HUI KUOKOA IS AT WORK

Begins Upon Its Constitution Framing.

WILL CONTINUE IN THE FIELD

Long Debate Over the Prospects for the Party and Its Plans.

All doubt of the course of the Hui Kuokoa was dispelled last evening when by a unanimous vote the representatives of the party decided to formally organize and adopted for guidance until the meeting of the convention of the party in September a constitution which in effect is that offered in the Home Rule convention and turned down by Wilcox and Kalauokalani.

It was not until after there had been an amount of oratory which would have carried the Fire Claims bill through Congress that this was done, either, for by the clock two hours was spent in discussing the form of party, something which was generally believed to have been settled on the previous evening, before the consensus was that the organization could go on. There were speeches along the line of forming a body which should have for its object the selection of the best men in other parties for the Legislature, and other addresses were aimed at independent action, and through all Prince Cupid, with his honesty of purpose and desire to see the best done for the Territory and his people, balked at a declaration which made partisans per se of himself and his friends, while he wanted to be free for non-partisan action.

The real business of the meeting, which drew to the assembly room of Foster's Hall seventy-five bolters from the Wilcox crowd, was the receiving of the report of the committee on constitution and by-laws. The report was in part as follows:

Honolulu, July 21, 1902.

To the President and Members of the Kuokoa party:

Gentlemen—Your committee on constitution, rules and regulations herewith submit proposed constitution, rules, etc., which it recommends be made the basis for organization, the same to be ratified or amended by the convention to be held for nominating Delegate to Congress, etc.

We recommend that authority be given the executive committee, through its president, to fix the date, place and representation for a convention as above stated.

We further recommend giving the executive committee power to formulate plans for co-operation with other political elements in the Territory, subject to approval by the Territorial convention.

Respectfully submitted,
J. H. WISE,
K. S. MAHAULU,
JOHN EMMELUTH.

Proposed Constitution of the Kuokoa Party—Preamble:

Whereas, More than two years have elapsed since the Congress of the United States passed the Organic Act creating out of these islands the Territory of Hawaii; and,

Whereas, The first legislature of the Territory failed to make effective the provisions of said act permitting the erection of the traditional American system of government in these islands; and,

Whereas, Owing to such failure and the fact that the majority of both houses was composed of Hawaiians, the capacity of the native Hawaiians for self-government has been seriously questioned; and,

Whereas, The agreements reached among the dominant element in the Home Rule party, by which the president thereof is to pass on all candidates before nomination; and,

Whereas, Such a course is subversive of those rights of the person vouchsafed us under the constitution of the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the delegates of the Kuokoa party, in convention assembled, that we deplore the conditions which prevent our further affiliation with the Home Rule party.

That we hereby pledge our faith in the ultimate triumph of those principles which lie at the foundation of popular government.

That we pledge our earnest effort to create in this Territory clean, responsible, honest government, through wise legislation by competent men, regardless of previous political affiliation.

Resolved, That we heartily invite the co-operation of all voters in this Territory who believe in county and municipal government as the means for elevating this community's standard, morally, socially and politically.

CONSTITUTION.

Article I—Organization.—A non-partisan political party is hereby created throughout the Territory for the purposes set forth in the preamble hereto.

Article II—Name.—This political organization shall be known as the Kuokoa party.

Article III.—The purpose of the party is to effect the changes of government required by the vast majority of the voters, in such manner as will least affect established industries, to formulate legislation for this purpose, accepting the experiences of the older States and Territories of the Union as our guide, hoping thereby to evolve an efficient, economic, business-like system of conducting community affairs. To so alter our educational system that the youth may grow to man's estate fitted for taking part in the future development of the Territory.

Article IV—Membership.—All male citizens of the Territory who are voters or eligible to become voters at the next regular election may become members of this party by signing this constitution, with the rules and regulations, in the precinct in which they reside.

From this point the constitution was as that offered in the convention. The executive committee is provided for at thirty members, to be chosen from the various representative districts. The central committee is to consist of seven members, one from each district, and the president. The provision is made that the members need not live in the districts they represent. There is provision for precinct organization and for a Territorial convention within thirty days after primaries on the first Wednesday in July, and district conventions for legislative nominations within fifty days after the Territorial convention.

When the preamble was read there was a kick immediately. Long objected that there was a direct reflection upon the Hawaiian people, and Prince Cupid thought the whole matter irrelevant to the constitution. So the preamble was sent back to the committee for revision. Immediately, without material change, the constitution was passed.

There was passed also a resolution empowering the appointment of a temporary executive committee to serve until the convention meets, with power to appoint committees and manage the party, to be governed by the constitution. Prince Cupid as chairman of the meeting appointed the following: President, Prince J. Kalanianaole, D. Kanuha, J. K. Clark, J. K. Nakookoo, M. L. Kaaikauia, S. Kfielopu, J. W. Bipikane, W. F. Erving, A. St. G. Plianaia, M. K. Keohokalaole, F. W. Beckley and Ben Jones.

C. A. Long was chosen treasurer but his demands for a finance committee were unheard. A report from the committee on organization was read, telling of the work done and the plans for a meeting Thursday. This was referred to the executive committee. After providing that this body shall meet this evening the committee adjourned.

Senator Kalauokalani and Wilcox will leave this afternoon for Maui for the purpose of taking up their campaigning tour. They will go first to where carriages and roast pig await them. Thence they will tour the entire side of the island, returning next week. It is expected they will continue on their way through the group.

Senator Kalauokalani said yesterday that it was his plan that when by favoring a man he could secure his nomination he would always move for the return of a man who had experience.

DEMOCRATS START WORK

An Enrollment Will Be Made of All Democrats on Island of Oahu.

Democrats in Honolulu will conduct their fall campaign along the lines laid down in 1900, with the exception that the Territorial Central Committee will consist of not more than 60 members, as against 15 in the former organization.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Democrats last night in Waverley hall, at which Col. McCarthy presided, the report of the committee of 15 appointed last Tuesday by the chair was read by Secretary Hart and adopted. The report was as follows:

Honolulu, July 21, 1902.

To the Territorial Central Committee:

The select committee of 15 appointed at a meeting held at Waverley hall on July 14 to devise ways and means for bettering the plan of organization, beg leave to report as follows:

That the plan of the last campaign be followed excepting that the number on the Territorial Central Committee be increased from 15 to a number not to exceed 60.

Col. McCarthy then called attention to the fact that the Democrats would have to pungle up free silver with which to run the campaign in its preliminary stages. There would have to be some advertising of meetings, postage and other incidentals, and there wasn't a red cent in the treasury.

Eugene Sullivan proposed that the hat be passed around to all those who signed the roll and that each one drop in a dollar.

W. H. Johnson moved for the appointment of a finance committee consisting of three members, but this met with an objection from F. H. Hayselden, who feared that the Democrats around town might think they were contributing to the real campaign fund and refuse to contribute when the per-

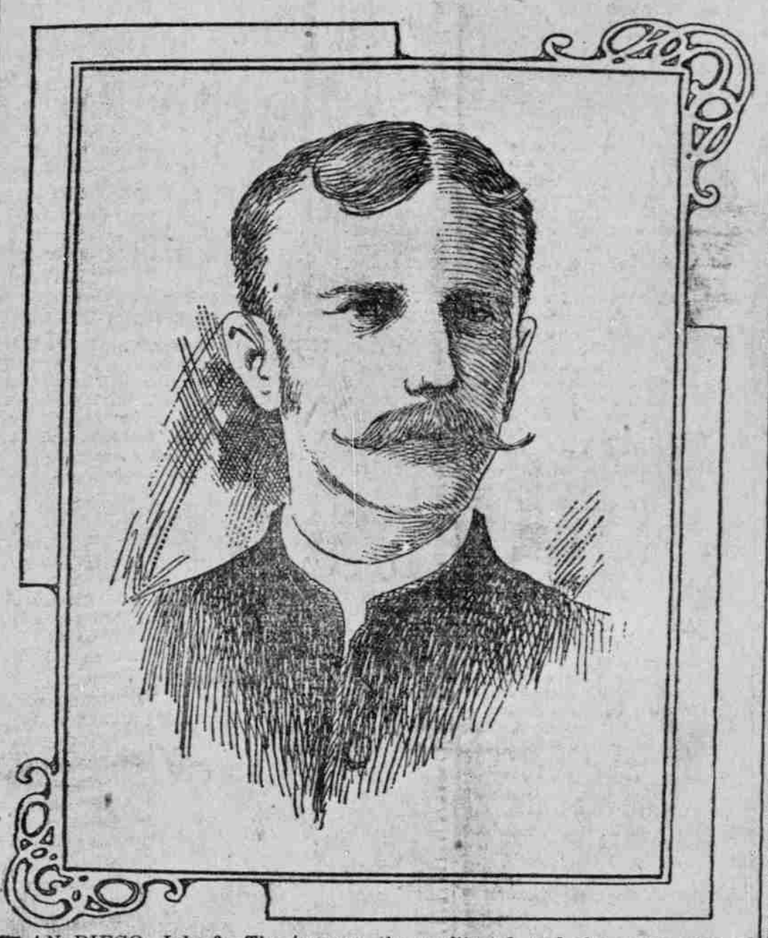
NEW BISHOP IS CONSECRATED



SAN DIEGO, July 3.—The impressive ceremony of making a bishop of the Episcopal church was witnessed yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's by a large congregation. At the close of the service, when the sacrament was partaken of by the bishops and clergy present, Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, for the past twenty years and more the rector of the San Diego parish, had been made Bishop of Honolulu in charge of the missionary district of the Hawaiian Islands under the Protestant Episcopal church of America.

