BROWN DOWNS CRABBE IN THE OPENING ROUND

Republican Precinct Club Elections Show Decisive Victory for Combination Opposing Achi's Ambition to Be a Supervisor.

So far as the Republican precinct club elections is a test of strength, Brown laid the Achi-Crabbe combination out pretty completely last night. Indeed, there seems little consolation left this morning for the Labor-for-Achi party, the last development in Republican politics. Of course the battle is not ended yet, and there need be no looking for a cessation of effort by either party until after the primaries, but the club elections were generally looked upon as a chance to try out the two leading candidates for Sheriff, and in the light of that Brown scores. Brown, however, was helped by the strength of Harris, Lucas and all the elements that are opposing the election of Achi as Supervisor-at-large.

The voters, and especially the natives, took quite as much interest in the club contests as though it had been a primary that was being fought out, and there was a larger turnout of the decent element within the party than has ever come out at a like stage of the campaign. In at least one precinct, and that one in which an avowed Crabbe ticket was opposed by one that was supported by the Brown workers but was not pledged for Brown, the sentiment in favor of a new man for Sheriff in the interest of party harmony was expressed, and was most enthusiastically received. The name of Harry Von Holt was mentioned for Sheriff in this precinct meeting, and loudly applauded. In this precinct the unpledged ticket beat the Crabbe ticket badly. This was in the Fifth District, where Crabbe has been supposed to be especially strong.

Indeed, the hardest fighting seems to have been done in the Fifth District, where Crabbe was thought to be a favorite. At several of the precincts in this district there were crowds of police in plain clothes about the polling places, and the efforts of the machine bore fruit. Senator John Lane, in his shirt sleeves, was out trying to beat Achi in his own precinct, and made a gallant fight for it. Of course there were many precincts where there were no contests, but in the fighting places the fights did not cease until the polls were closed.

Sam Johnson has scored triumphant in Kakaako, and Jim Quinn's fortunes have gone into eclipse before the prowess of Charlie Coster, whom Quinn pronounced a dead one as he threw him out of the precinct club meeting last week. Brother Jim says that he will not protest the election, although Coster has been read out of the party.

"It was a fair election," Quinn said last night. "What is the use of protesting. Those fellows may vote the other way in the primaries." Which goes to show that Brother Jim is a good loser.

FIRST OF THE FOURTH.

There was something of a mixed up fight in the First of the Fourth, resulting in the election of the following officers: President, Jas. L. Holt; first vice president, Chas. J. Falk; second vice president, S. Umauma; secretary, S. K. Kamalopili; assistant secretary, Isaac Harbottle; treasurer, Thos. P. Cummins; judges of election, Job Manase, J. K. Aea, Joe Leal; executive committee, J. H. Boyd, W. C. Roe, A. F. Clark, T. P. Cummins, Sol. Kakaia.

SECOND OF THE FOURTH.

There was no contest, the following being the regular ticket: President, J. Soper; vice president, G. A. Davis; second vice president, Hiram Kolomo-ku; secretary, James A. Thompson; treasurer, Marsden Campbell; executive committee, Col. J. W. Jones, F. Kruger, J. M. Riggs, Joe Richards; judges, S. F. Chillingworth, J. Bicknell and H. Wooten.

THIRD OF THE FOURTH.

The Booth ticket won out over the Neeley combination by nine votes. It is said that the Portuguese voters failed to turn out and vote here. The following is the ticket: President, C. W. Booth; first vice president, S. K. Nakapaahu; second vice president, A. K. Keao; secretary, Chas. N. Marquez; assistant secretary, Sam Manu; judges, O. Sorenson, F. McIntyre, M. J. Cabral; executive committee, J. I. Souza, Moses Ehu, F. C. Oliveira, Alex. Nicholas, J. K. Kahinu.

FOURTH OF THE FOURTH.

There was no opposition in this precinct, the secretary casting the ballot of the club for the following ticket: President, E. W. Quinn; first vice president, M. C. Pacheco; second vice president, Wm. Savidge; secretary, W. W. Carlyle; assistant secretary, Vincent Fernandez; treasurer, A. D. Castro; judges, D. M. Woodward, Vincent Fernandez, J. R. Twomey; executive committee, A. H. Moore, A. V. Peters, D. Kalaokalani, Sam. Kamakau, J. F. Durao.

FIFTH OF THE FOURTH.

It was not an Achi snowstorm for Sam Johnson in the Fifth of the Fourth. It was a Sam Johnson hall-storm, with a hard wind accompanying it, and the wicked Mr. Achi was left shivering on the cold side of the door, along with his friend, Mr. Crabbe. The crowd began assembling at the voting place at the office of the Board of Health very early, and there was a big lot of voters on hand. Two tickets were in the field, and in the LONDON, July 21.—The will of the late Alfred Beit, the South African millionaire, leaves three millions of dollars for educational and charitable purposes, and six millions for the development of Rhodesia. There are bequests also to the national art galleries and museums.

RUBBER WILL BE A BIG THING MAY SUGGEST A BETTER DAM

Nahiku Company Makes Most Promising Report.

In a report to F. T. P. Waterhouse, secretary of the Nahiku Rubber company, D. C. Lindsay and C. D. Lufkin of Wailuku state that the plantation is in excellent condition and the prospects for rubber extremely bright. The report makes a number of recommendations, the most important of which is the substituting of Ceara trees for the Hevea, as being the more profitable. This section of the report reads:

"We have gone over the matter thoroughly, and after a full consideration of it, we are most decidedly of the opinion that no more Hevea trees should be planted. The Ceara show so much better growth and gives promise of being so much more profitable, that we consider it the best policy for the company to stay by this variety. We have gone over all the Shaw lot, and also the Feiteira lot, and recommend to Mr. Anderson that he get all the Hevea (both seedlings and stumps) together, and plant the balance with Ceara. Stumps on the Feiteira lot (Hevea) show only two inches growth in six months. Ceara in the same locality grow one foot a month. We understand that there are 200,000 Hevea seeds ordered, and we recommend that this order be immediately canceled. We are fully convinced that the Ceara will give us early and profitable returns, and while the Hevea may, in say twenty years' time, be a better tree, we do not consider it good policy for the company to plant for the benefit of posterity."

"There are now about 150 acres in Hevea, and while we are not yet ready to say that this variety is a failure, we certainly consider the Ceara the better tree for the locality. Mr. Anderson has now on hand enough Ceara seeds to plant the whole remaining acreage. We figure that by the end of this planting season there will be about 600 acres planted, and the balance will be made up of 100 acres Torres lot, 60 acres Hao, 50 acres Shaw lot (to be planted), and some of the Oliveira lot. The total acreage should be planted early next year."

Kellogg's Instructions Ask for Complete Report.

It is stated by ex-inspector Patterson, who has followed more closely than anyone else in Honolulu the movements of H. Clay Kellogg, the examining expert at the dam, since he arrived from the Coast, that official instructions have been given the expert to pay more attention in his report to outlining what modifications are necessary to build a good dam in Nuuanu than to criticisms of the present structure, thus taking it for granted that what work has so far been done under the old plan will be condemned.

Respecting this Mr. Kellogg was seen last night, and although he would not intimate in any way that it was his intention to condemn any part of the work, he spoke freely as to the scope of the report which he would prepare.

"The cable sent me, asking me to come to Honolulu, was to the effect that I was to report on two things: One as to whether the plans and specifications being worked to would provide for a safe dam; the other as to the nature of the work so far done. Since coming I have had several interviews with the Governor, in one of which he told me that my investigation and report were to be limited in no way, that he expected me to cover the whole proposition. This I take to mean the suggesting of any modifications I may find necessary should my report condemn the dam or any portion of it. At least that is the assumption I am going on."

"I will send in my report just as soon as possible, on the first mail that leaves the Coast after the Sonoma arrives there. In it I will cover every part of the work that it was possible for me to examine and for everything that I have to say in it I will state my reasons in such a way as to be understood by everybody. I am not going to turn in a strictly technical report because I think that the general public here is interested and I want to write so that they can follow my line of reasoning."

WANTED KELLOGG TO STAY

"It was intimated to me today by an official of the Public Works Department that I should prepare my report here and stay to discuss the matter (Continued on Page 4.)"

NEWSPAPERS IN ST. PETERSBURG ARE SUPPRESSED

Troops Fire Volleys of Blank Cartridges at Mobs Rioting in the Streets of the Czar's Capital.

(Associated Press Cablegrams.)

ST. PETERSBURG, July 21.—The government has issued an edict ordering the suppression of all the newspapers.

DISORDERS IN THE STREETS.

Great disorders are taking place in the streets of the capital, but so far the troops are firing only volleys of blank cartridges on the mobs.

ONE CITY IS IN RUINS.

SYZRAN, Russia, July 21.—This city is in ruins as a result of fires set by the revolutionists. Four thousand houses have been destroyed, and thirty-five thousand people are suffering from lack of food. The fire caused the loss of hundreds of lives.

THREATENED WITH EXILE.

