A large number attended the funeral yesterday, the pall bearers being Charles Crozier, Thomas Smith, W. Lishman, George Barker, William Allen and J. H. Day.

THREE-YEAR OLD BOY DRANK GIN AND HAD CONVULSIONS

The little three-year-old son of Archibald S. Robertson is in a very serious condition as the result of taking a drink of gin early yesterday morning. All day yesterday he was worked over by Drs. Hodgins and Murray, and at a late hour last night it was not known whether he would live until morning.

The boy had got up before his parents and in some way had got hold of a bottle of gin. About half-past six o'clock he came into the room where his father and mother were sleeping and fell on the floor, the fall awakening his parents. He was pick-

SOLDIERS WANT THE FISHMARKET

Latest Proposal Is to Turn the Structure Into a Drillshed.

Another use has been suggested for the old fishmarket pavilion on the waterfront, known generally for the past few days, since the Mardi Gras decorations have been at work transforming its interior into a ball room, as the Crystal Palace. Those who are advancing claims on the structure now are the members of the National Guard, who want the place for a drill shed, and it is understood that those back of this latest announced movement have already presented their claims to the Governor and to the Superintendent of Public Works and received considerable encouragement.

Engineers and builders who have been consulted state that it will be possible to remove a number of the central pillars without weakening the structure, and this would allow space for a full battalion drill, something that can not be had at present in the drill shed. The size of the building, too, would allow plenty of room for company rooms, for the quartermaster's supplies to be stored and for officers' quarters, doing away with the present necessity of storing much of the National Guard munitions and supplies in the bungalow.

According to orders from Washington, the regiment has to be recruited up to full strength without any delay, which means that four new companies are to be started in Honolulu. These can not be accommodated in the present drill shed, which can not, in fact, even accommodate the present strength of the regiment, one company, the hospital corps, being already located in the bungalow. It is the hope of the officers, too, to be able to establish an engineers' corps within a short while, which will also require room.

The matter of turning the fishmarket into a drill shed is being pushed just now because of the fact that if possible some decision should be arrived at before work is begun on the rifle-range shed authorized from Washington. If the drill shed is to be on the waterfront, the rifle gallery ought to be there too.

The reasons for the advantages of their scheme being urged by those back of it, in addition to that of requiring the extra room, is that the new location is away from dwelling houses and churches and in a place where the bugling and drilling can not disturb anyone, while the locating of the rifle gallery there would meet the objections raised by the members of the Methodist church against the noise of the guns.

DEFENSES FOR HAWAII PROMISED TO KAHN

WASHINGTON, February 20.—Representative Kahn appeared today before the subcommittee of the house committee on appropriations in charge of fortifications and asked for an appropriation for an additional torpedo planter for the Pacific coast to be located at Puget sound, and also for fortifications for Hawaii.

Kahn laid stress upon the desire of the people of Hawaii for adequate defenses, and also the strategic position of the islands. It was necessary, he said, to fortify the islands in order to prevent a possible foe from seizing them and making them a base from which to attack the Pacific coast. The subcommittee assured the Californian that provision would be made for Hawaii in defenses this year.

ALL EMIGRATION FROM JAPAN TO AMERICA IS SHUT OFF

FAVORABLE PROSPECTS FOR THE LAND LEASE MEASURE

(Mail Special to the Advertiser.)
WASHINGTON, (D. C.) February 20.—The bill for the modification of land leases in Hawaii has been favorably reported to the House of Representatives. It provides for an extension of the term from five years to fifteen years, the latter time having been accepted as a compromise instead of twenty years as was at first proposed.

The War Department has received from Captain Otwell by cable estimates for the cost of dredging a channel up to Pearl Harbor. These were $2,000,000 for a 30 foot channel and $600,000 additional for a 35 foot channel. These figures were something of a disappointment to authorities here. The great cost of a channel will undoubtedly be a new obstacle to securing authorization for the improvement of the harbor.

In spite of the failure of the House Naval Committee to recommend any Pearl Harbor legislation, the Delegate and Mr. McClellan, have been talking over the prospects of a separate bill with friends of the island. Representative "Pete" Hepburn is willing to help with discussion on the floor if the subject is brought up during the consideration of the Naval bill and something in that line may be attempted for the purpose of educating the House up to some future action on the matter. [Since the above was written, a separate bill has been adopted by the committee.—Ed. Adv.]

Mr. H. P. Wood, who has been here several weeks, has returned to Honolulu.

Not a peep is being heard about the Philippine Tariff bill, which has already been said in letters to the Advertiser seems to be dead for the session. ERNEST G. WALKER.

ANARCHISTS BLAMED FOR SHIPPEY'S MURDER

CHICAGO, March 3.—Lazarus Averbuch, a Russian, entered the house of Chief of Police Shippey here yesterday and shot him down without warning, death being instantaneous. Chief Shippey's son and the family coachman came to the rescue and made an attempt to capture the murderer, the son being shot in the struggle. His wound is not fatal, however.

The police believe the murder to be the result of an anarchist plot and are making arrests of many persons suspected of being implicated in or having knowledge of the crime.

SECRETARY OF WAR TELLS COUNTRY TO PREPARE

BUFFALO February 22.—William H. Taft, secretary of war, was the guest of honor at the Ellicott club's thirtieth anniversary celebration of Washington's birthday today. In his address Taft had a word to say as to the nation's unpreparedness for war.

"Washington deemed the preparation of the nation for war as of high importance," he said. "Our humiliating experience with reference to our army in the war of 1812 and the immense losses which we suffered in the civil war for lack of preparation show that in this respect, at least, we have not followed the advice of the first president. We are, however, making our navy more and more respectable each year, and I am very hopeful that congress will take the steps which will make our army a proper nucleus for the rapid enlargement of a force for national defense commensurate with the population of the country and with the extent of our jurisdiction."

LARGER PLANT NEEDED.

Examiner.—In the opinion of all the operators on the transports the installation of equipment at Honolulu as powerful as that carried on any of the troop ships would enable the residents of Oahu to communicate direct with any of the larger stations on this coast. Surprise is expressed that the government does not establish a wireless station at the island metropolis, which at present is just without the pale of easy communication with this city and other coast points.

MARTIN EGAN SAYS TAFT IS THE MAN

Thinks He Will Be Nominated on the Very First Ballot.

"Taft will be nominated for President on the first ballot in the convention," said Martin Egan, the well-known Associated Press correspondent, yesterday. Egan is a passenger on the Korea, with his wife, going to Manila for the Associated Press.

"The entire West will be for Taft. The movement for him is not a hurrah movement. It is not a noisy movement. But it carries the votes with it. He will undoubtedly have more than enough votes on the first ballot to nominate him."

Egan accompanied Taft on his visit to the Philippines last fall when the Ohio statesman went there to open the Philippine Legislative Assembly. He returned with him by way of Siberia and through Europe to New York. He was in Japan during the Japanese-Russian war and had the confidence of the Japanese Government in a larger degree than probably any other correspondent. He is quite convinced that there is no danger of trouble between Japan and the United States and that there never was.

Egan has seen much service in the Far East. He was in China during the Boxer troubles. He was in the Philippines during a period of great interest there. He was in Japan during the war with Russia. He returned with Taft from the Philippines three years ago when Taft took his party of Congressmen out there. He was (Continued on Page Seven.)

