FIVE KOREANS REPRIEVED BY THE GOVERNOR

A Chance Will Be Given For a Hearing in Behalf of the Men Condemned to Die For Murder of a Countryman.

The five Koreans sentenced to be hanged on May 2d for the murder of a sixth on Hawaii last December, have been reprieved for three weeks.

Acting Governor Atkinson signed the reprieves a few minutes before he took the Mikahala for Kauai yesterday afternoon. The action was the result of a petition circulated yesterday by W. A. Kinney and Lorrin A. Thurston, and asking that a reprieve be granted long enough to permit of a hearing on behalf of the condemned men, and the sifting of all the evidence in the case to ascertain whether there might not at least be differences in the degrees of guilt.

So far as the action of the Acting Governor is concerned he stated yesterday afternoon late, when the petition was presented to him, that he had no objection to giving the fullest hearing on the matter, and that the reprieve asked for would be granted. The only question in his mind was as to the length of time it should run. There was not the slightest hesitancy as to the reprieve itself.

STATUS NOT CHANGED.

The granting of the reprieve does not change the status of the case. If that is changed, it must be by the arguments presented at the hearing.

When the hearing will be held is a matter to be determined later. The proponents of mercy, it is understood, will make the argument, among others, that the killing was rather an instance of the running of lynch law than a deliberate murder, and it is an open question among lawyers and publicists generally as to whether those who enforce lynch law should be treated altogether as common murderers. At all events, it is a question whether an entire group of lynchers should be hanged. It is not commonly done, on the mainland.

There are likewise some points in the record of the trial of the Koreans that need elucidation, and the Acting Governor will be as glad to have any doubts cleared up as anybody else. It is not desired by anybody that there should be even an appearance of bearing more hardly upon friendless Koreans than upon any other class of people. Some of these arguments were made to the Acting Governor by Messrs. Thurston and Kinney in presenting the petition for a reprieve to the Acting Governor, and all arguments will be considered in the final determination of the matter.

THE FORMER HEARING.

The men who are under sentence of death are Shim Myeng Ok, Kang Yong Bok, Kim Yong Yee, Chang Chi Yuel and Wee Myeng Sook. The story of the murder, which crime was accompanied by circumstances of particular atrocity, has been told in the Advertiser a number of times and may be assumed to be familiar to the readers of this paper. Rev. Mr. Wadman, of the local Methodist congregation, was the first man to take up the effort to secure executive clemency for the men, appearing at a hearing given before Acting Governor Atkinson on April 16, accompanied by the Japanese Vice Consul, Mr. Matsubara.

At the same time, Deputy Attorney General Milverton, who conducted the prosecution of the case at Hilo, made a statement and explanation to the Acting Governor of the evidence upon which the conviction had been secured. Also, a somewhat remarkable letter was read from Hon. Carl Smith, attorney for the condemned men.

The petition for a reprieve, prepared and circulated very hastily yesterday so that it might be laid before Governor Atkinson before his departure for Kauai, was signed by S. M. Damon, L. Tenney Peck, E. I. Spalding, M. Kichi, H. P. Wood, Cecil Brown, A. W. Carter, L. A. Thurston, D. I. Withington, W. A. Kinney, Henry E. Cooper, P. C. Jones, Castle & Cooke, E. M. Watson, B. L. Marx, Walter G. Smith, R. W. Breckons (who signed with the provision that a showing be made from the record that there was some ground for the extension of clemency) and J. T. De Bolt.

COURTS MAY INTERFERE.

In presenting the petition, Mr. Thurston made the statement that Judge Dole had been asked to sign it, but had declined for the reason that the fact of his holding a Federal judicial position might cause his motives to be misunderstood. Judge Dole had, however, expressed his entire accord with the movement to secure a reprieve and a further hearing, and had said he would be very glad if Mr. Thurston would make a statement to that effect to the Governor.

Mr. Thurston also said that Chief Justice Frear and Supreme Court Justice Hartwell, while they had expressed themselves in entire accord with the movement to secure a reprieve, had yet refrained from signing the petition for the reason that there was still a possibility of the case coming before their court on a writ of error. That would seem to contain an intimation that the courts may yet be called upon to take action in the case.

The reprieves for the five men were signed by the Governor late in the afternoon, the steamer Mikahala being held for him, and were delivered by Chief Clerk Buckland to High Sheriff Henry at 5 p. m.

SAN FRANCISCO MERCHANTS TO RESUME BUSINESS SOON

EUGENE E. SCHMITZ, MAYOR OF SAN FRANCISCO.

GENERAL GREELY SNUBS GOVERNOR

The Military Commandant at San Francisco Will Recognize No Authority but That of Mayor Schmitz.

(Associated Press Cablegram to the Pacific Commercial Advertiser.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—General Greely has announced that he will recognize no other authority in San Francisco than that of Mayor Schmitz. This announcement is directed at Governor Pardee.

The afternoon cable yesterday stated that a meeting of the General Committee of Fifty had been held, with Mayor Schmitz, Governor Pardee and General Greely. At this meeting, Governor Pardee expressed indignation at the request apparently made by General Greely, for the withdrawal of the National Guard from the city, declaring that it was a reflection upon a body of brave men.

Governor Pardee was told by General Greely that no such reflection was intended, but that the request had been made because it was desired to concentrate the work of protecting the city in the hands of the Federal troops.

The afternoon cable further stated that no conclusion had been reached in the matter. It is apparent that the conclusion came later, and that General Greely has snubbed the Governor of California.

In this same connection, the afternoon cables stated: "All finances are placed in the hands of regular organized committees which keep regular books and report to the auditing committee and to the War Department."

"Secretary Metcalf is here co-operating with General Greely and the local authorities."

Putting Up Temporary Buildings and Order Eight Thousand Carloads of Merchandise.

(Associated Press Cablegram to the Pacific Commercial Advertiser.)

A great amount of perishable relief supplies were spoiled because of lack of railroad facilities.

In the Presidio Hospitals, the number of patients is decreasing.

Railroads Will Resume Business.

Several street car lines have asked permission to resume operations tomorrow.

The Union and Risdon Iron Works are to be re-opened at once.

The Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and Ocean Shore railroads have been given permission to lay their tracks into the burned district to aid in the removal of debris.

Surveyors Laying Out Lines.

Surveyors have begun work, delimiting streets and property lines, and Architect Burnham has been summoned to aid in the rebuilding of the city.

Governor Pardee continues his proclamations of daily legal holidays, postponing the payment of obligations.

Relief subscriptions now total four and one-half million dollars.

SEVEN SQUARE MILES OF SAN FRANCISCO DESTROYED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The City Engineer estimates that seven square miles of the city have been destroyed.

Health conditions in San Francisco have been greatly improved by reason of the strict enforcement of sanitary regulations.

Will Give No More Free Rides.

Free transportation to all parts of the state have been revoked, tickets being issued by the railway companies only in exceptional cases.

The relief camps are being concentrated.

Immediately following the disaster in San Francisco, it was stated that the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railways were giving transportation free to all those who wished to leave the city. It is apparent, from this cablegram, that only transportation to points in California was meant—and, as was to have been expected, this privilege has been withdrawn with a return to something at least approaching normal conditions.

The situation in San Francisco is now well in the hands of those in control, and some extent of the magnitude of the disaster may be formed from the statement of the City Engineer that seven square miles of the city have been destroyed.

OFFERS OF MONEY TO REBUILD SAN FRANCISCO

(Associated Press Cablegrams—Afternoon Service.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—A representative of the National Bank of New York has arrived here and promises every assistance to the banking institutions of San Francisco, to aid in rebuilding the city.

GENEREROUS RESPONSE

Relief Fund Committee Report $60,000 in Sight.

The total contributions to the San Francisco Relief Fund in Hawaii are going to exceed $60,000. This was the substance of the report presented at the informal meeting of the Relief committee, called yesterday afternoon by the Acting Governor. The members of the committee wanted to know just where they were in the matter of funds and the report of Chairman McCandless, showing that all expectations were going to be surpassed, was most gratifying. Up until yesterday afternoon there had been turned into the sub-committee $42,000. This is exclusive of the large amounts voted for the Relief fund through the various societies, and the chairman reported that there was more to come. "When Maui, Hawaii and Kauai are heard from," said Secretary Wood, "it will be found that the Territory of Hawaii has contributed over $60,000 for the California sufferers. This is more than we had expected and shows that the sympathy of Hawaiians towards their unfortunate neighbors is widespread and deep." The resolve to continue forwarding the names of relatives of Honoluluans, that they may be looked up by Fraser in San Francisco, was one of the important items of the meeting. During the past day or two, since the cable communication has been uninterrupted, no names have been cabled, the people themselves being relied on to cable the news of their condition, but it has been thought proper to allow the use of committee funds for this and last night over two hundred people were inquired for through the committee.

JAPANESE CONSUL GETS NO ANSWER

No answer has been received at the Japanese Consulate to the cabled inquiry for further information concerning the San Francisco Japanese. This inquiry was sent to the Japanese Consul at the Coast by Vice-Consul Matsubara, but did not contain the expressions of doubt quoted by one of the evening papers, which mixed up the message with some personal observations of Mr. Matsubara. As announced by the Advertiser the Honolulu Japanese are acting in concert with the Relief Committee, having decided at a mass meeting to take no action as a class. "It is a great pleasure for us to cooperate with the entire community in giving relief to the San Francisco sufferers," said the Vice-consul. "At the same time I cherish personal gratification for the generous action of that Committee in already forwarding a large sum of money for the special relief of the Japanese in San Francisco. I have received no reply cable from our Consul at San Francisco, but what ever reply we receive we will have no separate collection. Whatever money is sent in to this Consulate for the Relief Fund will be turned over to the general committee. We have already turned over some collections in this way." "The Japanese here are being called upon from both sides. In the newspapers received on the last mail from Japan we learn that food from the outside will have to be sent in to the famine districts until the end of June, by which time the government relief works will be under way far enough to enable the people to maintain themselves." Consul Saito, who had been expected to return to Honolulu this month, has been delayed and will not reach his post here until sometime in May.

