GOV. CLEGHORN FOR RELIEF BILL

Clear Views on Pressing Needs of This Territory.

"I am both surprised and sorry to see that a small portion of the public and the press is opposing the suspension of the Coastwise Laws," stated Governor Cleghorn yesterday. "In their opposition, from whatever cause it arises, they are opposing the vital interests of the Territory for a few ship owners who have shown the Territory little consideration. Open ships with regard to passenger traffic means more passengers for the American ships, in the long run, and much more freight. The application of the Coastwise Laws to Hawaii is a gross absurdity and something which was never intended when the laws were passed.

"In my opinion there is nothing now so detrimental to the advancement of these Islands as the present shipping laws. We are losing tourists, we are losing the money we are spending to develop a tourist traffic and we are losing trade. These laws were passed a hundred years ago and were intended to be what the name implies, 'Coastwise' laws. The ones who passed the laws never in the wildest stretches of their imaginations contemplated overseas possessions and there never was any contemplation of the extension of these laws over two thousand miles of the Pacific to places off the mainland. I do not know another country in the world that has such an absurd construction on a law.

"It is not the part of little Hawaii to strut around as the great upholder either of the principles of protection or of the flag. When the heads of the Republican party admit the injustice of the law there is no call upon us to tell them that they are mistaken and that our loyalty to the flag and our convictions on the principles of the party forbid us accepting what would be given us. In taking that position we are not only ungrateful but ludicrous and are doing ourselves an injustice for the sake of a silly pose.

"I have talked on this question with the members of the Congressional party, with Secretary Straus, with Secretary Garfield, with Mr. Newell, with Commissioner Loomis, who is to be Assistant Secretary of State, and with others in authority, and each one of them has admitted the injustice of the present

HIS MIND A BLANK FOR FOURTEEN LONG YEARS

Hit on the Head in 1895, Revolutionist James Lane Was Insane Until Tuesday When Relieved by an Operation.

James Lane, one of the band of Hawaiians who participated in the '95 uprising when Charles Carter was killed at Diamond Head, and who was among the prisoners taken to the police station where he received an injury to his skull which mentally incapacitated him, was operated on last Tuesday morning, and the pressure of a portion of the skull upon the brain has not only been eliminated but the patient is almost in his normal condition.

For the past thirteen years Mr. Lane has been confined to his home, under restraint at all times, his mind a blank as to what was going on around him. The injury to his skull is said to have been caused by blows on the head with the butt of a rifle. The skull was fractured. An operation was performed years ago, but the pressure was not altogether removed. Dr. O'Day performed another operation last Tuesday removing the outer and inner surfaces of the skull entirely, leaving an open

BONINE FILMS AT BIG FAIR

Also Some Hawaiian Fishes if They Can Be Kept Alive.

Three thousand two hundred feet of moving-picture films and not less than 240 lantern slides of scenes in the Hawaiian Islands will be used to illustrate lectures and talks on the Islands at the Alaska-Yukon Exposition this summer. The films and slides will be furnished by R. K. Bonine, the moving-picture expert, the matter being settled at a meeting of the Exposition Commissioners held yesterday afternoon.

It was decided that for a forty-minute lecture in the auditorium, which will be controlled by the United States government and allotted to the various exhibitors, that at least sixty slides and 800 feet of film could be used for each lecture. It may be that more film will be used but 800 feet will be the minimum contracted for by the commissioners. It is expected that lectures will be made not only by Loyd Childs, who will be in charge of Hawaii's exhibit at the exposition, but by Honolulu visitors. Commissioner Knudsen expressed his willingness to speak and there is assurance of a volunteer force of able speakers who will present Hawaii's scenic attractions, her varied industries and healthful climate to the anticipated large audiences.

Messrs. Morgan and Childs were appointed a committee to make a report

MUNICIPAL TEST CASE IN SIGHT

Board's Action Tonight Will Probably Open Way for Court Decision.

The various matters in dispute between His Honor and the Supervisors will probably reach a court proceeding stage by tomorrow or Saturday. Whether all the points at issue can be covered with one suit or not is one of the things yet to be learned. Tonight the Supervisors consider the Mayor's veto of their appropriation bill, and, although by subsequent action the board has acknowledged the propriety of some of the vetoing reasons, it is a certainty that the majority will override the Mayor's disapproval and bring the ordinance into force.

Then the various salaries arranged for by the Supervisorial committees and the various salaries arranged for by the Mayor in his appointments will be demanded and the demands will be duly considered by the City Fathers. Those of the Republican stripe will be duly

JJI CONTINUES TO ABUSE THE PLANTERS

"Are there any more inhuman and cold-blooded than the Hawaiian planters?" asks the Nippu Jiji, in its issue yesterday, answering its own query in its own particular way, continuing: "We think not. We shall never find more covetous people than they in the whole world. The most pitiable people are those who are employed by these planters, who forget the kindnesses and the help of others. The ones who most deserve sympathy in this world are the resident Japanese laborers."

