PRINCE CUPID AS A REPUBLICAN WILL BE THE PARTY NOMINEE FOR DELEGATE TO CONGRESS

Convention Frames Declaration of Principles and Names Committeemen.

Decision as to the Nominee is Reached After Long Debate Which Follows Harmonious Preliminaries.

PRINCE CUPID KALANIANAOLE will be the Republican nominee for Delegate to Congress. This was decided last night at a caucus of the delegates to the Republican convention, which, receiving the announcement that Prince Cupid had come out squarely as a Republican with cheers which reached the street, without hesitation, waiting only for the speeches of the friends of the Prince, decided by a vote practically unanimous that he should have the nomination.

This culmination came after a day full of stirring events. It was a day of hard work and as well of conferences which tried the patience and called for the skill of the leaders. First it was the hope of a union of all the opposing forces against Wilcox; then it was a declaration of Republicanism against the opposition and this staunch feeling was successful and the prince, who has been feeling the pulse of his fellows for a month past, following the impulse which has been animating his actions ever since his defection from the Delegate announced his firm adherence to the faith of the majority party of the nation and within the hour the Republicans had declared that he should be their standard bearer.

The first sessions of the convention of the Republican party of the Territory of Hawaii were full of hard work and abounding enthusiasm. It was a time of harmony and there was no one so weak in party allegiance but felt the impulse of the enthusiasm which showed in every utterance of orator or mover of worker. There was a struggle over the county government plank but that was only a matter of detail, for as soon as the main principle was settled, there was a rush to make the declaration of the platform binding and the result was the complete satisfaction of every delegate.

Expressions of opinions there were many, contests there were on the floor, but it was the generous rivalry of friends striving for honor rather than the hot blooded struggle of partisans, and when at length the doings of the day were ended, it was the feeling that the work was well done and that the future efforts promise to be as full of hope for the redemption of the Territory.

CONVENTION CALLED TO ORDER.

The convention began with applause, for the appearance of Chairman Robertson of the Republican Central Committee on the platform to call for order was the signal for a reception. Mr. Robertson after the reading of the convention call had it translated for the Hawaiian members.

Mr. Robertson then, on behalf of the able of making a good presiding officer. J. L. Kaulukou seconded the motion. Holstein was elected and upon the appointment of Chairman Robertson was escorted to the chair by Judge Kaulukou and W. H. Rice. The appearance of Mr. Holstein was the signal for applause and the convention was quite in humor to hear his opening speech. He said:

CHAIRMAN HOLSTEIN'S ADDRESS.

Fellow Delegates and Fellow Citizens—I want to thank you most sincerely for this distinguished honor. I believe and I know that it is an honor. It is a great honor to be chosen as temporary presiding officer for the Republican convention. I shall not detain you long in what little I have to say; only to tell you that you all know what the Republican party is. You all know what it has accomplished; you know what are its leaders; you know what it can do and what it expects of each of us, and therefore, gentlemen, we are here on business and we must expedite business. I want also to tell you that the Republican party in these islands is young, strong, conscious of its power, united, popular, and growing; and, in my best judgment, the Grand Old Party here was never in better state or more determined to win than at the present time. (Applause.)

There is every incentive for success and every promise of victory. The battle cry is now for an intelligent, economical and business-like legislature, and we claim that it can only be effected through the medium of the Republican party. (Applause.)

We have had Wilcox and his gang for two years and it strikes me that it is about time to take a tumble to ourselves. Wilcox has been a failure throughout. We knew at the time he was elected a candidate for the Home Rulers and we even went so far as to tell the Home Rulers so, but they have had their belly full of him. We could bring up innumerable indictments against that man for his slanders against us, as well as Democrats, and for more or less causing the Hawaiians to believe that the white men are their worst enemies. All this has had a tendency to show what the man is and always will be—nothing but a poor and simple demagogue. He has failed to accomplish anything in Washington, because, in the first place, fellow delegates, he did not belong to either one of the great parties in Congress. In the second place he was not endowed with enough ability, we fear; and, whether his failure lies in the fact (as he prides himself) on his resemblance to Napoleon so much, I do not know. In the third place, he has always been damning the missionaries, to which category

we belong. The time has come now, and the people demand, a change, and they are going to get this change, and when it comes to a question like this, and a very important one, fusion between the Democrats, the Portuguese, the Kuokoas and the Republicans is desirable, and I hope that our friends in the minority will defer to the will of the majority, so that the defeat of Wilcox may be accomplished. I believe, my friends, that these parties are actuated with the same motive, the same resolution, and the same desire that has brought us together, and that is to devise ways and means whereby Wilcox may be buried forever. (Applause.) Since my arrival here I have been doing a little missionary work among the Home Rulers. From what I have seen and from what I have heard, I can truthfully say that you

PLATFORM OF PARTY AS REPORTED TO CONVENTION

To the Chairman and Members of the Third Republican Territorial Convention of Hawaii:

Your committee on platform beg leave to submit the following platform for adoption by this convention:

Platform of the Republican Party of the Territory of Hawaii:

The Republican party of the Territory of Hawaii, in convention assembled, hereby make the following declaration of principles, to the support of which we and our candidates are pledged:

1. We proclaim anew our adherence to the traditions and policies of the Republican party and announce our unwavering allegiance to the principles of that party as contained in its national platform adopted in Philadelphia in 1900.

2. To President Roosevelt we accord our most cordial endorsement for his mastery administration of national affairs and the faithfulness with which he has carried out the principles of Republicanism and we are proud of his ability, his courage and his sturdy Americanism.

3. We believe in the equality of all men under just laws and in the right of every man to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness and we shall emphatically and uncompromisingly oppose any restriction or limitation of the suffrage which we now enjoy under the Organic Act.

4. We demand the passage of an act by the next Legislature establishing county governments in Hawaii modeled after the most advanced and popular systems elsewhere and containing a clause submitting the act to the voters for ratification at a special election to be called for that purpose; and we further demand the passage of a general municipal government act by which such municipalities as now exist may establish cities, towns and villages.

5. We urge Congress to appropriate such an amount as will pay the awards of the fire claims commission and pledge ourselves to use every effort to obtain such appropriation.

6. We urge continued liberal appropriations for the maintenance of our unfortunate fellow citizens segregated at Kalaupapa and Kalawao, Molokai, and for the erection and maintenance of a suitable home for the non-leprous children of leprosy patients.

7. We shall as speedily as possible endeavor to secure statehood for this Territory.

8. We demand more speedy improvement of our harbors, wharves and landing facilities throughout the Territory to meet the requirements of our rapidly increasing commerce and we shall strive to secure from the National Congress appropriations for the improvement of our harbors, the erection of public buildings and for other public needs.

9. We favor the employment on all public works of only qualified voters and citizens of the Territory and we declare that eight hours should constitute a day's work on all public works of the Territory or its political subdivisions.

10. We favor the continuance by the Legislature of a permanent settlement upon ex-Queen Liliuokalani.

11. We recognize the importance of diversified industries and shall endeavor to secure from Congress the protection of the same from foreign competition.

12. We demand the revision of the present system of taxation by the next Legislature with a view of adjusting the public burden so as to be least felt by the poor.

13. We do not favor legislation tending toward the conducting of the liquor business by the Territorial government.

14. We earnestly request the Congress of the United States to amend that portion of Territorial act which provides that the English language only shall be used in the legislative proceedings, so as to permit the use of the Hawaiian language.

15. We oppose all trusts and monopolies and all combinations tending to control supplies and prices.

16. We demand liberal appropriations for school buildings throughout the Territory, to provide ample accommodations for all children of school age.

17. We urge liberal appropriations for the improvement and maintenance of the public highways throughout the Territory.

18. The only manner in which the country can receive the benefit of Republican principles is through the election of Republican candidates. To succeed at the polls it is essential that the party be fully organized and thoroughly united. The best method of securing organization is through the institution and maintenance of Republican clubs covering every election precinct in the Territory. We deem it therefore the duty of every man who believes in the doctrines of the Republican party to become a member of the Republican club of his election precinct and the duty of every Republican club to heartily and unitedly support the nominees of the Republican party.

Relying upon the wisdom and support of the voters of the Territory of Hawaii and the guidance of Divine Providence, we shall earnestly strive to carry out the foregoing declarations and to do whatever else may be necessary to perpetuate upon our soil "a government of the people, by the people and for the people."

Democrats Decide to Become Home Rulers for the Sake of Offices.

Many Conferences Result in an Agreement to Consolidate the Two Parties on Spoils Basis.

DEMOCRACY practically changed its name last night to Home Ruleism, when the local party of Democrats adopted the report of a subcommittee through its chairman, Col. McCarthy, to effect a fusion with the Home Rule party and place R. W. Wilcox at the head of the van as their standard bearer. This morning a committee consisting of Col. McCarthy, Frank Harvey and Fred Hayselden will confer with a committee appointed by the Home Rulers to agree upon the representation that each party will have upon the legislative ticket. Robert Wilcox will head the fusion ticket for delegate to Congress.

The Democrats held a meeting last night in Waverley hall to hear the report of the sub-committee appointed by the general committee on fusion, and adopted the report to fuse with the Home Rulers, without much dissent. In fact, the Democrats claimed that the Democratic and Home Rule parties were one and the same thing, and that Wilcox, if elected by the combination, would have a good deal to say in Washington next session despite statements to the contrary that the delegate from Hawaii would have to be in harmony with the Republican party which was now in control of the administration.

