THE WAR SCARE A GOOD THING FOR THE ISLANDS

McClellan Started the Debate Which Brought Out the Taft Letter---Delegate Kalanianoale Ill---Harbor Improvements.

(Mail Special to the Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 31.—There has been a great to do here in recent days about appropriations for fortifying Honolulu. A scare has been abroad about a probable war with Japan and a letter by Secretary Taft to the Senate Committee on appropriations, asking for additional appropriations for fortifying Pearl Harbor, has been much quoted as an indication of the feeling that Japan is waiting for a favorable moment to open fire. The situation is set forth in the following article which appeared this morning in the Washington Post:

"Is there a war cloud in the far East? Has any Oriental power been conducting itself in such a way as to arouse the suspicions of the War Department? If not, members of Congress were asking each other yesterday, why should Secretary Taft, in a letter to Chairman Allison, of the Senate Committee on Appropriations, urging more funds for the protection of the Hawaiian Islands, make this statement:

"'There is every reason why the fortifications at Hawaii should be made ready.'

"At the present moment there are no fortifications on these islands that could be relied on in case of war with any power. Late Tuesday the Senate passed an appropriation bill for fortifications which contained an allowance of but $100,000, which is $250,000 less than the Secretary asked for. There is now $260,000 available under last year's appropriations, and it is the Secretary's desire to expend at least $600,000 for fortifications in Hawaii. But the Secretary refrains from stating in his letter any reason why he deems it necessary to immediately fortify the Hawaiian Islands.

"The text of his letter is as follows:

"'I write to urge upon you that the appropriation for Pearl Harbor be made $350,000, instead of $100,000. We can certainly expend this in the next year and there is every reason why the fortifications of Hawaii should be made ready. Will you not bring this to the attention of your committee and the Senate? The enclosed statement from the national coast defense board, recently appointed, shows the fact. I send it to you at the suggestion of Senator Perkins.'

"The report of the national coast defense board, referred to by the Secretary, was made to the President and by him transmitted to Congress a year ago. In sending it the President himself strongly indorsed the board's recommendations, which included a sweeping revision of the plans of the old Endicott board designed to completely modernize the coast defense plans.

"The board makes a strong argument for the construction of 14-inch guns, a type now unknown in the service, instead of the present 12-inch guns, for the fortification of these points, in view of the wide channels to be protected.

"However, the defense scheme for Pearl Harbor and Honolulu as finally submitted is on the basis of the existing types of ordnance, and the board has asked for these items: Six 12-inch guns, four 6-inch guns, sixteen 12-inch mortars, costing, with their carriages and emplacements, altogether $2,544,390 submarine mines, $225,260; powder plants, $34,469 for the central, and $34,469 for the reserve; searchlights, $95,000; fire control, by which is meant an elaborate system of electrical communication, enabling the commanding officer to control the fire of all the batteries with entire precision from one point, $320,656, making the total of the estimate submitted $3,254,244."

As a matter of fact the scare has been encouraged a good deal to promote the chances of generous appropriations for the navy. The navy officers have a strong organization here and are doing all they possibly can to secure legislation that will increase the navy and also increase their own chances of promotion.

McCLELLAN'S GOOD WORK.

The Taft letter really grew out of the activity of Mr. George B. McClellan, of the Merchants' Association, to have the appropriation for fortifications at Pearl Harbor segregated from the appropriations for the Philippines. The Senate Committee on Appropriations gave Mr. McClellan a half hour's hearing on the subject and agreed with him on the wisdom of separating the items. It made an amendment in the bill, setting aside $100,000 for building emplacements in Hawaii and in the open Senate this was increased to $200,000. Senator Perkins, who had charge of the fortifications bill consulted with Secretary Taft about it and the secretary wrote the committee reiterating his request previously made that the committee appropriate $350,000 for Hawaii. The amendment making the appropriation separately for Hawaii now goes into conference, as does the amendment increasing the separate amount from $100,000 to $200,000. In any event there will be large sums for fortifications in Hawaii within the next year as there is now $268,000 available.

An effort on the floor of the House by ex-Speaker Keifer to secure an amendment appropriating $100,000 to purchase sites for fortifications in Hawaii has been misunderstood there. This grew out of an error by the Associated Press in transmitting the article. The House voted that amendment down because it was explained that the government had already purchased sites for fortifications in Hawaii and that the money now needed was for emplacements, fire control, etc.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Delegate Kalanianaole has been ill with grip for several days but was up to the Capitol yesterday and is able to attend to his Congressional duties. He has received several letters about the fortifications item.

Mr. E. C. Shorey, chemist at the Federal experiment station at Honolulu, arrived here yesterday from Honolulu, and is registered at the Shoreham. Mr. Clemons, the attorney of Honolulu, is also here. He came to Washington yesterday for the purpose of being admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States. He was presented by Mr. F. M. Hatch and then started for Vermont to visit his family there. Mr. Clemons' father is in poor health.

Mrs. Henry Waterhouse and her daughter have been in Washington for a week and gone to New York where they will meet Mrs. George Castle and may go with her on a trip to the Mediterranean, beginning February 5. If not they will return to Honolulu in about a month.

LOCAL HARBOR IMPROVEMENT.

The Rivers and Harbors bill is being considered before the House and probably will reach a vote there by the end of this week. Hilo and Honolulu are provided for in the bill, as has already been communicated to Hawaii. The language of the bill for those two projects is as follows:

"Improving Honolulu Harbor, Hawaii: Continuing improvement and for maintenance, according to the report submitted in House Document numbered three hundred and thirty-two, Fifty-ninth Congress, second session, two hundred thousand dollars: Provided, That a contract or contracts may be entered into by the Secretary of War for such materials and work as may be necessary to prosecute said project, to be paid for as appropriations may from time to time be made by law, to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate two hundred thousand dollars, exclusive of the amounts herein and heretofore appropriated.

"Improving Hilo harbor, Hawaii, in accordance with the project submitted in House Document numbered four hun-

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

Interesting Plans Are Arranged for Floral Parade.

The various committees in charge of the automobile parade are now complete with the exception of several aids, to be chosen by the heads of the committees to act on the day of the parade:

1907 FLORAL PARADE COMMITTEE.

W. F. Dillingham, Chairman.
Chas. F. Chillingworth, Marshal.
Geo. C. Potter, Assistant Marshal.
J. R. Galt, R. H. Trent, Automobiles.
R. W. Shingle, Horses and Carriages.
F. Andrade, Pa-u Riders.
Harold Dillingham, Riders other than Pa-u.
E. H. Paris, Bicycles.
Geo. P. Denison, Arrangement of Grounds.
Geo. Cooke, Social Clubs and Evening Entertainment.
Walter G. Smith, Frank L. Hoogs, Wallace R. Farrington, Publicity.
John F. Soper, Tickets.
H. P. Wood, Secretary.
A. Gartley, Promotion Committee.

There is a widespread inquiry for horses and from present indications it would appear that every available saddle horse in Honolulu and vicinity will appear in the parade.

The pa-u section will have about sixty or seventy riders and some of the streets of Honolulu were brilliant yesterday with the colors of the pa-us. Several clubs were out in force accustoming their horses to the flowing ends of the pa-u skirts. Mr. Frank Andrade has this section of the parade in charge and he has already received from the ranches along the Oahu railway more than thirty horses. They are now stabled at the Club Stables ready for the riders. It will be a vast amount of work to get these horses accustomed to carrying riders with flapping pa-us. These horses will have to be clipped,

HILO WORK NEW ONE

The $400,000 Is Probably Intended to Be Repeated.

"The following is a list of appropriations made for improvements which may be designated as new projects, although some of them are closely connected with or extensions of projects already adopted. For all of these an amount sufficient for completion has been appropriated or authorized."

So reads the preamble to the schedule in the House committee's report on the Rivers and Harbors bill which contains the two items of $200,000 each in parallel columns for Hilo harbor, one for expenditure forthwith and one for continuing contracts. Honolulu harbor's $400,900 is in the schedule of old works.

As it is generally understood that a round million dollars will be required to build the Hilo breakwater, the second sentence above no doubt refers to the latter clause of the first sentence. The works for which "an amount sufficient for completion has been appropriated or authorized" would then be those "closely connected with or extensions of projects already adopted."

Next year then, providing the $400,600 has been expended or is in course of expending under continuing contracts, Hilo harbor would come in for an additional appropriation—probably enough to complete the works—in the category of "extensions of projects already adopted." If the bill passes Congress and is approved by the President, the only anxiety remaining to be felt here is that actual work should begin. Whenever the first contract is let there will be assurance that the breakwater will be finished.

DEFENCE OF HAWAII.

The moral power of the nation, it appears, is not strong enough to guard our possession of Hawaii without heavy guns. Secretary Taft, who agrees with everybody that the Panama canal needs no fortifications, insists on speedy defences at Pearl Harbor. Having "done expanded," we must pay the cost, which promises to be increasingly heavy, with no compensating gain.—Boston Herald.

