DOCTOR O'DAY HAS MUCH TO SAY

So Have Many Others and Some of the Statements Are Very Conflicting.

A ROAST A LA PORTLAND

Medical Association, Newspapers, Queen's Hospital and O'Day All Take Part.

Doctor O'Day says that he does not like the other doctors of Honolulu because they are "a gang" organized to down him and because they keep him out of the Queen's Hospital.

Doctor Collins, president of the Hawaiian Medical Association, says that the doctors of Honolulu are not banded against O'Day, but object to his wholesale charges. Personally, they have nothing against him.

Secretary W. O. Smith of the Queen's Hospital board says that O'Day never asked to be admitted to the hospital. The Portland Telegram says O'Day is a liar.

O'Day says the same about the Portland Telegram.

O'Day says the Bulletin is in the same class and that a Bulletin reporter palmed himself off on him as being a representative of The Advertiser. Bulletin yet to hear from.

Portland Paper's Roast.

Faced with the furor that it had raised in Hawaii by printing an alleged interview with Dr. J. Chris O'Day of Honolulu, the Portland Telegram has printed an explanation of the details of the interview that was held in the office of that paper and which led to the printing of the gross misstatements concerning leprosy in the Territory. The explanation is as follows:

"A well-dressed man representing himself to be Dr. John C. O'Day, taking a postgraduate course in the office of a leading local physician of Portland, appeared some time ago in the Telegram office and desired to be interviewed on the subject of Hawaiian leprosy. His local connections were given, and owing to his eagerness to appear in print on the subject, it was deemed necessary to determine if he came well recommended. These facts being learned to the eager doctor's advantage, he was given the benefit of doubts caused by his eagerness in wanting such an article printed.

"In the interview, all of which was taken down carefully in shorthand notes, the sharp-tongued doctor unfolded a startling state of alleged facts. His statements were not borne out by the general impression of the world as to conditions in Hawaii, which, of course, suggested that he was in error. But he was so eager, came so well recommended and placed himself so emphatically in the role of a knight errant championing the cause of the deposed and accusing Queen of the former Hawaiian government, that Doctor O'Day was deemed worthy of a public hearing. This The Telegram gave him, as it is in duty bound to do for any complainant who makes out an intelligent case and gives reasonable evidence of honest relationships.

"Doctor O'Day's statement were not put in the paper in every instance as strong and radical as he made them. However, the burden of the charges he made, and the full measure of credit he took unto himself for relieving Molokai prisoners who might not be lepers, were set forth accurately and carefully, and with the most faithful regard for the thought expressed.

"Later Doctor O'Day secured copies of the issue in which the interview appeared, and seemed well-pleased with the report. He had stated that he intended to become a resident of Portland.

SEATTLE MAY BE A PORT OF CALL

Canadian Liners Would Bring Many Tourists if Coastwise Law Be Suspended.

ANOTHER GOOD ARGUMENT

Southern Pacific Diverting All Possible Tourist Traffic Away From Hawaii.

From a reported conversation on board the Canadian-Australian liner Marama, held on its last trip down here from the Coast, it seems likely that should the coastwise laws be suspended in regard to passengers the Canadian-Australian boats will make Seattle a port of call.

D. E. Dunbar of the National Grocery Company of Seattle, who has been a guest at the Young Hotel for some time and who left on the Aorangi early this morning, made this statement yesterday.

Townfolk and Strangers Unite in Condemning Unjust Restrictions.

A big mass meeting is to be held at four o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the makai pavilion of the Young Hotel, for the purpose of discussing the suspension of the coastwise shipping laws. CELTIC CHIEF AGAIN AFLOAT

At twenty minutes past twelve o'clock this morning the British ship Celtic Chief was pulled off the reef into deep water and towed by the German cruiser Arcona to the anchorage grounds near the bell buoy. The vessel, after sliding off the coral, rode easily, and was apparently not injured to the extent of any of her plates being loosened enough to permit the ingress of water. When the vessel finally yielded to steady pulling by the Arcona and the Inter-Island steamers Helene and Mikahala, as well as by the rising tide, the warship immediately began steaming away from the dangerous locality. Playing her searchlight on the Britisher, the warship steamed past the entrance to the channel and continued until she had the vessel in a good place to drop anchor, the Arcona pulling the Celtic Chief stern foremost. The cruiser remained outside all night, with a line on the Britisher holding her, and keeping her searchlights playing continually on the boat and the shore. The Helene also took hold of her. She may tow the vessel inside the harbor this morning. The Arcona will take on more coal to make up for what she burned yesterday, and will then make haste to reach Yokohama before Christmas. The action of the Arcona was the cause of much favorable comment about town during the day.

TWO ARE AFTER WOODRUFF'S JOB

A. G. M. Robertson and Henry E. Cooper Most Prominent Candidates.

The question now agitating the minds of the members of the legal profession—and the minds of some other persons, too—is, "who is to succeed Judge Woodruff, who last Tuesday cabled to Washington his resignation of the second federal judgeship?" Some are merely guessing and some have hopes. The names most prominently mentioned are those of A. G. M. Robertson and Judge Henry E. Cooper. A meeting of the bar association has been called for four o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of endorsing some one for the position, and it is known that a determined effort will be made to have the association recommend Robertson again. The official notice of the meeting does not mention the name of any possible candidate, but before the meeting was called, a letter was being circulated among the lawyers for signature, asking the president of the bar association to call a meeting for the purpose of endorsing the candidacy of A. G. M. Robertson.

Although announcement of Judge Woodruff's resignation was not made until yesterday in The Advertiser, Mr. Robertson received advance information concerning it, and it is said, took immediate steps to be the first man on the ground. He put up a lightning rod or two before midnight, the cable wires being kept hot with messages to Washington.

Yesterday Judge Cooper sprang into the arena as an active candidate, and his friends are doing all they can to get the appointment for him. There are probably others who would not shake their heads if the place were (Continued on Page Three.)

GOVERNMENT PAY TO BE STOPPED

Salaries of Employees Who Are Delinquent in Taxes Will Be Held Up.

On the first of January the pay of all territorial employees who are delinquent in payment of their taxes will be held up. Treasurer D. L. Conkling has written a general letter to the assessors of all the taxation districts of the islands, advising them of this fact and asking them to return to him immediately lists of all government employees who are back in their taxes.

This list includes not only those who work under the eagle eye of heads of departments and about the courthouses and other government buildings, but also the school teachers. The latter class are said to comprise a large proportion of those who have not paid their taxes and whose pay is to be stopped until they square themselves with the tax department.

The treasurer says that he can't see any good reason why one who owes the government money should continue to draw money from the government, and he is going to see to it that what the delinquents owe is collected by taking it out of their salaries, if they will not come through themselves.

PUBLIC SCHOOL FOOTBALL BARRED

NEW YORK, December 9.—The bureau of public instruction has barred football as a form of athletics for pupils attending the public schools, as being too strenuous and attended by too many dangers to the players.

JOHN DETOR FORCED TO BE A SOLDIER OF GREECE

John Detor, manager of the Union Grill, has been grabbed as a conscript and turned into a soldier. The startling information has been received by George Lycargus from Greece, whither John Detor went about two months ago for a vacation and a visit to his old home. John is now carrying on his shoulder a big, heavy musket, while about his knees flap the skirts that form part of the uniform of the Grecian army.

John is a soldier not from choice but from stern necessity and the force of circumstances over which he has no control. He doesn't want to be a soldier; he would rather be manager of the Union Grill. But he can't help himself, and unless the government of the United States goes to his assistance, he will continue for some fourteen months to stand at attention, shoulder arms when commanded, and salute the officers of the Grecian army when they stride by.

As a matter of fact, John Detor is a soldier because the officials of the government of King George laughed defiance at the United States and snapped their fingers in the face of Uncle Sam. They made John a soldier in spite of international laws and customs and the numerous decisions of courts. John is in the position of the man in jail whose lawyer told him he couldn't be arrested. The government of Greece can't make John become a soldier—but it has.

land, which he had not seen for fourteen years. Though a native of Greece, he has been naturalized and is now a full-fledged citizen of the United States. In fact, he was naturalized only a short time before he went away. And he went away feeling that he had all the power of the United States government behind him and could conduct himself accordingly.

A few days after he arrived at Sparta, John was surprised to receive a notice, bearing the big, red seal of the government of Greece, commanding him to appear before one of the Grecian officials. John had a hunch that perhaps he was to be commissioned consul to Hawaii or offered a portfolio in the government of Greece.