GAY MARDI GRAS TONIGHT

All Ready for the Big Society Function—Decorations Beautiful.

Until a late hour last night a busy corps of workers labored at the "Crystal Palace" in putting into place the elaborate decorations in preparation for the Mardi Gras masked ball tonight, advantage being taken of the turning on of the electric lights in all their blaze of glory to put the finishing touches on the big ballroom. The effect is certainly very pretty, and tonight, with the many masqueraders expected and the hundreds of richly-gowned women and their escorts in the boxes, the scene at the fishmarket should be very gay indeed. The committee in charge of the affair have worked hard and faithfully in preparation for this event, and their efforts deserve to be crowned with success.

In the general decorative scheme the committee has relied on hundreds of flags and streamers, but flowers, bunting, tinsel and incandescent lights of varied colors have been worked in with beautiful effect throughout the various divisions into which the pavilion is cut up. The dancing floor itself is in the center of the pavilion, the throne dais, in gold and green, occupying one end, facing the tiers of seats reserved for the spectators. The entrance is at the makai end of the building, within an arch of palms. Just within are the two dressing rooms, the committee showing its knowledge of the necessary by providing (Continued on Page Four.)

MATSON LINE GIVEN CONTRACT FOR TIE WORK

Monthly Service Required Between Islands and San Pedro to Handle the Amount of Cargo Offered.

(Associated Press Cablegram.)

SAN PEDRO, March 3.—A contract has been made between the Matson Navigation Company and the Hawaiian Mahogany Company for the transportation of mahogany ties from Honolulu to this port. The contract provides for a monthly service between these ports.

The output of the Hawaiian Mahogany Company will be shipped from Hilo for San Pedro, the inclusion of Honolulu in the above dispatch meaning probably that the Matson ships will make this port from the Coast, discharging incoming cargoes here before proceeding to Hilo to load ties. The ties are to be carried in the sailing vessels recently purchased by the Matson company from the Planters' line.

GRAFT CHARGED IN THE HOUSE

Rep. Lilley Accuses Submarine Company of Greasing Palms.

Congressmen Lilley, who was a conspicuous member of the Congressional party to Hawaii last summer, has made charges of graft against the Electric submarine boat company, which will be investigated. In connection with the charges, Mr. Lilley has fallen foul of some of the Washington press correspondents. A Washington despatch of February 22, says:

As the result of a sensational quarrel on the floor of the house today, the resolution of Congressman Lilley to investigate the charge of graft in submarines is sure to be reported. It cannot now be suppressed.

In the Washington Herald this morning appeared a dispatch representing Lilley as anxious to withdraw his resolution if he could get a share of the submarine contracts for the Lake company. This dispatch placed the accused members of the Naval committee in the position of demanding an investigation and refusing to be "intimidated" by Lilley. It declared that Lilley's action had put them in very bad standing with the house. It then went on to assert that Lilley had accused Sherman of New York, not a member of the committee, of being "in on the graft" and Representative Griggs of Georgia, another who is not a member of the committee, of having "fixed" John Sharp Williams and De Armond.

"Griggs," Lilley called out, "are you looking for me?"
"Yes, I am," replied the Georgian.
"What have you to say about this matter?"
"Just what I said to Mr. Adamson," said Lilley, "and that is that the statements contained in that article are lies."

They sent for Frank B. Lord, the Washington Herald and New York Sun representative.

"I believe," said Lilley, "that you are in the employ of the Electric boat company."

"What else have you to say to me?" said Lord.

"I have this: When you wrote that article published in the Washington Herald this morning you were a — liar."

"You are taking advantage of your position as a member of the house to make an attack on me to which I cannot reply as I would like to," answered Lord.

"I will go with you alone to the most remote spots in the district," retorted Lilley, "and there I will tell you again what I said to you just now."
"I don't need to hear anything more. That satisfies me," said Griggs.

It is the general opinion now that the rules committee dare not suppress Lilley's resolution.

ASKS INSPECTORS BE APPOINTED FOR HAWAII

In a report made to the secretary of commerce and labor by George Uhler, supervising inspector general of steam and sailing vessels, a recommendation has been made that is of considerable interest to ship owners in the Hawaiian and Philippine islands. Uhler has recommended that the government establish offices at Honolulu, Hawaii and San Juan, P. I. Under present conditions the San Francisco inspectors of hulls and boilers, John K. Bulger and O. F. Bolles, are compelled to make trips to the islands each year, which takes them away from San Francisco, where their work is constantly increasing.

Under the present laws the inspectors of hulls and boilers do not have the same control over gasoline passenger boats that they have over steam and sailing craft, and congress will be asked to amend the laws so as to embrace gasoline motor vessels. Another important recommendation made by Uhler is that the district inspectors have power to regulate the number of licensed officers that each vessel must carry. This recommendation has been made that the inspectors may see to it that all vessels have a sufficient number of competent officers.

KOREA BROUGHT MANY PEOPLE

Left Eighty-Four People Here Most of Whom Are Strangers.

The Korea, arriving yesterday, brought about eighty-four people for Honolulu. Besides those whose destination was this port, there were about twenty layover passengers. Some of these have already booked by the Kinan for the volcano.

Among returning residents is George P. Denison of the Oahu Railway and his children. They have been away some time on the mainland. Mr. Denison went principally in the interest of the Oahu Railway, buying material for it and looking up new things in equipment, and studying the needs and requirements of equipment under the Inter-State Commerce. The company is building a large amount of rolling stock, including a number of cars designed in size especially to meet the requirements of the pineapple trade. The air brakes in use on the road are what are known as the straight air brakes. The automatic is to be introduced.

A. V. Gear returned after an absence of about a month. He went up to the Coast to arrange for the bringing of a case to test the exclusion of Japanese laborers from Hawaii, from the mainland.

Judge and Mrs. Charles F. Hart returned after an absence of some months.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Hind arrived by the Korea. They are a bridal couple. Mr. Hind has been away from the islands for about five or six years. He comes back to assist his father in the management of the Hind sugar interests on Hawaii.

C. Du Roi, manager of B. F. Ehlers & Co., has been absent some weeks on business.

Mrs. W. C. Weedon returns after an absence of nearly a year, part of the time spent in her old home in Ohio and a part of the time spent with her daughter on the Coast.

F. A. Wickert returned from a round trip made on the Korea.

Of other passengers who stopped off here, MCG. Bundy is a prominent member of the Michigan bar. His home is at Grand Rapids, Mich., and he has come here for his health. He is a very wealthy man, a graduate of an Eastern college and he made his fortune in the bar at Norwich, New York, about thirty years ago in the prosecution of a negro for murder. His father was a Congressman.

C. C. Donovan is a young man who recently went through a strenuous campaign for mayor of Santa Rosa, being defeated by only seven votes.

F. L. Sawyer is one of the leading financiers of the Southwest. His home is in Oklahoma. He is accompanied by his wife and son. Traveling with Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer is Mr. E. B. Tufts of Los Angeles.

Among through passengers are Burton Holmes, the well-known traveler and lecturer, who stops over for the Siberia.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Egar are going to Manila.

Mrs. Paul Freer is the wife of Paul Freer, who is in charge of the scientific work of the United States Government at Manila.