CHINESE MONEY GOES BOTH WAYS

The decision arrived at by the local Chinese at their mass meeting on Tuesday night, whereby the boycott fund of $12,000 is to be divided between the San Francisco Relief Fund and the Canton hospital, does not suit some of the subscribers to the fund and written protests have been received by Lum Bou, treasurer of the fund, against sending any of the money to China. These protestants think that the whole amount should be at once cabled to the Coast. Cheu Kam, president of the United Chinese Society, who is also president of the Boycott fund committee, says that the matter will be settled definitely at a meeting of this committee in a few days, which settlement will be along the lines proposed at the mass meeting. "We will cable half our money at once to San Francisco and the other half to Canton and get it out of our hands." This was said with an expression which told how well satisfied he would be when the money, which has been a bone of contention for some time, was at last out of his possession.

CORNER IN OIL HAS COLLAPSED

The oil corner of Ah Leong has been most effectually broken by the arrival off port yesterday of the bark Mohican, with ten thousand cases of petroleum on board. As soon as news of the San Francisco disaster was received in Honolulu, Ah Leong conceived the notion that money could be made by engineering a corner in the petroleum market, and it was not long thereafter before he held all the illuminating fluid that was to be had. The price was advanced from $2.50 to $3.50 per case, and the prospects were that it would go still higher. And then, just as everything was working smoothly, for Ah Leong, "Diamond Head" Charlie yesterday reported that he had sighted the Mohican, twenty-three days out from San Francisco. As it was known that the bark had a big lot of oil aboard, prices at once sagged back to the old figure. It is not likely that there will be any more corners in necessities in Honolulu. The sense of the business community is opposed to it.

RETURNS THANKS TO MR. GAINES

Acting Governor Atkinson has written to Superintendent Gaines of the Cable Company thanking him for the excellent work done by the cable office staff during the San Francisco disaster.

PLENTY OF SUPPLIES

Dealers Ready to Fill Their Ordinary Demands.

"If the people will only keep cool about it there will be no shortage of anything in the food supply of the city," said Hugh McIntyre, vice-president of Henry May & Co. "There is plenty of everything in the town and there should be no inconvenience if people will just go on as usual. "Of course, if those who have been in the habit of buying such things as vegetables and butter by the half dollar's worth should get excited at the stories of a shortage and commence to lay in a month's supply it will run the market out in those lines. But there is no occasion for this. We have potatoes on the way now and the Alameda will bring along enough butter to keep us going until the next steamer comes in. We are not raising prices nor will we, unless, of course, there should happen to be a rise in prices at our supply point. "Some brands of canned goods may be exhausted, but there will be plenty to replace them. The growers of potatoes on Maui have shoved up their prices on the strength of the reported shortage, but the prices at the retail stores here remain the same." H. F. Lewis, manager for Lewis & Co., also thinks that the talk of shortages and corners has been overdone. "Lewis & Co. have everything that their customers want and at the same old prices. The only ones who are being squeezed now are the people who have been patronizing the Chinese stores, where the prices are invariably raised just as soon as the opportunity presents itself. As far as our customers are concerned there need be no fear of any shortage nor of a jump in prices. "We have received many inquiries as to the advisability of the people laying in a reserve stock of groceries and have advised our customers not to do so. There is no fear of anyone not being able to get all they want at the time they want it. All the reliable stores are maintaining their regular prices and are in a position to supply all their customers. "We expect to have enough of everything to keep going until the Alameda arrives with more supplies. She will bring as much of our orders as is available, even if the entire order cannot be filled." Similar assurances were made at other supply houses, the general opinion being that the attempted corner in butter, coal oil and spuds would be a failure. Naturally the larger stores are keeping their stocks for their customers, refusing to keep the smaller stores supplied as has been the custom when there was no interruption in the supplies.

THE SUPERVISORS ARE BEING KEPT BUSY PROTECTING THE POLICE

One Coat of Whitewash Is Not Dry Before the Necessity Arises for Applying Another.

The police affairs of the county played considerable part in the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors at their meeting last night.

The investigating committee appointed to look into the charges of brutality at the police station, as was to have been expected, completely exonerated the Brown administration.

A petition from 27 registered voters of Waianae demanding the removal of Deputy Sheriff Chris Holt and Police Officer Joe Kupihea, for alleged cruelty, drunkenness and immorality, caused the sensation of the session, but as it has been left in the hands of the Police Committee, no unpleasant results to the parties complained of need be apprehended.

Present were: Chairman Smith, Supervisors Lucas, Cox, Archer, Moore; Clerks Kalaoukalani, Buffandeau, Capt. Robert Parker, W. Marston Campbell, Capt. Sam Johnson, Stenographer Aea, County Engineer Gere, Sol. Mahelona.

The following communication from Supervisor Adams was read:

ADAMS' ABSENCE. Honolulu, April 23rd, 1906. G. W. Smith, Esq., Chairman Board of Supervisors, County of Oahu, T. H. Dear Sir: Owing to the terrible earthquake disaster in San Francisco regular shipments of food stuff and plantation supplies from that point must necessarily be interrupted and disorganized, so it has been found necessary that I should go to the Coast and help in relieving the situation. Under these circumstances I would respectfully request from the Board of Supervisors a leave of absence of three months.

Yours respectfully, E. R. ADAMS, Supervisor at-Large.

APPROPRIATIONS. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read, the following appropriations were made:

- Honolulu road tax (special deposit), $3666.12, Fixed salaries, $1670, County clerk office clerks, $235, County auditor, $120, County engineer, $265, House numbering, $125, Keepers of parks, $200, Poundmaster, $30, County attorney, $535, Electric light department, $729, Police and fire alarm system, $100, Road department, $2197, Garbage department, $200, County treasurer, $120, Fire department, $3675, Police department, $7800, Hawaiian band, $2127.50, Koolaupoko road district (special), $1676.50, County beach park, $65, Koolaupoko road district, $3040, Waialua road district, $3040. The special committee, consisting of Moore and Archer and with Smith as a member ex-officio, submitted a report on its investigation of charges of brutality in the police department, which was accepted and placed on file without discussion.

HOUSE NUMBERING. House Numberer Murphy reported the completion of his labors. The district numbered from January 1 to April 30, is bounded by Leahi Ave., Monsarrat Rd., Diamond Head Ave., Waialae Ave., Waialae Rd., Paku St., Palolo Valley Rd., Kapahulu Rd., and Palikai Rd. Chief Engineer Thurston of the fire department, submitted an estimate of $4550 for the month of May.

AN OFFENDING POND. A communication from F. J. Church, manager of the Waikiki Seaside hotel, was read, in which it was requested that a rubbish-filled lily pond on Waikiki road, across from the hotel be properly filled in and made more slightly, by the county.

The board decided that it could not interfere, as the offending pond was private property.

A RUDE LETTER. The clerk started to read another communication from F. J. Church, requesting that the county put up a fence on the mauka side of the Waikiki Seaside hotel, from the bridge near the Moana to the Ewa side of the lily pond which has recently been filled in.

The reading of the letter had not proceeded far before the chair exclaimed that it was discourteous and instructed the clerk to return it to the writer. The letter was as follows: Honolulu, T. H., April 16, 1906. To the Board of Supervisors, County of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii. Gentlemen: We make earnest request that you do not further delay in the matter of building the fence on the mauka side of the Hawaiian Annex property from the bridge near the Moana to the Ewa side of the old lily pond which has recently been filled in. Repeated promises have been made by individual members of your board, both to Mr. Dodge of Bishop Estate as well as to the writer, that work would commence "the next day," but apparently that day is always in the sweet mahope. THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE WHITEWASHES THE POLICE

Result of an Investigation Where Only Witnesses For the Defense Were Called Upon to Give Testimony.

The committee appointed to investigate charges of alleged brutality at the police station, reported as follows at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors last night:

Honolulu, T. H., April 26, 1906. To the Chairman and the Supervisors of the County of Oahu, Honolulu.

Gentlemen: Your Special Committee appointed at the request of Sheriff A. M. Brown, to thoroughly investigate the charges brought against the Police Department by the publication of two articles in the Commercial Advertiser, the first article appearing in the issue of April 14 and headed "Third Degree as Given at Police Station," and the second article appearing in the "By-stander" of April 15, headed "Police Brutality," beg leave to report as follows:

Your committee did assemble at the Police Station together with the Chairman of the Supervisors, Geo. W. Smith and Vice Chairman of the Supervisors and Chairman of the Police Committee, E. R. Adams, and did there with an official stenographer, take evidence from every available witness concerning both cases.

With reference to the charges made of "brutality" to a sneak-thief, by the name of Palenapa, your committee did not only examine the witnesses but had Dr. Wood as an expert, examine the man as to his physical condition. Dr. Wood was unable to discover any marks or bruises on any part of the man's body, and stated that had the man's ribs been broken or injured as was claimed in the paper, it would have been impossible for them to heal in so short a space of time. Dr. Emerson, the physician for the Police Department, stated that he had seen the man in the corridor repeatedly during his confinement and that he personally had never made a complaint to him with reference to any sickness or injury.

Trusting that you will see your way to attend to this matter at the earliest date possible, I remain, Very sincerely yours, WAIKIKI SEASIDE HOTEL CO., LTD. Per F. J. CHURCH. MOORE'S INDIGNATION.

Your committee was thoroughly satisfied after the investigation that the said article was without foundation and false. The second article relating to "police brutality" was then taken up and all witnesses in the case examined. It was satisfactorily proven to the committee that the said Chinaman spoken of, was not maltreated, and that he was put on board the steamer by and through the authority of the Attorney General on the recommendation of the grand jury and that he did not have his queue cut off, nor was he in any way tortured.

We are therefore convinced that this second article is an ungrounded attack upon the administration of the Police Department. The entire evidence in this case has been type-written, and is on file with the Clerk of the County.

Very respectfully, H. T. MOORE, F. K. ARCHER, Committee.

Approved: GEO. W. SMITH, Ex Officio Member of Committee.

The report was accepted and placed on file.

THEY'RE AFTER HOLT. A petition from 27 registered voters of Waianae was read, demanding the dismissal of Deputy Sheriff Chris Holt and Police Officer Joe Kupihea. A number of charges were appended including those of cruelty, drunkenness and immorality.