The program as printed was carried out, though the portion of the service which had been assigned to Bishop Moreland of Sacramento had to be taken by the other bishops as the Sacramento gentleman did not arrive until just at the close of the service.

There was no attempt at decoration of the church itself, but the altar and chancel looked exceedingly pretty from the body of the church. It was stated by those who had the arrangements in charge that there were so many who desired to witness the ceremony that they did not feel that it would be right to give any of the space to decorations.

The choirs of St. Paul's church and of All Saints' chapel were combined, and rendered the musical part of the service in a most charming and impressive manner.

The Right Reverend William Ford Nichols, D. D., Bishop of California, was the presiding bishop and had charge of the services, being especially assisted by Rt. Rev. Joseph Horsfall Johnson, D. D., Bishop of Los Angeles, and Rt. Rev. John Mills Kendrick, D. D., Bishop of New Mexico and Arizona, as the members of the commission to consecrate, and by Rt. Rev. Thomas Augustus Jaggar, D. D., Bishop of Southern Ohio, the presenting bishop and the designated preacher for the occasion.

Other officials of the church and members of the clergy from all over Southern California were also in attendance, and assisted in the ceremony to the extent of the parts and positions assigned to them.

The congregation was large but limited to the capacity of the church by the number of cards given out, there being no more cards than the seating capacity of the building, with the addition of chairs in the aisles.

The procession of bishops, clergymen and choirs was impressive, and throughout the service the form laid down by the law of the church for the ordaining or consecration of a bishop was followed. The sermon by Rt. Rev. Jaggar of Cincinnati was a masterpiece and particularly touching in that portion in which he addressed the bishop-elect on the new duties to which he had been called and which might to some extent keep him away from the close offices of the parish which were possibly the pleasant features of a rector's life, thus making the duties somewhat harder to bear. The bishop spoke at great length, his text being from the third verse of the fourth chapter of the Epistle to the Ephesians: "Endeavor to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

BISHOP JAGGER'S SERMON.

After a thoughtful discussion of church unity in the abstract, Bishop Jagger said:

I have had in mind through all these hasty suggestions the Christian community in Hawaii to which we are about to send a bishop of our Protestant Episcopal church. That community singularly illustrates in its history the reality of, and the great need of keeping in the bond of peace, the unity of the spirit.

I need not weary you by a repetition of the story of the discovery of the islands by Captain Cook, the visit of Vancouver 12 years later, the enlightened policy of King Kamehameha afterwards known as the great, and the effort of Vancouver to have missionaries of the English church sent to his dominion. The missionaries were not sent. The remarkable facts in the religious history of the islands may be rapidly sketched. The son and successor of Kamehameha the Great demolished with one blow a whole system of idolatry and superstition, the high priest of the system being himself the leader of the movement.

Missionaries of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions were immediately sent to take possession of the field. They were Presbyterians and Congregationalists from New England. They were devoted, self sacrificing men, sowing in its simplicity the Word of the Truth of the Gospel, and "by their fruits we know them." They arrived in 1823. Thirty years later Christianity was the prevailing religion and a powerful influence in the councils of the kings. The Bible and many religious books were translated into the native tongue. There were more than 55,000 communicants and as many pupils in the Christian schools. As early as 1853 the native Christians had even sent missionaries to other islands of the Pacific, and in 1869 foreign aid was no longer necessary.

It was not until 1862 that the Church of England, through the combined efforts of English and American bishops, and at the request of the young King Kamehameha IV, who had been to England and learned to love the order and service of the church—consecrated the Rev. Dr. Staley to be bishop of Honolulu. The story of the young king and his queen, Emma (granddaughter of the English sailor who had been influential in the court of Kamehameha the Great), his translation of the Prayer Book into the native tongue and his zeal for the church in gifts and labors, is well known. Bishop Staley in a sermon which he preached in Westminster Abbey on the eve of his departure for the islands shows how fully he realized the necessity for "giving diligence to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace." "We are," he said, "to speak the truth but it must be in love and we are to give all who have been hitherto laboring with so much devotion and earnestness in their Master's cause, while we have been looking on with cold indifference, the credit they deserve. We must make it clear that we do not go forth to ignore or over-ride what has been done by others." I have only time to remind you of the rapid increase in the commerce of the islands—the domination of European and American civilization—the demoralizing influences of that civilization in some of its forms upon the native population—the mixture of races and the events which finally made Hawaii a territory of the United States. With the incorporation of the Hawaiian Islands as territory of the United States came the necessity for some arrangement by which the jurisdiction of the Anglican church in those islands should be transferred to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. A plan of transfer was arranged and happily consummated by which that diocese of the Church of England known as the Diocese of Honolulu became the Missionary District of Honolulu of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America. The property and jurisdiction were received on Tuesday, April 1st, in St. Andrew's cathedral, Honolulu, by the Bishop of California, acting for the presiding bishop, and at the hands of the venerable Bishop Willis, who resigns his charge after 30 years of service. We are now to consecrate the rector of this parish, duly elected, to be the first bishop of the Missionary District of Honolulu.

Thoughts crowd upon me as I think of the strange mixture of conditions to which he goes and of circumstances which have entered into that history. He goes to represent something more than the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States. He will stand for the unity in one visible communion of the churches of England and America. But is that all? We assume that he is "a man in whom the spirit of God is." If this is so he will stand for something deeper and broader than any visible union. His sense of unity in the spirit will comprehend in the bond of love all those who have broken up the fallow ground and sowed through toil and tears the fields which he reaps. He will realize that "other men labored and he entered into their labors." He will be a bishop of the church of God—broad enough to sympathize with and as far as may be to co-operate in every movement which seeks to uplift, comfort and help our common humanity.

At this point in his discourse, Bishop Jaggar turned to the bishop-elect and continuing, said:

My dear brother, though I have not had the pleasure of a long personal acquaintance I feel very close through knowledge of your reputation and character, and also through my sympathy with you at this hour at your passing from the associations of your pastor life during so many years here, to the work of a bishop. I know very well how real must be the pain of parting both for you and your people. Identified as you have been for so many years with this place, entering into the sorrows and joys, and the public, social and domestic interests of your people, the breaking away is the tearing up of deeply rooted ties and affections. The bishop is removed from the close personal relations which are so precious in a pastor's life. He must be satisfied in the cold remoteness of his general administrative work, with memories of the hours which have made him welcome, of the children he has baptized and of the friendships welded in the white heat of griefs and pains which he has shared. Your life in the new field to which you are going will certainly be full of such memories and it will be your comfort amid the perplexities and trials which await you to know that the blessing of those whom you have sought to bless and help will follow you.

But do not suppose, in leaving the special work of a pastor for the more general work of a bishop, the importance or range of personal influence is diminished. The circle of that influence is only widened. I have not meant to say that the bishop should wrap himself in a cold, dignified reserve. He is removed from the more intimate relations of a pastor but he becomes the overseer of clergy and people. He is ordained to be in his place and by virtue of his office a leader of men. As the man is so is his strength. The dignity of office or of vestments will not hide the man or pass for personal worth or power.

Your new work under its fresh and free conditions will call into play the faculties of judgment and administration. You will need to be tactful, patient and slow to make issues about small matters. But your experience as an organizer has taught you all this. I have only to add further, and with the utmost sincerity, that you need to live very close, in your own spirit to the Master, if you would have peace, wisdom and power in your work as a bishop. You will find in it demands upon your executive ability that may tend to distract, secularize and perhaps contract. Compelled by the nature of your office to determine many matters alone and within the reserve of your own mind, you can only find real help and comfort in opening all your soul "to thy Father who is in secret and thy Father who seeth in secret shall reward thee openly." Keeping yourself here you will be centered in the spirit of unity and will know how to realize in your outward relations as a bishop in the church of God the fullness of the meaning of the Apostolic charge "give diligence to the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

At the close of the sermon, Bishop-elect Restarick was presented at the altar by Bishop Jaggar. The certificate of election was read by Rev. B. W. R. Taylor; the consent of the standing committees by Rev. J. J. Wilkins, D.D., and the consent of the bishops by Rev. William MacCormack. The promise of the bishop-elect to conform to the demands of the new office and to the laws of the church in all things with the help of God, was recorded, and after prayer by the presiding bishop, the examination of the bishop-elect was carried on according to the forms provided. The robing of the bishop followed, and then the consecration during which the blessing of all the bishops present was bestowed on the bishop-elect, and he was declared ordained.