W. C. Burton is an American engineer who has made his home for a long time in England. He is going to Japan to fill some professional engagements. He is accompanied by his wife.

George Wolf is of the firm of Castle Brothers, Wolf & Son, who are probably the largest mercantile firm in the Philippines. He is returning with his family from a visit to the mainland. The Korea brought 200 tons of freight for this port and carried 6000 tons through. Among the freight for Japan are a number of blooded cattle and two blooded horses.

ATKINSON AND BROWN SELL RANCH INTEREST

A. L. C. Atkinson and A. M. Brown have sold their holdings in the American Sugar Company, operating a stock ranch on Molokai, and the control is now in the hands of A. S. Hartwell, Chas. A. Hartwell, George P. Cooke and A. F. Judd. Atkinson and Brown held between them more than one-third of the capital stock of $300,000. The company was incorporated to start a sugar plantation, but the failure to develop water caused a change to stock raising.

CLOSING OUT BRANCH STORE

Yee Chan Co., who have been established in the dry goods business on Nuuanu street above King for many years, have decided to abandon that location and center their energies in their new establishment at the corner of King and Bethel streets. In order to facilitate matters and to enable them to vacate the Nuuanu street store promptly they have cut prices in two. This is on all lines and the offerings are such that no lady can refuse to buy. The goods comprise articles for ladies and many for gentlemen's use and the prices are astonishingly low. The sale is imperative and will last until all of the stock is disposed of.

TAKE A PICTURE MACHINE WITH YOU

Burton Holmes Says They Bring Things Worth While About.

"If a traveler would make his travels more interesting, it would be worth his while to take a moving-picture machine along with him, even if it contained no films," said Burton Holmes, the traveler and lecturer, yesterday. "The fact that you have such a machine seems to have a tendency to bring about things worth while. At any rate, people are willing to bring things about if there is a moving-picture machine to take them, and they will go to a good deal of trouble in order to have something worth taking moving pictures of, while for ordinary pictures they wouldn't trouble themselves much."

"I took the first moving pictures ever taken in these islands when I was here ten years ago. The machine was not nearly as perfect then as it is now, but we got some very usable pictures, and I have used them a great deal in my lectures on Hawaii. "Wherever there is life, or motion, or even merely animation, the public is not satisfied with the ordinary lantern slide picture nowadays. They expect the motion picture. For scenery, architecture, monuments, still life in all its forms, the lantern slide is still the vehicle of presentation, for in it you can give color. The moving picture has not yet been brought to the point where it can present color. That seems to be about the only quality it lacks."

"At the same time, moving pictures have not been brought to that degree of perfection where they can be given as a whole evening's entertainment without wearying the eye. In my lectures now I intersperse the moving pictures, showing the life and the movement of the scenes I am portraying with them, and the natural objects, the architecture and that sort of thing with the lantern slides. I find that this is more satisfactory both to my audiences and to myself."

"I came here just to take a rest, and to revisit again the place that so took my fancy ten years ago. My assistant was not quite ready when I left, so I came ahead and will wait for him here, and go on with him on the Siberia. We will go through Japan, China, Ceylon and India, gathering material for use next season, which begins in November."

"I have never yet been in the South Seas, though I was once actually booked to go there, but went instead to North Cape. Another time I went to Nome when I had intended going to the South Seas."

"I was in Washington not long ago and saw George Ade there. He with many others, including pretty nearly the whole of the Lamb's Club of New York, were asking Congress to give the composers of music and of songs a sort of copyright that would protect them against the phonograph people—that is, that would prevent the reproduction of their songs or music by mechanical means without the payment of a royalty or the permission of the composer."

"I am delighted to be here, and I feel like doing nothing but just enjoying being here."

MAY PRESENTS SILKEN FLAG

Yacht Hawaii Receives Gift Possessing Sentimental Interest.

D. G. May has presented the trans-pacific yacht Hawaii with a silken American flag which has quite a history.

The flag was given to May by Joe Lind, manager of the Hankow & Canton Railway. It was made by a Canton Chinaman.

When May came back to Honolulu from the Orient, he traveled by the S. S. Minnesota, and the Taft party and Mrs. Longworth, then Miss Alice Roosevelt, joined the vessel at Shimoneki. There was only a flag at the stern to show that the great liner was an American bottom, and feeling that the proximity of such illustrious Americans as Taft and the rest of the party deserved some recognition, May waived his silk flag as the party approached the steamer. As he did so an army of school children assembled to do honor to the visitors each produced an American flag and waved it enthusiastically.

The party saluted May's flag and commented on the fact that beside the emblem at the stern it was the only American flag displayed aboard.

Again in Yokohama, May waved his flag from the portico of the Club Hotel as the Taft party was passing, and the members rose up in the seats of their carriages and saluted the Stars and Stripes.

HILO EXECUTIVE SHOWS ITS HAND

From private Hilo advices it is learned that the Hawaii Jockey Club is preparing to outdo itself on July 4. The club will have a meeting on the 10th inst., and details of the racing will then be considered.

The plan is to have two days' races and to give three big purses, viz.: $500 for a mile and a quarter free-for-all running race, $500 for a Hawaiian-bred running race, and $200 for a maiden free-for-all. Besides these races there will be a number of races for smaller purses.

With the Maui executive making liberal offers for the patronage of owners, and the Hilo body doing likewise, horsemen may consider themselves exceptionally well catered for this year.

 Several complaints have lately been made of autoists opening up the mufflers of their machines unnecessarily and by doing so causing a series of pistol-like reports, which scare horses. The police are looking into the matter.

BASEBALL TOUR TO THE ORIENT

Jess Woods, now in San Francisco, received word from Japan recently to the effect that Keio University was prepared to arrange games with an all-star club in case he decided to take one through the Orient this fall. This was good news for Woods, who has been in doubt as how such a trip would be received by the Japanese. There has been so much war talk that Woods was afraid that Japanese might refuse to play baseball with us. There are a great many students at Keio University, and any games that are played there are sure to be well patronized.

"If our trip to China goes through and I think it will, we won't want for players, stated Mike Fisher the other day. 'Only the other day I had' a letter from Pat Donahue in which he said he wanted to go and also his two brothers, Jiggs Donahue is crazy about making the trip. Before Frank Chance went East, he assured me that he was anxious to go and Hal Chase will sign any time I say so. Liffield of the Pittsburg club wrote Joe Nealon not to forget him, and I can't meet. Hildebrand without him talking his head off about another trip. Hilde is an awful pest. I haven't talked to some of the others, but I have no doubt, but what every man who went to Honolulu will be crazy to go through to the Orient next fall. It will be a trip of a lifetime, but it will mean a lot of hard work on the part of the management. It must be boosted all along the line. We ought to have agents in Japan, China, Honolulu and Manila."

JAP WANTS A HEFTY WAGER

Wrestling Articles Are Still Unsigned Owing to Side Bet Hitch.

The managers of the unknown Japanese wrestler and Hans Froelcher had another meeting yesterday afternoon but at the end of an hour's talking the articles binding the match were still unsigned.

The backers of the Japanese offered 55 per cent of the gross receipts for the fight but the other parties wanted Joe Cohen to do the promoting, provided he would bid 55 per cent.

Messrs. Vida and Ono then insisted that if Cohen managed the bout there would have to be a side bet of $500 and announced that they had the money ready.