The matter was referred to the police committee for investigation. The meeting adjourned until Tuesday night next.

WAIANAE VOTERS CHARGE POLICE WITH BRUTALITY

Say Officers in Their District Permit Gambling, Beat Prisoners When Arrested and Get Drunk--Removals Urged.

Scarcely had the Supervisors whitewashed the police here from charges of brutality, when a bombshell fell among them from Waianae, cruelty, drunkenness and immorality being charged against the police there, over twenty-seven signatures. There was hardly time to whitewash the new victims but that will probably be attended to before election. Following is the petition containing the charges:

Waianae, Oahu, April 20, 1906. Mr. G. W. Smith, Chairman and Members of the Board of Supervisors, County of Oahu, T. H.

Gentlemen: We, the duly registered voters of Waianae, 4th precinct, 5th Representative District, County of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, do hereby respectfully petition unto your Honorable Board that you discharge the Deputy Sheriff, C. J. Holt and Joe Kupihea from the police force in the district of Waianae for the following causes to wit: First: That che-fa and game of cards, etc., are every day occurrence in this district.

Second: That police officers beat prisoners whenever they are arrested.

Third: That there is in the police force an officer, Joe Kupihea by name, whose domestic relations are questionable.

Fourth: That there has occurred in the police force a great deal of drunkenness.

We, therefore, believe that the causes are sufficient to discharge the above named officials from the positions they now hold. G. Kapahu, D. K. Kupihea, D. K. Nuuanu, Chas. Papaiku, Kaawihii, H. K. WHITEWASHERS AT WORK.

Palenapa told his wife that the police hit him with their fists until he felt as if his ribs were broken; the police, in one of their interviews, said Palenapa hurt himself by falling over some chairs at the station while getting away from a keyhole at which he had been listening and where he was discovered; Palenapa himself told the afternoon papers that he had been pummeled in the office of Asst. Sheriff Vida—where poor Townsend once got the worst of it, the man who had the next police smashing after Bob Levi. And now the Supervisors, the same ones who applauded Vida for hitting the "low hound" Townsend, say that Palenapa was not hurt at all. It is with difficulty they refrain from saying that the man's health improved under police hospital-ity. Probably that claim has been reserved for election purposes.

We desire that the report of the "investigating" committee, clearing the police and condemning the Advertiser be carefully read in the light of these facts: First, that the report gives no statement as to any testimony from Palenapa or his wife; second, that the testimony of Advertiser writers was not solicited or received; third, that the injured man was not examined by the police surgeon until eight days after the former claimed to have been hurt; fourth, the lack of reference in the "investigation" to the earlier statements of the police that Palenapa had been hurt by falling over chairs; fifth, the omission of the date of Dr. Wood's testimony as compared with that of Palenapa's injuries.

Does it need to be said that such an investigation was farcical, or that nothing else could be expected of three supervisors who exonerated Vida after he had confessed to assault and battery upon a sick and helpless witness?

The "investigators" also went into the question of whether or not a Chinese was deprived of his queue, tortured and shanghaied under police auspices. They say this charge is "ungrounded." Had the "investigators" called upon this paper for testimony that Chester Doyle showed a queue in this office and in the Union Grill which he professed to have cut from the head of the Chinese in question and that he related in detail the story of horrible brutality upon which The Bystander propounded his questions; had they called the people whom the crime of the Chinese had most closely affected and had them tell of the assurances given them as to the Chinaman's fate;—had this course been taken the investigation might have developed something more than the desire of certain supervisors to secure the aid, for their own political advantage later on, of the powerful machine of the police.

Remember that the Advertiser, which printed both the charges, was not informed as to the investigation, which was SECRET so far as press and public were concerned; it was not asked for witnesses; it was not given a chance to produce any or to cross-question those produced by others. The whole inquiry was one-sided, deceptive and political and intended to whitewash a department which the Board of Supervisors, in an inadvertent burst of candor, had already stigmatized as indifferent, incompetent or corrupt.

BOYCOTT IN CHINA ENDED.

There can be no doubt that Honolulu has missed a great deal of what has been happening in the balance of the big round world in the solicitude for San Francisco and the country around there, stricken by earthquake and fire, and as little doubt that much that has happened and is known here has been permitted to pass without attracting the attention that its importance otherwise would warrant.

For example, the Advertiser's waterfront man was told by Purser Roberts, of the Japanese liner Nippon Maru, last Monday that the Chinese boycott was virtually at an end, and that something like a business boom was beginning to manifest itself at Shanghai. Of course, if the boycott were ended, there would be a boom in Shanghai attendant upon the full resumption of commercial relations between the Chinese and the American firms, and as the business officer of a great liner passing the Chinese port, Purser Roberts would be in touch with business concerns there and so in a position to speak by the card.

What the moving causes for the changed relations may have been, we of Honolulu can form no conjecture. It is not at all likely that the United States Congress has changed the policy of restriction, although the known leaning of the President toward a more courteous enforcement of the restriction act may have had a certain effect.

Perhaps, as is more likely, the Chinese themselves have come to see that the chance of accomplishing any result by the boycott is but small, and that whatever might be accomplished would scarcely compensate them for the trade advantages lost in declining to have dealings with Americans. Possibly, also, they have realized that the boycott was a stronger agency for the advantage of merchants of nations hostile in trade matters to America, than for the amelioration of the American restriction law. The Chinese are the best merchants in the world, it has been said, and certainly they are a very shrewd people. The boycott was in a large sense a protest against the restriction of Chinese immigration, but traders of other nations in China took advantage of it, if they did not help it along, to build up their own trade at the expense of that of America.

If Purser Roberts is correct now, and if the boycott has been broken, whatever the cause, it means a great increase in the trans-Pacific commerce, and consequently a great increase in the trade of Honolulu. This port is bound to share in the trade that passes its gates—and to win a large share to its own account in the re-opening of the Chinese market to American products.

Yesterday's dispatches show that the Call building did not collapse, and that it can be restored. The new part of the Chronicle building was not burned, though it is supposed, from the context of the message, that the old part, the familiar clock-tower structure, succumbed. Much damage to Stanford University seems probable from the news that repairs upon the college buildings will be delayed. Facts are lacking about the hotels and many of the skyscrapers, but these will trickle along from day to day. As yet, Honolulu, despite the excellence of Mr. Gaines' special service, supplemented as it was by a large outlay by the Advertiser, lacks a coherent account of the actual harm done by the seismic catastrophe of nine days ago. The Olympia next Wednesday or Thursday may bring the first detailed news, with photographs. This journal, as the only one here provided with an art department, will illustrate the great event as thoroughly as it already has the public buildings, waterfront and streets of San Francisco as they stood before the earthquake.

There is the usual row on between the civil and military officials at San Francisco just as there was at Chicago during the strikes and at Charleston after the earthquake. Somehow, while martial authority is clear enough in the military code, it is a bit nebulous in the civil code, which is the one the state authorities go by. In the present case, Governor Pardee, with a keen eye on the political support of the National Guard, is resisting the demand of General Greeley for full powers; while General Greeley has determined to ignore the Governor and act with Mayor Schmitz, who, naturally enough, wants the Department commander to take the responsibility of any acts that may oppress the San Francisco voter. It is likely, however, that the row will soon end with the necessity for military rule.

The water shortage has been somewhat relieved, but in the meantime enough good water has cascaded down the precipices and flowed, with some small deductions, to the sea, to give a maximum supply for weeks. Our water problem is not so much one of supply as of storage. With the California system of impounding reservoirs Honolulu would rarely be short of water, even in the driest months. Up Nuanuu we are beginning the good work and it will in time extend to other wet valleys.

Perhaps San Francisco will be rebuilt by the time Clarence Macfarlane gets there and he will mistake it for Los Angeles.

Seven square miles of ruin show that the Bank of California's estimate was not far out of the way.

It is hard to tell which is the most chestnutty, the Bulletin's pictures or its wit.

THE TAFT PARTY'S MAKE-BELIEVE TRIP

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The long promised dinner to Secretary Taft by the members of the party who traveled with him in the Philippines was given at the New Willard.

The seventy guests were received in the pink ballroom, and when they were assembled were led into the adjoining ballroom, in the center of which was a huge Filipino shack, under which the table was laid. The entrance was over a real gangplank, upon which stood the captain of the vessel to welcome the party, and at the end of which, a Jap ushered them into Japan. Next to Japan was a perfect Filipino jungle, with a real carabao peeping through the thick foliage and behind him a brilliant sunset. Immediately next to the jungle was a portion of the Sandwich Islands, with a gorgeous sunset effect produced by calcium lights behind the scenery.

At the extreme end of the room was a gate of the city of Peking, through which one passed into the farther ballroom. At the side of the gate was a Chinese pagoda. On the other side of the room opposite to the Sandwich Islands were the different islands of the Philippines, with realistic foliage and brilliant lights behind them. At the end of the room opposite the Chinese gateway was a picture of the Manchuria tied to the wharf at San Francisco. Electric sparks in the national colors, with cartoons illustrating the itinerary of the party from Chicago to Canton, were among the spectacular features of the evening, which was further notable as being the first appearance since their marriage at any Washington function of Representative and Mrs. Longworth.

A BROKEN DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a breakdown, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same; the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is INCREASED VITALITY—VIGOR—VITAL STRENGTH AND ENERGY to prove that an agent succeeds the day this may throw off these morbid feelings, and experience be more certainly secured by a course of the celebrated life-reviving tonic

WOULD HAVE RACE SAILED

Local Yachtsmen See in it San Franciscans' Opportunity.

From Los Angeles to Hobron, Honolulu. Advise against canceling race possibly postpone start account delay arrival Anemone. SINCLAIR.

The matter of the transpacific yacht race has dropped from sight during the past week, owing to the untoward events in San Francisco. Now, however, that the worst is known, and men's thoughts are reverting to the affairs and things of ordinary, everyday life, the question is being raised as to what effect the disaster that has befallen the metropolis of California, will have upon the great ocean sailing race.

The above cable from Commodore Sinclair to T. W. Hobron reopens interest in the contest most opportunely, and is significant in that it probably expresses the opinions of the owners of the other out of Frisco yachts.