But he was destined to receive a severe bump. The government official who had summoned him took about one minute to tell him that he owed his fatherland fourteen months army service and he must pay up at once.

John protested, claimed that he was a citizen of the United States and as such owed nobody any military service. The talk didn't go. It was the army for him, and into the army he went.

Of course, if any of John's influential friends want to take the matter up, he can be freed, for the question as to whether or not a foreign born citizen of this country can be made, upon his return to his native land, to do military service, has been threshed out in the courts several times and answered in the negative. But in the mean time, John is in the Grecian army.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 8.

PRES. ZELAYA OF NICARAGUA.

—It is believed, from reports received here today, that a decisive battle has been fought between the forces of Zelaya and the insurgents in Nicaragua. It is reported that Zelaya has court-martialed General Vasques, condemning him to death because he lost to the insurgents in yesterday's battle.

NEW YORK, November 20.—Indirectly, recognition of the blockade of the Nicaraguan ports by the revolutionists, on the part of America, opens the way for Salvador and Guatemala to offer aid to General Estrada from the Atlantic side. These governments will take no action unless it is necessary, but if the Nicaraguan revolutionists need help from either Guatemala or Salvador they will get it.

Zelaya's Chances Thought Slight.

Thus it is admitted that the chances for President Zelaya to subdue the country are reduced to a minimum. Either the insurgents get the upper

OBSERVATORY SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE COLLECTED BY THE ADVERTISER

Halley's comet will be visible the latter part of January, only about a month and a half distant, and if it is to be observed with the fine scientific apparatus of the College of Hawaii a building will have to be erected to house the instruments. The college has a fine site in Kaimuki, and the special committee of the Kaimuki, Palolo and Waialae Improvement Club hopes to have subscriptions come in rapidly during the present and the coming week. The committee hopes to raise $1000 for the erection of a temporary building, with a permanent foundation of reinforced concrete. A subscription list is open at The Advertiser office and subscriptions may be paid there. The other newspaper offices are also taking subscriptions. The Gazette's list includes the following amounts: Kaimuki, Palolo and Waialae Improvement Club $50 A friend 10 Charles A. Stanton 25 Chas. G. DOCTOR O'DAY HAS MUCH TO SAY land, had lectured on leprosy in Hawaii before students, and in other ways gave the impression that his life and work were much devoted to scientific aspects of leprosy, and that his efforts in behalf of the Hawaiian afflicted and unjustly imprisoned, if more remained of such, would be unmitigated.

"After accommodating the young doctor of such good repute, as The Telegram did, and launching one bolt in behalf of the helpless, rather against the best judgment of the staff, the surprise of learning that Doctor O'Day went to Hawaii and repudiated every word he had said, may be imagined. When he reached the Islands, where his words had created a tremendous furor, his first statements before leaving the steamship were:

"You can state positively for me that the story as it appears is a tissue of false statements as far as I am concerned, made out of whole cloth. I don't care how strong you make the denial of my connection with the interview."

"It would be interesting from the press viewpoint to learn if this is Doctor O'Day's practice. If not a regular habit of his, it would yet be of interest to learn what moved him to make such a circus somewhat, after being so intensely engaged a few weeks ago to have his views published."

Another Denial.

When told of the substance of this explanation yesterday by an Advertiser reporter, Doctor O'Day again denied the statements of The Telegram and volunteered the following further account of the interview itself.

"In reply to the statement that I went into the office," he said, "I did, and I told the reporter that there was a gang here that I wanted to show up; that gang had kept me out of the hospitals of Honolulu. At the medical society I had been accused of being the cause of setting free ten lepers and said that if some one was getting as much hell over the fifty that the cable had reported being set free, there was something doing in medical circles in Honolulu. I said I had been told and by prominent Hawaiians that many had been sent to Molokai to get them out of the way and while I didn't take this seriously I felt that the hospital crowd would send me there if they could."

Doctor O'Day denies absolutely that The Telegram ever submitted any proofs to him.

His account of the meetings between himself and representatives of the Fortland papers in substance, is that while he was getting into an automobile at the door of the building in which The Telegram has its offices and where his offices also were, a reporter came to him and told him that a Hawaiian who was playing at one of the cafes had pointed him (the doctor) out as the one who had set free the first ten lepers.

"That is not so," Doctor O'Day says he said and then told the reporter that as he was busy then he would come around in the evening and talk to him. O'Day then got into the machine and went to the St. Vincent's Hospital.

O'Day Lampons Doctors.

Then, says O'Day, he went to the office of The Telegram in the evening and asked if a reporter wished to speak to him. Upon being referred to the proper man he gave his version of the affair, corrected the supposition that he had started the campaign to free the inmates of Kalaupapa, and denied emphatically again that he ever said anything derogatory to Hawaii.

"What I did say," said Doctor O'Day, "is that I wanted him to be sure to say that there was a gang of men in Honolulu who were trying to keep me out of the hospitals and I see he didn't say it?"

He claims that he had an explanation of the matter all written out to give to the papers of Honolulu but withheld it when he saw the editorials in the Bulletin which had offered sniping judgment without even printing the entire article.

One of his contentions that it would be morally impossible for him to say that the planters had sent people to Molokai is a statement published as coming from him, and which he states to be true. It was written by Paul Bartlett, then a reporter on The Advertiser and now a member of the Bulletin staff. The article which appeared on June 4 of this year is as follows:

"The most important lesson to be learned from the outcome of this examination," said Doctor O'Day yesterday, "is the fact that some of these people have been confined at the settlement simply because they refused to submit to the bacteriological examination necessary. I felt that this could be overcome and, having the confidence of them in a large degree, I succeeded in convincing them that there was nothing to fear as far as the physicians were concerned."

This Doctor O'Day says, is his stand on the matter which has been misrepresented to the extent of saying that he said the planters railroaded people there to get rid of them.

Bulletin Misrepresentation.

Bartlett went to Molokai with Doctor O'Day and shared the same steamship. O'Day then knew him as an Advertiser reporter, and upon the doctor's last arrival in Honolulu, Bartlett again represented himself as an Advertiser man, according to the doctor's statement yesterday, and received an explanation which he afterwards converted to suit himself.

While not saying outright that he was an Advertiser man, O'Day, according to the doctor's statement, addressed him as such, and Bartlett tacitly accepted the position. At any rate, O'Day thought he was addressing an Advertiser man, but he wasn't, and he claims that the statements he made were entirely misrepresented again.

He states that when he wrote the letter to The Advertiser contradicting Bartlett's alleged interview with him, he did not know whether it was the Bulletin itself or merely the reporter that was so anxious to misrepresent him, but Bartlett's quick reply, he says, proved to him that it was the reporter as well as the paper.

Foundation for Charges.

As to his charges against the medical association, Doctor O'Day's statements were rather vague, and while he alleges the fact emphatically that he is being closed out by local doctors, whom he desired to "expose" in Portland, he does not give directly the reasons therefor, but leaves it to be understood that it is because of superior ability in certain matters.

Among the charges against the medical association preferred by O'Day is one that the Palama Hospital authorities were permitting his patients to leave the hospital without requesting payment from them, and then demanding the money from him, which he was forced to go out and collect. He leaves it to be understood that the doctors instigated the policy.

When he recently ran a Japanese boy down in his automobile and broke his leg, he carried the boy to the Palama Hospital and stated that he would set the leg gratuitously, which he did. He claims that he made no other arrangements to pay the expenses of the boy while in the hospital, but the authorities presented the bill to him just the same.

Frank Atherton could not be reached last night to get his side of this matter.

Against the Queen's Hospital he preferred the charge that he is debarred from the hospital because "he is he." He claims that after reading a newspaper article on that hospital, in which it was stated that the hospital "was open to all doctors of the Territory who had complied with the regulations," he called it up and asked verification.

He claims that the authorities of the hospital answered, "Yes, to all except you."

Another item of offense which he debits up to the Queen's is an incident over the sister of George Beckley. As he was forced to secure hospital accommodations, he asked the officials if he could bring her there, and they answered in the affirmative, providing he would comply with the rules. He assured them, he says, that he would comply with anything, and she was taken to the institution.

Then he claims that although he was to be admitted as assistant to Doctor Irwin, he was refused admission after the woman was in the hospital, and was forced to remove her and take her to the Japanese Hospital.

Charges Answered.

