WILL MEET EVERY DAY

Fleet Executive Committee to Be Very Busy From Now On.

A meeting of the executive committee of the fleet entertainment and reception committee was held yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Promotion Committee.

Present were George R. Carter, chairman; G. W. Smith, L. T. Peck, F. L. Waldron and H. P. Wood.

The absentees were J. P. Cooke, J. A. McCandless and J. F. Morgan. The chairman presented a communication from K. H. Earhart relative to designing the decorations of the town for the fleet's visit. The offer was refused as the matter has already been turned over to the committee on decorations.

The chair reported that he had cabled Assistant Secretary Newberry of the Navy Department for full information as to the fleet and its movements.

L. T. Peck, chairman of the ways and means committee, submitted a verbal report on financial control. He will present the report in written form at today's meeting.

Secretary Wood was instructed to write to the Board of Supervisors requesting them, if possible, to increase the number of the band to thirty members during the visit of the fleet.

The plans of the decoration committee were approved in part and the committee was authorized to place an order with the Hawaiian Electric Co. for certain material which it is necessary to order at once in order to secure it in time for the coming of the fleet.

The chairman of the ways and means committee was instructed to secure the necessary books and forms to establish a regular system of accounting. The committee will employ a regular accountant to keep track of the accounts.

At this afternoon's meeting the plan offered by the entertainment committee will be discussed.

From today there will be a meeting of the executive committee every afternoon in the rooms of the Promotion Committee from 1:30 to 2 p. m.

All public communications for the committee should be addressed to Secretary H. P. Wood, Young building.

The fleet committees are as follows:

PRESS COMMITTEE HAS A MEETING

A meeting of the press committee of the fleet entertainment and reception committee was held yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Promotion Committee. Present were: W. R. Farrington, L. S. Conness, J. W. W. Brewster, S. Sheba, S. Hanohano, Ho Fon.

It was moved and carried that Secretary Brewster write a letter to the executive committee outlining their plans and asking whether they shall follow them up or leave them in the hands of the entertainment committee.

The secretary was also instructed to write a letter to the executive committee asking them to notify the local press of meetings to be held in order that all possible publicity may be given to the doings of the various committees.

J. M. Poepe, W. D. Adams, R. K. Bonine and E. Like were appointed additional members of the press committee.

A Gigantic Spectacle

Editor Advertiser.—The people of Honolulu do not appreciate what the conditions are at the Volcano of Kilauea. If they did, the steamers running to Hawaii would not be large enough to carry the passengers going to see the stupendous sight now visible there.

Within the last few weeks the central pit has filled up by the rising of molten lava within its walls until its floor is now only about 200 feet below the floor of the main crater.

At this level, 200 feet below the spectator, there is a lake of molten lava, in the shape of the figure eight, approximately 800 feet long by 400 feet wide. Near the center of the northern lobe of the lake is an island some 75 feet in length, in the shape of a half-moon. Within the little bay formed by the points of this island there is an almost constant boiling of the molten lava, with explosive bursts of gas every minute or so, which throws masses of the molten fluid into the air some 30 to 40 feet, and scatters it over an area of approximately 100 feet in diameter. Immediately after each outburst of gas a tremendous suction draws the lava from a radius of 100 feet of the bay into a vortex like that of a maelstrom, great cakes of lava 15 or 20 feet in diameter being turned up on edge, sucked in, and disappearing like chips down a whirlpool.

Immediately north of the island, at a distance of not more than 100 feet therefrom, there is a gigantic outpouring of lava from beneath, without any bubbles or explosions. It looks like an enormous spring, the lava simply welling up and flowing off in all directions. The current is so rapid that the surface of the lake does not have time to cool, except in spots, and these spots are at frequent intervals upheaved by convulsions from beneath, and the black crust engulfed in the liquid lava beneath. The crusts striking the banks of the lake, which are from four to six feet high, are either shoved bodily up on the banks, like ice cakes in the Arctic, or overturned on edge and swallowed up in the fiery depths below. At intervals boiling spots appear at various points on the lake, engulfing the black cakes of lava floating thereon. The outpouring of the lava from the great spring is so great that the level of the liquid lava is raised faster than the surrounding banks can retain it, and at frequent intervals the banks give way and torrents of lava flow out into the surrounding territory in the pit until that portion of the pit is raised to a level which stems the flood.

This action has been going on now for several weeks, the lake constantly enlarging and the floor of the pit being raised by the overflows of lava.

The brilliancy of the action can be judged from the fact that a lantern is not needed in crossing the rough floor of the crater, the light from the lake being more than sufficient to show the trail in its details. The glare of the lake can also be seen any clear night from Hilo and Honouapo at distances of 31 and 35 miles, respectively.

There has been no such grand exhibition of volcanic action at Kilauea since 1894, when the bottom dropped out of the lake, forming the present pit.

If the present rate of filling of the pit goes on, it should be filled and running over by the end of this year. There can be no certainty, however, that the action will continue on its present magnificent scale, and anyone who wishes to see one of the grandest natural phenomena now visible on the face of the earth should lose no time in going to the Volcano.

WROTE UNDER DEATH'S SHADOW

Touching Letters From Edward Manasse to Friends in Hawaii-Nei.

The following touching letters were written from Folsom State prison by Ed. K. Manasse, the Hawaiian who was sentenced to death for the murder of a man named Cook. They were prepared before Manasse's sentence had been commuted to imprisonment for life. George P. Castle here and Attorney C. H. S. Biddle of San Francisco, were indefatigable in their efforts to save the unfortunate man and finally succeeded:

May 4th, '08.
Mr. Geo. P. Castle,
Dear Sir: I thought I drop you a few lines. Being my suspended days are drawing near I must express my thanks to you and to all my aiders.

I ask your favor to advertise this manuscript so the rest of my aiders may know that their deeds had touched my heart and made a new man of me.

Never will I forget what you have done for me and for my poor parents which we are greatly indebted to you. Grant me this favor please. I remain,

Respectfully yours,
ED. K. MANASSE.

TO MY TRUE FRIENDS.

As the time for my execution is fast approaching, I can not delay longer in expressing to you how deeply my heart has been touched by your many generous and unselfish acts of kindness and good will, in using your influence, as well as that of others, in the effort to save me from the death sentence. Who would ever think that a stray wanderer, such as I, would ever be the recipient of such wonderful acts of love and kindness. I sincerely hope I have deserved them.

Thank God for His mercy and love. In regards to the deed which has placed me in this position, let me assure you all that I had no intention of harming Cook. It was not premeditated, nor was it done in the heat of passion, but forced on me, and believing from his actions that my life, as well as that of my wife was in danger, I took no chances. It was solely self defense.

John Cook had threatened my life both before and after my marriage. (Continued on Page Three.)

NORWEGIAN AND SWEDISH MUSIC

Kilohana Art League Gives a Most Delightful Concert.

The Kilohana Art League furnished a most enjoyable entertainment last evening, and one that was worthy of the high aims of the league. It was a presentation of the work of Scandinavian composers, both instrumental and vocal, and the presentation, in the several numbers, and of the several composers, was of a very high order, musically and artistically.

Back of the platform were draped the flags of Sweden and of Norway, giving a suggestion in the decorations (Continued on Page Seven.)

DEPOSITIONS IN LEE LET CASE CANNOT BE FOUND

Two Important Ones Missing From the Files of the Attorney General's Office--Were Made to Milverton.

The Lee Let monkey-business continues to develop.

Yesterday, in looking for the depositions made in the case a year and more ago by two of the principal witnesses, not a sign of them could be found. They had been removed from the files. Only Chief Taylor's statement remained, as the fact of that having been previously published made its theft useless.

So far there is no clew. The depositions were made by Messrs. Matheson and Ayres, the witnesses mentioned, to Mr. Milverton, when he was on the Attorney General's staff. Milverton is now with the County Attorney. Of course, nobody suspects him—but what has become of the papers?

Things seem to have been carefully prepared to make it easy for Lee Let to get out. He was indicted, as our readers will remember, for the attempted bribery of Chief Taylor on behalf of Chinese gamblers. County Attorney Cathcart let the case drag along like the Duvauchelle case—which he surreptitiously non-prossed—but publicity in these columns made him abandon it and turn the whole business over to the Attorney General. Now it is in Deputy Larnach's hands and on the calendar for trial.

The man who stole the depositions ought to have been able to pick up a tidy sum from the Chinese gamblers, who have shown themselves willing to pay high for favors of any kind.

SUPT. CAMPBELL WRITES.