There are four entries for the race across the Pacific which hail from ports other than that of the Golden Gate and there should be no reason for any one of them abandoning the contest at the present juncture.

The Maple Leaf, Anemone, Lurline and La Paloma are sufficient in themselves to make the race a success and if the San Francisco craft, Iola and Nixie, should sail with the others, the contest will possess elements sufficient to make it one of the most notable events of the kind that has ever taken place.

The Lurline has been refitted for the race at great expense and the same is true of Hawaii's representative, La Paloma, and probably of the other entries. Their respective owners are certain to want a run for their money if the same can possibly be obtained.

As far as San Franciscans are concerned, it is improbable that they will as a whole desire to have the race abandoned. Rather will the Californian spirit make itself manifest and the race be accepted as a chance to demonstrate to the world that San Francisco still remains the gateway through which the commerce of the Pacific must pass.

THE LURLINE, AN ENTRY IN THE TRANSPACIFIC YACHT RACE.

Transpacific Yacht Race

By Allan Dunn.

Open sea, with the deep blue rollers of the mid-Pacific flashing back the sunshine from myriad facets as the steady trade-wind relentlessly sweeps the waters southward. Above, a sky, sapphire at the zenith, paling to the horizon where northward the low trade-clouds sail, a stately argosy, with promise of continued wind. On the waters another argosy of white-winged yachts, every inch of canvas set before the breeze that follows fast, every man aboard doing their utmost in cheery emulation of each other to bring their bark first into port. No storms ahead to fear, no fogs or ice to dread, only warmer, summer weather until the reckoning shows the goal is near, and the cheery cry of "Land ho!" grips the hearts of all in sturdy determination to drive her, drive her first across the line. An ideal dream for your real yachtsman, not your duck-dressed, harbor-haunting, picnic-planning pleasurer, but the man who loves the sea and the smell of it, his good ship and the speed of her; your deep-sea yachtsman, who revels in the wide spaces of the sea, the glories of the windy days and starry, moonlit nights, who can bend a sail and rig a spar, take his wheel and knows his sextant and chronometer, your true sportsman who loves the open sea and the steady breeze—a modern Viking of leisure. An ideal dream, indeed, and not an idle one for those who have the inclination, the capacity and the time.

Yachts are now being overhauled and re-rigged. One, the biggest competitor, is now on the way from the Straits of Magellan, under sail and auxiliary power, while another is having her spars stepped with all haste to enter the race. It will be a gallant Corinthian company that sets forth upon the date appointed.

The transatlantic race produced its fleet of competitors, its gallant owners who faced the odds of wind and wave, of storm and mist and treacherous ice, and now comes the certainty of a transpacific race, on tranquil seas, "neath tranquil skies, where the skill of navigation is needed. Twenty-one hundred miles, two thousand sporting miles, every one of them, in ideal weather, to an ideal port in the Paradise of the Pacific, Hawaii. The time is set, some of the contestants entered, and that, apart from the sheer love of the thing, there may be some trophy around which to spin the yarns of victory, a massive cup is offered.

A transpacific yacht race has long been talked over and urged, both on this coast and in Hawaii, where, amidst ideal racing waters, the glorious art of boating has long had its exponents, from good King Kamehameha to Kala-kaua, and, in greater measure, since annexation. It has always been a darling project of the Hawaii Yacht club, a sturdy band over a hundred strong, who, not content with placid lee island waters and calm lagoons, sail their craft in races around and between the islands of the picturesque Hawaiian group.

While chairman of the Hawaii Yacht club regatta committee, the writer helped in an attempt to bring about a race between the swift yachts of American and British residents of Japan and those of Hawaiian waters; the cup to be kept and the race sailed at the home of the winners of each regatta. The comparative smallness of the contesting craft and the difficulties of transportation, however, caused the plans to fall through, but not until the Hawaii promotion committee had pledged themselves to offer a cup for such an event.

lance, the scheme of a San Francisco to Honolulu ocean race ripened, and met with popular favor, until last fall Commodore Hobron came to San Francisco empowered to broach the idea to the yachtsmen of the coast. A cordial response came from the Californians, already enamored of such a project. Several skippers announced their willingness to enter, and Mr. Hobron returned elated. The Hawaiian promotion committee voted a $500 cup, to become the absolute property of the winner, the cup to be offered by the Hawaii Yacht club, of Honolulu. In the event of three entries, a second prize is forthcoming, while all yachts participating receive a silver souvenir. All expenses of pilotage, towing, harbor dues and fresh water will be borne by the island yachtsmen, and the proverbial Hawaiian welcome will be extended to the visitors.

The race is to start at 3 p. m. from Meiggs wharf, May 5th next, when there will be full moon to light the contestants from the California coast and cheer them on their way to southern seas. The start will be the usual "one gun" method, the time of all yachts being taken as they cross the line. All yachts must belong to some recognized yacht club, and be not less than forty feet deck length. Realizing the necessity of liberal conditions, the Honolulu regatta committee having charge of the race place no restrictions on sails carried, number of the crew or as to professional sailors or navigators, while the usual rules of the road govern the race.

Handicaps have been arranged as follows: An allowance of one hour per foot of length, which will be determined as follows: Length of water line, plus one-half overhead, the measurement to be taken when the boat is ready for sea, with all stores aboard. These conditions provide a fair system of allowances.

It is probable, though the trades are not certain to follow the yachts into Honolulu, that the yacht carrying the most canvas will have a heavy percentage in its favor, undoubtedly will with started sheets, but consultation of the pilot charts of past years for the month of May shows that there is a fair certainty of each boat having a chance of finding her best point of sailing somewhere in the race. It will not all be running; there will be some windward work, perhaps a good deal of it, to equalize the chances. Commodore Hobron, owner of the crack sloop (lately converted to yawl rig) Gladys, a thirty-two-foot semi-cruiser, designed by Bacon, holder of the King Kalakaua challenge cup and winner of many deep-sea races about the Hawaiian Islands, is chairman of the race committee. He is a thorough yachtsman, who navigates his own vessel and knows every inch of her. In the Gladys, he has sailed many deep-sea races, up to 150 miles, around Oahu, and between that island and Maui, and the writer, who has had the fortune of sailing with him in many of his trips, can cordially endorse the appointment of a man so keen to the sport and conversant with all its pleasures and duties. Mr. Hobron is now negotiating for a schooner, which he may enter in the race, but in his own boat or another's, he will be in it, and lucky is the skipper who secures him as an auxiliary. The other members of the committee are F. C. Smith and H. P. Woods.

The finish of the race is to be off famous Diamond Head, known to every traveler across the Pacific. The light-house must be ahead and the arriving yacht signal by private flag; or, in case of a night finish, the burning of a Coast signal when five miles from the light (approximately, of course), and again when the light is ahead. A watchman will be on hand night and day at the station to time the arrival and make flag or light ready, which must be received by each boat at the usual signal when five miles from the light (approximately, of course), and again when the light is ahead. authority, perhaps, lies in the pilotage charts. A composite course, taken from the past five years, shows the northeast trades prevailing with the possibility of southeasterly winds as the Islands are neared. Storms are practically unknown at this period, though the winds are strong with a velocity ranging from 3 to 5.

Now for the contestants. Hawaii will certainly send one yacht. The schooner La Paloma, California built and known to all San Francisco yachtsmen, will be the selection, unless Commodore Hobron secures a schooner, and even then there is a possibility of both competing. La Paloma, owned by Commodore Macfarlane, is a staunch little craft of some twenty-four tons and forty-nine feet over all length. Originally a schooner, her skipper reverted her to a sloop, but has since changed to the first type. She is seaworthy and has made deep-sea trips of 800 miles around and about the islands. She has already made the trip from San Francisco to Honolulu, on her acquisition by Commodore Macfarlane, being sailed by Captain McPhail, then mate of the bark Andrew Welch. The last-named craft made a race of it with the schooner, but La Paloma won out by two days' margin in a nineteen days' trip. Her present owner is an enthusiastic yachtsman and true sportsman, and La Paloma will be driven for all she can do in the she will get about three days' handicap over her biggest rival, and will be a competitor not to be slighted. Though she will not likely be the first across the line, the race will not be over till she is sighted, and should many of the finishes be made at night, Commodore Macfarlane, with his knowledge of the islands and their channels, will get a chance to steal some hours while his competitors hesitate as to whether the faint loom of the land means Oahu or Molokai, Maui or Lanai. There are long stretches of calm lying under the lee of the land, which will be avoided by the experienced.

The schooner Lurline, owned by Commodore H. H. Sinclair, of the South Coast Yacht club, will be a sturdy claimant for first honors. In 1904 she made a delightful and successful trip in southern waters, visiting Hawaii, the Marquesas, Tahiti, Samoa and the Fijis, piloted by her able owner. He, too, is a deep-sea salt whose experience will serve him in good stead. His southern cruise was made without mishap, and his log showed many good runs. Since this voyage the Lurline has been remodeled, and will show a fast pair of heels. The trip of the Lurline from San Pedro to Honolulu was made in sixteen days, the log showing the record 2,250 miles. The weather was not the most favorable, and southing—unnecessary on the San Francisco-Honolulu trip—was made. The Lurline measures eighty-three feet on deck, and her tonnage is forty-seven. San Francisco yachtsmen will, many of them, be disappointed if James V. Coleman, at the schooner Aggie's wheel, will not have the pleasure of watching his competitors from over his good ship's stern during the race. There are many reasons why the Aggie is a favorite. Of beautiful lines and proven speed, she has the most excellent of chances. She has a deck length of seventy-eight feet.

