SINISTER AIMS OF ACHI'S PARTY

Color Line Fight Will Result From His Scheming.

While the Republican politicians are having their troubles these days and fighting more or less with themselves, the opposition is getting into line and taking every advantage. In the midst of it all is smiling Charley Achi, who is stirring up all the trouble he can among the Republicans, getting strings on the Democrats and stealing recruits from both parties in order to be in a position to dominate with his workers both the nominating conventions this fall. His great ambition is to gather into one party for voting purposes all the Hawaiians, array them against the whites and fight under cover on the color line question. He will attempt to have the nominations so arranged on both the Democratic and Republican tickets that the possible election of a Hawaiian to every elective office will be certain. Then there will be scratched tickets in plenty and a general dumping of the white candidates. This is supposed to be his scheme, and the straws are all blowing in that direction.

At his meeting called for the launching of his Labor party the other night were Republicans and Democrats meeting on an equal footing. Charley Broad was there; S. K. Maloi, who is anything politically, was there; W. K. Rathburn, whom a combination of Republican and Democratic Supervisors (Continued on Page Four.)

REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE WRANGLE FOR AN HOUR

The Republican Central Committee executive, in full strength either in person or by proxy, wrangled for an hour yesterday afternoon behind locked doors and adjourned without coming to a vote in the matter of the endorsement of C. T. Wilder as tax assessor. The session was short but bitter, the particulars of which are being kept very quiet by those concerned.

"We did nothing at all," is the report of the meeting given out by Eli Crawford. "We met and we adjourned. That is all there was to it." William Savidge was little less communicative. "All I can say is that we have adjourned until tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. We took no vote at all on the Wilder matter, either one way or another. That is all I can tell you."

The deliberations were of the extreme executive nature and every individual member was pledged not to make public any of the business. It is rumored, however, that an effort is to be made to effect a trade with the Governor, whereby he will agree to recommend Judge Kepoiak, of Maui, for reappointment, and the committee will endorse Wilder.

MAUNA KEA MADE SPEED OF 16 AND 1-10TH KNOTS

SAN FRANCISCO, February 13.—The Mauna Kea, which is soon to ply among the Hawaiian Islands for the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., made her trial trip on the bay yesterday, and her work proved satisfactory to both the owners and the builders. Captain Clem Randall of the Shipowners and Merchants' Tugboat Association commanded the vessel on her trial trip.

The Mauna Kea is the largest of five steamers built by the Union Iron Works for the Inter-Island trade, and is specially designed to carry passengers. She is constructed with five decks and has forty-two staterooms. This will permit her to carry 153 first-class and sixty second-class passengers.

One of the unique features of this vessel is the pol-room, an institution

SUMNER EARLE MAY COME NOW

Presidency of New College is Offered to Him Again.

There is a chance, since Franklin Sumner Earle, the distinguished botanist and agriculturist, left Cuba, to get him for President of the Hawaii College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts. He was the first choice of the Board of Regents last summer, but negotiations with him failed. At his instance they have been reopened and word as to his acceptance of the presidency should come in a few days.

At yesterday's meeting of the Regents it was stated that control of the U. S. Agricultural Station after Jared G. Smith leaves will be practicable.

The day classes in the preparatory work of the College are yet small, though the evening classes are large. The day organization is as follows:

Algebra, 9 to 10 a. m.
English, 10 to 10:45 a. m.
Geometry, 10:45 to 11:30 a. m.
General History, 11:30 to 12 m.
Physiology, 1:30 to 2 p. m.
Drawing, 2 to 2:30 p. m.
Botany, 2:30 to 3 p. m.
Study period, 3 to 4:30 p. m.

A number of reports and bulletins have been presented to the College and arrangements are being made for cataloging all publications as they are received. An extensive list of scientific books is also being completed.

The short course in agriculture consisting of twenty-six evening lessons opened February 18 with about 50 persons present. The opening address was given by Hon. Henry E. Cooper. These evening lessons have been well attended and there are at present 51 persons enrolled. It is believed that this course will prove a success.

From the present outlook for the coming school year, beginning September 14, it is thought best to arrange the college work under the following departments:

1. Language and mathematics, J. S. Donagho.
2. Chemistry and physics.
3. Horticulture and botany, W. T. Pope.
4. Agriculture, zoology, entomology.
5. History, drawing.
6. Engineering, civil, electrical and mechanical.

As instructed by the Board at a former meeting, Professor J. S. Donagho was informed that a position as instructor in mathematics and language for the next school year, was open for his consideration, at a salary of $1800 per year. Prof. Donagho has replied that he would accept.

Various applications for positions have been made to the Board of Regents and action will be taken on them as soon as the president of the college is chosen and his wishes considered.

Dean Pope has a plan to cooperate with the Farmers' Institute for holding Territorial fairs on the college grounds.

POLICE RAID WILLIE VIDA'S HOUSE.

The house of Willie Vida, in Palama, was raided last night by the police and a number of well-known gamblers were gathered in, caught taking part in a big crap game. The party were shooting the bones on the table in the Vida diningroom and were caught dead to rights. Vida himself was not present and escaped the raiders. Among those registered at the police station as a result of the raid are the following familiar names: J. Brown, Kanahelo, J. Rooney, C. Makoale, M. T. Lutz and Ah Sam, the last named being the well-known Japanese gambler, who rejoices in the Chinese appellation. All secured their liberty on bail. It is reported by the police that this game has been running for some time, although no suitable opportunity for a raid could be found before.

peculiar to the inter-island traffic. This is for the benefit of the second-class passengers, whose staple diet this native food is. It was made by order of the company for which the vessel is built to fill a long-felt want on the inter-island steamers.

The dimensions of the new vessel are: Length, 240 feet; beam, 38 feet; depth, 18 feet 6 inches; draft, 15 feet; displacement, 2100 tons; indicated horse-power, 2200.

The vessel is well provided with surf boats, as at some of the ports at which she will ply it is necessary to land passengers through the surf.

The Mauna Kea is required to make fourteen knots by the contract, but under forced draft yesterday she made sixteen and one-tenth knots, and her engines showed 3300 horse-power. She will probably leave for Honolulu in a week.

Kilohana Art League Players Delight Crowded Opera House Audience.

Decidedly clever was the work of the amateur Thespians last night at the Opera House in the first of the series of events planned by the Kilohana Art League's dramatic circle for the Mardi Gras festivities, and generous applause was given the various performers by the crowded house. The players fulfilled well the promises so freely given in the advance notices that the performances would be among the best given in the city by amateurs, while the cast balanced much better than the great majority of the professional troupes that Honolulu is familiar with. The entry of the Prince and Princess of the Mardi Gras, with their suite of ladies and harlequins, following the curtain on the opening play, was a very pretty event, although losing in effectiveness from the fact that of necessity the entrance was made by way of the front door and consequently at everyone's back. The royal couple, masked and unknown except by title, were beautifully and appropriately costumed, while the large number of dainty damsels in their suite made up a very pretty tableau as they grouped in the boxes.

The curtain-raiser was one of the Dolly Dialogues series, a two-act piece, in which the dramatic personae were Dr. and Mrs. Humphris. Anthony Hope's lines are such as require the nicest manner of delivery and acting to rightfully interpret, and this task could not have fallen upon better persons than the two selected. The subtle shades of meaning, the nice distinction in the words themselves and the necessity of judicious stage business were appreciated by both Mrs. Humphris and the Doctor, and lost nothing in their acting. The applause which followed the verbal fencing and the flowers tossed upon the stage were richly deserved.

Of an altogether different nature was the closing play, the Arabian Nights. This was distinctly broad comedy played in a refined way and played well by each member of the cast. It would be hard to pick out the one most worthy of praise, even the minor parts being splendidly put on. Miss Ray Bell, as one of the younger players, possibly carried off the honors. She had a difficult part to portray, that of a music hall girl out on a lark, and the fact that she carried it out so well, bringing out the comedy and eliminating what might easily have made the lines overdone and common, shows her talent as an actress. In stage manner and voice, Miss Bell has improved very much, having lost a great deal of the affected accent of the elocutionist which in a measure spoiled her acting last season. Now her voice is true and natural and her singing last night was very sweet.

Miss Nellie McLain, as Mrs. Hummingtop, was also at her best, which is mighty good. She did not have a great deal to say, but put enough into her lines to earn her several rounds of applause. Miss McLain is finished in her work and makes any part she assumes a pleasant one to watch.

Mrs. McLain played a difficult role, one of the longest of all the company with the exception of George C. Potter, and much of the success of the play depended upon her. She also had a part that most amateurs would have spoiled by overdoing, while her acting was natural and easy. In fact the ease shown in their work and lines by the whole company was noticeable.

Miss Rosalind Waldron played acceptably the part of Daisy Maitland, looking the part well and carrying herself through the scenes nicely. If she would speak louder her playing would be better. Miss Phoebe Arleigh, the maid, was a bewitching little creature in cap and apron, who brought the most out of a small part.

George C. Potter played as he always does, consistently and well. His was the part of the husband who had to lie to avoid telling the truth that would not have been believed and upon him rested a great deal of responsibility in the play and it was this that cast him for the part. He filled the bill as he had been expected to do.