When the meeting was called to order, Col. McCarthy for the general committee arose and stated that the subcommittee had practically effected a fusion with the Home Rulers, and asked for the rejection or adoption of the report. Dr. Noblitt moved that the report of the committee be adopted, and it was carried. The Democrats, who had previously lambasted Wilcox to the best of their ability, then arose and began to tell how much they had always admired him, both personally and politically.

Col. Cornwell stated his position in the matter, saying that the fusion with the Home Rulers was the only thing the Democrats could do, and although he was a good Democrat, yet he saw no other course open than to endorse Wilcox.

Fred Terrill said he had opposed Wilcox, but if the Democratic party joined with the Home Rulers he would tell every Hawaiian that it was the best move that had ever been made. He said the Republicans had taken a lantern to look for a man to head the ticket and were doing anything "to beat Wilcox." To him this was insincerity. He said this was not for the benefit of the Home Rulers. He said the Republicans had gone to Cupid and asked whether he would run on their ticket to beat Wilcox. He wanted to know if this was sincerity to "us." The administration at Washington had promised a Republican victory in Hawaii this fall, and to that end have been looking for a candidate to beat Wilcox. He thought Wilcox was the man for the Democrats, and was an eminently proper man to head their ticket.

Frank Harvey spoke in a similar vein saying, "When the wind blows we must follow the wind in order to win the day."

Charles Creighton said he heartily endorsed Cornwell, and like Cornwell, the Democratic national committeeman, he would vote for and stand for Wilcox through thick and thin. That was the true spirit of the true Democrat. He was glad they had fused with Wilcox, for it meant victory. It meant to him the combination of the people "against the autocratic clique who, under the head and name of Republican, is tyrannizing the Territory." The Democrats and Home Rulers would stand by the ticket to demonstrate to Washington and all over the United States "that these special, paid envoys who have gone to Washington and belittled the Home Rulers and us (Democrats), are nobodies."

"It has been said that Wilcox did not accomplish anything at Washington," said Creighton. "Why, even the Republicans from Boston, where the missionaries here spring from—"

"I'm from Boston myself," said Col. McCarthy, interrupting.

"Don't succeed in doing much the first session," continued Creighton. "Wilcox went as neither Democrat nor Republican, but he went after beating the Democrats and Republicans. He could not affiliate with them, because they could not take him up."

"Next time, however, he will go to Washington with the support of the Democrats and Home Rulers, and will then have something to say."

Tom Lucas said he was born a Democrat; that was his only reason for being one now. He said he did not dislike Wilcox. Wilcox was not a bad man. He apologized for Wilcox's failure to get anything for Hawaii on the ground that it was his first session and he did not know the ropes. He understood it was a Democrat who introduced Wilcox to McKinley. McKinley was a better Democrat than a Republican, in his opinion.

"The Democrat and Home Rule parties are one and the same," concluded Tommy.

The meeting adjourned with the proviso of being called again shortly by the chair to ratify whatever action is taken by the fusion committee with the Wilcox fusion committee today. At the first caucus of the Democrats, held yesterday morning, participated in not only by members of the club but by prominent Democrats of the city, the trend of the discussion was so apparent as to what the club wanted that men like S. M. Damon, E. B. McClanahan, J. O. Carter and others, who have always placed principle above opportunism, declared they could no longer act with the local Democracy.

Territorial Central Committee, thanked the gentlemen assembled for their support since the beginning of the organization and expressed a trust that they would turn the organization over to their successors in at least as good a shape as they had received it. The large attendance proved that the Republican party was alive and vigorous throughout the group. As there was much business to be done he would now call for the election of a temporary president.

As soon as Mr. Robertson called for nominations Senator Achi was on his feet and at once placed in nomination H. L. Holstein, of Kohala. He said the man he named was a young Republican who was heart and soul in the fight and that he was thoroughly ca-are going to have a perfect landslide down here in favor of the Republican party. The reason is very plain. The people are becoming interested in the outcome of this campaign. They are interested to the extent of sending a message direct East telling them there that we here will redeem ourselves of that calamity of two years ago which sent Wilcox to Congress. They are now, as I say, interested in it, and their wishes will be obeyed, and it strikes me that the next man who will be elected at delegate to Congress will be a Republican. (Applause.)

I was asked by a prominent Home Rule man this morning what we want. I can tell you right here what we desire. We want to elect a man to go to Washington who is in sympathy with the majority in Congress. We want to send a man there that is endowed with sufficient brains and acquainted with the English language; if he can do nothing else, get for ourselves a party who is for our Territorial interests. We do not want to send a man there who will merely look wise and draft milk bills. (Laughter and applause.) Just pause a moment. Congress appropriated one thousand million of dollars and yet there was not a dollar—not even a red cent—procured for Hawaii—not a bean for Hawaii—except the packages of vegetable seeds sent out here once. (Laughter and applause.)

As I said, fellow delegates, I will not detain you long. We are down here from the country and we expect to go back tomorrow; and we want to have matters settled as soon as possible. But I wish to relate the fact that we are going to hold an election next November which will be of interest to Hawaii. The eyes of the whole American people will be upon us. By the verdict of that day we shall send forth the greeting of Hawaii to the people of the United States and to the Republican party, and show that we are in favor of progressive principles and not of Home Rulers and ignoramuses.

I want, therefore, every person within this assembly to work from now until the close of the polls. We can do much, my friends, we can all do much, if we only have the men to do so. I want you to close up your shops, your stores and plantations, and work for your country, and I am satisfied that if you do so that the wireless telegram which will reach me on Maui will be that the Hawaiian Territory has gone overwhelmingly Republican. (Prolonged applause.)

Mr. Holstein aroused enthusiasm on many points and several times had the delegates laughing over his characterizations of the Delegate. His scoring of Wilcox for bringing up questions of race prejudice and his talk about his failures, were signals for outbursts and the speech as the keynote of the convention was fully appreciated.

J. D. Avery was chosen temporary secretary and then H. P. Baldwin moved a committee of one from each district to pass upon the credentials of the delegates. The chair appointed George H. Renton chairman of the committee with the following associates: A. C. McKinney, J. K. Nahale, J. N. K. Keola, Joe Luahiwa and W. H. Rice.

There was a recess of a quarter of an hour while the convention committee was deliberating and then the report showed the representation of the full strength of the convention. It was as follows:

REPORT ON CREDENTIALS.

Hon. H. L. Holstein, Chairman Republican Territorial Convention: Sir—Your committee on credentials have examined the credentials of the delegates to this convention and find the same in order, as per attached list from the Territorial headquarters.

Your committee would also report the following delegates represented by proxies as set forth below:

John K. Kamanoulu, by Jonah Kumalae.
D. E. Maydwell, by J. K. Mahale.
J. Holland, by A. C. McKinney.
R. E. Shellberg, by A. C. McKinney.
W. C. Cook, by Philip Peck.
R. C. Searle, by H. A. Baldwin.
A. D. Smith, by H. P. Baldwin.

We respectfully recommend that the above mentioned delegates-elect be declared duly elected delegates to this convention and the gentlemen holding the proxies hereinabove mentioned be admitted to the floor of this convention as the regular and qualified proxies of the delegates respectively issuing the same.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
G. F. RENTON,
Chairman.

GETS DOWN TO WORK.

The nomination of Holstein for permanent chairman of the convention brought out the very first seeming difficulty, for H. P. Baldwin at once arose and declared that he had understood that P. Peck was to be chosen for that honor and so placed him before the convention. Mr. Peck, however, believing that there should be no divisions in the District, at once withdrew, and the secretary cast the ballot for Holstein for the chairmanship. While this duty was being performed former Senator Thurston entered the hall and was cheered and applauded for some time.

The permanent secretaryship brought out the first real struggle of the convention. H. P. Baldwin nominated G. P. Thellen, and William Aylett placed before the convention the name of J. D. Avery. The ballot showed the selection of Avery by the vote of 54 to 25.

The presence in the hall of Senator Burton and former Senator Thurston was noted and Chairman Holstein appointed Cecil Brown and Col. Parker to escort them to the platform. As the guests of the convention ascended the stage the convention rose and applauded them heartily. W. J. Coelho was made Hawaiian interpreter.

Senator Baldwin said that the next thing would be the selection of the committee which would have the framing of the platform. He said that no matter how impartial the chairman might be, and he knew from being the chairman last time, that there would be charges that the committee on resolutions was named to bring out the chairman's wishes. He therefore moved that the committee be composed of two members from each representative district, with the chairman of the convention as chairman of the committee, and that the delegations should select their members. The motion also provided for a recess for the purpose of making such selection. Cecil Brown said that he was opposed to the motion as he thought the chair should appoint the committee. He favored the make-up suggested by Senator Baldwin, but said there would be more or less dissatisfaction in the event of the election in the manner set forth, while the choice of the committee by the chairman would not permit of such feeling.

Baldwin supported his own motion and W. H. Rice, of Kaula, said that he was in favor of it, for the reason that he believed that the delegations had been closely in touch with the feelings in their different districts and that they could more intelligently select the men who would correctly represent them in the committee. Peck of Hilo, moved to amend by inserting the provision that in the event that the delegation could not select the men within fifteen minutes, that the chair should do so, which was accepted by Baldwin, and the motion as thus formed passed without division, after J. W. Jones had protested that there should be first a committee on rules, which could prepare the order of business before even a committee was named.