The following communications were read and ordered filed or referred to the proper authorities:

Honolulu, T. of H., May 25, 1908.
Gentlemen: I have had a call from Mr. Cathcart, County Attorney, who has requested from me information in reference to what has been done by the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Co., in regard to the wooden block pavement on Queen street. For your information, I would state that the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company has been notified to construct the pavement in accordance with the general specifications, as adopted by the Board of Supervisors, and the matter is only awaiting the preparation of special details covering the track construction, the details being prepared by the Department of Public Works. I have to remain,

Very truly yours,
MARSTON CAMPBELL,
Superintendent of Public Works.

Honolulu, T. of H., May 25, 1908.
Gentlemen: I take pleasure in informing you that the necessary transfers have been made between the Territory of Hawaii, and the Campbell Estate and Mary Lyman, for the widening of the Diamond Head road. There is now nothing in the way of your completing this work at any time you may see fit.

Very truly yours,
MARSTON CAMPBELL,
Superintendent of Public Works.

Honolulu, T. of H., May 25, 1908.
Gentlemen: Complaint has on several occasions reached this Department from the Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots, Honolulu Harbor No. 54, in regard to screening the electric lights on the waterfront of Honolulu, as the glare from these lights makes it quite difficult in docking vessels at night. I would most respectfully request that you instruct the Superintendent of Electric Lights to have these screens (Continued on Page Two.)

FOURTEEN WERE DROWNED IN ONE REFUGEE GROUP

Oklahoma People Sought Safety on an Island and Were Submerged--North Carolina Prohibition--Three Gallagher Houses Blown Up.

(Associated Press Cablegrams.)

COLBERT, Oklahoma, May 27.—The floods continue. Fourteen people have been drowned on an island here where they had taken refuge.

THREE OF GALLAGHER'S HOUSES DYNAMITED

OAKLAND, May 27.—Three houses owned by ex-Supervisor James Gallagher have been wrecked by dynamite.

Gallagher, who is one of the hoodlers who gave State's evidence against Schmitz and Reef in return for immunity, had his own house blown about his ears by dynamite a few weeks ago. Now three more have been shattered. Gallagher, after his release from arrest, boasted that he had got out with much property and $35,000 in cash. Followers of the old regime in San Francisco are supposed to be the dynamiters.

NORTH CAROLINA DECLARES FOR A PROHIBITORY LAW

RALEIGH, May 27.—The Prohibitionists are victorious

This cablegram probably means that North Carolina has been added to the dry column. There has been a tremendous campaign there, not more so in Raleigh than all over the State. Speaking of some phases of the contest, the Associated Prohibition Press service lately said:

"North Carolina is now the target for National Liquor Dealers' Association literature, with which the State is being flooded, from Chicago, New York, Milwaukee, and other cities. The notorious Farm Herald, the fake agricultural journal, which, gotten up in clever form, has been used in a thousand cases during the last fifteen years to confuse and mislead the voters, is again being used in carload quantities to delude the honest citizens of the Old North State. But the Prohibition forces are making a magnificent canvass, and expect to carry the State overwhelmingly against the liquor traffic."

THE POLITICS OF THE HOUR
What is Going on Among the Territorial Job-Chasers.

The slogan of the coming campaign will be, to use a pathological term, of a herpetic character, though it is hardly possible that it has been taken from a well known remedy, widely advertised, over the caption, "Scratch, scratch, scratch."
Anyhow, wherever it came from, that's what it is to be.

Solemn councils have been held on the street corners most favored by politicians—the substitute for the Fish-market of the good old days, as a Honolulu forum.
The onward stride of the happy haole will be checked, his ambitions blasted, and, if all goes well, by the convening of the next Legislature, he will not know where he's at.

A gathering at the residence of Hon. H. M. Kaniho in Kuakini street, on Monday evening, while ostensibly social, had not a little significance from a political standpoint. The Hon. H. M. Kaniho, as the chairman of a political meeting would affably remark, needs no introduction in this community. He is a mighty man amongst his kind, a mentor, an oracle, whose slightest word carries enormous weight.

He has never been swept into the maelstrom of what is foolishly called progress. He stands pat amongst those who know that it is better to see the moon over your right shoulder, than to meet a cross-eyed man, especially if you owe him money and he wants it, is certain bad luck. He is the staunch advocate of female rocks, and, in his opinion, a piece of yarn tied around a wart and then put under a stone, beats a regular practitioner's prescription all to pieces.

The Hon. H. M. Kaniho is shrewd and voluble on the floor of the House. In the art of talking a bill to death the Washington aggregation couldn't match him, and it is this mere multiplication of reverberating words and sounding phrases that induces his loyal constituency to sit at his feet in wondering admiration. He is also a decidedly original character.
At one time he held a prominent position amongst the merry retainers who, under the old regime, "chased the rosy hours with flying feet," or vice versa. He has a melodious voice, which he uses like the true artist that he is—another explanation of his popularity.

The testimonial above mentioned took the form of a luau, elaborate in its scope, and with nothing lacking that made the luau of the past unique amongst the entertainments patronized by the visiting tourist.
Poi there was, of first-class quality and in plenty, taro on the half-shell, squid of such a consistency that the company chewed on it all evening without making any impression on it, Kulo for those of the guests with a sweet tooth, mullet and shrimps, with such liquid refreshments as were most satisfying to the majority present.

There was a pleasant informality throughout the evening. It had not been necessary to round up the guests and drive them to the festivities, nor were they detained by force when they were ready to leave. They simply came and went as the spirit, or spirits, moved them.
With the feasting and dancing some rousing old mele were chanted, again recalling the old days when the palace walls resounded with the like, and these were greeted with applause and, at some special allusion, with roars of laughter—or so it is reported.

The occasion for all this demonstration of political unity and goodwill was the impending departure of Hon. H. M. Kaniho on a lengthy campaigning tour from which he is confident of securing the best results. He has made the record that will help him most in quarters where a record of that sort is most effective, and he will stand pat as the pronounced enemy of the entomologist who wastes the public funds in exterminating potato bugs by scientific means, instead of squashing them in the way consistent with the simple life.
Mr. Kaniho prophesies that in the coming session he will be backed up by a Hawaiian member from the Big Island, and that so supported, he will be invincible. During his tour he will resume his instructions in first aid to the politically injured, similar to those dispensed around Honolulu under the shady banyan tree, when he had all the able-bodied unemployed gathered within the sound of his voice from the dumps and the waterfront.

The "Boy Orator," Bernard Kelekolio, who can't hope to play the part much longer, having more than reached the age limit, is also up and arming for the fray. He seconds Mr. Kaniho's statement that there is going to be a lot of scratching, unless the haole politicians get out and hustle, and he isn't sure that even this will save them. Bernard Kelekolio, the "Boy Orator," is perfectly confident of election, if only he can pass the first obstacle in the way without slumping, and this means that he thinks he'll be elected if he can only get the nomination. He has an army of friends, and to a man they will all vote for him, once anyhow, and oftener if they get a chance.
He is prodigiously strong on the other side of the island, and with every breath he draws he is urging the Hawaiians to pick out and vote for the best man, which he thinks, though he is too modest to say so, will make his own calling and election sure.
Induced to speak at Waikane a short time ago, he frankly set forth his views, choosing as his text "The Christian at the ballot box." On that occasion Mr. Kelekolio had the courage of his convictions. In no unmeasured terms he made it clear to his audience that just because they worked for Link McCandless they were in no manner bound to vote for him. Mr. Kelekolio has sounded four hundred and three voters to their lowest depths, and of this number he is confident that four hundred and two will vote for him, though the erratic movements of the other fellow can not yet be determined.

Captain Nahora Hipi has also been doing a little forecasting and investigating. He reports that every man Jack of his constituency intends to scratch.

Senator Charley Chillingworth sends in a like forecast.
Charley Achi, the gallant champion of the labor element, who has so triumphantly proved that it is by no means necessary that a candidate practise what he preaches, is already beginning to reap the reward of conscientious talking. He has not iterated and reiterated promises of advanced wages and reduced taxes for nothing. He has promised that the thing shall be done, and a procession of voters is following his lead sufficient to fill every office in the Territory ten times over.

Willie Crawford, another important candidate, has adopted quite a different method, which may be termed safe and economical. It is, in reality, educational, if one stops a minute to think about it. It consists simply in stringing on his necktie, watch-guard, and in every conspicuous buttonhole, a gay and decorative club button. These run to gilt, and are of all the primary colors. Thus ticketed, so to speak, even the most indifferent voter could not possibly overlook him as he passes along the highways and back streets.
To return to the beginning, "scratch" is the watchword with the anti-haole and the labor element, and it behooves the scratchee to be up and doing.