The offering, which was large, will be turned over to the bishop for the work of the church in the missionary district of Honolulu. A communion service followed in which only the bishops and the clergy received the holy sacrament, the opportunity having been given to all members of the congregation at the early morning celebration of the holy communion at 7:30 a. m., by Rev. William H. Wooten. The congregation was requested to remain during the communion service and did so, although it was nearly three and a half hours from the beginning of the consecration service to the close.

LUNCHEON TO THE BISHOP.

At the close of the consecration services, carriages were in waiting for the bishops and their families to convey them to the handsome home of Mrs. O. J. Stough, on upper Fourth street, where they were entertained at luncheon.

Covers were laid for twenty people. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Stough, there were seated at the tables: Rt. Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, Bishop of Honolulu, Mrs. Restarick and Miss Restarick; Rt. Rev. William Ford Nichols, D. D., Bishop of California, and Mrs. Nichols; Rt. Rev. Joseph Horsfall Johnson, D. D., Bishop of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Johnson; Rt. Rev. Thomas Augustus Jaggar, D. D., Bishop of Southern Ohio, Mrs. Jaggar and Miss Jaggar; Rt. Rev. William Hall Moreland, D. D., Bishop of Sacramento; Rt. Rev. John Mills Kendrick, D. D., Bishop of New Mexico and Arizona, and

CONVENTIONS IN HONOLULU

Republicans Meet September First.

HILO GETS ONLY SEVEN VOTES

Territorial Committee Decides Upon Time and Place for Gathering.

THE Republican Territorial Convention will be held in Honolulu, beginning Monday, September 1st, at 10 o'clock in the morning. This was decided upon last night at a meeting of the Territorial Central Committee, Honolulu, getting twelve votes, Hilo receiving but seven.

There were present at the meeting last evening: Robertson, Fisher, Crabbe, Jones, Cooke, McCandless, Towse, Winston, Huddy and Waterhouse in person. By proxy: McStocker of Olaa, by Fisher; Ridgeway of Hilo, by Jones; Estep of Honokaa, by Crabbe; Kahaulelio of Pukoo, by Cooke; Reuter of Hana, by Cooke; McCann of Lahaina, by McCandless; Renton of Honouliuli, by Huddy; Sandow of Waimea, by Waterhouse; Brandt of Waimea, by Fisher; Willard of Lihue, by Robertson, and Atkinson, by Crabbe.

The petition of the Second Precinct, Fourth District Club favoring the employment of only American citizens upon public works was presented and referred to the executive committee.

J. P. Cooke presented a matter which he thought of much importance. This was the request of Paris of Kailua for information as to the naturalization laws. He wanted to know if Judge Edings could hold court between terms for naturalization purposes, or whether a special term was required. Mr. Cooke suggested that the executive committee look into the matter and secure a special term if need be, for Paris has a large number of Portuguese and others he wished to have naturalized. The matter was referred to the chairman and secretary.

CHOOSING CONVENTION CITY.

Under the head of unfinished business Chairman Robertson called up the motion presented at Saturday's meeting fixing the convention city at Honolulu, and the amendment by Crabbe that it be held in Hilo.

Upon motion of Fisher it was decided to take the vote by roll call. Mr. Cooke, before a vote was taken, asked permission to read several letters which he had received in response to requests for information as to the sentiment in other places. J. L. Stacker of Hilo thought it would be a good thing for the Republican party to meet this year in Hilo and said there would be no difficulty in providing hall and entertainment. He suggested, however, that it would not be fair to the delegates from Molokai and Kauai to ask them to travel that far. He also wrote that there was a feeling among some of the Republicans of Hilo that Cupid should be endorsed in order to insure the defeat of Wilcox.

A. B. Loebenstein of Hilo favored that city because of the understanding at the time of the last convention, and because it was far from the scene of factional strife. H. P. Baldwin wrote that he was opposed to Hilo because of the expense and time to Oahu and Kauai delegates, suggesting also that Honolulu was nearer in point of time to delegates in the Kau and Kona districts than Hilo.

Vote was then taken upon the motion, resulting as follows:

For Hilo—McStocker, Ridgeway, Estep, Waipuilani, Kahaulelio, Huddy, Brandt—7.

For Honolulu—Reuter, McCann, Atkinson, Towse, Cooke, Fisher, Jones, Renton, Winston, Sandow, Palmer, Willard—12.

Chairman Robertson did not vote, and Honolulu was duly declared the place of the convention, the time being fixed at the first Monday in September. This will be September 1st, or Labor day, though the members considered this to be no drawback. McCandless wanted the convention to open at 9 o'clock in the morning, but the motion of Crabbe to open one hour later was carried. The arrangements as to convention hall, etc., were left to the executive committee. A meeting of this committee was held after the central committee meeting, and the matter discussed. The convention will probably be held at Foster's Hall. The petition from the Fourth District, and also one from the legislative committee of the Builders and Traders' Exchange asking what the Republican party intended to do to solve the labor problem in the Territory were discussed.

COURTS ARE STILL BUSY

William King Must Obey Guardian.

The petition of William H. King, a son of the late Minister King, for an order compelling his guardian to allow him $350 for the expense of an operation for hernia was denied by Judge Robinson yesterday. J. A. Lightfoot, the guardian, stated that he was and at all times had been ready to have the operation performed, objecting only to the exorbitant charge. F. E. Thompson appeared for the boy and argued that he should be allowed to have the operation performed by the family physician, and should not be compelled to accept charity, when his property was sufficient to pay for it. The Court in reply stated that Mr. Lightfoot was too much of a gentleman to allow this to be done, and the contention of Magoon that this was a matter within the discretion of the guardian was sustained. Two physicians, Galbraith and Howell, testified that the operation would cost $350, while Supt. Eckhardt who was put on the stand by the guardian stated that the charge at the Queen's hospital would be less than $100. The court held that the matter was within the jurisdiction of the guardian, and as long as this discretion was not abused the court could not interfere. Thompson advised his client to have the operation performed where he liked and to send the bill to his guardian.

DIDN'T NEED A LABEL.

The case of the Good Hope Building Association vs. F. J. Amweg and Blanche Amweg was before Judge Humphreys yesterday on a demurrer by the defendant. The suit was to recover on a judgment obtained in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas, and De Bolt, appearing for the defendant, contended that he had not been given a hearing in that court. It was argued also that the complaint didn't specify as to whether the action was on debt or assumpsit. Andrews, for plaintiff, said that the court here had no power to set aside a decree of a State court of record, contending also that the bill of complaint was properly drawn. He did not believe an attack on a court 6000 miles away would be given serious consideration and his plea was sustained by Judge Humphreys, who overruled the demurrer.

The Court compared De Bolt's argument to a section in the old penal code compelling all poisons to be labeled with skull and crossbones, saying that the complaint required no more label as to assumpsit or debt than it should be labeled the "Hound of the Baskervilles." As to the second attack upon the judgment of the Philadelphia court, Humphreys held that the defendant had appeared there by his attorney, and this obviated the necessity of serving process. He gave defendant five days to answer, and refused De Bolt's request for further time.

THE UMI ESTATE.

An interesting question was passed upon by Judge Humphreys in the matter of the estate of John Umi, wherein the report of P. D. Kellett, as master, was approved, with the exception of one recommendation. Attorney Vivas was incidentally called down by the Court for objecting to the report without stating his objections in writing, Humphreys telling him, "this is a court of law, and you are indulging in child's play."

In the report of the master was a recommendation that suit be brought to recover buildings on crown land at Waianae, which belonged to the estate. The Court held that these buildings being on leased land were the property of the owner of the land and not of the lessee. He said that it had formerly been the custom for the lessee to retain the buildings, but this was contrary to the law, the building constituting a part of the freehold and being a fixture. Vivas started to question this ruling, saying:

"I understand that these buildings were on crown land and—"

"I don't care what you understand; there have been no objections in writing and the report will be approved, excepting as to this."

The administrator, C. J. Holt, had loaned the widow $150, which he is likely to lose, the Court ruling that he had no right to advance the money, saying that no request had even been made to the court for such an allowance. The master was allowed a fee of $25 and the final accounts were approved.

PARIS VS. MAGOON.

The plaintiff was on the stand nearly all day yesterday in the case of J. D. Paris vs. J. Alfred Magoon, as administrator. The greater part of the time was spent in his cross-examination. The trial will probably occupy several more days. There were several interesting passages of arms between the attorneys, particularly upon one occasion when McClanahan answered one of Magoon's questions which had been put to Paris.

COURT NOTES.

The will of John Hassinger was admitted to probate yesterday showing only life insurance amounting to $5000. Mrs. Priscilla E. Hassinger, the widow, was appointed executrix.

Answer was filed yesterday by the garnishees in the case of William Heine vs. Henry Klemme et al.

The will of William Thompson of Waikahalulu, Honolulu, was admitted to probate yesterday. The seven children of deceased are bequeathed one dollar each and no more, the estate being left the widow, Mary Thompson. She is also named as executrix.