The Jiji gives an alleged list of comparison of the wage scales of the different nationalities represented among the plantation laborers; dwells on the destitution to be found in the Japanese plantation camps, and hands out the usual compliments to its contemporaries of traitors, dogs and spies.

"Why do not the planters raise the wages?" it demands. "How can they answer the charges against them of avarice, inhumanity and cold-heartedness?"

That the present anti-Japanese agitation in California is a part of a long-distance plot on the part of the planters is a grave assurance of the Jiji, who refers to that part of the nefarious conduct of the Hawaiian planters as "treading down the treaty rights of the Japanese and treating us as they do the Chinese," while President Roosevelt, himself, comes in for the censure of the Japanese paper, his enforcement of the restriction clause of the immigration law being styled "an unlawful mandate."

The Federal grand jury did not call any witnesses in the Japanese agitation matter yesterday, but action on the part of the jury is expected within a short time.

ZIP! BOOM! KONOHI! BANG!

Chinese New Year Born Amid Bursting Bombs and Firecrackers.

Whatever stray devils may have been lurking throughout Chinatown at midnight were properly driven out and their power for evil fumigated with the million or so of firecrackers, bombs and other smoky noisemakers squibbed, exploded and set off during the first few minutes of the first year of the reign of Pu Yi, the same being the twenty-four hundred and sixtieth of Confucius. Konohi arrived on the dot and Chinatown and a goodly portion of the rest of the city knew it. Miles of firecrackers, bushels of squibs, hundreds of bombs and more than the usual number of bursting sky rockets made the night one of jollity and racket.

There were more haoles throughout the Oriental quarters for the first jubiliations of the new year than possibly any former such occasion in the city; automobiles ran the gauntlet of fire up and down Hotel, Maunakea, King and Beretania streets, hacks drawn by terrified and plunging horses dashed through the fring lines and pedestrians in quite large numbers clustered on the least bombarded corners to watch the interesting proceedings. The corner of Maunakea and Hotel streets was perhaps the noise center, and there, immediately after midnight, the roar of the firecrackers, dangling in great ropes from nearly every window and spluttering in their fiery throes, was ear-splitting. In every quarter of the city where there is a Chinese family, there were firecrackers, but nowhere else to the extent of the heart of the Chinese section downtown. There, after the bombardment, the streets were ankle deep in frazzled red papers, and the fact that no fire alarms were turned in was one of the incomprehensible annual things about the konochi affairs.

The police were fairly well represented on the Chinatown streets, and whenever an over-zealous celebrator could be found lighting overgrown bombs he was stopped and had to go round the corner to make his noise. The Chinamen took the interference with their joy-making very agreeably, apparently, and otherwise paid little attention to it. There were no accidents reported.

This morning the various club houses will receive New Year callers. The United Chinese Society, on King street, will hold a reception from ten o'clock until one this afternoon, while the Quon On, on Maunakea street, the Kok On Fui and the Bo Leong Sai, on Kukui street, the Chinese Reform Association, on King, and others will keep open house and dispense liehis and melon-seeds to all and sundry. SAN FRANCISCO AND A PART OF THE STATE IN GRIP OF GREAT STORM

Torrential Rains Falling in Central and Northern California--Los Angeles Wants Mayor Recalled.

(Associated Press Cablegrams.)

SAN FRANCISCO, January 21.—The severest rainstorm which has visited this Coast in seven years, accompanied by a terrific gale, broke upon this city last night, cutting off wire communications for several hours. Torrential rains are falling over the central and northern parts of the State, and washouts are probable. Trains are greatly delayed, and by tomorrow may be stalled in the Sacramento valley.

SACRAMENTO, January 21.—Car service here has been suspended for several hours because of the storm.

LOS ANGELES WOULD GET RID OF ITS MAYOR

LOS ANGELES, January 21.—A mass meeting, held last night, voted to recall Mayor Harper for misconduct in office. He is charged with protecting vice.

[The referendum and recall is in operation in California and the latter power was used about two years ago in an effort, which proved abortive, to displace Mayor Waterhouse of Pasadena.]