In regard to the charge preferred against the Queen's Hospital by Doctor O'Day, in connection with his alleged debarment, George W. Smith, one of the trustees, quoted last night the following extract from the rules of the institution:

"Any physician resident of this Territory and licensed to practise by the territorial government may apply to the secretary for membership of the honorary board of this hospital. Such application shall include a signed acceptance of the rules and regulations of the hospital and shall be presented and considered at the next following meeting of the board of trustees."

Mr. Smith stated that Doctor O'Day had never presented such application to the hospital, although he once asked for a copy of the rules, which was given him. No man who has ever applied, said Mr. Smith, has ever been denied admission. This, coming from such an authoritative source, seems to settle that question.

Mr. Smith's recollection of the Beckley incident is not clear, but he states that, to the best of his knowledge, she was admitted to the hospital, but as O'Day was not on the honorary staff he could not be admitted to attend her and her relatives had her removed. She afterwards died.

Association Moderate.

Doctor Collins, present secretary of the medical association, when seen last night at the Moana Hotel, stated that the medical organization had no desire to "persecute" Doctor O'Day, and although the members individually had nothing whatever against him, as a whole they objected to his manner of complaint against them and its wide circulation.

LIPTON WANTS A BIG BOAT RACE

NEW YORK, November 18.—Saying that he would send an American's Cup challenge for races in 1911, Sir Thomas Lipton left yesterday on the Lusitania, of the Cunard line. He seemed confident, too, that there would be a match, and that it would be under conditions different from previous international contests, and that there would be some fine sport. There were several prominent yachtsmen at the pier to see him off. Among them were Mr. F. G. Bourne, former commodore N. Y. Y. C.; Commodore Wilson Marshall, Larchmont, Y. C.; Mr. Robert E. Tod, N. Y. Y. C.; Mr. J. H. Flagler and Mr. R. A. C. Smith.
"The challenge I intend sending for a race in 1911," said Sir Thomas, "will be for a contest with the largest type of boat allowed under the rules. I know that my challenge will receive full consideration here, but whether or not it will be accepted by the New York Yacht Club I can not say. I know, however, that they will do the right thing. Of course there would be no question of a race were I to challenge under the present rules for boats of the racing machine type, but that is not what I want to do. As I told you when I arrived, I want to send over a boat that will go over the line on something like an equal footing with the American boat. But let us wait awhile. Something will be done and we'll all be satisfied."

SEATTLE MAY BE PORT OF CALL

The conversation was held in the smoking room and was participated in by Mr. Roberts, one of the directors of the Canadian line. Dunbar does not remember accurately whether the statement that Seattle would become a port of call under those conditions, came from Mr. Roberts or not, but the statement was made without qualification and met with no denial from the official, even if he did not make it.
Dunbar also discussed the matter with Captain Nixon of the Marama, who knew of the proposition.
Ten Times the Number.
"Should this arrangement be made," said Dunbar yesterday, "Hawaii will have fifty tourists from the northwest where she now gets three or four. There were thirty Seattle people on the boat with me when I came down."
Dunbar's company is a heavy shipper to the Islands, sometimes by way of Vancouver and the Canadian line and also by the Pacific Mail and American-Hawaiian.
S. Benson, who arrived on the Manchuria and who is now a guest at the Moana Hotel, stated last night that he was exceptionally lucky in receiving a personal letter of recommendation to General Agent Kerrell of the Pacific

AGRICULTURE AND FORESTRY DISCUSSED

A meeting of the board of agriculture and forestry was held yesterday afternoon, at which the usual reports were received and a considerable amount of routine work transacted.
Forester Hosmer submitted his regular report, which included that of Foreman Haughs. According to the latter, 20,000 trees were distributed for Arbor Day planting. Mr. Hosmer reported the arrival of Louis Margolin, forest examiner of the federal service, who will make an investigation into what returns are probable from the planting of eucalyptus groves.
It was reported that 1000 Jeffrey pine, coulter pine, incense cedar and deodar cedar trees were received on the Alameda November 26, and these were at once sent to Mauna Kea and Haleakala to be planted. Mr. Haughs reported that there are about 75,000 trees now on hand at the nursery and at the Makiki station.
Edward M. Ehrhorn, the entomologist of the department, reported that during the month of November thirty vessels were boarded and on seventeen of them fruits and vegetables were found. Seven lots and twelve parcels were burned. Four shipments of hornfly parasites had been received from Mr. Koebele. Several species of the commoner scale insects have been found to be abundant in the gardens about the city.

TWO ARE AFTER WOODRUFF'S JOB

offered to them, but as it is evident that the two strongest men now are Robertson and Cooper, the others are keeping under cover and waiting to see which way the cat jumps.
The announcement that Judge Woodruff had resigned so very shortly after he took his place on the bench caused more comment yesterday than anything that has happened in governmental circles in a long time. And most of the comments took the form of guessing matches as to Judge Woodruff's real reason for resigning. One theory advanced is that the judge never intended to stay here, but merely came down for a few months, just to show that he could hold the position, notwithstanding the fight that was made against his appointment. Another theory suggested is that the judge does not like Honolulu as well as some of the Honoluluans like the judge. And a good many times the judge's resignation was mentioned yesterday in the same breath with the Ballinger-Pinchot row.
Meantime, Judge Woodruff lies low and saws wood. He simply says that he has accepted a position in New York which was so tempting that he could not afford to turn it down. The company to which he is going is the Pocahontas Coal Company, one of the big corporations of the East.
The fact that Governor Frear is now in Washington and has the President's ear is among the things regarded as significant, so far as the Robertson boom is concerned, although those in the know state that the denunciations of the Governor regarding the last Robertson candidacy were quite unjust, some are inclined to believe that the Governor would like the judgeship better than the governorship, but in this the wish to have him out of the robin's egg blue chamber is probably father to the thought.
The civic federation yesterday discussed the soon-to-be vacant judgeship, Robertson's name being brought into the discussion. The federation will hold a meeting after the bar association has chosen and will probably have an endorsement to add to that of the association or a counterendorsement, depending upon who may be selected.

The conversation was held in the smoking room and was participated in by Mr. Roberts, one of the directors of the Canadian line. Dunbar does not remember accurately whether the statement that Seattle would become a port of call under those conditions, came from Mr. Roberts or not, but the statement was made without qualification and met with no denial from the official, even if he did not make it.
Dunbar also discussed the matter with Captain Nixon of the Marama, who knew of the proposition.
Ten Times the Number.
"Should this arrangement be made," said Dunbar yesterday, "Hawaii will have fifty tourists from the northwest where she now gets three or four. There were thirty Seattle people on the boat with me when I came down."
Dunbar's company is a heavy shipper to the Islands, sometimes by way of Vancouver and the Canadian line and also by the Pacific Mail and American-Hawaiian.
S. Benson, who arrived on the Manchuria and who is now a guest at the Moana Hotel, stated last night that he was exceptionally lucky in receiving a personal letter of recommendation to General Agent Kerrell of the Pacific

Mail Company in San Francisco.
The latter gentleman stated that when the Manchuria left the Golden Gate there were 100 passengers left at San Francisco who had booked on her for the Islands. He himself had no trouble, although having an extra person in the stateroom.
He added a new item to the many that are registered to Hawaii's loss in saying that the Southern Pacific Company is doing its best to keep tourists from taking the boats out and was trying to induce them to travel to Southern California over its lines. Many are doing this after failure to secure bookings.
The Pacific Mail company, says Benson, does not release the prospective passengers but keeps assuring them that some one might drop out and leave a stateroom for them, thus keeping them from booking on any of the other lines.

Hot Resolution Wanted.
In discussing the proposed mass-meeting of the civic federation called yesterday, Fred L. Waldron, president of the merchants' association, stated that he believed that it was a fine thing and that W. R. Castle was just the man to call it. He added, however, that he thought it would have been better if the mass meeting was called generally and not in the name of any particular organization. He hopes to see a hot resolution sent to Washington.
Booking in Anticipation.
The Friend, published yesterday, takes a firm stand on the coastwise suspension question, but goes to an extreme which will not find general favor. There is no disposition on the part of the very large majority to turn the freight business over to foreign participation. The Friend says:

"At least one citizen has shown his faith by his works and booked by one of the Marus to the Coast next summer. This means that the stand of Secretary Ballinger for justice to Hawaii is taken to indicate that the good sense of congress will champion the same honest course. Our legislature stultified itself by its failure to support the overwhelming sentiment of the people in favor of the suspension of the coastwise laws for these Islands. It is significant that even the local corporation most interested in opposing, for purely selfish reasons, this public sentiment is by no means united in this shortsighted course, several of its highest officers including its president being public-spirited enough to cast all their influence on the side of economic righteousness. It is to be hoped that when congress gets down to a consideration of the question, it will see the injustice of any restriction upon our trade with the mainland and will suspend entirely the operation of the coastwise laws, both as regards freight and passengers."