ODESSA, July 20.—The governor has ordered the strikers to return to work under penalty of exile in event of refusal. He announces that he intends to suppress the strike by force of arms, if necessary.

The hand of the reactionary party is evident in the suppression of the Russian newspapers, and likewise in bringing out the troops to put down disorders in the streets of the capital. But it is significant of the progress of the revolution, even in St. Petersburg, that only volleys of blank cartridges are being fired at the mob. Maybe the soldiers will not shoot with ball. Maybe their officers are afraid to order them to do so. A year ago there would have been a different story to tell.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Bids for the first issue of Panama Canal bonds were opened today. The average offering was 103.94.

PORTLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEN COMING

Two members of the Portland Chamber of Commerce will visit Honolulu in two or three weeks to drum up business among the Honolulu merchants, so that a steamer may be put on a permanent Portland-Honolulu run.

The steamship Hilonian, now in port, and one of the Matson liners, is the vessel in view for carrying the freight between ports. The direct cause of the proposed visit of these two gentlemen came about in this way:

A day or two before the Hilonian sailed from Portland for Honolulu a lot of Portland's business men went aboard that fine steamer, had a luncheon with the captain and inspected the ship. Captain Johnson, of the Hilonian, told a reporter of the Advertiser yesterday the result of the luncheon.

"They held a meeting on board this vessel and decided to send two representatives to Honolulu. They will be members of the Chamber of Commerce and will have full authority to act with the merchants here. They expect to show the Honolulu merchants that it will be to their interest to establish another buying center. They have San Francisco, and they have bought in Seattle. They can buy in Portland, too, if they want to, and here is the steamer, the Hilonian, to carry the cargo. It's very simple, you see. One of these gentlemen is W. A. Mears.

"The Hilonian is a good cargo boat, and can carry 4000 tons of freight. She has room also for fifty passengers and as soon as the boat is advertised extensively we expect to have a lot of passengers to carry. The trip is made in about eight days, and it is a direct means of communication between the whole Northwest and Honolulu. I know that Portland and all Oregon is interested in the Hawaiian Islands and the merchants are eager to establish trade relations on a large scale.

"Portland is a fine progressive city of about 125,000 inhabitants. Its merchants are go-ahead people and they're out for business."

Captain Johnson is enthusiastic both for Portland and Honolulu. He knows Honolulu pretty well, having made many visits here on the oil-cargo steamer Rosecrans.

PALOLO ON RIGHT TACK

Spirit of Settlers Who Built Their Own Road.

"Here is a manifestation of the right spirit," said Governor Carter yesterday, picking up a picture on his desk which shows the settlers in Palolo valley building the road to their own homesteads which the government had not the money to build.

"This is the Palolo spirit, let us call it. The government did not have enough money to finish the road. The settlers wanted it finished and they turned out and did the rest of the work themselves. They have six thousand feet of road, and there is not a hired laborer shown in that picture. The settlers who could not work on the road with pick and shovel and wheelbarrow, those homesteaders whose business kept them down town, paid each $1.50 a day to the settlers road fund, and the money was used in the purchase of powder for blasting, and in other ways to buy material to be used on the road. "In addition to this, and because the Hawaiian homesteaders turned out so enthusiastically with the others, the settlers, having built their road, are now building a lane down to the homesteads of the Hawaiians.

"They did not sit down and wait for the Territory to build the road for them. They did not, as the too general tendency is, look upon the Territory as an abstraction, apart from themselves. They realized that they were the Territory, a part of it, and that is the true spirit. Every man who worked on that road will be proud of it, and every man will see to it that it is kept in repair. He will stoop to pick up rocks, and to pull grass out of it, and to keep the gutters clear so that the road will not wash away in the rains.

"It reminds me," went on the Governor, "of some pictures I saw in Seattle of leading citizens grading a railway roadbed of their own ready for the tracks when Villard turned the town down in favor of Tacoma. That same spirit which led those men to get out and work for a railway of their own has made Seattle great.

"Let us rejoice in the Palolo spirit. It is the spirit which makes states great. It is the spirit which leads men to say and believe that this is 'my Territory, my country. I am a part of it.' It is not a thing apart, to be used and abused if it does not give me what I want in the way of public improvements."

FOUGHT ON LOGAN'S DECK

Fighting and clawing men about him a young man aboard the transport Logan endeavored to leap overboard and swim back to shore just after the boat had slipped away from the dock into the stream yesterday afternoon. Preparatory to steaming out to sea. The young fellow was finally given a quietus by members of the crew.

The Logan had thrown off her mooring lines when two men in civilian clothes, both quite drunk, came down the dock. They had come here from Manila on the troopship. One of them leaped over and clutched the grating over one of the open ports and that's as far as he could get. He hung on until a sailor crawled down the side of the vessel and took hold of him. Another sailor dropped a noose down from the deck and the other adjusted it about the young man. He slipped it over one leg and finally it tightened about his thigh. Men on deck hauled away and the young fellow dangled in midair, and after some hair breadth escapes. He was finally drawn on deck. Then seeing his companion standing on the dock, the young fellow made a rush for the railing, evidently with the intention of throwing himself overboard. He was held and finally knocked down. His mate, seeing how matters stood, asked the pilot boat boys to take him out to the transport and bring him back. He wanted to bring his duds ashore, saying he and his mate had an opportunity of enlisting on the Manning. He was not accommodated and walked off the dock wiping his eyes with a handkerchief.

The Logan met with heavy trades crossing the Pacific. She left Manila June 23 and Nagasaki, July 7, and had an uneventful trip. Brigadier-General Buchanan, U. S. A., retired, was a passenger from Nagasaki with his family. He was lately in command of the Department of the Visayas, and is now on his way East to visit his sister, Mrs. Cumberland Dugan, at the Wilderness, Md., where he expects to spend the summer. General Buchanan was retired last May. Major Wilcox was post commander at the little camp near Jolo when the Moro uprising took place.

The Logan carried a small number of first-class passengers and a few casuals in the steerage.

ATKINSON RESOLUTIONS PRESENTED TO FAMILY

Yesterday there was presented to the family of the late Superintendent of Public Instruction A. T. Atkinson, in behalf of the Board of Education, the resolutions passed at the meeting of the Board on May 14 last. The copy is beautifully engrossed and framed, and will form a much-prized souvenir of the life work of a man who did more for Hawaii, perhaps, than any other citizen of the Islands in his time. The presentation was entirely informal, the resolutions being given to Secretary of the Territory Atkinson by Superintendent Babbitt. The resolutions are as follows:

Whereas, In the course of Divine Providence there has been removal from us by death our friend and former colleague, Mr. Alatau T. Atkinson; be it

Resolved, That we express our sorrow at the loss we have sustained as Commissioners of Public Instruction and as private citizens; and also our appreciation of the valuable services rendered by our deceased friend, as Teacher, Inspector General of Schools and Superintendent of Public Instruction; and be it further

Resolved, That the sense of this meeting be conveyed by letter to the widow and family of the late Mr. Atkinson, and that this resolution be spread in full upon our minutes.

In the engrossed copy these words are written in most elaborate script, framed appropriately, and at the bottom are the signatures of the present Superintendent of Public Instruction and of the members of the Board of Education.

There is a certainty about our goods that is not always noticeable in the average drug establishment. We are particular to get the best and that accounts for the certainty. We do not substitute, always send you what you order and what you expect to receive when you ask for it. This is particularly the case with the drugs used in the medicines we compound on physicians' prescriptions. There is a responsibility about filling orders for physicians that is recognized in every first-class drug store; ours is one of that kind and we observe to the letter the instructions sent in. Remember that when you order from us you get exactly what you ask for. We are not so anxious to sell goods that we will substitute something just as good. HOBSON DRUG CO.

SPORTS

NO BASEBALL FOR TODAY

League Holds Up Games Until Trustees Decide.

The latest development in the baseball situation is the calling off of today's games by the league. The Oahus were to have met the Honolulu and the Kamehamehas the Puna-hou. It is probable that no games will be played pending the announcement of the findings of the trustees who are at present investigating the game played a week ago between the Honolulu and the Kamehamehas.

The league met at noon yesterday in the office of Frank Richardson, present being Frank Richardson, Frank Falk, Jess Woods, George Desha, U. Lemon, Harry Bruns, Pat Gleason and F. E. Steere. Richardson acted as chairman of the meeting and Steere as secretary. On the motion of Steere, seconded by Falk, it was decided that no games be played today and that the entire schedule be moved back a week. It was also agreed that similar action should be taken provided the trustees have not arrived at a decision before Saturday next.

There is a growing opinion in the community that the investigation by the trustees will have a very salutary effect on baseball in Honolulu. It will clear the atmosphere of clouds of suspicion which have existed since the beginning of the second series and will put a wholesome fear of exposure into the heart of any player who in the future may be tempted to play other than his best.