W. L. Warren, the "fawney" sport in rags and colors, did plenty of good work and received a generous share of the laughs, while Edmund K. Arnold, the victim of his friends' explanations, played up to the lead of Mr. Potter in good shape. Opposite Miss Arleigh played G. A. Jordan, the man Dobson, filling the part well. His was one of the minor roles, but as

WILL LECTURE ABOUT HAWAII

A. O. Hushaw Tells Promotion Committee of Work and Plans.

The weekly session of the Promotion Committee yesterday afternoon was devoid of any particular interest.

Present were F. L. Waldron, J. L. McLean, W. T. Lucas and Willard F. Brown.

A. O. Hushaw, a lecturer who has used Hawaii as a subject for mainland tours for several years, paid his respects to the committee. He said that his lecture on Hawaii was always well received, particularly in the northern and middle western states where there was a great demand for information concerning this Territory.

He said that he was here a number of years ago and that he had come back to get posted up to date. When here before he got his lantern slides from Davey, now at Palo Alto, but they were now out of date and he would be grateful if the committee would do something for him in the matter of securing new slides. He had had most of his old ones broken in an accident at Angel's Camp.

Asked as to where Hawaii ought to look with the best prospect of success for tourists and home-seekers, Mr. Hushaw replied that in his opinion Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa and the surrounding states, would be the best place to recruit in. In those states, said he, a great many people were dissatisfied with conditions.

Hushaw will wait till the return of Secretary Wood a week from today, when he will be fixed up with the slides he needs.

On his return to the mainland he intends starting on a two-years' lecturing tour through the eastern states.

It was decided to send pictures of the Floral Parade to the various automobile journals in the states and to forward a copy of the Advertiser containing an account of the parade to the leading newspapers of the mainland.

J. H. Catton submitted six samples of picture postals dealing with the parade, for which he asked $5 per hundred. The matter was left in abeyance until the return of H. P. Wood.

HOW GROSSMAN LOST HIS LIFE

Quarrel Over Length of Time for Cooking Eggs Led to Tragedy.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 13.—In a quarrel that arose over so slight a thing as the length of time necessary to cook three eggs for breakfast, Jacob E. Grossman, foreman of the Crocker Estate Company's grading camp at Bootz Park, on the Mission road, near Siskiyew Avenue, was literally riddled with bullets by Samuel H. Taylor, the cook of the camp. The shooting occurred at 6:30 o'clock, the breakfast hour. Taylor used an automatic revolver and fired six bullets at close range into Grossman, all of which took effect, two in the hip, three in the legs and one in the arm. Grossman, suffering intense agony, survived nearly an hour and died on the operating table at St. Luke's Hospital. Taylor was booked on a charge of murder by Patrolman A. A. Archer.

Witnesses to the shooting say that Grossman, who was in a great hurry to get away to a certain piece of work, brought three eggs to Taylor while the latter was preparing breakfast for the men, and asked him to cook the eggs right away.

SHOOTS THE FOREMAN.

They say Taylor acted in a surly manner and gave Grossman little satisfaction as to whether the eggs would be cooked or not. Grossman, after waiting for some time in the dining-room, jumped up and said he would see who was boss in the camp and find out if the cook could hinder work in that manner. Taylor overheard the words and followed Grossman outside, where Grossman started in the direction of the office of Superintendent F. W. Dodge. Taylor overtook him and there were more angry words. Some say that Grossman struck Taylor and others say that he did not. Then, so suddenly that no one remembers just how it began, Taylor had opened fire and everybody scattered.

At the second shot Grossman sank to the ground with the bones of his leg broken by the bullets. Like a maniac, with distorted features and glaring eyes, Taylor stood even closer to the badly-wounded man and fired shot after shot until his automatic

COURTS WILL SEPARATE HARRY THAW AND WIFE

NEW YORK, February 13.—The World states positively, notwithstanding the denial by Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, that she and Harry K. Thaw have agreed to part, and that all that remains to be done before the suit for the annulment of their marriage on the ground of Thaw's insanity is brought, is to complete the terms of the financial settlement.

Lawyer Daniel O'Reilly is said to be acting for the young wife and Lawyer Russell Peabody for Thaw in this matter, but they have not been able to reach an agreement as to how much she shall receive because she demands, it is reported, much more than the Thaw family are willing to give.

It is stated that the understanding that Thaw and his wife should separate was reached before his second trial was begun, and that the action was deferred because of the advisability of having Evelyn Nesbit Thaw as the principal witness for the defense. For that reason the outward show of friendship by Thaw's mother for his wife and the young couple maintained the appearance of affection. At the conclusion of the second trial all pretense of friendliness between Evelyn and the Thaws was cast aside.

The laws of the State of Pennsylvania provide that an insane person cannot legally wed. The Thaws will make the claim that if Harry Thaw was insane when he killed Stanford White, as the New York courts decided he was, then he was insane when he married Evelyn Nesbit. The Thaws, it is declared here, are very glad to accept this loophole through which legally to separate the couple.

It is said that Evelyn Nesbit Thaw is equally pleased, and that the only person who objects to the arrangement is the man now confined in the asylum at Matteawan, who still has an insane passion for the little Dresden doll whom he made his wife.

Commissioner Pratt
to Kauai.

The truth concerning the Mana lands on Kauai, concerning the value and productiveness of which there have been so many conflicting opinions expressed since the proposal to offer them for sale was arrived at, will be learned officially this week, Land Commissioner Pratt, accompanied by Jared G. Smith, director in charge of the U. S. Experiment station, having sailed for Kauai last night by the Mikahala to go over that ground and see for themselves. The Governor visited the district a short time ago, but desires to obtain more expert knowledge on the matter in view of the variety of opinions now being expressed. The Commissioner will return on Sunday, but, if necessary to obtain complete knowledge, Mr. Smith will remain on the land longer. In addition to the statements that the Knudsen have a corner on the sisal plants and therefore a cinch on the land under the terms of sale proposed, something denied by those concerned, the Governor was informed yesterday that others, Attorney White in particular, had cornered the market on young coconuts available for planting. The determination of Commissioner Pratt to be back on Sunday is in view of the trip he is to take with Governor Frear next week to Maui, of which party Secretary Mott-Smith will also be one. This trip is to take a general size-up of the land situation on the Valley Isle, where the government holdings are very large. The trip has to deal with no particular section of the government land, but is to familiarize the Executive with the general features of all.

Commissioner Pratt and Mr. Smith were accompanied to Kauai by Augustus Knudsen, Eric Knudsen, who wanted to make the trip, being prevented by his grand jury duties.

HOW GROSSMAN
LOST HIS LIFE

weapon had exhausted the magazine. Then Taylor, still retaining his revolver, hurried to the kitchen and shut the door.

ARCHER ARRESTS TAYLOR.
Mounted Patrolman A. A. Archer chanced to be riding near the camp at the time of the murder and heard the fusillade of shots. He spurred to the scene and found Grossman, fatally wounded, lying on a pile of dirt midway between the dining-hall and the superintendent's office. Several workmen had gathered around the prostrate man, who told Archer that the cook had done the shooting and that he still had the revolver.

Archer found Taylor entrenched in the kitchen and covered him with his revolver. He then ordered the cook to hand over his weapon and secured the handcuffs on his wrists.

"Why did you shoot the man?" asked Archer.
"— it, he struck me," replied Taylor, "and he put his hand at his hip pocket and I thought he was going to draw his gun."

Archer brought Taylor before Grossman, who was scarcely able to speak from loss of blood, and in the presence of some workmen Grossman said Taylor had shot him without cause. Archer then sent workmen for a physician, and booked Taylor at the Ocean View Police Station. Later when he returned to the camp he found that no physician had responded, and he took the wounded man on a street car to St. Luke's Hospital, where he died at 7:29 o'clock.

COOK'S VERSION OF TRAGEDY.
Taylor admitted yesterday at the City Prison that he was very angry when he did the shooting, and his excuse for the murder is that he believed Grossman intended to draw a revolver to shoot him when he began firing in self-defense.

"While I was cooking the breakfast for the men," said Taylor yesterday, "Grossman brought me some eggs and told me to cook them right away. I cooked them, but I guess he thought I took too long, for he made a fuss about it, and left the diningroom on his way to the superintendent's office. I cursed at him for going to the superintendent, and followed him outside. When we got outside there was some more talk and then a fight started.

"I cannot say whether Grossman struck me or not. I don't think that he did, and I don't know whether I struck him or not, but I know that I was very mad. Then I saw Grossman put his hand quickly to his hip pocket, and I thought he was going to shoot me. I thought my life was in danger then, so I grabbed my gun and fired. I don't remember how many shots I fired, but I did not intend to kill the man at all. I only wanted to wound him so that he could not shoot me. I began firing at his legs.

FEARED A LYNCHING.
"That was the first time I ever had any trouble with Grossman. I have had considerable trouble with the other men. I have been afraid of my life. There are about eighty or ninety men working there, and they had threatened to lynch me because the grub was poor. They said the grub was no good and that I was responsible for it, but I was not, for I only cooked the grub. That was the reason I got a gun, after they began to threaten me. I bought the revolver for my own protection. I have never been in trouble in my life before, and never was arrested for any offense."

