BIG ISSUE OF NEW OLA BONDS

Two and a Half Millions Will Be Floated the First of the New Year.

OLD ISSUE WILL BE RETIRED

Local and Coast Capitalists
Will Underwrite the Securities.

Two million five hundred thousand dollars' worth of new bonds are to be issued by Olaa plantation. Notices were sent out yesterday calling a meeting of stockholders for the purpose of arranging for the new issue.

Of the two and a half million dollars secured through the bond issue, $1,250,000 will be used to refund the present bonded indebtedness and the remainder will be expended in liquidating the floating debt due Bishop & Co., the agents for the plantation.

It is understood that Bishop & Co. have formed a syndicate of local and California capitalists who will underwrite the entire issue of $2,500,000.

The next interest payment due on the present bond issue falls on February 1. On that date, according to the terms under which the outstanding bonds were issued, they may be taken up by the company. This will be done, and at that time the entire issue now outstanding will be refunded.

The meeting of stockholders is called at this time in order to make the arrangements necessary to retire the bonds promptly.

The present bond-holders will either receive bonds of the new issue in place of those which they now hold, or will be paid in cash, as they may elect.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 21.—Maj.-Gen. Thomas H. Barry, United States Army, commanding the Department of California, will sail for Honolulu on the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia, on December 27. General Barry goes to Hawaii on a tour of inspection, the first which he has made since taking command of the department.

THE MALIHINI CHRISTMAS TREE

With eager face and yearning eyes
The kids all wait to see
The lighted, dazzling splendor of
The strangers' Christmas tree.

The Malihini Christmas tree
With presents laden down
And lighted up with fairy lamps
For kiddies of this town.
The kiddies who have never seen
Old Santa Claus's face
Nor heard the reindeers champing when
He puts the toys in place.

So, all good people come around
And help to make the tree
The glistening wonderful success
It certainly should be.
Five hundred dollars, all we need,
And, though a stranger's aid,
The Malihini Christmas tree
Fays well—it makes them glad.

RECEIVED NO BIDS FOR THE DIRECT SAMOA-COAST MAILS

Despite the efforts of the postoffice department to obtain bids for carrying mail direct between Apia and San Francisco, none was received up to yesterday and as a result there will be no line running between those points and stopping at Honolulu. All bids on Hawaiian mail routes, both land and water, which were received at the local postoffice to date, were forwarded on the Korea yesterday to Washington, where they must be by January 4.

No bids at all were received by Geo. W. Carr, superintendent of transportation, for the Samoan mails and the two routes now contracted for there, one by a German boat and one by an Amer-

MAY MEET IN SAN FRANCISCO

Delegate Kuhio and Governor
Frear Each on Way to Bay City.

STORM WARNINGS DISPLAYED

Chief Executive on Way Home—
Cupid Is En Route to Washington.

Delegate Kuhio sailed yesterday afternoon for San Francisco, en route to Washington. Governor Frear departed from Washington yesterday for Chicago, en route to San Francisco. The Delegate and the Governor are due to meet in the Bay City in about a week. Earthquake and storm warnings have not yet been displayed along the Coast, however. But they may be.

It is possible that the Kuhio explosion may have hastened the Governor's return to Hawaii, though there was nothing to that effect in the cablegram from him received by Acting-Governor Mott-Smith yesterday. The Governor merely sent word that he was on his way home. It is evident, however, that he has hastened his return for some reason, and it is not improbable that the Delegate, in view of all that has occurred during the past two weeks, will not be particularly overjoyed to meet the chief executive of Hawaii in San Francisco. It is even possible that the Delegate may have important business in Los Angeles that may make it necessary for him to take the first train out of San Francisco.

No word has yet been received concerning the appointment of a successor to Justice Wilder on the supreme court bench. Acting-Governor Mott-Smith, however, states that he rather expects to receive notice soon that someone has been appointed to the vacancy that now exists.

The appointment of a successor to Judge Woodruff will, in all probability, wait until after the Christmas recess, as there is not the immediate need for the filling of that vacancy that there is for filling the one created by the resignation of Judge Wilder.

COURTS TIED UP BY RESIGNATION

Wilder Quits Without Signing
Opinion, and Business Is Blocked.

The fact that Hawaii is temporarily without a supreme court has tied up some of the important legal business of the Territory and some of the judges and lawyers do not know where they "are at."

This became evident yesterday when the attorneys in the case of Lukela vs. the Mutual Telephone Company appeared before Judge Whitney and professed themselves as ready to go on with the case.

Judge Whitney said that he was not ready. He wanted to know, first, how the supreme court stood on the law points involved—and he could not know because of the fact that the supreme court had not decided.

The case of Lukela vs. the Mutual Telephone Company is a suit for $25,000 damages on account of injuries received. Recently the case of Edward

SUPREME COURT DECIDES AGAINST HARRY THAW

(By Associated Press.)

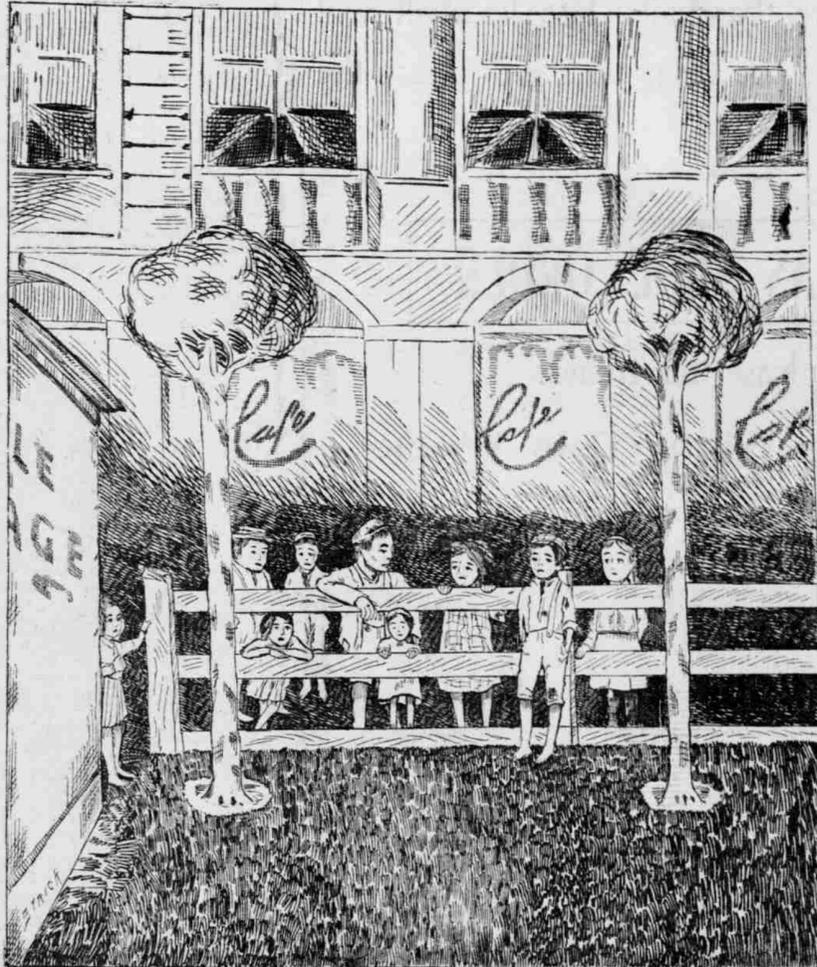

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 20.—Associate Justice Joseph McKenna of the United States Supreme Court is author of a decision rendered today which denies the petition of Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, the architect, in New York. Thaw petitioned for writ of error from a decision the effect of which meant that he must remain in the asylum for the insane.

ican, will continue as heretofore. Both the attempt to get an American boat for the mails now carried under the German flag and the attempt to get a transoceanic line to the Coast fell through.

Mr. Carr had Captain Miller consider the proposition of getting some of the boats of his mosquito fleet down to Samoa to carry interisland mails there but the doughty skipper failed to see light. He would rather pull cradled windjammers off the reef.

No bids were received for local inter-island carrying other than those tendered by the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, and that concern will continue doing the business.

Spanning the Pacific for 3600 miles is the feat that S. A. At that time he caught the Royal Mail steamship Makura which was 2200 miles distant, the Australian liner being then forty miles the other side of Fanning Island. The Korea arrived in port shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the latter portion of the trip from Yokohama

ESTRADA ASKS US FOR RECOGNITION

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 20.—General Estrada, leader of the revolutionary forces in Nicaragua, has sent telegrams to Secretary of State Knox, declaring that peace can be secured only by the complete exclusion of President Zelaya from the affairs of government and by the subjection or exclusion of the political followers of Zelaya. Estrada asks of the United States to recognize him as president in place of Zelaya.

DEMAND BETTER BUILDING LAWS

Merchants Realize Danger From Fire in Business Section of Honolulu.

Although no definite action has been taken by the board of supervisors or any of its members, the merchants of the city have begun to awaken to a realization of the danger faced by property-owners in town from fire. The statement made a week ago by Fire Chief Thurston, that a fire starting within the district radiating from Fort and King streets would sweep the city, should the slightest hitch occur in the answer to the alarm, has had its effect, and it is probable that the necessity of framing proper laws will soon be forced upon the city and county officials.