THE NEW ATHLETIC GROUNDS AT PUNAHOU

The extensive plan of building improvement now well under way at the Oahu College grounds will cost $130,000 when everything is completed. Of this from $8000 to $10,000 will be spent on a new athletic field, which will be made between the President's new house and Manoa road. The field will be a spacious one, large enough to accommodate both a football field at the end of the grounds, nearest the President's house, and a baseball diamond at the other end. In leveling off the grounds it is designed to direct the operations around the sides and ends so as to make natural seats about the field, thus forming a sort of natural Greek amphitheater out of the grounds on somewhat the same plan as at Berkeley, California. The old campus will be used by the pupils of the Preparatory school for their games.

The College has just made the purchase of the Chamberlain property on Wilder avenue on which they will construct the outbuildings in connection with their fine new dormitories, which are now well on their way to completion.

While looking after the physical and temporal welfare of their students, the increase of students which made the extra accommodations requisite at the College buildings has also made it necessary to secure a new teacher, and the authorities at Oahu College have now sent after one.

IROQUOIS GOES TO MARE ISLAND

An unauthenticated rumor of last night says that Admiral Very has ordered the captain of the U. S. S. Iroquois to be ready to sail on Tuesday next for San Francisco. The Iroquois has been here for seven years without repairs, and it will now be laid up for a couple of months at Mare Island, and will undergo a thorough overhauling.

The Troy Finish

Note the finish to any of the new collars you buy, except celluloid, and you will remark the absence of gloss. If the high finish was preferable the makers of collars and cuffs in Troy would put it on their product. Your new collars are free from it and they look better than one that has a gloss like a celluloid affair. We finish our collars without gloss and they last longer in consequence. Send some of yours to us and some to another laundry and see which gives best results.

We will call for your wash at any time. .

REPORT ON PUBLIC WORKS

Extracts From Annual Report of Supt. Holloway.

The report of the Superintendent of Public Works to the Governor for the eighteen months from July 1, 1905, to December 31, 1906, has been issued.

In the main report Mr. Holloway says the laws relating to the erecting of buildings in Honolulu are unsatisfactory, as sufficient powers are not given to the superintendent whereby he can properly safeguard the interests of the public. He believes it would also be advisable to extend the fire limits in certain directions. If the matter is not turned over to the counties, he should submit the draft of a new building law.

It might be considered that the storage of kerosene and other explosives at Honolulu and Hilo was also a matter for the local authorities, and if so the superintendent says it would necessitate a revision of the present statutes.

Water works are discussed at length. "Very few residents of Honolulu," Mr. Holloway says, "realize the narrow margin between the supply for the various districts furnished from the high pressure or gravity system and the consumption during the dry summer months.

Had the dry weather of the past summer continued it would have been practically impossible to provide a satisfactory service for the higher levels, without imposing very strict regulations entirely prohibiting the use of water for irrigation and economizing as much as possible on the domestic consumption."

These remarks lead to a discussion of the new famous storage reservoir under construction in Nuuanu Valley. Referring to the Kellogg report thereon the superintendent says:

"Possibly the most radical change made by Mr. Kellogg was the recommendation of a rock fill embankment for the outer slope across the stream. Without discussing this recommendation, I would say undoubtedly both the rock and earth fills are perfectly safe methods of construction in such a work and probably as many authorities favor one as the other. One advantage of the earth fill is the better protection offered to the wooden core wall which with the rock fill on one side is exposed more or less to the injurious effects of the atmosphere.

"It was certainly unfortunate that Mr. Kellogg was obliged to leave Honolulu before preparing his report, as the engineers in this department were unacquainted with the changes which he intended to recommend and consequently had no opportunity of discussing their advantages with him. This would have been much more satisfactory and would possibly have given us a better understanding of his reasons for certain alterations.

"Mr. Kellogg's plans have, however, been carried out as nearly in accordance with the specifications which he submitted as was possible, notwithstanding statements to the contrary by a discharged inspector."

Mr. Holloway quotes from an article by Secretary Taft on the construction of the Panama Canal, saying the passage "applies most fittingly to the attitude of persons unintelligently criticizing work on the Nuuanu dam."

HERD OF ELKS OFF FOR MAUI

With a crowd of cheering, singing, jolly men aboard, the steamer Claudine departed at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, for Maui and Hawaii ports. Amid music and the tooting of her whistles, the steamer backed out of the slip and headed out the harbor. The band of Elks who are going to Wailuku for a "social session" departed by the vessel.

From the number of men in white hats and linen dusters, it seemed as if nobody but Elks was aboard. There were a few passengers outside of the Elk bunch, but not many. And they made very little noise, as it was. That feature of the affair was negotiated by the Elks. The Elk party could be readily distinguished by the purple—the Elks color—ribbons about their white felt hats. Most of them carried canes, decorated with purple and white ribbons.

At the last instant, a trio of stalwarts dashed wildly along the wharf and up the gangway onto the steamer, bearing with them, a kicking, struggling person who evidently did not relish the idea of being shanghaied. But he had to go, for Sam Johnson was one of the crowd that had hold of him. When the struggling chap was righted on the deck, he was seen to be Clarence Waterman.

The steamer Claudine will arrive at Kahului today and the crowd will land there and proceed to Wailuku, where the "social session" will be held. The steamer Kinau has been chartered to go to Wailuku after the crowd and bring them back by 10 a. m. Monday.

Those in the Elks party were H. P. Roth, Walter Doyle, Jack Doyle, F. E. Richardson, F. E. Thompson, C. B. Hall, C. T. Granz, George O'Neill, F. W. Heilbron, Sam Johnson, James Dougherty, H. C. Easton, George Angus, G. W. R. King, R. C. Lydecker, E. L. Cutting, H. H. Simpson, E. E. Hartman, W. C. Lyons, G. A. Martin, A. Cockett, A. R. Rowat, J. C. Cohen, S. De Freest, C. H. Bellina, H. T. Moore, C. F. Murray, P. Cockett, J. H. Mackenzie, Jack Lucas, Gus Schuman, C. J. McCarthy, J. L. Horner, H. A. Wilder, E. J. Lord, M. H. Drummond, Guy Livingston, V. Hurd, W. F. Heilbron Sr., J. H. Howland, R. P. Davie, W. G. Smith, W. G. Smith, E. W. Quinn, Thomas O'Brien, A. Gartley, J. H. Fisher, H. D. Couzens, L. H. Cook, F. M. Barrere, M. H. Webb, Harry Armitage and Mr. McClellan.

HE FOUND BAD ROADS

Governor Carter Makes a Flying Visit to the City.

Governor Carter made a flying trip to town from Wailuku yesterday. He went to his office in the Capitol to turn over his mail from this week's Coast arrivals, but remained virtually incog. to official and other callers at the executive chambers. Secretary Atkinson was about the only one who got a word out of him. An Advertiser reporter saw the Governor emerge from the "robin's-egg blue" room, attired in automobile panoply, and discreetly got out of the draft raised by the precipitant departure of the flying athletic figure.

One thing the Governor found words to describe to the Secretary was the bad condition of the roads. Both he and J. R. Galt had their automobiles stalled somewhere this side of Waialua.

From Haleiwa toward Pupukea the road is in deplorable condition. Between Honolulu and Waialua generally the roads suffered great damage from the recent storms. At Kipapa gulch huge boulders came down upon the roadway. Much of the road there was washed away and if something is not done in repairs soon a considerable stretch of the highway will be utterly destroyed.

At Kaukanahon gulch, where a new road is being made, the road is so washed out that an overtopping fence is liable to fall into it. Another storm would, in the Governor's opinion, make the road altogether impassable.

Governor Carter thinks the county fathers could do a good and economical stroke of work now in saving the road by means of some ditching and necessary repairs before the conditions become worse.

shed, and put in fit shape for work next Friday.

Many of the older pa-u riders have been busy instructing the younger girls how to adjust the pa-u. There seems to be a wide difference of opinion as to what constitutes a perfect pa-u costume. This difference is due to the fact that different Hawaiian monarchs adopted slightly different costumes for their pa-u riders. Some rode without a hat and others without a cloak or kepuka. There was also quite a difference in the kepukas which were worn, some being circular capes fitted to yokes and trimmed with passementerie the material being cloth, satin or velvet and the color usually black. Another form was simply a square piece of broadcloth, usually black in color and about six feet square with a hole cut in the center through which the head was passed and the corners hung down in front, behind and one on each side. Other riders wore no cloak, but wore a short apron. There will be several clubs participating and some of these clubs will wear the same kind of pa-u. Arrangements are being made to get some very good pictures of the pa-u and other riders before the march begins. Mr. Geo. Denison expects to arrange his formation around the Capitol building in such a way that panoramic pictures and individual pictures can be taken of the automobiles, carriages and horseback riders.

Mr. Trent reports for the automobile committee that he is getting a great many entries. Several auto cars have been placed at his disposal and the committee will furnish a car for the press. The press will decorate this car and will probably enter it for a prize.