Eddie Tait said that just at present he didn't care to bet more than $100 though he thought that the bet would surely be raised to the amount of $500 or even more after the match had been made. He was of the opinion that a side bet of $100 and the winner to take all of the purse was a mighty good arrangement. Many good matches had been made for less than that. He was also ready to post the $50 forfeit.

The backers of the Japanese wouldn't consider a $100 bet, however, and the meeting went over till Wednesday at 2 p. m. in order to allow the mysterious Japanese to be present and have a say in the matter. Ono, who is the one so keen after the big bet, is behind the Jap wrestler and wants a chance to make a dollar for himself without taking a cut out of the purse should his man win it.

Meanwhile Cohen will be seen about promoting the show. If he doesn't care to give 55 per cent, Vida and Ono will run the thing themselves and the question of the $500 side bet will be waived.

Another bidder for the bout is Jack Scully who offers 50 per cent.

Several bets were made in town on Saturday at the odds of 13 to 10, with Froelcher at the short end.

It transpired at yesterday's meeting that the Japanese wrestler's name is Mitsuka. He is expected to arrive from Kauai on Wednesday.

His backers said yesterday that he was suffering from a sprained arm and wanted to know if they could have the privilege of substituting another man, should his arm prevent him from filling his engagement on the first Saturday in April. Tait to this said, "Nay, nay, Pauline," or words to that effect.

Incidentally Willie Vida stated that he would not be here when the bout was contested as he intended leaving for the Coast in a week or so.

LOCAL PITCHERS COMMENTED ON

Jess Woods, the Honolulu promoter, says that Dick Reuter is dissatisfied with the contract sent him by Danny Long, and that he wants $150 a month before he will sail over the ocean for the coast. Reuter must have had a change of heart since last Long heard from him, for when he mailed his contract to the San Francisco manager he wrote that he was delighted with the terms offered, as well as the chance to break into fast company.

Big Barney Joy also sent word by Woods that the contract from the Boston Nationals was not to his liking, and he, too, wasn't going to report. The case of Joy is laughable, for he is asking for something he knows, or ought to know he isn't worth. Boston is more than liberal to Joy, and he is getting a salary far in excess of what he can earn. His work last year on the coast wasn't worthy of drafting, and why Duffy ever sent in a claim for him is something that fans can't understand.—Examiner.

SCRATCH SIXES AT ALIOLANI

Aliolani College is following up the junior league soccer series with a scratch six league in which the younger boys will participate. The teams are made up of six players each and every member of the winning team will receive a medal. By this means it is expected that the game will be fostered at the college as would be possible in no other way. Under the able coaching of L. G. Blackman the college has already made a record for itself for soccer playing. The Aliolani eleven, it will be remembered, recently won the championship of the Junior Interscholastic Association Football League.

THE BEST DOCTOR

"I believe that the best doctor is the one who knows the worthlessness of most medicines"—Dr. Wm. Osler in a recent address to physicians.

At last some of our eminent physicians are beginning to tell the truth about drugs. They have deceived the people just about as long as they can, unless they check the advance of science. It is science that has "shown them up." It has proved that electricity runs our bodies and produces what we call life. It has shown that most all sickness and chronic disorders are due to a lack of electric energy. It has taught us the worthlessness of drugs—that they are only poisons and poisons don't cure.

The reason drugs don't cure is because they do not help nature. Nature needs electricity, nourishment, something that builds up. Drugs contain no nourishment—no electricity—just poison which tears down.

My way of curing is to restore electricity where it is needed, and pain and sickness will disappear. That's because electricity gives strength, power to the body, enabling every organ to perform its work properly, and when every organ is in a strong, healthy condition there can be no pain or sickness.

Wear Electro-Vigor while you sleep. It feeds a constant stream of electricity to your nerves, and they carry it to every organ and tissue of your body, restoring health and vim.

Electro-Vigor is a simple electric appliance, constructed on scientific principles, and is the product of my twenty years' experience in treating with electricity.

It is not an electric belt. It never needs charging, for it makes its own power continuously.

Electro-Vigor is cheaper than a course of drugging.

Electro-Vigor cured me of catarrh, improved my digestion and my general health is better than it has been for years.

R. E. FULLER, Chicago, Cal.

Two weeks' use of Electro-Vigor cured me of rheumatism in my arm. It also cured me of bowel trouble, general debility, which refused to constipation and yield to medical treatment.

JNO. CONLIN, Consumme, Cal.

Cut out this coupon and mail it to me. I'll give you a beautiful 100-page book, which tells all about my treatment. The Beautiful Liliulolu

"Club" adds his mite to the general gaiety. We sincerely hope that the facts are not as bad as he paints them and which are appended:

Liliulolu is old and so fat, Also she's as blind as a bat, And without e'er a friend She awaits her life's end, Reclining at ease on a mat.

Quite at variance with the above information is the following verse from "Ajax":

The stylish young Liliulolu, Though her grandmother dressed in a mou-mou, Is of quite modest mien And would scorn to be seen Unless wearing a swagger silk holoku.

It would seem from the following that the fascinating Lil intends to honor the Mardi Gras ball with her rapturous presence:

Said Lil, the beautiful to see, "There's nothing the matter with me; 'In the Mardi Gras ball 'I'll be belle of the ball, 'But please don't hawl poor Lil out—tee-hee!"

This one is from a Britisher, from certain unmistakable signs and tokens: "Who is this young lady named Lily Who's raised a discussion quite silly? Each day in the paper She cuts some new caper— My word, she intrudes, willy nilly!"

"Conk" drops a stitch in the spelling of the lady's name but as the crime has apparently been committed for the sake of euphony, we will refrain from caviling. Hear ye, hear ye, hear ye: The beautiful Liliulolu Had a lover who wore a red malo; She'd a pink holoku And a Number 8 shoe, But her housekeeping talent was shallow.

PUBLICITY FOR PEARL HARBOR.

In an interesting letter from Washington, Delegate Kubio says: I greatly regret that a newspaper campaign for Pearl Harbor was not provided for in December. We had some very strong support in the Naval Committee, and I believe that a demand for the development of Pearl Harbor by some of the leading newspapers of the mainland might well have exerted an influence sufficiently strong to have secured favorable action by the Committee.

It is ticklish business "providing for" the support of any measure by the leading newspapers of the mainland. They do not like to be looked after in that way and any attempt to especially influence them arouses their suspicion or hostility. On this account, as Ernest G. Walker explained, in a letter to the Advertiser, the original project of giving a dinner to the Washington correspondents of the great papers and explaining Pearl Harbor matters to them, was frowned down. It would have been misunderstood.

We think it by no means unlikely that the President, when the Naval bill and the separate Pearl Harbor bill come before Congress, will write a special message on the subject, in which case there will be no need of further publicity than those who publish or comment on the message will give it.

THE OPEN DOOR ISSUE.

Some interest has been occasioned recently by statements about the intentions of the Japanese in Manchuria. Numerous commercial complaints have been reaching the State Department about discrimination in Manchuria against American merchants. Secretary Root is known to have given the intimation that this government must take up the question of the open door in Manchuria very soon as things are running there now. However, the State Department scouts any idea that this is likely to encourage hostilities. On the contrary it believes that the question can be amicably handled.