W. R. Castle, president of the civic federation, stated yesterday that a special committee of that organization is preparing a report on Honolulu tenements which will be presented at its next meeting on January 12. This report will give in full detail the present tenement system which has been branded as shameful by officers of the association. Owing to the fact that cooking in the tenements is done in improvised stoves made out of old cans and bricks and set directly on the floors, this report can hardly avoid the fire question. It is thought that it will serve as a start towards obtaining satisfactory legislation in this line.

A number of prominent citizens about town yesterday expressed their disapproval of the manner in which this all-important detail in the city government has been disregarded by those supposed to enact protective laws for the city's welfare.

"If the supervisors would only cut out their antics," said a business man yesterday, "stop attempting to pass incomplete milk ordinances and duplicate hack ordinances, and act on those laws which the property-owners of this city demand, there might be some excuse for their existence. I do not believe that it is anybody's fault in particular, but the matter has simply been overlooked, and it will take a heavy lesson to wake them up. We have been assured by the official federal chemist that the milk furnished the householders of this city is far superior to any on the mainland, and the traffic ordinances previously passed are almost useless as far as real regulation goes, and are not enforced at that."

"But the chief of the department that is organized to safeguard the city from fire tells us that his department is insufficient so to protect it, should a fire of any dimensions occur, and that he is not backed up by proper legislation—and yet not a member of the

CONSUL CLOUD UNDER A CLOUD

Uncle Sam's Representative at Mukden Has Talked
Too Much.

F. D. Cloud, United States consul at Mukden, was a through passenger aboard the Korea yesterday en route to Washington. Mr. Cloud, according to report, is under an official cloud. His trouble is said to be due to his public utterances about matters which he as a representative of the state department is supposed to say nothing.

Mr. Cloud is reported to have forgotten the old adage that silence is golden. Among his utterances were criticisms of the Japanese. The Japanese sat up and took notice and politely informed Uncle Sam's ambassador, or his representative at Tokio, that Mr. Cloud was talking too much. The subject matter of his talk was as politely placed before Uncle Sam's representative and eventually the matter reached Washington and went under the scrutiny of Mr. Knox. It was intimated by the Japanese government that Mr. Cloud was not particularly adapted to conditions of the Far East and his presence not altogether conducive to that quiet and peace under which all nations bordering on the Pacific are existing just now. Hence, Mr. Cloud was called to Washington to explain.

The consul is accompanied on his homeward trip by Mrs. Cloud.

MADRIZ IS ELECTED TO SUCCEED ZELAYA

Estrada Declines to Receive the Emissaries of the New Executive.

(By Associated Press.)

MANAGUA, December 21.—With absolute unanimity, the Nicaraguan congress yesterday decided upon Madriz as the man to fill the office of president of the republic, vacated by the resignation of former President Zelaya. Madriz at once dispatched couriers to Bluefields to notify General Estrada, commanding the army of the revolutionists, of the action of the congress.

Any hope which Madriz may have had that Estrada would submit to him proved vain, however, for the revolutionary chieftain refused absolutely to receive emissaries of the new president and ordered that a general attack on the government troops be made at once.

President Consents to Probe the of the Interior.

RESIGNATION IS THREATENED

Position of the Accused Cabinet
Officer Declared to Be Intolerable.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, December 21.—Yielding to the insistent demands of Ballinger, and the pressure of his critics, the President has ordered an investigation of the conduct of the secretary since he took office. At a meeting of the cabinet, to be held immediately, the form which the investigation shall take will be decided upon. President Taft yesterday announced his intention to call the investigation.

Secretary Ballinger practically issued an ultimatum, informing the President that an official investigation of the charges against him must be made or he would resign from office. He declared that his position had become intolerable and that it would be impossible for him to remain longer in the cabinet unless official cognizance were taken of the charges made against him, and the affair sifted to the bottom.

ARRESTS AT GRANADA.

GRANADA, December 20.—Many arrests have been made here among the excited populace on account of threats of further trouble.

MADRIZ FINDS LITTLE FAVOR

Washington Officials Do Not Approve of Nicaragua's
Choice.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, December 21.—Representative Adair of Indiana yesterday introduced a resolution into the House of Representatives pledging the United States to recognize General Estrada, the leader of the Nicaraguan revolutionary forces, as president of the trouble-torn republic, and ordering the arrest and trial of former President Zelaya on a charge of murdering the American citizens whose execution he ordered.

The choice of Madriz to succeed Zelaya is not looked upon favorably in official circles here but the attitude of the government is opposed to the use of coercion. The policy is to avoid interfering with the internal arrangements of Nicaragua so long as a responsible government is guaranteed. But a thoroughly responsible government will be insisted upon.

having been rather rough, delaying the vessel somewhat. As she had only three hundred tons of cargo aboard, she was ready for sea late in the afternoon and shortly after 5 o'clock sailed for San Francisco.

Phelps states that from the time he left San Francisco until his return here yesterday from the Orient he was never out of touch of the land stations, and he expects to be in daily touch with either Kahuku or San Francisco until the Korea passes in through the Golden Gate. The wireless plant has acted in a fine manner throughout and it is believed that General Manager Schwerin will order similar plants installed on the remainder of the Pacific Mail fleet. The operator states that when he neared the Japan coast he found, by wireless, that the Japanese were making much of the feat of the Empress of India in spanning 1600 miles. News received from the ship was put into dodgers and distributed over Yokohama. When Phelps heard of this he burned up some of the Japanese wireless plants in showing them that 1600 miles was only a bagatelle in comparison with what the Korea was doing, and he convinced them of the error of their ways.

After leaving Yokohama Phelps picked up Cavite, in Manila bay, and "talked," but did not get much conversation in return, as the naval authorities are apparently holding down the lid on wireless matters and use it only for military and naval purposes. Phelps was also in communication with the British fleet off the China coast but these ships failed in keeping touch with him, and practically ignored his offer to "talk." However, the whole trip was a demonstration of an up-to-date wireless plant which could reach out all over the Pacific. At one time he was in touch with the Great Northern steamship Minnesota, which, he declares has a fine plant aboard.

The night when he caught San Francisco 3600 miles away Phelps was talking with Kahuku, but he states that Operator Maddams was busy at the time working on some messages, and he tuned out for another station and soon caught the Pacific Coast. His signals were properly answered and "conversation" ensued.

The Korea brought very little freight for Honolulu, but is carrying a big lot through to the Coast. The Norwegian steamship Selja relieved the Korea of Honolulu-bound freight so that the big liner could take a full load for the Coast.

The passenger list of the Korea is not large this trip, and there was plenty of room aboard for passengers from here. Among those who got off here was Ed. Lord, who had a pleasure and business trip all through the Orient and returns hale and hearty. When asked what the auto speed law is in Japan, he replied that there is nothing doing at all in the speed line, which pleased him.

L. E. McChesney returned to Honolulu on the liner, as did Miss M. Walton, who left Honolulu a few months ago for the Orient, and will remain here some time. Among the through passengers is Archie MacKillop, Scotch accent and all. He reports a good business trip. His daughter, who married a Mr. Frank of Yokohama, will pass through here on the Chiyu, and his other daughter is shortly to be married to a member of the business office staff of the San Francisco Chronicle. Mrs. J. W. Saunders, wife of Captain Saunders, formerly master of the Manchuria, returned from Manila where her daughter Dora was recently married.

There were two or three naval officers aboard who were guests of Paymaster Hornberger, U. S. N., during their brief stay in town.

Among those leaving for the Coast were Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole and Mrs. Eva Parker Woods, who go to Washington, the former to take his seat in congress. Col. Samuel Parker, Ernest Parker and Joseph Aca, stenographer of the county clerk's office, and a ward of Queen Liliuokalani, go to San Francisco. Attorney Frank Thompson goes to Washington to argue in the case of the Territory vs. Wynne. The Misses Hegemann and Nason, are returning to the East with the body of their friend Miss Harriet D. Smith, killed last Wednesday night in an auto accident.

Major Ray, paymaster U. S. A., and Mrs. Ray, also left for the Coast on account of Mrs. Ray's health. The Major is on leave.

OH, THE WEATHER.

Oh, the weather,
Blow the weather;
For whether it's wet
Or whether it's hot,
We must weather it
Whether or not.

The Japs will play the Sparklers
Next Sunday, so they say,
And all they need is weather
To speed them on their way.
So, if the sun be shining
And all the sky is bright,
There'll be one grand old battle—
A proper baseball fight.

The teams are hard at practise,
Though knee-deep in the mud.
They do their best to bingle
But come down with a thud
When trying to steal bases;
Let's hope the rain is o'er
And we can watch the small boy
Hang up the winning score.

Oh, the weather,
Blow the weather;
For whether it's wet
Or whether it's fine—
Me for the champion

TWO BIG ATHLETIC EVENTS SUGGESTED FOR NEW YEAR'S

Fifteen-Mile Race for Tsukamoto and Kaoo and Walking Match for Ayres and Sullivan.

It is very possible that there will be a big double event at the Athletic Park on New Year's day. If the various suggestions of contestants and the ideas of the Athletic Park people coincide at a meeting to be held today, it seems certain that there will be a fifteen mile race between Kaoo, Tsukamoto and one or two other contestants, and a mile walking race between Ayres and Dick Sullivan.