The recess was used in the selection of the members of the committee and in some quarters there was a lively fight over the result. The Fifth led in this matter of delay, there being many ballots necessary in the delegation before the victory was won. The committee, with the addition of Chairman Holstein is as follows: First district, R. T. Guard and Charles Williams; Second, J. D. Paris and Samuel Parker; Third, H. P. Baldwin and Dr. J. H. Raymond; Fourth, A. V. Gear and Col. J. H. Fisher; Fifth, George R. Carter and W. G. Ashley; Sixth, Francis Gay and W. H. Rice.

As soon as the convention had been notified of the selections the chairman laid before the convention the letter of the Protective Association, signed by John G. Rothwell, A. Hocking and S. Shaw, asking that here be inserted in the platform a plank declaring that the Republican party was not in favor of prohibition or the disturbance of the liquor traffic as now carried on. The chairman announced that he would send the letter to the committee on resolutions and Representative Aylett wanted to debate the matter, declaring that he objected to receiving any communications at the present time. He was informed that there would be ample time for debate during the discussion of the platform, and cut off his remarks.

On motion of Lorrin Andrews a committee on rules, of one from each district was appointed as follows: Lorrin Andrews, W. G. Walker, S. Lazarro, Edgar Morton, C. P. Iaukea and William Werner. Senator Baldwin suggested that the guests of the convention be asked to address it, and Senator Burton was called to the front of the platform. He was cheered heartily and after quiet had been restored, said in part:

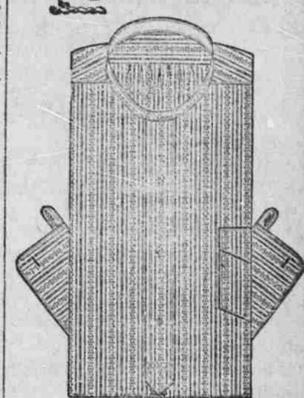

SENATOR BURTON SPEAKS.

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the convention: I did not come here to talk. I came to these islands to hear you talk. I am not here on a political mission except as that word is used in its highest and best sense. I am not here as a partisan. I am here as a legislator. I want, in conjunction with the other members of the commission, to learn just what is necessary and how we can help the islands in the way of legislation by the general government, and when we learn what you ought to have and want, to use our best endeavors to give it to you.

"I have had a splendid time since I came to these islands. I am captivated by your splendid climate, with all the surrounding physical situation. And more still am I captivated by the splendid class of citizens which I have found here. I will say I was so ignorant as to not know the high class of citizens I should find and the high standard to which your people have attained. More than all else am I captivated by your beautiful women. I cannot remember when as a little child, as a boy, and now as a man, I have not loved a woman and loved a horse.

"One word, not as a Republican, but as a citizen. You are now all American citizens and by the genius of our institutions of which you are a part every man is made a politician, in the highest, purest and best sense of the term. The mission of our great government is to elevate our politics and we can only elevate them by elevating the individual citizenship. That man who has more means than another and who enters into politics has a greater responsibility than any other. The man who is blessed with this world's goods, who is rich, and who uses his position to oppress the poor, is an enemy to the country in which he lives. But every energy he possesses, every thought that should come to him, should be, what shall I do that I might help those who are beneath me, up to a higher, purer and better citizenship. In that sense every man should be a politician. Every kind of conspiracy in politics that has for its ground work that an advantage may be gained over the people, should be frowned upon by every good man and every good woman in these islands. In the conduct of your campaign spend no time in abusing your opponents. Never indulge in abuse but always discuss ideas and principles and act on principle, whether you be Republican, Democrat or Home Ruler.

Here in these beautiful islands, which Senator Thurston has so truly called the Gems of the Pacific, you can build up a citizenship which will be the envy of the world. I found by visiting Col. Parker's place that you have no winter. And you have no summer. This would be magnificent summer weather for Kansas. I had a letter yesterday which tells me that it is one hundred degrees in the shade in the town where I live and that is several hundred miles north of here. It's Really Remarkable

How Many Men Sacrifice Their Money to a False Pride.

We know numbers of them who have their clothes made-to-measure simply because they desire to be able to show their friends the tailor's label, so as to prove their disdain or anything that is not made "especially" for them. We almost despair of converting this class to the Stein-Bloch idea. But, you who are sensible—we want you to come to us and let us show you the Stein-Bloch Clothes.

You can readily compare them with regard to fit, cloth, quality, tailoring and style with those that your tailor has made to-your-measure. Comparison with the ordinary ready-made clothing would make the latter look like less than the now proverbial "thirty cents."

shalt thou eat thy bread," was not uttered as a curse but as a blessing, and the man who eats it in any other way cannot hope to be happy, for he is violating the law of God. He who does not love labor cannot be happy, for God has so ruled, and God made no laws to which there are exceptions. Oh! What a world this would be if every man would learn the principles of the Bible and apply them to political, social and business life. I mean the precepts of it. Into politics bring the principles of right and justice and honor, because the Republican party is founded upon those principles.

I want you all to give us all the facts you can. I don't want any one to come with a lie. I want you to tell me what will benefit all the people for there is no difference between an Anglo-Saxon and a Hawaiian. I want to find out what will uphold the Islands. If you want a tariff on a product which would benefit you according to the principle of protection to our own products, come and show us what you need. If you want anything for the improvement of your harbors come and tell us. You live here and know what is needed. Come and give us the truth. We are here to find out what you want and when we do so we will go back and tell Congress that the people of the Hawaiian Islands want this done, and we will try, to the best of our ability to have it done for you.

Senator Burton was interrupted many times by applause and when he had concluded he was cheered and applauded heartily. Senator Thurston was called for and after a moment's applause said, in a voice which was thick and hoarse:

SENATOR THURSTON'S SHORT TALK.

"Fellow Citizens: You see what your climate has done to my voice, and I would find it very difficult to speak to you if I had the desire. I am very glad indeed to meet you here in convention assembled and I sincerely hope that the action that this convention will take will meet with the support of the people, and that your nominee may come to the congress of the United States in order that you may secure what is for your best interests and what Congress is ready to give. I have been delighted to meet the people here. I think I never looked out upon a finer audience than that which I addressed on Saturday evening. It has been a pleasure and a high honor to have the privilege of speaking to you. I would be glad if I could do you any good by speaking today but I do not think there are any converts to be made in this convention. You are here to work for the people and the party have charged you with the mission. I wish so tender to you my sincere thanks for all your kindness and my best wishes for your success in convention and at the polls.

"I heartily agree with Senator Burton. I never knew any good to come from a political contest which was carried on on personal grounds. I never knew any good to come to a person or party who carried on a contest on other than the highest and most honorable way. If we have no issues beyond men then our institutions are failures. If we have no principles to press because they are worth advocacy for the prosperity and progress of the whole people, we might just as well dissolve our government.

"The success of a great party means the advocacy of great principles. Political action is secured by harmonious movement by the different people who compose the political body. Every man who becomes a part of a political organization must surrender his individual preferences and be willing to abide by the decision of an honest majority of the party. No genuine Republican can afford to leave this convention here after the majority of this convention shall have declared its wishes with any other thought but of loyalty and devotion to the candidates nominated. Today when you have assembled here you have laid aside your differences and I think and believe that you will leave this hall ready to rally around your party and to loyally support the nominee of this convention.

"I thank you for the kindnesses and I wish to repeat that it is my hope that when we get the returns in November next that we will find that the people here have put themselves in line with the great Republican party, which stands for the best interests of the entire people of the United States."

When Senator Thurston concluded Judge Kauulou in an eloquent address moved a vote of thanks to the Senators which was voted by the entire convention standing and the convention adjourned amid applause.

BUSINESS AFTER RECESS.

The convention adjourned to 3 p. m. and the committee on platform got down to work. When the hour for reconvening came more time was asked and it was not until 4:15 o'clock that Chairman Holstein called the convention to order. He called for the report of the Committee on Rules and Chairman Andrews read it as follows:

"To the chairman and members of the Republican Convention.
"Gentlemen:
"Your committee on rules begs leave to report as follows:
"We recommend as the order of business of this convention the following:
"1—Report of committee on rules.
"2—Report of platform committee.
"3—Election of a Territorial Central Committee.
"4—Nomination of a Delegate to Congress.
"We recommend that this convention shall proceed to elect a Territorial Central committee which shall consist of thirty members chosen from their respective representative district upon the election of such district delegations sitting in this convention, each district to be entitled to as many members on such Central Committee as such District has representatives in the House of Representatives. This committee when elected shall hold office un-

PRINCE CUPID.

The news that Prince Cupid has come out fairly and squarely as a Republican, and that a landslide for him may be looked for in the convention today, will cheer the heart of every citizen who wants to see Hawaii represented at Washington as it should be.

Prince Cupid is one of the ablest, most dependable, self-respecting and sincere of the new citizens whom the Territory of Hawaii has introduced to the people of the United States. There is not a blemish on his name or a stain upon his motives. His conversion to Republican ideas came, in part, from Senator Thurston's speech, in part from a study of the platform of the local organization and in part from his desire to do the best possible thing for the Hawaiian people he loves and of whom he is an ally. His popularity is wide among all classes and both races and is founded upon genuine respect for his character.

Three cheers for Prince Cupid. If nominated he can be elected by a splendid majority.

OCEAN COMMUNICATION.

The tooting of many whistles on Honolulu's waterfront will, in a few days, announce a new era in the mail service to Hawaii, bring a pang to the memories of the old kamaaina, but joy to the hearts of modern kanaka ohana kalepa. The improvements made in modern steamer communication, while heartily applauded by everyone who seeks to promote the commerce of the islands, at the same time gives the old residents who rejoice in memories of the picturesque days of mail and freight communication by clipper ships, whalers and missionary schooners ponder over the changes that a lifetime has brought about in ocean traffic.