E. H. Hart has been granted a license by Judge Humphreys to practice in the district courts of the Territory.

STAR SODA WATER WORKS IN TROUBLE

A petition to force the Star Soda Water Works of this city into bankruptcy was filed yesterday by the Abramson Heunisch Glass Co. of San Francisco, the Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Co. and W. W. Wright of Honolulu. It is alleged in the petition that the Star Soda Water Works has liabilities in excess of $1000 and the petitioners have claims aggregating $4232.88. Of this amount the Heunisch Glass Co. has a claim for $3740.38, the Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Co. for $442.50, and W. W. Wright for $56.

It is alleged that the Star Soda Water Works is insolvent and that two acts of bankruptcy were committed within the past four months as follows:

"That it did heretofore, to-wit, on the 16th day of June, 1902, permit E. W. Quinn, a creditor of said Star Soda Water Works, to obtain a preference through legal proceedings, to-wit, a judgment by default against said company in the District Court of Honolulu.

"Second, that it did, on the 2nd day of July, 1902, permit the Territory Stables Company to foreclose a lien on certain property of said Star Soda Water Works."

The hearing is set for the first day of August.

The Mistake That So Many Men Make

is that they think they are so much smarter than their fellows. You will make many less mistakes in life if you will give the other fellow credit for as much wisdom as you think you yourself possess. Don't fool yourself with the idea that by buying a cheap ready-to-wear suit of clothes you are buying a bargain. The man who sells it to you must make a profit, and when you deduct that profit from the price that you paid for a cheap suit or top coat, there is not enough left to pay for worthy material, good tailoring and style. It shouldn't be difficult for you to see the point. Stein-Bloch Clothes cost more than ordinary ready-to-wear garments, but the difference is greater than that expressed by the price, because, when you buy a Stein-Bloch Suit or Top Coat, you are getting that which is conceded by everybody familiar with the subject to be

WILL FIX UP FAIRS

Work of Arranging for Exhibits Today.

BOTH BUILDINGS WILL BE FILLED

Races for Saturday Now Promise to Be of High Order—Baseball Programs.

To the music of the hammer and saw the work of preparing the interior of the Drill Shed and the Merchants' Fair pavilion will begin today and the structures to take on the form of their final appearance when they are opened to visitors.

The demand for space in the Agricultural Fair is growing. Many persons who have never before indicated a desire to make any showing in the fair are now coming in and promising that they will have entries for the beginning of the coming week. These comprise not only flowers, but as well various kinds of vegetables, and there will be such a displaying of specially grown fruits as will rival anything of the kind ever before attempted.

The Merchants' Fair pavilion will be opened for the arrangement of exhibit spaces by the proposing exhibitors today, and the outlook is that the task of preparing for next week's fair will be rushed along. There are some of the spaces being fitted up already, but the majority of the exhibitors are waiting for the end of the week, when they will rush their work. Arrangements have been made with the police for adequate protection for the exhibits. There are some of the exhibitors' spaces not taken as yet, but the committee in charge is hard at work and are confident that there will be no disappointment of the visitors who come to the city with the expectation of seeing an adequate and able representation of the various trade resources which are now possessed by the merchants.

The failure of Hilo to send over to the proposed baseball tournament a representative club has caused some disarrangement of the plans, but it is confidently expected that Maui will be on hand for the event. An All-Maui team is expected to come down Sunday. Should this be the case there will be a great match on Tuesday, when the leaders of the League will go against the visitors.

A special meeting of the League will be held today or tomorrow for the purpose of arranging if possible for the playing on Monday of next week of the games which are scheduled for Saturday. This is done so that the races at Kapiolani Park will have no rivals for the attendance of the people. There have been no withdrawals so far from the races, and the horses are being sent along good miles each day for the purpose of getting them in condition for the Saturday events. There is no doubt but there will be high class sports for the day and every thing tends to the making of the first of the fair days a notable success. There should be not less than a thousand people who will make the grand stand their Mecca on the afternoon of Saturday and application will be made for the band, so that there will be nothing lacking in the arrangements for the enjoyment of the occasion.

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

Announcements of the Farmers' Institute to be held here during the fair were sent out to the members yesterday by Secretary Van Dine. The meeting is to be held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms Monday evening, July 28th, and the attendance is expected to be larger than at any previous institute. The program is outlined in the announcement sent out as follows:

Honolulu, Hawaii, July 21, 1902.

Dear Sir:—The Farmers' Institute of Hawaii will hold its next regular meeting Monday evening, July 28, 1902, in the Y. M. C. A. hall at Honolulu.

An interesting program has been arranged and all members of the Institute and others interested in the agricultural development of Hawaii are urged to be present. Hon. S. B. Dole, governor of Hawaii, has consented to give an address. Mr. Jared G. Smith will present the scope of Farmers' Institute. Mr. Byron O. Clark of Wahiawa, Mr. Franz Buchholtz of Hoopuloa, South Kona, and others will present papers on the possibilities of the agricultural development of these islands.

Each topic will be followed by a discussion. The discussion will be made an important part of the program.

Yours sincerely,
D. L. VAN DINE,
Secretary.

ANDERSON AND MUNROE WINNERS

The Pair Take Foursome Golf Competition by Narrow Margin.

D. W. Anderson and E. Munroe, with a handicap of five, won the foursome golf competition Sunday on the Moanalua links, from H. Giffard and R. Spaulding, the same handicap, after a most exciting series of games. The winners only came out of their round against McGill and McIntyre by one up and the runners up played a tie with Cockburn and Guild before they got the point. The finals were full of merit, the result being reached only by the narrow margin of one up. Anderson and Munroe thereby won the prize and Giffard and Spaulding take the sweepstakes.

BUSINESS IS KING.

It will be within the power of the business interests of Hawaii to decide whether or not they want to have more government and more taxes during these hard times.

Very soon political parties will beseech them for money and they can, if they will, make terms and conditions. Money to be used against their interests would come from them with bad grace. Unless it is understood that the political program is to be one of retrenchment rather than profligate outlay, the purses of the business people should be tightened. In the other event they will need their money to pay extra taxes.

Should the cause be lost at home, our business interests could appeal to Congress with much promise of success, against enactments in support of any city and county bill that might be passed here. Nothing gets so prompt and respectful a hearing at Washington as Business. America is a business country; it has a business administration; the Republican party looks to business men for the sinews of war. Business is King. Any policy based upon sound business principles, upon which the solid elements of this community are united, ought to have no trouble at Washington.

In short, if the men, who are satisfied with the honest and able system of government we now have and who don't care to throw money to the birds of prey, stand together there will be no city and county government in Hawaii until the conditions call for it.

The Bar Association having recommended Mr. De Bolt for First Judge should now see that his claims are protected as well as put on file. It is not likely that Humphreys resigned without pulling strings so far as he was able, for a successor of his own breed. Though his influence at Washington has gone, there may be people, not known at the Department to be friends of his, who will work in his behalf. The Bar Association, having practically let the removal case against Humphreys go by default, needs to be on hand now to see that Mr. DeBolt gets a fair show as his successor.

The finding of Captain Ward's body on the shore of San Francisco bay, nearly opposite the point where the Rio went down, indicates that the hull of the ill-starred liner is yet in the channel, within the Golden Gate. It is thought from the condition of Captain Ward's body that it has been held, during the seventeen months past, in a cabin of the ship and was lately released by the breaking-up of the wreck. If that is the case, pieces of the Rio will soon begin to appear on the beach.

Mrs. Kendrick; Rev. Archibald G. L. Trew, D. D.; Capt. Charles H. Hinde of Coronado; Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Niles of San Diego.

Last evening a reception was tendered the new bishop at the Florence hotel, which is referred to elsewhere. This morning at 10 o'clock the bishops and their families and friends will be the guests of Maj. Vogdes on a trip down the bay as far as Fort Rosecrans.

A PUBLIC RECEPTION.

The San Diego Union says:

The eventful day for Bishop Restarick was brought to a fitting close by the reception in his honor in the Florence hotel last evening, when many hundreds of friends shook him by the hand and extended sincere congratulations on his elevation. So many and sincere were the expressions of kindness that Bishop Restarick was visibly moved by them.

The large reception hall could scarcely hold the crowd that gathered, persons of many shades of religious belief, and the people were coming and going during the hours that the reception was held, from 8 to 10 o'clock. No account was taken of their number, but it was regarded as one of the largest receptions yet held in San Diego. All the visiting bishops and clergymen were in attendance, and were also the recipients of greetings from the San Diego people.

The reception hall and the glass enclosed sun room presented a pretty scene with their decorations of green and yellow branches of trees and plants, almost hiding the walls, the ceiling and the pillars. Large American flags were conspicuous on the walls, and the national colors were also employed in other places. Potted palms and other plants were placed in convenient nooks, and flowers were artistically used to carry out the pretty effect. An orchestra at one end of the sun room discoursed sweet music whose strains mingled with the buzz and hum of conversation.