Both events will have a very keen interest attached to them. A fifteen mile race with Kaoo and Tsukamoto as two of the contestants has been howled for by the fans for some time. They want to see which of the two really can do their best over the one distance they have not yet tried.

In the ten mile race and in the marathon race these two made two of the most heart-breaking finishes that have ever been seen here. Many people believe that there will be the same kind of finish over a fifteen mile course. As Kaoo defeated Tsukamoto in the marathon race by a close margin and would probably have defeated him in the ten mile race had it not been for his stumbling at the finish, they say that a fifteen mile race will prove whether Kaoo is better than Tsukamoto over the shorter long distances.

Others Admitted.
Other runners would also be admitted to the race. Cordeiro, C. K. Charlie and probably Nigel Jackson would enter. All these men are in excellent condition and can easily round off to a fine point by New Year's day. With about five contestants in the race it would prove a most attractive event.

As for the mile walking race, this should prove even more exciting than the running race. One mile is the distance suggested and this might be altered by making it half a mile.

There is no more perfect walker in style than H. M. Ayres in the Territory and probably anywhere in the world. He has the gait down to a fine point and, though a veteran, is game to the very core. His exhibition last Sunday was something that brought down the congratulations of every sportsman in town.

For nearly a mile Ayres stayed with Sullivan and went back to second place in deference to the youth and condition of his opponent. If the walking race were made for half a mile, Ayres could probably keep up with Sullivan over the entire distance and, with his wonderful sprinting powers, could possibly beat out the present champion. Whatever the result of such a race, there is no doubt that it would be a most exciting and thrilling finish.

Both Men are Willing.
Both Ayres and Dick Sullivan have signified their willingness to enter. As to the distance neither one of them showed any preference. The shorter distance favors Ayres, but Sullivan is far too much of a sportsman not to give away a slight advantage.

Whether the distance is half a mile or mile it would bring out the finest exhibition of walking ever seen here. With five laps to the mile and the contestants in plain view of all the spectators at all times, the race should prove an attraction to everybody who likes to see a sporting event.

Except for soccer football, which, unfortunately, is not patronized to any very large extent, there is no other sporting event planned for New Year's day. With a double program of this kind at the Athletic Park, fair or foul weather, the management should be able to pack the place, and it would be well if they hurried up and got things settled.

SOCCER MEETING THIS AFTERNOON

There will be a very important meeting of the soccer football league at the Scottish Thistle Club at five o'clock this afternoon. A full attendance of members is requested as important matters are to come up for discussion.

The soccer league is putting up a fine exhibition of the game this season. Never before have the games been so closely contested nor has the general playing been up to such a standard.

Although the Mailes head the list of standing of the clubs, they have had no easy cinch in either of the two games they have played. Had it not been for a too strenuous kick by Bob Chillingworth, a lucky bounce of the ball and Nott's back, they and the Puns would be tied with one win and one tie each.

The Puns have an exceptionally good team this year and they are hot after the championship. If they can defeat the Mailes on Saturday, they will take the lead with five points, the Mailes will have four and it depends on the Iron Works and High School which one will take third place and which will go to the end of the list.

It is to be hoped that the weather will be more attractive to the spectators than it was last Saturday. On that occasion the rain gave fair promise of coming down in torrents and so only a few people went out.

TRUTH ABOUT THE PHEASANT

Here is the true story of the great pheasant hunt. This is no story picked up from one member of the gang. No sir. It is the expurgated, but true, realistic and veracious account of how Jerry tried to get pheasants with a number one bore elephant gun.

The night was dark and stormy and Jerry Coker went to sleep in the back of the buggy. The rain came down in torrents and Jerry's feet got wet. Shortly afterwards they got cold.

At the mystic hour of three bells in the puddle watch they dropped anchor near Leilehua. The sun was rising over the mountains and pheasants were in the air.

The horses were hitched and told to be good for one hour. Jack Roberts and Larry Twomey unlimbered their artillery. Jerry was awakened after much prodding. He muttered "Auwe" and went to sleep again.

Larry fried sausages and bacon on a

Thermos bottle. The smell woke Jerry up. He called for some chow. Then they looked to their guns. "The pheasants are before us, let us tramp and kill."

Jerry looked down the barrel of his gun. Again he muttered "Auwe." The gun was a smooth bore thing that would knock down anybody but Teddy Roosevelt when he pressed the trigger. Jack and Larry laughed. Then they went out to find pheasants and Jerry dragged his tired limbs to the shelter of a big hau tree. Here he slept peacefully.

Half an hour later he was awakened by the returning hunters. They climbed into the wagonette and returned to town. At Fort Shafter they stopped and rang up Bill Heilbron on the phone. Bill came down and opened the store. He gave them five cold storage pheasants and swore not to tell anybody but an Advertiser reporter.

The five pheasants were given out round town. None came to this office. The recipients are still looking for shot holes. This is the real and utter truth about the great pheasant shooting expedition. Auwe.

Sport Notes

Dick Sullivan walked the distance of one and seven-tenths miles on Sunday at the rate of 8 minutes 55 seconds per mile—very fast time indeed. Anybody who ever got out and tried to walk a mile in ten minutes will appreciate this.

All members of the Diamond Head baseball team are requested to be out for practise at the Athletic Park as soon as they can get away from business. The wind has dried up the ground, and it is in fairly good shape for practise.

The difference between a "daisy-kisser" and a "clover-reaper" is that the former bounces occasionally and the latter merely scots. A "zimpler" is one that hits first baseman about the level of the opu. A "three-comber" waits third baseman on the chin. A "fence-finder" stops when it reaches the country club. A "commuter" is generally mizzled at central station. A "grass-pounder" bounces over shortstop's head. A "lallapazoo" is generally a home run. A "lallapazoo" is the superlative of lallapazoo.

E. S. Gee and A. L. Castle will probably play off the Wall Cup championship some time in the latter part of this week. Mr. Gee has not been feeling very well of late, and naturally his opponent does not wish to play him until he is feeling up to best form.

Skipper Stone and Owner Riley of the Dancing Sally are quite agreeable to having the next freak race on Sunday morning. That makes a majority with Commodore Wilder's boat, the Galloping Mary, the Roaring Gimlet and Ray Rietow's wren. Luther Hough also says that he is willing to start in the morning. How about it?

Haole Sumner is back again and will be in the Sparkler lineup next Sunday. Those Jewels need this energetic fielder—one of the surest men round second base that ever tickled the fans with his snatching-up of daisy-kissers.

GORKY IN DISGRACE.

It will be a sad blow to parlor socialists and those of the morally untrammelled in affairs of the heart to learn that Maxim Gorky has committed the unforgivable crime of taking life easy on the Island of Capri...

Gorky is one of the jests of history. Posing as a prophet, novelist, revolutionist and general dissenter from moral, social and political conventions...

When it developed that the woman consort was Mme. Andreieva, an adventurous actress, there was a mighty storm of disapproval among the decent people of New York.

But Gorky was not to join his fellow socialists in Russia. Instead he repaired to Capri, and ever since he has been living in luxurious retirement.

DUTY OF A PUBLIC OFFICER.

In a speech in regard to the forest service, Gifford Pinchot, in stating his own position, laid down a rule for all public officials, state and federal.

Here we have in terse, clear, and comprehensive language a statement which may well serve as a chart not only for public officers, but for every one in all the relations of life.

Under one theory of duty he would have remained an ordinary, irreplaceable bureau officer, a mere spoke in the wheel of every day perfunctory performance of official routine.

Smart as the Honolulu military garrisons are, there will probably be a feverish season of housecleaning in preparation for the arrival of the department commander.

From the universal bank statement recently issued it appears that there are twenty billion dollars in the world that Mr. Rockefeller does not own.

Estrada evidently has an idea or two of his own concerning the choice of a president for Nicaragua, and such a little thing as the action of the republic's congress appears to impress him not at all.

Ballinger has gotten spunky at last and has announced that he won't remain in the happy family unless he be given a chance to present his side of the case to the country.

The awakening of China may at last be regarded as a reality. Football has been introduced into the new Chinese colleges with the most assuring success.

Gertrude Atherton asserts that Chicago is ugly and money-mad. Why is it that nobody seems to be able to ever say anything nice about Chicago?

From a close study of the dispatches we get the impression that conditions in Nicaragua are such that a man might as well be living in Chicago.

If Mexico sees a way to settle Central America, would it not be a big relief to the United States to turn the job over to her?

Well, the Danes can't feel worse over it than the press of America, which also whooped it up for Cook to beat the band.

There are certain signs which might lead one to believe that Zelaya's troubles are not over by any means.

It may yet come to pass that the world will even refuse to believe what Doctor Cook said about gumdrops.

The British museum possesses a chair—the throne of Queen Hatsua—which was in use some 3500 years ago.

It is not yet too late to hand in your contribution toward the mahihini Christmas tree.

Nicaragua seems to have entirely too many would-be presidents for her own welfare.

There being no necessity to pray for rain, let us put in the time rendering thanks.

More light will probably be thrown now on the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy.

Take example by the rain, which, as you will notice, has decided to stop early.

COURTS TIED UP BY RESIGNATION

(Continued from Page One.) Campbell vs. H. Hackfeld & Co. was tried before Judge Whitney. This was a case similar to the Lukela case—a suit against H. Hackfeld & Co. for $10,000 damages for injuries received by the plaintiff aboard the Norwegian Lark Aetis about eight years ago.