As far as news facilities are concerned, the cable will soon outstrip the steamer; but business interests will continue to desire quicker mail communication. Many people in Honolulu can remember the time when the clippers used to attract such crowds on their arrival at the place where the Oceanic wharf now stands. They remember also how eagerly they looked in the following morning's paper for the limited column and a half of matter that was supposed to contain the entire news of the world since the last previous mail. Business men who are still engaged in trade here can remember going to the old postoffice building a half hour after the arrival of a clipper and there finding displayed a statement from the captain of the vessel as to whom his goods were consigned, the sort of passage he had had, and a list of the passengers he brought. They can remember also the departures of the clippers from Honolulu, the firing of the vessel's gun as she was casting away from the wharf and the many alohas of the people who lived here. Hundreds who worked around the whaling fleet's warehouses always ceased in their labors on the arrival or departure of a small packet and wished the sailors god-speed.

Missionary schooners and whalers brought the first news from Boston, but gradually fast barks were put on the trade around the Horn. They brought mail and cargo to Hawaii and they took cargo across to Lower California and Mexico, and on arrival there changed the vessel into a store for the time being and traded their cargoes of Hawaiian and Boston products for hides. They brought the news until the packets commenced running down from San Francisco, and then for the twenty years between 1850 and 1870 the packets were looked to for mail. Occasional efforts were made to run steamers but it was late when these experiments proved a success and a regular line of steamers was established.

It is fitting in this connection to note that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company was the first to establish such a line of vessels calling at Honolulu. Now its new steamship, the costly Korea, is the finest and largest steam vessel afloat in the Pacific, and it is expected that her speed will be faster than any of the other mail steamers. The Siberia, sister ship to the Korea, is now nearly ready to start from the East for San Francisco, and with these two large steamers plying in the trade to the Orient and calling at this port, the benefits to Honolulu should be considerable. The new liners will probably attract many passengers for travel between the Orient and San Francisco, and these of course are of considerable benefit to Honolulu because of the stay they make here. By its welcome to the new steamer when she puts in an appearance, Honolulu will probably show how much it appreciates the faster line of communication.

The Democratic party cannot be swung to Wilcox by the Home Rulers who have been staked out for that purpose in the party councils. There will be a lot of independent voting in the Democratic party this year.

The boom that booms in the summer, trails, has nothing to do with the case; it's the boom which comes in the early fall, that puts a man in the race.

If the Republicans act wisely Delegate Wilcox will have a chance to "give up his life again" on election day.

THE REPUBLICAN OUTLOOK.

The Republican Convention does not act like one that dreaded the canvass before its nominees. It is buoyant in feeling and aggressive in policy and it inspires confidence in the rank and file. All that remains is to make nominations upon which the party may unite and for whom it will put forth its full strength and its best efforts.

The Advertiser cannot say that it approves in full some of the planks of the proposed platform, but the duty of electing Republicans and defeating Home Rulers is so paramount that the paper does not propose to dissent from the mature conclusions of the party. It is willing to trust the future of Hawaii in Republican hands. If mistakes are made the Republican party may be trusted to repair them; and there is less likelihood of mistakes under Republican auspices than any other.

As for the rest, it ought to spell victory at the polls. Home Rulers are fewer than they were, Republicans are more numerous and less affected by factional disputes. The moral and practical aid of the administration on the one hand and of the vast business interests of the Territory on the other, are ours to command. The enemy, handicapped by his record, is without enthusiasm. Under these circumstances, unless over-confidence keeps part of the vote at home, the Republicans ought to sweep the board on election day.

John Wise has come out "defying" the missionaries. As the latter paid for his education in an effort to make a man of him, they are not likely to be surprised at what they get in return. John Wise is not the first one of his class to bite the hand that fed him.

Any Republican whom the party may name for Delegate could get things for Hawaii from a Republican Congress. Any Democrat, similarly honored, could get things from a Democratic Congress. But a Home Ruler could get nothing from either.

The small farmer will keep himself busy for a while now sowing election seed.

DEMOCRATS DECIDE TO BECOME HOME RULERS

WHAT THEY SAID BEFORE.

At the first meeting of the Democrats held in Waverley hall on the night of July 14, the Democrats who last night could not say enough good things in favor of Wilcox, took occasion to say all the bad things they could of him, and said he was a "dying figure in politics."

The account of the meeting, as it was stenographically reported, appeared in the Advertiser of Tuesday morning, July 15, as follows:

At a general meeting of Democrats held last evening in Waverley hall, at which Colonel C. J. McCarthy presided, every speaker on the floor endorsed in the highest terms Prince Cupid for Delegate to Congress. All admitted that no nominee of their own would stand a ghost of a show in being elected, and in Cupid they see where they can make their votes count for something. The hope was expressed that Prince Cupid would stand upon an entirely independent platform, free of local issues, and they felt certain that he would not only be endorsed and voted for by the Independent or progressive Hawaiians' party, but by the Democratic party, and there was a glimmering chance that the Republicans would stand behind the young ally.

Colonel Cornwell, the Democratic National committeeman for Hawaii, spoke first of the opportunity which the Democratic party had to stand behind Prince Cupid and he felt that the party could not make a wiser move than to place the name of Cupid at the head of their ticket.

As for Wilcox, the Democrats generally conceded that the nomination of Cupid meant the political death of Wilcox and Kalaokalani, and the rise of a progressive Hawaiian spirit in place of the old Bourbon methods practiced by the original Home Rule party.

Another committee, consisting of Colonel Cornwell, Colonel McCarthy, and one Hawaiian, will be in readiness to wait upon Senator Blackburn when he arrives with the Senatorial party and ascertain his desires as to obtaining general information as to conditions in Hawaii, and also as to the Democratic party here.

Fred Terrill said that Cupid was bound to be the leader of his race, and Wilcox was a dying figure in politics. Charles Creighton considered Cupid the most available man the Democrats had. With his social attainments and gentlemanly manner he was sure to obtain aid for Hawaii, even though he had no vote in Congress. If he stands firm in his position with the young Hawaiians and takes kindly to a combination with the Democrats, it meant the defeat of Wilcox. Kaula's "snake" would be killed when Wilcox failed to get elected.

Colonel McCarthy endorsed the same sentiments. At Washington Hawaii had obtained nothing through Wilcox. He was there presumably to represent Hawaii, but he represented only himself. He had no ability. Cupid was an aggressive young man and had intelligence. He is a man who has the welfare of his country at heart. He is not a self-seeker. As for the Legislature, the best men must be voted for by the Democrats.

Colonel Cornwell stated that if Cupid ran for Congress it would be on an Independent platform. He knew this.

He did not believe Cupid expected a nomination from the Democrats or Republicans. Terrill raised a laugh when he said that Wilcox stood only for $400 a month and mileage.

Honolulu Engineering Association.

The Honolulu Engineering Association has been making such rapid progress of late that it finds it necessary to move from the old quarters in the Y. M. C. A. building. The association has now secured rooms for its library and reading room in the Elite building, and holds its meeting in Castle & Cooke's assembly hall. At last night's meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Chairman, W. F. C. Hasson; vice chairman, E. Kopke; treasurer, W. E. Skinner; secretary, Robert J. Pratt; directors, W. J. Dyer, Alonzo Gartley and A. W. Keech. Mr. Keech read an interesting paper on "Boiler Feed Water." At the next meeting of the association the subject under discussion will be "The Use of Cement in Engineering Work." Messrs. F. W. Beardslee, J. F. Darcy and A. R. G. McCormick have been elected members of the association, making its total membership 98.

A CONTENTED WOMAN.

Aside from form or features, she has an attractiveness all her own. The bloom on her cheek, the elasticity in her step, the ring of her voice, her enjoyment of life—all these are magnets which draw others to her side. Wonderful and valuable as it is, health is not so difficult a thing to obtain as some discouraged ones think. Most of the troubles of women arise from impure blood, impaired nutrition, low vitality and general debility. Modern science furnishes the most successful of remedies for these conditions, namely SWAMPOL'S PREPARATION. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Taken before meals it improves the appetite, makes fat, restores vitality, enriches the blood and cures those weaknesses peculiar to the sex, which are the seat of their troubles. It is a blessing to Tired Wives, Nursing Mothers and Girls growing into womanhood. It colours the pale faces and rounds out the hollow chests. In a word, it nourishes and develops the entire body, and brings happy surprises to feeble, hopeless and discouraged sufferers. Dr. E. J. Boyes says: "I have found it a preparation of great merit. In a recent case a patient gained nearly twenty pounds in two month's treatment, in which it was the principal remedial agent." It is the typical medicinal success of our age, for time has proved our claims are supported by results, and a remedy which acts in harmony with nature's own efforts and processes. No demand has been made upon it for relief and cure, that has not met with instant response. Effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." At chemists.

high vote of 25. In the fifth G. H. Huddy received five votes, James Holt three and J. D. Avery three.

THE PLATFORM RECEIVED.

When the chairman had announced the Central committee George R. Carter from the committee on platform was recognized and read that document at length.

The convention expected much from the committee and its declarations were received with applause. The name of President Roosevelt first evoked cheers and when the committee's pronouncement on suffrage was read there was a cheer and a burst of applause, showing how completely the stand of the party filled the minds of delegates and spectators. The next plank, that dealing with the stand of the party on city and county government was just as loudly received and from that point every declaration of faith brought forth applause. The plans dealing with the leper question, with Ex-Queen Liliuokalani, the schools, in fact every one was applauded and the report generally was well received. The platform which is signed by every member of the committee appears elsewhere.