THE "BOY ORATOR'S" SPEECH.
The following is an authorized report of Bernard Kelekolio, the "Boy Orator's," address before the Christian Endeavor Society of Waikane church, Sunday afternoon. The "Boy Orator" was invited by a number of Hawaiians of Waikane to address the society on the subject of "The Christian at the Ballot Box." He was introduced by Rev. M. Kuakahi as a young man who had done a good deal for his country and who is now seeking legislative honors:

"I have not come in your beautiful palace to make a political speech," began the "Boy Orator," "but merely for pleasure and pass my time in viewing your beautiful green mountains."
"The Christian at the Ballot Box," has a broad meaning. It teaches us to be true to ourselves in all our dealings with every man, and higher than that, to be true to God and be a Christian at the ballot box.
"To illustrate to you how grand this subject is, I refer you to the great Civil War between the North and the South; the South contending that they had a right to maintain the system of slavery, while the North contended that 'all men are equal before the eyes of the law.'"

"It was a foregone conclusion that in the year 1860, during the presidential election, that secession would follow if Abraham Lincoln was elected, and therefore between the presidential election in November, 1860, and the inauguration of Lincoln in the following spring was seized by the leaders of the South as the opportune time for dissolving the Union.
"On the 17th day of December, 1860, South Carolina passed a resolution seceding from the Union, and on February, 1861, six other States—Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and Texas—passed ordinances of secession and withdrew from the Union. On February 4, 1861, delegates from six of the seceded States assembled at Montgomery and formed a new government under the name of the Confederate States of America.

"While all these happened in the South portending war should Abraham Lincoln be elected, the people of the North were in full accord that the Union must be preserved and that this degrading system of slavery should be abolished. But how should this be done? Only by the election of Abraham Lincoln, and the voters of the North, like a wall of granite, to preserve the integrity of the Union and to abolish slavery, cast their votes at the ballot box like Christians, thus proclaiming to the world that Abraham Lincoln was elected President of the United States regardless of the actions of the seceding States.
"Alexander H. Stephens, Vice President of the Confederate States, pleaded against secession on the ground that the measure 'was impolitic, unwise and likely to be disastrous in its results,' but his pleadings were not heeded.

"You know the rest, my dear friends—how this terrible war was fought for four long years, a war fought by the North with the two sole aims, first, that the Union be preserved; secondly, that the system of slavery be abolished from the United States of America.
"In conclusion, I would ask you that when you approach the ballot box, no matter where you are, remember that you are going to cast your vote like a Christian; remember that you are going to vote for this candidate because he is honest, because he will do for the best interests of the public; because he will guard your interest and everybody's interest regardless of color, creed or religion; while on the other hand, if you cast your ballot for a candidate because you formerly worked for him, because he is your father, your brother, your brother-in-law, your father-in-law, your school-mate, etc., then you are not doing like what our subject teaches us today, 'The Christian at the Ballot Box,' but you are acting traitors to yourself and to your country. I thank you all."

placed, the cost of same to be borne by the Department of Public Works.
Very truly yours,
MARSTON CAMPBELL,
Superintendent of Public Works.
A DOCTOR'S BILL.
The following communication was read and referred to County Attorney Cathcart:

Honolulu, Hawaii, May 18, 1908.
The Honorable Board of Supervisors, County of Oahu, Honolulu, T. H.
Dear Sirs: I enclose you herewith a statement of account to the amount of $25.00, rendered against this company by Dr. H. Wood of Waiialua, Oahu, for medical attendance to a Japanese, who was wounded through a pistol shot fired by one of the employees of this company at Wahiawa on the night of March 19, 1908, while in the act of defending the property of this company, as well as, apparently, defending himself from bodily injury at the hands of the Japanese. The Japanese in question was in the act of burglarizing the plantation store of this company when discovered, and, in the absence of police protection, it devolved upon the employees of the company to protect the property, resulting, as above stated, in the wounding of the Japanese burglar.

In view of these circumstances we feel that this is a charge that should be paid out of the public funds, and trust that your honorable board will see its way clear to appropriate such funds to reimburse Dr. Wood.
This company feels that it is certainly entitled to police protection, particularly against burglarizing—and when called upon to perform that service ourselves, we at least should be relieved of meeting any expenses which might be incurred, medical or otherwise, as result of such self protection, where the same arises through direct act of law breakers.
I would state that this matter has already been taken up with the County Sheriff and County Attorney, but both officials refuse to admit any liability on the part of the county for the services rendered by Dr. Wood, taking into consideration the circumstances under which the same were rendered.
Very truly yours,
T. H. PETRIE,
Secretary, Wahiawa Consolidated Pine-apple Co., Ltd.

OTHER MATTERS.
W. Larsen wrote asking for permission to sprinkle the street in front of his School street residence with crude oil. Referred to road committee.
Jared G. Smith wrote asking that the road on the southeast slope of Punchbowl be repaired from the head of Pensacola street to where it joins the Tantalus road. Referred to road committee.
J. H. Hertsche wrote thanking the board for kindly interest taken in the matter of connecting the generating plant of the Alexander Young Hotel with the Hawaiian Hotel premises for illuminating purposes during the fleet's stay.
Chas. Kuramoto, secretary of the Japanese Baseball League, wrote asking for the use of the Atkinson Park on Sunday afternoons, beginning May 24. The chair said that the board had nothing to do with the park in question.
In response to a request by Government Electrician W. L. Frazee it was voted to grant him a seven months' vacation in order to allow him to go to the Coast for the benefit of his health.
The employment by County Engineer Gere of E. B. Loomis as assistant engineer and D. Kaunu as chairman, at salaries of $130 and $35 per month, was ratified.

It was decided to raise the salary of Miss Achuck, stenographer of the County Attorney's office, to $100 a month, the salary which was paid to the former stenographer, Miss Perkins.
A petition was read from residents, taxpayers and property-owners requesting that the makai half of Kala-kaua avenue from Kalia to John Ena road, Waikiki, and extending toward for a space of about 800 to 1000 feet in length, should be attended to, either by macadamizing or oiling.
At 9:55 p. m. the meeting adjourned till June 3 at 7:30 p. m.

GOOD GAMES AT LAHAINA

Young Stars and Lahainalunas Defeat Konas and Pioneers.

LAHAINA, May 25.—Last Saturday morning two interesting games of baseball took place in the Kiihona Park, between the Young Stars and the Kona boys, the former winning by the professional score of 5 to 4, and the Lahainaluna second nine and the Pioneers, in which the latter were defeated by the score of 10 to 5.

The first game was a hard struggle from the start to the last inning. Both pitchers did well, though Nallau, for the Stars, was wild and gave eight bases on balls, which would have lost the game had not his team fielded well behind him.

Bill Cahill with two three-base hits to his record deserved the credit of winning the game for the Stars. The second game was a free-for-all slugger match, in which the Lahainalunas came out on top at the end of the nine full innings. They started out with two runs in the first and second innings, and followed with the same number in the third, which kept them in the lead all through.

In the eighth and ninth inning, the Pioneers made a rally, but could not pull through. John Ferreira twirled a star game striking out eight men and allowing four bases on balls.

The game was watched with keen interest by a large number of spectators. Score by innings:

FIRST GAME.

Young Stars	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Konas	0	0	1	0	2	1	0	0	0	4

Summary:
Three-base hits—Victor, Cahill, Naope and Moses.
Two-base hits—Kinolua, Asiu, Robert and Nallau.
Struck out—By Nallau 5, Robert 5.
Passed balls—Naope 5, Stephen 2, Umpire—Bill Miner.

Time of game—One hour, thirty-five minutes.
Scorer—Koa Kanakaul.

SECOND GAME.

Lahainalunas	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Pioneers	0	1	2	1	0	0	1	0	0	5

The line up was as follows:
Lahainalunas—Ferreira, p; Enoka, 1b; Paul Kila, 2b; Wm. Isaac, ss; Kapo, 3b; Ed. Smythe, lf; John Kaaua, cf; James Mio, rf.
Pioneers—Alex. Hose, p; Manuel, c; Ben, 1b; Keaini, 2b; Joe Moses, 3b; Vierra, lf; John Koanui, rf; Moses Kimoeko, cf; George Ehu, ss.

Summary:
Home run—Chas. Naope and Eddie Smythe.
Three-base hits—Chas. Naope.
Two-base hits—John Kaaua, John Ferreira, Wm. Isaac, Wm. Enoka, Alex and Manuel.

Struck out—By John Ferreira 5, Alex 3.
Time of game—One hour, thirty minutes.
Umpire—Isaac Noa.
Scorer—Solomon Kalef.

ATHLETIC CLUB DOING THINGS

The Kalaniana'ole Athletic Club, with headquarters in Kakaako, is doing remarkably well for a young institution. It has a membership of over forty, and is under the management of George Kahaleleio and Bil Huihui.