Douglas White has declared his intention of entering the schooner Ramona, sixty-six feet deck length, which has, it is said, great speed before the wind. John and Wilbur Kyle, of San Diego, have launched a yacht which will compete if it can be rigged in time. Commodore Fulton G. Berry may put another stick in the sloop Nixie (fifty-two feet deck length) and make a yawl of her for the race, for which the Nixie is definitely entered, and George A. Story's new yacht may compete. H. R. Simpkins' yawl Tramontana (sixty-seven feet deck length) and Commodore Vincent's yawl Iola, are also possibilities. There is an auxiliary ketch now on the way from York, via the Horn, which has entered. She is 116 feet over all, and will be the biggest yacht in the Pacific, her ketch rig being, moreover, a novelty in these waters. She is named the Anemone, and is owned by Charles L. Tutt, of Colorado Springs, who is a member of the South Coast Yacht club, with headquarters at San Pedro, and also of the New York Yacht Club. The Anemone will fly the New York colors and be a representative of the eastern club in the race. Seattle may send the fifty-seven foot schooner Bonita. There have been rumors of the auxiliary Atlantic, owned by Wilson Marshall and winner of the Atlantic deep-sea race, coming around from New York and taking part, and there is a long list of possibilities which may be mentioned here not inappropriately, with their deck measurements in feet. These are:

- Schooners: Challenge (42), Chispa (62), Lady Ada (59), Martha (57), Virginia (61), White Wings (56), Josephine (48), Yawls: Ariadne (55), Ilder (46), Ripple (41), Tramontana (67), Truant (42), Minerva (41), Seven Bells (46), Sloops: Challenger (42), Rover (42), Thelma (42), Clara (45), Speedwell (45), Lots (44), Ella (42), Pride (41), and Harpoon (45).

Were the race, with its ideal conditions, starting from New York, there would be many competitors, and the Pacific coast should not be behindhand. None of the craft mentioned should be left out on account of size. The forty-eight-foot La Paloma is a sure starter, and near the bottom of the list in measurement, and others of much less tonnage have made the trip in safety. There was the Josephine, which, with a Corinthian crew aboard, went from here to Hilo, the tiny sloop Volante, twenty-five feet on deck, made the voyage with two men for a crew, the schooner Casco, then owned (twenty years ago) by D. Merritt of Oakland, rented by Robert Louis Stevenson, proved herself an able vessel of fifty tons. She is now in the coaling trade. Then there was the fifty-ton schooner Taina, ninety feet in length, sailed

BALL FOR CHARITY

All League Teams Will Grace Diamond Tomorrow.

There will be a novel exhibition of baseball on Saturday next, at the baseball grounds, in aid of the San Francisco relief fund. The five teams of the major league will take part, each team with its full line-up and an opportunity will be given to form a general line on the form of the different teams for the season to open on the 12th prox. There will be four games of four innings each; the first between the Mailes and the Honolulu; the second between the Kamehameha and the winners of the first game; the third between the Oahu and the winners of the second game, and the fourth between the Punahou and the winners of the third game.

The games will begin at 2 o'clock sharp and there will be no intermission; as fast as one game is finished the next will begin. Bert Bowers will hold the indicator and Professor Berger will dispense musical refreshment. It is hoped that a banner crowd will attend as the object is a most laudable one and all the participants giving their efforts without pay. Admission for adults will be 50 cents and for minors 25 cents.

The teams will appear in their new uniforms and will have positively the regular line-up for the new season.

Pat Gleason is acting as captain of the Honolulu, during the temporary inability of Jim Williams to take charge of the team. The Honolulu had a full turnout at practice last night and will undoubtedly be among the leaders this season as formerly.

The Punahou have enlisted Steers and Jess Woods and will make a strong bid for the pennant.

The Oahu have almost the entire old line-up of the Elks of last year, which ensures their recognition from any team.

The Kams have signed some excellent players and with the old standbys of former campaigns will be no negligible quantity.

The Mailes have an imported young man for catcher who is an artist in his line.

They have shown perhaps the greatest assiduity in practice and will not be far behind the first column this season.

On the whole the five teams will be more nearly balanced than ever before and all old fans will be surprised if this season does not develop into a closely contested battle for the lead. It will be no runaway for any team in the league and there will be no games this season decided until after they are played; that is to say one will not be able to decide Saturday mornings that any two teams will be the afternoon winners.

The Hospital

Thankful are They Who Escape The Surgeon's Knife

Thousands of surgical operations are performed every year in our great city hospitals upon women afflicted with serious female troubles. Sometimes the operations are successful—oftentimes they are not.

It is safe to say that certainly nine out of ten operations for female troubles might have been wholly avoided.

The most valuable tonic and re-builder of the female organism, the medicine with a record of thousands of cases literally snatched from the operating table, is

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Do not consent to an operation which may mean death until after you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. Note what it did for Mrs. Paul Oliver, whose letter follows:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was suffering from pains in my side and a serious female trouble. The doctors said to get well I must have an operation performed, but I would not consent to that.

I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and sent for a bottle; the first dose did me good, and after taking the first bottle I could sleep all right and I did not have those pains in my abdomen which I had all the time before. Now I can ride ten miles in a carriage, my color has returned, and I am full of life. I owe all this to the Vegetable Compound.

It has also done wonders for my thirteen-year-old daughter. I will never cease to praise it and recommend it to my friends.

MRS. PAUL OLIVER, St. Martinsville, La.

Thousands of women, residing in every part of the United States, bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills and creates radiant, buoyant female health. For your own sake try it.

Wedding Bells

A very pretty wedding ceremony last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Jones, Kuakini Road, Nuuanu, united in marriage Miss Alice Jones and Mr. Abram Lewis, Jr., who are now spending their honeymoon at "Maluhia," the Jones country home in Nuuanu valley. In the midst only of relatives and close friends the couple were made man and wife by Dr. William Morris Kincaid, pastor of Central Union Church.

The Jones homestead was artistically decorated throughout for the happy occasion. Near friends spent yesterday in adorning the home with the prettiest and most fragrant of the season's blossoms, banking the rooms everywhere with green from mountain and plain. The lanai was set with potted plants, palms predominating. The hallway and staircase were lined with palms, the balustrade being covered with a trailing parasite vine, while clusters of spider lilies were used most effectively. The parlor was filled with roses whose fragrance filled the house. The piano was banked with exquisite La France roses and upon a circular table stood a bowl filled with bride's roses. In the dining-room were beautiful purple orchids from Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Damon's country estate at Moanalua. A bank of daisies completed the decorations there.

The library in which the ceremony took place was entirely in green and white. The bay window was hung with maile ropes and the walls were similarly draped, interspersed with Easter lilies. Stephanotis blossoms and ferns were banked close to the walls. The archway was hung with maile. Half a dozen carnation hearts were prettily placed in the midst of the maile.

At quarter to 8 o'clock Little Dick and Ruth Gartley, nephew and niece of the bride, came down the stairway, preceding the bride, who entered the wedding hall on the arm of her father, Mr. P. C. Jones. The bride was not attended, nor was the groom, who entered the room with the minister. The bride, a popular society girl, looked lovely in her gown of baby Irish lace over white satin, a toilet of unusual beauty and originality. Her veil of tulle was caught in the coiffure with orange blossoms and she carried, as bridal bouquet, a cluster of Easter lilies. At the wedding supper the bride's cake was cut by Mrs. Lewis and a ring and thimble went to luckymaidens, as trophies of the occasion, and the cake itself, the handiwork of Miss Ladd, was distributed among the guests.

The couple, after concluding their honeymoon at Maluhia, will reside at the Hobron cottage on Bates street.

The bride is the daughter of one of the well-known families of Honolulu, Mr. Jones being one of the most solid and public-spirited men of the islands. The groom is a member of the law firm of Smith and Lewis. He is a native of Gilroy, California, and was a member of the pioneer graduating class of Stanford University. He has resided in Honolulu for many years.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Gartley, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hall, the Misses Hall, Mr. W. O. Smith, Captain and Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Judd, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Miss Sturgeon, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mott-Smith, Miss Paty, Mr. and Mrs. Wight, Miss Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. Faxon Bishop, Mrs. Laura Wight, Miss Ella Wight, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCandless, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Judge and Mrs. S. B. Dole.

The couple received many beautiful and costly tokens from their numerous friends.

A REMEDY THAT IS TRULY MAGICAL IN ITS POWER TO RELIEVE PAIN.

Mr. Lewis Rozario, Manager of Madras Co-op. Stores, of Madras, India, says: "I certainly think Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is one of the best medicines made. I had been suffering from an attack of colic and after trying a couple of prescriptions without relief, a friend suggested that I take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I did so and the result was truly magical for it gave me immediate relief. About that time several of my staff were attacked in a like manner and out of this same bottle I cured them all." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Agents for Hawaii.

Furtherance of his endorsement of deep-sea yachting, and yachts that are cruisers, not racing machines; an impetus will be given to all owners to acquire navigation and practical sea lore, while the Pacific coast will come before the eyes of the world-at-large with a stride that will bring it in line with all those communities which foster the development of clean, outdoor sport, be it on sea or land. All praise to the Hawaii Yacht Club as promoters of the plan and to all yachtsmen who will make it a success.

under the ownership of Count Festetics and navigated by his wife, the Idler, and others. Cramped quarters prove the only drawback to a small craft entering the race. The writer would be perfectly willing to make the trip with Commodore Hobron, in the thirty-two-foot Gladys, proven seaworthy craft that she is and, were it windward work all the way, the little lady would show a good chance that her owner would be very apt to take.

It is hard to imagine circumstances combining to make a trip more delightful. There may be a little fog at the start, and warm jerseys and oilers prove welcome. But a full moon will dispel the mist and every day see superfluous clothing shed until the deck and not the cabin will be the sleeping place. Then, some fine day, with a steady wind aft and flying-fish as escorts, the balmy breezes will make pajamas the order of the day, and the hours become a sunshine revel. On tropicward till the Southern Cross just swings above the horizon; on till the healthy, hardy, happy mariners, sun and wind-tanned, look eagerly for the loom of the land and wonder where they are in the procession. A distant sail seen on the horizon, or one sighted yesterday, may be a swift-winged rival, and discussion runs rife as to her identity and handicap.