The Advertiser's Washington correspondent says that the United States Government regards all the powers that are interested in the Far East as abundantly bound to the principle of the open door through the assents given in response to the notes of the late Secretary Hay of July 3, 1900, and subsequently. To the propositions laid down in the first of those notes Germany, Great Britain, France, Russia, Italy and Japan adhered, and until the advance of Japan in Manchuria began, after the close of the war with Russia, there was nothing to indicate in any way that any recession from that agreement might occur.

Even now it is emphatically declared by well informed Japanese that no violation of the open-door principle is contemplated by them in Manchuria; it is even stated that if any specific complaint is raised as to discrimination against American interests by Japanese in Manchuria, such complaint will be redressed as effectively as possible, and as soon as possible by the Japanese Government.

A number of complaints have reached the State Department of such discriminations, but as yet they have not been the subject of diplomatic representation in Tokio. One of the most serious of them concerns the system of rebates officially proclaimed by the South Manchurian Railway—the Japanese Government road. This system provides a rebate of 1 per cent. for any shipper whose freight bills amount to $50,000 a year, 2 per cent. on annual freight bills of $100,000, with increases to 7 per cent. on annual bills amounting to $250,000 or more.

American merchants in the Far East have complained that this system operates as a substantial discrimination against them, and they have specified one method by which the Japanese merchants have taken effective advantage of it. Six or seven of the large cotton manufacturers of Japan combined and arranged with the great house of Mitsui, the most important concern in Japan, to handle all their Manchurian trade. The combination easily came within the 7 per cent. rebate class, it is alleged, with the result that each of its members gets a freight rate at least 6 per cent. lower than the individual shippers of American cottons can hope to secure.

The present intention of the State Department is to take up the open-door question again at some time in the near future, probably in the summer. Just what form the new negotiation will assume has not been determined, but it now seems probable that it will involve representations to Japan, as well as to the other powers in the original agreement. Other powers have interests in Manchuria of varying extent.

It has been pointed out in Administration circles that the question of Chinese territorial integrity involved in the Japanese advance in Manchuria is hardly of a character to create feeling in this country, except as it bears upon the principle of the open door. But it is believed by State Department officials that American commercial interests in Manchuria will be much better served by the maintenance of the Chinese administration of that territory than if it should fall under either Russian or Japanese domination. From Japanese sources comes a disclaimer of intention to absorb Manchuria, and the State Department is inclined to believe that such absorption is not likely to be accomplished easily or soon. But the department also believes that if it is accomplished it will have a repressive effect on American commercial interests. That is why the State Department is preparing to take up the question of the open door again and endeavor to secure new guarantees as to the freedom of American commerce in the Far East.

It is also pointed out that from the commercial standpoint it is to the interest of Japan, much more than the United States to avoid difficulties over the open-door question, since of Japan's exports 39 per cent. come to this country, while of her imports only 3 per cent. are from the United States.

One of the strong inducements to travel from the older to the newer centers of growth on the mainland is the cheap excursion ticket, which goes into action once every few weeks or months on the overland lines. Lately Salem, Oregon, which is reaching out for new population, got a rate of $30 on all the western roads from Kansas City, Omaha, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Winnipeg, $35 from St. Louis; $38, Chicago; $46, Pittsburgh; $46.95, Toronto; and $55 from New York city. If such rates as these could be had on occasion from the East in conjunction with low rates to Honolulu—say $125 for the single trip from New York and $200 for the round trip—things might hum in the tourist and settler lines of business.

The murder of Chicago's chief of police by an anarchist may be in response to the severe treatment of socialistic bodies of late by the police under him. Several attempts of these organizations to parade the streets have been interfered with, although the socialists claimed to be peaceable and carried no arms or anarchist flags. Nevertheless they were roughly handled.

It is a fair guess that somebody, after reading the news about Secretary Straus' inedible pineapple, will see that the mistake is rectified. Mr. Straus, as one of Hawaii's best friends, should not be permitted to long in vain for any kind of island fruit that is worth eating.

Sailors who are entertained the least are entertained the best. That is the idea San Francisco is getting and there is a disposition now to let Admiral Evans' men have free swing in the city to amuse themselves in their own way.

The Matson line gets the tie contract and Hawaii and Southern California will be connected by a steamer. That is good for a beginning. Some day there may be several steamers on that route, to the great advantage of both sections.

The organization of native labor unions looks as if the report of the work of an agent in this Territory of the Federation of Labor had not been far astray.

Was it to stiffen American diplomacy on the open door question that the fleet came to the Pacific?

The Mardi Gras tonight is something no tourist should miss.

BEE EXPERT'S TOUR OF THESE ISLANDS

The following committee, representing the Hawaiian Bee-Keepers' Association, have in charge the arrangements of Dr. E. S. Phillips' official survey of the bee-keeping in these islands: A. F. Judd, chairman; A. Waterhouse, D. L. Van Dine, and, for the various islands, E. A. Knudsen, Island of Kauai; O. St. John Gilbert, Island of Oahu; C. A. Hartwell, Island of Molokai; T. V. King, Island of Maui, and A. W. Carter, Island of Hawaii.

Dr. Phillips will leave for Kauai on the W. G. Hall this afternoon, returning Sunday next, March 8. On Kauai an overland trip will be made to Waimea and return. The principal apiaries of the Garden Island Honey Co. and the Kauai Honey Co. will be inspected.

Tuesday, March 10, Dr. Phillips will leave for the Island of Molokai, where the American Sugar Co. have important interests in bees. The week will be spent visiting the apiaries on this island, the expert leaving for Maui in a gasoline launch Saturday, March 14. From the 14th until the Kinau for Hawaii arrives on the 17th, the bee-keeping interests on Maui will receive attention.

A landing will be made at Kawahae from the Kinau on the 17th, and two days will be spent at the Parker ranch. From the Parker Ranch an overland trip along the Hamakua coast will be made to Hilo. Saturday, the 21st, will be spent at the volcano, and Sunday Dr. Phillips will leave for Honoauo, returning to Honolulu on the Mauna Loa the 24th.

Dr. Phillips will sail for San Francisco on April 1 per S. S. Alameda, and the time from the 24th of March to April 1 will be spent on Oahu.

D. L. Van Dine of the Hawaii Experiment Station will make the island trips with Dr. Phillips. E. C. Smith, manager of the Garden Island Honey Co., will accompany the party to Kauai.

PAKE WASHERS.

decided that if their demand of 25c. a week from the boss washman, for room-rent money, was not complied with, they would go out yesterday morning.

The buck was passed up to the boss washmen who gave a negative answer to the request. They were afraid that if they granted the demand the ironing men would also strike them for a similar favor and they figured that such a thing would knock the profits out of the washee washee business as high as the famous kite of Gilderoy.

The same day the Wa Hing Tong or ironing men's society to the number of 400, also assembled for grave consultation and decided that it was an ill wind that dried no washing and that they would help out the bosses to the best of their ability should the washmen quit work.

And that's the way things wrangled along yesterday. Last night emissaries from the wash corps spoke soothly and soapily to the ironing gentlemen, and pointed out to them that whereas the way they were acting would get nobody anything, a combined strike would put the boss washmen who rented the laundries in the devil's own mess and would result in "good chance" for both bodies.

The Kong Yok Kon So or boss washmen's society profess to have no fear of the outcome of the situation. They say that the town is full of washmen and that the ironing men are too well aware when they are well off to make any "hobbyery."