FALK TALKS OF SITUATION

In an interview with Charles Falk, the manager of the Honolulu team, agent the baseball situation, Mr. Falk expressed himself as follows:

"There is misconception on the part of many as to the position taken relative to playing, by the Honolulu. At no time has any disposition been shown to either coerce or hurry the trustees. The only viewpoint taken by the members of the team has been the impropriety of appearing on the ball grounds while under charge of throwing a game. The idea is, and always has been, to play ball just so soon as the atmosphere is cleared.

"I am glad to say that the league unanimously supported this position. While I regret the notoriety attaching to this matter, I am satisfied that the game will not suffer thereby. The loose talk heretofore indulged in regarding the selling of games will be indulged in less. The players will realize the gravity of even a passive acquiescence in such talk and will be more earnest and careful in their demeanor on the field. When the skies are again clear we may look for a continuance of the struggle for the coveted pennant and I sincerely hope that the great game will not lose the favor of the sport-loving people here.

"The team which I represent will endeavor to be in the vanguard, and if it is not, it will not be through the lack of effort. I hope to see the old-time rivals, the Oahus and Honolulu, horns locked, as of yore, ready when Bower calls time next Saturday, the 28th, for fair and earnest combat."

TOLD TO BET BY KAHUNAS

The kahuna has stepped into the baseball situation and is being blamed for the wholesale wagering of money on sporting events which has of late been going on in Honolulu.

It is the natives and half-whites who traffic with the kahunas and it is the practise of many of them to visit one of the Hawaiian soothsayers prior to the decision of a contest and ask the opinion of the oracle as to who will win.

A notable case of this kind of thing occurred in connection with the championship rowing races at Pearl Harbor on July 4. Two members of the Honolulu Athletic baseball team visited a kahuna and were informed that the Heolians would win the senior race. The gullible pair, acting on the native's advice, backed the Blues for all they could afford and probably more. The Myrtles were victorious and the ball-players' money went the way of all bad bets.

It is a well-known fact that ball-players have been in the habit of consulting kahunas as to which nine would emerge winner from a game and that they have acted on the say-so of the fortune-teller in the matter of placing bets.

It doesn't take more than an ordinary amount of perception to arrive at the conclusion, that if John Smith of the Hilo nine is told by a kahuna that the Waialuku team will beat his side when they meet on the diamond, and according to the Waialuku, said John Smith is likely to be affected with sudden indisposition, if the fortunes of the game chance to go against the nine he has bet on, which will prevent Mr. Smith from playing within blocks of his best form.

BASEBALL AT PUNAHOU

Prospect of Present Season of Oahu College.

The baseball season for 1906 was not as successful as it was hoped it would be, but, notwithstanding, it was a creditable one for Puna-hou. The difficulty this year was that there was no interscholastic schedule. The High School had no team, and we had to form a dual league with Kamehameha. A schedule of five games was arranged, the winner of three claiming the interscholastic championship. Unfortunately, owing to different reasons, Kamehameha could not play the first and second scheduled games. Finally, after a little persuasion on our part, they agreed to play a game. Puna-hou demonstrated by winning this game that all of the long practice had reaped its reward. The trouncing given Kamehameha somewhat took the ardor out of their players, and they decided not to play another game. This left Puna-hou without an opponent and the interscholastic championship. Four games were played with the Infantry team, resulting in our winning one and losing three. The Infantry had the best advantages; the team had experienced men and had played together much longer. Notwithstanding this, our team made a most creditable showing against them. A game played with the Mailes resulted in a tie, the game being called off on account of darkness. Two games with the P. A. C. resulted in one won and one lost. Another game with the C. A. C. was won by Puna-hou. The last game with the Faculty, seven innings being played, the score stood 7 to 8 in the team's favor. Altogether, therefore, ten games were played; the team won five, lost four, and one was drawn. This is quite a creditable showing, considering the teams played against.

Of last year's squad there remained "Dick" Ahrens, A. McDougall and "Jack" Desha. From Kamehameha came "Dave" Desha and "Bishop" Lyman. Frank Hoogs, from the High School, was a valuable addition to the team. The rest of the players, A. Lowrey, Lo On, W. Aehl, J. Winnie, "Clem" Akina, and Arthur Stillman, were second team men. Mr. Flitts, the coach, was a most valuable person, both in his untiring perseverance and his wholesome advice. He was always on the ground ahead of time, seeing that each man received proper training, remedying his faults, and strengthening him all around. He was tireless in his efforts to better the team in every way, and he can be justly proud of the result of his labors. His work for the team's good will always be remembered. The team is fully appreciative of his services.

The batting of the team, on the whole, was very good, due probably in no small measure to the stimulus afforded by the offering of the President's cup. This cup was offered to the player having the highest batting average at the end of the season. It was won by Lo On, his batting average being 352 16-17 per cent. Alan Lowrey and "Jack" Desha tied for second place with a batting record of 312 1-2 per cent. The rest of the team, excepting one or two, batted over two hundred per cent. The fielding of the team was good. Excepting for a "break" or an "up in the air" for an inning or two, the support given to the pitcher was good.—The Oahuian.

THEY WANT NEW SCHOOL

Kalihi People Will Petition Superintendent Babbitt.

The Kalihiwaena schoolhouse is to be taken into politics. That is to say, the voters down Kalihi way want the new schoolhouse built as it has been planned, and so the leaders of all parties in that section will unite in petitioning the Superintendent of Public Instruction to go ahead and build the schoolhouse anyway, they in turn pledging their nominees for the Legislature that whatever deficit there is will be made good.

The Kalihiwaena school, as planned, is a handsome stone structure of nine rooms. When it was planned, the design was well within the appropriation made for it in the last Legislature—and there would have been something over for furnishing. With the San Francisco disaster, however, the prices of lumber and of all kinds of building material took an upward leap, and when it came to opening bids it was found that the contractors had made the building as planned impossible. Then, of course, it was determined to keep within the appropriation—until the political leaders began to circulate among the people and to find that they wanted the building as planned and were willing to pledge their nominees to the Legislature to make good if the appropriation fell short.

Accordingly, Superintendent Babbitt is to be asked to go ahead on the schoolhouse according to the original plans, the leading citizens and political leaders agreeing to see that the Legislature comes to his aid or to the aid of the school department in finishing it up, should it be found that the money runs out. Whether Superintendent Babbitt will accept these assurances remains to be seen. He is known to want the Kalihiwaena school, and to believe in building for the future in his department. So the people down Kalihi way hope that he will fall in with their views.

Why Should You Insure Your Life IN THE New England Mutual Life Insurance Co. Of Boston, Massachusetts?

BECAUSE it is the OLDEST AMERICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, CHARTERED 1835. This company is governed by the famous MASSACHUSETTS NON-FORFEITURE LAW. These laws have been in effect for MORE THAN FORTY YEARS. NO MASSACHUSETTS LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY HAS EVER FAILED, REINSURED, OR AMALGAMATED. It is a PURELY MUTUAL old-line Company. There are NO STOCKHOLDERS to absorb any share of the surplus. The policy is NON-FORFEITABLE after three years; ITS RATES ARE VERY LOW. DISTRIBUTIONS OF SURPLUS (DIVIDENDS) are made annually and may be used to REDUCE PREMIUM PAYMENTS, or to purchase paid-up additions to the insurance, as you may prefer. MASSACHUSETTS is the only State that exercises any directive law over the distribution of surplus to policy-holders. The Policies, having DEFINITE CASH VALUES ENDORSED on them, are MORE VALUABLE, as collateral security, than any other kind issued, as you can get your cash any year after the third you cease to need the protection. A collateral POLICY LOAN of 90 per cent. of the cash surrender value can be secured at 5 per cent. interest. Every paid-up policy CONTINUES TO PARTICIPATE in the distributions of surplus, yearly. It is a policy which PROVIDES for ALL CONTINGENCIES of the future; that is so plain and explicit that any business man can understand its provisions at a glance. There is no FINE PRINT anywhere in a New England Mutual policy. If you would be more fully informed regarding the latest forms of Life Insurance, send us your name and age and we will send you specimen policy and literature.

SATURDAY

THE WAY OF WISDOM.

A duty every party owes to itself is to nominate good men for office who have a clear chance of being elected.

It is the custom in national politics rarely to name and never to elect the leader of a faction for President.

A party succeeds when it understands the value of convention compromises. It is pretty certain to lose when it gets bull-headed about men, and it often loses as the Democratic national party did in 1892 and 1900.

Compromise, where principle is not abandoned, is the surest sign of sanity in party management.

To come to the point: Are the Republican managers of the Oahu county fight for Sheriff and the Legislature going in for sanity or bugs?

To nominate either Brown or Crabbe for Sheriff will precipitate a bolt which must either enable the Democrats to elect their man for Sheriff or aid the enemy through the trading of votes with the Republican nominee to gain control of the Legislature.

All this trouble may be avoided if the Republican managers will name some man for Sheriff whom neither faction claims but whom both respect.

THE PEOPLE AND THE TRUSTS.

Is one of the insidious forms of the opening campaign against Bryan to be seen in the announcements, which tread upon each other's heels, that this or that great capitalist prefers Bryan to Roosevelt as the next President of the United States?

