HOME RULERS WILL NOT FUSE

Precinct Clubs Have All Passed Resolutions Against It.

"They would like to have us fuse," said Chief Alii Charlie Notley, of the Home Rule party, "on the basis that they nominate the officers and we vote for them. Not!"

And so there will be no fusion of the Home Rulers and the Democrats this year. Alii Notley knows what he is talking about. Every Home Rule precinct club in this Territory has met and passed resolutions opposed to fusion. And that leaves Palmer Woods and Curtis Iaukea, as the two most distinguished advocates of the fusion policy, in a corner gasping for breath.

Palmer Woods, indeed, has already gasped out something about to this effect to his friends and intimates about town, having presumably had a consultation with his extremely clever Editor before leaving the big island for the big town:

"It's no use. I am not going to run again this year. I have my private business to attend to, and it is time for somebody else to get in and bear the heat and burden of the day."

GOOD THING FOR PALMER.

Which goes to show what a deuced good thing it is to have private business that you cannot afford to neglect in season when the political clouds are particularly lowering, and fusion plans go all aglee—and, also, to have an Editor.

As to Colonel Iaukea—well, he is a man of much more optimistic temperament than Senator Woods—and maybe he needs the place more.

Anyway, he is still advocating fusion—and keeping his weather eye trained on that Supervisorship-at-Large as a convenient thing to side-step into in the event that it becomes necessary to get out of the way of his friend Kuhio. As it will.

The man who does not get out of the way of Kuhio this time is going to get run down. Even the Democrats in the outer districts are beginning to endorse the sitting Delegate—and the Home Rulers would endorse him in a minute, if they thought he wanted endorsement. Indeed, this promises to be a regular campaign of Kuhio harmony—with the parties all asking the Delegate to take nominations, instead of the Delegate seeking favors, and all the bad holes who do not like this thing sitting outside the fence and making faces.

AN OVERCAST SILENCE.

Even Alex. Robertson has relaxed into masterly inactivity and that measureless, overcast silence of his since the rumor got out that he has heard from Kuhio, too—and not altogether satisfactorily, excepting to the Delegate. In fact, Alex. has found out—as any mainland tyro could have told him—that a political promise is a thing made to serve every purpose on earth, excepting the single one of getting itself kept.

Kuhio is going to stand by his people. Bless your heart, of course he is! His people have asked him to do it—and he needs the money! What is a pledge to a mere hoole, in the light of an illumination like that!

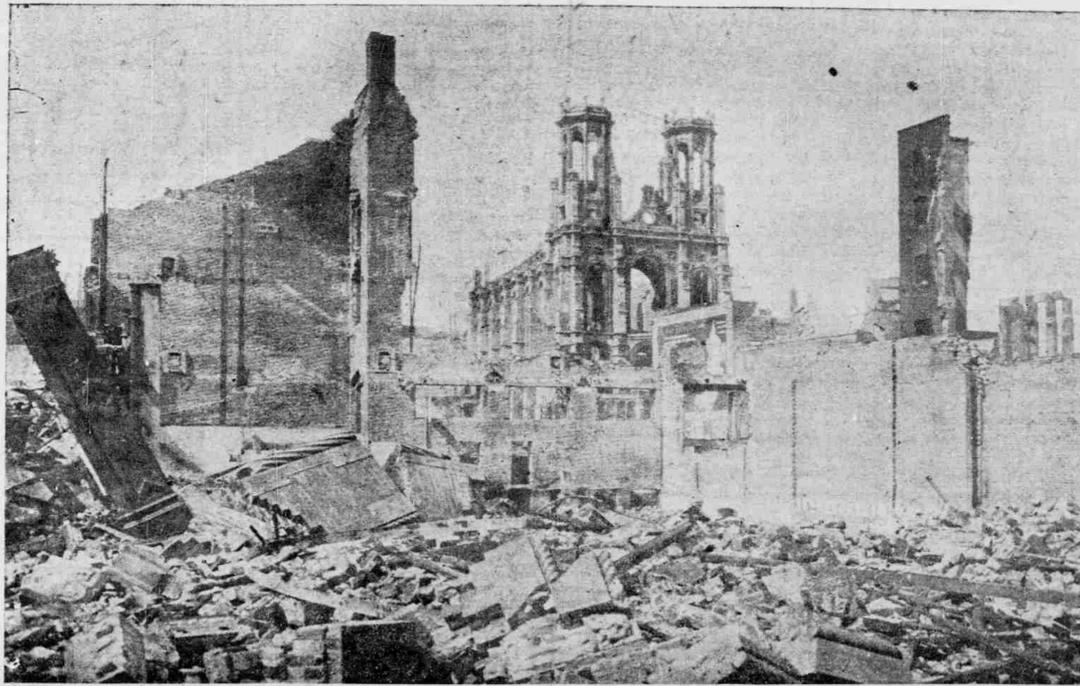

Kuhio will be home before long, too, and then these fellows will see that not one of them has any more chance than a snowball would have in the lowest and hottest depths of the Plutonian hereafter country.

And still, and still, they say that Senator "Liek" McCandless has made an alliance, offensive and defensive, with the wicked Mr. Achi and that the Brown Wolf of the Lantana is ranging the wilds of Kaneohe and around there seeking the scalp of every native voter that stays out late o' nights.

RANGING THE BUSH.

John Lane would better look out for his friends over the Pali. While that Sunday school class is holding its devotional exercises here in town with such regularity that Ben Zablan says it does not do a thing, not a thing, the

CITY OF MEXICO, May 29.—The revolutionists have invaded Guatemala from four directions.

General Castillo has captured Ocos.

Ex-President Barillas is marching on Quezaltenango.

Several hundred troops for the expedition were recruited in San Francisco, California.

Nicaragua and Salvador are participating in the war.

Clearly, here is an old-fashioned filibustering expedition that has led to a regular Central American revolution. It was an excellent time to recruit men in San Francisco for an affair of the kind, because the attention of the authorities and of everybody else was taken up with the great disaster, and there were a lot of idle men there ready for anything that promised adventure and a chance at fortune.

Guatemala is a land of many revolutions, but the most serious in late years was that which broke out in 1898, leading to the assassination of President Barrios, and dealing a death blow to his cherished scheme of welding the Central American states into one nation, which should extend from the Mexican border to the isthmus of Panama.

Following the death of Barrios, the man who seemed most likely to take the head of affairs was Morales, a leader of the revolutionists, but in this he was anticipated by Manuel Estrada Cabrera, vice-president and a partisan of Barrios, who seems to have been able to hold the fickle people, for he is still president. He has been variously described as a tyrant, and as differing from Barrios in that he has sought to govern always within the law.

Under him, at all events, the land has achieved a measure of progress. But no man lasts long in Latin America—a rule to which Diaz of Mexico is apparently the one exception.

Ocos, spoken of in the cablegram, is an important seaport at the mouths of the rivers Navango and Tilapa, and Quezaltenango is an inland city, capital of a state of the same name.

TERRY BESTS JIMMIE BRITT

NEW YORK, May 29.—McGovern and Britt went ten rounds last night, and McGovern had the best of it. All parties to the fight were arrested.

RUHLIN AND FERGUSON DRAW.

Ruhlin and Ferguson fought a six-round draw last night.

Decidedly, Jimmie Britt has gone back since his go with Battling Nelson, if this showing is to count. Maybe the loss of his flats in San Francisco affected him. Those flats represented the fortune that he was supposed to have made in the prize ring. Whatever the cause, the man who is bested by such a "has been" as Terry McGovern, once "the Terrible," can no longer be put anywhere near the top in his class.

USED TRASH FOR FILLING

San Franciscan Tells How the "Made Land" Was Made.

The oldest map of San Francisco bay front, made after the town was laid out, shows the high tide mark on the line of Pine half way between Battery and Sansome, on California about 60 feet above Sansome, on Sacramento about 200 feet above Sansome, on Clay about 250 feet above Sansome, on Washington about 300 feet above Sansome, on Jackson the high tide line is shown at Montgomery, with a small lagoon above that street, and then the line swung back to the corner of Sansome and Jackson and to Battery near Broadway.