And so, at last, Oahu is found and the good yacht bears to the southward, two thousand odd miles of deep water behind and before the promontory of Diamond Head, the white line of the reef, the emerald waters of the lagoon, repeated in the verdant mountains with their purple rainbow-spanned valleys, the palms waving a welcome along the shining beach, the town alive with flags and hooting whistles of welcome; a fleet of launches and other craft around the new-comer and a true "Aloha" from the islanders. Or, perhaps, the thin slip of a waning moon has gone, a myriad stars light the velvet sky, and the lower constellations are reflected in the sea. The waters lie placid in the island's lee, steerage way is barely held and the skipper's patience is sorely chafed as the flashing light on Diamond Head seems to keep its distance. "Keep in to the reef," says the man who knows something about the islands; "if there's any breeze you'll get it there." And so the owner creeps as near as he dares to the mounting warn of the barrier and finds enough to tauten his slackened sheets. She is abeam the light, "quick with the signal, we may need all our minutes." Back from the headland comes the answer, time is taken, the race is run, and an anxious crew accumulates degrees of feverishness that puts the quarantine doctor in a quandary next day until he answers their eager questions and the temperature dies down with the knowledge that no one is ahead as yet, and there is a big chance to win.

The $500 trophy, designed by Shreve, is a handsome solid silver calabash, set on a base of dolphins entwined, with the picture of the winning yacht on one side and Diamond Head on the other. It becomes the outright property of the winner. A feature will be made of the presentation, and the prettiest of all the belles of Honolulu may hand it to the lucky skipper. The race will be an island event, not an incident, and everyone is enthusiastic already.

After the race will come the welcome. There will be luau (feasts in native style), flower wreaths for victors and vanquished, the sights of the island yachtsmen, a visit to their cozy headquarters in the big inland lochs of Pearl Harbor, eight miles up the coast, a regatta there of Hawaiian smaller class yachts, with a big chowder, a dance, and a pow-wow, many entertainments that are even now being planned for the visitors in the way that only the denizens of the Paradise of the Pacific can plan and carry out.

There will be none to make the return voyage, even though it brings them back to home, sweet home, who will not carry the glamor of the isles with him, its summer seas and verdant heights, waving palms and cooling breezes, its flowers and festivals, and long and determine to, some day, return. It may, indeed, be safely prophesied that this race will prove but the forerunner of others and of more adventurous, if less arduous, cruises, amid the archipelagoes that lie basking ever in the summer seas that lie below the tropics of Cancer.

Minor races are planned in which the Hawaiian sea-going yachts will participate. There is a glorious course around Oahu from Honolulu, with spinners set—a break at the tiny harbor of Waihalua, with its fine hotel, sea-bathing, golfing and fishing—and then a long thrust to windward in the tumbling seas of the windward and northward coast, serrated by a hundred peaks that thrust their fire-tortured pinnacles upward, guardians of enchanted vales, by and between volcanic islands, the tops of which seem to lift, as a myriad bird-inhabitants soar and swirl in startled protestation of a hail. After the beat comes started sheets and a final run home again. A hundred and twenty miles of exhilarating sport over every point of sailing, a course not to be beaten anywhere. Then another favorite island course is planned from Honolulu to Lahaina, on the island of Maui, where half a century ago the big fleets of whalers used to call. Here is an up-channel race of seventy-five miles to windward, and a spanking run home again.

For the farewell a contest has been planned, from Honolulu to Hilo, situated on the big island of Hawaii, a trip of two hundred miles. This will give a chance to see the volcano, besides providing a welcome opportunity to the island yachtsmen to escort the visitors part way home, Hilo being some one hundred and fifty miles nearer California than is Honolulu. In these races the yawl Gladys, sloop Helene, Hawaii, Spray and Kapolei, with the schooner La Paloma, may be expected to enter. There will be cups offered as special prizes for these events.

The race is, as it deserves, rapidly becoming popular, not merely on this coast, but in the east. Sir Thomas Lipton may give a special trophy in

ATTACKED THE HEART

NEURALGIA IN THIS FORM IS OFTEN FATAL.

A Complicated Case Cured to Stay
Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Neuralgia in any form is painful but when it attacks the heart it is frequently fatal. Complicated with indigestion of a form that affected the vital organ it threatened serious consequences in an instance just reported. The case is that of Mr. F. L. Graves, of Pleasant Hill, La., who tells of his trouble and cure as follows:

"I traveled considerably, was exposed to all kinds of weather and was irregular in my sleeping and eating. I suppose this was the cause of my sickness, at any rate, in May, 1905, I had got so bad that I was compelled to quit work and take to my bed. I had a good doctor and took his medicine faithfully but grew worse. I gave up hope of getting better and my neighbors thought I was surely going to die.

"I had smothering spells that it is awful to recall. My heart fluttered and then seemed to cease beating. I could not lie on my left side at all. My hands and feet swelled and so did my face. After reading about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a newspaper I decided to try them and they suited my case exactly. Before long I could see an improvement and after taking a few boxes I was entirely cured. I am glad to make this statement and wish it could cause every sufferer to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do not simply deaden pain; they cure the trouble which causes the pain. They are guaranteed to contain no narcotic, stimulant or opiate. Those who take them run no danger of forming any drug habit. The pills are a blood and nerve tonic and they cured Mr. Graves because they fed the nerves through the blood. They act directly on the blood and it is only through the blood that any medicine can reach the nerves. In this way they have cured the most severe nervous disorders such as partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance and all sorts of nervous weakness. They are useful in a special way to women and growing girls. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

WATER IN PLENTY NOW

Will Be No Shortage if Consumers Are Careful.

The danger of a serious water shortage in Honolulu is practically at an end. That is to say, Superintendent of Public Works Holloway has the water situation well in hand, and if there is no extravagance in the use of water, and no wastage by early morning irrigation in contravention of orders, there will be enough to go around.

"The late rains in the mountains back of town have helped out the situation very materially," said Mr. Holloway yesterday. "There are now eight feet of water in Nuuanu reservoir No. 1, five feet in reservoir No. 2, and a little water in No. 3, which was dry a week or two ago. We are slowly gaining in the quantity of water stored.

"We have one of the pumps at Oahu College working all the time, pumping water into the higher service pipes, and so long as that can be kept up, there will be plenty in those pipes. There is no danger of stopping these pumps, unless there should be a shortage in the supply of gasoline. You see, they have two pumps at the College, and we can keep one of them going through the whole twenty-four hours. As nearly as I can tell now, there will be gasoline enough to keep the pumps going."

The situation, which was most threatening two weeks ago, as Mr. Holloway says, has been greatly relieved by the abundant rains that are falling almost every day in the mountain valleys. These are trade wind rains. They have wet the mountain slopes in every direction, and there is now a surplus of surface water running off which has contributed to swell the stored supply in the reservoirs. There is no present indication, either, of a cessation of the showers. And so long as the rains do not stop, the gain in the reserve will continue.

MORE NAMES FOR THE ANNEX HOTEL

The contest for a name for the Waikiki Seaside Hotel, or the Hawaiian Annex as it has been more popularly called, has closed, although the management has not been able as yet to make choice from the eleven hundred odd names that have been sent in.

The Advertiser some two weeks ago published a list of some of the more attractive or more amusing names sent in by would-be earners of the ten dollars offered, and herewith gives an additional list. The winning name will be chosen from among the names in these two lists that have been published in this paper—in other words names not published have already been discarded: Mystical View Hotel, Honolulu Seaside Hotel, Miz-pah, Niua-mahu (Shady Palms), Kaimalino (The Sea's Lullaby), Haleskalani, The Hawaii-nel, The Alice Roosevelt Hotel, Frogmore Resort, Nirvana, Beach Grove, Church Grove, The Bohemian, Apuakehau (Night and Morning Dew), Onaona (Sweet Perfume), Lei Nalu (The Breaker's Wreath), Hotel Nalu, which means "The Breakers;" Malihini, Kamaaina, Poli Pumehana (Warm Embrace), Keala (Sweet), Sans Souci, Hotel Lanihulu (Heavenward Scene), Miramere (Wonderful Sea), The Polynesian, Mapuana (Balmey Air), Idlehour, Hotel Sea Crest, La Paloma, Governor Carter Resort, The Fashion Surf, Wai-anuhe (Clear Waters), Waiwai (Beautiful Waters), Waiani (Heavenly Waters), The Aquatic Hotel at Waikiki, Anahola (name of the portion of the ocean in front of the property), Ka Moana Pakipika, Honolulu Sea Beach Hotel.

EVENING COLLARS OF JEWELS.

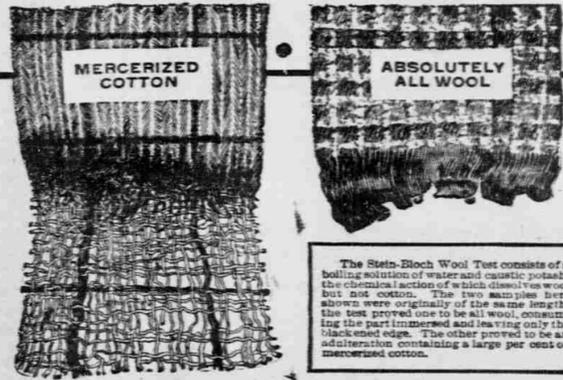

Many dog collars are now worn, and I am not alluding to collars of pearls, which are truly precious jewels but which many women lack from their box of ornaments.

Among the prettiest of the fancy collars at an approachable price I may mention the collars of bright red coral which are worth from $10 to $12; those of the pale pink coral easily run to $70 and $80, and at this figure one can hardly place them on the list of the fancy jewels. Very pretty are the collars of turquoise blue beads mounted in several strands and sustained by almost invisible bars of gilded metal or by barriers incrustated with similar alloy of zinc and copper which imitates gold. These cost from $10 to $15.

A really stunning novelty is the collar of crystal beads which are iridescent in the electric light, and which by their flashing variegations may match dresses of any color. These cost from $10 to $15.

Jet dog collars are suitable for matrons, and, finally, a most becoming collar for a young woman is a bit of tulle wound around the neck and having a light ornament fastened in the full bow behind. All these even-

A Valuable Book Free

Ask me to send you sealed, free, a book just completed, which will inspire any man to be bigger, stronger, younger (if he is old), and more manly than he ever felt. I am a builder of men.

I can take any weak, puny man and make him feel like a Sandow. Of course, I can't make a Hercules of a man who was never intended by nature to be strong and husky. I don't mean that.