Kamehameha school proposes to decorate a car and other schools have suggested their willingness to do the same, but have not reached a final decision. An effort will be made to have the Castle kindergarten enter an auto car characteristically decorated and carrying children of several different nationalities from the school.

Mr. James R. Judd, through professional engagements, is not able to act as judge for the riding division and Mr. W. A. Greenwell will act in his place.

Harold Dillingham has taken charge of the riders other than pa-u. All the society people who own horses and ride have entered or are to enter in this division.

Five prizes have been offered for bicycles. This is a new feature of the parade this year and it is hoped that this division will add materially as a decorative feature.

The committee have had many inquiries for pictures of automobiles and vehicles in last year's parade and have arranged with Mr. Wood of the Promotion committee that any automobile owner or carriage owner who desires a picture may obtain a copy of the special number of the Paradise of the Pacific showing last year's participants.

Mr. J. F. Soper has been appointed a committeeman on tickets. Tickets for admission to the baseball park will be on sale for the stand and bleachers at regular baseball prices and there is already a great demand for the same. The tickets will probably be put on sale not later than Monday. The grandstand will be a place of advantage to see the reviews of the various sections and the presentation of the prizes.

The Roosevelt prize will be announced early next week. The committee have not yet formulated their plans regarding this feature of the parade but they hope to make it unique and give a prize that will be appreciated as a souvenir by the recipient.

At the meeting held Friday morning the following prizes were decided upon:

Inter-Island Princesses will be presented with the banners carried by the heralds who accompany them. First and second awards will be given blue and red ribbons together with cash prizes. A number of cash prizes will be awarded.

dred and seven, Fifty-ninth Congress, second session, two hundred thousand dollars: Provided, That the Secretary of War may enter into a contract or contracts for such materials and work as may be necessary to prosecute said project to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate two hundred thousand dollars, to be paid for as appropriations may from time to time be made by law, in addition to the amounts herein appropriated: Provided further, That modifications in said plan may be made in the discretion of the Secretary of War, and that no part of said appropriation or authorization shall be expended unless the Chief of Engineers, upon further investigation, shall determine that commercial benefits accruing from such expenditure will warrant the same."

PREVAILING PRAYERS

Must Meet Conditions Before Obtaining Blessings.

The last of the general meetings of the Dr. Johnston series took place last night at the Central Union church.

This afternoon Dr. Johnston will address the boys and girls of the city who are over twelve at 3:30. This does not mean that only children will be admitted. In the evening the teachers of Sunday and public schools will assemble to listen to an address on the training of young people.

Dr. Johnston said in part last evening:

"Keeping in mind the passage which Dr. Scudder has read, I desire to ask you to relate to it another chapter—second Kings and the second chapter—where Elisha follows Elijah.

"We have been studying together what seems to me to be the thought which grew out of the mind of God, and after thinking it over there seems to be just one natural question, 'What do you purpose to do about it?'

"I have been in different countries during the past year, where I have told these stories of God's work. In some parts of the world there have been no visible results. There have been other communities that have been moved by this spirit of prayer and they have set themselves to live the lives.

"The publican realized a great need, but the Pharisee had nothing more that he needed, and his case was hopeless. And so far as people are complacent in the world around them their case is hopeless, isn't it? If you were to write down now the thing that you most desire what would you write down? Here was Elisha, who realized that he must keep close to Elijah, cost what it might cost, and who had no idea of anything else. And when the great prophet asked this question, oh, what a measuring rod he put down beside the young man.

"Jesus Christ has said that same thing about asking, and He challenges us to ask. He says, 'What shall I do for you?' Just as he said to those young men. James and John came to Jesus with an entirely wrong idea about prayer. People have a wrong idea that God will give us anything if He wants to. It is a mistake. The young men were half ashamed, for they said, 'We have a favor which you must grant.' Mary you, Jesus did not tell these sons of Zebedee that they could not have those two best places; He asked them if they were able to drink His cup.

"It would be as if a medical student should go to the President and say, 'I want you to make me the best doctor in the city.' 'Why!' the President would exclaim, 'I can't make doctors out of hand that way. You will have to help.' God can not make character without character. Some people think so, but it is not so.

"We all want a place close to Christ. We all dream about the idea when we shall sit close to Him. But make it more than a dream, for a dream will not accomplish it.

"I have an idea that when He said, 'Ye know not what ye ask,' He saw James and John at Gethsemane. That was the time to be at His right hand and at His left. And I think that He saw the three crosses on Golgotha and He realized that if these two sons of Zebedee realized that this was the glory they would have been the other two men crucified with Him on the other two crosses. They thought they could have the best places without Calvary and without Golgotha. Some people's idea of heaven is that it is merely a matter of transportation, but it is a transformation.

"'Ask what I shall give you.' You remember what he asked, 'A double portion of Thy spirit.' What, Elisha, do you realize what you ask? Do you know that this heroic man of faith is the mightiest man in prayer? Do you realize that you have a large ambition?

"Deep in his heart for the blessing that could not be measured, he had the confidence that he was going to get it. 'I'll go with You all the way, cost what it may cost.' If James and John had had that spirit, knowing that to ask great things is to appreciate the conditions, they would not have asked.

"Elisha had set upon the getting everying he could from God. We must remember that our God is still divine, that He is eager still to be divine.

"I have been asked, 'Is it not sublimated, the idea that you are holding up?' I am not holding it up; it is here. 'Do you mean to say that we can practically command God through prayer?'

"God can't pour a barrel of water into a pint cup. None of us are ready to receive such a blessing as that. We haven't been emptied enough. When you ask a great thing from God, it depends upon you whether it is answered or not. If you meet the conditions you may have the blessing. If you do not meet with this condition, you will not have this blessing. As you ask anything from God, measure what it will cost, and see if you will continue in your prayer.

"There are some of us who say, 'Christ, I want to go all the way,' and after Golgotha we go to Gethsemane. He says, 'The Lord has called me to Calvary.' They don't stay. That is not the point where they can get the blessing.

"'What will ye ask of Me that I shall give you?' He is waiting to hear the answer of your own heart."

SHERIFF IAUKEA ON GAMBLING

Private Houses and Clubs Are Not Molested by the Officers.

"Some people may have gained the impression," said Sheriff Iaukea to an Advertiser reporter yesterday, "that, because so many gamblers have been taken in by the police during the last few months, the police raid every little game that takes place in Honolulu. But that is not true, and such raiding, I believe, would be illegal. It is the purpose of this department to keep this as well as other evils down as well as possible, but we will not raid a private house or a club where a gambling game is played unless complaint is made, or we get reason to believe that the game is being carried on for the sake of gain. The places we have been raiding lately are mainly notorious gambling resorts to which people have been lured, and where the game has been carried on in times past. We will address every effort to suppressing everything inimical to the interests of the State in so far as we can without trespassing on the individual liberty of the citizens. At the clubs, for example, or at private houses, several men will sit down to a game of poker among themselves, and I would feel that I had no right to interfere in such a case, unless, as I say, complaint were made. Also, the police have access to the clubs at all times, and it is very seldom, if ever, that anything underhand is carried on there. The places that we really do look after, however, are generally barricaded, and fixed so that the inmates can escape, or have a chance to do so, in case of a police raid."

PRIZE COMPETITION IN SCHOOL ORATORY

Early in January, Secretary Lyle A. Dickey of the "Sons of the American Revolution," wrote to the principals of the High, St. Louis and Kamehameha schools and Oahu College, offering prizes of $20, $15, $10 and $5 to the schools that would present to the society the best orations in the order of prizes on "Patriotism."

After a little discussion between the various principals, it was decided to ask the society to modify their offer, and give ten dollars to each of the four schools, instead of giving one large prize to the best of the four. The society agreed, and the pupils of the various schools wrote essays on "Patriotism" and submitted them to a committee of judges appointed by the principals. At Punahou Miss Florence Hoffmann was unanimously declared to have the best paper in that institution, but at the High school the judges found it a very difficult matter to decide. They finally narrowed their choice down to six pupils and it was decided to let these six speak their orations before the school and let the pupils decide as to who had the best. Two of these six declined to participate in this contest, leaving four, Wa Chau, Chang Loy, Helen Brown and Agnes Cassidy, who spoke their essays yesterday afternoon. By a majority of 108 votes, or almost unanimously, Miss Cassidy was chosen to represent the High school amid uproarious applause of the students.

Kamehameha and Saint Loius are yet to be heard from, but, as these are both exclusively masculine schools, two boys will compete with two young ladies for the honors of the evening.

THE VALENTINE DANCE OF HIGH SCHOOL SOPHS

"The Sophomore class of the Honolulu High School requests the pleasure of your company at a Valentine dance to be given in Commercial hall on Friday, Feb. 15th, at eight o'clock," so the dainty little invitations written in purple and gold, the class colors, read.