At the beginning of the reception greetings were exchanged for half an hour, in which Bishop Restarick was of course the central figure. It was nearly 9 o'clock when he was called to one side of the reception room by Rev. A. G. L. Trew, who hushed the conversation and called for the attention of the persons in the room. Then, on behalf of the clergy of the diocese, Dean Trew presented Bishop Restarick with a handsome pectoral cross. In making the presentation Dean Trew said:

"By the kindness of your brethren, the clergy of the diocese of Los Angeles, I have been charged with the pleasing office of assuring you on their behalf, at once, of their extreme gratification and of their sincere regret. Those of us who have associated with you in the years before the organization of the diocese of Los Angeles in the planting of the church in Southern California, as well as those who have had only a more recent sharing in the church's work, appreciate most warmly the part which you have borne; and to all of us it is a keen gratification that your work has received the signal appreciation which is shown by your elevation to the highest dignity and the most responsible sphere of duty and labor.

"We congratulate you, but our congratulations are shadowed with regret, for the higher call involves the severance of associations which have bound us together in our common labor for the church. Our heartfelt interest and our sincere affection will go with you to your new field. And we beg that you will accept from us a pectoral cross, which may serve as a slight token of the feelings which our words are so inadequate to express.

"The cross, the symbol of divine love and sacrifice, borne upon your breast while ministering in your sacred office, will keep always before you and close to your heart the thought of Him who 'His own self bore our sins in His own body upon the tree.' Caring for the flock in the spirit and power of the cross, you will often be sorely burdened, but you will also be strangely upheld and strengthened and at the last there shall await you the Crown of Life which the Lord, the Shepherd and Bishop of our souls shall give you 'at that day.'"

As he rose to reply Bishop Restarick showed in his face the appreciation which he felt at this expression from the clergy. He spoke of the extreme gratitude which he felt at receiving an address expressing such confidence, and said it was only a repetition of the kindness and confidence which had been extended to him for a long time past by the clergy of the diocese. He referred to the fact of their long association together in a common work, and said that even though some would differ there was always a generous respect and confidence between them that he would remember as long as he lived. In closing he thanked the clergy from the bottom of his heart for their expression of kindness.

There was another pleasant surprise in store for Bishop Restarick. It was a presentation to him of checks aggregating $850, which had been given by his friends. The presentation was made by J. S. Akerman in a neatly worded speech. He said that the committee having charge of the reception had honored him by permitting him to present to Bishop Restarick checks aggregating $850, the gift of friends near and far, old and new, who, realizing the expense that he would incur in his removal to Honolulu, wanted to show their love for him and appreciation of his long and faithful work in the parish. For this reason they had given the money, hoping he would accept it and use it as he deemed best.

The reply made by Bishop Restarick was frequently interrupted by applause. "I can scarcely address you as fellow churchmen," he said, "but I can use a title that has always been dearest to my heart—fellow men and women. This testimonial is more valuable because I know it comes from Jew and Gentile, rich and poor." It comes from the people, and when I go away from San Diego I shall thank God that I leave no enemy behind. I have no enemy because I have no enmity, and never have had, toward any soul in this city. When I go to the distant islands and you loo kacross the sea, it will not be so very far, after all. As the great ebb and flow of the tide binds us together there is another ebb and flow that will bind us, and that is the ebb and flow of affection which now unites us. As you look upon the waves that wash your shore I hope you will hear them singing that beautiful word 'Aloha,' and as the waves come in one after the other I want you to think that they are bringing you an 'aloha,' a love greeting from me."

Bishop Restarick stated that he had received a number of notes from persons expressing regret at their inability to be present at the reception. He read one from George W. Marston, whom he said he regarded as one of the foremost citizens of San Diego.

Bishop and Mrs. Restarick were kept busy for half an hour or more shaking hands with those who came to extend congratulations. There were many expressions of kindness and regret.

It was announced that refreshments would be served in the dinning hall and the crowd began to melt away, moving in the direction of that hall. This room had also been very prettily decorated, and small tables were placed throughout the hall. Around one of these tables four of the bishops and their wives were seated, and the other tables were used by the visitors. Host Samuel Merrill of the Florence had provided dainty refreshments of punch, lemonade, cakes and sandwiches, which were served to the guests by young ladies. The reception hall was soon deserted for this place, but later was filled again. By 10 o'clock the crowd had dwindled away and Bishop and Mrs. Restarick, almost worn out by the day's events, left for their home.

BABIES AND CHILDREN

should be fairly plump. They ought to put on fat as fast as they use it up; for fat is fuel, and the burning of it makes power and force. Thin children—even along to the age of eighteen or twenty—are in danger from consumption, and from other wasting complaints. The children who starve, and the young men and women who are consumed—why, the very idea of it is frightful. For such as they there is always what the Bible calls a "mighty famine" in the land. Food, though it may be taken plentifully, does not nourish them. It makes no fat; it gives no strength. To prevent this, to cure this, to save the young ones at the mother's knees, and the bright boys and girls who are just looking at the world with ambitious eyes, is the purpose of

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION.

Its success is decided and settled. Thousands owe to it life and health. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. In building up pale, puny, emaciated children, particularly those troubled with Anemia, Scrofula, Rickets, and bone and blood diseases, nothing equals it; its tonic qualities are of the highest order. A Medical Institution says: "We have used your preparation in treating children for coughs, colds and inflammation; its application has never failed us in any case, even the most aggravated bordering on pneumonia. The children like it, they love the taste of it, it looks good to them, and it builds up their bodies; many little children owe their lives to it." Effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by chemists here and everywhere.

WHY STAY PALE?

A pity to see pale girls stay pale and dull when it is so easy to get Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion does a few things well. One of them is to give rich red blood to pale girls. There is a reason for it.

But perhaps you are more interested in results than in reasons.

The result of steady daily doses of Scott's Emulsion is an increase not only in the red color of the blood and in the appetite but in the good looks and bright manners which are the real charm of good health.

Scott's Emulsion is blood food.

FOUR NEW COMPANIES

Telephone Men Are After Local Business.

Four telephone companies are willing and anxious to enter into competition with the Mutual Telephone Co., now operating an exchange in Honolulu. The Executive Council, at yesterday's meeting, considered four applications for permits to operate telephone lines in this city, though no action of any kind was taken. One of the four companies has already been granted permission to establish an exchange, with an underground system within the city. This is the Century Co., which was represented yesterday before the council by Mr. Howard. The remaining three applicants were also present in person and there was prolonged discussion. There were F. J. Cross, representing Wireless interests; Col. J. H. Soper, who appeared for a company headed by Guy Owens, and J. K. Brown, representing the Standard Company. Action was deferred upon the applications until some future meeting. The Century Company, it is reported, is making arrangements to establish an exchange in the city, waiting only for final action on the part of the Executive Council as to rival enterprises.

The remaining portion of the time of the council was taken up with a consideration of liquor licenses and tax and registration boards. The latter have been made up but acceptances have not been received from those to be appointed.

Action was taken on liquor licenses as follows:

Hotel license was granted to G. B. Schrader of Wailuku, Maui; dealer's license was refused to M. Pacheco of Laupahoehoe, Hawaii, the council not deeming it wise to establish a new saloon in that district; a renewal was granted to Dement & Warren, retail liquor license, on Hotel street, and to Cunningham's Favorite saloon; also to C. B. Lennon and Cunningham, and a wholesale liquor license went to Quon Yong Hong Co., Honolulu. The applications of Franca and Simoto Gitaro of Waialua were denied, there being petitions against the saloons. Several applications for permits in the Kau, Hawaii, district, were also turned down.

MAKIKI HOUSE IS BURGLARIZED

At about 9 o'clock yesterday morning a burglar entered the residence of William Lowry, barkeeper for Colonel McCarthy, on Young street between Piikoi and Keeaumoku streets, and stole from a front bedroom a sandalwood box containing a large amount of jewelry. The loss was discovered shortly afterwards by Mrs. Lowry, who telephoned at once to her husband of the loss. Mr. Lowry informed the police department and detectives were put upon the case. The detectives believe they have a clew.

Mr. Lowry had gone down town about 8:30. Just before 9 o'clock Mrs. Lowry went into the rear part of the house, where she remained but a few minutes. On her return to the parlor she noticed that one of the shutter doors was open. She went at once to her bedroom, which also opens out upon the front porch, and discovered that the jewelry box was gone. A small folding picture case, containing old photographs and looking much like a pocket book, had been taken from the parlor table and opened in the bedroom, the pictures being scattered over the counter-pane on the bed. In the box were watches, brooches, rings and chains, all of considerable value, but Mrs. Lowry says her principal loss was several trinkets which once belonged to her mother.

On the matting just inside the parlor the imprint of muddy shoes could be seen, the intruder having evidently come across the wet street.

The section around Piikoi and Young streets and Cottage Grove has been a popular one for the burglar, this being the third robbery within the past month. It is believed that some one tried to get into Colonel McCarthy's house shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday morning, but the intruder was evidently scared off by a neighbor, who heard some one tampering with a window.

manent finance committee came for shekels. He wanted voluntary contributions taken at each meeting from the members then present. Fred Terrill said that this would practically amount to a tax on each Democrat and he made a strenuous objection.