But I can take a man who started with a fair constitution and before it got fully developed began tearing it down. That fellow is weak-nerved, slow, poky, lacking in vim, ambition and self-confidence. I can make a man of him in three months so that his own friends won't know him.

I want you to read this book and learn the truth about my arguments. If you are not as vigorous as you would like to be, if you have rheumatic pains, weak kidneys, loss of vitality, prostatic troubles, nervous spells, or any ailment of that kind that unmans you, it would assure your future happiness if you would look into this method of mine. Don't delay it; your best days are slipping by. If you want this book I send it closely sealed free if you inclose this Ad.

CLIMBING UP VESUVIUS WHILE IT IS ACTIVE

Scientist at Work and Natives Playing the Mandolin Almost on the Brink of the Crater.

(Associated Press Cablegram—Afternoon Service.)

NAPLES, Italy, April 26.—The crater of Vesuvius is becoming lower and wider and is assuming the character of a dead volcano.

NAPLES, April 14.—The Associated Press correspondent today succeeded in reaching the highest inhabitable point on Vesuvius, where Professor Matteucci, director of the Royal Observatory, has courageously held his post throughout the eruption. The noted scientist was found to be comparatively calm and undisturbed by his recent fearful experiences.

For three days Professor Matteucci and his little band were cut off from the outside world. Their provisions ran low and their rations consisted of cheese, bread and dried onions, until Professor Matteucci's urgent telegraphic appeals led a venturesome guide to push through on Friday with a stock of supplies for their relief. Meantime the professor had kept at his instruments, taking observations and making calculations day and night while a perfect inferno raged around him.

As he came forward to greet the correspondent his blackened face and dust-covered clothes told of the ordeal through which he had passed. The portico where he stood was knee-deep in ashes, which had been swept aside to make a small footway. From the observatory terrace, to which narrow paths had been cut through the ashes, the correspondent looked out over an ocean of ashes and twisted rivers of lava, while Vesuvius rose grimly in a mantle of ashes and shrouded dark vapor rising like a gigantic fan.

Professor Matteucci was asked to tell in his own way the story of the cataclysm from the outset. This he readily consented to do, and, speaking in good French, gave the following detailed narrative:

"I first observed Mount Vesuvius giving unusual signs about a month ago, when the lava began to overflow, taking a southwest direction. This gradually increased, as several small lava streams formed into one great current.

"The real danger began the middle of last week. Then an enormous stream of lava came from the summit, meeting the other streams, which burst from the lower strata. It was this that overwhelmed Bosco's Terrace. Throughout the lava discharge the volcano was comparatively quiet and without electrical phenomena or explosions. The only ominous sign was the advancing wave and the cinders forming an enormous cloud in the shape of a pine tree over the crater.

"Our really terrible period came at 3 o'clock Sunday morning and lasted until 8 o'clock. The mountain, which hitherto had been silent, Sunday gave out a deafening roar and a great rent was made in its cone. Huge, solid rocks were hurled skyward. Some of them fell near the observatory, threatening to crush in the roof; but most of them fell far outside the observatory zone. There was no scoria in this discharge but solid bullet-like stones which cut the roof and damaged the windows.

"At midnight of Saturday, I ordered the women and children of the household removed. This was just before was a veritable hell." Asked if his scientific observations had yielded valuable results, Professor Matteucci replied:

"Observation was extremely difficult under such disturbing conditions. The seismic instruments were badly affected by the electrical intensity, each explosion being announced by a violent movement of the instruments, which seemed ready to burst into pieces.

Professor Matteucci sounded a long rasping "R" like a succession of quick taps on a drum, which he said resembled the noise made by the seismograph when affected by a violent explosion.

"Compared with other great eruptions," continued the observer, "this is one of the most important in the history of Vesuvius. Its effects are less terrible than those of the eruption in the year A. D. 79, when Pompeii was buried, but it equals in intensity the great eruption of 1631 and 1872. What results this eruption will yield to science is not yet certain. Eruptions are not exact in science. You can not count on Vesuvius, each of its eruptions has its characteristics. This was marked by an abundance of electrical phenomena. I have collected quantities of cinders and scoria for comparison with similar matter from other eruptions, and later I will collect large stones."

The professor pointed to the shelves in his laboratory, where there were plates containing cinders varying in size and bottles filled with ashes, and there were also in the room enormous stones, each labeled with the date of its ejection from the volcano.

Asked concerning Mount Vesuvius in the future, Professor Matteucci replied:

"I am unable to tell with any degree of certainty. I sincerely hope this eruption is over; but who can tell whether another terrible convulsion may not come during the next minute? However, all my indications point to a period of calm for the next few days, and therefore I am hopeful. But I was hopeful last night, although a serious explosion occurred at 10 o'clock in the evening without any warning."

Professor Matteucci handed the correspondent a stone the size of a three-inch shell as a souvenir of his visit, saying: "These are very precious stones. Some of them have hit me at one time or another. They represent my wounds."

He then led the way to his sleeping quarters, which showed the confusion that existed throughout the domestic branch of the observatory during the eruption. As he turned to the portico Vesuvius gave another deep groan, ending with a fearful explosion, which blew off a portion of its new cone.

"See," exclaimed the professor, "the eruption may be resumed at any moment. That explosion rent the westerly cone."

As the correspondent journeyed upward a new crater suddenly burst, and from the summit of the volcano enormous masses of sand and mist shot skyward. The monster trembled, seeming about to renew its convulsions, and the native guides hesitated, declaring that a warning had already been given of another outbreak today. Fortunately, it was a passing manifestation.

Toward the top of the mountain the picture was one of unutterable desolation; but natives, strangely persistent the rain of huge stones began and I was then left with Professor Perrot of New York, my American assistant, and two domestics. There was scarcely any eating and all domestic order was abandoned. We snatched a few bites now and then; most of the time I ate right here," and the observer pointed to the remains of a recent meal on the desk in his study.

"Throughout Sunday enormous solid rocks of stone rose to a height of 2500 feet from the crater, while ashes and sand were thrown much higher, but toward Monday the terrible shocks of earthquake gradually diminished. One of the worst features of the eruption was the unusual extent of the electrical phenomena, the darkness being broken by vivid flashes of lightning, giving the sky a blood-like color, with short, heavy peals of thunder interspersed. These moments were terrible—very terrible. Yes, it and wrinkled with age, emerged from their doughts just below the observatory, offering milk and eggs to the party. Vesuvius has no terrors for them. While descending after the interview with Professor Matteucci the sounds of a mandolin came from one of the dugouts, which was scarcely visible above the desert of ashes.

HIGHEST PRAISE.

Some Honolulu Citizens Grow Enthusiastic on the Subject.

The praise of the public is merit's just reward. Nothing in modern times Has received the praise accorded "The Little Conqueror" of kidney ills. Of some kinds of praise we are skeptical.

We doubt the praise of strangers. The highest praise for Honolulu public is hearty expression from Honolulu people.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are endorsed in Honolulu. No better proof of merit can be had. Here's a case of it. We have plenty more like it.

H. S. Swinton of this city says: "I was a long sufferer from backache, having been afflicted with it for twelve years. Taking this as a symptom of kidney trouble, and seeing Doan's Backache Kidney Pills advertised as being good for complaints such as mine, I procured some of them at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. I found upon taking them that they were doing me good, and was thereby encouraged to keep on until now I am cured of the backache. The merits of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills have been strikingly shown in my case, and I recommend them to other sufferers."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

The S. S. Enterprise arrived from San Francisco via Hilo yesterday, having left the former port on the 14th inst., four days before the earthquake. She arrived at Hilo on Sunday and left on Wednesday.

The steamer loads refined sugar here, from Honolulu plantation and will leave tomorrow or Sunday for Hilo, where she will load bananas, proceeding thence to San Francisco. Three passengers made the trip from Hilo, Miss Canario and Messrs. Lange and Oxenheim.

The disaster in San Francisco will probably affect the loading of the Enterprise for her next trip to the islands, but her officers do not know whether she will load at San Francisco or Seattle.

MAIL TO 'FRISCO.

The S. S. Nebraskan leaving Kahului tomorrow will carry mail to San Francisco and it is not certain that such mail will not arrive in San Francisco before the S. S. Doric, due here on Monday next. Should the Doric arrive and discharge her cargo on time she should dock in San Francisco on the following Sunday. So far, however, her agents have received no advice of her having left Yokohama on time. Should she have been delayed in leaving Yokohama, the Nebraskan will beat her to the Coast. Arrangements will likely be made to forward a mail to the Nebraskan by the steamer Claudine leaving at 5 p. m. today.

NEVADAN LOADING.

Freight Agent Morse of the American-Hawaiian steamship line received word yesterday to the effect that the S. S. Nevada is loading freight at Seattle and will sail from the northern port on May 3, arriving here on or about May 11. As the steamer has ample cold storage facilities she should bring plenty of fresh food supplies.

THE FIRST NEWS.

Word has been received in Honolulu that the S. S. Olympia sailed from Seattle on Tuesday last, the sixth day after the great earthquake. She should arrive here next Thursday and will be the first vessel to bring to Honolulu any mainland newspapers containing detailed accounts of the San Francisco disaster. The Olympia comes for more Japs.

ALAMEDA SAILING.

W. G. Irwin & Co. yesterday received confirmation of their previous advice that the Alameda would sail for Honolulu on Sunday. She will be due here on Saturday, May 5, and sail for San Francisco on schedule time, Wednesday, May 9.

MOHICAN WITH OIL.

The bark Mohican, 23 days out from San Francisco, arrived at 3:30 p. m. yesterday, after a stormy trip attended by head winds. She had aboard 9025 cases of kerosene oil, which means that the threatened corner in oil is pau. The bark had a general cargo of feed stuffs and cement as well as oil.

"ALL WELL!"

The barkentine Koko Head was off port yesterday morning and wished to be reported "all well." The Koko Head, which is one of the Hind, Roloh & Co.'s four-masters, sailed from Portland, April 4, for Shanghai.

LINGERING COUGHS.

Persistent coughs that continue through the spring and summer usually indicate some throat or lung trouble and it is a serious mistake to neglect them. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of coughs of this nature and a few doses taken in time may save a doctor's bill and perhaps years of suffering. TRI-SHOOTER ON TRIAL Fleming Riles Court-- Another Japanese Divorce.