When the report had been read T. F. Lansing moved the adoption of the report as a whole and this was seconded by J. L. Kaulukou, who said there was no reason to argue upon such a complete production.

Curtis P. Iaukea took the floor and moved the following as an amendment to the platform as a substitute to the city and county plank:

"Be It Resolved, That the Republican party does hereby pledge itself to enact a law providing for municipal and county government in the Territory of Hawaii, and that said law shall become effective within thirty days thereof."

"C. P. IAUKEA."

Col. Iaukea in support of his resolution said that he had a duty to perform, a duty to the party for without a clear-cut resolution on the question the party was courting defeat. The platform plank just read, he said, left a loop hole in that the law must go to the people which might mean delay for two years. The executive, he said, was opposed to city and county government, he had said so, and he would not call an election. He said the plank was not sufficient to avoid defeat. He was opposed to submission to the people for it meant delays. Deferring action he said meant that those who voted so to do must bear the burden of responsibility. An answer must be made to the administration for a second defeat and he thought the only way to meet the emergency was to come out squarely.

Col. Iaukea said he wanted to be able to say to the Hawaiians that the benefits which came to the people came through the Republican party. He said that if the Republican party failed now he feared it would be many years before the party would be the controlling force in the Territory. He called the policy evasive for it meant deferred action, and he predicted that such action would mean the forcing out of the party of the intelligent Hawaiians, who would insist upon the people having their rights. "I will stand by you," he said, "but there must be an end. If the convention votes against me today I shall stay with you and I shall feel that I have done my best to save the party with which I have cast my destinies."

Col. Iaukea made his own speech in Hawaiian and he was liberally applauded throughout. Dr. J. H. Raymond secured the floor immediately, but was interrupted by Col. Fisher, who demanded the translation of Iaukea's remark that the plan meant the staying off of action until there were sufficient holes in the country to defeat the bill over the heads of the Hawaiians. Dr. Raymond said that during the session of the committee there was not a single voice raised against immediate passage of an act establishing county and municipal governments. The reason why the clause was inserted sending the law to the people was for a ratification by them and not for the purpose of delay. It was the intention of the committee that the law should be passed at once and submitted immediately so that the law might go into effect even before the conclusion of the legislature.

Dr. Raymond said that all are American citizens and he was surprised that any man after hearing the speeches of the senators this morning would appear on the floor and make a fight upon the color line. A. G. M. Robertson secured the floor and said he agreed with much that Iaukea said. The Republican party could not afford to be equivocal on the subject of county and city government. He said it would be un-American and un-American to be equivocal. He said there must be immediate action and that the easiest way was to amend by striking out the clause referring to the act to the citizens of the Territory. He said that with the plank in that form the objections of the delegate from the fifth district would be removed and a plank left upon which all could stand and for which all could work heartily. H. P. Baldwin was recognized and began by saying there was no intention to postpone action as everyone was pledged to it. He was ready to see such a law passed immediately. He said there was no intention to put the calling of an election to the executive, as inferred by Iaukea but such a matter, of such importance it should go to the people for ratification the law providing for the date of the election so that there would be no chance for delay. There are some in my delegation who favor the bill but who believe there should be ratification by the people. Personally, he said, he would not oppose Robertson's amendment as it made the matter of city government optional, some towns taking advantage of it and others not doing so. Iaukea said that the Governor had said to him that he opposed such county and municipal government as proposed now; that he favored a gradual change. He went on to declare that the legislature had no power to call an election, that the executive alone could do that, but this brought out a chorus of jeers. He then said he was willing to withdraw his resolution and accept the amendment. He declared that he was working only for a Republican legislature as he believed the interests of the government demanded such safeguards, and he felt that the interests of the country were safer in the hands of a Republican legislature than in those of a Home Rule legislature.

George R. Carter said he wanted to speak on two points only. He said first a reflection was cast upon the executive when it was a fact that within two days the executive had declared that he was in favor of city and county government the moment he was assured that the majority favored it.

He said that again the speaker (Iaukea) had cast a reflection upon Republicanism when he declared that it was the intention of the white men to evade the issue until white men were in control. This caused an uproar, for Iaukea declared he was misquoted, that he had said only that the impression would be created that the white men had this intention.

Senator J. D. Paris upheld the integrity of the committee declaring that it had meant honestly what it said and that there was no intention to evade the matter. He said he must believe that Iaukea did not mean all that he said on this subject for the white men were as honest as any members of the party. He said we are all here as a body of American citizens all working for the best interests of the Republican party. He said no member should rise on the floor and charge disloyalty. He said Iaukea had done an injustice to his fellow delegates. He appealed to all to drop race prejudice and move ahead along proper lines, stand firm for Republicanism and go ahead to victory.

Kaulukou said he felt that much depended on the action of the party as to its platform and he wanted the platform considered section by section. There were cries of "question" and G. R. Carter moved that the Robertson amendment be accepted by a rising vote and when the motion was put every hand went up for it and the objectors being asked to stand not a single negative vote. The passage of the plank was received with cheers which were repeated when the amendment plank was read.

Senator Achi then discovered something missing and said that he knew that there would not be time in the sixty days to pass such a law. He did not think there was any one present who would undertake such a task in such a time. Unless there is something more he said he feared the intention would not be carried out and he would suggest an addition which would give candidates a chance to draft a proper measure. He therefore moved an amendment as follows:

And be it further resolved that the Territorial Convention should appoint a commission to proceed at once to draft a county and municipal government bill to be presented to the legislature as a Republican measure, said committee to first report the draft of such bill when prepared, to the Republican Territorial Central Committee, who shall refer the same to the several Republican District committees for ratification and suggestions, in order to make the law, when finally passed, most perfectly adjusted to the local conditions in the several districts.

In support of the resolution Achi declared that he thought this plan would result in the preparation of a law which would meet all conditions and that it would make the law perfect. Delegate Baldwin said he favored a resolution and not a part of the platform, as this would be an instruction to the Territorial committee which would go ahead and draft laws.

Achi said he wanted it put in the platform for the reason that every one would then know that the party was pledged to go ahead with the work and there would be no delays which might result if there was simply a resolution. Peak said there was danger of overloading the platform. He favored a resolution which would put the matter in the proper shape.

Baldwin said the resolution was out of place in a platform. He thought every one would vote for it. Senator Paris said the same and further that by publication it could be seen that the Republican party was moving ahead. Thereupon Achi withdrew his amendment and the platform was adopted with applause, as amended by Robertson.

Eye Accuracy

If there is one business more than another requiring careful and accurate attention, that business is the fitting and making of glasses to correct visual defects, and that such care is given in my optical department is fully evidenced by the constantly growing clientage.

As already advertised, I am now devoting my entire time to the optical department, making that a leading feature of my business, watching each detail, from the fitting to the finishing of glasses, so no error can creep in.

If a perfect knowledge of the eye and its needs, applied in a conscientious manner will give perfect results, you may safely entrust your difficult optical work to this department.

HONOLULU ARE HAPPY

Rubbed the Mailes Badly in Labor Day Game.

SMUGGLERS STOLE IN AND GOT A WIN

Great Crowds. Rooting, and Playing at Punahou Campus Yesterday.

Customs, 2; Kamehamehas, 1. Honolulu Athletics, 11; Maile Ilimas, 0.

Thousands of the lovers of the good old game of baseball gathered around the Punahou diamond yesterday afternoon to witness the two games scheduled for Labor Day, and all departed after three hours of steady playing satisfied with the exhibition. It was a record breaking crowd which poured in through the gateway, and more money was taken in by the league than at any other time during the season. It was also a good natured crowd, the fans and rooters being out in force, many of them armed with huge megaphones with which they joshed one another across the diamond. The crowd became so large by the time the second game was started off that it pressed over the foul lines in the field sections in such a mass that the police officers had difficulty in keeping it behind the "dead line." Everybody, however, paid to see things, and crowding over the lines was the only way they could screw their optics on the diamond.

The doughty Kamehamehas played a good game but went down in defeat before the Smugglers by the close score of 2 to 1. The Maile Ilimas evidently left their rabbit's foot at home, for they were whitewashed by the Honolulu, the score standing 11 to 0.

Nobody knew just how it was, but they just couldn't make the circuit of the diamond. All the favorites of the diamond—Cunha, Joy, Lemon, Williams, Kekuewa, Taylor, Bowers, Leslie, Kiwa, and Wilder—did some good playing in their respective teams. Lemon and Joy were at their best in the pitcher's box, Kiwa pitching a steady game throughout, and Desha giving evidence of ability to make a good pitcher in time. Scorer Andrews and "Blackboard" Brooks were in attendance at the Republican convention and Cushman Carter was substituted for the former.

The last games of the season will be played next Saturday at Punahou. The summary of yesterday's games is as follows:

Stolen bases—Wilder 2, Willkoki 2, Reuter 1.

HITCH IN LANAI DEAL.

Court Sold More Property to Chas. Gay Than It Had to Sell.