The clubhouse, which is very commodious, is fitted up as a gymnasium and equipped with flying rings, trapeze, Indian clubs, dumbbells, punching bags, heavy sand bags, medicine ball and several pairs of boxing gloves.

The floor is marked out for indoor baseball. In the center of the hall a postless 18-foot ring has been constructed with a padded canvas floor. Inside the ropes the members of the club get together and go at it nightly with the stuffed mitts.

For those whose tastes do not incline toward athletics, tables are provided for cards, checkers and other games. Membership in the club costs only a dollar a month, and the institution is doing good work along the line of healthy exercise among the young men of the district.

STANLEY TO PUNCH BAG

An additional attraction has been secured for the fistic carnival to be given at the Orpheum Theater on Saturday night, in the shape of a bag-punching stunt by Peter Stanley, a well-known professional ball-juggler.

Stanley has been in the business for several years, and is an artist at his specialty. He punches the bag on the floor and from the regulation overhead platform.

On Saturday night he will fill in ten or fifteen minutes with an exhibition of what pretty and wonderful work can be done with the bag and the human hands, head, shoulders, knees and feet. Peter Stanley's turn will serve as the curtain-raiser.

PUAKO GOOD BIG BOXER

A boxer who is attracting a good deal of attention at the Kalaniana'ole Athletic Club is Puako, the big ex-boatboy. Puako, who is very stoutly built, weighs close to 300 pounds and is remarkably active for so heavy a man. In a four-round bout with George Kahaleleio on Monday night, he made a good showing against the "Wild Swan."

Puako intends to go into training with the idea of competing for the heavyweight championship of the islands during the visit of the fleet.

KANAE WOULD BOX.

Frank Kanae called at this office yesterday and stated that he had made up his mind to enter the ring. He would like a match with Mike Patton. Kanae weighs 190 pounds.

BOUTS TO BE SCIENTIFIC

Jockey Willis sparred at the Baths yesterday afternoon with Ernest Heine, going three fast rounds. He impressed those who saw him work with his science and speed. He bores into his man with his head down and showers right and left swings after the style of Terry McGovern.

Willis will work at 2 p. m. today at the Baths and tomorrow will go six rounds with a sparring partner at the same hour.

Ah Sam boxed with Kupa yesterday morning and at 5 p. m. put on the gloves with Bill Huihui at the Kalaniana'ole Athletic Club. He was strong and showed a good straight left. Also he allowed Huihui to land on him with force without showing any ill effects. A number of interested spectators watched the Chinaman do his work.

Those who figure that Ah Sam will be easy for Willis are very apt to find themselves mistaken, for the Chinaman was never in better shape than he is today and has weight and reach in his favor.

The prospects are for a packed house for every event on the card, has a good look and will be decided on its merits. The three bouts will be exhibitions of scientific sparring by masters of the game and are certain to provide a most enjoyable evening's sport.

The sale of seats will open tomorrow morning at the store of Wall, Nichols Co., Ltd.

Bunts

Jack Flores, the pitcher of the Japanese A. C., is known as the "Togo" of the Banzai team.

Manager D. Kahaleleio of the Palamas states that Espinda will be in the box next Sunday when his team face the Kaalas.

President Atkinson of the Riversiders was pleased with the games last Sunday at Aala Park.

"Nippon" Notley, the captain of the J. A. C., and Yasumori, the manager, are all confident of the Alohas' defeat next Sunday.

Sam Hop, the pugilist, is gaining many supporters among the Aala fans.

A. K. Vierra, vice president of the Riverside League, is talking bleachers to a good many politicians. His plan is gaining support.

A plan to organize a Mercantile League is making good progress. Tom Ulukou is the promoter.

Hong Chack's baseball aggregation will leave for Koolau-poko next Saturday.

Kuailii's two-bagger for the Nippons started the Banzai chorus in last Sunday's game against the Kaalas.

C. Quon Chew, formerly of the Chinese Alohas, is now a student in Chicago. He writes to a friend here that he is making good in the baseball field there.

Bernard Keleko and W. Tin Chong returned from Koolau-poko on Monday.

L. Mon Tai, who is manager of the Chinese Aloha aggregation, states that a new slab artist will soon play for that club.

Bleachers are needed at Aala Park, and it's up to the Board of Supervisors to take steps.

Kaala A. C. vs. Palamas and Chinese Alohas vs. Japanese A. C. will be next Sunday's baseball program at Aala Park.

There will be a meeting of the Kailii Athletic Club tonight, at which President Olmos and the Leliehua Baseball Club are invited to be present. The matter of the protest will be discussed in a friendly manner.

Flores leads the Riverside League in batting with the excellent average of .500. Ross is second with .433, and Correa of the Palamas comes third with .429. Twenty men are batting over .250.

GEORGE A. CRANFIELD.
He will act as judge at the coming bench show of the Hawaiian Kennel Club.

WORD FROM SANTA CLARAS

The following letter was received by the last steamer by Frank Thompson from Santa Clara:

Dear Sir.—Your letter of the 8th inst. at hand; in reply am pleased to say that we will accept your proposition as stated—i. e., first-class passage between here and the Islands, leaving here on July 1, 1908. Board and lodging and incidental expenses to be borne by your league during our stay. We will no doubt get along with eleven players, although I had figured on twelve and self. We have a star aggregation this year, and will surely give the fans our best, which is a rattling good exhibition of the national pastime. College closes here on June 30, 1908. Kindly have steamer tickets in due time.

Very respectfully,
H. A. J. MCKENZIE,
Mgr. S. C. C. B. T.

JOE CASTRO RESURRECTS

Jos Castro, alias "The Telephone Smasher," alias "The Guam Wonder," has come to life again and expresses his willingness to box anyone weighing from 120 to 130 pounds.

While in the States Castro did a lot of boxing, winning a fight in Stockton with a cousin of Rufe Turner which paid his expenses home and landed him here with money in his pockets.

Castro was a good old trier a few years back and his battles with George Modlin, Kid Gelp and Jack McFadden still linger in the memory of local ring-goers.

Frank Kanae is managing Joe Castro.

DICK SULLY IS MATCHED

VALLEJO, May 15.—Manager Grennan of the Palm Athletic Club has arranged a strong card for the afternoon of Decoration Day in securing Dick Sullivan and Kyle Whitney for a twenty-round go in this city. The men are to box for a guaranteed purse of $1000, to be divided on a sixty and forty per cent basis. The terms of the articles call for them to weigh in at 155 pounds a half past twelve, and they agree to be in the ring at 2:45 p. m. Sullivan is to train here, and will come up during the coming week, making his headquarters at one of the road houses in the vicinity, and boxing in town each afternoon for the benefit of the sports. Whitney will train in San Francisco, coming up to Vallejo only a day or so before the bout.

Eustace Miles, the noted English athlete and food expert, said at a recent vegetarian dinner in Chicago: "They who, with rich sauces and exciting meats, weaken their digestion in the effort to strengthen their bodies, practice a very poor system indeed. Such people are like the embarrassed motorist who pawned his automobile in order to raise $250 for a new set of tires."

Before my marriage, he failed in an attempt to drown me.
After my marriage he interfered with my rights in trying to alienate the affections of my wife, and after failing so to do, stated that he would kill me first, next my wife and end all by taking his own life.
I may have been wrong in taking the life of Cook, but after the foregoing had taken place, and seeing what I deemed a move to draw a weapon, I thought my life was in danger and tried to protect myself.
You have shown your sympathy for me, the son of Rev. H. Manasse. I believe that you love your religion and your God, and that you are true Christians. No doubt you pity for my aged parents who have been more than forty years in God's service. You are doing all that can be done to save my life and to cast off the burden from my dear parents' shoulders as Christians always do in behalf of their brethren.
Here I was a stranger in a foreign land, led astray to become a member of Satan's throng. The result of this is: that I am a branded criminal in the eyes of the world.
Forgetful of the faith in God which my dear parents taught me to believe in from childhood up, helpless and friendless and almost in despair, I little thought of His power and mercy then, and the realization has, alas! come to late to ward off the brand.
Here in this country, the protector of Hawaii, there are gentlemen who have also given me proof of their sympathy and Christian attitude towards their brethren; by using the means in their power to secure me a commutation from the death sentence, and whether their efforts are crowned with success or failure, the proof of their sympathy is of very great comfort to me.
My thanks to all is from the bottom of my heart, and it is my regret that I can not show the thanks in a more pronounced form. I hope you will be able to realize my appreciation of your kindness.
I have earned the wages of sin, but thanks to God, the prayers of parents and friends saved me from the everlasting agony. The darkened path has come to an end, and every day left to me in this life will be a vivid recollection of the Prodigal Son. I have accepted Christ as my Savior.
Many and varied are the thoughts of my dear parents love, and of my dear sunny Hawaiian home, and strong is the wish to see them once more, but if God so wills that I deserve this earthly punishment, I will meet it bravely, knowing that my sins are forgiven through His dear Son, Jesus Christ.
Asking the aid of your prayers, I again thank you my dear friends from my heart. I remain,
Most sincerely yours,
(Sgd.) ED. K. MANASSE,

HOME TALENT FOR A HOME OFFICE.