The Chinese wash-houses are situated on Vineyard street near Liliha street and the ironing men's establishments are scattered all over town.

It appears that when the wash-houses were at Iwilei the bosses allowed the washmen to sleep on the premises on the dirty clothes. In the new wash-houses there is no such accommodation.

When clothes are taken to the ironing men they are called for by the washmen who collect their charges from the ironing men after they have delivered the goods.

THE LONGSHOREMEN'S LUAU SATURDAY.

Dillingham-Hyde-Smith

The marriage of Miss Margaret Hyde-Smith and Harold Dillingham of Honolulu was solemnized last evening at the home of the bride's mother, 2607 Fillmore street. The ceremony was performed in the drawing-room, part of which had been transformed to represent a chancel. Masses of pale pink almond blossoms were used in lavish profusion to deck the interior, converting it into a floral bower of artistic beauty. Before an improvised altar, adorned with lighted candles in golden candelabra and tall vases filled with Easter lilies, Archbishop Riordan, assisted by Bishop da Silva, read the impressive marriage service.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of ivory satin, trimmed with rare old lace, her tulle veil being held in place by a simple arrangement of orange blossoms. Miss Gertrude Hyde-Smith, who attended her sister as maid of honor, was gowned in white messaline, in the Empire style, and elaborately trimmed with lace.

The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Keeney, Miss Julia Langhorne and Miss Marion Newhall, were gowned alike in Empire frocks of a dainty shade of pink messaline. A ribbon of gold coiled through the hair and terminating in a bow gave a chic finish to each costume.

Mrs. Hyde-Smith, mother of the bride, wore an elaborate robe of white chiffon cloth and lace. The guest list was limited to the relatives and most intimate friends of the bride, but what was lacking in numbers was made up in brilliancy, the gowns of the wedding guests being of unusual beauty, and the display of jewels and orchids adding splendor to the scene.

There were no ushers, but Walter Dillingham attended his brother as best man, and the bride was given away by her brother, Bayard.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony, the bride's table being adorned with pink blossoms, bows of pink tulle and pink-shaded candles. Seated with the bride and bridegroom were: Miss Gertrude Hyde-Smith, Miss Helene Irwin, Miss Julia Langhorne, Miss Marion Newhall, Miss Mary Keeney, Miss Elizabeth Newhall, Miss Martha Calhoun, Miss Constance de Young, Walter Dillingham, Bayard Hyde-Smith, George Cameron, Frank King, Frank Preston, Athole McBean, Samuel Hopkins and Orville Pratt.

The bride will be greatly missed in society here, where she has been very much of a favorite since her debut, but her island home is ideal, and having made a number of visits to Honolulu, she has many friends ready to welcome her there.

Harold Dillingham, the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, is one of the most popular young men in the island metropolis, and is esteemed in business circles as a capable man of affairs, while socially he is prominent as a clubman, fond of polo, golf and motoring. He is a Harvard man, having graduated about four years ago.

After a wedding journey spent in the southern part of the State, Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham will sail on March 10th for Honolulu, which will be their future home.

HOW DIPHTHERIA IS CONTRACTED.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it not only cures the cold, but greatly lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. There is no danger in giving this remedy, as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaiian Islands.

"You're rather a young man to be left in charge of a drug store," said the fussy old gentleman. "Have you any diploma?" "Why—er—no, sir," replied the drug clerk, "but we have a preparation of our own that's just as good."—Philadelphia Press.

fronting on Union Square—the heart of San Francisco—is a fine example of the artistic treatment of a utilitarian idea, which, to the traveller, typifies the high value San Franciscans place upon entertainment, and in spite of the fact that the hotel probably unites under one roof more advanced ideas of hotel service than any other caravansary in America, the rates are perhaps lower in proportion to the attention offered than can be found elsewhere in the United States.

Under the Management of JAMES WOODS

BIBLE READING MOVEMENT, READING FOR MARCH 3

ACTS 12.

Now about that time Herod the king put forth his hands to afflict certain of the church. 2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. 3 And when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. And those were the days of unleavened bread. 4 And when he had taken him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quarter-masters of soldiers to guard him; intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people. 5 Peter therefore was kept in the prison; but prayer was made earnestly of the church unto God for him. 6 And when Herod was about to bring him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and guards before the door kept the prison. 7 And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shined in the cell; and he smote Peter on the side, and awoke him, saying, Rise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. 8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. 9 And he went out, and followed; and he knew not that it was true which was done by the angel, but thought he saw a vision. 10 And when they were past the first and the second guard, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth into the city; which opened to them of its own accord; and they went out, and passed on through the street; and straightway the angel departed from him. 11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a truth, that the Lord hath sent forth his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. 12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together and were praying. 13 And when he knocked at the door of the gate, a maid came to answer, named Rhoda. 14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for joy, but ran in, and told that Peter stood before her. Thou art mad. But she confidently affirmed that it was even so. And they said, it is his angel. 16 But Peter continued knocking; and when they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. 17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, Tell these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went to another place. 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, because their country was fed from the king's country. 21 And upon a set day Herod arrayed himself in royal apparel, and sat on the throne, and made an oration unto them. 22 And the people shouted, saying, The voice of a god, and not of a man. 23 And immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory; and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost. 24 But the word of God grew and multiplied. 25 And Barnabas and Saul returned

DRAGGED DOWN BY DESPAIR

Hundreds of Others in the Same Plight.

Mrs. John H. Cole, of 33 Arlington street, South Framingham, Mass., was for years a martyr to kidney trouble, but at last found a cure in Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. She writes: "I suffered greatly with periodical headache, terrible bearing-down pains and a whole train of minor symptoms. My back was always weak and the kidneys terribly disordered. I could not rest at night and in the morning would get up feeling ill, tired, and discouraged, and without the least ambition to go about my household duties. If I sat down I felt as though I never wanted to get up again; I grew thin and haggard and developed deep circles beneath my eyes. My appetite grew less and less as the days went by until at last I did not eat enough to keep a child alive.

"During all this time I was doctoring and dosing myself with first one remedy and then another until my stomach fairly rebelled. I called in a doctor but soon saw that he did not understand my case. Well, you may believe I was in despair for I had come to that state where I did not care what happened, when a friend told me what a fine remedy and cure for kidney disease Doan's Backache Kidney Pills were. I bought a box and before I had taken all of it I felt much better, my back felt stronger and I rested much easier at night and was not troubled with nightmares and fits of wakefulness as formerly. After that first box another, each one helping me and making me stronger and better, until I had taken twelve boxes. By that time not a vestige of my old trouble remained and it is the greatest pleasure to my life to say that Doan's Backache Kidney Pills saved me from an early breakdown."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, or mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Ltd., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

DR. SCUDDER'S BIBLE TOPICS

"In God's Image" the Subject of Fourth Sermon of the Series.