Taylor says he comes from Redtop, Texas, and that he has been in this city about five years, having worked all that time as a cook. He says he has been connected with the grading camp for a few weeks. Grossman was a fine appearing man, about forty-five years of age. He was single and resided at 531 Mission street.

JAPANESE RUMORS OF PLAN
TO ATTACK THE BATTLESHIPS

Editor Advertiser: While in Japan I heard a rumor of the plan of the Japanese to trap the American battleships under Admiral Evans, and it is as follows:

Keep very friendly with the Americans, in fact be extra friendly if necessary, submit to almost anything that the Americans demand, but at the same time be making all preparations for war, but keep it as quiet as possible, and do everything that will help to throw the Americans off their guard. The plan is to wait until the fleet of battleships are well on their voyage to the Philippines, and out of all communication with land, even by wireless, then suddenly make an attack on Manila, land troops and capture the place at any cost. The American fleet will be ignorant of all that has happened, and when they do arrive they will be attacked by the entire combined Japanese fleets, including torpedo boats, submarines, battleships, cruisers and floating mines, which will destroy or cripple the American fleet so badly that there would be no hope for Evans but to steam to the nearest neutral port and be interned. This is a wonderfully clever plan, and one that would prove very effective should they carry it out, so the Americans should be on their guard. In fact I should advise the fleet to stay at Honolulu and the Pacific Coast until Manila and the rest of the Philippines are sufficiently fortified to resist an attack by the Japanese. To send a fleet out when their base of destination could be captured before their arrival, would be a very foolish piece of strategy. The Japanese want watching, especially at the present moment, when they are so excessively nice. The Japanese will never fight a fair combat, that is well known, they must have the odds in their favor or they will not play. This was shown in the war with China, and also in the war with Russia. It is not generally known, but Japan outnumbered the Russians in every engagement at least two to one. The Russian cruiser Varlag was ordered out of Chemulpo and attacked by fifteen Japanese war vessels, and after fighting for six hours, returned to port and sank, with all the gunners killed and the ship badly riddled. At the recent conference of The Hague, the Japanese were one of the powers to sign the document compelling a notice before declaring war, but as it takes some twenty days for a war vessel to make the trip from Honolulu to Manila, they could easily give the necessary notification and at the same time carry through their drastic plot of annihilating the American fleet.

If America lost the Philippines, her fleet, and Hawaii, what would prevent the Japanese from landing a strong force of men on some unprotected part of the American continent, and start an invasion of America proper?

The Americans should be alert, and watchful, for the Japanese are not preparing for the fun of it, for they can't afford that. Nobody knows when they will make an attack, so the fleet should be kept at Hawaii and the Pacific until the Philippine and the Hawaiian Islands are fortified strongly enough to take care of themselves, and not until then, will Japan's chance of conquest be over.

Yours truly,

ADMIRAL LUDLOW
WITHOUT A HOME

NEW YORK, February 19.—Rear Admiral Nicoll Ludlow, United States Navy, retired, and his wife have separated and he is going to Mexico to visit his brother. The aged Admiral was shaken with emotion today on leaving his ancestral home at Oakdale, Long Island, never to return. He said he did not know where he would make his home.

Mrs. Ludlow is a sister of J. R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer and Washington Star, and also of Admiral Dewey's wife. She was a widow when married to the Admiral eight years ago. During the honeymoon Ludlow deeded her the Long Island estate, where he was born and which has been owned by the Ludlow family since Revolutionary days. She has now enforced her rights and he is obliged to leave. The Admiral lately recovered from a severe illness, during which his life was despaired of for several weeks.

His wife did not visit him, but stayed with Mrs. Dewey in Washington. She and her son, Deputy Police Commissioner Bugher of New York, waited today until he had packed up and left before going to the house. Before going he visited the cemetery on the estate and wept over the tombs of his parents and other relatives. The cause of the separation, which took place last year, is not disclosed.

[Admiral Ludlow was here in 1893 in command of a wooden cruiser of the old class and was known to be a royalist sympathizer.]

SOME CHANGES OF TEXT.

Kaneohe, Feb. 27, 1908.

Editor Advertiser: Allow me to make the following corrections re article sent by me to your paper and published Feb. 26, 1908. Sacred to the memory of Lieut. Tom Edgar of the Royal Navy, who departed this life, Oct. 15, 1895 (and here should have been added), aged fifty-six years. "When seen by the writer in 1900," should have read, "when seen by the writer in 1890." "Mr. Mather Montgomery," should have read, "Mr. Montgomery Mather." These are my errors. You were asked, Mr. Editor, to insert after the words "Island of," the name of Hawaii as spelt by Capt. Cook. I think it was spelt Oahynee or something near to that and my purpose in writing this is to let the public know exactly what is on the stone.
Respectfully,

HIGH SCHOOL BADLY BEATEN

Allioliadis Win Junior School Championship at Soccer Football.

The last game of the Junior Association Football League was played yesterday afternoon on the Allioliadis campus and resulted in a win for the home team by the handsome score of six goals to nothing. This match entitles the Allioliadis team to the championship of the Junior League, they having secured seven points and the Punahou coming second with five. The record of the champions is four games played, three won and one drawn. The Punahou have played four, won two, drawn one and lost one.

The game commenced at the scheduled time, and the Allioliadis immediately assumed the aggressive. The wet ground and heavy ball were, however, not conducive to accuracy, but the combination of the home forward line was not to be denied, and after some vigorous play, chiefly from the three center players, the ball was lodged in goal by Rickard. Upon the game being resumed, the High School team got down to work, and Monsarrat, in particular, was to the fore, beating ably seconded by Oss and Biar. Woo and Purvis for the college were reliable, and the former's kicking again saved the situation.

At length the High School's attack slackened and the Allioliadis forwards took their turn. W. Carter now did good work and passed out to Kalei, who, however, failed to connect and appeared to allow the ball to pass through him, thus rendering the attack futile. He not long after redeemed himself by finding the goal for the college. The home team still continued to press and before half time Rickard added another goal to the score.

After the interval the visiting team were without the service of one of their players, who was put out of commission by an injured ankle. Given the advantage of the hill the High School now showed up well and worked together splendidly. Their forward especially was conspicuous and certainly had hard luck in failing to score on two occasions. In one instance, after the Allioliadis goalkeeper had been beaten, Purvis snatched away what seemed to be an inevitable point for the Highs. Biar, White, Monsarrat and Marks all played excellently, the latter being invaluable to his side.

The Allioliadis backs were given plenty to do, and it was not until the half was well advanced that Ben Kaneali registered another goal for the college by a long, whizzing shot—the best of the match—which would have been a credit to the senior league. This fresh success re-inspired the Allioliadis and they again resumed the aggressive. Rickard and Carter attacked again and again and finally the ball was once more sent home by Foster, who had for some time been showing up well on the right wing. Foster and Cockett, who played in this part of the college attack, although doing excellent work, unfortunately kept too close together and thus neutralized much of their effort. Before the whistle blew, Rickard added one more point and the game ended with a score of 6 to 0 in favor of the college.

For a losing team, the High School certainly played well, and did much better than the final score would suggest. Among many of the visiting team who did yeoman service are to be mentioned Monsarrat, Biar, King, Marks and the two full-backs. The goalkeeper, too, handled himself well and saved the school from still worse defeat.

Allioliadis is to be congratulated on its success. The interest and part this young educational establishment is taking in the games and outdoor recreation of the city are a healthy criterion of the good work it is accomplishing.

The winning team was as follows: Goal, Kalua; full backs, R. Purvis, J. Woo; half-backs, Ben Kaneali, Ben Kahoa, J. Coster; forwards, T. Cockett, F. Robinson, W. Carter, C. Rickard, K. Hoapili.

The illustrated Souvenir of the Congressional visit last May has been issued from the presses of the Gazette company in the form of a second edition. It is a work of beautiful typography and contains halftone pictures covering a variety of island subjects. As a supplemental souvenir to Picturesque Hawaii it is invaluable. The price of the Souvenir is fifteen cents.

MANILA MAY SEE GOOD BALL

"Dad" Seabree Is Attracted by Jess Woods' Touring Proposition.

MANILA, January 24.—Mr. John Seabree, president of the Manila Baseball League, has just received a letter from Jesse L. Woods, manager of the famous All-Hawaiian baseball team, stating that it is the intention of "Mique" Fisher, who is the king of baseball and manager of the Pacific Coast team, and himself, to organize a baseball club composed of National, American and Pacific Coast League players, which will be an all-star club and composed of the very best talent in the United States.

It is their intention to tour Hawaii, Japan, Manila and China. He asks "Dad" Seabree to correspond with him in regard to the Manila end of the trip and to let him know just what could be done here in regard to such a proposition. In closing, he states: "Of course such an undertaking would be an expensive one but from what I am told by army officers, I think something could be done. It would be a grand entertainment for the Manila people as well as a great boost to the game in that country. I have just had a Coast team of stars visit Hawaii and it proved a success in every respect."

"Dad" Seabree has replied requesting information as to the time of year they could come over and has forwarded a rough outline of what the expenses might be in this city, and stated that Manila would meet any reasonable expense in order to see some good fast baseball by professional players.