If the bill to create a second Federal judgeship here becomes a law, the first thing to do will be to watch out lest the appointment shall go to a mainland, as the original one did.

It is a strong temptation to politicians when a new job is to be filled in "the colonies," to give it to somebody they want to shelve. That is why Morris M. Estee got the first Federal judgeship here after annexation. He was in the way of younger politicians in California, and was clamoring year in and year out for nominations which, in his case, always meant party defeat. Finally he was shunted off to Hawaii, where he stayed on the bench here until he died, always illustrating in his local career the difficulties that beset a veteran partisan and politician when he tries to adapt himself to judicial functions.

When Judge Estee passed away, Hawaii asserted itself and got the vacant judgeship for its first citizen, Sanford B. Dole. Soon it may have to assert itself again to keep the later precedent in effect. As surely as the sun rises, plenty of old political hacks, all the way from Maine to Wyoming, and, perhaps, to California, will see the Hawaiian plum and reach for it. And if one of them gets it, five years will probably be needed to raise him up to the estate of a tolerable second-rate judge.

We have talent enough here to fill all or any of our official vacancies, and as a people we should insist on the privilege.

DREAMY HAWAII.

The hustle microbe has at last reached far-away and sleepy, dreamy Hawaii. It seems too bad that not a single place is to be left free from the curse of the present age of commercialism. A promotion committee has been organized to boom that land of sunshine and flowers, and soon the natives will be deluged with a horde of immigrants. The dreamy, romantic air of the Islands will vanish, and the place will be just like the rest of this prosy old world.—Findlay (Ohio) Republican.

Peace, peace, old mole! Hawaii has had a promotion committee for years. It has had a Chamber of Commerce since the time when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. We have forgotten the particular year of the decade when this city acquired a better electric street car system than Findlay (Ohio) ever saw. The telephone came here in its gurgling infancy, and electric lighting was an old story sixteen years ago. More than a generation back our people began hustling to such purpose that Hawaii now has the richest population per capita in the world, and one of the richest agricultural industries on the footstool. If the Findlay (Ohio) paper knows of a single modern facility or comfort common to cities of 60,000 and a rural population of, say, 140,000 more, which Hawaii doesn't enjoy, let it name the article and we will send and get it. "Dreamy Hawaii!" "Curse of Commercialism!" Rats! Come here to dream and you'll be run over by automobiles, the Gamewell system will report the case to the police, the patrol wagon will rush you into the hospital, a modern medical trust will cut up what is left of you, your remains will be hustled to the crematory, your funeral solemnities will be disturbed by the tooting of steam whistles and the clang of the trolley gongs, and your obituary will have a chance to appear in over thirty local publications, six of them daily papers in three languages. Go to!

FUTURE OF THE HAWAIIAN.

The Catholic Light, of Scranton, Pa., has this to say of the Hawaiians: It is predicted that within a few generations the race of native Hawaiians will become extinct.

The main causes, as set forth by Lucien C. Warner, are intermarriage and the poor state of health of the pure bloods. Their total number has been reduced from 70,000 in 1853 to less than 30,000 in 1900.

Marrriages between the Hawaiians and other races are quite frequent, and the number of part Hawaiians is steadily increasing. In 1872 the census gave but 1487 part Hawaiians. In 1884 they had increased to 4218, and in 1900 to 7848.

The larger proportion of children among the part Hawaiians is indicated by the statistics of school attendance, which in 1902 showed 4903 full blooded Hawaiian children to a total population of 29,787, and 2869 part Hawaiian children to a population of 7848.

It is probable that the Catholic Light is right in its view that the pure Hawaiian strain is bound to vanish through the process of intermarriage with other races; but it is equally true that a very powerful and successful division of that race may succeed it and prove no mean competitor for first place. That will depend on how much Asiatic blood shall be mingled with the Polynesian as the amalgamating process goes on.

So far this has proved the most successful strain. That person is usually fortunate who descends from a Hawaiian mother and a Chinese father, and we are not sure but that the substitution of Japanese for Chinese blood would be as efficacious. What the Hawaiian blood needs are the qualities that come from races which have developed patient industry and sagacious business traits. And, also, our native blood needs a little more iron, which the Asiatics are able to supply. Many Chinese-Hawaiian alliances have been made; not many of Japanese-Hawaiian blood, but more of the latter may come as the Japanese clannishness disappears. Let us hope so.

CLUBS AND CLUBS.

The clubs that were "easy to form," and which the Star compared with the legitimate clubs, were booze clubs with gambling on the side. If there were any gambling clubs with booze on the side, they passed for ordinary gambling houses, and were raided as such. In its effort to curry favor with the gambling classes as it did with the liquor classes in its attempts to prove the inefficiency of prohibition, the Star objected to raiding gambling houses unless clubs and "large private homes" were raided also. This paper pointed out that the police have no more authority to enter clubs and large private homes to stop games of cards than they have to enter them to stop drinking after the hour for shutting up saloons has expired. Whereupon the Star switched off, spoke of "clubs being easy to form," and accused the Advertiser of favoring immunity for them and not for Orientals, of whose prosecution it said the community was "tired." This paper did not and does not believe that any clubs are easy to form or easy to run, which are intended to violate the liquor or gambling laws or both, and can see no reason why the Star should say so unless it wishes to discourage the efforts of decent citizens to put down organized vice. And its remarks about the "absurd gambling crusade to get rid of Brown," like its efforts to throw hot water on the growing prohibition sentiment here, indicate that it is not in line with the better opinion of its own clientele.

THE NEW BRITISH PREMIER.

The Rt. Hon. Henry Herbert Asquith, the new British Premier, was the implacable and bitter enemy of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, so long shut up in various English prisons for the alleged murder of her husband. She was an American, and every influence was brought to bear, largely through the instrumentality of the late Gail Hamilton, to secure her release, which Mr. Asquith openly or secretly opposed.

There was always a difference of opinion as to Mrs. Maybrick's guilt or innocence, but that her trial was a travesty the greatest legal experts have always acknowledged.

The late Chief Justice of Great Britain, Lord Russell of Kiloween, always believed firmly in the innocence of the unfortunate woman, and never ceased to advocate her cause as long as he lived. Mr. Hay, when Ambassador to Great Britain, also did his utmost to secure her release without success, and he once remarked, "that some secret influence was constantly at work to defeat every plan that might set her at liberty."

Mr. Asquith also has the distinction of being the husband of the lady whom E. S. Benson immortalized as "Dodo," sister-in-law of Mrs. Henry M. Stanley, and the mother of seven blooming daughters.

At the time "Dodo" appeared, it created an uproar in London, the portrait, and many of the observations of the heroine, being instantly recognized.

Editor Harvey has dropped the Esperanto department in the North American Review. It had not penetrated further than the suburbs of Hoboken, and its chances to become a universal language were not more promising than the efforts of the Literary Digest to domesticate spelling reform.

PROHIBITIONISTS AND ROOSEVELT.

Amongst much excellent campaign material, valuable facts and interesting data, the Prohibitionists are making the mistake of sending out other matter that will probably injure their cause.

The most objectionable of this literature is in the form of doggerel, which has neither rhyme nor reason to commend it—an attack on President Roosevelt. The worst example of several that were extremely bad was read by a clergyman, Rev. T. R. Strobridge, at the annual banquet of Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, Ills. In other words, the verses were written by a clergyman and read to a company of clergymen, who it may be supposed were men of dignity and learning.

The verses have been called "breezy" by the editor who is responsible for their publication. Here are two samples, and they would shame the intelligence of the average school boy, ten years old:

When in New York, head of the police force
Against the drink curse he took the same course.
We should have laws and enforce the old.
He towered aloft, majestically bold.

But since he's been President, not a peep;
Not as a lion, he acts like a sheep;
Toward this vile trade, this kingdom of death,
He writes not a line, nor utters a breath.

Now this effusion possesses not a scintilla of wit or merit. It is the most vulgar abuse, and more than this, it is falsehood. The President has stood inflexibly for the highest virtues, but until Congress acts in matters of prohibition and gives him a bill to sign, he cannot be held accountable for what he does not do. Constitutionally, he cannot interfere in matters covered by the reserved rights of States; but if Congress excludes liquor from the Territories the President may be depended on to do his duty.

It is well meanwhile for temperance people not to use intemperate language about him.