Rev. Doremus Scudder, D. D., on Sunday morning delivered his fourth discourse on "Old Testament Topics." The title was "In God's Image," and the reading lesson Genesis 2, 4-25. Following is the sermon: Genesis 2:7—And Jehovah God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life...

feeling that life was worth living." The writers of the two first chapters of Genesis had met men like Elijah, Elisha, Isaiah and Jeremiah; they had seen in their faces a look not of earth while the God in their hearts whispered "That is my shadow." Splendid though this truth is and full of promise for the coming physical loveliness of our race when sin with its defiling touch shall be known on earth no more...

covering new means for harnessing forces hitherto untamed? nor are you, traveler, penetrating districts never yet trodden by human foot? but "Are you, man, winning your life battle? are you singing Paul's hymn, 'Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors,' with the emphasis of a Hallelujah Chorus on the refrain 'through Him that loved us'?" If not, beware, for with all our divine possibilities you may squander and lose your godlikeness.

The American ship Edward Sewall for this port, with coal for the Navy is reported in the Maritime Register to have been sighted January 2 in latitude 36 south, and longitude 70 west. Weekly Weather Bulletin For the Week Ended February 29, 1908.

GENERAL SUMMARY. Honolulu, March 2, 1908. Warmer weather obtained generally over the section, the mean temperatures being, as a rule, from 1.0 deg. to 2.0 deg. higher than those of the preceding week.

The rains were light throughout the section, especially on Hawaii, where the greatest amounts reported as the totals for the week were .18 inch in the Hilo and Puna districts, .69 inch in the Kau, and .23 inch in the Kona. No rainfall was reported from the Kohala and Hamakua districts.

On Oahu the rainfall ranged from .15 to .50 inch; on Kauai .09 inch in the Koolau district, 1.14 inches in the Puna, and .38 to .59 inch in the Kona; and .29 to .40 inch on Molokai. The rainfall was below the average for the week at all stations having a record of ten or more years.

In the several districts of the different islands the deficiencies, in inches, were: Hawaii—Kohala 1.99 to 1.33, Hamakua 1.41, Hilo 1.96 to 2.59, Puna 1.87, and Kona and Kau .90 to 1.02; Oahu—Koolauloa 1.40, Honolulu .47, Waianae .87, and Ewa .77; and Kauai—Koolau 1.55, and .49 to .84 in the Kona.

The excesses on Molokai varied from .27 to .29 inch; on Kauai from .05 inch to 1.04 inches; and on Oahu from .07 to .55 inch. The deficiencies on Hawaii ranged from .01 to .78 inch, while the excesses at three stations varied from .07 to .64 inch.

On Maui the changes varied from a deficiency of .42 to an excess of .37 inch—the greater number of stations reporting deficiencies, or no difference. The following table shows the weekly averages of temperature and rainfall for the principal islands and for the Group:

Table with columns: Island, Temperature, Rainfall. Hawaii: 63.5 deg., 0.19 inch. Maui: 71.6 deg., 0.16 inch. Oahu: 72.5 deg., 0.54 inch. Kauai: 70.4 deg., 0.57 inch. Molokai: 70.8 deg., 0.34 inch.

The mean relative humidity was 72.1 per cent., and the prevailing daily wind directions were E. on the 25th, SE. on the 26th, and NE. on the remaining dates, with an average hourly velocity of 6.6 miles. The mean daily barometer was below the normal on the 25th for the first time this year and continued so throughout the week, the weekly mean being 29.96 inches, .01 inch below the normal.

AWNING GUTTER ORDINANCE VOID

Woman Beater Is Refused Any Mitigation—General Court News.

The Supreme Court has declared the awning gutter ordinance of the Board of Supervisors to be null and void. Chief Justice Hartwell is author of the opinion, which was rendered yesterday, vacating the judgment under which L. L. McCandless and James Armstrong were fined $10 each and costs for violating the ordinance. The law is set forth in the syllabus thus:

"Under legislative authority to regulate all local police, sanitary and other regulations not in conflict with the general laws of the Territory, a county has no power to prohibit by ordinance an act already made penal by Territorial statute.

"Ordinance 9 of the County of Oahu, relating to gutters on awnings, is void as conflicting with R. L. Sec. 959 covering the same subject."

The following statement of the limitation on county enactments is found in the opinion:

"Since a county derives its authority from the legislature it ought not to be inferred, in the absence of clearly expressed terms, in the act under which the county is organized, that the legislature has delegated to counties the power to legislate concerning their local affairs in such way as to supersede territorial laws or render them unnecessary.

In order to come within the grant of legislative power given by the county act to boards of county supervisors ordinances should be reasonably required for the purpose of administering the local police and sanitary affairs of the county and this cannot be said of an ordinance, like that in question, made for a purpose fully provided for by the laws of the Territory. It is not enough that ordinances regulating local police and sanitary matters shall not be in conflict with the general laws. If they undertake to penalize acts already made penal by territorial law they should be authorized expressly or by necessary implication."

W. L. Whitney, Deputy Attorney General, represented the Territory and A. G. M. Robertson the defendants.

NO MITIGATION.

Charles Lake appeared in person before Judge Lindsay on appeal from District Magistrate Andrade for mitigation of sentence. He made a speech and J. L. Kaulukou also pleaded for him. The court saw no mitigating features in the case and affirmed the sentence, which was four months' imprisonment and payment of costs. Lake's offense was assault and battery upon Mrs. Kalapuna Williams.

THE GRAY DIVORCE.

La Vancha M. Gray, in her libel for divorce against Charles B. Gray, alleges that for more than five years he has utterly neglected and refused to support her and she has been forced to support herself by keeping a boarding house. Further she says that defendant is the manager of Kapaa Wine Co., Kealia, Kauai, and receives an income of $250 a month.

NOTLEY WILL CASE.

Chas. K. Notley is taking steps to have his father's will again brought before the Federal Supreme Court. M. F. Prosser yesterday filed an application for a writ of error.

SUPREME COURT.

The Territory's ejection cases against Puahi et al. and Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., raising the question of the status of the former crown lands, were argued and submitted before the Supreme Court yesterday.

J. E. Colburn, trustee, v. Holt et al., and A. M. Brown v. Lee Cheek and 67 others, were submitted on briefs.

COURT ITEMS.

Judge Lindsay confirmed the findings of John Marcellino, master, on the annual account of Bruce Cartwright, trustee of the estate of Emma Kaleonani, deceased, and approved the account as amended.

Kamakua has appealed from District Magistrate Aikue of Koolau, who sentenced him to four months' imprisonment for malicious injury.

The action to quiet title of Alexander Young v. F. W. Macfarlane and others has been continued. A settlement is pending.

Charles F. Peterson has discontinued his suit against Kalai Ahiena and others.

The Lee Sa Kee case is still on before U. S. Judge Dole.

The Territory is going to appeal from Judge Parsons to the Supreme Court in the Hapai homestead case.

GAMBLERS FINED.

There were nearly thirty gamblers in the police court yesterday the result of four raids by the police in as many different parts of the city. One of the raids was in an unsuspected quarter on Miller street near Vineyard. Another was a Pauahi street joint that requires the constant attention of the police. A third was on King street near the junction with Beretania, and the fourth was on King opposite the Oahu railroad depot. All forfeited bail or were fined $5 and costs except four, as to whom a nolle pro's was entered, on agreement with the police that the remainder of those caught at the same place should plead guilty.

SAKI GOT THE LIMIT.

S. Saki was fined twenty-five dollars by Judge Andrade yesterday for keeping his billiard parlor open after twelve o'clock, Saturday night, in violation of the Quinn Sunday law. This came as a surprise to him, as when arrested he was released on $10 cash bail and he thought he would not be fined more than the amount of the bail anyway. But Judge Andrade has been raising the lines on this class of offenders steadily. Previous cases were fined $10 and then $15 and now the limit has been raised to $25.