It was conclusively shown, however, that money was necessary, and the motion finally carried. W. H. Johnson, Fred Terrill and D. G. Camarinos were appointed on the committee. "Cammy" thought it time to act and passed his capacious Panama around into which $16 were cast, which was taken as a good omen. John Effinger was then appointed treasurer "without bonds."

C. L. Rhodes then outlined a plan of preliminary campaign which was adopted. He said the Democrats had made a financial showing which put them on a sound basis, and he wanted an enrollment started throughout the island of Oahu to back it up. He moved that the island of Oahu, beginning with Honolulu, be divided up into smaller districts and that a call for volunteers be made to canvass these districts, with instructions to report to Col McCarthy. The motion passed, with the amendment that the present numbered precincts be used as the districts, and canvassed in the manner carried on by the other parties.

The first call for volunteers for the various city precincts, all in the Fourth District, resulted as follows:

John Effinger, first precinct; C. L. Rhodes, second; Mr. McGonagle, fourth; W. H. Johnson, fifth; Fred Terrill, fifth; L. D. Timmons, sixth; D. G. Camarinos, at large.

ALOHA BRANCH THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY.

OFFICIAL NOTICE.

At the regular annual meeting of Aloha Branch T. S., last March, the following officers were unanimously elected for the present year by 17 votes: A. Marques, president; S. I. Shaw, vice president (since resigned through gross insult by A. Fullerton); S. W. Shaw, secretary; W. Dix, treasurer; L. D. Merry, librarian, while Mrs. M. D. Hendricks and Mrs. A. Rowe, who style themselves president and secretary of the same Aloha Branch, were elected on their side by a fraction of five voters only. The alleged cancellation of Aloha charter by A. Fullerton, June 23, at the request of the minority only, is an illegal act which is null and void. Moreover, by resolution of Aloha Branch, dated April 23, Alexander Fullerton, general secretary American section, T. S., has ceased to be recognized in that capacity by the said Aloha Branch, and all intercourse of the branch with him has been suspended until he fully apologizes: (a) for his ungentlemanly and untheosophical conduct in wantonly insulting five members thereof; (b) for his undue favoritism and pandering to the minority faction; and now for his gross partiality against Mr. Marques, who, on January 7th last, was unjustly and illegally expelled, on false and trumped up charges, by Mrs. Hendricks and her four followers (to-wit: Mrs. A. Rowe, the two Misses Rice, music teachers, and J. Rice, their father), in the absence of all the other members, cowardly advantage being moreover taken of Mr. Marques' own absence through sickness, so as to prevent him having any lawful trial and any chance to defend and justify himself, although he had written for a postponement of the meeting in order to be able to attend.

Such is what certain people call Justice, Theosophy and Brotherhood. Fortunately, the whole matter is still on appeal before Colonel Olcott, president-founder T. S.

By order of meeting of July 17, 1902.
S. W. SHAW,
Secretary-Elect Aloha Branch T. S.

RICH LAND
—IN—
Central Kona
FOR SALE

By order of REINNE RODANET, Trustee, I offer for sale those certain parcels of land situate at Onouli, South Kona, Island of Hawaii, described in Royal Patent (Grant) No. 1162 to F. O. Schulze, and containing 174 acres. Royal Patent (Grant) No. 2862 to Awahua and containing 739 75-100 acres, situato at Keopuka and Onouli, Island of Hawaii.

This is a tract of land of over 912 acres, situated in the most fertile and richest portion of the Island of Hawaii. It faces the new Government road, extends to the sea, and is five minutes' walk from Kealakekua Bay, by way of the old Government road which runs through the property. Portions of this land are already under cultivation.

This tract is so situated that it is about midway between Kailua and Hookena, and five miles from Napoopoo, three most important ports of the Kona district. It has sufficient elevation, running up to fourteen hundred feet, to be particularly healthful, and its soil is well adapted to the growth of sugar cane, coffee, fruits, dairying, or for the promotion of diversified farming.

Occupants of this land have easy access to several ports for export, and with the advent of the Kona Railroad will find themselves in close communication with the thriving City of Hilo. This, of couse, affords a splendid opportunity for the exporting of farm products to the California markets.

With the revival of the Kona Sugar Co., considerable portions of this land can be successfully planted to sugar cane.

This is one of the most splendid opportunities for a good investment that has been put upon the market for a considerable period of time.

CHINESE OPEN CLUB

Will Have All the Comforts of Home.

PING PONG IS LEADING GAME

Many Attractions of the Newly Opened Headquarters—Experts for Tournament.

Every comfort of home is added to the equipment of the newest club of the city, the Chinese Social Club. This late organization has taken for its home the house at the mauka-Waikiki corner of Vineyard and Nuuanu streets, and has fitted up the rooms so that there are offered all the various apartments which constitute a well appointed gentlemen's club.

The organization of the club is the work of A. L. Ahlo, who has found the lack of such a resort for the convenience of the Chinese merchants of the city, who heretofore have had no place for meeting for social enjoyments other than their offices and homes. Owing to the fact that the young generation of the business men are growing up to look forward to having every kind of pleasure that their position and means afford, the club was decided upon, and last week was inaugurated, so that at present it is fast making its way into favor.

Anthony L. Ahlo is the president. Lau Tung is vice president, Yap Far secretary and En Yet treasurer, while the management is in the hands of F. Korn, with George Kentwell as assistant. This staff has undertaken the getting together of the various equipment of a modern club and already there are several rooms of the house fitted up completely and comfortably. The ground floor rooms at the front have been equipped as the ping-pong rooms, where there are now two tables, and another is to be added at once, owing to the fact that there is more demand for the game than can be accommodated by the present tables. There is an adequate reading room, where there are on file the various newspapers of the day and some choice bits of Chinese literature as well.

A cafe is to be added at once and refreshment arrangements are to be made a feature. There will be card rooms, and owing to the size of the house and the fact that the present demands of the club are not such as to make all of the space valuable for the direct purposes of the organization, it is proposed to let some of the apartments to bachelor members of the organization.

The membership of the club will be extended until it comprises all the prominent Chinese business men of the city. The officials are busily presenting it to the attention of the various merchants, and already there are a majority of them in the list of the members. There is, however, such a number of the younger generation that the club is never without some members in attendance. The older men make it their headquarters Saturday afternoon and Sundays, and there was at the last week end quite a gathering of the substantial men of the Chinese community at the club house.

The officials of the Chinese consular staff here are to be made honorary members of the club, and the usual advantage of putting up a friend from out of town during his visit will be followed.

The ping-pong spirit is high and the club will send two entries to the open tournament of the Elks. One of them probably will be Mr. Ahlo, who is an expert at the game.

LOAN LIBRARY OF THE Y. W. C. A.

New Books Presented—Need of a Permanent Collection.

The loan library of the Young Women's Christian Association is increasing steadily and a splendid range of reading is now offered to the young women members. Mrs. P. C. Jones has recently given eight volumes of bright works especially helpful to young women. During the past year numbers of good books have been coming to the association and the foundations are now laid for a fine permanent collection of books which Mrs. Brown, the secretary, trusts will be achieved.

The lunch room has been fortunate recently in receiving quantities of choice papaias, mangoes and bananas, especially picked for the room by Mrs. P. C. Jones, Mrs. Richards and A. F. Cooke. The frequenters of the lunch room more than appreciate the gifts.

Large quantities of recent numbers of the popular magazines which have been sent to the Young Men's and Young Women's Associations have been distributed amongst the jackies aboard the Mohican, and profuse thanks were made to those who brought them to the ship.

Dysentery causes the death of more people than smallpox and yellow fever combined. In an army it is dreaded more than a battle. It requires prompt and effective treatment. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery in the United States with perfect success, and has cured the most malignant cases both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it today. It may save a life. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.

ASADA & CO. 28 HOTEL STREET.

FIRE ON ROOF OF YOUNG BLOCK

Dozens of peoeple along Hotel street shortly before 11 o'clock last night noticed a tongue of flame appear upon the roof of the Hotel street side of the Young building. An alarm was turned in, but before the department could lay the hose from Fort and Hotel streets to the building two watchmen stationed at the building had put out the flame.

The fire was identical with a previous one at the same place. A barrel of charcoal, into which it is presumed plumbers had thrown the contents of their pots after pouring water in them, was presumably fanned by the wind and a small spark may have caused the fire. The watchmen got on the roof and threw gravel on the fire, putting it out in short order. No damage was done.

Prices Reduced Far Below Cost

These curtains are not too elegant for Honolulu people, but the prices are evidently too high. They are of the most exquisite patterns and designs, all directly imported from Switzerland. Many have admired them, but when it came to paying $22.00 for a pair of curtains, they were not wanted. On the mainland regular prices could easily be gotten for them—however that's not here. We are going to dispose of these curtains at an enormous sacrifice in price and offer you this opportunity. It's a chance to have curtains worthy of the costliest mansion at ordinary curtain prices. WHERE WAS HER ANCHOR LIGHT?