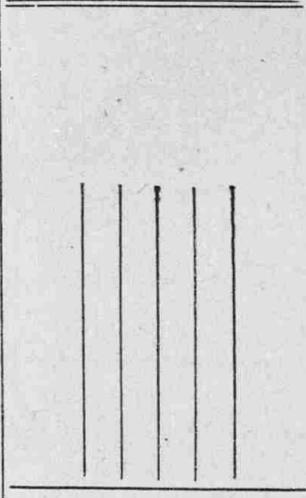

There is likelihood of trouble over the purchase of the Lanai property by Charles Gay under foreclosure sale. It is reported now that the property disposed of did not include about 17,000 acres upon which were located the ranch house, sheep pens, etc., and which belonged formerly to Fred Hayselden. This property was first included in the mortgage but later released by order of Judge Humphreys upon stipulation between the parties. The Hayselden interest had been purchased some time ago by John F. Colburn, who now holds possession, though it had been generally understood that the property was included in the court sale.

To the Public.

In order to accommodate children who wish to be admitted to the Kona Orphanage a new building should be erected. There are not sufficient funds to buy material. Five hundred dollars is needed. Those wishing to assist in raising this sum can leave the money at Bishop's bank.

Children When Teething have more or less diarrhoea. This should be controlled and can be, by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it today. It may save a life. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.

CHILLINGWORTH GIVES DINNER

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, President of the baseball league and one of the ablest supporters of the Honolulu Athletic Club nine which has just won the championship for 1902, and the silver cup trophy offered by himself, was host last evening at the Union Grill at a complimentary dinner in honor of the H. A. C. and its friends. The dinner was given in the private dining room and covers were laid for thirty. It was a jolly night and toasts were responded to by the players as readily as they went to the bat or started on a circuit of the bases. John Wise toasted the H. A. C.; C. Marcellino, the Punahou nine; Sam Leslie, "The Ladies"; Chester Doyle sang a touching ballad in the Japanese language, and Chillingworth acted as toastmaster. Prophecies for victory next season were frequently heard. The dinner was a pleasant surprise to the members of the team and its friends, and all joined heartily in voting the deputy the most popular sportsman in Honolulu.

FAREWELL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. H. Wingate Lake were the guests of honor at an elegant little dinner given last evening by the new manager of the Hawaiian hotel, Mr. F. W. Smith and Mrs. Smith. The dinner was a parting expression of the aloha felt for the departing ones, and in its every appointment was perfect. After the discussion of a menu which was the pride of Chef Wyman, there were many speeches in which the guests present voiced their appreciation of the former manager of the hotel and his wife, and wished them god speed on their journey and a speedy return. After the dinner there was dancing upon the lanai, and the quintet club which had played during the dinner gathered to show their aloha for Mr. and Mrs. Lake and gave a private concert, returned and until a late hour played the airs of the country. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Wingate Lake, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Boyd, Dr. Neilson, of the Alameda, Miss Alice Campbell, Miss Anita Chrystal, Miss Alice Downing, Miss Ella Lewis, Mr. Mana Widemann, Mr. Frank Thompson, Capt. Pierce, and Mr. A. R. Cunha. Mr. and Mrs. Lake and Miss Downing leave in the Alameda. Mr. Lake will return in three months but his family will not come back until later.

The Oriental Bazaar has just opened a fine lot of new patterns of silks, chinaware and carved ebony furniture. The Territorial Messenger Service will attend to all orders for reserved seats for the coming attractions at the opera house.

The Stein-Bloch clothes sold by M. McInerney will compare favorably with tailor made goods to order in style, fit, quality and cloth. Call in and examine them.

THE FRAWLEY COMPANY.

Will Return to Honolulu and Present "Secret Service."

Daniel Frawley, with what is probably the best company he has ever collected under his management, will play in the opera house on the evening of the day the Korea arrives, if arrangements can be made with the steamship company. Frawley has been pulling wires at this end and writes that he thinks there is every reasonable chance of the company appearing.

Frawley is en route to establish a new trans-Oriental circuit, stretching from London to London, with America and England as the starting points. Honolulu would be on the regular schedule if the essay proves profitable. He has gathered a really excellent company, with many well known names amongst them, and has chosen an attractive repertoire. A long season with guaranteed houses has been arranged at the Paz theater, Manila, where the first plays presented will be "Secret Service," "The Gay Lord Quex," "The Christian" and "Lord and Lady Algy."

Honolulu will have the privilege of the opening play, Gillette's model drama, "Secret Service." The piece is intensely thrilling and deals of an entirely new war-time theme, the actions of secret agents of the Northern and Confederate armies. War, comedy, love and pathos are skilfully interwoven into a fascinating story which has gained much renown and many shekels for the author and the managers who have presented it. The seat sale opens tomorrow at Wall, Nichols and Company, at 9 o'clock, and the performance is announced for Friday night.

An important meeting of the Fourth District Committee of the Republican party is called for tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the assembly hall over Castle & Cooke's. A full attendance of members is requested.

There was no session of court yesterday. Judge Gear is expected to render his decision this morning in regard to the calling of a jury for the hearing of criminal cases. A. S. Humphreys served his last day as judge in the First Circuit yesterday.

Judge Wilcox, who is announced on a placard on the police station bulletin board as "the newly appointed district magistrate for Honolulu," will celebrate the renewal of his term as judge by holding court as usual this morning. His commission expired September 1, and was promptly renewed.

Sunthin' Terrible.

John Wise held forth at the corner of Fort and Beretania streets last night while the Republicans were in caucus upstairs, and made the following declaration:

"I have sent an open letter to the Bulletin to be printed tomorrow (Tuesday), which is directed to Senator Thurston, and I defy him or any of the missionaries to refute any of my statements. It is in reply to his speech Saturday night."

Wise refused to say that he had committed himself to Wilcox and the Home Rule party along with the Democrats.

Grow-ing.

Our business is growing because we pay closest attention to every part of it. Our greatest ambition is to make a success of this drug store—not an ordinary 30c. success, but a success that will be talked about far and wide. Our plan is to treat every customer so agreeably that we will hold every one. Then every new customer represents just so much growth to our business.

We cordially invite you to our store and make us as useful to you as possible. Let this be your down town stopping place where you can meet your friends, use the telephone, leave packages or in any way make the drug store useful to you.

Frame Fitting.

Few glass wearers realize the importance of properly fitting frames.

This MAY seem of minor importance to you, but your comfort and that of your eyes depend much upon the set and fit of the frame.

Without proper proportions and adjustment of the spectacles or eye glass frame, it is impossible to derive the full amount of benefit from your glasses.

We make a specialty of frame fitting as well as eye fitting, and guarantee an exact and correct adjustment to all faces and eyes.

Hui Kuokoa Meeting Postponed.

The meeting scheduled to have been held under the auspices of the Hui Kuokoa at the Orpheum last night, was postponed on account of other important matters which held the attention of Prince Cupid. Sol. Meheula appeared upon the stage and addressed the audience, stating that at noon the Prince had desired to postpone the meeting, but as it had already been advertised he decided to allow the people to come and then be told of the postponement.

RODMAN'S BEST FRIEND IS DEAD

"The Goose" Died on Board the Iroquois in Strange Manner.

"Tell the men on watch not to speak above a whisper. We're a regular navy ship and must honor the dead," said a petty officer of the Iroquois last night.

There was sorrow on the Iroquois last night. With rain beating on the canvas awning of the after deck, the big dog "Dan" tied up, and every man of the crew speaking only in whispers, the only boat in port belonging to Uncle Sam's navy was indeed dismal. Captain Rodman was not aboard. The captain went ashore shortly after four o'clock in the afternoon and at that time a member of the crew was ill but was not considered to be in a serious condition. This member of the crew was the one best liked by Captain Rodman and he showered every possible attention and luxury on him—for he met the captain's ideas admirably having a record as a non-smoker, total abstainer, and non-sweater.

After the naval skipper had gone ashore the patient grew rapidly worse. He was seized with a fit of coughing and expired. The sailors tenderly laid him out on the after deck and at nine o'clock last night were guarding the body and awaiting the return of Captain Rodman to break the news to him.

The deceased was a great personal friend of Captain Rodman. The skipper familiarly called him "The Goose," and under this nickname he was known to all the men. If he had any other name it was never heard on board the Iroquois. He left no personal effects and did not have even clothing, for "he" was a mongoose, four legs, tail and all.

But even if he was only an animal he was thought as much of by Captain Rodman as if he had been a man. A reporter called at the Iroquois last night to get details of the demise. He was met by a Norwegian sailor at the gang plank who said: "Speak softly. 'The Goose' dead. Captain he not know yet. He greatest friend. We have him laid out wait for captain. He probably put flag around him and bury him in sea. Good-night, but speak it softly."

BODY AND BRAINS.

Whether the brains of men are being developed at the expense of the bodies is not a question that we can settle, but there is no question that there are many individual cases where the body is weaker than it ought to be.

To produce big healthy brains and big healthy bodies take Scott's Emulsion. Childhood is the time to commence.

The effort of Scott's Emulsion is to make nature do her best with the materials on hand. It checks all those little weaknesses and faults of nourishment which result in imperfect development.

Nothing more strengthening for weak children.

LILUOKALANI TO RECEIVE FRIENDS

Reception Will Be Given This Afternoon at Washington Place.

Queen Liliuokalani today celebrates her 64th birthday, and will receive her friends during the day at Washington Place in honor of the occasion. A reception will be given this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, when the government band will be present to assist in making the event a pleasant one for Her Majesty. Early this morning when the sun is just peeping over the hills the Queen will receive according to old Hawaiian custom, the Hawaiian people who come with the favorite leis of the Queen to adorn her person and to beautify her home. The mele of the Queen will be chanted and the occasion will partake of the old times when the monarchy was in full sway.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLHOUSE.

Interesting Dedicatory Ceremonies at the Old Capital.