And at eight o'clock, a record breaking crowd attended the "Valentine dance" for the Sophomores have a reputation of being good entertainers and, as their parties are few and far between, everybody makes a point of attending, whenever there is one.

One could hardly recognize grim old Commercial hall last evening, for under the skilful management of Misses Florence Towse and Edith Smith, assisted by Messrs. Dan King and Harold Johnstone, the hall looked like a fairy bower or rather like Cupid's own home. Stretched from one corner of the room to the other were little white hearts suspended from strings of red crepe. Little hearts, middle-sized hearts and big hearts shone bravely from the walls and windows, while festoons of maile and stalks of the umbrella plant had places of honor in the corners.

In the rear of the room, eleven white hearts, bearing letters which spelled the words "Naught Nine" on them, flanked the H. H. S. banner.

While dancing was indulged in, it was by no means the only amusement which the Sophomores had planned for their guests. A postoffice with Scott Pratt as postmaster, furnished valentines to all who were present.

Miss Ethel Carter presided over the punchbowl.

THE SENATE CHAMBER

Upper House Will Not Take the Lower Floor.

The Senate will hold its sessions in the office of the Secretary of Hawaii. This was definitely settled yesterday afternoon in a consultation held by Secretary Atkinson with the President designate of the Senate, E. Faxon Bishop.

Earlier in the day Chief Clerk Manuel Cook and assistants were pulling things apart in the Public Works office, formerly the royal banqueting hall, in preparation for vacating the premises to give the Senate a chamber for holding its sittings during the ensuing session of the Legislature. Suddenly the order was changed, the disjoined fixtures were replaced and the quiet of clerical routine again reigned.

There was a meeting of the Senators now in town held yesterday morning, when a preference for a chamber upstairs was strongly declared. The native members were especially averse to the Public Works office. And, curiously, their reason was the very thing that had been urged on behalf of that place—that is, proximity to the hall of the House of Representatives, the old throne room, directly across the main hallway. These Senators did not wish to be on the same floor with the Representatives. They objected that the sessions of the Senate would be liable, in that situation, to unnecessary visits of the members of one branch of the Legislature to the chamber of the other.

Doubtlessly, though the details of the discussion have not been divulged, some of the Senators felt that the juxtaposition of the two chambers might facilitate an undesirable amount of reciprocal buttonholing and lobbying between the members of the two branches.

It was hoped by Governor Carter and Secretary Atkinson that the Governor's private office—"the robin's-egg blue chamber"—would be acceptable to the Senators. This because more convenient arrangements for the business of the executive departments could, under that plan, be made than if the Senate took the Secretary's office as in the sessions of 1903 and 1905. On leaving to return to Waialua at 4 o'clock the Governor left the matter entirely with the Secretary to adjust.

Secretary Atkinson promptly sought a consultation over the wire with Senator Bishop, who while being sought called at the Secretary's office. The matter was quickly decided. Senator Bishop having stated that the Senators desired no place upstairs except the Secretary's office, Mr. Atkinson wasted no time in discussion, but cheerfully answered that the Senators should have it as they wished.

So the Secretary's office will be prepared for the reception of the Senate before the opening of the Legislature on Wednesday next. The desks of members were placed in the upper hallway of the Capitol yesterday ready for putting in position in whatever room might be designated.

Secretary Atkinson will have the knockdown crib he occupied for the 1905 session erected again on the veranda back of the Governor's office for his occupancy during the ensuing session. The location has a sunny exposure that harmonizes with the genial disposition of the tenant.

SUPERVISORS TO GRANT LICENSES

The attorneys who have had charge of the drafting of the bill for the liquor dealers have submitted their draft to the committee in charge, which accepted it with a few additions. The bill in its revised form differs in several particulars from that originally proposed. In one section is embodied a proposal to give the Board of Supervisors the power to grant and revoke licenses. The following section covers this:

Licensing Board.—There shall be and there is hereby constituted in each of the several Counties of the Territory of Hawaii a Board of Liquor License Commissioners, which in each County shall consist of the duly elected and qualified Supervisors for the time being of such County. Each Board of Liquor License Commissioners so constituted for each County is hereby vested with the power, authority and discretion to grant liquor licenses to be granted upon premises solely within the geographical limits of its County to applicants complying with the provisions of this Act.

The affirmative vote of a majority of each of such Boards shall be sufficient to determine any question coming before it for decision under this Act.

It furthermore provides that the Board, on having charges before it against some license holder, shall give the licensee a copy of the charges and set a date for a hearing, after which it may revoke his license. There will be no appeal from this decision. The idea is to hasten such trials, and to escape the red tape of the courts, as well as to provide against offenders escaping on technicalities.

Other new sections make it a misdemeanor to sell liquor on credit to be consumed on the premises where sold. This was inserted at the suggestion of Judge Whitney.

It is also made an offense for a minor to misrepresent his age in order to obtain liquor.

In addition to these the following new section has been added:

"Any woman or minor visiting the premises occupied by the holder of a saloon license for the purpose of purchasing intoxicating liquor is guilty of a misdemeanor, and any person encouraging or inciting any woman or minor to so visit such premises shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

THE QUEEN PAYS CLAIMS IN FULL

That the people of the Pacific Coast, especially of California, have learned to appreciate the value of first-class insurance (the difference between merely a policy and indemnity) as a result of the San Francisco conflagration of April 18th last, is shown by the following figures, which tell their own story:

KING OF ALL COUGH MEDICINES.

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Connecticut, U. S. A., who has been in the United States Service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects. We are never without it in the house. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

Practically all of the 2773 acres of government land at Pupukea and Paumalu, Koolau, Oahu, sold in homestead allotments about two years ago is under pineapple cultivation. There are about twenty settlers in the colony, the places of a few who dropped out having been taken by others. Commissioner Pratt made the terms of sale such as to guard against speculation in the land.

SATURDAY : : : : : : FEBRUARY 16.

THE VOICE OF A TORY.

It is charitable to suppose that Mr. de la Vergne, in writing to the New York Sun adversely to the small farm movement here, did so in good faith. It is a number of years since he was in Hawaii and during that time many things have been proved about farming which, in his day, were thought to be iridescent dreams. No doubt he is unconscious of the fact that the Wahiawa small farm experiment has succeeded and that the incoming crop of pineapples there and elsewhere in the group will equal the entire pineapple demand of the United States as it was three or four years ago. Probably he would be astonished to know the showing made by sisal, the quality of tobacco now raised and the amount of money that is being invested in rubber. Were Mr. de la Vergne to drop into Hawaii now, a condition not a theory would confront him; and that condition would bear exceedingly hard upon the statements he has made to the Sun.

We can hardly forgive Mr. de la Vergne, however, for the statement that there is any intent or desire to substitute farms for plantations and that there is no room for farms—no "smiling, fertile vacancy of land." The gentleman, if memory still holds a seat in his distracted globe, ought to have known better than that. The small farmer is not seeking cane land but land of a much lower price. That there is plenty of it may be inferred, if a man has no personal data to rely upon, from the fact that the Hawaiian Island contains 4,127,000 acres, but 200,000 acres of which are devoted to sugar cane. Are we to accept Mr. de la Vergne's theory that almost all the land of Hawaii which has been boasted of so long is agriculturally worthless? Can we do more than to wonder that an intelligent man could ignore all the proof to the contrary?

Mr. de la Vergne argues that the absence of a local market would prove fatal to small farming. But what has a local market to do with what is called small farming here? May not coffee and sisal, pineapples and tobacco, vanilla and bananas, get along without a local market as well as sugar does? These crops are growing in the islands now and finding a market on the mainland, the pineapples and bananas a large one, the coffee an increasing one, sisal the same and tobacco and vanilla a market equalling the supply.

As to the suggestion that land speculation is at the bottom of the small farm movement—a movement of which the President of the United States is sponsor, Sanford B. Dole a warm advocate and the United States agricultural officers here are moving spirits, that may be passed with a smile. But in that connection one may wonder what is the ultimate purpose of centering vast tracts in private hands for no specific agricultural purpose? Is that done by way of providing against the time when the tide of immigration will break all barriers and flood us whether or no and farmers may be compelled, for their presumption, to pay fancy prices for land that is now cheap?

THE PURE FOOD LAW.

One notices in provender for sale about town that the Pure Food law as respects descriptive labels and the like has not been complied with and that no effort is being made by the Federal law authorities to enforce the statute. The reason, as given by Dr. H. W. Wiley in The Pharmaceutical Era, is one of administrative detail. The law is supposed to have been effective on January 1, 1907, but no appropriation had been made at that time to pay the expenses of enforcement. Some is now available for the remainder of the fiscal year but before actual inspection of foods can begin, examinations must be held and qualified inspectors chosen. The Pharmaceutical Era says that the Civil Service Commission will hold, in the near future, an examination for inspectors at $2000 and lower grades in the service; for experienced chemists at salaries of $3000 and lower grades in the service and for younger chemists at $2000 and lower grades in the service. Naturally Hawaii will have its fair proportion of these inspectors, one result of whose work will be to stop the importation here, for sales at auction and to the small Asiatic and other dealers, of canned goods which are too far gone to be disposable on the Coast.