STOCK AND BOND MARKET STILL STRONG

The midweek trades on the stock and bond exchange indicate that there is no falling away from the upward tendency in prices inaugurated with the New Year. On Tuesday and yesterday, Claas sold up to five dollars, an advance of .25 over the opening figures. Seven hundred shares changed hands on Tuesday, while another lot of forty brought the same even figure yesterday. Brewer has advanced on the announcement of the increased dividend, one hundred and fifty shares yesterday selling at $23, an advance of three dollars over Monday's figure, while 23 1/2 is now asked. McEryde dropped off an eighth, although no news from Kauai except that of a minor strike, quickly settled, and a small cane fire could have had any effect on the value of the stock. O. R. & L. is leading the way in advances, being held now at $130, Tuesday's sales of three blocks of 35, 40 and 10 shares being made at $125, a jump of five

MILITARY ESCORT FOR ALMY'S PENHOLDERS

"I was quite flustered," said U. S. Commissioner Almy yesterday, "when a United States wagon drawn by four mules, with four soldiers and a paymaster aboard, drew up in front of my office and deposited a small box on my counter, which came all the way from Washington. If the soldiers had worn sidearms I might have thought they came on a different errand. That box, brought with all this ceremony, contained a pad of penholders, an eraser sharpener, a bottle of ink and a few other accessories which will keep the Commissioner's office supplied for the new fiscal half year. If the department ever sends me a new office chair, I shall expect to have it delivered by the Fifth Cavalry."

Ewa is quiet this week, although it has been up until now one of the most traded in stocks.

"TRANSPORTATION AND PATRIOTISM."

What the Bulletin Said on the Coastwise Steamship Law Before the Matson Line Began Giving Its Editor Free Trips.

(Bulletin, August 9, 1907.)

Secretary Straus has gone over the situation in Hawaii and finds that what Hawaii most needs is transportation.

Congressman Cocks in seeking a solution for the problems of Hawaii named transportation as the first necessity.

The Bulletin does not claim it as a remarkable compliment that these and other leaders of the nation have reached the same conclusion advanced by this paper these many months.

The situation is obvious to any intelligent citizen who will take the time to study the conditions in these islands and honestly seek the way out that will bring the greatest good to the greatest number.

The Bulletin is not an enthusiast over the suspension of the coastwise shipping laws. It prefers to have the American capitalists build American ships that will satisfy all the legitimate demand of transportation between these islands and the mainland. The Bulletin wants to see the American flag dominate the commerce of the Pacific.

But the fact of the matter is, that American capital controlling American ships is not giving the service this Territory has reason to expect and which the present business and developing business of these islands justify.

The ship owners and the moneyed men tell our people that the best possible is being done, since they are forced to operate without a ship subsidy. The Bulletin will not attempt to dispute the statements of these gentlemen, who, it is assumed, know their business.

The American people as represented in the Congress of the United States have declared against granting a ship subsidy.

That settles ship subsidies for the present at least.

Therefore the question comes down to one of whether the American people have any right to leave the population of Hawaii with their prospects of progress hung up between the devil of an American ship owner, who says he can not operate without a subsidy, and the deep blue sea of American indifference to the prestige of American shipping on the Pacific Ocean.

Some one may say that Hawaii is not patriotic because it even contemplates the use of foreign ships. The Bulletin was once disposed to this view. The lesson in patriotism we have had in the inactivity of Congress and ship-builders has continued just long enough to convince us that it is about time the Territory was treated to a little reciprocal patriotism.

What sort of patriotism is it that hamstrings the prosperity of a Territory by refusing to furnish it with sufficient transportation facilities of a certain definite "legal" type and in the same breath excludes all our people from the use of the ships of other nations?

What sort of patriotism would it be for our country to pass a law that no person be allowed to travel on the Canadian Pacific railway trains within the borders of the United States because the Canadian Pacific railway is controlled by foreign capital?

The people of the State or States through which the Canadian Pacific runs would not stand for it. The proposition would be laughed out of Congress.

Yet a patriotism of very much the same stripe is what the American capitalists who will not put on the American ships, and the American Congress that will not subsidize American ships are demanding, not asking, but forcing upon the people of the Territory of Hawaii.

They have no right to make such an extraordinary demand. They have the right. That's all.

But this paper does not believe in leaving it all to Congress to amend, or Mr. Secretary Straus to suspend any infamous laws or lack of laws, that may be doing our fair land an injury. We are all too willing to let Congress do something for us, and everything if possible.

Suspension of the coastwise shipping laws will not completely solve the problem of transportation for these islands. It will not necessarily give us the liners between this city and the ports of the Pacific Coast which we must have if the passengers who apply are to be carried.

The people of these islands have freight. That is what the owners of American ships are looking for. We bring from the mainland goods which for the eleven months ending last May were valued at more than twelve millions of dollars. During the same period we sent produce to the mainland ports that was valued at about twenty-four millions of dollars.

That represents freight, and the vast majority of this freight goes to shipping interests that make a good profit out of Hawaii's business but do little or nothing in the way of furnishing passenger service.

The Bulletin believes it to be the rankest kind of folly for the business men of these islands to allow this condition to continue.

When it is possible for our business leaders to get together on every other question that comes up, it ought not to be impossible for these men to assemble their forces back of a message running to this effect:

"Hawaii will give its freight to the transportation lines that will give the Territory first-class passenger service with mainland ports."

If such a movement is once started, we believe there will be some genuine activity in shipping circles that is not now in evidence.