In 1853 Market street had been filled to a grade for somewhat more than a block below Battery and First streets with sand obtained below the line of Montgomery. The streets north and west of Market below a line meandering from about the intersection of Fremont, Front and Market to about the intersection of Jackson and Sansome streets, and thence around the base of Telegraph Hill to Vallejo and Front streets, were carried on piles and were planked over. Some parts of this area had been filled in; most of it had not. The active commercial waterfront was, for the most part, at the ends of these streets, north and west of Market street. A wharf extended thence along the front to Rincon point at the foot of Folsom street. Above this wharf and southeast of Market was a tide-washed mud flat as far up Market as Fremont, and to a line meandering thence to the corner of Fremont and Howard streets, and thence around the base of Rincon Hill across Folsom to the rock point there located.

During the succeeding eight or ten years most of that open area and the space under the planked-over area northwest of Market was filled in. The filling was waste from the city and sand and brush from the hills. A new city to which everything is brought from afar has an immense amount of waste and trash of every kind. This city seemingly had more than its share. Old crates, barrels, boxes, scrap of many kinds, the city's street cleanings and house trash for years dumped into that area. Sawmills and planing mills were established there on piles, and the sawdust, planings, slabs and waste strips contributed to the filling. Then came the grading, with sand dumped in loosely. This mass of compressible matter, resting on soft mud flat and salt marsh, was next covered in with planked streets and wooden buildings. Later these buildings were replaced for the most part with brick structures, for which foundation rests were

SEPTEMBER THE TENTH

The Board of Education yesterday afternoon decided that the fall term of school shall begin on September 10 next, thereby giving twelve weeks of vacation, and close on December 21st for the Christmas holidays. And that was the most important business of the meeting.

The following recommendations from the Teachers' Committee were adopted: That application of Miss Alice Winter for transfer to Hamakua be considered favorably.

That application of Miss Mabel Baham for principalship of Makaweli School be not granted.

That application of Mrs. Clara L. Tulloch for principalship of Kohala School be placed on file.

That application of Miss Lewa K. Iokia for transfer to Honolulu be placed on file with recommendation that it be granted.

That application of Miss Kamakawoole be placed on file.

That Miss MacLeod be offered position in Normal School at salary of $70.

That application of Mr. Eli Snyder be placed on file.

That application of Mr. Dolin be placed on file pending appointments.

That application of Mr. Nahiwa be placed on file pending appointments.

That application of Miss Anna W. Deas for raise in salary be not granted owing to lack of funds.

Mrs. Jack Bergstrom asked that she be given the Easter vacation salary of Miss Sorensen, in whose place she had been teaching for some months, and after considerable debate the request was granted.

An invitation was read from Lahaina to attend the 75th annual commencement exercises, to be held on June 14, and the Superintendent suggested that this would be a good time for some members of the special Agricultural College committee to go down there and look over the ground with a view to some action on the resolution passed by the last legislature to have the Board report on the advisability of establishing an agricultural college there. Neither Mr. Farrington nor Mr. Ai, of this committee, could promise definitely to go. Indeed, Mr. Ai said he could not go. Mr. Wight, one of the special committee, was absent, and Mr. Von Holt, who is interested in the matter, said he would like to go but it was too far away to tell. The Superintendent said he would write that there was a prospect of some members of the Board accepting the invitation, and let it go at that.

WAS TRITE AND TAME

Supervisors Do Little in Record Breaking Time.

The meeting of Oahu's Supervisors last night was trite and tame. Only those who had to be present and the way they chased through the slated business of the evening couldn't have been beaten had they all held stage tickets for a prize fight which was being delayed pending their august attendance.

Perhaps the hardest work of the evening was done by Sergeant-at-Arms of the Impeachment Court Hanalei, who tried to make a noise like an ordinary clerk with it, must be conceded considerable success.

Present were Chairman Smith, Supervisors Lucas, Cox, Moore Paele and Archer, Stenographer Aea, County Clerk D. Kalamakalani, Auditor's Clerk Sol, Mahelona, Clerks Eugene Bufandau and Hanalei, County Engineer Gere, Capt. Sam Johnson.

BATCH OF BILLS.

The following appropriations were made:

Fixed salaries, $1670.
County Clerk, office clerks, $288.25.
County Attorney, $525.
County Auditor, $120.
County Engineer, $265.

Garbage Department, $200.
Police Department, $7781.12.
Ewa road district, $125.
Koolauko road district, $135.
County Treasurer, $120.

MANOA IMPROVEMENTS.

Lucas stated that the good people of Manoa Heights clamored for road betterments. Personally he didn't see how the thing could be arranged, as the county would be short of cash next month.

Lucas also reported that the Pali road had been treated to a coat of oil which held the dust and helped to anchor the top dressing of the road.

WANTS A JOB.

H. Harrison made application for the position of engineer of the rock-crusher to be operated in the district of Koolauko. J. K. Paele approved the application.

Lucas said that the work was not ready yet and that it was no good giving a man a job until said job was ripe. Everybody coincided with this very practical, businesslike expression of sentiment.

Chief Engineer Thurston of the Fire Department submitted an estimate of

JURYMAN TALKS BACK

He Resents Newspaper Attacks on Murder Verdict.

"I read Governor Atkinson's remarks about sympathy with murderers and then I turned to the Bulletin and found remarks calculated to work up sympathy for Kaawaloa," one of the jurors who convicted Kaawaloa of murder said to an Advertiser reporter last night. Then he proceeded to give some particulars of the trial and conviction of the man yesterday sentenced to death for murder.

"When we first retired," the juror said, "we took a ballot which showed two for murder in the second degree, one for manslaughter in the third degree, one for manslaughter in the first degree, one for something I forget and the remaining seven for murder in the first degree.

"This was before dinner and directly after dinner we took another ballot, when eight voted for murder in the first degree. Then there was argument and we sent in for the judge's charge, got it and started in arguing more. Two men stuck out for a while but ultimately we took another ballot, which was unanimous for murder in the first degree. One had held out till near the last for murder in the second degree. We told him he ought to start in and convince the eleven that they were wrong. The whole argument was on degrees, there being no doubt of the killing by the defendant.

"Now the Bulletin tries to make out that there was no evidence of premeditation and that Kaawaloa, indulging in the ancient pastime of wife-beating, merely pounded his wife's head upon the floor and was surprised when she succumbed to the performance. The jurors heard the entire case from beginning to end and know better. A strong attempt was made to upset Dr. McDonald's evidence and, although he did not go fully into the nature of all the wounds proved, he satisfied the jury as to the immediate cause of death—hemorrhage of the brain.

"There was a dent in the woman's forehead that could not have been caused by the striking of her head against the floor, although Dr. McDonald did not give a special explanation of that wound. Then there were six marks on top of the head which were not explained. A hammer and part of a hatchet were found in the room, either of which might have made these injuries. They could not have been from bumping her on the floor.

"As regards premeditation, what about Kaawaloa's threats during the day, his advice to the woman to get her coffin, his murderous talk to her after he began the assault and his boasting after the deed?

"Then there was the woman's piteous cry in death that 'it was all pau,' indicating that the man had only too well carried out what he had been threatening for hours before.

"The Bulletin talks about a hope having been expressed by many who heard the trial that efforts would be made for a commutation of sentence. This is untrue. There were not many, outside of jurors and court officers, who heard all, or nearly all, of the trial. I doubt if there were even a few such disinterested spectators who heard more than fragments of the trial.

"I am satisfied that the verdict of the jury was both conscientious and just. Mr. Crook made a splendid effort to save the defendant. His closing speech to the jury was very impressive and no doubt had much to do with delaying the verdict.

"Next time there is a murder trial on, I would suggest the Bulletin ought to be asked to send up the instructions to the jury."

WILL SOON OPEN LANDS ON MAUI

The Land Department is getting ready to open a lot more lands on Maui for disposition in various ways. Among these will be some homesteads at Kamaole, near Kihel. These are dry kula lands, and the natives in that vicinity want them opened.