Chief Justice Hartwell was asked over the telephone last night as to the exact status of the supreme court but absolutely refused to commit himself over the phone.

HEAVY HEAD SEAS RETARD HILONIAN

Castle & Cooke, agents for the Matson Navigation Company, received a wireless message yesterday afternoon from Captain Frederickson of the steamship Hilonian, stating that his vessel was plunging into heavy head seas and that instead of arriving at one o'clock this afternoon the ship would not arrive until two o'clock.

At eight o'clock Sunday night Captain Frederickson wirelessed in that his ship was 483 miles off port and that fresh northeast winds and a moderate sea prevailed. Everybody aboard is well. The Hilonians is bringing 2000 tons of freight, 301 bags of mail, twenty-six passengers and express matter. The Hilonian is really Honolulu's Santa Claus boat, for she will be the last to arrive here from the Coast before Christmas day.

Captain Weeden of the steamship Lurline wirelessed in on Saturday night that he was 325 miles off port en route to San Francisco. He stated that a strong northeast wind was blowing and a choppy sea was on. Everybody aboard was well. On Sunday night the Lurline was 560 miles off port.

All Weathered Storms.

Three vessels were lying at their berths at the Ewa end of the harbor yesterday, almost abreast, and each of the three has had a terrific experience with the elements. First of all there was the British ship Celtic Chief which was recently on the reef near the entrance to Honolulu harbor channel, and is now under libel from various steamship companies which pulled her into safe waters. Then there was the Alameda which went on the rocks near the Golden Gate entrance a few years ago, during a fog. Just beyond is the Kailani, an American bark, which almost foundered in a terrific gale in Australian waters some months ago, but was brought safely into port by her captain and crew, although she was in a very much battered condition.

Off for the South Seas.

The schooner Concord, which was the flagship of Buccanear Ben several months ago, when the latter made his famous voyage to Christmas Island to wreck the British steamer Aeon, and returned with only an exploded whale-boat and a hold full of coconuts, is to leave today for Fanning Island and other South Sea islets. The Concord is owned by the Miller Salvage Company. The schooner is taking some freight over to Fanning, and will probably bring back some South Sea products. Copra is one of the principal products of Fanning.

Towing a "Follower."

The wind was blowing down the harbor with such force yesterday afternoon that when the Intrepid took the schooner James Rolph out, the former had hard work to keep ahead of her tow. The wind carried the schooner along, although she had no canvas set, with such speed that the Intrepid could not begin to keep the hawser taut and let go as soon as she possibly could, to keep the slack rope from getting at her propeller.

Wind Bothers Britisher.

The Falls of Orchy had quite a hard time to get out of the harbor, on account of the wind that was blowing yesterday afternoon. She backed out from the naval wharf and tried to steer her stern out against the northerly wind. But old Boreas was too strong for her and she had to warp to one of the wharves and turn mechanically before she could head for the open sea.

Pilot Boat a Dandy.

In going out to the Korea yesterday afternoon, the pilot boat, one of the two elongated dories that they keep for taking pilots out to incoming vessels, showed what magnificent little sea-boats they are. The wind was blowing unmitigated great gusts at the time, but they hoisted their leg-o'-mutton sail and hiked out before it. The boat wobbled dangerously from side to side, but never took in water, and a small crowd of breathless spectators on the Channel wharf expressed their admiration of the way the little craft was sailed.

Shipping Notes.

When Brewer & Co. move into the remodeled offices of the old W. G. Irwin company on Fort street the first of the year, the Oceanic steamship offices will include both the freight and passenger sections in one room. Heretofore the freight office has been in one part of the building and the passenger and ticket offices in another.

A. F. Statter, who has been appointed to the newly created office of customs agent for the Pacific Coast, arrived at San Francisco and has taken up his duties. His territory includes California, Oregon, Washington and Hawaii, and his headquarters will be in Portland. He will act as the personal representative of the secretary of the treasury, and his duties will be to keep close supervision of all matters affecting the customs business of the district and forward frequent reports to Washington.

The Japan Times of December 1 has the following editorial concerning Mr. Cloud:
As far as press advices go, the report that Mr. Cloud, the American acting consul at Mukden, preferred serious charges against this country in connection with trade in Manchuria, in official papers presented to the state department at Washington about three months ago, seems to have emanated from one source only, namely, from a special article published by the New York Times on the 27th ult. We have, however, other reasons to believe that Mr. Cloud's action has been correctly reported, and that the telegraphed summary of the charges substantially corresponds with those made in his reports, so that the matter calls for some notice. The charges are that it is recognized by foreign merchants in China that the Japanese government has followed the policy of excluding foreign goods in Manchuria since the conclusion of the late war; that the Chinese government has watched closely the practice of the Japanese government to pass Japanese goods into the interior of Manchuria without paying proper duties; that the Chinese government has called the attention of the Powers to these facts, and also that the above statements are well borne out by the Chinese government statistics published for last year.
As to the first charge, which insinuates that Japan has been endeavoring to close Manchuria against all foreign goods except her own, it is an old one that has been repeatedly made without ever being substantiated. Like old superstitions born of prejudice and imagination, the charge refuses to be reduced into specific cases so that it can only be met with a flat denial as it has always been met before. In any case, Mr. Cloud has apparently nothing to say on this score on his own authority, and it is to be greatly regretted that a man occupying an official position, as he does, should have allowed himself to become a mere machine, simply repeating what others say without having studied the matter himself, especially so often been denied by this country.
Enough has been said to show the real value of Mr. Cloud's accusations against this country. But when he goes on to say, as reported by the New York Times, that the Japanese government borrows money abroad at one per cent, and lends it out to its traders in China at two per cent., one may be permitted to doubt that he is in his senses. It is no wonder that the Washington government has found it necessary to suppress Mr. Cloud's report.

city government has taken a moment's notice of it.
"Chief Thurston stated that several bills had been presented to the legislature to establish proper building laws. If I were a supervisor, I would have considered such an action as an insult if it were repeated now. It would be like asking the State legislature of California to pass a law regulating San Diego city traffic. If the supervisors continue to ignore this matter and occupy themselves with picayune and personal affairs and continue to overlook the real needs of the city, they should not be continued in office."
Chief Thurston stated yesterday that the entire city is unprotected, as far as proper fire-fighting facilities are concerned.
"Manoa, Kalihi, Kaimuki and the other districts," he said, "are all without protection, but the city comes first. In the outside districts a house on fire might burn to the ground, but in the city a house on fire may burn the business district to the ground."
Every bit of available space in the Chinese quarter is now being built up with tenements of the very kind that the civic federation will probably condemn in the report now in preparation and which Thurston declares to be standing menaces to the city. In six months' time there will be no further need of a building ordinance in the city, for there will be hardly any more space upon which to build, and the evil which can be prevented now will then be too late to cure.
"If the supervisors give me the money for the re house on Smith street, it will be ready in six months," added Thurston. "And I can move No. 1 right down there. The next appropriation can equip the now idle fire truck which needs only horses and a crew."
In the payroll set for the fire department by the supervisors at their last meeting there was no provision for any extra crews or men at all.

AMERICANS WASTEFUL, SAY THE JAPANESE

TACOMA, Washington, December 9.—The Japanese commissioners of commerce, who sailed from San Francisco last week, expressed the belief many times on their trip that the people of the United States waste enough annually to keep in comfort and even luxury the entire Japanese nation. This statement is made by Charles H. Hyde of Tacoma, who made the entire round trip with the Japanese commissioners, visiting fifty-five cities and returning home this week.

BANK CLEARINGS OF THE UNITED STATES

The total bank clearings for the United States for the week ending December 4, 1909 (one day estimated), according to the Financial Chronicle, were $2,765,454,307, as compared with $3,423,742,918 for the corresponding week of last year.

(Compared with last year, the total clearings have increased 19 per cent. New York city shows an increase of 6.5 per cent., Philadelphia of 26 per cent., and St. Louis of 15.4 per cent.)

COLLIER DISABLED IN HURRICANE OFF PORT

SAN FRANCISCO, December 9.—Flashing messages by her own home-made wireless apparatus, and sending distress rockets into the air, the naval collier Justin lay off the lightship several hours Tuesday night, but her presence there and disabled condition were not known to any of the tugboats, and only the timely arrival of the steamer Yellowstone, Captain Ludlow, bound in from the north, enabled the Justin to get into port. A northeaster was raging at the time.
The Justin, under command of Captain Merriweather, was bound up from Magdalena Bay, facing a raging storm and plunging into rough seas, when the tail-shaft suddenly broke. This was at eight o'clock Monday night. The steamer was off Pigeon Point at the time, and was rendered helpless by the accident.
Captain Merriweather showed his skill in rigging up jury sails, under which the cumbersome collier labored along until the lightship was abeam, when he sent up distress signals and called for help. Somebody answered the call, saying that help would be sent, but it is not known whence the message came. The rockets were seen by the Yellowstone, which took the Justin in tow, arriving in port at four o'clock yesterday morning.