The conviction that the trusts are reaching out for the absolute control of the American people is borne upon every student of affairs. It is with them a measure of self preservation.

The only safety from an oligarchy of millionaires is for the common people of the United States to be faithful to their old ideals. They must keep one of themselves, a commoner, stalwart, bold and true, in the White House and when his term is out get another like him.

Having this conception of the sane moral attitude of the Western Christian Advocate, it is with surprise that we find the following paragraph in its editorial columns:

LAW AND ORDER.

If it had happened the other day in Kansas City, Kan., that the house of Carrie Nation or some other temperance crusader had been smashed by partisans of the liquor traffic, we should have looked to the Western Christian Advocate, among other papers, for some remarks in point.

Over in Kansas City, Kan., where there are fifty saloons, they are having a convulsion something on the order of a San Francisco earthquake, though not so general and more selective in its operation.

Such news as that ought to be discouraging to every citizen who believes in law and order. If the Kansas authorities have acted in the way described they have set an example of the mob spirit far more in keeping with the methods of Carrie Nation than with the constitutional guarantees of property.

That the saloons of Kansas City, Kan.,—which place is a semi-disreputable suburb of Kansas City, Mo.,—are pretty bad there can be no doubt. But it is vastly important to wider interests than theirs that whatever rights the law gives them should be recognized and maintained.

Good luck to the Matson line between Portland and Honolulu! May it live long and prosper! There ought to be a good trade between Oregon and these islands both in tourists and merchandise.

And now Congressman Dalzell sends his regrets. We suspect that Hawaii's summer invitations to Congressmen ought to go with sworn weather statistics attached.

Guatemala and Salvador have adjourned their war for the heated term and are looking after the coffee crop.

"Col." Lake missed his vocation when he side-stepped from politics.

The primaries were lively enough to suit the most unfastidious.

It is a cold day back East when they don't have an ice riot.

It looks as if the Crabbe movement was sideways.

MAY SUGGEST A BETTER DAM

afterwards, but I cannot possibly do this. I am now under contract to build a reservoir bigger than that here for the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company and to come here at all I had to get a thirty days' leave of absence from the company, which I cannot overstay.

"I was asked at the dam today to suggest what work should be done in the interim pending the arrival of my report. This was a kind of a leading question which of course I could not answer, as I did not wish to give any intimation to anyone as to what my report would probably be.

PROBED THE "MUSH PILE."

"They had the pit over the mush pile pumped out for me today and I made an examination there. I found that I could push an iron rod down through the formation to bed rock, which is nearer the bottom of the core wall at that point than it is a few feet away.

WOULD NOT FORECAST REPORT.

In no way would Mr. Kellogg intimate the probable tenor of his findings from the examination.

"I realize how anxious the people here are to find out about the dam," he said, "but I will have to ask you to wait. The department is just as anxious to know as you are.

"It would not be fair for me to say now, for when I have arranged my notes and compared my opinions with that of the authorities on the various subjects I may find it necessary to amend what I now have in mind.

WAY THINGS HAVE BEEN GOING.

There was a little discussion at the dam during one of Mr. Kellogg's visits which illustrates the way in which some of the work there has been done, or at least the way in which the responsibility has been shifted around from one to another of those in charge.

"Oh," said Mr. Kellogg, "I thought I would ask if you had any plan to carry out in the matter, for I never saw a core wall put in in just this way and I wanted to know how to handle it.

"How are you going to keep the core wall straight and in place when you turn the water into the ditch?" asked Mr. Kellogg, springing the conundrum without any preliminary leading up.

"Well," he said, after a short pause, "that is up to the engineer in charge."

"But the engineer says it is up to you," said Mr. Kellogg.

"Well, then," answered Mr. Kenton, "I guess we're stuck."

A Valuable Book Free

Ask me to send you sealed, free, a book just completed, which will inspire any man to be bigger, stronger, younger (if he is old), and more manly than he ever felt. I am a builder of men.

I can take any weak, puny man and make him feel like a Sandow. Of course, I can't make a Hercules of a man who was never intended by nature to be strong and husky. I don't mean that.

But I can take a man who started with a fair constitution and before it got fully developed began tearing it down. That fellow is weak-nerved, slow, poky, lacking in vim, ambition and self-confidence. I can make a man of him in three months so that his own friends won't know him.

I want you to read this book and learn the truth about my arguments. If you are not as vigorous as you would like to be, if you have rheumatic pains, weak kidneys, loss of vitality, prostatic troubles, nervous spells, or any ailment of that kind that unmans you, it would assure your future happiness if you would look into this method of mine. Don't delay it; your best days are slipping by. If you want this book I send it closely sealed free if you inclose this Ad.

PRES. SMITH RECOGNIZED

Hawaiian Band Plays Compliment to Mormon Chief.

The Deseret Evening News of Salt Lake City for July 9 says:

There was a pretty exchange of compliments at Saltair last Thursday evening.

The Royal Hawaiian band, with its glee club, was rendering one of its noted "Hulas." Suddenly Kawa Lehai, one of the most expert mandolinists among the natives, nudged his nearest neighbor, and the same moment a trio of singers stepped forward, and sang a smile of satisfaction.

They bowed toward the audience—few knew why—and at the finish of the song one of them stepped forward to the conductor, Herr Berger, and whispered something into his ear. The number which followed had not been announced on the program, and it was not sung. And only one person in the audience realized that it was the beautiful melody to which the Hawaiians sing "O My Father," the famous Mormon anthem. That one person was President Joseph F. Smith. As he entered he was recognized by members of the band who were long ago converted to the principles of the Latter-day Saints Church and he alone, upon taking his seat, noticed the compliment. The respected leader sat in silence until the last of the plaintive notes had died away. Then he glanced significantly toward the musicians, and was greeted by a score or more of smiling faces; by the people who were familiar with his features, not from personal acquaintance, but from having seen his photographs, which are liberally exhibited in the Mormon chapels throughout the islands. Until the end of the concert President Smith was a deeply interested listener. His mind reverted to the days when he mingled with the fathers of these natives as a missionary.

It is well known in the Church that shortly after President George Q. Cannon had established the mission in the Hawaiian islands, President Joseph F. Smith was sent to relieve him. This occurred in 1854. But it is not known, perhaps, that nine members of the Royal Hawaiian band are sons or grandsons of the converts made by Presidents Cannon and Smith; that they have followed in the footsteps of their fathers and are considered devout saints today; that they regret their inability to attend the tabernacle services tomorrow afternoon, especially so in view of the fact that this is their first trip to Utah—the first time in fact, that any of them has traveled farther east than Portland, where the band played an engagement at the Lewis and Clark exposition.

The Royal Hawaiian band derives the title "Royal" from the fact that it was organized by King Lunailo of Hawaii about 35 years ago—long before the time of Queen Liliuokalani—as an imperial escort for his majesty. The latter was very friendly with Emperor Wilhelm of Germany at that time and had heard that he owned such an organization. A band was wanted. The natives knew no music besides their chants. The technical qualities of the art had to be supplied. So the old king laid his predicament before the friendly emperor and asked that he select somebody to teach his subjects the ins and outs of instrumental music. The emperor listened to the plea. He went so far as to take his own bandmaster from his position, grant him a good pension, and send him to Honolulu on the errand which was to give so much satisfaction to the old monarch of the islands. The task was not an easy one. Captain Berger had material that was as crude as could have been found anywhere, but which had the saving grace of an ear for music and an in-born love of harmony.

Teaching his boys the notes and cultivating their taste for standard music was as arduous as it was slow. He gave 27 lessons each day for more than 10 months, but he succeeded, at the end of that time, in establishing a military band. King Lunailo, upon hearing its music for the first time, decorated the captain with the highest honors ever paid a civilian in the islands. The mission had been performed and Captain Berger was ready to start for Germany. But he did not. Instead, there were offered which tied him to Honolulu for a period of years and during those years he worked with the same persistency and the same fine success that had characterized his work from the beginning. The result today is a band of 60 musicians which can play the "Tannhauser" overture with the same brilliancy as many of our great American bands and at the same time provide the plaintive melodies of the islands, in a manner which causes our own musicians to stand in wonderment.

Since the overthrow of the monarchy the band has filled a unique position. It is in reality a national guard institution and each of its members is idolized by the natives. Every ship that touches at Honolulu is met by the band and there is no outgoing steamer that is not serenaded just prior to its departure. It is on such occasions that the celebrated "Farewell Song," or "Aloha Oe," is rendered, and each departing native is decorated with the "lei" of flowers, or an imitation, such as are frequently seen on the streets of Salt Lake since the Hawaiians came here. At Saltair Miss Lei Lehu, the soprano, sings the solo part of the great song and she has made it very popular locally.