"I will give them as much of it as they may want," said the Land Commissioner yesterday.

Besides these, there will be offered for sale between four and five hundred acres of land at Kamaole. Also, it is proposed to make a clean up of the remnants of land in the vicinity of Olowalu. There are about 1600 acres, of which something like 400 are in cultivation. This cane land, however, is in scattered tracts and is hard to get water on. For that reason it is not going to be held for settlement purposes. The lands, in fact, lie all along the beach at Olowalu, and are broken into in various directions by kuleanas and private holdings. It is expensive land to work, for the reason that in planting it cannot be plowed but must be broken up with a pickaxe.

The balance of this 1600 acres consists of the dryest kind of pasture land, salty and sandy. It is thought this will be ready to put on sale about June 30, as will the Kamaole lands.

The Department is likewise getting ready to survey the Hakalan lands, which have been applied for by the Portuguese Settlement Associations at Hilo.

HOME RULERS WAS TRITE AND TAME

Wolf and the Sage are ramping out in the bush and getting results that are apt to make it mighty uncomfortable for Lane when he awakens to a realizing sense of the fact that he has been beaten at the primaries in his own precinct—and has not dared to move out ahead of time because that would make it sure that he feared a drubbing.

Charlie Achi, by the way, says that there is nothing but politics in the impeachment proceedings against Deputy Sheriff Kekauoha, now pending before the Board of Supervisors. Kekauoha, according to Achi, is not high in favor with the administration of county affairs, and it is therefore deemed desirable to have him ousted—for that reason, and for the further reason that he is an Achi man. However, Achi is Kekauoha's counsel, and the rest of us are from Missouri—or, rather, in the same frame of mind as the man from Missouri. Nobody will admit he is from Missouri, nowadays, unless he also feels strong enough to saunter up and take a fall out of Paddy Ryan.

HOME RULE PROCLAMATION.

In the meantime, the Home Rulers are the busiest people in the bunch. Besides having passed resolutions in the precinct clubs against fusion with the Democrats, the following proclamation, likewise said to relate to fusion, appears in Hawaiian in a late number of their organ, Ka 'Na'i Aupuni:

PROCLAMATION SETTING A DAY FOR THE MEETING OF THE DISTRICT COMMITTEES OF THE KUOKOA HOME RULA PARTY.

Notice is hereby given to the district and county committees of the Kuokoa Home Rula Party of the different islands and counties throughout the Territory, that they hold a meeting to fulfill the provisions provided for by Section 15 of the Constitution of the Kuokoa Home Rula Party, on the second Friday of June, 1906, at the places shown below, as follows:

The petition for a special agricultural teacher at Hilo was received, and sympathy for the wish expressed, but the department has no money to employ such an expert. Probably the matter will come up when the legislature meets.

The Superintendent reported the acceptance of the Hilo high school bid.

The proposition of Viggo Jacobsen to engrave the resolutions of respect to the memory of the late A. T. Atkinson was accepted.

Mrs. Eldora Deacon's request for leave of absence was granted, she to get the salary from June 15th.

The request that the Hilo schools be allowed to close on Thursday, June 14, instead of June 15, provided that they keep open on Kamehameha Day was denied.

Normal Inspector King's recommendation that teachers' examinations be held in Kohala was accepted, provided somebody qualified can be secured to hold it. This is at the request of the eight teachers there, who object to coming all the way to Honolulu to be examined.

The applications of J. M. Kuhns for a transfer; of Charles Williams for a school after he had passed the examination; of Miss Margaret Mossman for a life certificate, and of Wilhelmina Smith for a permanent place in the department, were referred to the usual committee.

There were present at the meeting, Directors Von Holt, Wilcox, Ai and Farrington.

Orders for hauling baggage left with the Pacific Transfer Co. attended to promptly and handled with care. Phone Main 58.

HOLT'S REQUEST.

Deputy Sheriff Chris. J. Holt of Waialua acknowledged the receipt of the impeachment charges against him and asked to be furnished with a report of the investigation held by the Police Department, in order that he may be fully prepared to meet the charges preferred by the committee.

Clerk Kalaoukalani was instructed to comply with Holt's request.

A number of property holders of Waialua petitioned that the approaches to the new bridge across the north branch of the Kauhonahau stream be surveyed and constructed as soon as conveniently possible.

YOUNG STREET EXTENSION.

(Copy)

Honolulu, T. H., May 18, 1906.
Hon. C. S. Holloway, Superintendent of Public Works, Honolulu.

Dear Sir: By the direction of the Board of Supervisors I am instructed to answer your communication of the 5th inst., with relation to the extension of Young street through the property of Mrs. Jaeger, beyond Punahou street. This is private property, and could only be taken under the eminent domain statute. The Board of Supervisors of the County have no power to institute proceedings by way of eminent domain. The Revised Laws, Section 498, makes the Superintendent of Public Works the proper party plaintiff, acting on behalf of the Territory of Hawaii.

Should the Territory desire to acquire this property and condemn the same under the eminent domain statute, the Supervisors will be pleased to maintain the street after the same has been acquired by the Territory.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Respectfully yours,
E. A. DOUTHITT,
County Attorney, County of Oahu.

Hon. E. A. Douthitt, County Attorney for Oahu, Honolulu.

Sir: I beg to acknowledge receipt of your communication of the 18th inst., in regard to the extension of Young street to Punahou street through the property of Mrs. Jaeger.

While it may be necessary to exercise the powers given under the laws of eminent domain, in order to acquire this right of way, it might be possible for the County Supervisors to submit an offer for the land in question which would be entirely satisfactory to the owner thus avoiding condemnation proceedings. I am fully aware that the County Supervisors are without authority to take action under the eminent domain statute, but at the same time, it is not to be expected that Territorial funds will be used in acquiring rights of way for County streets. This road cannot be considered in any way similar to state highways on the mainland running through several counties which are maintained jointly by the State and County officials.

I cannot see my way clear to condemning this property unless it is distinctly understood that the County Supervisors will bear all expenses of the commission and pay such damages as may be awarded to the owner.

Yours respectfully,
(Sgd.) C. S. HOLLOWAY,
Superintendent of Public Works.

REPORT WANTED.

Chairman Smith suggested that the examiner appointed under the Automobile Ordinance, be instructed to render the board a monthly report. He thought it would make interesting and instructive reading. A motion to the above effect was passed.

THE PALI ROAD.

The following report by County Engineer Gere on the retaining wall erected on the Pali road, was read:

Honolulu, T. H., May 28, 1906.
J. Lucas, Esq., Chairman, Committee on Roads, Bridges and Parks, Board of Supervisors, County of Oahu, Honolulu.

Sir: The concrete retaining wall on the Pali road, built by L. M. Whitehouse last month, has cost $720.10 made up as follows:

Foreman, 33 hours at 50c.....	$ 18.21
Carpenter, 37 hours at 50c.....	18.50
Labor, 57 hours at 29c.....	11.40
Labor, 635 hours at 15c.....	95.10
55 3-4 bbls. cement at $4.10.....	228.58
41 1-3 yds. rock at $2.75.....	113.57
16 14-27 yds. sand at $5.00.....	82.59
Water	5.00
Lumber left in place, 784 ft at $34.50	27.04
.....	$600.09

Plus 20 per cent on $600.09 for tools and Superintendent.....

120.01

Total

$720.10

The concrete in place measures 54 cu. yds., making a cost per yd., $13.33. Considering the locality and the nature of the work I consider it very reasonable, and if the parapet wall which you contemplate building can be done at the same price per yd., it seems to me it would be well to do it while Mr. Whitehouse's plan is available.

Respectfully submitted,
(Sgd.) G. H. GERE,
County Engineer, County of Oahu.

The matter of the parapet wall was left for future consideration, on account of the somewhat straightened finances of the county.

At 8:50 the meeting adjourned till Tuesday, June 5.

Have You Considered Gas?

You can sum the points of a gas stove in one word—BEST.

It heats what it is intended to heat, the cooking parts of the structure rather than the house.