The latest wireless message from the Lurline gives the time of her arrival in Honolulu as Saturday morning, instead of Friday night. She has fifty passengers aboard, her full capacity; two hundred and fifteen sacks of mail and about 3000 tons of cargo.

COASTWISE SUSPENSION MEETING.

Opposition to the temporary suspension of the coastwise laws, as applying to passenger traffic between this port and the mainland, has dwindled so that it is doubtful if there are fifty men in all Honolulu today left in the minority.

Much of the "argument" so far advanced on the part of the opposition, has been based on premises known by everyone to be false.

Slush about "the flag" is something, too, that can hardly be expected outside of an editorial sanctum, certainly not at a meeting made up of intelligent men.

Now is the time, however, for those who have been objecting to the tourist restrictions placed upon Hawaii owing to the lack of sufficient passenger vessels to voice their complaints in a way that will be effective.

If it does pass it will not help Hawaii for many months to come. In the mean while let us reach out and gather in the tourist trade that is at our door.

BUSINESS MEN WANTED.

The Star goes farther than The Advertiser has of late in its denunciations or some of the elected representatives of the people of this municipality.

To secure an effective telescope through which to observe Halley's comet, soon to be within range, is certainly worth the thousand dollars necessary for mounting it.

The case of Dr. O'Day is one that can not be commented upon editorially without the possibility of doing an injury to someone.

Have the friends of A. G. M. Robertson, in advancing his name for endorsement as a candidate for the second federal judgeship, counted the cost?

In its mouthings against Sheriff Jarrett, an afternoon contemporary may be able to deceive itself, but it cannot deceive the public.

It was evidently quite a crime for Sheriff Jarrett to use McHenry as a witness against Leal, but it appears to be no crime to use him as a star witness against Jarrett.

ZELAYA FORCES REPORTED BEATEN

(Continued from Page One.) gna by orders of President Zelaya, is a native of this city, the son of D. K. Cannon, a butcher, and has had a stirring time most of the twenty-nine years of his life.

Mr. Cannon's father soon after received a letter from him, in which he said that he intended to return to this country, but a subsequent letter, mailed to Frank C. Foote, a schoolmate, came from Honduras, where Mr. Cannon said he was compelled to live, because "Zelaya would kill" him if he set foot in Nicaragua again.

Groce Was a Texan. GALVESTON, Texas, November 20.—Leonard Groce (not Grace), who, with Leroy Cannon, was shot by order of President Zelaya, of Nicaragua, was a Texan, the son of Dr. R. Groce, of Hempstead, Texas, and was brought up in Galveston, where he had relatives.

ARE IN FAVOR OF SUSPENSION

(Continued from Page One.) the laws which are keeping tourists from Hawaii. The coastwise suspension proposition was thoroughly discussed and all present were unanimously of the opinion that the situation calls for the relief that would be afforded by allowing passengers to travel to and from Hawaii on any vessel that calls at this port.

There was not a dissenting voice raised. But in order to bring the matter more directly home to the people, it was decided to call a public meeting at which coastwise suspension should be thoroughly discussed and at which all who have anything to say on the subject may have an opportunity to make themselves heard.

The civic federation also discussed the matter of the proposed observatory at Kaimuki and voted to assist the project by subscribing $25 to the fund now being raised.

The federation will go earnestly into the campaign against the mosquito, the idea expressed at the meeting being that they should first find out what are the plans of the board of health and then cooperate in every possible way with the board.

WANT FLEET FOR FLORAL PARADE

The Merchants' Association has taken up the matter of making an effort to have the Pacific fleet detained in Honolulu in February to participate in the floral parade festival on Washington's birthday, and to that end, President Waldron of the association yesterday cabled to George B. McClellan, secretary to Delegate Kuhl, at Washington, as follows:

The association requests your particular effort to have all or part of the Pacific fleet at Honolulu on Washington's birthday.

The Chamber of Commerce had some correspondence with Admiral Bees, commander of the naval station, on this subject a few weeks ago, the admiral replying that he did not believe the itinerary could be changed, owing particularly to the fact that Admiral Sebree, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, is to retire on February 20, and undoubtedly would wish to have the fleet at San Francisco at that time in order to turn the fleet over to his successor.

WATERFRONT NEWS

WILHELMINA HAS SAILED FOR THE PACIFIC OCEAN

Yesterday forenoon the Matson Navigation Company's new steamship Wilhelmina, under the command of Capt. Peter Johnson, formerly master of the Hilonian, sailed from Newport News for San Francisco and Honolulu, via Magellan Strait. The big steamship will make the trip in about forty days, and should be in Honolulu early in February. The steamship is described as being very finely fitted up for passenger accommodations, both E. D. Tenney, president of Castle & Cooke, and George P. Castle, who went over the vessel, stating that her state-rooms and saloon accommodations are really of a very high standard. The Wilhelmina will bring a cargo of general freight from the Atlantic seaboard. The Wilhelmina is to be placed on the direct San Francisco-Honolulu run.

Strike Bothered Aorangi.

While striking employes of coal-handling companies of New South Wales were endeavoring to get the firemen of the R. M. S. S. Aorangi to quit their jobs and show sympathy with the strikers by joining them, the Aorangi got out of port and headed for Suva and Honolulu. The strike was in its incipency when the Aorangi was preparing to sail, and the company got sufficient coal aboard the vessel to take her to Suva before the strikers made their demands upon the steamer's employes.

When the Aorangi reached Suva she lay there longer than usual in order to take on 350 tons of coal. It is said that the company had to pay a pretty stiff price for it. The officers rather expected to take on a number of tons of coal here, but the time for sailing for Vancouver and Victoria was announced for nine o'clock last evening, giving little time for coaling. Both the officers of the steamer and passengers state that the strike will be a big one. There have been differences between the employes and the operators. The premier of New South Wales endeavored to act as arbitrator, but gave it up. The employes are reported to have secured the right to mine two collieries, and with the proceeds expect to keep up a long fight, or until the operators give in.

The Aorangi arrived off port about two o'clock and was alongside her wharf at half-past three. She experienced fine weather throughout the voyage. She had 183 tons of cargo for this port, and is also leaving thirteen tons here to be taken to Fanning Island on the Makura. The vessel left only a few passengers for Honolulu, and has a small through list, both in the first and the second cabins.

Among the through passengers is A. Roundy of Sydney, representative of the Union Glass Company of the United States. Mr. Roundy was formerly a business man of Salt Lake City, and is making his first trip home in nine years. A number of young Mormon missionaries are also returning to Utah, having served their three years' tour of mission duty in Australia.

Percy Denton, a well-known theatrical man of Australia, is returning to the United States for the first time in eleven years. He passed through here more than a decade ago as a member of the "Belle of New York" company. He has been with Williamson for several years, and is now en route to the mainland to arrange for small companies for vaudeville theaters to play in Australian cities. He looked up W. D. Adams yesterday with the idea of arranging to have the companies play in Honolulu.

Tenyo at Noon Today.

According to wireless messages from the Tenyo Maru, that liner should be off port about noon today. She is carrying a distinguished passenger, Baron Uchida, the new Japanese ambassador to the United States. The Tenyo will discharge 1300 tons of cargo here.

The Tenyo will be the last steamship on which mail, both general and registered, may be sent to the United States, if the packages are to be delivered to the addressees before Christmas Day.

The Tenyo will leave for San Francisco some time tomorrow, probably about noon.

Departed on the Aorangi.

The Aorangi was delayed in leaving for Vancouver last night until after one o'clock this morning. She had considerable freight to discharge and some coal to take on. Among the local people leaving were Judge Stanley, who will spend some time in Canada, and possibly in England; J. Oswald Lutted, the "tabasco man," who goes away for three months; Mrs. Clara Schmidt, who will spend some time in Vancouver with her brother; C. Reinecke, who has been an assistant at the receiving experiment station at Kalihi, and Mrs. Lorant, wife of the captain of the French bark La Blanche, and child.

Coal for R. M. Boats.