That there are nine members of the Mormon Church in the band of 60 musicians is no cause for astonishment when it is remembered that nearly forty per cent of the population of the islands is Mormon. The boys in the bands were all eager to reach Salt Lake, for they had received the best of treatment at the hands of the church members in their native clime and they expected the same here. That they found exactly what they expected goes without saying. On the opening day of their visit, besides the friendly crowd from the city, they renewed acquaintance with a large delegation of natives from the Kanaka settlement in Skull valley, who knew the band "by heart" and were only too glad of another opportunity to cheer its music. The organization is the pride of all Hawaiians, and before the present tour is completed will be the pride of all Americans. For it is now an American institution, using instruments and uniforms for which Uncle Sam paid, and privileged to make a trip through this country by the same distinguished old party in the high hat decorated with stars.

This trip—the first the band has ever made to the east—is largely in the interest of colonization. The object is to show the people of the east that Hawaii has risen far above the old idea that its people are not fully civilized. Every man in the organization is an American patriot, with a high sense of honor, and will resent to his heart's blood any insult cast upon his race or color. The band goes from here to Denver, where it is to be the escort of the grand lodge officers of the Elks' national convention. It then plays in Omaha for one week, in Kansas City for a like period, in St. Louis for two weeks, in Chicago for four weeks, in Buffalo for five concerts and then into Madison Square Garden, New York, for an indefinite engagement. The return trip will be made through the south.

That the Salt Lake engagement, which closes Monday, has been a success is without question. The Fourth of July attendance of 12,623—official count—is one of the best of Saltair's records, and on the 5th of July the attendance of over 3,600 established a new record at the resort for a day following a holiday. And while "figures cannot lie," the best assurance of the band's wonderful popularity here is the enthusiasm with which each of its features is received nightly at the big pavilion.

The Logan (Utah) Journal says:

The Royal Hawaiian band gave the most satisfactory band concert Logan has ever had, on Friday evening.

There are bands that execute more brilliantly the classical music that not one-fifth of the people understand, and leaders that with dancing, dervish antics and contortionists' tricks impress the public more than the leader of the Hawaiian, but when it comes to furnishing the melody that pleases the great majority of theater-goers, Captain Berger and his bunch of Sandwich Islanders, has most of them beaten to a frazzle.

Judging from the applause and the favorable comment made afterward nothing has pleased Logan amusement lovers as much as the concert in the evening, in a long time.

The band played very well indeed.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

The great discovery of this preparation in the relief and cure of bowel complaints has brought it into almost universal use. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened is pleasant to take. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and is the only remedy that will cure chronic diarrhoea. Every bottle is warranted. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Agents for Hawaii.

LOUISIANA COMMENT ON THE MOLOKAN EXPERIMENT

The Louisiana Planter says: In our Hawaiian correspondence elsewhere in this issue appears a picture of a group of men, and under it the words "Molokans who would not work."

This brief sentence contains a long story of disappointment, trouble, worry and expense. These Molokans, who come from Russia and belong to a peculiar religious sect, were brought to the Hawaiian Islands by the sugar planters there to work as plantation laborers, and the scheme embraced a colonization or community plan, the sugar men probably believing that the idiosyncrasies and unusual ideas, habits and customs of the Molokans would lead them to cheerfully embrace an opportunity for dwelling together in a community or settlement where they could follow their own social and religious theories and maintain themselves comfortably by working in the sugar cane fields. The Molokans, however, appear to have declined to work on the plantations, to have declined to live happily together as a community, and in a word, to have declined to do pretty nearly everything which the planters expected them to do.

There is probably no body of men in the world who have had more practical experience in handling and importing laborers than the sugar planters of the Hawaiian Territory. They have spent enormous sums of money experimenting with people from different localities and abundant opportunity has been given them, through their various costly experiments, to learn how to handle the genus homo of the different mental and physical types with which it has pleased the Almighty to populate the earth, and yet we find these experienced men still stumbling along, still making costly mistakes, still failing to calculate correctly the prejudices, opinions and mental vagaries of the lower strata of human kind, and it all goes to prove that the most intricate of all problems is the one which involves a correct forecast of what somebody else will do under certain circumstances and conditions, and this problem is rendered a hundred fold more difficult when we are required to gauge the thoughts of people belonging to a type different from our own.

The sugar planters of Louisiana about a year ago formed an organization of their own for immigration purposes, and considerable work has been done by this organization, and its management has tried to profit as much as possible by the experience of others, but evidence continually appears to show that any importation of ignorant persons into this or any other country must be conducted with a broad comprehension of the fact that such people are inevitably imbued with absurd notions, impracticable ideas, ridiculous prejudices, and chimerical fancies. What we think they will do is the very thing they will not do. It is impossible for us to predict with certainty that they will act in such and such a way, simply because it seems to us the only sensible way to act. The problem to be handled by the Louisiana Immigration Association, the Hawaiian Immigration Association, and all other similar organizations, is one of the most difficult in the world. The proper solution of it requires experience, good judgment, tact, skill, a profound knowledge of human nature, forbearance, perseverance, patience and hope. The doctor, the lawyer, the astronomer can go to text books for their knowledge—the immigration man can not. He must learn his lessons from the great book of Nature, and from that most complex of all its chapters which treats of the wonderful animal which is said to have been fashioned in the likeness of God himself, although most of us will be greatly disappointed if we don't find God better looking.

Those who are interested in immigration seldom realize how difficult it all is. It is an undertaking which calls for continuous effort. Those who want quick results had best go into the wheat pit or the stock exchange where the battle is lost or won in a flash of time. But there is nothing that can pay so big a dividend in our state of Louisiana as the influx of an army of willing hands to coax from her soil its latent wealth. Already notable advances, indicating early results, have been made, and we believe that one of the greatest local industrial achievements of this generation will shortly result from the careful, intelligent and persistent efforts to get immigrants, inaugurated by the sugar planters over a year ago, and since then co-operated in by other interests throughout the state.

The Guinea Pig Proved It

That dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, are caused by a germ or parasite is now recognized by dermatologists everywhere.

A notable demonstration was by Drs. Lassar and Bishop, who took dandruff scales from the head of a student who was losing his hair and having made a pomade of them with vaseline, rubbed the same upon a guinea-pig, and the pig became bald. (See George Thomas Jackson, M.D., on diseases of skin, 4th edition).

Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ that causes dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. Keep your scalp in a sanitary condition with Herpicide and extraordinary results will follow. Stops itching of the scalp instantly. Try it.

75,000 TOURISTS COMING

The Promotion Committee expects this large number of tourists to arrive and suggests that the citizens of Honolulu beautify their grounds, and particularly, to paint their residences. This large number of travelers may not arrive in one year, but some of this number will undoubtedly be here this season. A little paint applied by Stanley Stephenson, the painter, not only preserves your property, but will impress the visitors with the neatness and good taste of our citizens.

NEW TERM
CALENDAR
There Will Be Only
Sixty-One Criminal Cases.

As the criminal calendar for the coming term of the Circuit Court opens up, it promises to be one that will be cleared away very readily. A number of old cases have been wiped off, and the deadwood has been gotten out of the way. The new calendar will have on it sixty-one cases, as at present pending, classified as follows: 13, selling opium without license; 5, selling liquor without a license; 3, publishing a libel; 4, embezzlement; 1, perjury; 4, selling poisonous drugs; 1, violation of County ordinance; 1, malicious injury; 1, conspiracy; 2, murder in the first degree; 10, gambling; 1, larceny in the second degree; 4, assault and battery; 4, assault and battery with a weapon; 1, gross cheat; 2, fornication with a female under 14 years of age; 1, manslaughter; 1, robbery, and 2, vagrancy.

The most interesting cases on this calendar are those of George Waivee, Jr., and Katsutaro Takamoto, both charged with murder in the first degree; Halemano, charged with manslaughter, and George Lucas, charged with embezzlement.

The April term calendar had 108 cases on it at the opening of the term, and during the term 65 more were added to this number, making a total of 173 cases, of which no less than 112 were disposed of in various ways, as follows: 55 cases were not-prossed, two defendants forfeited bail, six withdrew appeals or had their appeals dismissed, four had sentence suspended, six were found not guilty and were discharged, 22 pleaded guilty and 17 were found guilty and were sentenced.

When the next term opens Judge DeBolt, who is the presiding judge for the term, will take the criminal calendar as well as probate, equity, divorce and jury-waived cases, until Judge Lindsay returns from the mainland, when the criminal calendar will be assigned to him. Judge Robinson will take the civil jury calendar.

DARK HORSE TALK GROWS

Von Holt and Sam Johnson Are Both Mentioned.

The men in the Republican party who think are coming to a stronger and stronger realization of the fact that too much is being permitted to be made of the fight for Sheriff. Also, there is renewed talk of dark horses to ease the tension that has arisen between Brown and Crabbe, the present candidates, and their partisans. Yesterday a party worker advanced the suggestion that Sam Johnson, present Road Supervisor, would make a good Sheriff. He would, too, but it is questionable whether he could be induced to make the fight.

The talk of Von Holt as a compromise candidate was in the air more strongly yesterday, although it is not believed that Mr. Von Holt would enter the fight unless strong pressure were brought to bear upon him. The gentleman is quoted by one of the afternoon papers as saying that he has never been consulted as to his candidacy for Sheriff, and knows nothing about it.