Somebody from Maui, probably Senator Coehlo, states that if Treasurer Campbell "will not appoint James Keola, as Maui's assessor, to succeed W. T. Robinson, his appointment will not be confirmed by the Senate." No politician with a spoonful of brains in the back of his head would make such a threat. It is an impudent scheme of coercion which, we trust, will only make the Treasurer more intent upon choosing the best man for the place, irrespective of his color or of the loud-mouthing of bulldozers. The Territory has had enough of this sort of coercion, and more than enough of the fellows who use it as a political weapon. As for confirmation, no man from Maui has the say about that, and in any event the Governor can reappoint a non-confirmed man after the Legislature has adjourned, and in a case where the assent of the Senate had been withheld from a good official simply because he would not yield to political dictation, the Territorial Executive would be justified in taking that course. We should like to see that issue fought out, once and for all.

Taking in the new arrivals since 1900, including Japanese, Koreans, negroes, Porto Ricans, Spaniards and Caucasians, figuring in the large birthrate and deducting the losses by death and emigration, and the result ought to be a big increase of Hawaii's population. The pressure on the schools tells its story of large growth. It does not seem out of the way to think that the net gain may total 5000 per annum for the decade.

For ways that are dark and tricks that are vain the Lee Let case has surely been peculiar.

AMERICANIZING HAWAII-NEI

The Various Forces That Are at Work Upon This Great Task.

(Advertiser Correspondence, Copyright by Frederic J. Haskin.)

HONOLULU, H. T., May 11.—The United States has decided to spend some millions of dollars in fortifying Hawaii. It is equally as necessary that the American nation do something practical to fortify Hawaii with a good, sturdy, honest American citizenship.

For many years there was great rivalry between the Americans and Britains as to which of their nations should have the preponderant influence. The United States was represented by the missionaries, England by business men and others.

So far as politics is concerned Hawaii is already Americanized. The task now is to bring the industrial and social life to the American standard, and to keep it there. The overwhelming majority of Japanese and Chinese population makes this task a difficult one.

The islands are under the business rule of King Sugar. Sugar is a tropical product which requires the expenditure of great labor and that labor must be cheap. It also must be a class of labor which is content to remain in the cane fields at $18 a month for a long time, preferably for generations.

King Sugar is not in sympathy with the small farmer movement. Some of the planters, it is true, are leaders in the cause, but the great majority throw cold water and say it is impossible.

They were fishers of whales rather than fishers of men. The missionaries soon had control of the politics of the islands, the chiefs and kings inviting missionaries to become their advisers.

The school teacher in Hawaii is a perennial Fourth of July orator. Even the New York public schools, where thousands and thousands of European children are annually transmuted into Americans, have no notion of the work-day patriotism of the public schools of these faraway islands.

HONOLULU CHINESE GETS HIS MEDICAL DOCTORATE

FRANCIS WONG LEONG, M. D.

One of the most highly respected of the Chinese residents of Oahu—and there are a good many—is Wong Leong, the well-known rice planter on the other side of the island. He not only raises that staple, but operates several mills, and he is regarded as one of the substantial business men of the islands. He has lived here for twenty-eight years and married a Chinese-Hawaiian woman.

Wong Leong has three children of whom he is justifiably proud. He and his family are members of the Catholic church. His daughter entered the Order of the Sacred Hearts in Honolulu, taking her final vows some time ago. There are two sons who are fine types of the Chinese boys being educated in the schools of Honolulu, fitting themselves for business or the professions, in which they are doing most creditable work.

Francis Wong Leong, the youngest, graduated at St. Louis College, where he made an excellent record. He is now in a private school in Shanghai and is incidentally studying Chinese business methods on the ground, so to speak.

He will return to Honolulu as an assistant to his father, who has extensive dealings with his own countrymen, both here and in China.

Wong Leong has just received a letter informing him that Francis, his oldest son, who also studied at St. Louis College, has just graduated from St. Mary's Institute, in Dayton, Ohio, which he has been attending for the past three years. He has also passed a successful examination as doctor of medicine, and received his degree May 22. He now hopes to secure an appointment as interne in some good hospital where he can practically apply his medical knowledge and have the advantages of observation and study which such a post affords.

He will then return to Honolulu and practise amongst the Hawaiians and Chinese. Amongst both classes he has many warm friends, all of whom are impatiently awaiting his return. There is a good field for such a man, and Francis Wong Leong will bring to his place and his profession great natural skill, and the results of laborious study and thorough training.

SWEEPING ADVANCE OF PROHIBITION SENTIMENT

Editor Advertiser: Temperance, prohibition, and the anti-saloon movement are alive and active as never before. If you take up a daily paper, you meet with a tale of the "Onward rush of the Prohibition Wave;" glance at the Review of Reviews and you see that they are "Voting the saloons out of business;" take up The Literary Digest and note "The Growing Interest in Prohibition;" look through your Cosmopolitan and read the interesting story of "The Fight Against Alcohol;" and so it is on every side.

A hurried glance at some of our weeklies will reveal accounts of "Prohibition in Georgia," "Temperance Gains in Wisconsin," "Illinois Sustains Local Option Law," "Saloons out Y. M. C. A. in," "Indiana Going Dry," "Popular Prohibition in Louisiana," "Iowa Prohibition Campaign," "Dry Wave Floods the East," "Hundreds of Saloons Quit," etc., etc. In this way hundreds of temperance articles might be named from the daily press, and current magazines. The fight is on, the saloon and the liquor men are giving way; they cannot stand such a broadside.

From Boston, Massachusetts, comes this Associated Press special of April 26th: Hundreds of saloons in New England will be abolished at 11 o'clock next Thursday night, as the result of that part of the prohibition wave sweeping the country which inundated this section.

In Massachusetts, by changes in six cities and thirty-six towns, 210 licensed places must abandon the liquor business May 1.

In Vermont only twenty-seven cities and towns will legalize the sale of liquor this year, as compared to ninety-two license cities and towns five years ago, when local option took the place of state prohibition.

In New Hampshire a ruling of the state license commissioner takes effect May 1, whereby druggists' licenses will be abolished, and in Rhode Island the temperance interests have forced restrictive liquor legislation through the house of representatives.

A more radical upsetting of the liquor policy of Massachusetts has not occurred in fifteen years. On May 1 three of the largest manufacturing cities of the state give up the liquor traffic.

municipal election decided, by a vote of 10,584 to 9662, to close its saloons. Thursday night the licenses of 128 places, including seventeen hotels, will be rendered void.

Many towns around Worcester have voted no-license and a greater portion of the district will be dry after April 30.

DRYS GAIN 24,807 IN STATE.

The second largest of the Massachusetts cities to enter upon a period of no-license is Lynn, which showed its opposition to the saloon for the first time in twelve years.

Haverhill, another shoemaking city, this year turns against the saloon, leaving Lawrence, Gloucester, and Middleton the only licensed towns in Essex county.

The dry vote throughout the state, as shown by returns from all but four towns, had a majority at the recent elections of 18,955. A year ago, according to the Massachusetts Total Abstinence Society, there was a wet majority of 6722, making the year's net gain for no-license 24,807.

This report, which is only one of many coming from different parts of the United States, shows that the American people now realize, as never before, the presence of a great evil, and have made up their minds to be free from it.

In the Union Signal, Governor T. F. Hanly of Indiana, gives strong reasons against the saloon. He said:

"Personally, I have seen so much of the evils of the liquor traffic in the last four years, so much of its economic waste, so much of its physical ruin, so much of its mental blight, so much of its tears and heartache, that I have come to regard the business as one that must be held and controlled by strong and effective laws.

"I bear no malice toward those engaged in the business, but I hate the traffic.

"I hate it for the grief it causes womanhood—the scalding tears, the hopes deferred, the strangled aspirations, its burden of want and care.

"I hate it for its heartless cruelty to the aged, the infirm and the helpless, for the shadow it throws upon the lives of children, for its monstrous injustice to blameless little ones.

"I hate it as virtue hates vice, as truth hates error, as righteousness hates sin, as justice hates wrong, as liberty hates tyranny, as freedom hates oppression.

"I hate it as Abraham Lincoln hated slavery.

"And as he sometimes saw in prophetic vision the end of slavery and the coming of the time when the sun should shine and the rain should fall upon no slave in all the Republic, so I sometimes seem to see the end of this unholy traffic, the coming of the time when, if it does not wholly cease to be, it shall find no safe habitation anywhere beneath Old Glory's stainless stars."

Equally strong reasons for the downfall of the saloon are found here in Hawaii. The very life and continuance of the Hawaiian people depends to a large extent upon the overthrow of the liquor traffic in these islands.