The people of Hawaii should get together for the purpose of forcing a square deal from the people of the mainland and the capitalists, the square deal which is now not even granted us in theory. Under any circumstances, success can only be attained by united, honest, enthusiastic campaigning, and refusal to accept stones of promise for the real bread of Hawaii's life—transportation.

GOVERNOR CLEGHORN FOR RELIEF BILL

application of the shipping law to Hawaii. Time after time I have been told by tourists visiting here that they would like to stay here longer if there was any assurance of their being able to get away; many times I have known of people making up their minds not to come to Hawaii because of the wretchedness of our shipping conditions. Now, to refuse something that will remedy this condition, something arranged for us by our friends, would be the height of foolishness.

"Get a ship subsidy if possible, but in the meanwhile get something that will at once relieve the condition we are suffering under. Tourists, as a rule, are not so very patriotic as to go to the trouble of selecting American bottoms to travel on, while we do not expect all our tourists to be Americans. Tourists want good boats, and there are good boats coming here now under foreign flags and others are to come. I believe that the North German Lloyd will put on two of their liners next year, while the Japanese have another great steamer building for this run. The British have placed two beautiful new boats in commission on the Honolulu run. Are the Americans always to drag behind and we and our visitors to be compelled always to travel on inferior boats because the American government will not subsidize their lines? If the American government does not want to pass a ship subsidy measure and keep the American merchant marine on the seas, then let it disappear. Honolulu can not keep it going, and we are only hurting ourselves in trying it."

"It is not to be expected, of course, that we should have the fast liners on the Pacific as yet that they have on the Atlantic, but there is no reason in these days why we should have to travel on seven-day boats between here and San Francisco. The time should be at hand when we can have a five-day service. The Atlantic boats could make the run in four days. Three ears ago, I traveled to the Coast on the Ventura, one of our greyhounds. The weather conditions were perfect, but our runs by days were: Hour of sailing, 3 p. m.; noon first day, 269 miles; then 311, 324, 338, 349, and 318 miles, with 230 the last day, making port. Coming back, I know of three different persons who tried to get accommodations for Honolulu on the Pacific Mail liner I sailed on and could not. Those are the conditions that kept Hawaii back. Those are the conditions some here seem to think ought to be continued."

"Tourists and world travelers will not submit to be compelled to travel on any particular line any more than they would go to a place where they had to live at any particular hotel. People want to travel on what boats they please. Americans have that privilege on the Atlantic and they have that privilege on the Pacific except when they want to come to Honolulu. It is absurd that this place should be so restricted."

"I notice that the Californian representatives of the Chamber of Commerce traveled to Japan on a Japanese liner. Now the San Francisco Chamber wants us to deny ourselves and our tourists the same rights as they possess and the rights that the Transmississippi Congress, representing all the commercial bodies west of the Mississippi, decided that we were entitled to."

Anti-Japanese Legislation.

In discussing the general political and commercial affairs of the Islands, Governor Cleghorn expressed his regret that any such bill as is proposed by Senator Coelho, to prohibit the Japanese from fishing in Hawaiian waters, should be brought up at all. "With one-third of our population without representation in our government, that third the Japanese, we should be very careful about agitating anti-Japanese measures which can not possibly become law. It simply makes a bad feeling. I see Coelho says that his measure is to help the Hawaiian fishermen. What is there keeping back the Hawaiian fishermen? If they want to fish, why don't they? Nobody is preventing them."

"If the Hawaiians would get to work and not waste so much time on politics, they would be better off."

approved to the tune of about six eyes to one and those of the Democrats will be hoisted to the table by the same vote. This will give another opportunity for the Mayor to defend his right to appoint under Section 146 and give the majority another chance to outvote McClellan. Under the authority of the majority of the board, the city employes in office by right of possession will make their demands for warrants upon the Auditor, which will be respectfully declined. Then mandamus proceedings will be brought to compel the Auditor to issue the warrants and the matter will be on.

In the same way, it is possible that the board will be mandamus on the part of the Democratic appointed employes to compel the passing of their salary warrants.

This is the program being looked forward to. Auditor Bicknell stated yesterday that his course will depend upon the action of the Supervisors tonight, although he has previously stated that he will be compelled to refuse to issue any warrants for the payment of city moneys so long as there was a question of the legality of the legislation respecting the payments.

"Trent is lucky in this thing," says the Auditor, "he has his course already laid down by the courts. He is all right, whatever happens, but it is up to me, apparently, to have the matter tested out."

Mayor Buys New Furniture.

"The only important thing in my department today is the fact that I have visited the furniture stores and picked out the furniture for my office. That's the most important thing I know of," said the Mayor yesterday, who was found in the Auditor's office, with clerks from some of the other departments gathered around listening to a few of his Abraham Lincoln tales.