It keeps the oven at any desired temperature while it is in use; it may be regulated in a moment by the thumb and finger.

A leading feature is the economy in the use of fuel; with wood it is a case of going to the wood box from the time the match is ignited. With a gas stove there is no wood, no shavings, no litter, no expense, except while you are cooking.

The flavor of the articles cooked on a gas stove is better than those prepared over wood for the reason that the heat being even the food is better cooked.

For a quick meal nothing is equal to the gas stove; it has alcohol and the chafing dish beaten in a walk and it does not cost any more to "Fire up."

If you have never thought much about a gas stove think now: go to our sales rooms in the Alexander Young Building and look the stoves over, learn the good points by observation, let the salesman tell you all about them. He will be just as well pleased to tell an investigator, a seeker after knowledge, as to seal one to a person who has been a patron of the gas stove quality of cooking for years.

TROPHIES TO LOS ANGELES

Yacht Race Awards to Be Shown Mainland Public.

The transpacific yacht race committee, or, rather, part of it, met yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Promotion Committee, present being T. W. Hobron, Fred L. Waldron and Secretary H. P. Wood.

The recent happenings in connection with the race were tersely told by the exhibition of the following cables:

MAY 17. H. E. COOPER TO T. W. HOBRON. UNABLE ACCOMPLISH ANYTHING.

MAY 17. H. H. SINCLAIR, LOS ANGELES, TO J. F. MORGAN, SAN FRANCISCO. COMPELLED RETURN HERE. CAN SAIL AGAIN SUNDAY. HAVE MACFARLANE OR COOPER CALL ME BY TELEPHONE, LOS ANGELES OR PASADENA.

MAY 18. T. W. HOBRON TO H. H. SINCLAIR. ARRANGE RACE SOMEHOW. DETAILS LEFT WITH YOU.

MAY 23. J. F. MORGAN TO T. W. HOBRON. RACE STARTS SAN PEDRO JUNE 11. LA PALOMA, LURLINE. ANEMONE. NO 'FRISCO YACHTS.

It was decided at yesterday's meeting to leave the matter of handicapping the yachts to the regatta committee of the South Coast Yacht Club, which has its headquarters at San Pedro.

The program of the race was amended in some minor details and copies will be sent to the owners of the competing yachts by the S. S. Alameda tomorrow.

The following important paragraph was added to the conditions as outlined in the program of the race:

"Each yacht must file a detailed log of the trip on arrival, with the regatta committee of the Hawaii Yacht Club, stating daily latitude, longitude, run made and weather conditions."

The logs thus obtained will be used for publicity purposes.

It was decided to send the second prize, now on exhibition in the window of Wichman & Co., to Los Angeles for exhibition purposes. The handsome calabash will be forwarded by the S. S. Alameda tomorrow.

The trophy will be consigned to L. L. Whitlock, agent of the Hawaii Promotion Committee in Los Angeles, who will place it in the rooms of the Southern Pacific passenger office, at the corner of Third and Spring streets, the very center of the city.

The Shreve cup to be presented to the winner of the race will also be sent to Los Angeles and, with the second prize, will be on view until June 13, two days after the start of the race, when the two trophies will be shipped here by steamer.

The Anemone, which will sail under the flag of the New York Yacht Club, will be the largest vessel in the race, being 112 feet long. At that, it is noteworthy that she is smaller than the Fleur-de-Lys, the smallest yacht that raced across the Atlantic.

A recent copy of the New York World devotes the best part of its sporting page to an illustrated article on the yacht race to Hawaii.

SULLIVAN'S GOOD SHAPE

'Frisco Boy Has Developed Wonderfully of Late.

There is no gainsaying the fact that the fight menu to be presented at the Orpheum on Saturday, is an attractive one. Indeed, the program promises action, and lots of it, all the way through.

Sullivan and Silva should provide a husky argument and Huihui and Morch are certain to give the crowd a rare run for their money.

Dick Sullivan is training at his cosy little quarters over the Brunswick Billiard Parlor, under the watchful eye of Dick O'Meara. This isn't the first time, by the bye, that boxers have used this place to condition themselves.

Five years ago beefy old "Denver" Ed. Smith made a bluff of training there for his match with Longshoreman Mansfield, and also gave boxing lessons in the place.

Quite a crowd of fight fans were present to see Sullivan work yesterday afternoon and the onlookers were rewarded by some lively work.

The San Francisco lad is in rare fettle and is looking and feeling better than at any time since landing in Honolulu. He has developed considerably since his last appearance with Huihui, and now fills the eye as the picture of a fighter.

The program started with 4 rounds at the bag, followed by a spell of 15 minutes with the chest machine.

By this time Joe Viera, "The Ice-boy," had the gloves on and went two very willing rounds with his much rangier opponent.

The next one to spar was Ah Sam, Honolulu's fighting chink, who figures in a preliminary with young Barry on Saturday. Ah Sam can wallop some, but will have to cut out his wild swings if he has an eye on a decision.

By this time Sullivan was nicely "het up" and Nigel Jackson kept the company for a couple of fast rounds. The spidery one put in some slashing work until want of condition told its tale.

Sullivan wound up his work for the day by skipping the rope for 10 minutes.

"Sailor" Morch will probably work with Sullivan this afternoon.

Way down in Kakaako, over a little saloon called the Wigwam, Huihui and Silva are holding forth nightly and at times, daily. Hard work is the order from the word go and every training bout is a young fight.

Huihui is preparing for a hard battle, realizing that if he fails to connect with the long end of the purse this time, he may as well join the easy chair brigade.

Silva, the Demon, is in fine shape and doing well in his training. Honolulu's Kid Broad, for his mug is a dead ringer for the Kid's, all but a cauliflower ear, is strongly fancied by many to deliver the goods, and if he falls down, Punch-bowl will be bankrupt.

Young Barry is being looked after by young Nelson. He is a pupil of Prof. Billy Woods and is making his debut in the local ring.

Rooney, who recently challenged Sullivan, is doing training stunts in Sheriff Henry's gymnasium, which will be his headquarters for the next couple of months. Boxers Rooney and Sandy Ferguson appear to have several things in common.

THE PACIFIC COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER

WALTER G. SMITH : : : : : EDITOR. TUESDAY : : : : : MAY 29

THE HALF CENTURY ADVERTISER.

In a little more than a month from now the Advertiser will celebrate its 50th birthday by issuing an illustrated souvenir edition of from 80 to 100 pages.

Every interest which goes to form the claim Hawaii has upon the consideration of investors, settlers, tourists, health-seekers, residents, sight-seers, missionary bodies and the world-at-large will be treated by authoritative pens.

By way of contrast, the four-page first issue of the Advertiser, that of July 2, 1856, will be republished in fac-simile.

Strange as it may seem, after half a century of vicissitude, this office retains much of the type in which the original paper was set, and many of the odd little cuts that were used to ornament House to Let and Shipping advertisements.

The pictorial features of the souvenir number will be in keeping with the scope and variety of the subjects covered by the text.

Do you want something about your business and yourself in this historical paper? If so, there is still a chance, but time is passing.

THE MUCK-RAKE.

While it is quite true that the magazines have done more muck-raking than occasion called for and thus deserved the rebuke they had from the President, the business of muck-raking, properly conducted, is of as much service to the moral as it is to the physical health of a community.

Hawaii has profited too well by the muck-rake not to appreciate its worth. The rake of steel has made its slums sanitary; the rake of publicity has cleared away a thousand abuses and made its administration purer and more promising of purity.

WAITING FOR MEN.

The Russian crisis needs great men and has not produced even one. A Russian statesman is a bureaucrat. Even de Witte cannot escape the entanglement of custom, the trammels of routine, the deadening influence of precedent.

The stage of Russia, filled with petty figures, marionettes and supernumeraries, awaits the great actor who will fit the great play. There are no signs of him yet among 120,000,000 people.

And what a work it is! It concerns the largest coterminous empire in the world, the one which, on that account ought to be the strongest for offense and defense; an empire which has untold mineral riches and the most numerous elbow-to-elbow population.