RADICAL IMMIGRATION BILL IS INTRODUCED

WASHINGTON, December 7.—Representative Hayes of California will introduce a comprehensive immigration bill, of which the exclusion of Asiatic laborers is a feature. This latter purpose is achieved by forbidding the entry of laborers who can not read some European language. Hebrew and Yiddish, it is stated, are to be regarded as European languages.
The bill provides that all unaturalized aliens shall undergo registration as is done with the Chinese at present, proposes to stop the immigration of girls under twenty years who are not accompanied by at least one parent, raises the head tax from $4 to $10, and requires every adult immigrant to have $25 on landing. Any alien convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, or for which the penitentiary term is one year or more, shall be deported to the country whence he came.

Soldiers Organize Chorus.

A male chorus has been organized among a number of the young men of the city, many of whom are enlisted men from the various camps and the Iroquois, and is now meeting at Fort Shafter each Monday evening. The boys at the post have become so interested in the movement that they have purchased a piano of Thayer & Co. and placed it in the hall to be used by the chorus, at entertainments and at the religious meetings.

The instrument is being paid for on the installment plan, the first payment having been made by the officers and the rest to be made by the boys from sums deposited each pay day until the piano is paid for. This seems to be a step in the right direction and the choral club should receive the hearty support of all, especially enlisted men who sing.

REVENUE CUTTER IN COLLISION ON SOUND

SEATTLE, December 6.—In a collision today between the steamer Rosalie of the Puget Sound Navigation company and the United States cutter Tahoma, the crew of the former vessel were deprived of their breakfast, the galley having been put out of commission by the accident. The upper works of the Rosalie were slightly damaged, but otherwise she escaped injury.

The Tahoma was lying at the wharf at Port Townsend, astern of the Rosalie, which had aboard the survivors of the wrecked British bark Matterhorn. The cook of the Rosalie was in the galley as the boat started out of her slip. Suddenly there came a crash and the timbers of the roof began to tumble. He ran, yelling, from the galley, followed by his assistants, and reached the deck in time to see the Rosalie pull away from the stern of the revenue cutter, which she had bumped in backing out.

Expert Reports on Cotton and Rice in China and Japan.

The recent mission of a representative of the Hawaii Experiment Station to China and Japan in the interests of our island agriculture, more particularly with regard to the cotton and rice industries, is an important one, and its results are likely to be of far-reaching benefit to Hawaiian growers, according to the report of Frederick G. Krauss, the rice expert of the experiment station, who himself went to the Orient to look into cotton and rice-growing there. In The Hawaiian Forester and Agriculturist for November he writes: The increasing oriental population in the islands creates a large demand for rice, but although the local-grown product is of good quality, it fails to appeal to the Japanese, who find its flavor not acceptable. In order to supply the demand for Japanese rice, over three-quarters of a million dollars' worth is imported annually into these islands, which large sum is therefore lost to our growers. Many attempts have been made to grow rice from Japanese seed, but hitherto that product has been lacking in those qualities which make it appeal to our local consumers. Attempts of a like nature carried on in other countries have also met with the same lack of success.

The two most desired varieties of Japanese rice are known as Omachi and Shimikiri, and are grown in the Kinshiu and Yamaguchi districts, from whence come most of the Japanese laborers in the Hawaiian Islands. The securing of select seed rice from these localities was one of the chief objects of the recent undertaking of the Hawaii Experiment Station, together with an investigation of the cultural methods in operation in the Orient, for, as is well known, the Hawaiian rice fields have long yielded decreasing crops, steadily deteriorating in quality.

Leaving Honolulu early in August last, Canton was the first agricultural center visited. The surrounding country yields an enormous quantity of rice and is the source of the famous variety known as See-min, the best grades of which are grown in the Tsang Shang districts. This rice is greatly prized for curry and commands a high price in the San Francisco market. It would without doubt be a very remunerative crop here.

Although the Canton rice fields have been in cultivation for upwards of a thousand years and produce two to three crops annually, they are abundantly fertile and show no signs of decreased crops. No artificial fertilizers are employed, but all refuse is most carefully made use of, night soils being the main source of supply.

Conservation of Refuse.

One of the most striking lessons to be learnt from an enquiry into the economic life of China is the system by which the ultimate value is derived from all waste. This is greatly exemplified in the case of agricultural fertilization. Not only do cities control and auction the privilege of disposing of public sewage, but landowners maintain along the highways earthen receptacles for the convenience of travelers. It is not extravagant to assert that, were modern sewage methods introduced into centers of population in China, many cities would in a very short time be reduced to a condition of famine by reason of crop diminution.

Japan.

Passing to Japan the agricultural conditions were found to be very different from those recently encountered. The region south of Tokio is the most fully cultivated and affords a revelation to the traveler of the possibilities of agricultural development. It may truly be said that Japan is one vast garden in the highest state of cultivation. To rice alone over three million acres are devoted, cut up into farms of from one to five acres. On account of climatic conditions only one crop of rice and another of wheat or barley are grown annually, the rice being harvested in the fall and the rotation crop in the spring.

Experiment Work in Japan.

In contrast to China, Japan possesses a splendidly equipped department of agriculture. The main imperial experiment station is situated at Nishigahara, near Tokio, where a staff of thirty specialists is in operation. Many of the employes have received foreign education and the research work is of a high order. Each of the forty prefectures of the empire has a special agricultural demonstration station. The main lines of investigation center around rice, tea and tobacco. The latter crop is a government monopoly.

Japan and Cotton.

Ten years ago there were upwards of fifty thousand acres of land devoted to cotton cultivation in Japan, but this has fallen off to less than one thousand. The chief reason for this is found in

MAY SEE COMET A SECOND TIME

Was Little Girl When Her Home Village was Startled by Visitor.

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, December 11.—"There has been much said in different papers about Halley's comet," says Mrs. Margaret Jaggy, a correspondent of a Canadian paper, "but I have never yet seen in print that anyone had seen the comet on its last appearance, seventy-five years ago. 'I have seen it! I saw it in its awful splendor! If I live until next January I shall be eighty-four years old. Shall I be permitted to see it again? I was born in Mollis, the town which d'Aubigne, in his 'History of the Reformation,' calls the beautiful town of Glarns, which is in the canton of Glarns, Switzerland, and I saw the light of this world on the 30th day of January, 1826, and consequently was about nine years old when the great comet appeared."
 "I was a little school girl when the whole town was startled by the wonderful sight, which spanned the heavens as far as the eye could reach. Evening after evening the people gathered on the streets to behold with fear and trembling the awe-inspiring, glorious sight, and wondered what would befall the earth in consequence of it. Some said pestilence, some said war, but most of them talked about the great Judgment Day and the end of the world.
 "I shall never forget my childish wonderment as to how that great thing could hang up there without falling down on us, and when I told my grandmother that I feared the end of the world she used to say that I need not fear the Lord, for when He came He would bring the millennium with Him, when everybody would be good, and even the wild animals would lie down and eat hay with our goats.
 "And I presume on account of the beautiful story of the millennium in connection with the great, dreadful comet, the impression on my memory was so vivid that it has never faded, neither the comet nor the story of the millennium, and up to this day I love to read of the millennium and to remember the time when in my childish heart the comet ceased to scare me.
 "I look back seventy-five years and I see it again—that great and awful, mysterious something hanging up there, with its head toward the east and the measureless tail reaching as far as the eye could see until it went behind the mountains, for we have mountains all around us in Mollis. After it was all gone again I really wondered what other place was going to be scared by it. Where did it go?
 "I have told my children and their children often about the comet, so they are not surprised to read of it in papers and are looking toward its appearing with due appreciation of coming wonders."

HALF-MILLION CIGARS ARE HERE

Korea Brought Ninety-Five Cases of Manila's Best Product in That Line.

Four million cigars from Manila's big factories passed by Honolulu yesterday aboard the big liner Korea, en route to the mainland. But Honolulu had a few coming, for ninety-five cases were left off here. Cases of Manila cigars contain from 5000 to 10,000 cigars, and this would mean that about 600,000 cigars, brand-new Manilas, are in town, ready to be smoked. It indicates, also, that Honolulu is a pretty good cigar town, for the Manilas have been coming in here by the hundreds of thousands ever since the new tariff bill went into effect.
 The Korea stopped at Manila on her present trip, having a large cargo for the Philippines. While at Manila she not only loaded a big lot of tobacco, but took about thirty Filipinos aboard. These were sent ashore here yesterday and are part of a lot being collected by agents for the Hawaiian plantations. It is expected that at least a thousand more will be sent here in the near future. The Nippon Maru, due here the end of the month, is bringing several hundred Filipinos.
 Included in the Korea's steerage passengers for Honolulu were a dozen Japanese girls, who will take up a residence here.

THE PRINTER'S FAULT.

"What became of that paper you were going to start in the interest of uplifting the poor tramp?" asked the interviewer.
 "Ah, it fell through," confessed the great reformer, with much agitation, "and all on account of the blooming carelessness of the printer."
 "Did he make a grave error?"
 "I should say so. You know the paper was to be named the 'Bar of Hope.' Well, that idiot of a printer changed it to the 'Bar of Soap,' and as soon as my constituents heard the name they started running, and they are running yet."

SLIPPERY TOM IS IN TOILS AGAIN

Makes Escape for Third Time Before Placed Under Lock and Key.

Warned by previous escapes of Thomas Richards that he possessed slippery peculiarities, the police again captured him yesterday, only to see him again break from them and make good his third get-away. He was later recaptured and is now in custody.