We believe that, when the pure food law is applied in these islands, the death rate among the poor will decrease and the health of all classes improve. The Territorial chemist long since showed that even the higher classes of customers have no sure guarantee against adulterated wares any more than the higher classes of dealers have, the latter being at the mercy of Coast wholesalers.

Though Tolstoi is never interfered with by the Russian government, his son, for printing one of his pamphlets, has been indicted for treason. Thanks to a sentimental belief in some of Tolstoi's doctrines which the Czar professes and to a dislike on the part of his ministers to make an example of a man whose persecution would evoke world-wide resentment, the old agrarian count is allowed to preach sedition to suit himself. But the printer and circulator does not share Tolstoi's immunity. Siberia looms for him, even though the blood of the privileged dissenter flows in his veins.

At last a basis of settlement of the San Francisco school row has been reached. The Schmitz officials have agreed that, when Congress passes the amended immigration bill, they will abolish separate schools. This is well as far as it goes and curiosity will turn towards Japan to see how that government will take the exclusion of its coolies. As the object of the Washington conference was to avoid a war with Japan, we may assume that the dignity of Japan has been considered and the assent of that country secured in advance to the plan of compromise.

Reprieve or no reprieve extended for Morita Kaizo, the condemned murderer, it would be the worst case of contempt of court ever recorded if the high sheriff took the man's life while his appeal to the United States Supreme Court was pending. The bare mention of any possible failure of the Governor to entend the reprieve from February 1, in view of the existing appeal, is more than ridiculous. It is grotesque.

We are at it again. Father Beissel has put in a rejoinder; Violet Hamilton has arrived on the dueling ground and there are epistolary guns and coffee awaiting Mr. Moberg, Mr. Williams, Mr. Dove, Veritas, Old Subscriber, Pro Bono Publico and Vindex. And all about a Dark Continent that will be a lot darker when they all get through with it.

Good! The Senate has refused to eliminate a battleship from the program of the year. Every American battleship constructed means a fresh guarantee of peace and added safety for these islands. The more the better up to a point where the United States may feel secure from interference in working out a peaceful and beneficent destiny.

The Bulletin, which took a bribe from the Democrats last fall to aid in the election of their ticket, should revive its fifth page editorial column for $3 or so and commend the police department for not following its own lead in such matters. There might be trouble, however, in persuading Iaukea that such service would be worth $3.

If it is true that Geo. B. McClellan started the debate which brought out the Taft letter, all will be forgiven. A man who could convert Taft to the cause of fortification here is a missionary worth having.

One set of housewives will just get back their Chinese servants from the annual devil-driving when another set will begin to see their Japanese servants drift out for a week of warship festivity.

For the first time in many years, thanks to Iaukea's forceful measures, the Honolulu public gambling houses have been closed during the great Chinese festivity.

It looks as if the New York papers would either have to temper the style of their criminal reporting or catch it from Anthony Comstock.

Pittsburg's sunspot may account for a thunder storm in winter, but can it also be held responsible for a Thaw?

It's a cold day when it doesn't rain.

ANTI-CONGO AGITATORS UNDER THE LIME-LIGHT

Editor Advertiser: The "Messenger" states in a fair way the truth about the Congo Free State as follows: "The renewal of the anti-Congo campaign in our press by an organization known as the Boston Congo Reform Association has been duly qualified by the Consul General of the Congo Free State, Mr. James Gustavus Whiteley, as an altogether inexplicable and unwarrantable agitation of meddlers. 'If the Congo reformers are sincere,' we are told in a letter of Mr. Whiteley to the N. Y. Tribune, Nov. 30, 'their revival of the agitation at the present moment is inexplicable. All the reforms which they have demanded have been granted by King Leopold, and orders have been issued for putting these reforms in operation throughout the country. On June 3, 1906, the King issued twenty-five decrees, effecting all the reforms asked for. There is no doubt that these reforms are being carried out in good faith and as rapidly as possible. In spite of all the calumny heaped upon King Leopold, no one can point to any single concrete instance where the King has made a promise and has not fulfilled it. Moreover practical wisdom (and who denies that quality to the King?) dictates a policy of government which will make the natives contented and not rebellious, which will make him an industrious, peaceable worker, upbuilding the country, and not a menace to the State. The King has gladly seized every useful suggestion, and it is absurd to paint him as a modern Machiavelli and at the same time accuse him of destroying and harassing the native upon whose labor depends the welfare of the State.

"'If the Congo reformers want genuine reforms, they have them. Their revival of the agitation indicates that what they really wish is the destruction of the Congo government. The origin of this animosity to King Leopold's rule seems to have been partly religious jealousy and, to some extent, the commercial and political ambition of few private individuals. The King is Catholic. The large majority of the missionaries are Catholic. The criticisms have come from Protestant missionaries alone, and, in fact, from only a small portion of the Protestant missionaries. There are altogether about five hundred missionaries in the Congo State. Out of this number fifty-two (all Protestant) have signed a document condemning the administration. Sixteen of the signers are the wives of missionaries; thirty-five live in the district near the coast, and were condemning conditions hundred of miles off in the interior. One of the signers, Mr. Hensey, arrived in the Congo for the first time on December 23, 1905, and nineteen days later signed the document condemning the administration of a country one-third the size of the United States.

"'This snap judgment of fifty-two weighs but lightly against the evidence of nearly four hundred Catholic missionaries, reinforced by such Protestants as have risen above religious prejudice. In December, 1904, the principals of all the Catholic missions in the Congo, after investigating the matter through their missionaries, issued what they called "a public and complete denial" of the accusations of the secretary of the Congo Reform Association.

"'Many of the stories on which the anti-Congo agitators build their campaign relate to events that occurred years ago, before the government had completed its organization, or during the period when every energy of the Belgians was engaged in the death struggle with the Arab slave traders. By that glorious struggle King Leopold delivered thirty million natives from the scourge which Livingstone called "the open sore of the world." The anti-Congo agitators, in dealing with that period, refuse to look at the great achievement for humanity, and, ever raking in the muck, carefully gather together a few isolated cases of cruelty during those troublous times. After all their muck-raking, their collection of "atrocities" is not large. I could make a longer and more startling collection from the record of the tenderloin police station.'

"The above extracts from Mr. Whiteley's letter to the N. Y. Tribune express views which are fully born out by the statement of Cardinal Gibbons and of the greater number of the deputies in the Belgian Parliament. Among the utterances of the latter during the debate in the Belgian Chamber, Mr. Woeste referred to the despicable hostility and systematic criticism against the Congo, as a struggle of mediocrity against superiority, and positively denied that the State administration had ignored the provisions of the Berlin Conference."

In presence of this evidence every reader is able to form his opinion on conditions prevailing in the Congo.

JAMES C. BEISSEL.

THE WORRIED WOMEN.

They say men must work and women must weep; but alas, in this too busy world women often have to work and weep at the same time. Their holidays are too few and their work heavy and monotonous. It makes them nervous and irritable. The depressed and worried woman loses her appetite and grows thin and feeble. Once in a while she has spells of palpitation and has to lie up for a day or two. If some disease like influenza or malarial fever happens to prevail she is almost certain to have an attack of it, and that often paves the way for chronic troubles of the throat, lungs and other organs; and there is no saying what the end may be. Let the tired and overladen woman rest as much as possible; and, above all, place at her command a bottle of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION a true and sure remedy for the ills and maladies of women. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Search the world over and you will find nothing to equal it. Taken before meals it improves the nutritive value of ordinary foods by making them easier to assimilate, and has carried hope and good cheer into thousands of homes. It is absolutely reliable and effective in Nervous Dyspepsia, Impaired Nutrition, Low Vitality, Wasting Conditions, Melancholy, Chlorosis, Scrofula, and all troubles of the Throat and Lungs. Dr. E. J. Boyes says: "I have found it a preparation of great merit. In a recent case a patient gained nearly twenty pounds in two months' treatment, in which it was the principal remedial agent." It carries the guarantee of reliability and cannot fail or disappoint you. At chemists

PROF. STARR ON MISSIONARIES.

Editor Advertiser: Immediately after reading Father Beissel on the "Congo Trouble," in this morning's Advertiser, I happened to pick up the Chicago Advance of January 24th, 1907, and the first thing that struck my eye was the enclosed article entitled "Interview with Professor Starr," which as Father Beissel had quoted so liberally from the gentleman in question, I read with especial interest.

I have marked the place in which the writer of the article makes the statement that Professor Starr does not believe in foreign missions. If it is correct, that on general principles, he entertains this sentiment towards them it is not strange that he views missionaries and their work in an unfavorable light and it might readily be presumed that Catholic as well as Protestant missionaries would fall under the same general condemnation.