This aggregation of players without doubt, would be one of the fastest that has been witnessed anywhere and would include such stars as the famous twirler "Barney" Joy, the idol of Honolulu fans and the first man who was ever imported to the United States to play baseball; "Bill" Hampton, the well known 3rd baseman; "Jim" Williams, the shortstop; "Red Dog" Devreux, an all round player and one of the finest coaches on the Pacific coast; "Joe" Nealon, the first baseman of the Pittsburgh National League team; George Hildebrand, the highest salaried outfielder in the Coast League; Dashwood, the famous batter; Catcher Bliss, of the St. Louis team, and several others.

It is very probable that the teams, if they conclude to make the tour, will be here during the early spring in order to be present in the United States at the opening of the regular baseball season there.

WRESTLERS TO SIGN ARTICLES

Froelecher and Unknown Jap Will Come to Terms This Afternoon.

Hans Froelecher and the unknown Japanese will sign articles for a wrestling match at 2 p. m. today at the Fashion. Preliminaries were talked over at a meeting yesterday afternoon and the way seems to be cleared for the match.

At yesterday's meeting there were present W. Vida, the Japanese backer of the unknown, Eddie Tait, Hans Froelecher and members of the press.

Tait broke the ice by stating that Froelecher wanted to wrestle on a basis of winner take all. He was willing to promote the show on a basis of 50 per cent of the gross receipts, and would be willing to post a reasonable forfeit.

Vida said that the question of promotion was one which had to be considered. He might feel like doing something in that line himself.

Tait said that it was immaterial to him who ran the show. There would be heavy expenses and wrestling was an experiment here, anyhow. He suggested that the best bidder do the promoting, and that he be required to put up a guarantee.

Vida thought that the affair might be very nicely promoted by himself and Tait but the latter didn't see things in that light. He wanted the thing placed in the hands of one man and wasn't particular who the man was, so long as he knew his business.

"Your offer of 50 per cent is altogether too low," said Vida; "we won't entertain it."

"How much more than 50 per cent will you give for the privilege of managing the affair?" asked Tait.

Vida replied that he would consider the matter and give his answer today. Details of the match were then discussed and an amicable understanding arrived at on every vital point.

The men will wrestle for the promoter making the best offer on April 1, winner take all. The bout will be catch-as-catch-can, and will be governed by the laws of the International Wrestling Association.

The weights will be catch and a referee agreeable to both parties will be selected. The names of W. Wilder, Sam Johnson and Will Prestidge have been mentioned in this connection.

A forfeit of $50 will be posted by each man today to ensure his fulfilling his contract.

It is probable that either Joe Cohen or Jack Scully will handle the business end of the match.

Froelecher goes to Wailuku tonight to train. There is much interest in wrestling on Maui and Bob Lindsay writes that there are at least three mat artists on that island who would like to have a chance at Froelecher.

series championship schedule was arranged. Next Sunday the Kalihis will play the Lilehuas and the winners will meet the Buffalo Bills on March 7. The games will start at 2 p. m.

The entries for the championship field-day are as follows: Chinese Athletic Club, Y. M. C. A., Kamehameha Schools and High School. Teams must send in the names of men competing for them by March 15 at 7:30 p. m. The idea is to have a scrutinizing committee pass on the names with the view of weeding out any possible ineligible.

The Hawaiian Gun Club will start practicing on March 1 at their Kakaako traps. The weekly challenge cup shoots won't commence for a while. The club is in a very satisfactory condition.

GETTING READY FOR CARNIVAL

The fishmarket on Alakea street is the scene of the labors of a corps of carpenters these days, who are engaged in transforming the place into the fairland which it is expected to resemble on March 3, the date of the Mardi Gras.

It will be the largest enclosure ever devoted to an entertainment in Honolulu and the dancing floor will be as wide as many of the local streets, and half a block long.

Arc lights are being installed and tiers of spectators' seats, able to accommodate four hundred, are being constructed.

A commodious promenade is also being arranged where lemonade and ice-water will be served.

At one end of the enclosure a throne is being built, to be occupied by King and Queen Carnival.

The Beautiful Liliulalu

The following comes to hand over the strangely familiar initials, A. M. P.:

The giddy young Liliulalu
Is de trop from my point of view (vous, you);
Not till she's suppressed
Will she (entre nous) give us a rest,
But, la, la, chacun a son gout (comprenez?)

"Mollie Heney" somewhat brashly intimates that Lili's a grafter. His comment, which might have been dedicated to a recently departed soubrette, runs as follows:

'Twould appear to a stranger that Lillie
Would be classed on the track, "sportive filly."
And each guy that she did
Must perforce doff his lid
To her powers of graft—willy nilly.

The same contributor weighs in with another which follows:

She rejoiced in her fame as a rider,
And the bronc never lived that defied her,
But she wouldn't, 'twould seem
Trot in Life's double team,
And in consequence, lately they've guyed her.

Decidedly more complimentary to the girl is the following from "Sanctum":

A handsome young fellow of Oahu
Heard a girl say: "I'm charmed that I saw you."
He observed her a spell
And then raised a yell—
'Twas the beautiful Liliulalu.

In a soberer vein writes "Elleresea," who obliges with the following:

The beautiful Liliulalu,
Proclaimed as the belle of Oahu,
Had lovers galore
Yet wanted some more,
But blushed when she found that we all knew.

Oh, beautiful Liliulalu,
Why are you the belle of Oahu?
There are others as fair
And it hurts them, I swear,
To know that for you only these rhymes grew.

If Ella Wheeler leaves Oahu
And the beautiful Liliulalu,
She'll mourn when too late
That she left to her fate
Her God-child, the belle of Oahu.

"They say," "respectfully submits":

Fair Liliulalu's old mummer,
They say was a regular hummer;
Her girl was a beaut—
That was her long suit,
And she laid for each wealthy new-comer.

As a telling off-set to the above bit of definition, read this:

Oh, shame on the gent and the lady
Who casts out reflections so shady
On Liliulalu
Or her ma, for I knew
And respected them both.
(Signed) O'GRADY.

Now comes E. Z. Mark of Greenfields, Missouri, and of a truth he writes feelingly. Witness:

The beautiful (!) Liliulalu
Was never the belle of Oahu;
For malhins she'd wait
Drinking "squareface" till late,
And raising a hubalbaloo.

MODIFYING EXCLUSION.

In his speech at one of the Chinese receptions given Mr. Wu Ting Fang, the veteran diplomat said that he hoped to secure some modification of the Exclusion law. Just what, was not pointed out, though light on the nature of his possibilities may be found in the annual report of Secretary Straus:

As the laws are framed, it would appear that the purpose was rigidly to exclude persons of the Chinese race in general and to admit only such persons of the race as fall within certain expressly stated exemptions—as if, in other words, exclusion was the rule and admission the exception. I regard this feature of the present law as unnecessary and fraught with irritating consequences. In the administration of the laws so framed, notwithstanding the care taken to treat persons of the Chinese race lawfully entitled to admission with the same courtesy and consideration shown to other foreigners, it is impossible that persons who have to endure requirements and formalities peculiar to themselves should fail to take offense, and to resent as a humiliation the manner in which by law they are distinguished from natives of other countries. Laws so framed can only be regarded as involving a discrimination on account of race.

Secretary Straus points out that his theory was verified by the action of the Chinese government in denouncing the treaty upon which the exclusion laws were based, and in the boycott which made serious inroads into American commerce. The instigators of this boycott, he alleges, were "various trade guilds and business and commercial associations of the empire." The effect of the boycott was to reduce the importations from America more than fifty per cent within two years. The boycott, in his belief, was directly caused by the harsh enforcement of the exclusion laws. He suggests that he would be derelict to duty if he failed to invite the attention of Congress to the injurious effect of the exclusion laws upon commerce, and upon the friendly relations of the two governments. He adds:

It is not only the right, but the duty of this government, for its own protection and for the security and welfare of its citizens, to exclude foreigners from its territory whenever the public interests require, but to so exercise that right as needlessly to offend the amour propre of a friendly nation, or unnecessarily to humiliate a whole people when only a particular class is to be reached, can not be the action intended, and should be guarded against in every possible way.

From Mr. Straus' point of view, the concession should be one of official politeness and this, of course, should be pleasing to Mr. Wu, who greatly resents the treatment by Federal officials of Chinese scholars and business men who seek a landing. The Chinese envoy will also try for a modification of the Exclusion law so as to permit a restricted labor emigration to Hawaii and the Philippines; but it seems doubtful, just before a presidential election, if Congress could be induced to consider so drastic a change of policy.

JUDGE WILFLEY.

A great many people will be guided in their estimate of Judge Wilfley, of Shanghai, by the findings of The Outlook. That able periodical, under the caption of "A Fearless Judge" speaks as follows:

"Judge Wilfley is a Missourian by birth. He is forty-one years of age, and is a graduate of the Central College of Fayette, Missouri, and of the Yale Law School. He was engaged in law practice in St. Louis until 1901, when he went to Manila as Attorney General for the Philippines. Like Secretary Taft, so Judge Wilfley abandoned a brilliant, permanent professional career at home to obey what he conceived to be the call of duty to a post of need abroad. He remained five years at Manila before going to Shanghai. In politics he is a Gold Democrat. His appointment, therefore, under a Republican President is a creditable manifestation of the non-partisan spirit which should always animate the Departments of State and Justice.