The strike of coal handlers in Sydney and other Australian cities is reported by officers of the Aorangi to be of such proportions that there is fear of the entire steamer business being tied up. The Aorangi got away from Sydney in time to miss the strike and had to get the bulk of its bunker coal at Suva. The Moana of the Canadian-Australian line, which is the next vessel to leave Sydney for Honolulu may not be able to get away on time. She is due here on January 5. The effort to get the firemen of the Aorangi to join the strikers may spread to the Moana. Without firemen the vessel will naturally be unable to leave Sydney. While the strike is on the company may have no one to handle the coal for the bunkers, even though coal supplies are taken there from Japan.

It is rumored among passengers on the Aorangi that colliers may carry coal from Japan so that the bunkers may be filled there for the remainder of the voyage to Sydney and back there. In the case of the Moana which may not have had a supply of coal on board she may not have enough to steam as far as Suva.

Wireless in Australia.

With the Makura equipped with a wireless plant it is believed that the Australian and New Zealand governments will soon take up the matter of establishing stations at advantageous points along their coasts. The Sydney Herald of November 9 says:

With reference to the establishment of wireless telegraphy stations in Australia, the prime minister made the following brief statement at the conclusion of today's cabinet meeting: "Consideration was given to the construction of wireless telegraphy stations, and further developments in this connection, possibly with New Zealand and possibly with Papua. Further inquiry into the best means of undertaking the Australian part of the work is about to be initiated."

Shipping Notes.

One of the winches on the Aorangi broke down last night, thereby delaying the departure of the vessel for Vancouver until nearly three o'clock this morning.

The light-house tender Kukui arrived yesterday morning from a general inspection cruise. After coaling, she may join the fleet of steamers attempting to pull the Celtic Chief off the reef.

GERMAN CONSUL WAS HOST.

The German consul, W. F. Pfoth-hauer, was host on Tuesday night at a dinner given at the Alexander Young Hotel in honor of Captain Schroeder and the officers of the German cruiser Arcona. The guests included in addition to the officers members of the consular corps, federal and territorial officials and a number of ladies. About forty guests were present. The dinner was quite elaborate and the company a most congenial one. Following the dinner the guests danced in the makai pavilion, a Hawaiian orchestra furnishing lively music. Captain Schroeder and his officers had had so much hospitality during their stay here that they express regret that they can not remain here longer, and they hope that some event will bring them back here again in the near future.

Although the Haekfeld wharf is piled high with freight discharged from the Mongolia, yet the Tenyo is likely to go to the wharf to discharge her 1300 tons of freight, because she can only get oil for her bunker tanks there.

COLLEGE HILLS LOTS

The foundation of success for many people has been the securing of a home. Persons who have homes in the community appeal to others as the stable members of society and not as globe-trotters or birds of passage—here today and gone tomorrow. If you have little money, you can put yourself in the way of owning a home by purchasing a lot on the installment plan; when the lot is clear, a loan can be secured to enable you to build a house. In a few years land will probably be very much higher than now; this is the time to secure a lot.

TRADING GIRLS FOR POPPY DOPE
MANILA, P. I., November 18.—The natives of Sarangani, a group of islands to the south of Mindanao Island, are offering in barter young girls each for one ounce of opium, according to W. S. Lyon, a horticulturist, who returned today from a trip through the south coast of Mindanao. Mr. Lyon is obtaining specimens of tropical fruits for the department of agriculture at Washington.
Mr. Lyon reports that there is a considerable traffic in opium in South Mindanao, carried on by way of Palm Island. Government cutters visit that district occasionally, but they are lacking in number and facility to suppress the traffic.

the same position for the south side of Kauai.

Captain Miller, head of the Miller
Salvage Company, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued from the attorney-general's office, on a charge of damaging public property. He is alleged to have cut posts on the Hack-feld wharf in order that some work he was doing there in connection with his boats could be expedited. He undertook this work without getting permission from the superintendent of public works, and a warrant was promptly issued. Superintendent Campbell stated that it was an easy matter for Captain Miller to have asked permission to cut away the posts. The matter will be given a hearing in the police court.

will be descriptive of the military expedition into Alaska, under the command of Captain Castner, in 1898, which was made for the purpose of opening up the new and unexplored Alaskan territory in the interest of procuring accurate maps and geological data for the gold miners of the North. Captain Castner will show a fine collection of photographs, many of which will be thrown on a screen by lantern.

WHAT THE PRESS AGENTS SAY
Bonnie.
An entire change will be on at The Bonine tonight—a series of the most interesting subjects ever attempted, and the triumph of the best European and American producers. Another important change is being planned for Saturday night, an entirely new and exclusive subject that can not but be of the greatest interest to these Islands as it is to the world in general. There will be several very clever things in vau-ville also by Ford and Hovey and a sweet Hawaiian solo by Miss Akina, by way of variety.

New Bill at Orpheum.
There will be a big double bill at the Orpheum tonight. Jack Golden and his company will present the farce comedy entitled "Taking a Picture" and the musical comedy "The Baron From Berlin."
The former is full of quick action of a splendid comedy character while the latter, besides being very funny, is replete with pretty musical numbers. In addition there will be an olio of vau-ville, introducing new stunts all up to date.
The public is just beginning to awake to the fact that the Jack Golden company is an organization far above the average and that they are giving a class of entertainment superior to what one would expect at the cheap prices charged.
The balance of the week should and will no doubt see crowded houses at the Orpheum.

Band Program.
The program for the band concert at the Pleasanton Hotel this evening is:
Overture—Unrest Storck
Chorus—Tannhauser Wagner
Intermezzo—Curly (new) Weirich
Presented by Mr. D. L. Conkling.
Grand Selection—Faust Gounod
Vocal—Hawaiian Songs Ar. by Berger
Selection—My Old Kentucky Home Dalbey
Waltz—Sunnyside (new) Holzman
These both presented by Mr. D. L. Conkling.
Finale—Lalala (new) Thiere
The Star Spangled Banner.

HAWAII WILL BE A ROAD HOUSE

"Half-Way Over," When Panama Ditch Is Dug, Says Man Who Toured It.

"Upon the completion of the Panama Canal," said R. K. Bonine yesterday, "Hawaii will become a road house in the Pacific. I am sure it will be a great coaling station and the port of call for twice the number of boats that now enter the harbor."

The moving picture expert was developing plates in his work room in the Oregon Block and making stereopticon views from numerous photographs which he took on the Big Ditch. Bonine, in company with Editors Webster and Paddock of the Denver Times, constituted a party that made a tour of the "strip" some time ago gathering material for lectures. Bonine was official photographer for the party and has a splendid collection of photos as well as moving pictures.

"Owing to the great importance to Hawaii of the canal, Hawaii should take a great interest in it," he said. "It is the doctors who are digging the ditch, the American doctors and American steam shovels. The French had the very best machinery of that day but they didn't have the modern steam shovels."

"Talking with a doctor who knew conditions, he told me that, in his opinion, Gen. Leonard Wood is deserving of more credit than anyone else. He was a doctor and realized the importance of sanitation in tropical countries. Appreciating this, he gave Doctor Gorgas, an army doctor, a free hand in Cuba with the result that the latter stamped out the dreaded 'yellow jack,' the yellow fever of the tropics."

"Gorgas went to Panama and did the same thing there and today the 'strip' as it is known, is as healthy as any place on American soil. I have met friends there who have been on the canal for three years who looked better than they ever did in New York."

"The American sanitation system there is wonderful and its full value made evident. There are now no mosquitoes whatever, the tropic soil has been turned to the sun, rotting vegetation has been cleared away, and plague and fever wiped out." The doctors have made it possible to dig the ditch.

"While we were there we met the congressional party who toured the canal from one end to the other. Do you notice that since they went down there the canal has got everything from congress that it asked for?" Bonine turned a plate over and squinted through it, picking out in his mind the tints that he would use on it.

"We toured the whole works. It's the snaikest place you ever saw in your life—snakes, monkeys and porcupines. We went over to the Gatun Dam and the Culebra Cut and down to old Fort Lorenzo at the mouth of the Chagres River where it runs into Limon Bay. Fort Lorenzo is the old fort that Sir Henry Morgan, the buccaner raided and sacked when the Mosquito Coast was the Spanish Main.

"Talking about the doctors, there are representatives from all the South American republics who are going all over with Doctor Gorgas and reporting his methods to their governments."