And there you are. Friends of Mr. Von Holt, however, have expressed the opinion that he would make the race, if it were shown to him that it was a matter of public duty. He is a good citizen, and one who believes in performing his full civic duty. There is no question whatever as to his strength or fitness.

In connection with the talk of him for the place, whether he be a candidate or not, an interesting point has arisen, and one that is new. Mr. Von Holt, in addition to his other duties, is the Consular Agent in these Islands for the Netherlands. It was suggested that his duties as such Consular Agent would interfere, or might interfere, with the performance of his duties as Sheriff.

A leading attorney of the city, however, when asked concerning this yesterday, said that he did not see how there could be any possible conflict. "Mr. Von Holt's Consular position," the lawyer said, "is a business arrangement merely, and would not in any way interfere with the performance of his official duty, nor with his eligibility. But, if he were to be elected Sheriff, good taste might suggest the resignation of the other."

If Mr. Von Holt is not going to run for Sheriff, of course this need not worry him. If he is going to, then he will probably follow the advice of an attorney of his own. At all events, the movement in the direction of a compromise candidate was more noticeable yesterday.

WHAT IT WILL DO.

A woman buys a sewing machine for what it will do; not as an article of furniture. A man carries a watch to tell him the time; not as an investment of surplus capital. The same principle when one is ill. We want the medicine or the treatment which will relieve and cure. The friend in need must be a friend indeed, something, or somebody, with a reputation. There should be no guesswork in treating disease. People have the right to know what a medicine is, and what it will do, before they take it. It must have behind it an open record of benefit to others for the same diseases, a series of cures that proves its merit and inspires confidence. It is because it has such a record that

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION is bought and used without hesitation or doubt. Its Good Name is the solid basis for the faith the people have in it; and a good name has to be earned by good deeds. In Scrofula, Anemia, Nervous and General Debility, Influenza and Wasting Complaints, it is to be thoroughly relied upon. Doctor J. L. Carrick says: "I have had remarkable success with it in the treatment of Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Catarrh and Scrofulous Affections. It is of special value in nervous prostration and depraved nutrition; it stimulates the appetite and the digestion, promotes assimilation, and enters directly into the circulation with the food. I consider it a marvelous success in medicine." Every dose effective. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by chemists throughout the world.

BROWN DOWNS CRABBE

coming Republican Convention by upholding the platform of the party and supporting the candidates nominated at said convention.

NINTH OF THE FOURTH.

Brother Jim Quinn was routed by Charlie Coster in the Ninth of the Fourth, horse, foot and dragoons, the vote being 130 to 94. There have been charges of stuffing in this precinct, but there will be no protest, according to Mr. Quinn. He says that he was fairly beaten. This is a victory for the road department over the police department, although the Coster men have declared that they are for Brown as against Crabbe. It is a fact, nevertheless, that the police here worked for the Quinn ticket, and that Sam Johnson's men were for Coster. Maybe it is a manifestation of the lack of friendliness between Quinn and Johnson.

There was about as little system for voting in this precinct as possible. Judges Will E. Fisher and E. C. Herrick stood behind the counter in what was once a pake store. Three doors opened to the street and double and triple lines were formed through them, and by the time the crowd arrived before the counter it became a mob six to eight deep. The place reeked with perspiration and only a football center rush was able to hold his place long. There was surging, crowding, jostling, and yet it was good-humored, although the criticism was unsparring for those responsible for the lack of system. Those in what was supposed to be the main line found that the judges allowed men at the rear to come up to the counter by the shortest means and cast their votes.

There were two tickets in the field. One was headed by E. G. Keen, the other by J. W. Cathcart. The remainder of the ticket had men of both factions represented. For instance, Jack Kuamoo was on one ticket for first vice president and on the other for second. Buffandeau was on the Cathcart ticket for secretary, Kalimapehu for the same office on the Cathcart ticket. E. C. Brown had a walkover for treasurer, and began taking in money long before the voting finished. C. F. Peterson was on both tickets for one of the three judges. Noa and Dillingham were on both tickets as two, out of five for the executive committee. It was not so much a question in the Tenth as to Brown and Crabbe divisions, but as to whether a man was for Brown or not. Brown had plenty of workers in the crowd. It was 9 o'clock when the voting came to an end. The official list of registered voters for the 10th precinct, which was used at the last election, showed 314 names. The two tickets in the field last night were:

President, E. G. Keen; first vice president, Jack Kuamoo; secretary, John Komo Kalimapehu; assistant secretary, Chas. Kaano; treasurer, E. C. Brown; judges, C. F. Peterson, Geo. Malle, Judge Whitney; executive committee, Wm. Noa, Chas. L. Hopkins, W. F. Dillingham, Fred L. Waldron, Geo. P. Denison.

President, John W. Cathcart; first vice president, John Enos; second vice president, Jack Kuamoo; secretary, E. Buffandeau; assistant secretary, Chas. Kaano; treasurer, E. C. Brown; judges of election, Henry Hickey, C. F. Peterson, George Malle; executive committee, George Makalema, Clem K. Quinn, W. H. Charlock, Jr., Wm. Noa, W. F. Dillingham.

There were 185 votes cast, 12 being thrown out, and the Cathcart ticket won by 103 to 70.

FIRST OF THE FIFTH.

President, F. Pahia; vice president, Joe Roberts; second vice president, Nakapua; secretary, P. McKeague; treasurer, Kulkahi; judges, Alkue, Lelawai, Akawa; executive committee, John Bell, Puniahele, Manuia, P. Kanaahale, D. Watson.

SIXTH OF THE FIFTH.

In the Sixth Precinct of the Fifth District there was no contest. The former officers were renominated. Judge Hookano is the president.

SEVENTH OF THE FIFTH.

Henry Vida laid out his friend Mahelona in the Seventh of the Fifth, where the red and white tickets came strongly into play. In fact, this dodge of the red and white tickets was pretty generally worked all over town. It was this way. The Brown tickets, in the close precincts, were printed on bright red paper. The Crabbe-Achi tickets were on white paper. Where a man was known to be for Brown, he got a red ticket. Where he was not known, and may be did not want to be known, he was given a white ticket. And so the Achi men sat back and chuckled with glee as they saw the white tickets going in—and continued to chuckle until the votes were counted.

ed. Then they discovered, to their chagrin that all the tickets were not as white as they seemed, from their point of view.

The Vida-Brown ticket in the 7th of the Fifth was as follows: President, E. J. Crawford; first vice president, J. K. Kaana; second vice president, J. W. Holoua; secretary, D. P. Hamle; assistant secretary, G. Wright; treasurer, C. B. Mailer; judges, M. Punahou, L. J. Feary; executive committee, J. Kalana, J. K. Kauli, D. K. Kamakua, C. Haloua and Charles Kaulukukulu.

The vote was 133 to 57.

EIGHT OF THE FIFTH.

John Lane showed that he could carry the precinct against Achi, with only the help of the police department. His ticket scored 215 votes to 81 for the Crabbe-Achi combination. The precinct officers therefore will be: President, A. S. Kalopuu; first vice president, D. Kama; second vice president, J. Kanono; secretary, A. G. Kaulukou; treasurer, N. Fernandez; executive committee, S. C. Dwight, R. C. Lane, H. J. Auld, E. W. Kawalaena, R. M. Duncan; judges, A. K. Aona, Antone Fernandez, Chas. Dudoit.

NINTH OF THE FIFTH.

Jack Kalakieki went down to defeat before what is avowedly an unpledged ticket in the Ninth of the Fifth because he acknowledged that the fortunes of Crabbe were in his keeping. The meeting of the club was large and enthusiastic, and in the attendance the better element was represented very largely. E. T. P. Waterhouse moved that the president be balloted for separately and the motion carried. A number of speeches were made, one of them to the effect that the members of the club should vote for the Pihana ticket because the head of it had said that he was unpledged, whereas Kalakieki had owned himself a Crabbe man. This speech was applauded, and when the suggestion was made that the good of the party would be served by the nomination of some other man than either Brown or Crabbe for Sheriff, and when the name of Harry von Holt, who was present, was mentioned in this connection, the house fairly went wild. The voting was orderly. One hundred and ninety-eight votes were cast, of which the Pihana ticket received 122 and the Kalakieki ticket 76. The club officers elected are:

President, A. St. C. Pihana; second vice president, Antone W. Seabury; secretary, L. K. Ka-ne; assistant secretary, Carl Ontai; treasurer, Fred T. P. Waterhouse; judges, Lyle A. Dickey, William E. Pakuli, William Ahia; executive committee, B. H. Kelekolio, A. Mackintosh, B. K. Ka-ne, S. L. Kekumano, Kaahue.

TENTH OF THE FIFTH.

The Brown ticket carried the Tenth of the Fifth, 186 to 156, the following being elected: President, S. Malelua Pahia; first vice president, J. K. Kane-pua; second vice president, Chang Chan; secretary, Eugene Aiu; assistant secretary, C. Kama; treasurer, D. H. Akawai; judges, C. A. Bishaw, E. P. Reuter, C. Kane; executive committee, C. Kaneoka, A. K. Naipo, C. Opanui, W. Kaka, S. B. Mahelona.