"The court has now been in operation a year. Judge Wilfley has heard many cases in Shanghai, and has also held sittings in Tientsin, Hankan, and Canton. The present seems a proper time, therefore, to chronicle the work of this new court, its problems, and the means taken to meet them.

"For many years Shanghai has been an international dumping-ground. It has received an influx of many undesirable characters, an influx in which our country has been only too prominently represented. Among these characters were certain "shyster" lawyers who had found it convenient to leave other places. Much more in evidence were sharpers, swindlers, and gamblers, but especially so large a number of loose women, who either came from America or who found it advisable to claim to have done so, that not only in Shanghai but in all Chinese ports the term 'American girl' has become a vernacular term of moral contempt and reproach. Some of the lawyers above mentioned were in league with the swindlers and bad characters, defending their interests, assisting them to defy law and decency, and confusing the consular courts. Of course this boldness and arrogance of the combined resources of vice had a pernicious effect upon the American name in general, and in particular upon our commercial, social, educational, and other interests throughout China. Such a condition confronted Judge Wilfley when he took charge of the new court.

"As the first necessary step in the execution of justice, Judge Wilfley gave notice that a written examination would be held for admission to the Bar of his court. There were eight applicants. Two passed! Those who did not claimed that Judge Wilfley had acted without the authority either of the Department of State or the Department of Justice, and that he should be 'impeached.' As a matter of fact, the legality of holding examinations of the sort here objected to is a question upon which the Supreme Court has long since passed.

"Within a week of its opening a number of the leading gambling-house keepers and swindlers were brought before the court. They were tried, convicted, and sentenced to terms of imprisonment. This startled the foreign criminal class and correspondingly impressed the Chinese. In one specially flagrant case an American had induced a Chinaman to pay six thousand taels ($4500) for the lease of a building to be used as a gambling resort at the coming races, knowing perfectly well that gambling was prohibited by the Municipal Council. The American court gave judgment in favor of the Chinaman and ordered the District Attorney to file the information against the American for obtaining money under false pretenses. Within ten days that American was tried and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in Shanghai jail. Judge Wilfley's course with regard to other loose characters was characterized by a like promptness and efficiency. All the eight American keepers of houses of ill fame were brought into court. They pleaded guilty and were fined a thousand dollars each. So summary was the action against disreputable houses that all of them kept by American women were closed, and their inmates, over sixty in all, thereupon left China.

"In civil as well as in criminal cases Judge Wilfley's record is worthy of note. The result of Judge Wilfley's activity is not only the recovery of the American good name, and not only the conservation of American interests, but also present confidence on the part of the Chinese that their rights are exactly as secure when considered by this tribunal as are the rights of an American.

"Legislation should now be secured from Congress to correct defects in the system of law in force in China. Judge Wilfley urges the passage of an act providing, first, for certain specific and peculiar needs of Americans in China, and, second, for the adoption for general purposes of the California codes as a basis of jurisprudence. This would be appropriate and practical, since appeals from Judge Wilfley's court lie to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, which sits in California. Nor should Congressmen neglect their opportunity of showing in this way their appreciation of an American who has redeemed the American name in China, in spite of the threats and obstruction of corrupt and selfish enemies who hate and fear an unwavering administration of justice."

The Publisher's Weekly.—The Hawaiian Gazette Co., Ltd., of Honolulu, has issued a folio entitled "Picturesque Honolulu," which consists of illustrated articles on the founders, the society, the native-born leaders, education, climate, art and artists, literature and authors, public and private buildings, clubs, parks, (under which comes Kapiolani Park, which occupies one of the most beautiful sites in the world), the food supply, historical landmarks, sports, etc., of Honolulu, with much statistical information of the island. Numerous half-tone cuts illustrate the beauties of this tropical spot in the mid-Pacific.

"Picturesque Honolulu" is the name of a beautifully printed and illustrated supplement to the Hawaiian Gazette, a copy of which has been received by Miss Mary Jones at the Elizabeth branch Carnegie Library. It contains much that is interesting concerning Hawaii and its capital, presented in a most attractive way.—Elizabeth (Pa), Herald.

ors tried to foist on the county payroll a short time ago, was there; Sam Dwight, who declared he wouldn't stand for Rathburn, was there, and last but not least there was lots of Link McCandless' money there, in the pockets of some of the workers. Harvey and Fern were probably not at the meeting, but as their actions have shown them to be Achi's pawns, their sympathy is probably with the Achi movement now, and their open support may be given to it later, unless expediency shows that a secret support will be better.

Just now there is an alliance between Achi and Link McCandless, while the secession of Henry Vida from the Republican ranks is hailed by the hui with great acclaim. All that crowd want of McCandless, however, is the money that he is shelling out. Eventually he will be dumped harder by his present Labor friends than he was by the Republicans in the last election, and he will be a wiser and a poorer man after the next election if he continue to twirl the combination of his safe until that grand awakening as busily as he is doing at present. The wily Achi has mesmerized the statesman from Kaneohe and the healers are milking him properly.

Achi is in great feather, however, and fails to realize that he too is in line to be dumped by the other leaders. The Hawaiian leaders of both sides are quite willing to allow him to do the organizing now, willing to let him shoulder all the publicity that his movement is going to entail, willing that he should create the dust under cover of which they will work together, but they are not willing that any of the spoils shall be his. They know better than the self-blinded Achi that the young Hawaiians won't stand for him nor the portion of the electorate that will be asked to contribute to the campaign funds of either party. So he will be shoved aside at the last moment or bought off and the others will sop up the fruits of victory.

With this scheme, which proposes to swing into line the voting strength of all the many fraternal hui organized in the past year and which will call into play every incident calculated to arouse race prejudice that has occurred or that can be invented, a great many Hawaiians are not in sympathy. At the present time the majority of the Hawaiian electors do not know that any such a scheme is on foot, but at the proper time the news will be sprung and the bitterest campaign in the history of the Territory will be fought out.

Achi has upwards of three hundred names on the membership list of his new party already, most of them genuine signatures. With them as a club he has announced once more to Charley Huxstace that he proposes to efface him politically, in spite of the fact that he has succeeded once for saying the same thing; he has succeeded in getting some of his lieutenants on the county payroll in the road department and is campaigning there actively, and he has made his alliance with Link McCandless.

McCandless is reported to be willing to dip deep if only his name is mentioned often enough and loud enough as the probable Democratic candidate for delegate to Congress. He has made an offer for the controlling interest of the Star, but his call was not loud enough. He is putting money into the Aloha Aina and scattering largess prodigally. He is also continuing his missionary work among his late colleagues, inviting them to hop the fence and get on the sunny side, but the only visible fruit so far has been Henry Vida.

The dismissal of Holt from the assessor's office and the disposition on the part of the Bar Association to refuse endorsement for Kepoikai are being worked to the limit to induce race rancor and other affairs of a like nature will be harped on in private caucuses and canvasses from now on until next November. This election is going to be fought in the dark and the hardest struggles will be carried on under the surface.

PEARSON NOT SURE OF TIMES

LONDON, February 18.—The struggle for the ownership of the Times is still on. It was announced some days ago that Pearson had withdrawn from the negotiations with the Walter family, but he says he is still negotiating regarding the paper's future. It has been stated that he had been outbid by an American syndicate, on whose behalf Moberly Bell, the present manager of the Times, acted in association with Jackson & Hooper, who are interested in the Book Club and other recent enterprises with which the Times has been connected.

The assertion is that the syndicate was prepared to put up $4,250,000, as compared with $3,750,000 proposed by Pearson. In the meantime other interests are aiming to get control. There is no prospect of early settlement.

Exclusion Modification

By E. W. Thwing.

Facts as to the condition of the Chinese in Hawaii, and a possible change of the Exclusion Law, have been before the President of the United States, for some time. Through friends in Washington, the subject was brought to his attention, a month or two ago. While no radical change can be expected at once, yet the matter will receive careful consideration, and improvements will no doubt be made, as there are many men of wide influence, who feel strongly in favor of better legislation for the Chinese. The following letter was received the first of January, from Hon. Edw. H. Haskell, of Boston, Mass.:

Boston, Mass., December 19th, 1907.
Rev. E. W. Thwing, Honolulu, Hawaii.
My dear Mr. Thwing: I was very glad to get your letter of November 15th, on my return from a business trip. I have called Dr. Capen's (Pres. of the A. B. of C. F. M.) attention, as well as our Baptist Executive officers, to the condition of things in Honolulu, and have urged them both to do what they can to better them, and I have already presented to Senator Lodge, and through him it will go to the President, your views in regard to the desirability of permitting a larger number of Chinese to come to Honolulu. From all I can learn, the outlook is not very hopeful in this direction, but I sincerely hope, with you, that public sentiment in our country may be disposed to adopt your views.
With best wishes, I am,
Yours very truly,
EDW. H. HASKELL.

The following are some of the facts, regarding the Chinese in Hawaii, that were brought to the attention of the President:

THE CHINESE IN HAWAII.
For more than fifty years, the Chinese labor has come to these islands of Hawaii. Until the annexation, they came at will, and have been one of the largest factors in producing and developing the wealth of the islands. There has always been a friendly feeling between the Hawaiians and the Chinese.