"Few people know that the entrance to the canal on the Pacific side is about twenty miles east of the entrance on the Atlantic side but it's so. The canal has curves in it ranging everywhere up to that of a hairpin. Here's one of them." He held a picture of the Baso

ARMY AND NAVY NEWS

LAVA BRICKS FOR NEW MARINE BARRACKS

The plans for the marine barracks to be erected at Pearl Harbor next year may be changed so that lava bricks instead of reinforced concrete may be used. Captain Marix will send to Washington a statement with regard to these bricks and may advise their use in the buildings, believing they will give the buildings a very handsome appearance. When Colonel Denny of the marine corps was here a short time ago he stated that work would be under way by March, 1910.

A Rapid Romance.

William F. Armstrong, commissary sergeant of the Fifth Cavalry, was married on Tuesday to Miss Potts of Michigan, who arrived on the transport. They were married by Rev. Mr. Jones of the Methodist church. The young lady on arrival here met Sergeant Armstrong and decided that Honolulu possessed home-like attractions and she quickly became Mrs. Armstrong.

Retirements for Year.

The Army and the Navy will lose many valuable and widely known high ranking officers the coming year by retirement. The number includes fifteen army officers, seventeen naval officers, one marine officer, and four warrant officers of the Navy.

Rear-Admiral William Swift, who has been in command of the Boston navy yard since 1907, retires March 17, and Rear-Admiral Herbert Winslow, on court-martial duty at that yard, retires September 22. It is said that Rear-Admiral Winslow will succeed Rear-Admiral Swift as commandant on the latter's retirement. Before becoming a rear-admiral, Mr. Winslow was captain of the Boston navy yard.

Maj. Eugene O. Feehet, who recently left Boston, being the army signal officer there for three years, retires March 14.

The four warrant officers to retire are on duty at the Boston yard. Their retirement dates are: Chief Gunner A. A. Phelps, February 11; Chief Carpenter L. L. Martin, January 13, and Chief Pharmacist J. H. Graham, September 1.

The complete list of the naval officers' retirements with dates follows: Rear-Admiral William W. Kimball, Washington, Jan. 9; Rear-Admiral Uriel Sebree, commander-in-chief of Pacific fleet, Feb. 20; Medical Director G. E. H. Harmon, Washington, March 5; Rear-Admiral James D. Adams, commanding Charleston (S. C.) navy yard, May 4; Rear-Admiral Adolph Marix, chairman lighthouse board, May 10; Capt. Albert C. Dillingham, commanding U. S. S. Franklin, June 3; Rear-Admiral John A. Rodgers, commanding Puget Sound navy yard, July 26; Rear-Admiral C. P. Rees, commanding Honolulu naval station, Sept. 4; Rear-Admiral Albert G. Berry, special duty, San Francisco, Sept. 16; Chaplain D. H. Tribou, Philadelphia, Naval Home, Sept. 16; Medical Director John C. Wise, Washington, Oct. 7; Capt. John B. Milton, commanding U. S. S. Independence, Oct. 20; Civil Engineer U. S. G. White, Portsmouth (N. H.) navy yard, Oct. 20; Rear-Admiral Thomas S. Phelps, commanding Mare Island (Cal.) navy yard, Nov. 7; Rear-Admiral C. H. Arnold, special duty, Washington, Nov. 14.

The retirements of Messrs. Marix, Dillingham, Rodgers and Rees will not create vacancies for promotion. They are additional numbers in grade.

In the army the retirements are: Brig.-Gen. J. G. D. Knight, engineer, Jan. 24; Col. Charles B. Byrne, Jan. 28; Col. John W. Pullman, quartermaster, Feb. 17; Col. Valery Harvard, Feb. 18; Brig.-Gen. Charles Morton, commanding department of Missouri, March 18; Lieut.-Col. William W. Robinson, quartermaster, April 21; Brig.-Gen. Winfield Scott Edgerly, due May 29, but actually retired Dec. 29 this year, by recommendation of the army retiring board; Col. James W. Pope, quartermaster, June 6; Brig.-Gen. William L. Marshall, chief of engineers, Washington, June 11; Lieut.-Col. J. E. Sawyer, quartermaster department, July 3; Col. Edward E. Wood, professor at the West Point Military Academy, Sept. 17; Brig.-Gen. Albert L. Myer, commanding department of Texas, Nov. 14; Col. Joseph B. Girard, Philippine Islands, Dec. 26; Col. Walter Howe, commanding artillery district of Narragansett, R. I., Dec. 31.

SAYS JAPANESE ARE PROSPEROUS

Dr. Yamamura From Nippon Here Looking into Condition of His Countrymen.

Dr. U. Yamamura, "America's friend," as he is called by some of the local Japanese, the founder of the American Friendship Society of Japan and the man who collected the money to pay for the erection of a monument in honor of Commodore Perry, is in Hawaii looking into the conditions of Japanese residing here, and studying general conditions in the Islands.

Doctor Yamamura needs no introduction to most of the Japanese in Hawaii, for he has seen nearly all of them. He was the physician who examined the eyes of all emigrants, to see whether or not they were afflicted with trachoma, and so most of the Japanese now in Hawaii passed through his hands before they left their native land.

The doctor expresses himself as being very well pleased with what he has seen here. The Japanese, he thinks, are comfortably situated, well treated and appear happy and prosperous.

The American Friendship Society organized in Japan is a club composed of Japanese who have returned to their native land after having resided in America, and their object is to welcome visitors from this country to Japan.

Last night, at Sonouchi's, a number of the prominent Japanese of the city, gave a banquet in Doctor Yamamura's honor as a send-off for him. He leaves on the Chiyo Maru for the mainland.

DECISIONS RENDERED BY SUPREME COURT

The supreme court yesterday rendered a decision in the matter of Sarah Nakookoo and Amy Helene Nakookoo, by their guardian James A. Thompson, vs. David Naholoa, in which the judgment of the circuit judge is affirmed. Justice Wilder, however, once more dissents from the opinion of his learned brethren of the bench and holds, not only that the judgment should be reversed, but that both the supreme court of the Territory and the supreme court of the United States have fallen into error which should be corrected.

The action was to quiet title to a piece of land in Honolulu. The defendant filed a general denial and a plea in bar setting up his side of the case. The plea in bar was sustained by the lower court and judgment entered for the defendant. The plaintiffs appealed on writ of error.

Justice Wilder in his dissenting opinion says:

"It is with particular regret that I feel compelled to differ from the majority, in view of the fact that it was only on account of the land involved (there not being $5000 worth of personal property) that allowed this matter to be appealed to the United States Supreme Court. However, if this court made a mistake in deciding a matter concerning which it had no jurisdiction and allowed the United States Supreme Court to fall into the same error, now is the time to point it out and rectify the mistake as far as possible."

Lost on Technicality.

The plaintiff's bill of exceptions in the ejection case of Elizabeth K. Booth vs. J. H. Schnaek and Manuel Silva was dismissed by the supreme court yesterday on a technicality, the court holding that the bill had not been properly presented to the circuit judge for allowance.

The plaintiff claimed that on the last day on which the bill could be presented, he could not find Judge Robinson, before whom the case was tried, and he accordingly presented the bill to the clerk, and then, upon the latter's suggestion, to Judge De Bolt, who made a memorandum of the fact. Judge Robinson signed an affidavit to the effect that upon the date mentioned he was easily accessible, and upon this showing the supreme court dismissed the bill.

Court Notes.

John Neill, doing business as Neill's Workshop, has brought suit against Henry M. Lawson and Mrs. E. C. Bailey, now Mrs. Almy, of the Art Theater, for $946.78 which he claims is due him as the balance on a bill of $1244.78 for material and labor.

Lee Yum Kwai and three other Chinese, charged with being present at a place where gambling was being carried on, were scheduled for trial before Judge De Bolt yesterday, but none of the quartet showed up. The judge declared their bonds forfeited.

George Davis, better known as Phoney Davis, who was arrested recently and charged with selling liquor without a license, was convicted yesterday by a jury in Judge De Bolt's court, and was sentenced by the judge to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

The trial of Kanagawa, the Japanese charged with the murder of Rey, the Japanese servant woman of Judge Lindsay, at Manoa some weeks ago, has sufficiently recovered from his self-inflicted wounds to appear in court, and his trial on the charge of murder in the first degree, will begin before Judge De Bolt this morning. A. D. Larnach has been appointed by the court to defend the accused man.

Augusta Mello was granted a divorce yesterday by Judge Robinson from Manuel Mello on a complaint alleging abuse and desertion.