Many of the native Hawaiians are realizing as never before that they must fight strongly against this persistent foe. Let them take a strong stand and the battle will be won. PRO BONO HAWAII.

PRICE OF BOARD AT OAHU COLLEGE RAISED

At a recent meeting of the trustees of the Oahu College it was decided to raise the price of board to $8 per week, beginning with September, 1908. This action, which was taken only after careful consideration, is based on a desire to have the income as nearly as possible meet the expenses of maintenance of the department. The previous charge of $6 per week paid only the actual cost of food and service; it did not include any charge for rooms, salaries of matrons or supervisory teachers, insurance, light, water, upkeep, deterioration or interest. The money for these came out of the general income.

It is plain, however, that this department, which carries with it the most responsibility for those in authority, and which has only about one-eighth of the registration, should be nearly, if not quite, self-supporting. The policy of the institution is to supply everything that good health and proper supervision requires. Under the system with men teachers and monitors in charge of the boys and the three matrons and women teachers in charge of the girls, the individual student is properly cared for. It is felt that salaries of persons whose whole time is given to this department, actual items of expense in the department, like light, and some small allowance annually for upkeep, should be paid by those who enjoy the benefits and should not be a general charge upon the institution.

The college every year has a deficit. Last year it was $3000; this year it will be more than $6000. In ten years it has nearly trebled in number of students, in cultivated campus area, buildings, and in number of teachers, and has received only one gift of $50,000 for its endowment. It has offered the best course of study and the broadest advantages in every way. It has made its charge in tuitions and board just as low as possible. It will continue to do so.

The trustees believe that the appreciation of this policy has been reflected in the increased patronage. They desire to work with, and cooperate with, the patrons in making Punahou the best possible place for Hawaii's young people, at the least possible cost.

The trustees realize with regret that the increase will bear heavily upon some homes. They hope to be able to furnish work for a limited number by which enough money may be earned at least to offset the increase. This can be done for a few who are able and willing to work regularly every school day and on Saturdays.

The assignments of rooms will be made early in June. Rooms will first be reserved for present boarders, and are assigned for the year. If by the withdrawal of a child a vacancy occurs, a charge of $4 per week, payable monthly, which is made, divides the loss between the college and the patron.

CONFIDENCE

said Lord Chatham, "is a plant of slow growth." People believe in things that they see, and in a broad sense they are right. What is sometimes called blind faith is not faith at all. There must be reason and fact to form a foundation for trust. In regard to a medicine or remedy, for example, people ask, "Has it cured others? Have cases like mine been relieved by it? Is it in harmony with the truths of modern science, and has it a record above suspicion? If so, it is worthy of confidence; and if I am ever attacked by any of the maladies for which it is commended I shall resort to it in full belief in its power to help me." On these lines

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION has won its high reputation among medical men, and the people of all civilized countries. They trust it for the same reason that they trust in the familiar laws of nature or in the action of common things. This effective remedy is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It quickly eradicates the poisons, disease-breeding acids and other toxic matters from the system; regulates and promotes the normal action of the organs, gives vigorous appetite and digestion, and is infallible in Prostration—following Fevers, etc., Scrofula, Influenza, Asthma, Wasting Diseases, Throat and Lung Troubles, etc. Dr. W. A. Young, of Canada, says: "Your tasteless preparation of cod liver oil has given me uniformly satisfactory results; my patients having been of all ages." It is a product of the skill and science of to-day and is successful after the old style modes of treatment have been appealed to in vain. Sold by all chemists.

And have you then there this writ with full return of your proceedings thereon.

Witness the Honorable J. T. DE BOLT, First Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, at Honolulu, this 21st day of October, 1907. (Seal)

(Sig.) JOHN MARCALLINO, Clerk.

I hereby certify that the above is a full, true and correct copy of the original "Divorce Summons" which is now on file in the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii, in a case entitled Jane Williams, Plaintiff, against Harry L. Williams, Defendant. (Divorce Division, Number 2393.)

I further certify that by an Amended Order of Publication filed herein in said Circuit Court, the above entitled cause is set for Monday, July 13, 1908, for hearing, at the hour of nine (9) o'clock a. m. of said day.

J. A. THOMPSON, Clerk, Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit, Territory of Hawaii. 8025—Apr. 29; May 6, 13, 20; June 3, 10.

STABBED HIM IN SELF-DEFENSE

A Jap Criminal Laid Low by Man He Tried to Victimize.

Matsube Matsuko, a Waipahu Japanese of good reputation, yesterday forenoon at 3 o'clock in Camp No. 2, Waipahu plantation, stabbed and probably fatally wounded a notorious Japanese character bearing the name of Fujikawa.

Fujikawa was known as a "gorot-suki," a man of bad character, a black-mailer and extortioner. He had threatened the other because he would not give him money and at the time mentioned they quarreled and Matsube, in self defense, stabbed the other.

Dr. Kojima and the plantation doctor attended the wounded man, but they had last night no hope for his recovery.

YESTERDAY'S DOINGS IN THE UPPER COURTS

Judge Lindsay was engaged much of yesterday morning hearing argument on the demurrer of William A. Hall to the bill in equity of Ching Tam Shee, executrix of the will of the late C. Winam.

T. Nakatani has filed a mechanic's and material man's lien on certain property in the Nuuanu Tract to enforce a claim of $184.75 against G. Somma for labor in altering and repairing buildings.

In the suit of Carolina Vierra against the Waialua Agricultural Company for damages for the death of the plaintiff's husband, the defendant has filed its answer, pleading in bar the nonsuit obtained in a former suit on the same cause of action.

Judge De Bolt was occupied all forenoon yesterday in hearing argument on the motion for judgment non obstante verdicto in the Bierce case. Practically all the objections raised during the trial of the case by the defense were presented anew on this motion.

William Smith has begun a suit in the Circuit Court against J. S. Walker on a promissory note for $5299.23, made July 24, 1902.

R. H. Trent, as administrator of the estate of Hannah Fisher, deceased, has filed in the Circuit Court his second annual accounts. He charges himself with $712.75 and asks to be allowed $328.91.

As guardian of Rebecca Panoe Humeku, R. H. Trent charges himself with $1118 and asks to be allowed disbursements of $1562.87, leaving a balance due the guardian of $444.87.

As executor of the estate of Thomas Christley, deceased, Trent charges himself with receipts of $2190, and credits himself with expenditures of $1922.14.

Takimi, a Japanese woman convicted of adultery and sentenced to twenty-four hours' imprisonment, was released yesterday on taking the poor convict's oath.

Higakichi Jumbo, convicted of illicit distilling and sentenced to six months' imprisonment, was also released yesterday on taking the oath.

Otani and Saza Nishimura, charged with violating the Edmunds Act, were to have a hearing before United States Commissioner Hatch yesterday, but it was continued until this morning.

Manuel Maurice, indicted for an infamous crime, is to appear before Judge Robinson this morning to plead.

Persistent coughs that continue through the spring and summer usually indicate some throat or lung trouble, and it is a serious mistake to neglect them.

Tom Quinn has just received a 1908-model five-seated Buick, which he is running at hack rates for distances, and special rates by the hour.

GOOD RESULTS WERE SPEEDY

The Advertiser Article Did the Salvation Wome a Lot of Good.

The appeal made by the Advertiser on behalf of the Salvation Army Home for Women and Children on King street is already bringing gratifying results.

There is not a more open-hearted, open-handed community than this to be found in Honolulu, and, although appeals to charity and public spirit are insistent and unceasing, the people never turn a deaf ear to any reasonable demand.

From the open kitchen window came appetizing odors of approaching dinner, and a bright little girl, about twelve years old, in a picturesque blue holoku, watched the stranger's approach with interest.

She leaned out of the window and smilingly pointed the way around the house with a case knife with which, presumably, she had been peeling potatoes.

"Just keep right on around the house, go to the front door and press the button," she directed, as if she were already a cadet, learning to give commands in proper form.

The ringing of the bell brought one of the women in charge to the door—a pleasant, kindly person. She asked the caller to come in and be seated. Then she herself sat down and chatted for a little while, wittily answering the reporter's questions.

"Yes," she said, "the article in the Advertiser has already brought some practical results."

"You have constant requests for admission to the Home?"

"Yes," she said, "nearly every day. They come and go. Three little Spanish children were the latest arrivals, and today we found a home for one of them."

"When she excused herself to do this errand, the visitor could not resist looking about the clean, rather bare room, the most conspicuous ornament of which was an excellent signed photograph of General Booth, the commander-in-chief, and his daughter, Evangeline, a fine, comely woman, with sympathy and goodwill stamped on every feature.

Adjutant Low came without much delay, and she, also, was glad to report progress.

"She, too, had a pleasant, serene face, and, judging from appearances, was the right person in the right place in a home where she could care for destitute women and children."