THE CALIFORNIA GIRLS.

Are Californians less gallant than Oregonians; or has the San Francisco disaster so benumbed the men in Hawaii from the Golden State that they have not yet recovered sufficiently to awaken to a proper sense of their responsibilities in the matter of the fitting entertainment of their fair compatriots?

It is true that their coming was heralded, they were a larger party than the party now in town sent by a Southern California newspaper, and the Oregon girls had the discretion not to let a man marry into their ranks before coming.

Wrights, a station in the Santa Cruz mountains, looking down on the city of Santa Cruz, south of San Francisco, had a harder time getting the earthquake news from the coast metropolis than Honolulu did.

A correspondent of the Hilo Tribune, writing from the coast, says that the lower part of San Francisco did not sink at all but the made ground in the Mission, between 17th and 19th streets, where the old Willows creek was in the early days, has sunk and twisted in all kinds of shapes.

Those who are so anxious to smooth over the Honolulu earthquake stories must be the ones who sent them out. It is the galled jade that winces.

Fair pay for teachers, a filter plant for Nuuanu valley and a refunding law would probably keep Honolulu good-natured for quite a while.

A San Franciscan motto: "We'll never shake the old town even if it shakes us."

IS ASHAMED OF AMERICA

"I am ashamed of the land of liberty—America is not as broad-minded as Russia."

So said Russian Civil Engineer V. Mischenko to an Advertiser man last night. Mischenko, by the way, claims to be a cousin of Governor General P. Mischenko of Vladivostok.

"I have been to see the three men in jail, my countrymen, who left Japan without buying steamer tickets. Two of the men who are to be sent back to Nagasaki are deserters from the Russian cruiser Camtchada. They are revolutionaries who helped to stir up trouble in Vladivostok.

"But here there is no liberty, no freedom. Instead you would send these poor men back to Nagasaki. Nagasaki is full of Russian government agents. When the men arrive they will be sent to Russia, tried by a military court and shot within 24 hours.

"The men are willing to pay their fares, but no. The American government cannot break the red tape. They would kill my poor countrymen. The Russian government takes no cognizance of so paltry a matter as a steamship ticket.

"And be sure and put it in the gazette that I am not a revolutionary."

SAD FATALITY IN PUUNENE MILL

W. H. Pickett, a surveyor employed by H. C. & S. Co., was killed in a shocking manner in Puunene mill Saturday night. His body was brought to Honolulu on the tug Fearless to be embalmed and sent to Fresno, Cal., where the victim's parents, sister and brother reside. He was 26 years of age.

Pickett was visiting the mill with two friends and, while descending a ladder, his coat was caught in the journal of a shaft operating some minor machinery. The Portuguese engineer courageously, at risk of his own life, pulled off the belt controlling the shaft, which made it stop revolving. It was too late, however, to save Pickett, who had been whirled over and over. His skull was fractured and when the shaft stopped turning his lifeless body dropped to the floor.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death. Pickett had been employed eighteen months by the Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Co., surveying for its ditch system, and before coming to these islands had followed his profession for some time in Manila and other Oriental places.

SHOWER BATH FOR SCHOOL

The plans for the new Kalihi-waena school were submitted to the inspection of the Board of Education yesterday. The blue prints show a two story building, to be constructed of hollow concrete blocks with nine rooms, each 24x28 feet, besides large toilet rooms and an office for the principal. There are four rooms on the ground floor, and five on the second, the space occupied by the fifth upper floor room being taken up on the ground floor by entries and closets. It is at Kalihi-waena school that Superintendent Babbitt has introduced a new scheme of his, and a most wise one, namely that of placing shower baths for the children in the toilet rooms. There are showers for both the boys and girls.

"We propose to keep the children clean and the rooms clean too," said the Superintendent. "The bath rooms have cement floors, and will be easily flushed. I think that the innovation is a good one, and will prove popular."

The Ministers and the Marriage Laws of the Territory of Hawaii.

Prepared for the Honolulu Ministers' Meeting of May 28, by Rev. W. D. Westervelt.

I shall not attempt to give, today, a summary of the marriage laws of Hawaii. They are very diverse in their operation, affecting the Board of Health and the probate courts as well as the minister who performs the ceremony.

It has been my purpose to call attention only to those specific sections of the law which pertain to the ministry that we might intelligently cooperate with the law's requirements.

The sections of the Territorial law are given first and the United States law last in order that we may have before us all the necessary requirements.

Section 2212 defines the persons to whom license can be given as follows: "It shall not be lawful for any minister of religion of any sect whatever, or any other person, to perform the marriage ceremony within this territory without first obtaining from the Treasurer a license to celebrate marriage."

It is a curiously worded law. A minister of any sect "or any other person" who can secure a license from the Treasurer of the Territory can "perform the marriage ceremony." The only limitation placed upon the character or other qualifications of the persons asking for this license is the "will" of the Treasurer. Nothing is said anywhere about any magistrate having this authority. It seems to me that such a loose condition of things is capable of being very culpably misused. A careless Treasurer could easily grant such authority to people of thoroughly bad character. The Territory is to be congratulated upon the care taken by its Treasurers in this matter.

In Section 3028 there is the following provision concerning false personation: "Any person who shall perform the marriage ceremony by falsely representing himself to be authorized by law to perform that ceremony, shall upon conviction be punished by imprisonment at hard labor not exceeding five years and by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars."

This clearly means that any one performing the ceremony pretending to have a license from the Treasurer is subject to this punishment. Section 2213 says: "The marriage rite may be performed and solemnized by any person duly authorized by law upon presentation to him of a license to marry as prescribed by Section 2207; who may be at liberty to receive the price to be stipulated by the parties or the gratification tendered to him."

This guards the minister from performing a marriage ceremony without having before him the permit to marry the persons concerned. He must have this permit as well as his own license. Section 1164 specifies the next duty of the minister: "It shall be the duty of every person legally authorized to perform the marriage ceremony, who shall at any time perform the marriage ceremony to immediately report each such marriage to the registrar of the district in which such marriage takes place, and state to him the full names, the age, the residence, the nationality and the full name of each of the parents of each of the parties to such marriage."

This section is very well understood and its provisions fully carried out by the wise pastor.

Section 2214, however, makes obligatory two duties which ministers sometimes overlook. A minister must keep his own home record as well as send a report to the Board of Health, and must also be careful to give a marriage certificate to the persons married whether he receives any fee or not. "It shall be the duty of every person authorized to solemnize marriage within this Territory to make and preserve a record of every marriage by him solemnized comprising the names of the man and woman married, their place of residence and the date of their marriage, and to deliver a certificate of the record of such marriage signed by him, to the parties married. Every person authorized to solemnize marriage who shall neglect to keep a record of any marriage solemnized by him or to deliver a certificate thereof to the parties married shall upon due proof of such neglect be subject to a fine of fifty dollars."

Section 2215 makes it obligatory upon the minister to give a certificate of the marriage to any person requesting it and offering fifty cents in payment: "It shall be the duty of any person authorized to solemnize marriage to deliver to any person requesting the same, a written certificate of the record of any marriage by him solemnized, being paid or tendered the sum of fifty cents." Refusal subjects the minister to a fine of fifty dollars.

Section 2216 is intended to provide for a permanent preservation of the record kept by the minister or any person authorized to perform the marriage rite. The record is to be delivered finally to the Territorial Treasurer. However, it does not say that the person must leave his record himself. His executors or legal representatives are to do this or pay a fine of $100.00.

To summarize the territorial requirements we notice:

- (1) The minister must secure his own license.
- (2) He must be careful about false personation.
- (3) He must have presented to him the permit granted to the parties seeking marriage.
- (4) He must make full report to the Registrar of the Board of Health.
- (5) He must keep his own home record.
- (6) He must give a certificate to the parties married.
- (7) He must give a certificate to any person asking for it and tendering fifty cents in payment.
- (8) He is expected to deposit his record with the Territorial Treasurer if he leaves the Territory.