The Hawaiian government at all times treated them kindly and fairly, extending to them the right of citizenship, and all the privileges of polite society. As a result, today, they are a credit to the community. Although exactly the same class of laborers, that are found in California, these in Hawaii have been permitted to develop more along true American lines. And they have proved that they can become good American citizens. They have here many bright and beautiful American homes, with a family life established in accord with true American ideals. Their children attend the schools, making as fine a showing as those of any other nationality. Hawaii is glad of the Chinese she has, and would like to have others come.

In the census of 1900 there were 21,746 foreign-born Chinese. More than that, there were Hawaiian-born Chinese, citizens of the United States, to the number 4000. Since 1900, however, perhaps 6000 Chinese have gone to China. Now there are about 19,000 Chinese.

There are about 15,000 taxpayers who pay annually into the treasury of the Territory about $115,000. One-fourth of the total school tax is paid by the Chinese.

More of the thrifty industrious Chinese would prove a source of added wealth to the nation. California fruit growers cannot, in many cases, gather their crops because of the lack of labor. The Chinese can do this work well, and if justly treated, as in Hawaii, will in time form a desirable and valuable part of the American people. With careful restrictions, there need be no fear of a great flood of Chinese. And they are needed for work that, in many places, the whites are not willing to do.

The future welfare and prosperity of the great American Republic depends very largely upon continued friendly intercourse with China, the greatest empire of the world. This can be secured by carrying out the American principles of justice and liberty to all.

At the time the above facts regarding the Chinese in Hawaii were given to the President of the United States, the following appeal, for a modification in the present law, signed by some thirty professional and business men of influence, was also presented.

APPEAL TO THE PRESIDENT.

We, the undersigned American citizens, strongly urge a reconsideration and modification of the present Chinese exclusion laws, because of the following reasons:

1. We believe that the present discrimination, against the people of China alone, among the many nations of the world, is not in accord with the true American ideals of right and liberty, and will not further the truest interests and future welfare of the American people.

2. We are assured that in Hawaii, the same class of Chinese farmers and laborers that have gone to California, having been treated kindly and allowed an opportunity for education and development, are contributing generously to hospitals and other public enterprises, are where native born relied upon in elections to vote on the side of right and progress, and in many cases have made themselves beautiful American homes in these islands of the Pacific.

3. We believe it is required, by the genius of our government and institutions, and also in the interests of right and morality, the exclusion law should be so modified at once, as to allow the admittance of the wives and children of the Chinese already lawfully in the United States.

The fact, that any man, living lawfully and peaceably in a Christian nation like the United States, should be denied the right to have his wife and children come to live with him, is a shame and disgrace to the American people. This should be changed and changed at once.

4. We believe the commercial interests of Hawaii would be advanced by admitting the Chinese under wise restrictions as to numbers, and also with restrictions as to the use of opium.

HAWAII NEEDS CHINESE.

If changes can be secured, permitting a limited number of Chinese laborers to enter Hawaii yearly, it will have an important bearing on the future development and prosperity of these islands. It is possible, that in the future, large numbers of laborers from Japan may not be allowed to come to Hawaii. Many of the Japanese now here may return to their own land. More Chinese are needed for rice field, and plantation work. It would be of much benefit, if the number of Chinese in the islands could be, generally, about equal to the number of Japanese. White labor can not meet the demands found here, in Hawaii. The Chinese can, and will, do the work faithfully and well. If a few thousands, could come here every year, their coming would give an impetus to all business interests. It would benefit both American and Chinese merchants alike. As the Chinese laborer may not be permitted to go to the mainland, their coming to Hawaii could in no wise effect unfavorably the rest of the United States. Some more Chinese are needed, and wanted in Hawaii, and a strong effort should be made to secure them in the near future. Minister Wu said, "the ten-year treaty, between China and the United States including the exclusion law, has in reality ended, it is time for a reconsideration." The present arrangements are simply temporary. Now is the time to bring Hawaii's needs, as to more Chinese labor, before Congress. For the good, and future prosperity of our islands, let the matter be taken up, and carefully considered.

BIBLE READING MOVEMENT, READING FOR FEBRUARY 28

ACTS 13.

24 And on the morrow they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and his near friends.
25 And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.
26 But Peter raised him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.
27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and smelt many come together: 28 and he said unto them, Ye yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation; and yet unto me hath God showed that I should not call any man common or unclean: 29 wherefore also I came without gainsaying, when I was sent for. I ask therefore with what intent ye sent for me. 30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago, until this hour, I was keeping the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, a man stood before me in bright apparel, 31 and saith, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine aims are had in remembrance in the sight of God. 32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea side. 33 Whereupon therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all things that have been commanded thee of the Lord. 34 And Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: 35 but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him. 36 The word which he sent unto the children of Israel, preaching good things of peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all)—37 that saying ye yourselves know, which was published throughout all Judaea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; 38 even Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. 39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom also they slew, hanging him on a tree. 40 Him God raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest, 41 not to all the people, but unto witnesses that were chosen before of God, even to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 And he charged us to preach unto the people, and to testify that this is he who is ordained of God to be the Judge of the living and the dead. 43 To him bear all the prophets witness, that through his name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins. 44 While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all them that heard the word. 45 And they of the circumcision that believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit. 46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we? 48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

THRONE MAY NOT BE LOOKED AT

Yesterday was a busy day at the Crystal Palace. Several members of the committee were present directing touches of art in the decorations and devising ways and means for the comfort of the two thousand or more people who will attend the Mardi Gras next Tuesday night.

The erection of the throne will not be begun until later, possibly on Monday. It is to be a gorgeous affair with its decorations and it is not intended that the vulgar eye of the masses shall feast upon its beauties until the ballroom is opened formally for use. This will not be until after 8 o'clock the night of the ball. Before that time it will be seen only by members of the committee and those who will complete the scheme of electric lighting.

It has leaked out that there will be sensations in the matter of costumes to be worn by some of the ladies. As far as it is possible the designs are to be kept secret so that there will not be duplicates made. There were those last year that would have taken prizes in any competition on the Coast or in the East. Those are to be outdone this year by a few of the ladies who did not connect with prizes last Mardi Gras time.

There is a good deal of interest felt in the matter of Queen's gown. Just what design it will be is not made known but it is said to be something quite as elaborate as the one worn by Miss Iaukea. The desire to outdo is one of the frailties of woman and in the matter of a fancy costume for a ball is not an exception. It has been remarked that most girls lie awake nights thinking of the gown they are to wear on their wedding day; the same sensations are said to exist in the mind of the girl who is to be "Queen of May," "Queen of Carnival" or any other great celebration. Tickets for Mardi Gras are to be had at Wall, Nichols Co., Ltd., and the price is but two dollars and fifty cents. This includes a privilege of the floor, en masque, a good supper and trolley home after hours.

A SILLY SAYING.

"It is a common but silly opinion prevailing among a certain class of people that the worse a remedy tastes, smells or hurts, the more efficacious it is." So says a well-known English physician. He further adds: "For example, let us consider cod liver oil. As it is extracted from the fish this oil is so offensive to the taste and smell that many cannot use it at all, no matter how badly they need it. Yet cod liver oil is one of the most valuable drugs in the world and it is the greatest pity that we have not thus far been able to free it from those peculiarities which so seriously interfere with its usefulness." This was written years ago; the work of civilizing and redeeming it has since been triumphantly accomplished; and as a leading ingredient in the remedy called WAMPLE'S PREPARATION the oil retains all its wonderful curative properties with no bad smell or taste whatever. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry; creating a medicine of unequalled power for the diseases most prevalent and fatal among men, women and children. There is no other remedy to compare with it. It increases the digestive power of the stomach and in Blood Impurities, Throat and Lung Troubles, Nervous Dyspepsia and Scrofulous Affections it gives quick and certain relief and cure. Dr. G. C. Shannon, of Canada, says: "I shall continue its use with, I am sure, great advantage to my patients and satisfaction to myself." Has all the virtues of cod liver oil; none of its faults. You may trust it fully; it cannot disappoint you. At all chemists.

WILLIAMS GONE TO ANOTHER SHORE

For Thirty-Six Years He Kept the Honolulu Harbor Light.

William Williams, for nearly forty years lighthouse keeper in Honolulu harbor, sighted the beacon on the shores of eternity early yesterday morning and passed into the harbor of the beyond.

"BILL" WILLIAMS, FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS KEEPER OF THE HONOLULU HARBOR LIGHTHOUSE, WHO DIED YESTERDAY.

the Atlantic coast, and in farther regions. While still a young man he reached the Pacific Coast, and during the Civil War he enlisted in a California regiment. His service however was wholly on the Pacific Coast.

Thirty-six years ago he was appointed keeper of the lighthouse, and he held that position through all changes of governments in the islands. His home was on the little sand spit where the lighthouse was built, and there his children were born.

Though his children were born on the little lighthouse island and lived there many years, a few years ago he established a home on Artesian street where the family resided, though Williams and his sons still remained in the old home.