Mohican Was in Danger in the Naval Row Last Night.

"Shiver my timbers, Bill! If that was a merchant ship every night Inspector in the Customs would report her; she'd get fined; and perhaps lose her insurance," said a sailor to another on the water front last night.

"What's crossing your bow now, Jack?" asked his mate.

"Why, blime, there's that landsman's bark Mohican out there at anchor in the naval row without an anchor light. There's one up in her fore stays but it went out over two hours ago and has not been relighted. You can hear the mosquitoes sitting on the lantern singing 'Home, Sweet Home and the Fire Out!'"

"Has she got no lookout?" asked Bill.

"Yes, but he's putting in all his time singing out 'Boat ahoy!' as she's taking in stores tonight to get ready for her trip home."

Yes. The sailors were right. One of the crack training ships of the United States Navy lay out in the stream without her anchor light burning last evening, and if anything had stove her bow in the United States Government would have been unable to collect a "bean" for the damage done. There was much comment over the matter on the water front and many people declared that a boat should be sent off to tell the officers that their light was out so that it could be lighted and a menace to shipping become safer.

"I've Been Doing Splendidly for Three Years."

VOTERS MUST BE CITIZENS

View Taken by Ridgeway of Hilo Opposed by Clerk Maling.

The view taken by J. Castle Ridgeway, president of the Hilo Republican Club, that all men residing in the Territory for one year and who have declared their intention of becoming citizens, can vote at the coming election, is not concurred in by attorneys and others in Honolulu. Ridgeway relies upon section 1859 of the Revised Statutes, which says:

"Every male citizen above the age of 21, including persons who have legally declared their intention to become citizens in any Territory hereafter organized, and who are actual residents of such Territory at the time of the organization thereof, shall be entitled to vote at the first election in such Territory, and to hold any office therein, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations specified in the next section.

"At all subsequent elections, however, in any Territory hereafter organized by Congress, the qualifications of voters and of holding office shall be such as may be prescribed by the Legislative Assembly of each Territory, subject, nevertheless, to the following restrictions on the power of the Legislative Assembly, namely:

"First. The right of suffrage and of holding office shall be exercised only by citizens of the United States above the age of 21 years, and by those above that age who have declared on oath, before a competent court of record, their intention to become such, and have taken an oath to support the Constitution and Government of the United States."

United States Clerk W. B. Maling, who issues the first papers to prospective citizens in the Territory, takes the view that residents do not become voters until fully naturalized. He cites the Organic Act, which is a law of later date than the one referred to by Mr. Ridgway in support of his position. Section 60, giving the required qualifications of those voting for Representative, and which are necessary to vote at all in the Territory, says:

"That in order to be qualified to vote for Representative a person shall:

"First. Be a male citizen of the United States.

"Second. Have resided in the Territory not less than one year preceding and in the Representative district in which he offers to register not less than three months immediately preceding the time at which he offers to register.

"Third. Have attained the age of 21 years."

SIR LIANG CHEN WILL BE POPULAR

The New Chinese Minister Well Known to Local Officials.

Sir Liang Chen Tung, the newly appointed Minister to Washington to represent the Chinese empire, is well known by reputation to every official of China now in the city, and there is felt for him in every quarter the greatest admiration. His career has been one full of the best kind of service, and he is looked upon as one of the coming great men of the Orient.

"While we have no official news of the selection of Sir Liang as the successor of Minister Wu," said Dr. Li Kong Heng, commissioner of the Chinese Foreign Office investigating affairs here, yesterday, "we are quite ready to believe that the information is correct. The new Minister is a man of the most modern education, of wide views and fitted by every equipment for the post of Minister to the United States. While Minister Wu has become exceedingly popular during his long stay at Washington, Sir Liang will prove to be a man who will gain and hold the respect of the people, and will have a high place in the popular mind.

"His education having been acquired at Yale and he having served at Washington, as well as at Yokohama, Berlin and London, he is a man exceedingly well fitted for the post. He is a progressive man but not what is known as a reformer. The high place he holds in the esteem of Pekin is shown by the fact that he was one of the special embassy to England on the occasion of the jubilee of the late Queen Victoria. Last year he was sent to Berlin with the mission of Prince Ching, and even now he is in London as the first secretary of the embassy sent to the coronation of King Edward.

"Our families have been friends for generations and I was a schoolmate of the brother of Sir Liang. The brother was secretary at Havana and from that post he was transferred to be Consul at Manila, where he is now in service. The appointment of Sir Liang will be one of the most popular that could have been made on both sides."

of the puniest, weakest specimens of manhood. I care not how long they have suffered, nor what has failed to cure them. This is no idle boast, as I have done it for thousands, and many of them had spent from one dollar to five hundred without obtaining relief before coming to me as a last resort. My

WATER FRONT NEWS

MOHICAN SAILS ON WEDNESDAY

Police Looking for Lads Who Have Taken French Leave.

It was Sunday. Crowds of people were, as the sailors say, "rubbering all over the Mohican." The training ship was receiving visitors. All the brasswork had an extra polish. The messengers were guiding ladies about the ship.

Two young women were being shown through the quarters on the berth deck. They stopped to make some observations, one saying: "Oh, isn't this lovely, Ethel? Don't you wish that you were a boy so that you could join the Navy? I tell you it's immense." Just then they were startled by a deep, musical, bass voice which said: "O, life on the billowing sea, my friends, it's the jolliest game in the world—I don't think, I guess nit." "Who's that?" asked both girls in one breath. "Oh, that's a prisoner in the brig," replied the landsman at their side; "we've got two in there and that's all there's room for or there would be more in there. You see we've always got fellows under sentence who are waiting their turn to go in there and serve them. Those two fellows in the brig now are reckoned the meanest on the Mohican. Nobody's got any use for them and they have raised particular thunder here. Coming over from Yokohama our officers read the riot act to them and they were court-martialed with the result that they are to be given 'bad conduct discharges' when we get to the mainland. They are kept in there now so that they won't run away while we're in Honolulu."

The girls' ideas about the sea had undergone a quick change and in a moment one of them was asking if many of the boys were successful in getting away from the ship. "Well," replied the talkative messenger, "a lot of them run away the last time we were in Honolulu and five of them have deserted this time. They are in hiding somewhere in the town now. A reward of $10 is paid for the arrest of each of them."

The young fellow in one of the compartments of the brig was now murmuring something about a home and a sweet home, so the girls moved up to the gun deck and were initiated with others into the mysteries of a "ditty box." Each man aboard is provided with one of these small boxes and their contents are usually strange and wonderful to behold. There are writing paper, pencils, pens, ink, needles, thread and many little nick-nacks picked up in Oriental countries and Pacific Islands. In the boxes one sees photographs of cute looking little Jap girls which the owners treasure carefully although there is only about one chance in ten thousand of them ever seeing each other again. There are Jap gods and idols, and in fact enough small things to start a curio store with.

"You have great chances for getting curios. Does the department at Washington send the boat to ports where you can get plenty of them?"

"I guess not," responded the seaman; "they don't fit these boats out just to let us collect curios."

A launch with a boat filled with members of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. As. came alongside and the young men and young women clambered aboard to hold a religious service. There were big bundles of magazines for distribution among the many young fellows aboard.

It is expected that the Mohican will sail for Puget Sound on Wednesday. She is still lying in the stream and will remain there until sailing time.

Kinau to Go to Coast.

Today the steamer Kinau, Captain Freeman, makes her last trip to Hilo for the present. On her return here she will be got ready and sent to San Francisco, where some repairs are to be made to her. She will probably leave here early next week. The only passengers so far booked for the trip to San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fannell and child, but a number of others will probably go by her. She will take 300 tons of sugar as cargo.

Lepers for Molokai.

The steamer Lehua carried a party of lepers to Molokai settlement last night. After leaving the Wilder's Steamship wharf the steamer went to Channel wharf, where the lepers were taken aboard.

Tampico Lost Propeller Blade.

The steamer Tampico lost a propeller blade on her voyage down from Seattle and yesterday was backed up to the marine railway, where she was raised a little for repairs.

The Alameda will sail for San Francisco at 5 p. m. Wednesday.

The schooner Charles L. Woodbury sails for Hilo this afternoon.

The schooner Eclipse sails at 5 p. m. today for Molokai, Maui and Hawaii ports.

Coal barges are moored alongside the United States training ship Mohican and she will start coaling this morning.

Stevedores worked until a late hour last night discharging the cargo of the Alameda in order that she may be ready to leave on Wednesday.

HENS STRIKE ON BERTIE MINOR

They Stop Laying Eggs Because of a Filipino Cook.

Twelve hens on the schooner Bertie Minor, which is discharging redwood timber at the Navy wharf, are on strike and the most drastic treatment or the kindest action of the schooner's captain does not seem effective in settling things. The strike has lasted ever since the schooner left Seattle. The hens refuse to lay eggs.