The United States now steps in with additional requirements which the minister must observe, subject to several penalties. This law is found in Section 9 of Act of March 3, 1887, referring to marriage in Territories.

The person solemnizing the marriage rite must certify—

- (1) To the fact and nature of such ceremony.
- (2) The full names of each of the parties concerned.
- (3) The full name (or names) of those performing the ceremony or assisting therein.
- (4) This certificate must be signed by the parties being married and all those who take part as officiating in the ceremony.
- (5) The one in charge must file this certificate in the office of the Probate Court or in the office of the court having probate powers.

"Any person willfully violating any of these provisions shall on conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment not longer than two years or by both said punishments in the discretion of the court."

It may well be said that many ministers are entirely ignorant of this United States enactment and therefore continually fail to make this certified report.

The clause requiring the personal signatures is easily overlooked in the excitement and haste following a ceremony. Perhaps some step should be taken to protect our native ministry by a few words in the native paper issued by the Hawaiian Board.

It should be said that Rev. D. Seuder has prepared blanks to fill out for the Probate Court certificate and these printed blanks can be secured at the Hawaiian Board room at a low price.

AN AMERICAN REMEDY.

There is probably no medicine manufactured that can be found in more homes in the United States than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has been in general use for over thirty years and each successive epidemic of diarrhoea and dysentery during this time has tested its merit and proved its superiority over all similar preparations. The reliability and prompt cures of this remedy have won for it the confidence of many physicians who often prescribe it in their practice. No case has ever yet been reported where its use has failed to give relief. This remedy is for sale in this city by Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for Hawaii.

I CURE MEN!

No matter how weak you are; how full of aches and pains; how feeble and old in your actions, you can be made a stronger and better man by wearing my Electric Belt while you sleep.

Pick out the men who have worn my Belt. See them with heads erect, chest expanded, the glow of health in their cheeks, courage in their hearts, and a clasp on the hand that tells you "I am a man."

And how is it with you? Have you rheumatism and back pains, a dull ache and weakness over your kidneys, dull headaches, with a tired, stupid feeling? Are you losing your vitality? Do you feel yourself growing aged before your time? Are you nervous, sleepless, short of memory and lacking spirit and self-confidence? Do you know that you are not the man you would like to be? My Belt will cure you, and if you will come to me you will soon be one of "DR. McLAUGHLIN'S MEN."

I believe that the best evidence is the word of an honest man who says "YOU CURED ME."

Waipahu, T. H.

Dr. M. G. McLaughlin—Dear Sir: Your letter, in which you ask if the Belt has given perfect satisfaction, is at hand, and I must say that it has fulfilled my expectations to the greatest extent, for I am a different man to what I was before I got the belt. Your treatment is a great boon to anyone suffering from stomach trouble. I am not merely rid of the pain produced by the effect of the stomach to rid itself of the partially digested food, but I get the proper amount of nutriment from what I eat, and naturally my vitality is greatly increased.

Assuring you of my willingness to recommend treatment, I remain, Yours truly, ALFRED BETTERIDGE.

Come to me and let me cure you. Twenty years of my life have been devoted to my trade, and I have made my Belt popular with people who are tired of drugging. I cure while you sleep. It's easy and pleasant. My Belt gives a current that is a glowing warmth. No burn or sting.

I have a nicely illustrated book which every man should read. I will send it closely sealed, free, if you send this ad. Call if you can.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

For the Week Ending May 26, 1906.

Local Office, U. S. Weather Bureau, Honolulu, T. H., May 28, 1906.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

MORE EVIDENCE.

IT IS COMING IN RAPIDLY IN HONOLULU.

Evidence on the following subject will prove of interest to every Honolulu reader. So many people go through the same experience daily. This public statement should be proof positive to every wavering doubter. Read it carefully.

Charles Comey, of Cyclomere street, this city, one of the many persons who have tried Doan's Backache Kidney Pills with great advantage, relates his experience thus: "I have been a back driver for a number of years past and this is an occupation in which, through exposure to weather and much jumping up and down from the vehicle, one is particularly liable to kidney complaint. I suffered myself from a lame back for a long while, and in my anxiety to get rid of it tried several things which did not reach the root of my trouble. An advertisement acquainted me with what grand work Doan's Backache Kidney Pills were doing, and I got some of them at the Hollister Drug Co's store. I used them and with very much profit, for they relieved my back wonderfully."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers or sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

"MAJOR" KELLY HERE AGAIN.

The American bark George Curtis arrived from San Francisco yesterday morning, seventeen days out, commanded by Captain Kelly. The vessel brought about 3000 tons of general merchandise for Honolulu. She will load sugar immediately the cargo is out.

Captain Kelly yet shows signs of the injuries he received in the bark's collision with the schooner Mindoro on the night of April 17, while the Curtis was en route to Honolulu. He limps somewhat, one of his legs having been badly cut in the wreckage which also killed the mate, Edward Downing. The Curtis was run down by the Mindoro and the jibboom fell with a crash to the deck, overpowering the mate, whose skull was fractured. Captain Kelly says that the collision was due entirely to the Mindoro. The Curtis put back to San Francisco and the damage was repaired.

The Curtis lies at the Bishop wharf.

THE PAUL ISENBERG.

The Tacoma Ledger of May 17 says: In addition to the British ship Morven, en route from San Francisco to Tacoma to load wheat, still another vessel will soon be here to fulfill a grain charter. The latter is the German bark Paul Isenberg, 1153 tons, which arrived at Honolulu May 3.

It is supposed that the German will lose no time discharging at the Hawaiian port and proceeding to Tacoma, as she is long overdue. The charter was made prior to the vessel's arrival, and it is understood in local circles that the charterers are Kerr, Gifford & Co. The vessel is to receive the combination rate of 26 shillings 3 pence from Tacoma, with option of 27 shillings 6 pence, Portland loading. It is understood, however, that she will come here. She will go to the United Kingdom, Havre, Antwerp or Dunkirk. The Paul Isenberg is one of the many vessels which were disabled last fall in attempting to round Cape Horn en route from Europe and the United Kingdom to Pacific coast ports. The German sailed from London July 30. She was compelled to put about after battling with gales off the Horn, and reached Stanley, Falkland Islands, in a damaged condition October 30. At the time the decks were leaky, the upper works being damaged and some sails had been lost.

Repairs were completed January 25, but the master had some trouble with his crew and the bark was further delayed. She finally got away and reached Honolulu two weeks ago.

WATKINS WON'T LEAVE NOW.

Norman Watkins, U. S. Shipping Commissioner, who had sent his resignation to Washington, by reason of having accepted the management of the Hawaiian Fertilizer Works, vice Crawley, resigned, will withdraw the same for the present. Mr. Watkins states that George A. Davis, the attorney, has recently seen fit to attack his official integrity in an admiralty case before the U. S. Court, and under circumstances he does not propose to resign under fire. In other words, Mr. Watkins courts a full and complete investigation of his official acts as Shipping Commissioner.

MIOWERA HAS NO ROOM.

The Canadian-Australian S. S. Miowera is to call at Fanning Island on the present trip up from Sydney and may not arrive until Thursday. About fifty people have booked for passage to Victoria and Vancouver on this vessel, but all have been cut off, as Davies & Co., agents for the line, have received advices to the effect that all the Miowera's cabin accommodations were taken at Sydney, Brisbane and Suva.

ALAMEDA TAKES FULL LOAD.

The Oceanic steamship Alameda, in addition to taking up a very large list of passengers on Wednesday, will also have a full load of local products. The latter includes about 12,000 bags of raw sugar, 1000 bags of rice, 2000 hides, 500 bags of coffee, 5000 bunches of bananas and 300 boxes of pineapples. The latter are mostly the Manoa Valley product.