A prejudiced mind is liable to judge a case before it is investigated and if eventually the facts are found not to agree with the preconceived opinions, so much the worse for the facts!

Respectfully yours,

VIOLET HAMILTON.

Honolulu, February 14th, 1907.

UNFAVORABLE VIEW OF MISSIONARIES.

PERHAPS IT OUGHT TO BE SAID HERE THAT PROFESSOR STARR DOES NOT BELIEVE IN FOREIGN MISSIONS. He is absolutely sincere in his opinions and bases them on his observations in foreign lands and years of thought and study given to the subject. He has many friends among the missionaries, has entertained them in his home and been their guest. "I will say that the missionary is the native's best friend, but the natives will not admit it and never have I met a missionary who could make them do so. A missionary who has worked in Africa for nineteen years and in my opinion has done the most good, is best acquainted with African life and intensely sympathetic, acknowledges profound discouragement. He has never been able to detect a sense of gratitude in the native, who will wear the clothes of the white man, eat his food, and think he is conferring a great favor on the missionary by doing so. Everywhere the natives love to read—they enjoy making sounds from the printed page. I was amused once to watch a crowd of men on a steam boat reading out loud from a primer. They were simply pronouncing the words as they came and did not know their meaning out of rotation. Intelligent, comprehending reading is rare, but then what have they to read in their own language but a limited line of text books? The truth of it is, most missionaries after a few years settle down to taking things as they find them. There may be more 'progress' in their districts, educationally speaking, but does that mean the natives are really better off, happier?"

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

As has been announced, one of the Chicago dailies has the exclusive right of publication concerning the political situation in the Congo Free State. Professor Starr has pledged himself to speak only in their columns of political conditions as he found them over there.

"There is no doubt," he says, "but that depopulation is taking place. Natives die by the thousands of the sleeping sickness and because of depraved habits. In my journey up and down the African continent I met only one human creature who had been mutilated. It was the case of a child, and the disfigurement took place seven years ago. I heard often of various natives being mutilated, but I never could find one that had been so tortured. There is something back of all this Congo inquiry and political upheaval that has not been brought to light or even mentioned in its connection. International law went to pieces several years ago. Of course various countries might go to war about it, but could England, for instance? Wouldn't it be another case of the pot calling the kettle black?"

RHEUMATIC PAINS QUICKLY RELIEVED.

The excruciating pains characteristic of rheumatism and sciatica are quickly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The great pain relieving power of the liniment has been the surprise and delight of thousands of sufferers. The quick relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

"BERT" WHEELER IS PROMOTED

"Bert" Wheeler, whose journey from Guam to Mare Island Navy Yard was interrupted to allow of an operation at the Queen's Hospital last week for an injury received in the Bennington disaster at San Diego has just received considerable solace in the form of an unofficial notice of his appointment—a promotion—to the grade of warrant machinist in the United States Navy. This promotion puts him in position to take charge of the engine room of certain navy vessels. The position is next below that of commissioned officer, which coveted grade, by a new law, may now be acquired by warrant machinists on passing a required examination without the necessity of passing through the Annapolis Naval Academy. Mr. Wheeler is getting along splendidly after his recent operation for a shattered knee and will probably be able to continue his journey to the mainland on the next transport.

EVER THINK ABOUT IT?

Many a Resident of Honolulu Will Tell You.

We are living in a very rapid age. Few of us bother our heads about small things, and so many persons look upon a pain, ache or lameness in the back as a small thing. They wait for it to pass off, giving no thought to the cause. Remember; The kidneys are the sewers of the system; they carry off the impure matter, but sewers sometimes become clogged up. So do the kidneys. The kidneys are located near the small of the back, hence any stoppage affects the back. This means backache, lame back, weak back and many other distressing symptoms. There is lots more to tell on this subject, but we won't do it here, for we want to show you how to keep the kidneys so the back will have no cause to ache. You might not believe us, so we will let one of your own citizens tell their experience:

W. F. Williams of this city, is a light-house keeper, and he has held this position for the last 30 years. He says: "I was for a number of years, one of that numerous army of people who suffer with their backs. Mine ached and pained me to no small extent, so that I was glad when I heard of a remedy for it. Doan's Backache Kidneys Pills. I obtained some of these at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store, and took them. They gave me great relief, and I make this short narration of my experience for the benfit of others who perhaps do not know that nearly all backache arises from the kidneys and the best medicine for it is Doan's Backache Kidneys Pills."

Doan's Backache Kidneys Pills are 50 cents per box, for sale by all druggists; sent by mail on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

JOY BENEFIT GAME TODAY

Champion H. A. C.'s Play for the Last Time with Their Star Player.

Once again will the great ones of the land meet in friendly conflict when this afternoon at 1:30 the Artillery boys unlimber their guns for action against the Rapid Transit baseball nine on the league baseball grounds. There will be good playing in this game, and yet it is but to be the preliminary skirmish of the battle proper which will take place as soon as the first game is over between the H. A. C.s and a picked nine of all the other teams. Barney Joy will pitch for the H. A. C.s, and Honolulans will once more have an opportunity of seeing Barney toss the sphere, while E. Desha and John Williams are both candidates for the honor of speeding the leather for the picked nine. The teams will line up as follows:

FIRST GAME.

Artillery—Brown, p.; Ringland, c.; Daperty, 1b.; Van Vliet, 2b.; Corey, 3b.; Boyle, s.s.; Hannah, lf.; Muncie, cf.; Hayden, rf.

Rapid Transit—Reuter, p.; Hamauku, c.; Robinson, 1b.; Aylett, 2b.; Plunkett, 3b.; Fern, s.s.; Boyer, lf.; Nelson, cf.; Williams, rf.

SECOND GAME.

Honolulu—Joy, p.; G. Bruns, c.; P. Gleason, 1b.; J. Williams, 2b.; En Sue, 3b.; A. Williams, s.s.; E. Fernandez, lf.; Aylett, cf.; Louis, rf.

Picked Team—E. Desha-John Williams, p.; Ringland, c.; Gorman, 1b.; Vannatta, 2b.; Evers, 3b.; J. Desha, s.s.; H. Bruns, lf.; G. Desha, cf.; E. Desha-John Williams, rf.

CRICKET SEASON BEGINS APRIL 6

The Hawaiian Cricket Club held its annual meeting Wednesday night and elected the following officers: President, R. A. Jordan; first vice president, D. L. Withington; second vice president, R. Anderson; secretary, B. F. Beardmore; treasurer, C. E. Edmunds; executive committees, T. Gill, J. H. Fiddes, James Macconnell; captain, J. R. M. McLean; vice captain, C. P. Morse.

It was decided to open the cricket season for this year on April 6. There are many new members in the club and things have improved financially to such an extent that the club is now free of debt and has money on hand.

WATER POLO AT THE CARNIVAL

Much interest is being taken in the water polo match between the Diamond Heads and Oahu College at the Hotel Baths tonight. The college boys will have a bunch of rooters behind them, and the contestants will need the water to keep cool. The lineup for the polo match is as follows:

Oahu College—Hitchcock
ler, forwards; Cooper, center; Townsend, Withington and Hind, goals.

Diamond Heads—Lyle and Robertson, forwards; Freeth, center; Smidt, O'Sullivan and Auld, goals.

The complete program for tonight is as follows:

1.—Monte Christo act.
2.—25-yard dash (first heat).
3.—25-yard dash (second heat).
4.—Competition diving (fancy).
5.—Plunge for distance.
6.—50-yard dash (first heat).

RENEAR WINS MORE LAURELS

Dan Renear, who won the championship of the Islands for the 50-yard swim in 1905, and who has been winning laurels for himself and Hawaii in swimming athletics ever since, has again drawn to the front as a member of the Pennsylvania swimming team. The Philadelphia Inquirer has the following to say: "The Pennsylvania team journeyed to Baltimore January 26th where they won a notable victory over the Baltimore Athletic Club in a dual meet by a score of 52 to 15, and during the evening the Quaker swimmers lowered two of the records for the tank they competed in.

In the relay race, the four red and blue competitors, Renear, E. Hopkinson Jr., Zieber and Sylvester, broke the previous record that was made by the Pennsylvania team last year by 3 4-5 seconds, and in the 100 yard swim Dan Renear carried off first place in the good time of 1.02 4-5, the second tank record the local collegians carried off. According to results Pennsylvania won about everything. De Bow took the plunge for distance, covering sixty feet in the remarkable time of thirty-seven seconds; Renear next won the 20-yard swim in 9 1-5 seconds; Nelson, of the B. A. C. carried off the 40, with Philler and Rogers of Pennsylvania close second and third. De Bow won the bobbing for corks contest with twenty of them secured in three minute time allowance; Renear followed vania close second and third. De Bow secured another victory in the 40-yard lighted candle race; Hopkinson won the 200 yards semi-wind-up, and Renear carried the crowd by storm in a magnificent fancy diving exhibition, which closed the evening."