His Honor has already established a great reputation as a raconteur around the city offices and what would otherwise be dreary hours to some of the hard-driven employes are brightened through the opportunity to listen to "Joe" as he narrates tales of adventure by land and sea.

DOPE ON THE BOXING GAME

Prospects of Smith-Reilly and Sullivan-Peterson Bouts.

The fight fan is beginning to take an interest in the coming go between Messrs. Frankie Smith and Charlie Reilly, the two boys which Joel Cohen, to use his own terms, imported at prodigious cost, and who are matched to spar fifteen rounds on the night of the 30th inst., at the Orpheum.

Of course the usual line of hot air is being handed out about the match having been made in San Francisco, and Cohen having had to bid against Coast promoters. This, of course, is interesting press work, the facts of the case being that both Reilly and Smith found very little demand for their services at the Coast and were glad enough to embrace the opportunity to return to this good old easy burg.

Reilly and Smith are nice enough boys and will doubtless furnish a scrap which will be worth paying a dollar or so to witness. It isn't a high-priced card, however, and if Promoter Joel wants to see his house well filled he will do well to bill the show at popular prices. At that he should make money, unless he has set his mind on making it all at once.

The Miller-Sullivan go left a bad taste in the mouths of many ring-goers and now that Cohen has got a card which doesn't look like turning out to be a gold brick he should leave no effort unspared to gather the boxing enthusiasts under the Orpheum's roof and show them that he can deliver the goods.

As to the Reilly-Smith fracas, it looks as if Reilly should win. He is a clever little boxer and as gritty as they make them. Also he can sting some.

Frankie Smith was expected to do things to Sailor Trinkle of the battleship Maryland when they met in the pavilion of the Independence Athletic Club last year. He showed poorly, however, and had he faced Reilly that night the latter would have made a monkey out of him.

It is true that Trinkle outweighed Smith, but at that it was a case of an untutored sailor stacking up against a touted professional—and getting decidedly the worst of it.

Had such a decision been given in San Francisco as was rendered in the Trinkle-Smith bout, the crowd would have torn the place down getting their money back.

Smith is working hard, at least, he is said to be. In this he shows wisdom, for he will need to be in the fittest possible physical shape when he stacks up against Charlie Reilly.

The preliminaries look good. The four-round affair between Kid Boquet and Eddie Hines will introduce in the latter a boxer new to Honolulu. Hines came here with Cohen's bunch and must be able to go some or he wouldn't have been brought along. Boquet hasn't shown much up to the present, but he is ambitious and willing to learn and may have improved since his opera bouffe bout with Young Scott.

The other preliminary will be an eight-round affair between Soldier Miller and "Punchbowl" Silva. Miller is the man who undertook the task of lowering Dick Sullivan's colors, and who got decisively lowered himself in the attempt.

Silva is some scrapper, even if he has a streak of gamboze in his make-up as broad as the dragon flag, and has a kick like a mule if he even lands. If Miller doesn't show better than he did when he opposed Sullivan, the Portuguese will surely slay him.

The mill between Dick Sullivan and George Peterson will probably take place two weeks from Saturday night and should draw a record crowd. For some reason the big men draw better than the little ones.

Sullivan is better than he ever was in his life just now. The salt water and open air system of training have worked wonders in his condition and the duration of the coming bout, fifteen rounds, will suit him to a nicety. It is extremely improbable that Kyle Whitney could stop Sullivan in fifteen rounds in the shape the latter is in today.

The referee for the Smith-Reilly bout has not yet been selected. A number of names have been mentioned but that of Dick Sullivan seems to meet with the most support. Sullivan knows the game from beginning to end and would undoubtedly render a good decision.

SOCCER SCHEDULE IS NOW ARRANGED

At a meeting of the Interscholastic Athletic League held yesterday afternoon, the following schedule of soccer football for the coming season was decided upon.

- Jan. 30—High School vs. Aliiolani; Punahou vs. Kam.; Kamehameha ground.
- Feb. 1—Kam. vs. Aliiolani; High School vs. Punahou; Punahou ground.
- Feb. 6—Punahou vs. Aliiolani; Kam. vs. High School; Kamehameha ground.
- Feb. 8—Punahou vs. Kam.; High School vs. Aliiolani; Punahou ground.
- Feb. 13—High School vs. Punahou; Kam. vs. Aliiolani; Kamehameha ground.
- Feb. 15—Kam. vs. High School; Punahou vs. Aliiolani; Punahou ground.

RIVERSIDE LEAGUE PASS RESOLUTION

The Riverside Baseball League held a meeting at noon yesterday in the office of A. L. C. Atkinson.

The following teams were represented: Japanese Athletics, by J. K. Notley; Chinese Athletics, by E. S. Kong; Palama Athletic Club, by A. K. Vierra.