The flag at the pilot house and flags on the shipping throughout the harbor were at half mast yesterday as a mark of respect for one who had never failed in his duty as keeper of a light that has guided thousands of craft safely into harbor.

SAYS HE FURNISHED THE BAKER "DOUGH"

G. A. R. Smith, who runs a bakery on Fort street, was arrested yesterday for assault on Joe Reddy. The case was continued in the police court until this morning.

PING PONG ON WONG PONG.

Adolphus Revere was found guilty of assault and battery on Wong Pong yesterday morning and was sentenced to pay a fine of $7 and $3.50 costs.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM

Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and the Proof Is Right Here.

For years evidence that inflammatory rheumatism is curable by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills has been published. That hundreds of people have tried the treatment with good results is shown by the increasing number of cures reported.

Every sufferer from this most painful disease who does not try this treatment is neglecting the most hopeful means of recovery as is shown by the statement of Mr. E. C. Odell, of Morrison, Ill.

"I suffered with inflammatory rheumatism for eighteen months before I found a cure," he says. "I had always been more or less troubled with my kidneys and stomach. The rheumatic attack came on a few years ago when I was living in New York state. All of my muscles were inflamed and I was swollen from head to foot. I couldn't walk any distance at all without resting. The pains were dull and aching and once in a while were sharp and shooting. The rheumatism began to affect my heart, causing fainting spells."

"I was under a doctor's treatment for about a year, but didn't derive any help from it and in fact I think I grew worse. I saw an account of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a newspaper and began to use them at once. The relief was almost immediate and I took the pills until cured. I have never had the rheumatism in any form since. My wife has been very much benefited by using the pills as highly as I do."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were originally a prescription used in the doctor's private practice and their benefit to mankind has been increased many thousand fold by their being placed on general sale with the doctor's own directions for use. They are entirely safe and contain no opiates or other habit-forming drugs.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

The U. S. army transport Crook arrived from San Francisco at 8:30 p. m. yesterday. The transport left San Francisco on the 20th inst. at noon and had fine weather all the way down. Nothing of interest occurred during the voyage. The cabin passengers for Honolulu were Dr. E. F. Phillips, Chester J. Hunn and C. H. Raven of the local customs service. Dr. Phillips is a bee expert and will be connected with the U. S. Experiment station. C. J. Hunn will also be connected with the station.

Among the through passengers is Capt. G. M. Apple of the Fifth Field Artillery and wife. Capt. Apple is well known here, having been a member of Co. I of the Second U. S. Volunteer Engineers, which were stationed here in 1888.

The transport brought fifty men of the Twentieth Infantry for Camp Shafter. There are sixteen marines aboard for Guam. Going to Manila are the headquarters and first battalion of the Fifth Field Artillery, 200 men of the U. S. Marine Corps, and a number of casuals.

The Crook will sail for Guam and the Philippines on Monday afternoon. She takes on 300 tons of coal here.

NEBRASKAN AND VIRGINIA.

The reason for the announcement made in the Advertiser yesterday morning that the proposed sailing of the Nebraskan from Seattle for Honolulu had been cancelled, was that it was found that the vessel could not reach Honolulu in time to load and take up the proposed biweekly sailing-schedule. The Nebraskan will therefore sail from San Francisco for Honolulu March 6, beginning from that end the biweekly schedule.

The Virginian will sail from San Francisco the same day that the Nebraskan does. The Virginian is the new steamship of the line and brought out 10,000 tons of coal for the navy to San Francisco. But the immense quantities of coal accumulated at San Francisco for the fleet together with the large stocks of coal accumulated there by the coal dealers has so filled up all available room for coal that there has been great difficulty in finding storage room for it, and a number of sailing vessels have been transformed into coal hulks for coal storage. Among these have been the C. D. Bryant and the Planter, both of which were formerly well known in these waters.

state of affairs has made it impossible for the Virginian to discharge there and go up to Seattle before coming here. So she comes direct, sailing March 6, and will start the biweekly service to Salina Cruz, San Diego, San Francisco, Seattle and Honolulu, the Nebraskan and the Nevada taking up the biweekly service direct to San Francisco.

THE FULLERTON AND THE REEF.

The barkentine Fullerton, which for an hour on Wednesday afternoon was drifting uncomfortably near the reef off the Campbell-Parker residence at Waikiki, was towed out of the harbor about 4 o'clock by the tug Intrepid. The tow line was dropped when abreast of Diamond Head, the tugboat giving the vessel a good offing. But there was practically no breeze, and the vessel drifted with the current in toward the reef. While some of the waterfronters profess to believe the Fullerton was never in any real danger, Captain Nielsen, the lookout at Diamond Head, and others think that while not in imminent peril with good weather conditions, she was in an uncomfortable position, to say the least. Captain Ans of the Fullerton managed to wear his ship off and a breeze springing up he soon got out of the proximity of the reef and what to him was undoubtedly an unsatisfactory situation.

INTER-ISLAND STEAMERS.

The steamer Nihaui and the steamer W. G. Hall, both from Kauai, are expected to arrive early this morning, and discharge and sail again this afternoon for Kanae, returning as usual on their regular scheduled time Sunday morning.

The Maui and the Likelike, both from the Hawaii coast, are expected to arrive Saturday morning. Other inter-island steamers are as per regular schedule, the Glendale sailing this afternoon at 5 o'clock, and the Kinua arriving Saturday morning from Hilo and way ports, and the Iwani arriving from Molokai and Maui ports.

WIRELESS AT LAHAINA.

The steamer Hilonian sailed from Honolulu on Tuesday at 10 a. m. From that hour until 10 o'clock at night, Operator Ralston at the Lahaina wireless station was in communication with the vessel at frequent intervals. He last heard from her when 110 miles away. Had it not been for an electrical storm, he would doubtless have received additional signals on Wednesday morning. Walter Engle, formerly of the Lahaina bank, received a message from his father and sister, who were passengers on the steamer.

THE CHINA TODAY.

The steamship China is due here early this morning from the Orient. She may sail in the afternoon for San Francisco, though her agents say there is a possibility that she may not sail until Saturday morning. Coming between the line, large and new steamers, the China has not as large a booking of passengers as she ordinarily has. Whether she remains over until Saturday morning or not will depend on how much coal she requires to take on.

THE MALTE TAKES MAIL.

The French steamship Malte sailed yesterday morning very promptly at 10 o'clock for San Francisco, taking the mail. She is a sixteen knot boat and will make the voyage in six days getting the mail there a full day ahead of the China. Eight sacks of letter mail were put aboard her.

THE MANCHURIA.

The Pacific Mail steamship Manchuria sailed from Yokohama for Honolulu February 26 and is expected to arrive here on March 6, and will probably sail for San Francisco the same day. She brings about 600 tons of freight for this port, and has room for about 100 cabin passengers.

THE KOREA ON MONDAY.

The Pacific Mail steamship Korea is expected by her agents to arrive here on Monday morning from San Francisco. She is reported to have a large number of passengers for Honolulu.

LEVERS SAILS SATURDAY.

The four-masted schooner Robert Levers, Captain Underwood, will sail for San Francisco on Saturday with a full cargo of sugar for the Western Refinery.

JAPAN GATHERS MANY WAR SUPPLIES

WASHINGTON, February 19.—The War Department has taken rather seriously certain information received by it recently regarding Japan's activity in getting together munitions of war. It is aware that Japan has about 800 field guns, while this country has about one-tenth that number, and Japan is busy turning out more as fast as possible. Much will depend in the next war on the activity and efficiency of the field artillery. The general staff held a meeting yesterday to consider this and the matters relating to equipment and to consider information lately laid before Congress. R. G. Hazard, a wealthy business man of Providence, who is also a manufacturer of high explosives, is of the opinion that in a private way he has gathered some exceedingly important information as to the munitions by Japan and other countries, especially the former. He says that Germany spends $150,000 a year gathering facts as to Japan's accumulation of munitions and their character, while this country spends nothing, such work remaining for individuals. Hazard stated that he has received important information which he has laid before Congressional committees and which he today gave the President. The information is such, he says, that he cannot commit it to paper, but must disseminate it orally and in confidence.

THREE MILLION FOR A MANILA FORT

WASHINGTON, February 18.—As part of the joint program for the fortification of Manila bay it is learned today that the War Department has made application to Congress for an appropriation of $3,000,000 with which to build an artificial island, upon which the guns will be mounted for the defense of Cavite Naval Station. This appropriation comes from the action of the joint Army and Navy board. As a result of the work of this board Olongapo has been abandoned, it having been demonstrated that it would take not less than 100,000 men to defend the site on the land side. Manila proper has been selected for the location of the station, and Cavite, the old Spanish station, will probably be the key to the defense of Manila. For the proper defense of Cavite, however, additional fortifications are necessary, the easy entrance to the bay by Admiral Dewey's fleet having demonstrated that Corregidor could be passed and the city menaced without any great difficulty. For this reason it is proposed to construct an artificial island in the channel before Cavite, where a tremendous force of shot and shell can be concentrated upon an enemy.