A JAMAICAN LADY SPEAKS HIGHLY OF CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Mrs. Michael Hart, wife of the superintendent of Cart Service at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, says that she has for some years used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, croup and whooping cough and has found it very beneficial. She has implicit confidence in it and would not be without a bottle of it in her home. Sold by Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

CARNIVAL TONIGHT

Tonight at 8:30 matters will get very lively in the region of the Hotel Baths, when those oldtime rivals, the Healanis and Myrtles, come together to test their supremacy in swimming athletics. Diving, swimming, or what not, in the water, on it or under it, wherever they be, it goes without saying that where representatives of these clubs contest against each other the spectators will see the best of their kind pitted against each other. Hawaii is the home of swimmers, and in the home of swimmers these two clubs pay most attention to aquatic sports, and none who values a good time will miss seeing the water carnival tonight. There are still good seats to be had at the Baths, though they are going fast.

MARINE

News of shipping at Hilo is expected today by the steamer Kinau. The S. S. Enterprise was to have left Hilo yesterday for San Francisco. The bark Amy Turner and the schooner W. H. Marston are both bound for Hilo from Coast ports, and they may have arrived this week.

PHELPS GOT AWAY.

After a most exciting time, the ship Erskine M. Phelps, with a cargo of 5104 tons of sugar, got away yesterday morning for Philadelphia, direct. A number of the sailors on the vessel got drunk and started to fight. John Oleson and Huilbert Nuken were arrested, as they had smashed each other in bad shape. Nuken used a pair of brass knuckles, while the other man used a polished pig's bone that he claimed to prize very highly. The bone was all that remained, he said, of a mess of salt pork on which he and some other men had subsisted while wrecked on Tasmania years ago. Captain Graham of the Phelps got the men later and had them put back aboard. When the vessel was towed out of the harbor four of the sailors jumped overboard, evidently intending to escape. The instant they found themselves in water they remembered that they could not swim, so they grasped hold of some lines that were hanging over the sides of the ship. Captain Graham had the bunch towed with his ship, until she got outside of the harbor to anchor. Then he had them hauled aboard. They were sober when they got aboard. The vessel got away for the Atlantic seaboard about 1 p. m. Gladys Graham, the daughter of Captain and Mrs. Graham, did not accompany her parents this trip. She remained in Honolulu to attend school.

A BOLD ADVENTURER.

Joseph Ferraris, a fisherman bold, is an Italian who has been in the slands about two years and who intends going into the sea fishery business on the Kauai coast. Monday morning of last week he embarked at Honolulu in an ordinary whaleboat for Waimea.

He put into Nawiliwili, his tiny craft in distress, it was Thursday morning. He had been buffeted about on the waves for more than three days.

There he left his boat and took the steamer Mikahala for his destination. When he left here his boat was freighted with mattresses and other household furnishings, together with a chest of tools. Only the tool chest was landed. The rest of the cargo had been jettisoned.

DELAYED AT SALINA CRUZ.

The S. S. Arizonan, which inaugurated the new Tehuantepec route via Salina Cruz, has been delayed at that port discharging sugar. The S. S. Nebraskan will also be delayed. It is thought that the delay has been due to the confusion incidental to the inauguration of a new route. The work of transporting the sugar cargoes in bond across the Mexican railroad no doubt caused the delay. Within a few months, it is anticipated, the schedule as planned originally can be maintained.

STEAMERS NEXT WEEK.

Four mail steamers are due here next week. On Monday the Sonoma from the Colonies and the Mongolia from the Orient are expected, en route to San Francisco. On the following afternoon the S. S. America Maru is due from San Francisco, en route to the Orient, and on Friday the S. S. Alameda is due from San Francisco. The Alameda is due to sail from San Francisco today.

SAILING VESSEL ARRIVED.

The bark Andrew Welch arrived yesterday morning, 25 days from San Francisco. She experienced light winds during the trip. The vessel sighted nothing. The Welch is full of freight, having a large deck load. She brought one passenger, a professor from one of the California universities. He is here for his health. The Welch will load a return cargo of sugar for San Francisco.

HAULING RAILROAD TIES.

Captain Sam Mana got a good contract this week. His schooners Moi Wahine and Kawailani departed yesterday afternoon for Hauula with combined cargoes of 3000 railroad ties. From Hauula the Moi Wahine will continue to Honolpu, while the Kawailani will go to other Koolau ports for rice. The Kawailani arrived here night before last from Koolau via Ewa.

NO NEWS FROM JAP FLEET.

No wireless report from the Japanese squadron had been received at the local naval station last night up to 6 o'clock. It is not thought the squadron will be reported before today or tomorrow. It is likely that the Japanese vesseis may not even reach here before Monday.

MARINE NOTES.

The Defender arrived at Honolpu February 14, 24 days from San Francisco.

The steamer Maui departed yesterday afternoon for Kawaihae. She went for cattle.

The Noeau will depart Monday at 5 p. m. with explosives for Maui and Hamakua ports.

The steamers Noeau and Ke Au Hou arrived yesterday morning. Both had sugar, the Noeau 4143 bags and 30 head of cattle, and the Ke Au Hou 1878 bags of sugar and 40 bags of rice.

Captain Batchelor of the British S. S. Inveric is a brother of Miss Elizabeth Batchelor of Lihue, Kauai, and a cousin of D. B. Maconachie and Mrs. Walter C. Shields of this city.

The steamer Kinau is expected today, forenoon, from her run to Hilo and way ports. She will depart tomorrow for Kahului to bring home the Elks' party from the Maui port.

A WATER PIPE CINCH DECREE

Heavy Claim Against Jesse McChesney---Cummins Estate---Items.

Ballou & Marx for plaintiff give notice to A. G. M. Robertson for defendant that on Monday at 9:30 a. m. they will move to have a decree and perpetual injunction entered in the suit of Oahu Railway & Land Co. against James Armstrong. The form of decree they submit makes the injunction as follows:

"Now therefore it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that James Armstrong, defendant herein, his servants and agents, be and they are hereby strictly enjoined under penalty of being adjudged in contempt of court, from maintaining that certain pipe line laid across Lehua avenue, Pearl City, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, at a point N. 12° 36' W., distant 1110 feet more or less from the northerly line of Palm avenue, so far as the same is within the limits of the land of complainant, known as Lehua avenue, and from carrying water across said land of the complainant known as Lehua avenue through said pipe."

According to the Supreme Court decision remanding the case to Judge Robinson, the deed from Oahu Railway Co. to Armstrong gave him the right to take water across Lehua avenue, but by means subject to the approval of the company. It was found that Armstrong had not got the approval of the company for the kind of watercourse he adopted, as even if evidence that the company's superintendent had orally given his consent were accepted the superintendent had no authority in the matter.

DAMAGE SUIT.

James H. Cummings' suit against the Pioneer Building & Loan Association for $1500 damages was on trial before Judge Lindsay yesterday. W. L. Stanley appeared for plaintiff, and A. G. M. Robertson for defendant. Most of the afternoon was spent in waiting for a witess, who came along at 3:45 just as the court was going to adjourn. The witness is a prominent dairyman and it was suggested in the corridor that the cows had not come home at milking time.

HEAVY CLAIM.

Honolulu Soap Works Co., Ltd., by its president, Cecil Brown, has brought suit against Jesse M. McChesney for $10,393.86 alleged to be due from defendant as treasurer of the company. Thompson & Clemons are attorneys for plaintiff.

CUMMINS ESTATE.

The Hawaiian Trust Co., Ltd., has rendered its second annual account as trustee of the estate of Thomas Cummins. It shows a principal of $38,060, of which all but $260 is invested. The year's income was $4496, of which $3,340.62 was distributed in equal shares to the three heirs—E. K. Fairchild, Maria K. King and L. K. Schmidt.

COURT ITEMS.

W. C. Achi for defendant files a motion for a new trial in the case of The Dowsett Co., Ltd., v. R. L. Gilliland. The same attorney files a similar motion in the case of H. T. Mills v. Enoch Johnson and Jonah Kumalae.

Lyle A. Dickey has filed a second supplemental bill for partition against the heirs, etc., of the late W. H. Cummings. This supplement is to bring in Nakuaua Kaluiamaui and Tong Kau as possible claimants.

Judge Lindsay denied the motion of Tai Yick, convicted of selling rotten salmon, for a new trial.

Thompson & Clemons for plaintiff will present a motion on Monday at 9 a. m. before Judge De Bolt to set for trial the assumpsit suit of Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd., v. Koolau Kaikainahaole with Allen & Robinson, Ltd., garnishee.

It is stipulated, in the injunction suit of Clinton W. Crandell v. Edward R. Bath, that respondent have ten days more in which to plead.

J. Alfred Magoon sues A. J. Campbell, administrator of Lavinia Kapu's estate, for $1325 balance due on a note made by decedent on June 5, 1900, to John Emmeluth for $3500 at 7 per cent. interest.