ELEVENTH OF THE FIFTH.

Ben Zablan's banner floats triumphant over the Achi forces in the Eleventh of the Fifth, the vote there being 87 to 71. There was no disorder, the voting going very smoothly. The following is the ticket chosen: President, B. P. Zablan; first vice president, L. P. W. Kaneali; second vice president, Samuel A. Macy; secretary, George Lucas; assistant secretary, James A. Lloyd; treasurer, Arthur P. Knight; judges, Peter Kealakaionua, Chas. Elvin, Lot. P. Fernandez; executive committee, Isaac L. Cockett, David Kanuha, A. L. Perry, S. F. Rice, James Kupihe.

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health Is the Great Source of Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant duty.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, irregularities or the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality.—Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman. If you have any symptoms you don't understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

On her first direct voyage from Portland to Honolulu, the first trip which is to establish a permanent Portland-Honolulu run, the Matson steamship Hilonian arrived in port yesterday and docked at the Oceanic wharf.

The departure of the vessel was made a gala event and a large number of business men were aboard at a luncheon given by the captain. The Portland business men are interested in the new run as they have gone seriously into the business of establishing trade relations with Honolulu.

The Portland Oregonian of July 12 gives the following account of the Hilonian's departure: That Portland business men have commenced to take notice of the establishment of a line of steamers between Portland and Hawaii was evidenced at noon yesterday, when a number of prominent local merchants assembled at Columbia Dock No. 1, and accepted the hospitality of Agent M. M. J. Lindsey and Captain Peter Johnson, on board the Hilonian.

The Hilonian left last evening for the Islands with hardly as large a cargo as her owners desired, but considering that this is the first attempt the operators express themselves as confident that Portland will eventually rise to the emergency and produce enough freight to make the venture a profitable one for shipowner and merchant.

At the luncheon on the vessel the feeling was freely expressed that the local merchants would come to the front nobly and make a strong bid for the island trade. Several of the guests present made speeches to this effect, and their remarks were received with the greatest satisfaction by Agent Lindsey and Captain Johnson.

The principal speaker at the luncheon was W. A. Mears, secretary of the Oregon Wholesale Grocers' Association and North Pacific Coast Jobbers' Association who said in part:

"The Islands have for years been accustomed to look to San Francisco for their commodities, which has proved somewhat of a drawback to the inauguration of competition on the part of this city. We have had the Islands in view for several years, and several propositions have been broached with a view to landing some of the trade, but these always fell through on account of the lack of interest or because there was no available craft to transport the wares to the Islands.

COMPANY MEANS BUSINESS.

"Mr. Lindsey, the local agent of the Matson Navigation Company, has shown us that his company means business, for whenever a firm sends a vessel of the Hilonian type to a port it means that they are anxious to impress the merchants and shippers with the possibilities of their company, and we readily realize that this vessel cannot be operated on promises.

"The association of which I am secretary is to have a meeting next Wednesday for the purpose of considering plans for the systematic canvassing of the Islands for trade with this city. In all probability the association will send a delegate to the Islands on the next trip of the Hilonian, and this party will be instructed to investigate the conditions thoroughly and report immediately to the local organization. The residents of Hawaii do not realize that most of the furniture, farming implements and lumber products come from this city by way of San Francisco, and if this can be impressed upon them it is certain that they will patronize the local end of the line."

Captain Johnson replied to Mr. Mears, advising the local merchants to do their best in the way of presenting their advantages to the Islanders, and extended an invitation to the representatives of the association to make the trip on the vessel on the present voyage. Owing to the short notice it was found inconvenient to send anyone on this voyage. The guests assured Captain Johnson and Agent Lindsey that on the next trip one of their members would be sent to the islands to look over the situation and report the conditions.

CAPTAIN JOHNSON'S GUESTS.

Those who were at the luncheon yesterday were W. A. Mears, F. A. Spencer, I. Lang, L. Lang, E. Ehrman, S. C. Kerr, Lloyd J. Wentworth and Fletcher Linn. Captain Johnson and Agent Lindsey acted as hosts of the occasion, and the guests departed with high praise for the vessel's accommodations and their genial hosts.

The Hilonian sailed at 8 o'clock last evening and will return about the latter part of the month. She carried a trifle over 500 tons of freight from Portland and about twice that amount from San Francisco, but by the next visit it is hoped that she will have a full cargo.

Captain Johnson states that the Hilonian brought about 1000 tons of general cargo this trip. She will load in about 1700 tons of refined sugar at this port and 2200 tons of raw sugar at Hilo, besides some bananas. About half of the refined sugar will be carried to Portland for distribution. The Hilonian will leave for Hilo on Wednesday.

A-H. BOATS AT PORTLAND.

At last the management of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company has discovered that it might not be out of the way for its steamships Nevada and Nebraska to touch at Portland on their triangular run between San Francisco, Seattle and Honolulu, and according to a telegram received this morning the Nevada will be here on the evening of the 16th of this month. She will be followed by the Nebraska.

All kinds of pressure has been brought to bear upon the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company during recent years to have the steamers make Portland a port of call, but until today the response has been in the nature of vague promises only. A few weeks ago the announcement was made that by the first of next year Portland would be placed on the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company's map. Meanwhile the Matson Navigation Steamship Company was induced to place the steamer Hilonian on the run, with the intention of operating her on a monthly schedule. The Matson Navigation Company has carried out its part of the contract so far and the Hilonian will sail this evening on her first voyage from Portland.

With the inauguration of the new line the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company suddenly discovered that it could send its boats to Portland before the first of January next and rushed the information by wire to the C. F. Beebe Company, the concern's local agent. Mr. Beebe has done everything in his power to have the steamers call here, but according to information recently received from the East the American-Hawaiian people had all the business they cared to handle and so they saw no particular use in developing the trade of Portland.

The announcement of the coming of the steamers created no great commotion in shipping circles this morning, because there is no crying need for bottoms now that the Hilonian is in commission, although the news of an increase in the deep-sea fleet was received with satisfaction.

The Nevada and Nebraska are large steamers and will be able to handle the overflow from the Hilonian, should special dispatch be desired. Connecting with the steamers from New York, the Nevada and Nebraska will also give what may be termed a direct service between Portland and the Atlantic coast with a saving of time. On account of the tieup of the San Francisco liners Barracouta and Costa Rica large quantities of freight from New York have been accumulating at the Bay City and Mr. Beebe announced this morning that the Nevada would bring about 700 tons on her first visit.—Portland Journal.

EARTH BALLAST NOT WANTED.

Twelve hundred tons of earth ballast in the hold of the American ship Atlas, brought here from Yokohama, must be dumped overboard at sea, and this will require that the boat be towed outside the channel to deep water. The Atlas is a Standard Oil boat and that company, represented by an attorney, as well as Capt. Amberman of the Atlas, protested against this order of the authorities. But in the end it was apparent that although the Standard Oil owns a good part of the earth as well as that in the Atlas' hold, it couldn't run things here. The result is that the captain decided to do as the authorities ordered. He said he was fearful that his ship would turn turtle. He was advised then to take in sugar as stiffening before discharging the earth. This advice will be followed. The expense to Captain Amberman will be in the neighborhood of $1000. It will take about six days to discharge the ballast. Neither Yokohama earth or Shanghai mud brought here as ballast can be discharged ashore. This is a health precaution.

SHIP NOTES.

The S. S. Californian departed from Kahuhi for Hilo on Thursday. The Iroquois reached Midway on Thursday, but could not enter Welles Harbor owing to rough weather over the bar. The schooner Rosamond took as cargo for San Francisco 29,307 sacks of sugar. The old Waiuenuue wharf at Hilo is to be removed. Young Bros' wharf office has been erected on the Fort street wharf, where the official launch-landing is to be established.

One thousand bunches of bananas comprised part of the S. S. Enterprise's cargo for San Francisco from Hilo. The steamer also took up five passengers. The Customs force is looking forward to a lot of work in making the refund to the sake importers, should the decision of Judge Morrow be permitted to stand.

The barkentine Coronado, Captain Potter, arrived from San Francisco yesterday morning, fourteen days out. She brought 1100 tons of freight. The Coronado is at the Fort street wharf.

Albert F. Spees, lately a member of the 10th Infantry at Camp McKinley, and before that an enlisted man in the navy attached to the torpedo-boat destroyer Preble, was sent to San Francisco yesterday on the transport Logan. Spees is a deserter from the navy. After leaving the Preble he joined the army. Dissatisfied with his land life he notified Major Van Vleet that he was a naval deserter and was turned over to the navy for disposition.

HAWAIIAN STAMPS WIN GOLD PRIZE AT LONDON

The New York Sun says: The set of Hawaiian stamps owned by Henry J. Crocker of San Francisco, which recently won a gold cup at the London Philatelic Exhibition, is one of the most complete of its kind and is valued by its owner at $42,000. The collection embraces every one of the stamps ever issued by Hawaii and also nearly all the minor varieties, including a full set of the missionary stamps.