BOMB WAS READY FOR KING CARLOS

LISBON, February 13.—It has been learned that a bomb was found under the landing stage where King Carlos landed on the day of the assassination. It had failed to explode because of a defect in the fuse. A number of persons have called at the late home of Bulca, one of the dead assassins, to give money to his mother-in-law for the support of his children. The proprietor of a department store has opened a subscription for them with $1000, also giving them free use of their homes. A curious fact has come to light. Shortly before the crime Bulca had competed with the King in a shooting match, beating his royal opponent by several points.

BIRDS KEEP WARM ON POWER LINES BAKERSFIELD, February 18.—T. L. Schuetze, chief engineer of the Edison electric plant on the Kern river, states that the only trouble experienced in the transmission of power to Los Angeles is the annoyance caused by eagles and cranes, which at dusk climb up under the insulators at the top of the high towers to keep warm. About the time an eagle gives a good-night yawn and stretches himself preparatory to going asleep his wings come in contact with the wires and the king of the air is a dead one. Schuetze says he had counted as many as forty-three dead eagles on the ground at the base of the transmission towers and as high as eighteen cranes. A wire guard is being placed on the transmission towers, with a sharp point, to keep the eagles away. Eagles are very careful of their wings, and will not alight where there is any danger of injury. When an eagle, with his outstretched wings, forms a short circuit, the transmission of power is affected about ten seconds.

BRITT-NELSON FIGHT POSTPONED A WEEK LOS ANGELES, February 14.—Willis Britt moved some of the heavens and nearly all the earth in the vicinity of Los Angeles today in his efforts to get the Nelson-Britt fight, scheduled for February 25, postponed, and finally won his point. James Edward and the Dane will not mingle at the Casino until March 3. Before he came to the real point the perfect kid handed out any one of a dozen reasons for the postponement. Finally, when pinned down to it, Willis admitted that he was due in a San Francisco court on the 25th to plead to the indictment he is up against.

CAMPBELL ESTATE CASE APPEALED

Old Litigation Now Goes Up to United States Supreme Court.

An appeal in the case of the trustees under the will and of the estate of James Campbell, deceased, was filed yesterday by Abigail K. Campbell-Parker, one of the respondents, asking that the matter be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States. The appeal was allowed yesterday by Chief Justice Hartwell.

In the Supreme Court of the United States, in the appealed cause, the first filing is an assignment of errors, giving the grounds of appeal. This is followed by an affidavit of George L. Bigelow, cashier of the estate, who states that the net income derived from the real property of the estate from February 16, 1902, to July 3, 1905, amounted to $236,684, and the net income from the personal property for the same period was $23,921.

A bond on appeal in the sum of $500, signed by the appellant and Samuel Parker, was also filed.

Similar papers were filed in the case of A. K. Campbell-Parker, appellant, versus A. K. Campbell-Parker et al., appellees.

WUNDENBERG ESTATE.

An inventory of the estate of F. W. Wundenberg, deceased, was filed yesterday by the appraisers, E. I. Spalding, John Marcellino and H. Armitage. The estate consists of 652 shares Honoumua Sugar Co., 102 Pioneer Mill, 50 Honolulu Plantation, 1 Hawaii Ditch, 1000 Mountain King Mining Co., 2 Sanitary Steam Laundry and 200 Oriental Brewing; life insurance balance of $4,628; promissory note aggregating $1,085; accounts due of $1440; I. O. U. to the total of $425; venture with P. E. R. Strauch, $1700; one-half interest in Honolulu real estate to the value of $2000; personal effects $260, and cash in bank $2745.83.

BUCKLAND AGENCY LOSES.

Judgment by default was rendered yesterday by Judge De Bolt against the defendant in the assumpsit case of E. M. Campbell versus Buckland's Business Bureau. This claim was for $1285, moneys advanced from time to time by the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co. to the Bureau, the claim having been transferred to the plaintiff.

ARRAIGNMENTS BEFORE JUDGE LINDSAY.

Five arraignments were had before Judge Lindsay yesterday morning. Kimi Kalina, indicted for assault and battery with a deadly weapon on Fong Sin, by banging him on the head with a muzzle-loading shotgun on February 2, reserved his plea until Monday, March 2.

George Namau, larceny second degree, indicted as the one who stole $5 worth of chickens from A. Haneberg at Waiialua, pleaded not guilty.

Kimi Kalina of Waiialua, accused of malicious burning, third degree, the setting afire of stacked rice valued at $100, the property of H. Hackfeld & Co., on February 1, reserved his plea until next Monday.

Frank Brillante, a Filipino cook, indicted for assault and battery with a knife, the assault being the stabbing and slashing of a Chinese hackdriver, pleaded not guilty.

Charles Elvin, the ex-armorer of the police department, accused of pointing a gun at Clerk N. T. Neilson, at the police station on February 18, the charge being assault with a weapon dangerous to life, entered a plea of not guilty.

The dates for the hearings of none of these trials were set.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

What's in a name? The answer is a good many dollars to be acquired by someone from the Sociedade Portuguesa de Santo Antonio, presumably Josepha Augusta Ferreira Cardozo. If the answers to a number of questions she is sending to three persons in Ponta Garca, Sao Miguel, Azores, are answered as she wishes. Nearly all the questions relate to names.

Francisco de Medeiros Simas is asked if he ever knew Manuel Madeiros Cardozo and how many other names he had; if he ever knew Manuel Madeiros, and how many names he had, and also about another man of many names, one of which is Furagrotas.

Maria Jacinta, alias Maria Capella, alias Maria Capella de Pardigos, is also to be asked a number of questions, principally concerning her many names and the reasons therefor. The various aliases of her husband and the names and sex of her children are also subjects of inquiry.

Corporatively, the priest at Ponta Garca is to be asked all about everybody, their names, marriages, children and migrations.

All these questions are on file in the Circuit Court as part of the suit of Mrs. Cardozo, widow, against the San Antonio Society for the death benefit claimed by her.

UNDERTAKER COMES FIRST.

The last shall be first, according to Scripture, and a ruling of Judge Lindsay, the latter deciding yesterday that the bill for the undertaker, the last item charged up against Samuel M. Pedro, deceased, should be the first one paid out of the estate. Next comes the tax assessor, death and taxes, both certainties and both privileged in priority over everything else.

In the order to administrator to pay certain claims against the estate, Judge Lindsay gave the precedence as follows, instructing C. F. Peterson, the administrator, to follow it: Twenty-five dollars to the Honolulu Undertaking Co. Seventy-five dollars to the tax collector. One hundred and thirty-four dollars back taxes to the tax collector pro rata with the other approved claims against the estate.

COURT NOTES.

G. G. Seong, defendant in the action brought by E. Friedlander & Sons, has filed as answer a general denial of every allegation in the cause. J. Lightfoot is his attorney.

Mrs. Kim has filed suit for divorce against her husband, Shin Tong, to whom she was married in Korea five years ago. Non support for the past three years is alleged.

A petition for guardianship of Parker, Edward, Jonah and Ernest Cummings, minors, was filed yesterday. J. Alfred Magoon being named as the guardian.

In the matter of T. M. Harrison vs. William Savage, as administrator of the estate of Frank Lucweiko, Judge Lindsay overruled the demurrer and denied a motion to dissolve the injunction.

The Federal grand jury has shifted quarters from the U. S. Marshal's office to the court room of Judge Robinson, where more room is available.

A case in which the defendant Kin Chi Sun, and the complaining and most of the other witnesses are Koreans, took up the greater part of the forenoon yesterday in the district court. At any rate, unable or unwilling, the defendant not being able to get money tried to get satisfaction and assaulted the complaining witness, battering him severely. ## LAND LINE BROKEN BY AN INTERLOPER

Land Commissioner Pratt received a complaint from Hilo yesterday concerning the sale of the Mauiua homesteads that places him in a quandary. The complaint was from one of those who had stood in line for a month to secure one of the lots, only to be dragged from his place at almost the last moment by a man bigger than he was and his place forcibly occupied by the interloper. As a consequence the big man got the land and the little place-holder gets nothing for his month's patience. Now the question is whether the Land Commissioner can legally take cognizance of anything that took place outside of the land office and on the grounds alleged refuse to allow the patent to the aggressor.

"I don't know what we can do about it," said the Commissioner yesterday. "There is a law to protect a man from assault and that law is the only one I know of that the ejected applicant can turn to. He should have had the big man arrested at once for assault and battery and then he could have got back his place—perhaps. But, is it any of the business of the department? I will have to pass that question up to the Attorney General."

The Attorney General was asked concerning this incident later in the day, but he had received no official communication in the matter. "I should say that a man is bound to be protected, however," he said. "The common law regulating assault and battery is no protection in this case. Supposing it was the last minute and a woman held the head of the line. Is any brute that wants to be allowed to shove her out of the road and step into her place?"

A NATURAL MINERAL WATER

Japan has a good deal in a natural way to boast of and one of them most entitled to the praise bestowed upon it is Tansan mineral water which issues from a crevice in the rocks near Kobe, to which place it is taken in containers and bottled for local use as well as export. In England there is a tremendous demand for Tansan because it assimilates with whisky. As a table water it is said by some to be the equal of some of the famous German mineral spring waters. Tansan was sold here in great quantities prior to annexation, but was allowed to drop in sales until the present time. H. Rogensberg has secured the agency and will advertise it largely in the islands.