Luck has been with him ever since he first broke away from his bondsman while bringing him to the police station, but no manner of luck will help him now, for the police are taking no chances. There is a certain amount of comedy in the matter, for his family has split and the feminine side of it is doing its best to help him along, while the masculine side helped put him in the toils.

Chief McDuffie and some of his boys yesterday located him at his home in Kalihi. Detective Oleson was put on the case Saturday night, and the department finally secured indirect information that he was being hidden by his mother at his home. Armed with a search-warrant, McDuffie, with Oleson and others, went to the place, but a thorough search failed to show any trace of him. Just as he was leaving, McDuffie noticed a trapdoor over the bedroom, opening to a loft, and examination revealed the much-wanted man. McDuffie grabbed him and handed him over to one of the other officers, and began talking to the parents.

The mother, in turn, commenced to talk to the man holding Richards, and the latter, in a sudden scuffle, broke loose and made off through a banana grove. Several shots were fired into the air to scare him, but he succeeded in making off, owing to his knowledge of the district.

In the afternoon several officers called at the house again and found his father tying him up to the door and using a lot of rope at that. The paternal side of the family stands for law and order, even if it is against his own flesh and blood, but there are doubts as to whether there was any order in the family last night, when both sides were in.

Antone Phillip, Richards' sidekick, who jumped bond with him, was also captured yesterday at his Kalihi home, but not having the cool propensities of his partner, he did not attempt to make any trouble.

Both men were arraigned before Judge De Bolt yesterday afternoon and Richards was placed under $1500 bond. Phillip's bond was placed at $500. Neither was able to raise the money, and they are now reclining in private rooms in the county jail. Some malicious prevaricators said that they were taken from the courthouse double-handcuffed and with two platoons of policemen surrounding them. This is not true. There was only one platoon.

HE IS LEARNING

WHAT NOT TO DO

Mr. Edison is also still busy with his new storage battery which, he claims, will solve the traction question. This, too, has been scoffed at from the beginning; it is a long time since Mr. Edison began investigation in this direction, but when a successful portable method of storing electricity is developed, another industrial revolution will be accomplished. This leads up to the point to which special attention is directed. In his experiments with these batteries, Mr. Edison has had men at work for years with a patience unparalleled. More than a half ton of reports on experiments with batteries have been made. Two of his best men had to give up the work because of its unending monotony to save themselves from a nervous breakdown. The work was continued night and day for more than three years, and more than 9000 experiments were made without obtaining results which Mr. Edison wanted. A visitor to whom this was told, exclaimed: "Then all those experiments were practically wasted." "Not at all," said Mr. Edison: "I now know 9000 things not to do—all of which indicates that it is as important to know what not to do as what to do.—The Bookkeeper.

ALL HIS LUGGAGE.

An Aberdonian went to spend a few days in London with his son, who had done exceptionally well in the great metropolis. After their first greetings at King's Cross Station the young fellow remarked: "Feyther, you are not lookin' weel. Is there anything the matter?" The old man replied: "Aye, lad, I have had quite an accident." "What was that, feyther?" "Mon," he said, "on this journey frae bonnie Scotland I lost my luggage." "Dear, dear, that's too bad; 'oo did it happen?" "Aweel," replied the Aberdonian, "the cork cam' out."—Argonaut.

DOINGS.

"My motto is 'Let justice be done though the heavens fall,'" said the young lawyer.

"Yes," rejoined the old judge, "and I've noticed that the attorney who 'does' her the most successfully pulls down the big fees."—Denver News.

MOTT-SMITH TO HAVE NEW JOB

Will Be Superintendent of Public Instruction for Period of Five Days.

E. A. Mott-Smith, secretary of the Territory, acting governor during the absence of Governor Frear, and president of the board of health, will hold another office next month. He expects, for at least five days, to be superintendent of public instruction.

Superintendent Babbitt has tendered his resignation, to take effect December 31. Governor Frear is not expected back until January 5—and Acting-Governor Mott-Smith has no intention of appointing a successor to Mr. Babbitt. Therefore, he will be obliged to take up the white man's burden himself and act as superintendent of schools until the Governor's return.

Thus far, no one has been suggested for Mr. Babbitt's place who appears to have any particular call on the job. There are a few anxious patriots out with a basket, who indicate that they would be willing to immolate themselves on the altar of the public good for $250 per month, but the same anxious patriots appear to have no especially good backing. There are a few other good men who are not looking for the job but might happen to be under the plum tree when the fruit is shaken off. And there are a very few others who may have to be chased down and have the job fastened onto one of them. But no one name is very prominently mentioned as yet.

WEDDING GUESTS TURN TO PAI-KAU GAMBLERS

Winding up the wedding festivities of a fellowcountryman by indulging in a ripsnorting game of Pai-kau, nineteen Chinamen were arrested on Sunday night and will be tried tomorrow. After the wedding was over the groom brought all his Chinese friends to his new home and commenced the game which McDuffie interrupted.

There were a number of invited haole guests at the wedding, and the gambling festivities were not commenced until after these had departed. The groom is well known in Chinese circles and was married with the most elaborate frills that the Chinese mind can think of.

LESSONS FROM THE FAR EAST.

an unfavorable climate, but it is significant when it is remembered how the supply of most cotton countries is diminishing.

Classification of Rice.

The rice investigations carried on in Japan are foremost of those of any other country. At Kinai, near Osaka, is situated an experiment station entirely devoted to rice breeding. This station recently undertook the colossal work of collecting and classifying all the varieties of rice grown throughout the empire. For this purpose all available rices, embracing over four thousand different lots, were collected and compared. By the system instituted, duplicates were eliminated and the residue were separated into varieties. As the result of six years' labor all Japanese rices were classified into six hundred and sixty different stocks. From these pedigreed seed is grown and distributed throughout the empire.

General Results.

The visit to China and Japan has resulted in securing a quantity of rice and other plant seed, some of which promise to be valuable as rotation crops and as green manure. A careful study of the various cultural methods in the leading rice country of the world has given much valuable information which will be of practical utility. One especially pleasing feature of the visit was the generosity and kindness with which the Hawaii Experiment Station's representative was received by the Japanese officials. Every assistance was rendered to make the mission successful, and not only were seeds and official publications given, but the members of the staffs of the various agricultural stations readily gave whatever information was desired and devoted much pains to be of use.

ORPHEUM HOLIDAY BILL.

There was a little bit of everything at the Orpheum last night in the new bill being put on by the Jack Golden company, including two or three songs by Golden himself, and a catchy Billiken Man chorus by the girls. One scene shows a "central" in full blast, with the usual replies to anxious and busy inquirers by the girls. With the exception of an overlong between-acts wait last night, which will be cut out tonight, the show is a good one for the holiday period and should draw good houses tonight and tomorrow.

COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

If more people would make an attempt to get rid of the colds from which they are suffering, as a result of this changeable weather, there would be a decided decrease in the number of cases of pneumonia. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure your cold, and all danger of its hanging on until spring and resulting in pneumonia may be avoided. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaiian Islands.

REVISED VERSION.

Pearsons:—"You claim to be a sailor?" snuffed the doubtful housewife.
"Yes, mum," hastened Hornpipe Harry, as he took a reef in his trousers.
"But you don't make use of that nautical expression 'shiver my timbers'?"
"Oh, no, mum. I say 'shiver my gas bag!' or 'shiver me wings!' I'm an airship sailor, mum."

Luxurious Furniture At Small Cost - - -

The holiday season is one when one who has struggled to furnish the bungalow or cottage should remember that money spent for Christmas gifts would be well spent if used in more completely furnishing the home. Now one can get in Fumed Oak beautiful furniture at comparatively small cost. It is ideal for bungalow use.

Fumed Oak is the name of all kinds of furniture which has the Fumed finish. This finish has been handed down from English craftsmen and was first called Old English Finish, and is obtained by staining the bare wood a beautiful brown tint by means of the fumes of acids. WOOD FRIEND OF NATIONAL GUARD

New Chief of Staff Makes Some Recommendations for Army Good.

The first annual report of Maj-Gen. Leonard Wood, U. S. A., as commander of the department of the East, has been made public. General Wood makes many interesting recommendations, one in particular, which advises a change in the system of handling military convicts. Under given conditions, and as a reward for good conduct, the convicted soldier, he thinks, should be permitted to reenlist.

The National Guard has a good friend in General Wood. That is what he has to say about the coast artillery of the militia:

"It is recommended that at the principal instruction posts a moderate-sized barrack building of semipermanent construction sufficient for seventy-five men be provided for the use of the coast artillery of the organized militia whenever at the post for the purpose of instruction, and that this building be so equipped that they can remain there for several days without undue inconvenience. Every effort is being made to stimulate the interest of the coast artillery of the organized militia in the work laid down for them. Generally speaking, the response has been encouraging.

"Officers in various districts have offered their services as artillery instructors on holidays or whenever detachments of the organized militia may present themselves for instruction.

"Militia armory installation should be pushed forward as rapidly as possible, as, once completed, there will be much more interest shown and better progress made in the instruction of these troops."