The rarest of the last named series is the two cent stamp issued in 1851. Only two copies are known, one being Mr. Crocker's and the other being in the British Museum. It is valued at $4,000, and, next to the 1856 British Guiana stamp, of which there is only one copy known, is the greatest stamp rarity in the world. Mr. Crocker paid $3750 for his specimen.

The stamp owes its scarcity to the fact that the day after its issue the Honolulu postoffice was destroyed by fire. The two existing specimens were found, it is said, pasted on the wall of a room in Honolulu.

Another great rarity of Mr. Crocker's collection is the one cent denomination, which, through an oversight of the printer, went through the press without the "1 Cent" at the bottom. There are only two specimens of this stamp known. They are valued at about $200 each.

Of the rare missionary stamps Mr. Crocker has ten of the early five and thirteen cent varieties. These stamps are all typeset. Another feature is a strip of three thirteen cent missionary stamps. It is believed that there is not another instance of these stamps having been preserved in this condition.

Some of the missionary stamps are borne by the original letters, which gives much additional value, and they are easily worth from $1000 to $1500 each.

Hawaiian stamps are noted among collectors for the many rarities in the series, and nearly every one of the forty-five varieties or more which were issued from 1851 to 1865 is now held at a high premium. Even the error stamps of the Provisional Government of 1893 are held at a high figure, being worth $100 apiece. Of these error stamps Mr. Crocker has a strip of three five cent stamps, ultramarine in color, imperforated horizontally, which are worth $300.

The stamps of the first issue of 1851 embraced eight different varieties of denominations—two, five and thirteen cents. They were all typeset and almost square in shape. The design was very plain. Inside of a border of rule was a smaller square of ornamental border, and in the center of this was the numeral of value.

At the top of the rare two cent missionary stamp are the words, in two lines, "Hawaiian Postage." At the bottom, spelled out, is the value, "Two Cents." Within the ornamental border is a large figure 2.

The thirteen cent stamps include two varieties, much the same in design as the foregoing except that at the bottom is "13 Cents," with a small ornamental character between the "13" and the "Cents." This stamp is worth about $750.

The second variety of the same denomination at the top bears the inscription "H. I. & U. S. Postage" in two lines. Between the "13" and "Cents" at the bottom is a character resembling a four dotted die, and from this fact the specimen is known as the "Dice Stamp." It is worth $1000. In the center is a large figure 13.

The five cent missionary stamp was of the same general design as the other two, with the difference in the denomination. It is worth in the neighborhood of $1000.

It is said that a full set of this first issue of Hawaiian stamps, including all the varieties, is worth nearly $10,000.

In 1853 entirely new stamps were issued. These bore the portrait of King Kamehameha III. The thirteen cent variety with the "5" surcharged is worth fully $500. It is supposed that this figure was placed upon the stamp to show that the postage remained unpaid.

In 1855 stamps of 2 cents denomination, bearing King Kamehameha IV's portrait, were issued. They were lithographed in Boston, as were those of the 1853 issue.

Stamps somewhat similar to the first issue of 1851 came out in 1859. This new issue was typeset and not so ornamental as those of the first typeset series. They include many varieties, differing slightly.

They were shaped like those of the first issue, the border being of thin rule. Within this, close up, was another square of fine rule. The top of the stamps bore the word "Interisland." On one side were the words "Hawaiian Postage," while on the other was "Uku Leta," meaning postage. At the bottom was "2 Cents."

These stamps lack every quality—except scarcity, for, from their inartistic and unattractive make-up, there is nothing else to recommend them to a collector. Yet they are eagerly sought by stamp collectors.

Many varieties of this same general design of typeset stamps were issued until 1865. The "Interisland" stamps were used to repay postage between the islands forming the Hawaiian group, and up to 1859 all such mail was carried free. The cancellations borne by the stamps were pen written by the masters of the vessels plying between the islands.

One and two cent stamps in black and five cents in blue were printed in sheets of ten each in 1865, and of these there are many varieties, these consisting of slight differences, principally the dropping of a letter here and there. One variety shows "nter" instead of "Inter," another "Potage" in place of "Postage." Genuine copies of these stamps are hard to get, and are quoted at $30 each for the one cent and $45 for the two cent denomination. It is said that the original forms of both denominations were found in a Honolulu printing office, and that a great number of sheets were run off and sold as originals.

The stamps issued from 1851 to 1891 are those of the Kingdom of Hawaii. The Provisional Government stamp issues were during the year 1893, while the 1894 stamps have been issued by authority of the Republic of Hawaii. In 1894 it is said that all the dies and plates of the stamps of Hawaii were destroyed at the office of the American Bank Note Company in this city, there being present besides the company's officials the Hawaiian consul.

Mr. Crocker owns one of the most general and complete stamp collections in the United States, the value of which has been placed as high as $250,000. In the great San Francisco fire he lost stamps valued at $75,000. Of the total of forty-eight books which contain his collection eleven were destroyed, having been at his office at the time. The rest were at his residence and escaped.

THE CALIFORNIA EARTHQUAKE.

To get an idea of the violence of the shock, remember that at Fort Ross the hard rock crops out on the surface; then clasp your hands, pull apart with all your strength and let go suddenly. That is exactly what occurred on a continental scale. On the Call ranch the ground was snatched from under a young man with such violence that he was thrown backward upon his shoulder.

ANCIENT ORDER HIBERNIANS,
DIVISION NO. 1.

Meets every first and third Wednesdays, at 8 p. m., in C. B. U. Hall, Fort street. Visiting brothers cordially invited to attend.
F. D. CREDON, Pres.
J. P. QUINN, Sec'y.

ders. A one-story frame house, exceedingly strong and well built, which rests on groundslis, was slung eight feet away from its foundation. Gas poured from the crack, withering the grass along the edges, causing nausea, sickness, and vomiting among those who inhaled it. One rancher claimed that his cow vomited, which might very well be true, as the fissure ploughed through the milk-yard and split the herd. The same man maintains that high tide does not come within a foot of its old level along the Fort Ross coast. If this be true—and proof should be easy, as the United States Coast Survey established benchmarks on the rocks some years ago—it is the most significant, pregnant fact of all the earthquake phenomena. For it proves an uplift, confirms the theory that the Pacific coast is undergoing slow upheaval.—Harper's Weekly.

BERG--GJERDRUM

A pretty noon wedding was solemnized on Tuesday at "Rosebank," the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Nuuanu Valley, Mrs. Adele Folkers Berg becoming the bride of Kristian J. Gjerdrum, of Hawaii. In the presence only of intimate friends, Rev. Henry Parker performed the ceremony which made them man and wife. Miss Irmgard Schaefer attended the bride as maid of honor, and Mr. J. W. Waldron served the groom as best man.

Following the ceremony a delicious wedding luncheon was served after which the couple departed for Haleiwa. On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gjerdrum departed on the steamer Helene for Hawaii. The decorations at the Schaefer home were superb, easter lilies, gardenias and jasmine forming the garnishments of the drawing-room where the wedding took place, and for the table.

Mr. Gjerdrum is manager of Honoukaa sugar plantation.

IMITATING THE

"And the burden of my soul rolled away, rolled away," rang the chorus in shrill childish voices, punctuated with the clapping of tiny palms, as a procession of Chinese children, none over five years old, filed out of one of the side alleys on Nuuanu street and formed itself into a circle on the street.

To the end of the song the handclapping and the pounding of imaginary tambourines continued, when a tiny betrothed maiden of the tenements toddled to the center of the ring and began the recital of her "experience." The children were playing "Salvation Army," a favorite pastime on Nuuanu, and carried through their play in a deliciously lifelike caricature of the real thing. Even the grown-ups who watch the little ones at their game could see the imaginary banners borne aloft, hear the big drum mark the time for the marchers and the tinkle of the tambourines in the hands of the lassies, as they are shaken in the choruses.

Every evening, before the visit of the sand man, this scene is repeated and the march of the children is looked forward to by all the Chinese storekeepers and loungers between Hotel and King on Nuuanu. In this section the regular marchings and music of the Salvationists are the most impressive things seen by the children and are reproduced in their play as faithfully as the mainland boys circle in the tank-bark after the visit of the circus.

HOLLOWAY IS SERVING THREE MASTERS NOW

"Object!" said Governor Carter yesterday when told that Superintendent of Public Works Holloway is now a Federal official, a Territorial official and a County official.
And yet that is precisely the status that has been achieved by the Superintendent, who is withal one of the most modest and unassuming men in public life here. Mr. Holloway, in at least two of these regards, has had greatness thrust upon him. That is to say, he may have wanted to be Superintendent of Public Works. He did not want to be put into the class of Federal officials, and did not know that he had been until the passage of the Hilo Public Building Bill by Congress put him there. Now the County of Oahu makes him a Park Commissioner, and his triune troubles begin.