LAHAINA, August 30.—Gorgeously decorated with flags and ribbons and filled with a throng of patrons and friends, the new Catholic mission school house at Lahaina was dedicated today, Bishop Gulstan officiating. After the dedicatory services Bishop Gulstan made an impressive as well as instructive speech to the younger element, as to how they should go through the coming school term.

Then followed the luau, which, to the luau, and many people partook of the delicacies.

The table was spread with all the luxuries that are usually enjoyed at a luau, and more than a people partook of the delicacies.

The new school house at Lahaina is a large and airy structure and speaks well for Father Julien and the people of Lahaina, by whose combined efforts it was secured.

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt

Is a positive cure for all weaknesses in man or woman. It is a wonderful tonic, a vitalizer. When you arise in the morning after having worn it all night, you feel the vigor of youth in your veins. It floods the body with warm, glowing vitality that makes the nerves strong, quickens the circulation, restores natural vigor and makes its wearer feel like one born again.

MAKES YOU OVER-It beats the world for building up a person broken down from dissipation and neglect of the laws of nature. No matter what your trouble is you can be made better and stronger by using this wonderful Belt. It pours glowing vitality into the body, and that does wonders. Try it and save doctor bills and useless suffering. It cures Rheumatism, Back Pains and all organic weakness.

READ MY BOOK-I have a book which every man should read (one for women also). It tells the facts that are of interest to every man who wants to remain young in vitality at any age. Send for this book today if you can't call. I will mail it sealed, free. If you call I will give you a free test. Remember, my Belt does not burn, though you feel the current and can regulate it. I warrant it to give a strong current for years, though no one who uses it right need it over three months. Cut this out and act today.

So Different

Lots of Claims Like This, But so Different—Local Proof is What Honolulu People Want.

There are a great many of them. Every paper has its share. Statements hard to believe, harder to prove. Statements from far-away places. What people say in Florida. Public expressions from California. Ofttimes good endorsement there. But of little service here at home. Honolulu people want local proof. The sayings of neighbors, friends and citizens.

Home indorsement counts. It disarms the skeptic; is beyond dispute.

This is the backing that stands behind every box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a case of it:

Mr. Cyrus S. Edison of Kapiolani Park, this city, says: "I am at present a teamster and came to the Islands fifteen years ago. Previous to that I drove a stage coach in the United States. These occupations necessitating my being out at all seasons were no doubt the cause of my kidney disorder. I had the ordinary symptoms of this complaint, and resorted to a host of things to cure it. All of them failed to do so, however, and when I had almost given up hope I heard about Doan's Backache Kidney Pills and got some at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. They did indeed relieve me and I am quite satisfied with the benefit they have been to me."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers; price 50 cents per box (six boxes $2.50). Mailed by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

RICH LAND -IN- Central Kona FOR SALE

By order of REINNE RODANET Trustee, I offer for sale those certain parcels of land situate at Onouli, South Kona, Island of Hawaii, described by Royal Patent (Grant) No. 1162 to F. C. Schulze, and containing 174 acres. Roy. Pat. (Grant) No. 2562 to A. W. W. and containing 739 75-100 acres, situate at Keopuka and Onouli, Island of Hawaii.

This is a tract of land of over 919 acres, situated in the most fertile and richest portion of the Island of Hawaii. It faces the new Government road extending to the sea, and is five minutes walk from Kealakekua Bay, by way of the old Government road which runs through the property. Portions of the land are already under cultivation.

This tract is so situated that it is about midway between Kailua and Hookena, and five miles from Napoona, three most important ports of the Kona district. It has sufficient elevation, running up to fourteen hundred feet, to be particularly healthful, and its soil is well adapted to the growth of sugar cane, coffee, fruits, dairying or for the promotion of diversified farming.

Occupants of this land have easy access to several ports for export, and with the advent of the Kona Railroad will find themselves in close communication with the thriving City of Hilo. This, of course, affords a splendid opportunity for the exporting of farm products to the California markets.

With the revival of the Kona Sugar Co., considerable portions of this land can be successfully planted to sugarcane.

This is one of the most splendid opportunities for a good investment that has been put upon the market for a considerable period of time.

TREASURE ON REEF OF WAKE ISLAND

"What do I think of this trip of the gold hunter, schooner Herman? Well," said one of the oldest identities of Honolulu, who sometimes puts in a morning sauntering along the wharves, "I know of a treasure story that beats that. You see this happened in the time when we used to get whalers here, when mail came when it felt like it by clipper ships and not by clock-work-time steamers like your 'giant Korea.' Those good old times are gone, my boy."

"You should have been a reporter on the waterfront at that time. Why, things were up and doing then. The South Seas were not well known and my goodness but we did have wrecks, mutinies, Chinese coolie murders at sea, and lots of old fashioned news events happening every day. But the newspapers only printed two line items then and nothing short of the Battle of Bull Run at the time of the American War would get them to print a column about any one subject."

"Humsomever that's not the subject. I was going to tell you about treasure. No mind this aint no yarn. Every word is as true as gospel. In 1866 a noted clipper, the bark Libelle, was on a voyage to China. She had Madame Anna Bishop—my but she was a sweet singer and she was in Honolulu early in that year—aboard as a passenger. This concert singer was going on a tour of the Orient. The Libelle had a big cargo of wheat, hundreds of flasks of quicksilver—very valuable—considerable gold, and other treasure aboard. Well some way or other this vessel went ashore on a reef at Wake Island. Her passengers and crew got to their destination somehow but left all the treasure behind. Parties in San Francisco fitted out the schooner Caroline Mills with all sorts of diving apparatus to get the treasure.

"Early in 1867 the Mills made her trip out to Wake Island but failed to get the treasure because her apparatus would not work in the breakers surrounding the wreck. She came back to Honolulu. Tom Foster was a bit of a speculator in those days and a dare devil from the ground up. He heard of the treasure by the stories told by the sailors on the Caroline Mills and straightaway decided to go and get it. "Well, the expedition went out in a little sloop but they did not get all the treasure and I believe that at this late day it would pay to make a treasure hunting trip over to Wake Island and get some of the stuff that was not secured on the occasion of the last visit to Honolulu. Tom Foster made the voyage to Wake Island in the fast time of twenty-one days but on their arrival there found that there were other treasure hunters in the field besides themselves. The other party were in a brig which came from Guam and eight native divers from the Caroline Islands. It looked as if battle would be done between the opposition vessels but a truce was fixed up and it was decided that the two parties should work together and divide the spoils.

"Well they found that the wrecked Libelle had been forced up on the reef some distance further than the point where she first struck and that her bottom being knocked out the flasks of mercury had become scattered all about the reef. You just imagine those hardy divers, some from Hawaii, some from the Carolines, working in the boiling, surging water of the reef in from four to five fathoms of water where every member of the party risked instant and horrible death from the tremendous breakers that were constantly pounding over the reef. The flasks had worked down into the rifts and fissures of the reef, some of them had become buried in coral debris. Some had worked into the gullies where they were covered with sand and altogether it was a hard matter to recover them. The greatest danger to the divers was because while groping down on the bottom for the flasks they were powerless to resist the big rushes of water that drove them against the sharp edges of coral. One of the Hawaiian divers was badly injured in this way. By sending in most all the divers at once they were able to help and rescue each other when trouble occurred so that no fatalities resulted. But many of the flasks found on the coral bottom were broken and their contents had been lost.

"The two parties were at work for twenty-nine days. As the sloop and the brig lay at the opposite side of the island from that upon which the wreck was situated the flasks that had been recovered had to be carried across the burning sand for a distance of over a mile and this was no easy matter. At that time no fresh water could be found on Wake Island. The beach was covered with leather, broken wooden buckets, and other debris from the wrecked Libelle. The wheat which made up the largest item in the cargo of the Libelle had of course been washed entirely away by the breakers.

"The party got a lot of money for their quicksilver and even now after thirty-five years I believe that there's more money in it. Well, good-bye, I must be jiggling along."

SHIP GERTRUD IS SEAWORTHY

A survey has been made of the leaking German ship Gertrud and it has been decided that the leak is not bad enough to prevent the vessel from going on to San Francisco where she will be drydocked and her bottom repaired.

While it was found that the vessel had sustained extensive damage through grounding in the Elbe just as she was starting on her voyage to Honolulu it is considered that as she was capable of making the voyage around the Horn with a full cargo in safety she should be able to make an easy passage while only in ballast to the Coast at this season of the year.

The survey board made a very complete examination of Captain Henke's vessel. They found that several of her beams had been twisted and also that some bottom plates had been badly bulged in.

On all hands it is said that the skipper took a big risk and had an immense amount of nerve in bringing his leaking vessel around the Horn. He knew that the vessel had been aground in the Elbe but did not put back to Hamburg to make repairs or an investigation of the damage. He could have done this easily but chose instead to risk the long passage on a route where sailors seldom expect anything but bad weather.

Ballast was taken into the vessel yesterday and a force of men were at work making all the repairs that were possible to the leaking hull while the vessel lay in the water and a late hour in the afternoon it was announced that the leak had been entirely stopped up.

Labor Day on the Waterfront.

The water front was quieter yesterday than it has been on any day for months. There was little work in progress outside of that on the steamship Hawaiian and the putting in of ballast into the German ship Gertrud at Railway wharf. Labor Day brought about a holiday for everyone.