McELROY BACK IN JAIL.

McElroy, the man whose resolution never to work has never been shaken, stood before Judge Andrade yesterday morning.

"H'm, you were over at the jail only a little while ago, were you not?" asked the Judge.

"Oh, I spent a few days there not a great while ago," replied McElroy.

"You're just acting to go back there, aren't you," asked the Judge.

"Oh, I don't know; I don't mind it particularly."

"Five dollars and costs," said the court.

WALLACE FIGURES WITH THE POLICE ONCE MORE

R. Wallace, a soldier from Fort Shafter, was arrested by the police on Sunday for drunkenness. In the police court yesterday his name was stricken from the calendar and he was turned over to be dealt with by the military authorities.

Wallace figured in an incident that gained him some notoriety about a year and a half ago. He came here and went to the Moana Hotel. He paid the first bill presented to him, and for the next one he tendered a check drawn on a bank in Willoughby, Ohio, for $200, receiving the difference in cash. The check was returned unpaid for want of funds. There was considerable correspondence about the matter and finally, all at once, Wallace turned up missing, and it was thought he had left the islands. Later it was found that he had enlisted at Fort Shafter. His real name is Lou Miller, and he is said to have deserted a wife in Ohio. He was formerly an expert accountant, but before coming here he was under treatment for some trouble with his mental faculties.

DISTRIBUTED BEER ALL OVER KAKAOKO

Kakaoko was enjoying a wild and hilarious time yesterday. Some time Sunday night the bottling works of the Rainier Beer Company, at Cooke and Hucast streets, were entered and a barrel of bottles of beer was rolled out. The contents were distributed with a lavish hand all over Kakaoko. Wire bottle-openers in large numbers were also stolen, and these were distributed with the bottles so that he that ran might drink.

Suspicion fell on a certain gang of young Hawaiians. The house where they lived was searched and a large number of bottles of beer and bottle-openers to match were found, and one of the gang was arrested. The remainder of the gang were not there, but the police know who they are and expect to gather them in within a day or two. At the police station there is the barrel partly full of bottles of beer which is being retained as evidence.

BEWARE OF FREQUENT COLDS.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaiian Islands.

SHOT UP THE TOWN.

Ramon Concepcion, a Porto Rican, is doing a four months' term at Oahu jail under sentence from the District Court of Waiialua for "shooting up" that village. He claims to have been sent out by High Sheriff Henry to hunt up the outlaw Lopez. Acting under some impulse he began shooting in a camp on the Waiialua plantation and narrowly escaped shooting a Portuguese woman and child. The report at the time was that he had fired ten shots at Lopez. But this proved to be mere persiflage. His shooting was not done at Lopez.

CASTRO WAS CAUGHT.

Francisco Castro who was identified by his victims as the man who held up Lee See in a lane off King street near Liliha on Sunday night, is at the police station, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon. He held Lee up, hauled him into the lane and demanded his money. Lee refused to give up, but instead began calling out, "haul in." Thereupon Castro hit him with an iron bar and then took to his heels.

MRS. J. M. SPALDING SUES FOR DIVORCE

SANTA BARBARA, February 24.—

Mrs. Georgiana Spalding, whose wedding to James Magee Spalding, son of the Honolulu millionaire, was celebrated with great eclat in San Francisco in December, 1905, has filed a suit for divorce against her husband in the Superior court here. The papers are not public and the grounds for the suit could not be learned.

Mrs. Spalding was the youngest daughter of Mrs. Georgiana Lacey, widow of Thomas Jefferson Potter Lacey of this city. She was a niece of the late Dixie Thompson, who at one time had the largest bean ranch in the world. The wedding, which was of much splendor and very costly, was solemnized in the home of the Gunns, the head of the house being Edward M. Gunn, partner in the Union Iron works.

Mrs. Spalding did not live with her husband quite a year. After the wedding the couple went to Honolulu, but their life there, it is said, was not happy. Less than a year after marriage Mrs. Spalding returned to the home of her mother here and has remained here since. Her husband is now in Honolulu. The witnesses to the suit are also in Hawaii. Mrs. Spalding is represented by Attorney B. F. Thomas of this city. Mrs. Spalding refuses to discuss her case.

BROUGHT BACK SOME PLEASANT MEMORIES

East Cliff Hall, Bournemouth, February 12, 1908.

To the Hawaiian Gazette Co.

Sirs: Mr. Mellor Starkey, who used to reside in Honolulu, has lent me the "Picturesque Honolulu" to read. My husband and I are so charmed with it that we want two copies sent us here, if not quite out of print, or if you know of anyone who would be good enough to sell us theirs.

We recognize two faces, ex-Governor Cleghorn and Mr. D. Howard Hitchcock, who were both most kind to us when we were in Hilo and Honolulu in July, 1885, immediately after the good Queen Emma's death. We would much like to visit the Hawaiian Islands again, but we fear it can not be now. We were then on our way from New Zealand to San Francisco, and Mr. Spreckels took us in the Mariposa from Honolulu to San Francisco. It did our hearts good to read all about it again. I do hope you can get even one copy for us. And please state price and how I am to send the money. Yours very sincerely,

(Mrs.) A. RUSSELL-COTES.

P. S.—Mr. and Mrs. Rain Walker are also near here, in the Isle of Wight.

HAWAIIAN CURIOS

SOLD FOR CHARITY

San Francisco Examiner—One of the interesting events of the season will be the bazaar to be given by the "Sick and Needy Chapter" of St. John's Episcopal church, February 19-20 in the Sunday school rooms of the church.

Much interest has been manifested in the coming event, which promises to be a great success.

The proceeds of the affair will be given to the poor. Mrs. August Hanberg is chairman of the bazaar and the secretary of the chapter for the sick and needy ones. She has imported a large quantity of Hawaiian curios for the fair and is making preparations for an afternoon and evening of Hawaiian songs. Hawaiian girls from Mills Seminary will be invited to sing Hawaiian songs.

WOMAN'S BOARD.

The Woman's Board of Missions will meet in Central Union church today at 2:30 p. m. in the chapel. The study in "Isles of The Sea" will be New Zealand, that El Dorado in the Hemisphere of the Southern Cross. Mrs. A. C. Alexander will have charge of this section of the program. Mrs. Cyrus Clark of Japan, a member of one of our island families, will be present and speak. Other visiting friends will be heard. Chinese work will be reported. Tidings from our two stations in Africa and China will be made public. Strangers and friends are cordially invited to be present.

MISS POWER RETURNS.

The return on the Korea of Miss Power, the popular milliner, has ended the troubles of many ladies who have been wondering whether or not they could wait any longer to get their Easter hats.

Miss Power has been in New York, Chicago and other Eastern cities, selecting a stock of the latest millinery, and promises her patrons their choice of a beautiful line of the most fashionable Eastern styles. One of the many attractive novelties which will be on display in a few days is the "Merry Widow Sailor."

"Literature is very trying, isn't it?" said one woman. "Yes," answered the other. "If your book doesn't sell, you are disappointed, and if it does it has to be so shocking that you are embarrassed."—Washington Herald.