The General Demand of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

NUUANU HAD A ROUGH TRIP

Captain Josselyn Reports Worst Time Off the Horn for Fifty Trips.

Battling with gales rounding Cape Horn, the American bark Nuuanu, which arrived in port yesterday forenoon, had no easy voyage this trip. Captain Josselyn brought his trim-looking craft around from New York in good shape, after what he describes as the worst trip of the fifty he has made through the storm belt of the Horn. Some of his cargo of stoves may be found broken when the stevedores commence discharging the vessel, and Captain Josselyn said he only wished the owner of the cargo could have been aboard for a week or two, or only for five minutes, just to hear the racket the cargo made when the ship rolled and twisted, for then they would not expect stoves, for instance, to come out whole. Captain Josselyn gives a very breezy account of his voyage, as follows:

"We sailed from New York July 17, and had pleasant weather to the equator, which we crossed August 21, in longitude 25 west. This weather continued to Staten Island, which we sighted September 20. A moderate gale from the southwest drove us back behind the island, where we spent a delightful day with smooth water and the land only five miles off. We enjoyed looking at the land, for though the mountains were covered with snow, land looks good after two months of water only. My intention was to take the Straits of Le Maire, as usual, but when a breeze came up from the north it was so foggy that I went around the island, and when we got to leeward the fog cleared, and we had a delightful sail to Cape Horn, with all sail set and the water as smooth as a pond.

"We passed Cape Horn on September 23 sixty-eight days out and passed within five or six miles of the cape with the wind still from the north. A large full-rigged ship was in company, but steered away to the south and eastwards of the Diego Ramirez Islands, while I hugged the coast as long as I could until the wind came out northwest and headed me off. But I was then one hundred and thirty miles to the westward of Cape Horn and thought all my troubles over, and began to think of a quick passage and a glad surprise to my New York friends, for they had bid me good-bye with affection to 'take care of myself' for they all new I had a hard cargo to handle. They did not know what I knew for it was impossible to stow it without having the vessel too stiff. Only myself and the stevedores knew that, but they had lost so many friends the last few years off Cape Horn, and so many good ships had disappeared lately, that they said good-bye as though it might be for the last time.

"The day we passed the cape two large steamers passed us bound east, and with the fine weather and smooth water and steamers—I never met one off Cape Horn before—it was like a racing cruise. But old Neptune was only fooling. The next day it was a howling gale from the northwest, and all we could show were close reefed sails. We passed the English bark with signals, 'M. P. H. L.' eighty days out from the Tyne river for Callao. As we passed her we signaled all the forenoon. What seemed to puzzle them was when they asked me to spell my name or rather the bark's name. They could not believe that 'Nuuanu' would spell anything, and said they could read the signals but could not make out what they meant. Evidently they had not been to Honolulu. Then it came on to blow. I never knew it to continue so long. From September 25 to October 3 it was a howling gale. We ought to have been under a goose-winged main topsail only, but we rolled so fearfully I was afraid the masts would go over the side, so I kept both lower topsails and the fore topmast staysail on her until the two latter blew away, and also blew away the boat covers. We shipped one sea that filled the decks, washing away the tanks and ladders. All that kept the main topsail on was a hemp sail. We had by this time drifted down to 81 south latitude and we found it was cold and freezing. During the height of the gale, we heard a crash and found the truss of the foreyard broken. That was a bad job as we had just had a new truss made in New York. We spent several hours with chain and lashings securing it, but we did it all right, although the yards almost touched water as we rolled. The gale continued until Sunday, October 10. Then it moderated and the sea went down and the sun came out, but we were a sight. The whole ship was coated with ice from truck to deck, and we also had a bad list to port for the cargo had shifted. We could scarcely stand on deck which was slippery with ice. We made sail as fast as we could with everything frozen, but at ten o'clock the sun melted the ice from the deck so we could stand and we had all sail on her.

"But Neptune was not yet through with us. By two o'clock the wind was out northwest again and blowing a gale, continuing for three days but not so hard but we could carry a little sail and hold our own.

"One day in the height of these gales, a large four-masted ship passed us on the other tack, heading north. Two weeks afterwards we were again in company, but had reversed our position. He was five miles to leeward and disappeared. We still had a hard fight until October 27 when we passed the island of Mas-a-Fuera and had another good look at the land. Then Neptune let up on us, the wind came southeast and for four weeks we never braced a yard, till we took the northeast trade in ten degrees north latitude. We crossed the line in the Pacific 127 days out, in longitude 125 west, from thence to the Hawaiian Islands we had fresh northeast trades."

ANCIENT DAUBS GONE AT LAST

Two Huge Paintings at Capitol Are Removed and Put Away in Storage.

At last the two huge daubs that for so many years have hung in the antechamber of the Governor's office and which were supposed to represent old Honolulu but which looked more like two green fits struck by a cotton-bating snow storm, have been removed and are now safely packed away in some storage room of the capitol. One of them fell down with a tremendous crash yesterday, nearly scaring the stenographer out of her wits, and this was taken as a favorable opportunity to get rid of the two pictures that have long been eyesores to those who have occasion to be about the capitol.

The pictures, both of colossal proportions, were neither of them finished, and they would never have amounted too much if they had been finished. The clouds looked like fluffy bunches of cotton thrown with indifferent aim at the canvas, while the mountains, trees and grass looked like the bad dream that made Bill a better boy.

In the foreground of one of the pictures is a canoe conveying a missionary to the scene of his labors—but he appears to be going backwards, as the outrigger is on the wrong side of the canoe. The two pictures were about as bad as they could be, and the blank walls will be a welcome relief from their inartistic presence, besides which Private Secretary McBride will be relieved of the necessity of explaining to smiling visitors that the paintings were preserved more for their historic value than for their artistic qualities.

TAKES MACAO CASE DIRECT TO CHINA

Portugal, Baffled by Delegates to the Hongkong Conference, Seeks Maintenance of Status Quo.

LISBON, November 19.—The Seculo today says that the Chinese delegates to the Hongkong conference having refused to recognize Portugal's claims in Macao or to submit the question to arbitration, Portugal, with the support of Great Britain, has opened parliaments direct with China for the maintenance of the status quo. Macao, in China, situated on an island of the same name at the mouth of the Canton River, forms with the two small adjacent islands of Taipa and Coloane, a province, the city being divided into two wards, one inhabited by Chinese and the other by non-Chinese, each having its own administration.

China holds that all the dependencies of the City of Macao have been occupied illegally by Portugal, and that the only concession of territory ever made to Portugal was the town of Macao, and she insists that the territory and islands be evacuated by Portugal.

Some time ago the Portuguese government sent General Joaquin Jose Machado to China in the hope of reaching an amicable settlement of the dispute.

COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

If more people would make an attempt to get rid of the colds from which they are suffering, as a result of this changeable weather, there would be a decided decrease in the number of cases of pneumonia. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure your cold, and all danger of its hanging on until spring and resulting in pneumonia may be avoided. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaiian Islands.

SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE.

The seventh anniversary of the Seamen's Institute will be celebrated this evening at the Sailors' Home on Alakea street. In addition to the reading of the usual reports an excellent musical performance has been arranged, those who have consented to assist including Miss Hall, Miss Schaefer, Mrs. L. T. Peck, the Rev. W. H. Bliss and Mr. Clive Davies. Miss Hall is the well-known tennis player whose skill on the violin so charmed her audience the other evening at the concert held in the Davies Memorial Hall of St. Andrew's cathedral. Lovers of music who were unable to hear Miss Hall the other evening would be well-advised to be present at the Sailors' Home this evening at eight o'clock. There is no charge for admission and the committee will be glad to welcome all who care to come.

TRANSPORT WAS IN A HURRY

Waterfront Comment on Neglect of Thomas to Offer Help to Celtic Chief.

When the United States big army transport Logan went on the reef in Honolulu harbor early this year one of the vessels which materially aided in getting her off the coral bed was a British cruiser, which worked for three days at the end of a hawser, burning up coal, the officers cheerfully standing by until she slipped back into deep water.

The British ship Celtic Chief went on the reef about midnight Sunday night and a United States army transport came into port Monday night and hurriedly departed for San Francisco Tuesday morning, without offering to lend a helping engine to the distressed ship. This is the course of comment on the two instances of vessels being in pilikia on coral reefs here.