General Wood believes that it would be a good thing for the country to turn back into civil life a number of trained soldiers each year. "In view of the fact," he says, "that it is not the policy of the United States to maintain a large army, it is believed that the interests of the country will be best served by turning back into the population each year as many trained soldiers as possible. To this end, reenlistments should be limited to non-commissioned officers and privates first-class. The continued reenlistment of men who have not won classification is not desirable. These men should be turned back into the population. It is almost certain that they will come to the colors in case of war and, if desired, it would be a simple matter to keep track of them and render them available for service at maneuvers by paying an annual compensation. Generally speaking every man so trained is a better citizen, he has more respect for authority, the law and his country's flag. He is a better man physically, a better workman, is more prompt, obedient, and careful. In short, his training makes him more efficient and valuable in civil life."

ARMY CHILDREN HAVE A REAL TREE

The parents and guardians of the children of Manoa Valley school, including the officers of the Salvation Army Home, wish to express their appreciation of the beautiful tree furnished by Miss Brown and the teachers, through the kindness and generosity of the parents and children of College Hills and Manoa Heights.

Matron McAbee of the army home has sent out a circular letter to friends of the institution, a paragraph of which is:

"We can not express our gratitude to our Heavenly Father and to you, our friends, who have made our beautiful home in beautiful Manoa, not only a possibility, but a reality. We thank you. Now on Christmas Eve dear old Santa Claus is coming down the great, beautiful, big chimney that Mr. Kerr has so thoughtfully provided. Shall he come with half a load all the way up there, or will you fill his sleigh so that those reindeers shall have to pull some up the hill? I can just see him now, laughing at the idea of such a question to the dear, big hearts of Hawaii nei."

THE VOLCANO.

Not in many years has the crater at Kilauea been as active as at present. The fires there kindle a desire for knowledge of a scientific nature, and, as far as known, the book recently published by the Hawaiian Gazette Co., Ltd., entitled "Hawaii and Her Volcanoes," by Charles Hitchcock, LL.D., is the only one in existence that fully describes the phenomena. This book is on sale at the different book shops here, and is one that should be in every library. It is fully illustrated by engravings from photographs and sketches, and is sold for $2.00.

TRIAL MAY END THIS AFTERNOON

Defense in Kanagawa Murder Case Rested Yesterday— Insanity Is Plea.

The trial of Kanagawa, charged with the murder of Reyo, Judge Lindsay's Japanese servant woman, will probably come to an end this afternoon. The defense rested yesterday morning at 10:33 o'clock, after having attempted to prove insanity, and there is still one witness to be put on in rebuttal. After the arguments by the opposing attorneys and the instructions by the judge—or the law essays—as the supreme court called them in a recent decision—the case will go to the jury. Kanagawa was in court yesterday, but he looked pretty weak as a result of his self-inflicted wounds. The old divorce suit of Augusta Walsh vs. Patrick Walsh, one of the cases that has cluttered the court calendar for some time, has been dismissed. The petition for divorce was formally denied yesterday by Judge Robinson. The suit was filed February 15, 1908, but the parties to it have since patched up their differences. The final accounts of the Hawaiian Trust Company, executor, and Muriel Campbell Shingle, executrix, under the will of Abigail Campbell-Parker, have been filed in the circuit court. They show receipts of $139,653 of the general principle; receipts of $17,119.89 on account of general income; disbursements of $144,076.45 on account of general principal and of $6125.31 on account of general income. The total value of the personal property is $307,149.65.

WEATHER BULLETIN

For the Week Ended Dec. 18, 1909.

Honolulu, T. H., Dec. 20, 1909.

General Summary.

The rainfall was very light throughout the section, and every station having a record of ten or more years reported a deficiency as compared with the average. Good rains are believed to have occurred on the windward sides of Hawaii and Maui on the 18th and 19th. These will be most opportune, as the need of rain was being severely felt in the Kohala and Hamakua districts; and in the latter district the moisture in the mountains was becoming very small in amount. The following are the departures from the average of ten or more years, in inches, in the several districts of the different islands: Hawaii—North Kohala—0.98 to -1.13, Hamakua—1.33 and -1.34, North Hilo—2.14 to -2.70, Puna—1.51, Kau—0.55, and North Kona—0.62; Maui—Makawao—1.28; Oahu—Koolauloa—0.70, Koolau—1.61, Honolulu—0.47, Ewa—0.72, and Waianae—0.66; and Kauai—Hanalei—1.30, and Waimea—0.55. The following are the amounts of rainfall, in inches, during the week in the several districts: Hawaii—North Kohala 0.00 to 0.15, Hamakua 0.16 to 0.32, North Hilo 0.06 to 0.13, South Hilo 0.00 to 0.33, Puna 0.04 to 0.07, Kan 0.11, South Kona 0.00, and North Kona 0.00—and the average weekly amount was the smallest in about two years; Maui—Makawao 0.20 to 0.57, Hana 0.06, Wailuku 0.09 to 0.13; Oahu—Koolauloa 0.15, Koolau 0.04, Honolulu 0.35, Ewa trace to 0.29, and Waianae 0.00; Kauai—Hanalei 0.14, Lihue 0.34, Koloa 0.29, and Waimea 0.00; and Molokai—Molokai 0.05 to 0.47.

All stations in the North Hilo, South Hilo, Puna, Kau, South Kona and North Kona districts of Hawaii, all in the Koolau, Honolulu, Ewa and Waianae districts of Oahu, and all on Maui and Kauai report less rainfall than during the preceding week—the deficiencies in the South Hilo, Puna, Kau, South Kona and North Kona districts of Hawaii, generally on Kauai, and in the Hana district of Maui being considerable. Decidedly lower mean temperatures than those of the preceding week were reported from Kauai, the southeastern portion of the Molokai district of Molokai, the Honolulu and Waianae districts of Oahu, the Hana district of Maui, and the North Kohala, Hamakua, Puna and southern portion of the South Hilo districts of Hawaii, the changes ranging generally from 2.0 deg. to 3.2 deg. A northwest gale occurred at Kahu, Oahu, on the 14th. The following table shows the weekly averages of temperature and rainfall for the principal islands and for the group:

Table with columns: Temperature, Rainfall, Hawaii, Maui, Oahu, Kauai, Molokai, Entire group.

At the local office of the United States Weather Bureau in Honolulu clear to partly cloudy weather generally obtained, with traces of rainfall on three dates and measurable amounts on the last two days amounting to 0.35 inch, 0.47 below the normal amount for the week, and 0.32 less than during the preceding week. The maximum temperature was 78 deg., minimum 62 deg., and mean 71.0 deg., 1.0 deg. less than the normal, and 2.2 deg. lower than last week's. The mean daily relative humidity varied from 66 per cent. to 82 per cent., and the mean for the week was 74.6 per cent.—about 5 per cent. above normal. Northerly winds prevailed on the 14th and northeasterly on the remaining dates, with an average hourly velocity of 7.9 miles. The mean daily barometer ranged from 29.94 to 30.03 inches, and the mean for the week, 29.99, was 0.02 inch above normal.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASES HAVE FRILLS

Three of Them Looked Into by Police Develop Rather Unusual Features.

Three assault and battery cases came to the attention of the police yesterday, all of them replete with humor, and the offenders were caught in each case. Of the three cases, two arrests were made in the police station itself. The first man arrested for battering up his neighbors was Police Officer David Keawe, on a warrant sworn to by L. Ah Leong.

Ah Leong was arrested Sunday by Keawe for violation of the Sunday laws and he says that he was mishandled.

The second arrest, a few hours later, was of M. Mascot, who was also caught in the police station. He had placed his fist on his wife's jaw with such good intent that it swelled up half again its natural size and she came down to the police station to swear out a complaint. Her devoted husband, fearing that she would get into trouble, arrived just in time to be received with open arms by the entire force.

The third arrest followed an exciting and unusual scrap over a dried squid, which delicacy was the bone of contention between David Kuakapu and Mrs. Ito. It is not recorded how the trouble started but it ended up by the offender throwing his better half out of the window. The couple live on Peterson lane and the wife, Niau Kuakapu, after being thrown through the window continued to the police station where she lodged a complaint against her obstreperous husband. She was almost naked, most of her clothes being torn off in the scrap. Kuakapu was arrested by officer Nobriga.

TO SEIZE ITO FILM.

Japan Times—The purchase of the cinematograph film of the Harbin incident has actually been effected at Harbin by an agent of Mr. Tanomogi. The contract provides that in case of any copy of the film being found existing, the whole property of the proprietor is to be seized. We further learn that the proprietor, Mr. Kopzeff, intends to come over to Japan, taking the film with him and, if desired, to speak about the tragedy in public. He is expected here in the middle of the next month.

NO WIRELESS CONNECTION.

Japan Times—The experiments in communication between Japan and America by wireless telegraphy commenced on Friday week came to an end on Thursday. It seems that the experiment has been a failure for no answer has been received from America or Hawaii.

WHAT THE PRESS AGENTS SAY.

Bonnie.

There is an exceptional series of interesting and delightful scenes on at The Bonnie this week—a special arrangement planned for Christmas week and for the convenience of school children, for the list includes a number of most interesting things that every student in Honolulu should see. "The Parks of Berlin" are an interesting series that will touch the pride of every loyal German or anyone interested in the pretty places of the world. "Behind the Mask" illustrates a bit of domestic realism that comes home to one, and "The Enchanted Manor House" and "The Fiddlers" add a bit of innocent humor, and "The Little Busybody" and "Catching Turtles" will be a novelty to you and help you remember having seen "something different."