All the shipping offices were closed. There were no arrivals of vessels in the Inter-Island trade and all departures were postponed until today. The work of discharging the Alameda did not go on as the longshoremen declined to work unless given double pay for the day. As the steamer Mauna Loa of the Inter-Island line is being hurriedly put in shape to resume her run to Maui and Hawaii ports some carpenters were at work on her during the day.

Many of the vessels lying at the wharves were dressed with American flags and the five-masted schooner W. H. Marston looked exceedingly well with all her flags flying.

Some of the island steamers may be late in getting away today because of rush of work in loading them this morning. The Claudine sails for Hilo and way ports at 5 p. m. instead of at noon as usual, the change in sailing time being for this week only.

Honolulu's Expensive Voyage.

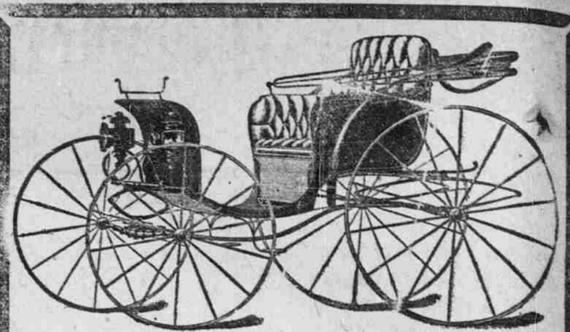

Bad weather continues in the Molokai channel and a gale was blowing hard yesterday although the weather has moderated to some extent. The schooner Honolulu still lies at anchor outside and the tug Fearless will not attempt to tow her to Kaaanapali until the weather regains normal conditions. After her ninety-four day voyage from Newcastle this long wait here because of the weather makes her trip to Hawaii with a coal cargo a very expensive one.

Scrap Iron on Long Voyage.

The steamer Hawaiian of the American-Hawaiian steamship line has an unusual consignment of cargo that she brought from Seattle and will take with her around the Horn to New York. This is 100 tons of scrap iron. It is probably the first time on record that a steamer going around the Horn from the Pacific coast has had scrap iron as a portion of her cargo.

PEOPLE OF PORTUGAL

Consul A. S. Canavarro Shows Nation's Greatness.

Portuguese residents of Honolulu were carried back to the days of their youth at San Antonio hall by Senhor A. de S. Canavarro last evening. With the aid of a stereopticon which told even more realistically than words of the charms of Portugal, the Portuguese consul told the history of his country before an audience that more than filled the large hall. Every seat was taken long before the hour for assembling had arrived, and there was no lack of enthusiasm at the speaker's words. The hall was prettily decorated with flags and bunting, the colors of Portugal of course predominating.

Senhor Canavarro spoke for nearly an hour, confining himself almost exclusively to the history of Portugal. He told in detail of the beginnings of the nation, its conquests and explorations by sea and land, of the discovery and occupation of Brazil and of the glories of the country when it was the leading nation of Europe.

The consul's reference to the growth of his country and his expressions of belief in the future, to which all natives of Portugal must contribute, awakened prolonged applause, as did his reference to the present rulers of the country.

Following the address, which was heartily applauded at its close, stereopticon views of Madeira, were shown, the consul explaining the points of interest as the scenes were thrown upon the canvas. Pictures of the royal family and of a Portuguese battleship were especially well received. There was shown, also, picturesque castles, fine monasteries and beautiful public buildings, with glimpses of Portuguese beauties and of scenes from the country life of the people.

Following the stereopticon views the floor was cleared and those present enjoyed dancing until a late hour, a Hawaiian quintette furnishing the music.

DANCE AT PAAULU.
Paaulu, Hawaii, Aug. 22, 1902.
Editor Advertiser—The dance given by Mrs. H. Walker of Paaulu, August 22, 1902, in honor of her son Fred, was one of the most largely attended, as well as one of the most delightful, social events ever given in Hamakua.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with evergreens, and brilliantly lighted and everything was done that it was possible to do to make it a scene of gaiety and enjoyment.

The Paaulu string band was in attendance. The dance commenced early and was kept up until nearly 4 o'clock in the morning, with intermission at midnight, when there were good things to eat.

The dance was a great success and was enjoyed immensely by everyone. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Lidgate, Mr. and Mrs. E. Madden, Mr. and Mrs. J. McLennon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Askew, Dr. and Mrs. Buffet, Mrs. J. Horner, Mrs. C. Blacow, Mrs. Patton, Miss Annie Horner, Miss Ollie Horner, Miss Ethel Horner, Miss A. Lots left on King Street in the PAWAA TRACT, but the 8 lots now remaining on Young Street are equally as good for a home and more quiet and just as convenient to the ELECTRIC CARS on account of the very artistic lane which is now being laid out and which runs through the center of this property to King Street. The contract is now let for macadamizing Young Street through this property, thereby rendering it a beautiful driveway, city width, running through from Punahou to McCully Street; but the choicest lots of all yet remaining unsold in this tract are those on Beretania Avenue opposite the beautiful Dillingham Place, as they face the mountains and are the highest lots in the tract. The terms and prices for which these lots can be bought are the most reasonable this side of Chicago, for if you wish to buy a lot you can do so from $50 to $100 down and $10 a month for which you will receive a Warranty Deed with the title guaranteed as perfect. If you want to buy a home, house and lot and a for from $1,500 up on easy terms, do not fail to visit the Pawaa property at once for the price of this property will positively be advanced 20 per cent after the 15th of this coming month. STOREKEEPER SCOVEL OF ONOMEA HAS DISAPPEARED his arrest last Tuesday. The police all over the island of Hawaii have been notified to keep a lookout for the missing man, and to hold him at least until the books can be examined and his guilt or innocence ascertained.

If it is proved that Scovel has really absconded with money belonging to Brewer & Co., received from sales at their Papaikou store, it will be a matter of great surprise, for he has always been looked upon as a most exemplary employe, with no bad habits.

News of the trouble on Onomea Plantation was first brought to Honolulu in the Claudine's mail, which was placed in the hands of Brewer & Co. yesterday morning. Letters from Manager Moir of Onomea Plantation told the facts in the case as they had occurred up to the time of the Claudine leaving Hilo last Friday. According to these letters Scovel, who has been in charge of the Papaikou store for about three years, tendered his resignation a week ago Friday to go into effect immediately. He gave no reason for this sudden determination, which naturally caused some surprise, and when he left Manager Moir immediately began an investigation of the store books. From the first many errors in accounts were discovered, and after the examination had progressed for a day of so Mr. Moir came to the conclusion that everything was not just as it should have been. He went to Scovel's room but he was not there, and no trace of him could be found, excepting a statement that he had made to a friend of his intention to go to Hilo. After consultation with attorneys Moir decided to swear out an information against his old employe and a warrant was placed in the sheriff's hands for his arrest. Search at Hilo failed to disclose the slightest trace of the missing man's whereabouts, and telephone messages were then sent to every part of the island to prevent him leaving. At the time of the Claudine leaving Hilo on Friday no trace of Scovel had been discovered, and notice was sent to High Sheriff Brown to look out for him here.

"Yes," said George H. Robertson, vice president and manager of Brewer & Co. yesterday, when questioned in regard to the affair: "there has been trouble at Onomea. E. L. Scovel, our storekeeper in charge of the store at Papaikou, has disappeared and experts are now going over his books. We do not know as yet whether Scovel has committed any wrong or not, positively. When he threw up his position so suddenly the suspicions of the manager were aroused and he began an investigation of the books immediately. This examination had not been finished at the time Moir wrote us, the letter arriving in the Claudine mail, and we cannot tell just what is wrong. The hasty examination already made shows the firm to have lost about $7000 since the first of the year, though a closer investigation may make some change. Scovel made weekly reports to us and the store did not show any loss during the year.

"Many errors were discovered in Scovel's books, on examination; but he was always loose in his bookkeeping. Whether this money was really stolen or not we do not know positively. I did not exactly like the inventory he made at the beginning of the year and we had intended to send a man up there this month, not connected with the plantation in any way, to make a new inventory. Scovel may have become suspicious of this and sent in his resignation before the investigation could be made. Much of the goods were sold to the laborers on credit, and taken out of their wages by the plantation. Whether Scovel collected and failed to turn in the money is not known, as the examination had not progressed far enough to say. There is, however, a showing of a loss of $7000 according to the stock now on hand and the amount the inventory showed, and what stock had been sent to him during the year.

"Scovel was a man of regular habits. He had been working at Papaikou store for about three years, and previous to that was in charge of the store at Honoumou. He is about 40 years of age, and unmarried. He never drank, played cards or gambled, and dressed plainly. If he took the money it was not spent upon himself; he must have put it in a hole in the ground somewhere. Scovel was somewhat of an artist, and painted some pictures of much merit.

I have a beautiful one here of the Dewey crater. He spent all his spare time in painting, and often stopped in the middle of the day to work upon some picture he had under way."

WHAT IS PAIN BALM?

Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and, while adapted to all the ordinary uses of a liniment, has qualities which distinguish it from other remedies of this class. Pain Balm is especially beneficial for rheumatism. Thousands of cases can be cited in which it has effected a cure when the sufferer had previously tried the best medical service without securing relief. Pain Balm is positively guaranteed to give relief in the most severe cases of chronic or acute rheumatism.

Pain Balm heals bruises, burns and scalds in less time than any other treatment. It is "antiseptic" that is, it prevents putrefaction and by so doing, generally prevents an unsightly scar remaining after the injury is healed. For lame back, lumbago and neuralgia, Pain Balm has no equal. It has the quality of "getting to the right spot." No sufferer from these distressing affections should defer a trial of this remedy. One application gives relief. Try it. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.