However, the German cruiser Arcona went out of the harbor yesterday morning and added her great strength to the task of bringing the British ship to safety, but although she pulled all day as did the Inter-Island steamers Mikahala, Helene and Likelike, as well as the launch Huki Huki, the Celtic Chief stayed tight and fast on the coral reef, and in fact, went further on.

The Arcona went out early in the forenoon and the first steel hawser on which she pulled parted. She passed a new line aboard the helpless ship and this time put her anchors out forward, thereby steadying the strain on the hawser. The work of lightening the Britisher went on all day, but it appeared that the cargo which came out of her had a tendency to permit the ship to drift further onto the coral.

There is still some question as to how it happened that the Celtic Chief went aground. She came around Diamond Head and continued on past Waikiki with most of her sails set. She had considerable headway on when she passed the entrance to the channel. When the pilot boarded the vessel he remarked, it is said, that the captain had brought her to a dangerous section and gave orders to have the anchors let go. From what can be learned of the ship's movements it appears that the anchors were not ready for tripping and this delay proved her undoing. It is a rule for all sailing ships coming up toward any anchorage, or "to make port" as sailormen say, to prepare the anchors for tripping.

CANADIAN MOOSE WILL BE CARRIED THROUGH HONOLULU

Twenty big Canadian moose will be carried on board the R. M. S. S. Aorangi from Vancouver to New Zealand on her next trip down to the Colonies to replenish the herd taken on the same steamer about twelve years ago. A commissioner from the New Zealand government is a through passenger on the Aorangi to look after the selection of the animals, which are now parked at Banff.

The New Zealand government tried the experiment with just a dozen moose and these have bred and interbred until the herd is quite large, but new blood is necessary to improve the stock and the new importations were decided on.

The first herd was carried on the forward deck. A few of them became sick on the voyage and had to be tenderly cared for in some unused cabins, but all were landed safely in New Zealand. The officers do not know yet just where the score will be placed on board, but probably on the forward deck.

While the Aorangi is in port in January the moose will undoubtedly be the center of interest to Honoluluans, the majority having never seen such a strange-looking beast. The moose is a huge animal, standing about as high as a horse twelve hands high and having widespread horns.

WISE AND MILTON AND "BANANA" ARE BOOKED

Percy Denton last night booked Hen Wise and wife known as Miss Milton on the stage, and "Banana" Rance Smith, the buck and wing dancer, for some of the vaudeville houses in Australia. Mr. Denton passed through on the Aorangi en route to the mainland. He saw Rance Smith at the Park Theater and decided he was a good one to amuse the Australians, while Hen Wise he knew by reputation. They will recruit a company in Australia and expect to do good business. The trio will leave for Sydney in the Makua.

HONOLULU THE BEST EVER.

"Tis a very good world to live in. To lead, or to spend, or to give in."

And Honolulu is the best ever in those three virtues, if virtues they may be called. The ladies of Leahi Chapter No. 2, who will hold a sale next Saturday, know thoroughly the pulse of Honolulu, for they are a part of Honolulu themselves. The children have not been forgotten in this sale, their tastes and fancies will have a wide field.

Women know The way to rear up children (to be just);

They know a simple, merry, tender knock Of tying sashes, fitting baby shoes."

They also know how to make the best of candy; in fact, they "can teach sugar to slip down your throat a million ways." And the candy will be there in great variety.

Remember that Christmas

Is of noble memory and not an occasion for display. Choose presents having usefulness. Buy early in the season and early in the day. There is nothing which makes a nicer or more useful present than a pair of good shoes or slippers.

OUR IMMENSE NEW STOCK

assures satisfaction in style and perfect fit.

A Shoe Order

is the ideal way to make a present of shoes, as it allows the recipient the privilege of making the selection and relieves the giver of that task.

If you prefer to give the shoes--themselves--they may be exchanged afterward if they do not fit.

A big assortment of new styles in ladies' shoes also specially selected for the holidays.

RESOLUTION MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE VARIOUS SERVICES OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, that the following sums, amounting to THREE HUNDRED FORTY-NINE THOUSAND ONE HUNDRED FIFTY-SIX Dollars ($349,156.00), are hereby appropriated to be paid out of moneys in the General Fund of the Treasury of the City and County of Honolulu for salaries fixed by law and other salaries, wages of labor, donations, maintenance of jails, schools, and general expenses of the said City and County for the period beginning with the First day of January, A. D. 1910, and ending with the Thirtieth day of June, A. D. 1910, said payment to be made in pro rata monthly subdivisions of said amount as stated in the schedule thereof herein contained:

Table with 3 columns: Item, Per Month, Six Months. Includes Salaries fixed by law, Advertising, Associated Charities, Attorney, Expenses, Civil and Criminal Cases, Auditor, Office Employees, Building & Plumbing Inspector, etc.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the following sums amounting to TWENTY-ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED ($21,900.00) DOLLARS are hereby appropriated to be paid out of moneys in the Road Tax Special Fund of the City and County of Honolulu, for the building and maintenance of roads and bridges in the respective districts named herein, said payment to be in pro rata monthly subdivision of said amount as stated in the schedule thereof herein contained:

Table with 3 columns: District, Per Month, Six Months. Includes Honolulu District, Ewa & Waianae District, Waialua District, Koolauloa District.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Auditor of the City and County of Honolulu is hereby authorized and directed to draw warrants on the City and County Treasurer for any of the sums named herein, or parts thereof, upon having filed with him schedules of salaries fixed by law, and other salaries, of donations named herein, of payrolls and of accounts for material and supplies, accompanied by original vouchers and certified by the Clerk as having been duly passed and allowed by the Board of Supervisors at any regular meeting, or any special meeting called for the purpose of considering expenditures;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That to make expenditures under this Resolution, it shall be necessary that all salary lists, items of donations, payrolls, items of material and supplies and accounts of general expenses shall, before being presented to the Board of Supervisors, be passed upon by a Committee or Committees and by such be reported to the Board of Supervisors with the recommendation of such Committee or Committees, and sums found to be lawfully due and payable may then be voted upon singly or collectively as convenient on a call of the ayes and noes. In the event of any such Committee failing or neglecting to pass upon any such matters, or to make any recommendation in regard thereto, the Board may thereupon act.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That no payments under this Resolution be incurred in any month in excess of the monthly pro rata sums herein authorized.

Introduced by Supervisor DANIEL LOGAN.

Going East!

If you watch the development and improvements going on, you will find that the city is building east toward Kaimuki. We make this statement intending no reflection on the other parts of the city. Our policy is not to sell property upon the demerits of other districts, but to sell Kaimuki property upon its own merits, and when we call your attention from time to time to conditions in other parts of the city, we simply do so in order to assist us in pointing out more clearly the true conditions as they exist in the beautiful Kaimuki district.

We sincerely believe Kaimuki to be the coming residential district of Greater Honolulu, and the person who buys a lot in Kaimuki today at the prevailing prices, regardless of whether purchased from us or not, will be making a safe and profitable investment, as well as secure a splendid homesite.

Honolulu Is Building Toward the East

Kaimuki, in fact, is Honolulu's east, and just as sure as the sun rises in the east over Koko Head, so sure will Kaimuki rise to be the best and select residential district in the city, with her property selling at $2,000.00 and $3,000.00 per lot.

Being an oblong shape and running parallel with the beach on one side and the Koolau Mountains on the other, it is absolutely certain that the city can never spread out on the north or the south, and that its extension must necessarily be either east or west. On the west we find the oriental quarters and the lower levels that will always prove objectionable for home-building, while on the east we find everything favorable for residential extension. The farther east you go toward the higher levels around Diamond Head, the cooler you find it and the better you like it. Kaimuki is generally recognized by all to be the most delightful and desirable residential district in the city, with its beautiful location between Diamond Head and the Waianalo Mountains, its high elevation so near the sea, and its open, dry, cool, and healthful condition.

BUY A LOT IN THE NEW OCEAN VIEW DISTRICT

Put your deed aside and wait until the development of the city, which is absolutely assured, increases its value to $2000 or more per lot. Remember we are selling lots today in Kaimuki cheaper than the property was sold for ten years ago, when Honolulu had practically no future compared with what she is assured today. The most profitable way to buy property is to buy in the right district at the right time. Now is the accepted time.

Our prices, $500.00 for corner lots and $400.00 for inside lots, size 75ft. by 150ft., with our liberal installment terms, are an exceptional opportunity for every one to make a good, safe investment and secure a splendid ocean view homesite.