HOW THE OTHER HALF LIVES HERE

There was the usual line-up of inebriates at the Police Court yesterday morning. John Murray owned up, and paid his five and costs like a man. Kekapa hindered proceedings a little by pleading "Not guilty," but when Dan Naauao testified that he had been staggering around the fishmarket, attempting to pick a quarrel with everybody in sight, and Eugene K. Duvauchelle corroborated this testimony, Kekapa's plea loked like a piece of mendacity. Anyway, he goe $5 and costs. Bernadine for a similar offence got $3 and costs.

Fifty dollars and $3 costs, it is hoped, will lead Willie C. Vida to reconsider his ways. Playing craps above Chong Kee's tin-smith store is what led Willie into trouble.

Twelve Chinamen playing paikau at high noon Thursday were pressingly invited by the police to accept the hospitality of the station. They did, and paid $10 each besides costs for the privilege. They did not all admit playing paikau, however. Some had been engaged in the intensely interesting game of dominoes while others were shooting firecrackers.

Bill and Miss Keaweamahi will answer to a charge of disturbing the peace of the night in tones less mellifluous than loud on February 26th.

Kow Kin paid $50 and costs to the court for selling awa root, and nine Chinamen were sentenced to pay a fine of $9 each and costs for playing paikau. This case remained over from February 11th. Kapuahiloa paid $5 and costs for the pleasure it had afforded him to misuse Geo. Fiji the day before.

NO INJUNCTION IN LANAI CASE

Supreme Court Does Not See What Use It Would Serve.

Chief Justice Frear is joined by Associate Justice Hartwell in rendering an opinion of the Supreme Court on the motion for decree, presented by plaintiff, in the Lanai injunction case.

The court declines to continue the injunction in force pending an appeal to the United States Supreme Court. The syllabus of opinion reads:

"Although it is improper practise to perform an act temporarily enjoined immediately after the filing of a decision and before the entry of the decree dismissing a bill for an injunction, it would be useless to expressly continue the injunction after the performance of the act for the purposes of an appeal without first setting aside the transaction, and in this case it is deemed best to allow the present status to continue, subject to the action of the appellate court."

In the body of the opinion, after reciting the proceedings till now which have been already fully reported in this paper, the court says:

"If the exchange had not been made the court would not hesitate to continue the injunction in force pending the proposed appeal, but while it might do no harm it would be useless and absurd to provide expressly in the decree for a continuance of an injunction against what has already been accomplished. It is true that the court has inherent power, as well as express power under the statute, to protect its jurisdiction, and also that its opinions or decisions remain subject to its control until the settlement and entry of the final decree. In this case, for instance, if the transaction had been completed prior to the decision the court could have set it aside as well as treated the action as a contempt of court. Likewise, if of its own motion or on a motion for a rehearing or other motion it should set aside or modify the decision so as to produce a different result it could enforce that notwithstanding the consummation of the exchange. But the fact is that the decision was rendered before the exchange was made and has not since been altered. We do not now see our way clear to take steps to set aside the transaction solely for the purposes of appeal without altering the decision upon the merits of the case. It is best now to leave the matter as it stands for such action as the Supreme Court of the United States may direct in case an appeal or writ of error is allowed to that court and heard by it. If that court decides the case upon its merits and reverses this court it may be able to restore the former status, and if it does not hear the case upon its merits it may be that an original bill to set aside the transaction would lie, from the disposition of which an appeal or writ of error might be taken which could be heard upon its merits by that court, but those are questions for consideration when they arise.

"A decree may be entered following the decision, omitting an order dissolving the injunction."

Possibly L. L. McCandless, complainant, may next move for a rehearing. In case that were granted the former decision might be modified, and otherwise an appeal to Washington be taken from its refusal.

PRACTICAL JOKERS GET NO QUARTERS

Boys and young men who think it one of the hugest jokes going to send in a false alarm to the fire hall, will now have opportunity of looking at the question from two sides. The police are hot on the trail of such youthful offenders, and offences of this nature will hereafter be dealt with as severely as the law will allow. Two boys who sent in a false alarm the other night have both received stiff sentences to the Reform School, and any others found at the same tricks will be given something better to do.

LIGHT KEEPER HATTON DIES

William Hatton, keeper of Barber's Point lighthouse ever since it was built many years ago, died soon after retiring on Thursday night. He was previously in his usual good health apparently, having been in town the same day to see a recent grandchild. A native of Lahaina, he was about 70 years of age.

Hatton became a Mormon convert on the occasion of the visit of George Q. Cannon and other apostles to the islands half a century ago and did some missionary work for that faith. He was formerly a whaler and captain of inter-island vessels. When the Federal government took over the Hawaiian lighthouses, Hatton had qualified in civil service examinations to hold his position. Through a later examination he secured a raise of salary.

VOLUNTARY BANKRUPTCY.

Christopher Johnson by his attorney, G. A. Davis, yesterday filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy. His debts amount to $736.18, of which $207.45 is for taxes. There are six doctor bills from as many firms and individuals in medical practise, including two deceased physicians, these items amounting to $202. Assets, all claimed to be exempt, consist of household goods, etc., $150, and a kit of tools, $50.

The annual meeting of the University Club was held last evening and most of the old officers, with Judge Hartwell at their head, were reelected. It is understood that the club will look about for new quarters and that it may build. Financially the club is reported to be in sound and flourishing condition.

U. S. Commissioner Hatch yesterday committed to the grand jury, under $2500 bail each, two Japanese for perjury alleged to have been committed before the inspector of immigration. They had sworn that they came here to look for work, and had $20 each in possession, but the authorities discovered later that their intention was to go to the mainland.

Gus Que was gloriously drunk last night, and felt as rich and as full of authority as a lord. But other people did not see things that way, and so Gus arrived at the police station. Even there he tried to boss things, and couldn't understand why he couldn't carry things off with as high a hand as he felt the spirit within him to do. It is safe to say, that by this morning Gus knows who he is, and that his gorgeous experience of last night was but a delusion and a snare.

THE PRISON SERVICE.

"Through the kindness of High Sheriff Henry," said John Martin last night, "we have been able to change our service at the prison from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m.

"By doing so we are able to get Dr. Johnston to come over and give us a few words of greeting, as he used to be in that kind of work back in the States. We have also obtained the services of Miss Ormerod, who will sing, and Mrs. A. F. Judd, who will preside at the organ."

The long series of southerly storms beating in on the coast is reported to have disclosed the pictured rocks of Koloa, Kauai, to an extent beyond what has hitherto ever been known. There is now visible a larger variety of figures, and there are more perfect specimens. It is hoped that some effort will be made to secure diagrams of these for comparative study. The more that are obtained of these, the better chance there will be of arriving at some feasible explanation as to their origin. A first series of these pictures were sent to the Smithsonian Institution, but so far the efforts of scientists to account for their existence have been of no avail.

RICHARD AHRENS DIES FROM HOME

Mr. and Mrs. August Ahrens received the sad news by cable of their son Richard's death in San Francisco yesterday. They had been apprised the day before of his serious illness from pneumonia. "Dick" Ahrens was educated at Punahou, where he was a leading athlete. Last September he left home to enter Cornell University, but changed his mind and took a position in the Crockett refinery. With his parents he leaves three sisters and a brother here. His father is a veteran sugar planter, having been manager of Waianae and Oahu plantations successively. Mr. Ahrens lately returned from a trip to Cuba.

New moon February 12 at 7:12 a. m.

The tides at Kahului and Hilo occur about one hour earlier than at Honolulu.

Hawaiian standard time is 10 hours 30 minutes slower than Greenwich time, being that of the meridian of 157 degrees thirty minutes. The time whistle blows at 1:30 p m., which is the same as Greenwich, 0 hours 0 minutes. Sun and moon are for local time for the whole group.

UNCLE SAM'S FOLKS LEARNING SOMETHING

Federal officials in Honolulu have become interested in the filing system of the office of the Secretary of Hawaii. This is in fine shape and its reputation has gone abroad. It combines upright letter filing cabinets and a card index scheme with cross references. There is a one or two line synopsis of every letter filed entered upon the card. Different local officials of U. S. departments have called to examine the system with a view to adopting it in their own offices.

ELECTRIC CARMEN HAVE GOOD TIME

Yesterday evening the Honolulu Street Railway Employes' Benefit Association gave a smoker in the Club house in honor of departing members. These are W. J. Stansbury, W. E. Weyman, C. A. Christiensen, F. Hansen and H. C. Jensen.

A very enjoyable time was spent, with music, speeches and refreshments. E. B. Bridgewater was toastmaster and Peter Tosh was spokesman for the guests of the evening.

VIDA AND THE ELKS.

Nobody supposes that Willie Vida expected to skin the Elks with his roulette wheel and it is presumed that his boast of an intention to go with them on their Maui trip was either an idle one or he expected to make something out of the Maui crowd of natives that might gather to see them. Vida is not an Elk and was not booked for the trip. It does not please the Elks to have his name associated with theirs.