EARTHQUAKE CHANGES NEWSPAPER'S POLICY

The earthquake shocked the San Francisco News-Letter into propriety and its whole character has been changed. The News-Letter puts itself on a new basis in the following announcement:

"Henceforth, the character of the News-Letter will undergo many changes. In harmony with the general spirit of industry and perseverance which prevails on all sides, the paper will have less of the frothy and the frivolous, less of the fiction and more of the fact, than in the past. During the period of reconstruction it will be the aim of the publisher of the News-Letter to make it the organ of the manufacturing and commercial men of the new San Francisco. Special attention will be devoted to the advancement of real estate, commercial, transportation, insurance and other industrial interests.

"The society and essentially literary department of the paper will be discontinued. Politics will be dealt with only incidentally. There will be special departments devoted to real estate, insurance, finance, manufactures, commerce, automobiling, transportation and other industries. There will be a department of several pages devoted to mines and mining and brokerage. These departments will be conducted in a conservative, thoughtful and impartial manner. The editorials will be vigorous but dignified and dispassionate. The paper as a whole will aim at accuracy and reliability.

"The News-Letter has always been devoted to the leading interests of the Pacific Coast."

Nothing could better show the new spirit of San Francisco than the News-Letter's change of heart.

SALOONKEEPER SOLD LIQUOR ON SUNDAY

A Japanese saloonkeeper at Aiea was arrested yesterday for violating the law regarding the sale of liquor on Sunday. This is the first of a series of arrests for violation of this law and more are promised.

Officer Joseph Leal swore out a warrant against T. Leoka, for furnishing intoxicating liquors on Sunday, May 27, to D. Makkena and John Gouveia.

Complaint has been made by residents of Aiea that the Japanese has habitually violated the law, and that the police officer there failed to do his duty.

"OREGON GIRL" TO BE A DELEGATE

LA GRANDE, Or., May 12.—Miss Molly Proebstel of the La Grande Chronicle has been chosen as a delegate from eastern Oregon to the National Editorial Association, which meets in Indianapolis this year on June 14. This honor came to Miss Proebstel in recognition of her excellent work in the newspaper field during her recent trip to Honolulu. A little more than a year ago she became interested in the La Grande Chronicle, a weekly newspaper, and by close attention to her work made the Chronicle one of the best weekly local papers published in Oregon. Last winter Miss Proebstel was selected as correspondent of the Oregon Journal to accompany the party of young ladies sent by that paper to the Hawaiian Islands on a pleasure trip. It was her reports written on this trip that won her recognition from eastern newspapers and she was nominated and elected as a delegate to the National Editorial Association. So far as known Miss Proebstel is the second woman to receive this high honor in the field of newspaper work, the other woman being Miss Edith Tozier-Wethered, who has been a member of the National Editorial Association for some years.

HUMORS OF THE DAY IN SAN FRANCISCO

One San Francisco sign reads: "Busted; but not crushed." Other signs read: "Cheer up," "Don't worry," "Forget it," and one humorous person had painted before his premises:

"We're satisfied; we got a fair shake."

This sign is plagiarized from the letter sent by the Governor of Alcatraz Island. It was stated in one of the San Francisco papers that Alcatraz Island was not shaken, and the Governor wrote to say that Alcatraz had a fair shake and he had no complaint to make that it had not got all that was coming, etc.

The leveling of the city has been accomplished in three ways than the annihilation of four-fourths of the homes, and society and its opposite are now cheek by jowl, all reduced to the need of being fed by the army. Up and down the streets curbstones are being seen with little rude shelters about them, and people with improvised brick ovens are cooking their meals in the street. Some of these campers of the city have painted signs over their houses. One says:

"Good cook wanted; must bring his own supplies."

Other signs noted are, "The Palace Grill," "The New Fairmount," etc.

Here is an advertisement of a music house as published in the News-Letter: We've been earthquake fired Dynamited And Looted But we're still very much on the map.

made with piles, and in some instances with planks or timbers crossed to form heavy platforms. Concrete was still later used for foundation purposes, and several of the latest-built structures rest on concrete, re-enforced with steel beams. Naturally some of the early foundations upon which buildings rested to the time of our recent scourging were not nearly as good as others were. The streets, of course, were not held on piles at all, except where the cable railway for the several blocks at the lower end of Market street, built in later years, was so held.

Through the intervening years there has been a gradual settling of this area, except where buildings were held on deeply driven piles or other good foundations. The driving of tens of thousands of piles for these building foundations has tended to consolidate the soft sub-strata and overlying trash and sand, but it had not accomplished this under the intervening streets, and we had no right to expect, as our recent earthquake demonstrated, that it would.

MURDERER SENTENCED

Kaawaloa Unconcerned When His Doom Is Pronounced.

That most unpleasant duty, the signing of a death warrant, was yesterday passed up to the Territorial executive in the following communication: Circuit Court, First Circuit, Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu, May 28th, 1906. Honorable A. L. C. Atkinson, Acting Governor, Territory of Hawaii.

Sir: I have the honor to inform you that the Honorable J. T. De Bolt has this day imposed the following judgment and sentence on Kaliko Kaawaloa convicted of murder in the first degree on the 24th day of May, A. D. 1906 by the unanimous verdict of a jury duly impaneled and sworn to try the issues joined in the case of the Territory of Hawaii vs. Kaliko Kaawaloa to wit: "The sentence of this court is that you (Kaliko Kaawaloa) suffer the punishment of death by being hanged by the neck until you are dead."

JOE BATCHELOR, Clerk, 1st Circuit Court, First Circuit. A certificate by the clerk is attached, verifying "a full, true and correct copy of the judgment and sentence imposed on the defendant," by Judge De Bolt "at the hour of 9 in the forenoon of this 28th day of May, A. D. 1906."

Kaawaloa had nothing to say, when Mr. Hopkins interpreted the usual question, why sentence of death should not be pronounced upon him. Neither Mr. Fleming for the Territory nor Mr. Crook for the defendant made any remarks. Judge De Bolt stated the facts of defendant's having been indicted and receiving a fair trial, with the result of conviction by a fairly constituted jury, then quoting the requirement of the law for such cases pronounced the fatal words.

Kaawaloa received his doom with an appearance of unconcern and walked out of court, under escort of two officers, with an easy swing. On the first day, when the jury was being impaneled, he wore an utterly hangdog look, but on succeeding days his demeanor was bright to a degree, apparently, of pleasurable interest in his surroundings.

On the night of December 2 last Kaawaloa battered the life out of a woman named Virginia Moeluh, with whom he had been living at Kakaako, by knocking her down and banging her head against the floor.

A SILLY SAYING.

"It is a common but silly opinion prevailing among a certain class of people that the worse a remedy tastes, smells or hurts, the more efficacious it is." So says a well-known English physician. He further adds: "For example, let us consider cod liver oil. As it is extracted from the fish this oil is so offensive to the taste and smell that many cannot use it at all, no matter how badly they need it. Yet cod liver oil is one of the most valuable drugs in the world and it is the greatest pity that we have not thus far been able to free it from these peculiarities which so seriously interfere with its usefulness." This was written years ago; the work of civilizing and redeeming it has since been triumphantly accomplished; and as a leading ingredient in the remedy called WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION the oil retains all its wonderful curative properties with no bad smell or taste whatever. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry; creating a medicine of unequalled power for the diseases most prevalent and fatal among men, women and children. There is no other remedy to compare with it. It increases the digestive power of the stomach and in Blood Impurities, Throat and Lung Troubles, Nervous Dyspepsia and Scrofulous Affections, it gives quick and certain relief and cure. Dr. G. C. Shannon, of Canada, says: "I shall continue its use with, I am sure, great advantage to my patients and satisfaction to myself." Has all the virtues of cod liver oil; none of its faults. You may trust it fully; it cannot disappoint you. At all chemists.

TERRITORY LOSES CASE

The Legislature Cannot Enact Land Title.

By a unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court, written by Justice Hartwell, the Court of Land Registration is sustained in its decree in the matter of the petition of the Hawaiian Trust Co., Ltd., for a registered title. The Territory of Hawaii appealed from the decree which declared that the fee in a certain roadway which had been used over the petitioner's land since the year 1853 as a public highway, although not expressly dedicated or condemned for the purpose, remained in the owner subject to an easement for a public highway. F. W. Milverton appeared for the Territory and Balou & Marx for the petitioner.