Shirishi's trial for assault with a deadly weapon, with intent to commit murder, was carried through the evidence stage before Judge De Bolt yesterday. At 3:30 p. m. it was continued until this morning, when the case will be given to the jury. Deputy Attorney General Fleming is prosecuting, and Wm. T. Rawlins defending.

The jury consists of William Rose, C. M. Lovsted, Clifford Kimball, J. W. McDonald, C. J. Falk, J. Ordenslein, Clinton W. Crandall, Nelson B. Lansing, Edward Drew, Edmund Swan, A. C. Dowsett and Geo. E. Rugg.

According to the evidence defendant, at Iwilei last October, fired three shots from a revolver at a Japanese woman. One bullet passed through the upper part of her body, another grazed her shoulder and the third is still carried somewhere in her anatomy.

Mr. Fleming came into collision with the court at one point, making a little sensation. He ventured to "resent" a remark by the court, justifying himself with the statement that he represented the Territory. Judge De Bolt peremptorily commanded the Deputy Attorney General to sit down, under pain of being punished for contempt.

JAPANESE INFELICITY. Cho Yoshioka has sued Kentchi Yoshioka for divorce. They were married after the Japanese mode in Japan in February, 1901, and after living wedded in that country for a year came to these islands, residing successively at Waiakae, Hakalau and Waipahu. A son now four years of

A SILLY SAYING. "It is a common but silly opinion prevailing among a certain class of people that the worse a remedy tastes, smells or hurts, the more efficacious it is." So says a well-known English physician. He further adds: "For example, let us consider cod liver oil. As it is extracted from the fish this oil is so offensive to the taste and smell that many cannot use it at all, no matter how badly they need it. Yet cod liver oil is one of the most valuable drugs in the world and it is the greatest pity that we have not thus far been able to free it from these peculiarities which so seriously interfere with its usefulness."

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION The oil retains all its wonderful curative properties with no bad smell or taste whatever. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry; creating a medicine of unequalled power for the diseases most prevalent and fatal among men, women and children.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS. OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND SIRE. Honolulu, T. H., April 26, 1906. In accordance with what is believed to be the general feeling of the members of the Order in this jurisdiction, the Odd Fellows Anniversary celebration, which had been appointed for Saturday, April 28, is hereby postponed until further notice.

age is issue of the marriage. At Waipahu the husband cruelly beat the wife, as the complaint charges, compelling her to leave home with the child. Moreover, he has ceased to provide wife and child with support, and the woman says he "is a person of dissolute life, spending his time in gambling." Saml. F. Chillingworth is attorney for libellant. The Japanese have recently been contributing many cases to the divorce calendar, in most of which cruelty of the husband is declared.

COURT NOTES. A suit for $291.97 and interest has been brought by Enterprise Mill Co., Ltd., against John Wallace, with County Auditor Bicknell as garnishee. The alleged debt is balance of a judgment recovered in Honolulu District Court over five years ago.

FORECLOSURE OF CITY PROPERTY. An amended petition for foreclosure of mortgage has been filed by H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., against J. M. Monsarrat, Mrs. W. C. Parke, Bruce Cartwright, W. C. Achi, W. E. Rowell (trustee), M. D. Monsarrat, E. J. Monsarrat (widow), T. F. Lansing (trustee in bankruptcy of M. D. Monsarrat), and the First National Bank of Hawaii at Honolulu. Kinney, McClanahan & Cooper are attorneys for petitioner, and W. Austin Whiting, A. G. M. Robertson, Thompson & Clemons, Castle & Withington and W. C. Achi, variously for defendants. The balance on mortgage claimed is $35,471.95.

The property on which foreclosure is sought is situated on Union street and Adams lane, Honolulu. It fronts 237.5 feet on Union street and 36 feet on Adams lane, and the entire length of its boundaries is about 762 feet. This is one of the allegations of the petition: "That said property is greatly depreciated in value since the execution of said mortgage, and plaintiff is informed and believes the truth to be that unless it be allowed to bid for the property at the sale thereof its rights in the same can not be protected nor can justice be done in that the times at present are hard and prospective purchasers of land few; that said land unless bid by plaintiff in all probability would not bring anywhere near its true value."

H. W. SCHMIDT IS IN BANKRUPTCY. H. W. Schmidt has filed a petition of voluntary bankruptcy. His liabilities are about $38,000, without any assets other than exempt personal property. Mr. Schmidt was once a partner in Hackfeld's house, withdrawing therefrom to start in wholesale trade for himself. He closed his business out a good many years ago and between prolonged ill health and a shrinkage in value of real estate securing some of his obligations his affairs became a wreck. The two largest of his liabilities are a judgment for the Lunallilo estate of $15,227 and a debt to Bishop & Co. of $11,434. For many years Mr. Schmidt was consul for the late united kingdom of Sweden and Norway.

THIRTEEN DAYS AND A MISTRAL. Following a night recess, from 11 p. m. Wednesday to 9 a. m. Thursday, the jury in Young vs. Macfarlane et al., action to quiet title, took more ballots. They could not get nearer than 7 to 5 and at 10:40 Judge Lindsay discharged them and ordered a mistrial entered. There was more than a jury's disagreement in the case. Surveys exhibited, made by two of the most experienced surveyors in Honolulu, would not match either in direction or length of certain lines.

APPEAL FROM LAND DECREE. The Territory of Hawaii by Fred W. Milverton, Deputy Attorney General, has appealed to the Supreme Court from Judge Weaver's decree granting a registered title to Hawaiian Trust Co., Ltd., on petition No. 62. This is the case in which Judge Weaver declared the highway law of 1892 unconstitutional.

JURORS CALLED. A venire has been issued by Judge De Bolt, under which the following trial jurors are to appear on Monday morning: W. R. Waters, J. D. Tucker, H. W. Adams, E. L. Miller, John K. Isaac, Henry Bell, W. H. Soper, Jacob Landro, Alex. Gardner, H. S. Hagerup, O. S. Swain, David Fuller, T. H. Petrie, W. O. Barnhardt, Chas. Valpoon, W. P. O'Brien, Bernard Waggoner, H. E. Gares, Miles C. Privett and Jas. Doherty.

PREMATURE QUALIFYING Supreme Court Justices Were Sworn Before Appointment.

Chief Justice Frear and Associate Justice Hartwell, as witnesses before Judge Lindsay yesterday, told how both of them took the oath of office nearly two years ago a day before they were appointed. Also they related how, on being notified from Washington that they had illegally qualified, they again qualified fourteen days later. It was a new appointment for Justice Hartwell and a reappointment for the Chief Justice. The interesting question appears to arise whether there was a legally constituted Supreme Court of Hawaii in those fourteen days of June, 1904, below mentioned.

The occasion of calling these members of the Supreme Court bench in the Circuit Court was the contest over defendants' bill of exceptions in the case of Territory of Hawaii vs. Cotton Bros. & Co., in which a verdict for the Territory for $25,000 and costs is outstanding. A motion of the Territory was up to dismiss, and one of the defendants to amend the bill. Thus far in the controversy it seems, as two decisions of the Supreme Court have shown, that there was a technical failure of the defendants to file their original exceptions in time. As General Hartwell before taking the judicial office, was counsel for the defendants, the time of his appointment was now important as showing whether or not lapses of the defendants caused the failure mentioned.

Justice Hartwell, the first called, said he received a cablegram on June 14, 1904, from Attorney General Knox asking him if he would accept a seat on the Supreme Court bench, and if so requesting him to qualify forthwith. Chief Justice Frear received a similar request and U. S. Judge Dole, being informed of the situation, kindly came up to the Supreme Court room and administered the oath of office to both of them. It appeared, however, that their commissions were dated June 15 and on June 27, a letter came from the disbursing clerk of the Department of Justice stating that the qualifications of the Justices were illegal, as having been effected before their appointment, and advising them to take the oath again. They did so on June 29. Justice Hartwell said he signed a form of oath, but did not know whether it was left with Judge Dole or taken away by himself.

This last question brought out the reason for calling the justices to the witness stand, as it appeared the Chief Justice's oath had been found while Justice Hartwell's had not. On the first occasion, as Chief Justice Frear explained, a makeshift form of oath was devised from the statutes, while on the second occasion the regular form came attached to the commissions.

Judge Lindsay sustained objections by Messrs. Kinney and Derby to the cross-questioning of Justice Hartwell by Attorney General Peters on the transference of the case by witness as counsel to Mr. Kinney, also to cross-examination on the affidavit of witness filed in these proceedings. "Are you quite sure?" was a question the Attorney General asked of the Chief Justice, when the latter had testified to his qualifying, along with Justice Hartwell, on June 14, 1904. As the Chief Justice did not make any reply, the Attorney General hastened to explain why he thus essayed to test the memory of the Chief Justice on a positive statement.

"It is because your oath is on file, and Justice Hartwell's is not there," Mr. Peters said. Chief Justice Frear explained how such a thing might have happened. Mr. Derby asked the court to allow defendants, in the event of its ruling that they had the right of filing a bill of exceptions, one day after such ruling for the purpose.

When Judge Lindsay intimated his opinion that the request for a day, in such circumstances, was only fair, Mr. Peters strongly objected, saying that the court's duty was to rule on the admission of the exceptions and not on what should be done if such and such a ruling were made. Judge Lindsay nevertheless, in continuing the hearing until this morning, granted Mr. Derby's motion to allow defendants one day for filing their exceptions after the court ruled, if it should do so, that they had the right to file exceptions.

Deputy Attorney General Milverton assisted his chief at the hearing yesterday. A DIMPLE MAKER. Find a child with dimples and chubby arms and legs and you find a healthy child. Find one with drawn face and poor, thin body and you see one that needs Scott's Emulsion. Your doctor will no doubt tell you the child is fat-starved—its food is not nourishing it. Nothing helps these thin, pale children like Scott's Emulsion. It contains the very element of fat they need. It supplies them with a perfect and quickly digested nourishment. Scott's Emulsion brings dimples and rounded limbs.