President Atkinson was in the chair. The only business transacted was the adoption of the following resolution:

To the president and representatives of the Riverside Baseball League: Whereas, the Reach All-American baseball team is due to arrive here on or about the 29th inst., and scheduled to play a series of games with the All-Hawaii team, an aggregation of local players, and

Whereas, it is the desire of some of the players of the Riverside League to participate in said schedule of games, be it therefore Resolved, that such players of this league participating in any or all of the above mentioned games, be not disqualified from further playing in this, the Riverside Baseball League.

The above resolution was presented by F. S. Kong and seconded by J. K. Notley.

LATEST NEWS OF THE PEDESTRIANS

Interest in the go-as-you-please race to Haleiwa is on the increase and it looks as if there would be a large entry.

The High School will probably be represented by two or three runners. Distance running is much in favor at the school and there is some very likely cross-country timber among the youngsters.

If Manager Bidgood can get the guarantee that a sufficient number of persons will make the trip to Haleiwa to see the finish of the race, he will arrange for a round trip fare from Honolulu of $1.25.

Beside offering a cup, Bidgood agrees to send the first six men to finish, home at his expense, after treating them to lunch or dinner.

The mile walk at the Boys' Field on Saturday looks like being a very exciting race. Sullivan, Cheatham, Fahy, Chillingworth and Ayres must all be conceded chances at the distance and the Hawaiian record of 8:55 is extremely likely to be broken.

MARINE PLAYERS DEFEAT SOLDIERS

The Fort Shafter nine were defeated by the U. S. Marine Corps in a game of baseball played yesterday afternoon at the post, by a score of 12 to 5.

The line-up was as follows:
U. S. Marine Corps: Gibson, p.; Anderson, c.; Winters, 1b.; Masak, 2b.; Garve, 3b.; Misner, ss.; Shelby, rf.; Davis, cf.; Mile, lf.
Fort Shafter: Drew, Reckdahl, Mayo, Glenn, Spicer, Branstetter, Oakley, Bateman, Jones.

Score by innings:
U. S. M. C. . . 6 0 0 4 0 2 0 —12
Fort Shafter . . 0 1 0 1 1 2 0 — 5

ENTRIES FOR CHINESE MEET

Excellent Sport Is Promised for Next Saturday Afternoon.

The entries for the big Chinese field day to be held on Saturday afternoon at the boys' field on Liliha street have closed and are very satisfactory. The names of most of the old stars appear in the program, together with several new athletic lights.

The sprints and middle distance runs have been especially well entered for. In the 100 yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard run and 880-yard run the following have entered: John Lo, En Sue, Hang Chack, Pau Low, Sing Hang, Yuk En, Ho On, En Pui, J. Hoy, Wah Kai, C. L. Hook, Ah Sam, Ah Chang.

The following have also entered for the events named:

- 220-yard dash—Loo Yep.

Track Committee—Tong Kau (chairman), Dr. K. F. Li, W. Tin Chong, A. K. Vierra, Sam Hop.

OUTRIGGER CLUB SEEKING MAZUMA

The Promotion Committee, at its meeting this afternoon, will be requested to furnish some financial assistance to the Outrigger Club.

The club is a valuable promotion asset for it affords visitors a unique opportunity to participate in a genuine sport of which they have probably heard and come to Hawaii to take part in.

Surfing and surf-board riding are getting to be well known on the mainland as Hawaii's national sports; and when all is said and done, these are about all the sports that Hawaii can call exclusively her own.

The tourist is enabled to enjoy the benefits of the Outrigger Club, either by becoming a member or by invitation, and the good times enjoyed in the surf at Waikiki will long linger in his memory and will be recounted to his friends on his return to the mainland or wherever his destination may be.

The club has been the recipient of several grass houses and canoes, and the wherewithal has been donated to erect the necessary buildings. The expense has been considerable, however, and at present the further operations of the club stand in danger of being hindered through want of funds.

Sport Notes

Don't forget the Burns' smoker next Saturday night. All friends will be there.

Charlie Reeves speared a 65-pound turtle while fishing with a torch off the Kalihi flats last Monday night. He managed to get his prize ashore.

Elisha Andrews has been elected captain of the High School soccer team, and Mon Yin captain of the Punahou team.

The baseball game today between the Chinese Students' Alliance and the Chinese Athletic Club will be for a silver cup presented by Tong Phong, a well known New York merchant, formerly of Honolulu. The cup is a beauty and is well worth striving for.

GOOD OUTLOOK FOR THIS BALL GAME

The game of baseball to be played at 2:30 p. m. today between the Chinese students' Alliance and the Chinese Athletic Club, promises to furnish a very exciting and interesting game.

The Alliance boys are confident of victory for they have such good players as Chi Bu, John Lo, Hang Chack, Sing Chong and Mon Yin.

The stars of the C. A. C. nine will be Alec Asam, En Gee, Johnny Amoy, En Sang, the two-fingered wonder; and Clement Akina.