The Territory claimed the fee in the land under Sections 586, 588 and 593. Revised Laws, the last of which says: "The ownership of all public highways and the land, real estate and property of the same shall be in the Territory of Hawaii in fee simple."

In this decision, however, the Supreme Court says: "The Territory can not acquire the fee in a public highway by a mere legislative enactment. The fee is acquired either by compulsory process of condemnation of by the owner's consent, express or implied. The consent is implied, by force of the statute, when the owner exercises no ownership within five years, but no inference can be made in the absence of evidence that an owner does not exercise ownership over his land."

In conclusion the opinion reads thus: "Long prior to 1892 he had lost all right to interfere with its public use. To infer from his failure for five years thereafter to interfere with its public use—a thing which he could not lawfully do—that he dedicated the fee to the Territory would be absurd. The statute can have no such effect and requires no such inference."

"The claim of the Territory, being supported by no evidence, was properly disallowed."

"The decree, appealed from, in so far as it limits the right of the Territory to an easement for a public highway, is affirmed."

STORY OF QUEEN TARO PATCH FEUD

Wong Yip has appealed from District Magistrate Derby, who fined him the costs of court, $2.50, and the policeman's fee, $1, for assault and battery on Wong K. Tai. The complaining witness was a woman whose husband set her to watch a taro patch in the crop of which he owned a half interest.

Defendant was pulling taro and had two bags of it ready to take away when the faithful watchwoman interfered. She and other witnesses testified that she had got stuck in her hand and that defendant struck her with his right hand, then dragged her into the taro patch, and threatened to drown her in its murky flood. All the while her baby stood crying on the bank.

Defendant swore the woman hit him with a stick and sat on the bags of taro, making him ashamed so that he ran away, and then she grabbed his coat and pulled it, and the jerk he gave made her fall down. He didn't pull her into the taro patch. So he testified.

See Moy's evidence for the complainant thus concluded: "After he struck her he pulled her, put her into the taro patch. I saw them grumbling."

Nala, a native woman, swore to the following, if the record is correct: "I saw defendant strike the woman on side of hip, and after that he pulled her into the taro patch and when the defendant's husband coming he started to run away. Defendant intended to shove her into the taro patch. He pulled the woman into the taro patch and started to shove her into the patch."

CHINESE MARRIAGE RITES DESCRIBED

Before U. S. Judge Dole the defense in the bigamy case against Dai Fook Tai, a Chinese woman, began putting on evidence yesterday afternoon. District Attorney Breckons is prosecuting, and Mazon & Lightfoot and A. Kaukukou defending.

The defense is trying to make out that the alleged first marriage was not the regulation Chinese marriage, but a ceremony peculiar to the acquiring of a concubine—a relation that is permitted in China. Evidence thus far is contradictory, but altogether entertaining. Such rites as lifting eggs with chopsticks, jumping over fire and the beating of a supernumerary helpmeet over the neck by the ranking Eve were described.

One expert on the stand compared the nuptial ordeal by fire to the Board of Health's fumigation of "a bad place." The purpose is to drive away evil spirits.

PERRY SUIT DISMISSED

Laelae-Nicholas Second Trial--Other Court Proceedings.

Josephine Perry's suit against her former husband, Antone L. Perry, and his mother, Mrs. Perreira, was dismissed by Judge Robinson yesterday with costs against the complainant. A. S. Humphreys and S. B. Kingsbury conducted the trial for complainant, and P. E. Thompson of Thompson & Clemens for respondents.

Complainant was the divorced wife of Antone L. Perry and the case was replete with disagreeable personalities. The suit which has failed, at least on original trial, was set aside as a deed of property which was alleged to have been obtained by duress and fraud on the part of Perry and his mother. Since the initiation of proceedings complainant had become Mrs. Karratti.

FAMOUS GAMBLING CASE. David Laelae and Alex. Nicholas were called up for trial before Judge De Bolt yesterday, on their appeal from sentence of $500 and costs each by the Honolulu District Court for gambling. With one juror lacking the panel was exhausted and a special venire for six jurors returnable this morning was issued. Owing to a mistrial of the case at this term twelve of the regular panel were unavailable. Geo. D. Gear, for the defense, in examining jurors, asked them if the fact that the Advertiser worked up the case would prejudice them. They all said it would not.

NEW SUITS. David K. Baker, Deputy Sheriff of Kona, has made return of summons as served on respondents in the bill of J. R. Soares against J. G. Henriques and Luiza Henriques for foreclosure of mortgage. The mortgage is on lands in South Kona aggregating 63.44 acres, given to secure a note for $1200 at 8 per cent, made in August, 1904.

Ng Gang and Wai Sing Yick, doing business under the firm name of Quong Wah Yuen, have brought suit against Y. Van Hing and Lau Cheng Tai, doing business under the name of Sam Wo Chan, for $645.88, with interest, costs and attorney's fees.

PROBATE MATTERS. Judge Robinson granted the petition of Mrs. Caroline Johnson Aila, guardian of her four minor children, to expend ten dollars a month out of principal for the support and education of the wards, as the interest on the principal was insufficient.

Judge Robinson admitted the will of Catherine Steward to probate, appointing Rev. Father H. Valentin executor without bonds as directed in the will. COURT NOTES.

In the mandamus suit of Kapolani Estate, Ltd., vs. James W. Pratt, Commissioner of Public Lands, C. W. Ashford for petitioner gives notice to respondent and to E. C. Peters, Attorney General, that at 9 a. m. Thursday he will call up for hearing and decision, before Judge Robinson, the respondent's motion to quash the writ.

Chan Kiu Ai has discontinued her divorce suit against AI. The grand jury will hold its session Thursday instead of tomorrow.

WHERE WILL HONOLULANS SPEND THE SUMMER?

The calamity that has befallen San Francisco has caused many changes in the plans of Honolulu people with reference to their summer vacations, and many who have been in the habit of spending two or three months in the coast metropolis during the heated term are casting about for new places of retreat. Refugees from San Francisco will doubtless crowd all adjacent towns, even down to Los Angeles, for many months to come, and hotel and boarding house rates will be correspondingly high. In such circumstances Honolulu people are fortunate in having a splendid mountain resort close at hand, where a whole month can be spent, including traveling expenses from Honolulu and return, for less than the cost of a round trip steamer ticket to the Coast. In fact, Messrs. Trent & Co. are offering purchasers of $40 volcano tickets, a whole week's extra board at the popular Volcano House for only one additional five dollar gold piece. This is an expensive kind of advertising, but it will probably result in keeping the Volcano House full to the doors all summer.

Some folks think that wine isn't good unless it is bought in a bottle. The CRITERION jobbing department supplies the pure juice of the grape in the gallon, at prices within the reach of all. Equal to the best bottled wines. Order a gallon sent home by our delivery wagon.

HE CAROLED FOR MORE.

The Carrols or Carrolton are sore at Morgan because he did not choose to answer their appeal for help to the tune of a thousand. There is a moral to the story: the Carrols should have remained here where there are no earthquakes and where a man can get along with less. "A rolling stone gathers no moss," said the prophet and the wayward prodigal replied, "But think of the polish." Chester Doyle says the only polish it gives to a man is noticeable in the places where the nap has worn off his coat.
But that is not what concerns Honolulu people, they want to know where to get the best that can be had for the money when they are buying drugs and toilet preparations. "Hobron" spells the proper thing in either line and Almond Cream is the preparation that will take the shine off the face of the maid and give her a complexion like the missis wears. This is absolutely harmless and should be on the dressing table of every lady. Hobron is the exclusively dealer in it.

HE CAROLED FOR MORE.

Arrangements are complete for the long anticipated masked skating carnival which will take place tomorrow evening at the Queen street rink. The band has been increased and will furnish music for both the skating and the dancing. There is sure to be a lot of friendly rivalry for the handsome prizes. It is rumored that some of the "original costumes" will be "wonders," and will tax the powers of even the well selected board of judges. The dancing will prove a pleasing diversion after the skating.
