payne. Machen was suspended from office on May 8 on the recommendation of Fourth Assistant Bristow. He was charged with collusion with letter-box manufacturers and general manipulation for his own private gain. Machen promptly responded to the request that he turn over his office, and called for a thorough investigation. A few weeks later he was arrested on the charge of bribery and released on heavy bonds.

Machen is a Toledo, Ohio, man and had been in office since May 3, 1893.

AUDIT OFFICE GIVES OUT WARRANTS FOR BONDS

Late Thursday evening the Audit office completed the fire claims warrants for the remnant of awards to be paid in Territorial bonds authorized by Congress. They constitute 22,119.31 per cent. of the total awards and are represented by $326,000 round number in bonds. The number of warrants made out for this bond instalment was 6,748. Extensions of the amounts had to be made out in the column of the book of awards left open for the purpose, besides which receipts had to be prepared ready for date stamps and signatures for the entire batch. All of this work was done in about a week, requiring some overtime to office hours. At the same time the Audit office was dealing out warrants for the Chinese fund to the amount of thousands of dollars a day, besides having considerable work in making out warrants under the Emergency bill.

The following statistics may be interesting for reference:

Total awards Fire Claims Commission.....$1,473,173.00
Paid from U. S. interest refund and current receipts, 10% 147,317.30

Balance$1,325,855.70

For which balance the United States Congress appropriated $1,000,000 cash and authorized a Territorial issue of 4 per cent. bonds for the remaining $325,855.70 or, in round numbers, $326,000.

An apprehension of delay in payment from the difficulty of floating 4 per cent. bonds without too great sacrifice was cut short by the decision of Mr. MacLennan, U. S. Treasury agent, to proceed with the disbursement of the million cash pro rata among the claimants. Before or about the same time the Chinese claimants became busy regarding the bonds. They organized a committee of five business men of their nationality with C. K. Ai at its head, which brought claimants said to represent half a million of awards together. An arrangement was made with the local banks to accept the bonds at rates thus far private.

It is bonds or nothing for the residue of awards mentioned. Each payee designates the particular bank at which he has arranged to draw against his quota of bonds value, and the Audit office has a rubber draft stamp for each of the four banks taking the bonds.

There is every indication that, barring any action of the Legislature or the Fire Claims Commission or both together may take regarding belated claims, the financial incident of the dire visitation of 1899-1900 will soon be completely closed. Surviving sufferers of January 20, 1900, their heirs, executors and assigns will be happy in the recovery of a part of—if not in some cases more than—the wealth that on that Saturday evening they might have bewailed as lost forever.

The colonial office of the British government has formally recognized the jargon, Yiddish, as a European language. In the rush of aliens to South Africa many German and Polish Jews were rejected by the immigration authorities because they were unable to answer the questions put to them. The chief rabbi of London then petitioned the government to recognize Yiddish as a language and appoint interpreters so that injustice might not be done. Henceforth declarations in Yiddish will be recorded at the Cape.

Lumbago 30 Years

A Remarkable Cure Performed by Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt.

Dr. McLAUGHLIN—Dear Sir: I suffered from lumbago pains and sciatica for 30 years before using your Electrical Treatment, and in two months your wonderful Belt entirely cured me. Appreciating the excellence of your method, I am yours truly, HUGH FRASER, 219½ Elm avenue, San Francisco.

And some people are content with pasting porous plasters on their backs to get the little relief they give. Lumbago is a condition which can be cured by Electricity as I apply it. I can tell you of hundreds of other cures. My Belt pours a gentle, glowing heat into the back and cures it to stay cured.

A man recently told me that he had lumbago for twenty years, and it had never laid him up yet, though he felt badly at the time. He was carried from his work in a hack two days after, and was in bed when he sent for my belt. It cured him. Get it before you are laid up. It will cure you quickly, and your trouble will never come back. Call and see it; or send for book of proof. Send this ad.

THE FUNERAL OF EDWIN R. NEWMAN

The funeral of the late Edwin Rodney Newman, which occurred yesterday afternoon at the home of W. W. Hall, was one of the saddest which Honolulu has seen for a long time. A little gathering of old friends surrounded the widow and her son, who sat near the head of the flower-strewn casket, bowed and broken by their sudden bereavement. The services were conducted by Canon Mackintosh of St. Andrew's Cathedral, and as the solemn words of the prayer book in comfort of the widow and the fatherless were read, the minister himself faltered and could read no more. After the prayer, the hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee," was sung and the bearers carried the casket to the hearse. It had been the first purpose to bury the remains here, but a cablegram from Ithaca led to a change of plan and the body will be cremated for transportation East. Mrs. Newman is bearing up bravely and is having the tenderest of care from Mr. and Mrs. Hall, at whose place the Newmans lived ten years ago. She and her children will soon return to Ithaca, New York.

The band will play this evening at the celebration of the yacht club at the Peninsula. Tomorrow afternoon the usual concert at Makee Island will occur.

G. W. R. King of the Audit office is old-fashioned enough to take the grip instead of the modish dengue fever. He was confined to the house yesterday.

Walter E. Wall, Territorial surveyor, had the good fortune at Napoopoo, Hawaii, to secure a piece of curly koa lumber. It is twelve feet in length and thirty-six inches on each face. Mr. Wall will have it made into furniture.

E. J. Matthews, the clerk who came down to work in the Newman drug store, says that the report of his leaving Mr. Newman when the latter became despondent, does him an injustice. He was willing and ready to help but had been told by his late employer that his services would not be needed for a few days. Mr. Matthews was one of the bearers at the funeral.

NOTES FROM EWA.

Drop Will Go 4000 Tons Over the Estimate.

Ewa Mill will turn out this year something over 34,000 tons. This will be 4,000 over the manager's estimate. They are doing better work in the mill this year than ever before. The total losses will be less than has ever happened in a nine-roller mill.

D. B. Murdoch leaves Ewa the end of July to become auditor for Alexander & Baldwin. Mr. Murdoch has been head bookkeeper at this plantation for over eleven years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch will be greatly missed.

Mr. May will succeed Mr. Murdoch as head bookkeeper. Billy Johnson will take Mr. May's place.

Tom O'Dowda head sugar boiler, is going to make a trip to "Old Ireland" this year. He has not been home in twenty-five years.

CHANGE OF WATER often brings on diarrhoea. For this reason many experienced travelers carry a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with them to be used in case of an emergency. This preparation has no equal as a cure for bowel complaints. It can not be obtained while on board the cars or steamship, and that is where it is most likely to be needed. Buy a bottle before leaving home. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.

Gentlemen: We thank you very kindly for your prompt attention in sending one of your men to open our safe this morning. We also wish to congratulate you upon the quality of your burglar-proof safe, as the burglars who entered our place must have worked all night and could not open the doors, and left without accomplishing their purpose. When the detectives arrived this morning to inspect the work they claimed it was done by professional cracksmen and told us that if it had been a safe of any other make the burglars would have got in by the way they worked on our safe. We thought we would write you this good news as we consider ourselves fortunate. We remain, Yours respectfully, GRIFENHAGEN BROS. & CO., INC. Signed M. S. Griffenhagen, President.