The ingenious novelties of Ford and Hovey will add an interest out of the ordinary, and as a bit of clever musical vaudeville add "that needed zest."

Novelty Theater.

Happy Jack Walker has written three skits for the Novelty Theater, to be presented this week. The titles probably indicate the course of the plays, but in these degenerate days it sometimes happens that when there is a plot it does not give with the title and the words do not bear any relation to the name. Walker, however, gets busy with the funnybones of his audience, and, regardless of anything else, he draws a laugh. Miss Cooper is pleasing, and with Mr. Walker the stunts go along merrily. The motion pictures are very good.

Band's Schedule.

The schedule of the Hawaiian band for the remainder of this week is as follows: Today, at the Mauna Kea dock at noon and in Thomas Square this evening; Wednesday morning at the departure of the Alameda, and Wednesday night at Aala Park; Thursday at the Christmas tree at Fort de Russy; Saturday at the malihini Christmas tree in Bishop Park.

Band Concert.

The Hawaiian band will give a concert tonight at Thomas Square, commencing at 7:30 o'clock, with the following program:

March—The Yankee Navy..... Sousa
Overture—Rosamunde..... Schubert
Finale—Vesper Bells (new)..... Clark
Selection—The Belle Brittany..... Talbot
Local songs..... Ar. by Berger
Selection—Three Twins..... Hoscha
Waltz—Vienna Stories..... Strauss
Intermezzo—Jungle Moon (new).....
..... Wenrich
Star Spangled Banner.

JUDGE WOODRUFF SAILS ON KOREA

Leaves Federal Bench and Hawaii—Farewell Speeches
Made in Court.

Judge Woodruff has gone. His brief stay in Hawaii and his term as second judge of the United States District Court terminated yesterday afternoon when he, accompanied by Mrs. Woodruff, sailed on the Korea for the Coast, en route to New York, where the ex-judge is to become secretary of the Pocahontas Fuel Company.

Appropriate remarks concerning the departure of the judge were made in court yesterday morning, Judge Dole, District Attorney Breckons and Attorney Lightfoot expressing the regret of the bench and bar that Judge Woodruff's stay in Hawaii had to terminate so suddenly and after so brief a residence on his part.

Judge Woodruff replied to the words of farewell, and took occasion to remark that he had no idea when he came here that his stay would be so short. He said that he was greatly surprised two weeks ago to receive the cablegram from New York which caused him to tender his resignation and make preparations to leave for the East. When he came here, he said, it was with the expectation of remaining indefinitely, and he was in a way very sorry to leave so soon. He was sure, he said, that he would not find his surroundings in New York any more congenial than he had found them in Hawaii.

JUSTICE PERRY IS OFF ON VACATION

Departed by Korea for Stay of Three Weeks on the Mainland.

Justice Antonio Perry of the Hawaiian Supreme Court departed for the Coast yesterday on the Pacific Mail steamship Korea, to be absent about three weeks. He will go only as far as California and will be back here early in January.

With Judge Wilder resigned and Perry on his way east, the supreme bench is represented now by only Chief Justice Hartwell.

The government departments are fairly well represented by absentees. Governor Frear is away, Attorney-General Hemenway is on the mainland, Judge Perry is on the high seas, City and County Attorney Cathcart is off on a vacation, the second federal judge-ship is vacant, and even the county clerk's stenographer left yesterday on a vacation.

TWO JUDGMENTS IN CIVIL COURT

Past Due Mills Is Rendered Exceedingly Happy by a Small Award.

Two judgments in civil cases were handed down yesterday afternoon by Judge Andrade in small suits in assumpsit. Past Due Mills was awarded $23.43 from G. W. Spencer, G. W. Peavey being garnishee in the case. Past Due was very much pleased over the decision.

Goo Wan Hoy was awarded a judgment of $26.70 from David Herman, the Honolulu Construction and Draying Company, being garnishee. This is practically a repetition of another suit decided some time ago, in which Davies & Co. was garnishee, but as it turned out that they had the wrong garnishee, it had to be retried.

George Lycurgus' case against Tam Young Fong was tried and the genial proprietor of the Union Grill is now on anxious seat, because the decision won't be handed down until Wednesday. He claims that the defendant broke the contract implied in a lease of certain property from Lycurgus by not taking out an insurance policy, and the defendant claims that he did take it out.

The following cases have been continued: J. J. Byrne, plaintiff, versus John T. Staff, defendant—Henry E. Raston, garnishee—to December 22; Lee Cane, plaintiff, versus Chang On, defendant, to December 22; J. J. Byrne, plaintiff, versus J. C. Axtell, defendant, to January 21; P. Silva, plaintiff, versus Charles Bradley, defendant—J. H. Fisher, garnishee—to December 27; Charles T. Wilder, plaintiff, versus J. W. Podmore, defendant, to December 31.

At the morning session to dispose of the misdemeanor cases, Henry Aki was fined $11 for embezzling a blue slipper. Three drunks were given various fines in accordance with the amount of goods "found on board."

ANOTHER CEREMONY NECESSARY

Chicago Tribune.—The young married man had been on the road about a year. He had just told his wife that the firm had given him a position in the store and he would not have to travel any more.

"Oh, won't that be fine, George," she exclaimed. "Now we'll be married again and settle down!"

ONE DISTINCTION.

Chicago Tribune.—Irate Caller—Your paper accused me this morning of running over a man with my motorcycle. It isn't true. It was an automobile.

Editor—Well, what's the difference? Irate Caller—The difference? About $850.

HELP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Honolulu People Know How to Save It.

Many Honolulu people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Honolulu citizen's recommendation:

James C. L. Armstrong, Nuanuu Valley, Honolulu, Hawaii, says: "I was a sufferer from kidney trouble for three years and Doan's Backache Kidney Pills completely cured me. I have had no return of the complaint during the past year. I cannot recommend this remedy too highly."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box (six boxes $2.50) or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

RUTHLESS INTERROGATORS.

Washington Star.—"I hate people who pry into personal affairs."
"With whom do you expect trouble; customs inspectors or census takers?"

GOING SOME.

Puck.—"My uncle used to smoke his pipe and blow smoke rings that would float across the room and ring the door-knob."

"My uncle," said the other liar, dreamily, "used to blow some that would ring the doorbell."

MALIHINI TREE ALMOST ASSURED

Promoters Are Working Hard for This Unique Christmas Celebration.

With but a few days more in which to arrange the details of the malihini Christmas tree, those who are arranging it this year, have been kept on the jump. Although quite a large sum has been raised by those working for a merry Christmas for the poor children of the city, there is still a good deal more needed.

The promoters of the scheme feel that Honolulu ought to be willing and able to do for itself what a few strangers did for it when at a loss how to spend their Christmas.

Up to last night $188 had been received and those in charge are looking for $300 in all. There were a large number of contributors, and each, after putting in his own, became a worker for the cause himself. The contributors to the fund so far are:

- Melneery Shoe Company, Mrs. Robert W. Shingle, Mrs. W. F. Allen, Miss Allen, Mrs. Peavy, Minneapolis; Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Mary Cheltam, Mrs. M. Siemons, H. Hackfeld & Co., Mrs. S. Walker, Mrs. Brainerd Smith, Brewer & Co., Doctor Hodgins, J. McCallister, Friend, W. W. Williamson, W. G. Irwin & Co., Silva Toggery, Mrs. S. Wilder, Mrs. A. Berg, Mr. Sharp, Miss Johnson, Weedon Bazaar, A. Friend, Ioshima, R. O. Matheson, Melneery Limited, Mrs. C. Holloway, Henry May & Co., Palm Cafe, Lewis & Co., Levy, Blom, Sachs, Mrs. Klamp, W. W. Hall, Churchill Harvey-Elder, R. K. Bonine.

FLINT TO ASSUME ROLE OF PACIFIER

WASHINGTON, December 19.—Senator Flint of California may develop into the real pacifier of the Taft administration. Flint is at work on a water-power bill and he expressed confidence yesterday that he would get both Secretary Ballinger and Gifford Pinchot to support it. He is going to put to proof the deduction of President Taft which he shares in himself, that the interior and forestry chiefs are not so wide apart after all.

The senator, who is advising with Attorney-General Wickersham, insists the companies shall be granted no title in perpetuity. He does not believe it important whether the state or federal government shall erect charges or bill will provide for thorough publicity as to investment, bond issues, capitalization, etc., so that whichever authority is to exercise regulatory powers can do so intelligently and effectively.

TWO NEW SONGS.

Two new songs have been presented to the Honolulu public by Marge F. Maroni and Captain Berger, the former writing the words and Berger putting music to them. Lilehua, the first issued, has become quite well known and the second, Oahu, Oahu Thou Isle of the Sea, is up to the standard of the first. The music is not typically Hawaiian, but the airs have a good swing to them and are original. They are printed in excellent form and George Ewaliko has added a Hawaiian translation to Lilehua.

TRANSFERABLE.

"You insist on laughing at my new hat," said Mrs. Cumrox, severely. "Yes," answered her husband. "I can't get away from the idea that it is a joke." "A joke? On whom?" "Well, when you wear it, the joke's on you, and when I pay for it, it's on me."—Washington Star.