"You see it's this way," said Captain Ravens yesterday. "I am disgusted with those twelve hens over there in that box on the poop. I have been sailing to Honolulu and Hawaiian ports for the past twenty-seven years and have never had such a thing happen before. I have never been without hens and never had them before that refused to lay eggs. I have made several voyages around the Horn and my hens always laid. On one trip I was 181 days making Liverpool from San Francisco and every hen I had kept right down to business and furnished us with a good supply. I've had these hens aboard a long time and they have always laid eggs right up to the handle until this last trip. On my last trip up to Eureka those twelve hens laid an average of ten eggs every day, Sundays included, and we got on well. But this trip down from Seattle they absolutely refused to work and the result is that we have to pay a big price here for what eggs we want.

"I don't blame the hens so much," continued the skipper, "as I do that confounded rooster I've got in with them. He's the one that's really doing the walk-out business and the hens are on strike in sympathy with him.

"I don't exactly know what the reason is for the strike but I suspect it's all because of a cook I've got on board. The rooster must have heard me calling the cook down for frying the eggs too much one morning when I told him (the cook) that the eggs were not fit for a sky pilot to eat. This must have made the rooster go out on strike against the cook in sympathy for me, and I don't want any such sympathy. You see the whole chicken tribe has got it in for the cook because he's a Filipino. I got him in Eureka and I'm teaching him how to cook as he don't know much about it. You see, he'd been on a Chinese bark whose captain was an Englishman. The captain was married to a China woman and had five half-breed children. Then there were Malays, white men and various other breeds of men aboard and in trying to cook for the lot of 'em and suit 'em all he got slightly mixed. He's mixed yet and so when he feeds the chickens hot tea instead of good cool water they naturally rebel and a climax has been reached by the Filipino insulting the rooster.

"How could he insult a rooster? Well, I'll tell you. He goes alongside the coop just after the poultry tribe has retired for the night and reaches his hand under Mr. Rooster to see if he has laid an egg!

"But you bet your boots, I'll win," said the captain. "If those hens don't drop eggs pretty quick I'll let the Filipino kill them and I'll eat every one of them."

KAWAIAHAO SEMINARY

Miss McLeod Is to Become the Principal.

DAMON'S SCHOOL TO AFFILIATE

The New Teacher a Canadian Who Comes of a Literary Family.

The board of trustees of Kawaiahao Seminary is most fortunate in securing the services of Miss Katheryn McLeod as principal. Miss McLeod, whose devotion to the mission cause leads her to teach in native schools, is an unusually clever young lady, an honor graduate in English of Acadia University and a graduate of its missionary training school, New York. She is besides a writer of considerable ability, her contributions frequently appearing in American and Canadian periodicals. Miss McLeod comes from good literary stock, being a daughter of A. J. McLeod, a prominent lawyer, author of the recent successful romance, "The Notary of Grand Pre." A sister, Grace Dean McLeod, is a well-known and charming writer of Canadian stories, and another sister, Ida M. Ellis of Tennessee, is known as one of the foremost literary women of the South. The seminary, which during the coming year is to be affiliated with Mr. Damon's schools of native and Chinese boys, is likely to become a force for vast good in the educational cause of the island, and the appointment of so cultured and capable a principal will go far toward making a success of the larger and united undertaking.

Following is a note of Miss McLeod's coming from a Canadian Baptist publication, the Messenger and Visitor:

"Miss Katheryn C. McLeod, personally known to some readers of the Messenger and Visitor, and to many others by her valued contributions to its columns, has been appointed to the principalship of Kawaiahao Seminary in Honolulu, in which she has been teaching the past year. The school, we understand, is one of very considerable importance. Miss McLeod's endowments of head and heart should admirably fit her for such a position, and her many friends here will, we are sure, heartily congratulate her upon this appointment as a fitting recognition of her ability and culture."

The Halifax Herald says: "Miss Katheryn McLeod, sister of the well-known author, Grace Deane Rogers McLeod, Amherst, a former student of Acadia, and a teacher in the South, has recently been appointed principal of Kawaiahao Seminary, Honolulu, in which school she has been teaching the past year."

MARCONI SYSTEM ON THE COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13. — R. Pfund, representing the Marconi Wireless Telegraphy Company, stated last evening at the Occidental Hotel, where he is registered, that his company proposes establishing the system on this coast. It is intended to secure a site somewhere in the vicinity of Point Lobos and communicate with incoming ships, as is now being done on the Atlantic Coast. Mr. Pfund is hopeful that all the outgoing liners will install the Marconi system on board, thus enabling the passengers to telegraph to their friends while 100 miles away from land.

Mr. Pfund said the system would not be in operation for a few months, as the necessary apparatus for wireless telegraphy would have to be sent here from the East. He is sanguine that before the year has passed it will be possible to have direct communication with the Hawaiian Islands and subsequently with Australia and New Zealand.

The expert dwelt at length on the rapid strides the Marconi system has made within the last few years. He told of the New York Herald's method of reporting incoming ships through the Nantucket lightship, which is stationed fifty miles from the nearest land.

Stanley Cook, a bright young man who was stationed on the lightship for many weeks, has accompanied Mr. Pfund here. Both will depart for Seattle within a few days in order to look up a site for wireless telegraphy stations and from there will visit Portland and later Cape Flattery in order to locate stations. On the 18th inst. the pair will leave for St. Michael. They will take up a complete apparatus and a two-horse power kerosene engine for charging the storage batteries. Mr. Pfund has letters of introduction from General Greely to the commander of Fort Gibbon. The wireless telegraph expert goes to Alaska to establish a wireless telegraph station between the fort and some point on the Tanana river, near Bates Rapids. The Government is vitally interested in this project as it is impossible to use cables in this ice-ridden country.

Summer complaint is the children's most dangerous enemy and the mother's most dreaded foe. Immediate and proper treatment is always necessary. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, given according to directions, is the most effectual remedy known. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it today. It may save a life. Benson, Smith & Co. Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.

ASK WRIT OF ERROR

Preparing Appeal In Honolulu's Case.

JURY TRIAL SAID TO BE ILLEGAL

Jury Also Alleged to Have Given too Much Weight to Expert Testimony.

The petition for writ of error in the Honolulu Plantation Co. case will be presented in United States Court this morning. The assignment of errors relied upon in the appeal was filed in court yesterday. It sets out in part the same reasons in support of the application as were previously given in the motion for a new trial and in exceptions to the verdict and ruling of the court.

Assistant United States Attorney Dunne in the assignment of errors alleges that the evidence was insufficient to support any verdict in excess of $75,000 or to support any findings of damages for improvements on the land.

The judgment is alleged to be in error "Because said verdict was made, given and rendered by a jury."

It is further set out:

"Said verdict is excessive, in this, that it attempts to award excessive, unreasonable, and inconsistent compensation for damages herein, the amount thereof being without the evidence, with no evidence to support it, and against the evidence, and against the former adjudication of said court made July 25th, 1902.

"Said verdict is contrary to and against the charge of the court herein:

"(a) Because said jury failed to consider all the testimony as a whole, with all its reasonable inferences.

"(b) Because said jury failed to consider the market value of the land involved in its actual condition on July 6th, 1901.

"(c) Because said jury considered speculative or possible value and not market value.

"(d) Because said jury was neither guided nor governed by the preponderance of the evidence or by the amount of just compensation to be awarded.

"(e) Because said jury gave undue and excessive weight to the expert testimony introduced by the said Honolulu Plantation Company.

"Said court erred in refusing to grant a new trial herein:

"(a) Because said cause was illegally tried before a jury, instead of before a court.

"(b) Because said court, in passing upon plaintiff and petitioner's motion for a new trial of said cause, did not weigh all the evidence and did not exercise its discretion to say whether or not, in its opinion, said verdict was so opposed to the weight of the evidence that new trial should be granted, and did not accord to said plaintiff and petitioner its right to have all the evidence weighed by said court and to have said discretion of said court exercised in the mode and manner just herein referred to."

IT'S ALL TALK

Yes, But it is Honolulu Talk the Kind that Counts in Honolulu.

Talk that tells.
Talk that's endorsed.
Every day talk by people who know.
City talk, kidney talk.
Do kidneys talk?
Well, yes, both loud and long.
You should learn the kidney language.
Backache in kidney talk means kidney ache.
Lame back means lame kidneys.
A bad back is simply
The kidneys talking trouble.
Here's Honolulu talk and kidney talk:

Mrs. Grace Dodd of 524 Young street, this city, informs us: "My sufferings were of a complicated nature; I had enlargement of the liver, according to the doctors' diagnosis, and besides this was troubled with severe pains in the right side, and a lame back. I had these backache pains for two years, and so severe were they at times that they prevented me from sleeping. All the medicines I tried were of no avail until I got some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store, and used them. The benefit obtained was wonderful; the backache was entirely relieved and I cannot be too grateful for this since I now enjoy good sleep—one of the chief of Nature's blessings."

It is important to get the same medicine which helped Mrs. Dodd—DOAN'S BACKACHE KIDNEY PILLS. Therefore ask for Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