It looks to be a stand-off between the two teams and it is this state of affairs that makes for good sport.

CHINESE MINORS WHO WILL PLAY

The championship game between the two nines of the Chinese Minor club will be played at Aala Park on Friday, at 10:30 a. m.

The line-up for the two teams will be as follows:

- Team "A."—Pang, (Capt.), c.; J. Ah Chuck, p.; C. Min, 1b.; S. C. Wong, 2b.; C. H. Hee, 3b.; Alina, ss.; C. Ah Duck, rf.; C. Bing, lf.; Ng Chew, cf.
- Team "B."—Ah Hue, c.; Ah Van, p.; C. Pun, 1b.; William, 2b.; C. Wah, 3b.; Kau, ss.; Ahana, (Capt.), cf.; Hung Chin, rf.; W. S. Sheong, lf.; C. Ah Tong, 3b.

BOXER BIRD BACK

Captain Bird, the clever little boxer of the 20th Infantry, has returned from a six months' trip to the Coast and is now steadily conditioning himself for a match. He will, however, issue no challenge until he is in shape to do himself justice.

SWALLOWED FIVE BOTTLES OF POISON

A man came to me for treatment a few weeks ago who had taken five bottles of poisonous drugs. He got the stuff from a doctor for the cure of chronic kidney trouble and rheumatism.

Of course, the patient did not know the nature of the medicine he had been using until I analyzed the contents of one of the bottles. The mixture contained morphine, alcohol and potash in large quantities. He then realized why he had become nervous, debilitated and weak; why his stomach went back on him and his food wouldn't digest. He realized also that if he had continued the use of these poisons much longer he would have become a drug slave, just as thousands of other sufferers have who went to doctors for relief.

That's the way all drugs work. They will stop a pain by deadening the nerves, but the pain comes back in a few hours and you have to repeat the dose. The trouble is still there and will remain there until the cause is removed.

Now, this man took up my treatment and began using Electro-Vigor every night. In three weeks' time every pain and ache was gone from his body, and in another two weeks he reported himself cured of the kidney trouble, which had bothered him for years.

How did Electro-Vigor do this? Simply by removing the cause and giving nature the power to cure. The rheumatism was caused by the kidney trouble, and the reason for the kidney trouble was a lack of strength and vitality in those organs.

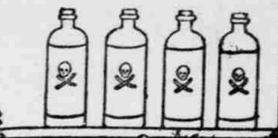

Electricity, which is vitality, was all that was needed. With that force restored, the life and activity of the kidneys was renewed, enabling them to cleanse the blood of all impurities and the cause of rheumatism.

When the cause of disease is removed, nature makes a quick cure. Electro-Vigor is the only successful device for infusing electricity into the body. Its touch is gentle, soothing, without sting or burn, yet so powerful and invigorating that you can feel the improvement after one application. Electro-Vigor cures, and I can prove it to you.

LOOKING OUT FOR OURSELVES.

Captain Matson's campaign for steamship monopoly, which brought about such a sudden reversal of the attitude toward the coastwise shipping bill of Honolulu's commercial bodies, easily gets the commercial backing of San Francisco. The Chamber of Commerce of that city, to which the Captain belongs, has cabled the local Chamber, advising it not to act against the coastwise law, and the same matter has been pressed by Senator Perkins. What it all means is that the influential shipping and shipbuilding elements of the San Francisco Chamber, including Senator Perkins, who represents his company, the Pacific Coast Steamship Line, in that body, are working in their own interests as against a proposition framed in behalf of Honolulu—and don't want us to find it out. In other words, with a neat pretence of impartiality, they really ask this city to stop playing its own game so as to play the opposing one of the great metropolitan port. Obviously, Honolulu has been picked out for the Reuben who buys the gold brick and it will be the prize Hayseed of the year if the shipping monopolists, in the guise of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, can play the trick.

We are admonished with the same wisdom which urged Honolulu to make an enemy of the next President of the United States; which induced it to protest against a most useful reform in the Board of Health and to resist the transfer of an Army officer who had been here building harbors so as to assign one who was an expert in building forts—we are admonished by this sort of wisdom to be meek and self-sacrificing in the presence of San Francisco business men lest they do us injury. San Francisco injure its best customer? San Francisco raise its hand against people who are spending ten millions a year in its market and might, if given annoyance, take that trade to Los Angeles or the Sound? San Francisco fight Honolulu? Not on its life. If the commercial bodies of this city started in to turn the tide of our trade away from San Francisco, that city would send a deputation here barefoot to ask for terms. If we did but know it, Honolulu absolutely commands the situation so far as the good will of the metropolitan business interests is concerned.

Even if questions of our own gratitude were involved, who has the larger claim on it—the Roosevelt administration or San Francisco?