"You may copy the letter," said Adjutant Low, "but you will understand that I have no right to let you publish the writer's name. I doubt if I ought to let you have even the letter, but it may be an inspiration to others, which is my only excuse."

"It was a touching and beautiful letter, simple and sincere, and it is to be hoped that, as the good Adjutant said, it will be 'an inspiration to others.'"

"Although I have always felt interested in the good work you and yours have done, I have become more so through the article in the morning paper."

"One goes on day by day, not realizing what a lot there is to do for others, when suddenly it all comes over one. I have collected these few things hoping they will be a little help. And I want to say that at any time when a little help is needed—such as having sewing done, or giving materials, or old clothes—you will call on me and I will do all I can for you."

On the veranda of the cottage adjoining, the quarters of the babies and small children, there could be heard laughing and more singing—this time very shrill and faltering.

That, too, bespoke happiness and contentment, care and love that the little ones enjoyed, who, but for the sanctuary given them, would be homeless.

is the sincerest flattery."

And we have decided to imitate one of our good friends who sold a home to one of his young friends on monthly instalments without the usual large cash payment to begin with. We have just two places to offer on such favorable terms now—and we want the buyer to mean business: to be so in earnest in his desire to acquire a home that he will be willing to economize in non-essentials, and to bend every energy to reduce his indebtedness as rapidly as may be conveniently possible. We would prefer that he be a married man—or at least have early intentions in that direction. Such a young man deserves to be helped in his desire to acquire a home for himself—and we are willing to help him.

WHERE AND WHAT NEXT?

A copy of a new newspaper, the "Inglewood Poultryman," published in a new poultry colony near the city of Los Angeles, California, has reached this office. The following item from its columns will interest many people in Honolulu:

"P. Maurice McMahon, who has traveled in many countries, and is well versed on the topics of the day, is now associated with The Poultryman. Mr. McMahon is a poet and song-writer of considerable note. One of his poems appears in this issue."

Since leaving the Goldfield mining camp several months ago, the erstwhile basel of Hawaii has made several kaleidoscopic changes between San Diego, Escondido and Los Angeles. If he has settled down to poultry raising and writing about chickens, it need surprise no one to hear one of these days about a new breed of fowl that warbles as sweetly as do the skylarks of his native heath.

ENDORSED BY DE PACHMANN.

One of the greatest endorsements of his method comes in the following letter:

"My Dear Mr. Virgil,—I feel it both a pleasure and a duty to say to you and to the world that, after a careful study of the principles of your wonderful invention, the practice clavier, and a thorough use of the instrument in my own practice, I find it, not merely an oldtime dumb keyboard (good simply for the silence it brings), but it is without doubt the most powerful awakener of the vital forces of the pianist that has ever been discovered. The use of your instrument proves that it is not the much hearing of musical sounds, but the exact making of playing movements (which also means right state of muscles and nerves), which makes effective piano playing. The method of study and practice which your unparalleled and original technic course and the clavier make possible is deserving of the highest praise. The exacting demands which the relentless clicks of the clavier make upon the fingers reach the nerve centers, and thus control movements as playing movements were never before controlled. I was quite fearful that those unmusical clicks, so unlike the beautiful tones of my piano, would make my touch unmusical also, but results prove the contrary. I am a thorough believer and advocate of the clavier and its theories, and earnestly recommend the clavier to all pianists and students without exception. Sincerely yours, VLADIMIR DE PACHMANN."

BIG HATS IN PARIS THEATERS.

To remedy the "big hat" nuisance in Paris theaters the theater committee of the municipal council has decided to recommend drastic action. The committee proposes that every spectator shall have the right to request the police officer on duty in the theater to call for the removal of any hat which prevents an unobstructed view of the stage. If the wearer refuses to comply, the officer may order her to leave the theater.

THE MEMORIAL DAY ARRANGEMENTS MADE

Efforts are being made to change the time of the Memorial Day observance, at which Captain Corwin P. Rees, U. S. N., will speak, from Saturday afternoon to Saturday morning. The military want to go to the ball games in the afternoon and others have various holiday engagements.

The procession will form on Bereetania avenue, right resting on Emma, in the following order:

- Squad Mounted Patrol.
- United States Troops.
- Hawaiian Band.
- National Guard, Hawaii.
- Geo. W. De Long Post.
- Spanish War Veterans.
- Orator of the Day.
- Governor and Staff.
- Invited Guests.
- General Public.

Transportation will be furnished G. A. R. comrades. All sojourning veterans of the Civil or Spanish War, and sons of veterans, are invited to participate. Chairs at the cemetery are for invited guests, not for the general public. Those desiring to contribute flowers for the G. A. R. dead will please leave them at the store of G. Dietz, on Fort street, near Hotel.

The program of services to be held at Nuuanu cemetery follows:

- "America".....Audience
- Benediction.....Rev. Mr. Crane

URGES PUGET SOUND TO SELL IN HAWAII

Seattle Post-Intelligencer. — E. R. Adams, of Alexander Baldwin, Ltd., Honolulu, addressed the Credit Men's Association last night on "Trade Relations With the Hawaiian Islands and Its Possibilities." Adams said that before the earthquake San Francisco had practically all the Hawaiian trade, but that after that disaster the Hawaiians in a measure were obliged to trade on Puget sound. He said San Francisco merchants still had the bulk of the trade.

Mr. Adams declared that the trade of the Hawaiian Islands was equal to $40,000,000 a year, or about as much as the strictly commercial business with Alaska. He added that the Islanders would buy of Puget sound merchants if the latter would go there and show them that they meant business. "With superior boat service and with equally attractive prices, there is no reason why a large portion of the $40,000,000 trade should not be diverted to you merchants on Puget sound," he said in closing.

KAMAAINAS DIE IN BREMEN

Mr. J. W. Pfluger and Captain Wolters Were Both Known Here.

Cable announcement was received yesterday by H. Hackfeld & Co. of the death in Bremen of J. C. Pfluger, May 24, and Captain Heinrich Wolters, May 25. Both lived many years in these islands. J. W. Pfluger was about 75 years of age and was one of the partners in the firm of H. Hackfeld & Co. He remained here until 1887, when he left to take up business with the firm of his brother, J. C. Pfluger & Co., Bremen. While in Honolulu he was Russian Vice Consul and received decorations from the Czar.

Captain C. Wolters was well known here, having been master of vessels for many years. He lost the German bark G. N. Wilcox on Molokai. He gave up the sea and entered the employ of J. C. Pfluger.

The flag over H. Hackfeld & Co.'s was at half mast yesterday in respect to the memory of these two men.

SECOND TERM FOR LAUKEA SAYS COX

"I have seen in one of the evening papers an article saying that I will run for County Sheriff," said Oscar Cox, Deputy Sheriff at Waiialua. "I have this to say: After serving as Deputy Sheriff of the District of Waiialua, Oahu for about three years, and having been with the present Sheriff for one year and six months, I will say that Sheriff Laukea has been a good and upright man, and it is the duty of every good and honest citizen to uphold him and place him in office again. It is the duty of every good Hawaiian to stand by him. It has been said that Hawaiians are unreliable. C. P. Laukea, 'a Hawaiian,' has been in office, and there is no one who can say that he is not honest and efficient. I believe that when one has been tried and found honest, he must be upheld. For the good of county government this policy must be followed."

HE BEAT HIS WIFE.

Caroline K. Sylva was yesterday given a divorce from her husband, Patrick Sylva, by Judge Lindsay, on the ground of extreme and repeated cruelty.

Sylva, who is a clerk in County Attorney Cathcart's office, was shown to have repeatedly struck and kicked his wife. He was adjudged to pay the costs of court, $13, an attorney's fee of $50 to the libellant's attorney, and permanent alimony of $30 a month. The custody of their four children was given to the mother.

Matsui Yoshida was also given a divorce from her husband on the ground of cruelty.

Ladies are cordially invited to step right into Bridgewater's Confectionery and be seated while waiting for the cars. Opening at 6 p. m. today. Hotel, near Fort.

MIGUEL PLEADED GUILTY.

Jacinto Miguel pleaded guilty yesterday morning before Judge Robinson to having liquor on his premises with intent to sell illicitly. Miguel had a saloon up to a year ago in Kakaako. But the License Board refused to give him a license. Since then it is alleged he has been running a blind pig and he has several times been arrested.

Both he and his lawyers have been very confident of acquittal on this charge. But yesterday morning had discovered some witnesses whose testimony would make his guilt very clear. An offer of a plea of guilty was made provided the fine did not exceed $100. The fine in the police court was $150. This offer was accepted, and Judge Robinson imposed the $100 fine.

HAVE YOU RHEUMATISM?