The pretence that a policy, favored by the President of the United States and the Republican leaders of Congress—protectionists all, who are doing what they can to pass the shipping subsidy bill—is a deliberate effort to drive the American flag from the sea, is pabulum for fools. The issue is one of simple business, of economic self-preservation, and has nothing to do with the Fourth of July. We are after good sea service, American if possible, foreign if need be. What has happened under the American shipping monopoly in these waters? Very little, indeed, to solve the tourist problems of this port. We have fewer ships to travel in than we had before annexation. Three new ones have been taken off and providing ships that nothing could beat, American shipping interests have hung back and let the Japanese, who have no monopoly, forge ahead. The finest and fastest vessels on this course of travel are under a foreign flag and under a free-for-all competitive system. The "flag" monopoly has no ships which would go for more than second-rate passenger boats on the transatlantic route. It is time, as the President points out, for the American shipping interest to rise to its opportunities; and it is provided in the Hawaiian relief bill that, when they do, the exemption given these Islands shall lapse. If the flag wants to gather every Honolulu passenger under its folds and guarantee him a fair chance to come and go, it may do so. If not, then it is but fair to Hawaii to give any or every other flag a chance.

In another column we have taken pains to expose the hypocrisy of the Bulletin in disputing now the very arguments which it used less than two years ago in favor of the suspension of the coastwise shipping law. It is not that the Bulletin is important, except as it reveals the attitude of the one or two men, engaged since the meeting of 1907 in the shipping business, who control its policy. Before these men became the agents of American lines they wanted Honolulu to have freedom from the coastwise fetters—and, of course, the Bulletin did. Now they want the other thing and the Bulletin acquiesces like the trained spaniel that has been told by its master to stand up and bark. For additional proof of how great the change has been in the spirit of the evening paper, it might be well to read the plea made by Mr. Thurston for a suspension of the coastwise law at the Young Hotel meeting of August 8, 1907, and then construe these editorial paragraphs in the Bulletin of August 9—a paper which now describes the friends of the relief measure as criminals and traitors to the flag:

What sort of patriotism is it that hamstring the prosperity of a Territory by refusing to furnish it with sufficient transportation facilities of a certain, definite 'legal' type and in the same breath excludes all our people from the use of the ships of other nations? And this effusion:

Mr. Thurston's talk before Secretary Straus was in such close accord with the well-recognized policy of the Bulletin that the only cause for surprise is that he lets his own paper wander off on such impossible fool tangents.

KONOHI.

The Chinese New Year celebration began at midnight and will continue for some days. Despite its devil-scaring noises it is one of the most attractive and sensible celebrations we have. An annual time for debt-paying seems much better than one for running into debt, which is, among numerous people, the curse of our own holiday week. There is also a fine democracy in the Chinese custom of calling upon one another, without choice by cliques, getting acquainted or patching up old difficulties and beginning the new year in a cheerful and brotherly spirit. Deep down in its character the Chinese race is one of the best on earth. It has all the old Ben Franklin virtues and it is for these, rather than its sleepy vices, that it has been persecuted on the Coast. Love of family, thrift, the filial care of parents, tireless industry, patience, sober living, a contempt for violence, courtesy, respect for scholarship and a developed adaptability to western customs of the better sort—these are the rooted traits of the Chinese and of their Manchu congeners. In Hawaii the Chinese have proved an inestimable blessing and the Territory would be the better off for more of them and fewer of another kind. So here is, on their holiday for 1909, a cordial wish for their happiness, prosperity and long life.

Far better, is it for Hawaii to build up its own fleet of American ships under the American flag, ships that will carry our tourists in steadily increasing numbers, than to turn aside and accept as final the ruin of the American merchant marine.—Bulletin.

Honolulu tried it less than two years ago, using its best hustlers, and could not raise money enough to build one ship. Does it propose to repeat this failure in an effort to escape the chance offered to get the services of five first-class liners free?

As stated in this paper a year ago, the Federal government desires to have the National Guard of Hawaii brought up to full regimental strength. It would be well for young men of military tastes, especially those of an element not adequately represented in the ranks, to form additional companies for the first regiment. There is also a way open to recruit a naval reserve battalion, for which a gunboat would no doubt be assigned, as elsewhere, for armory use.

The Star, as usual, has got on both sides of the coastwise question and is as happy as old Janus himself.

BOOMING REALTY.

A boom in real estate always kills itself by a too rapid advance of prices. Elsewhere in this paper, Mr. Trent uses his advertising space in showing how fast suburban land "values" have gone up and drawing the inference that they will go much higher. It is doubtful that this is a matter of congratulation from the standpoint of anyone except the middleman; for the moment the top-notch in inflated real estate prices is approached, the buyer grows wary, the owner is left with the greater part of his property on his hands, subject to higher assessments, and the locality ceases to grow. An illustration of this fact may be found in the history of the company which handled the H. E. Cooper tract before Judge Cooper recovered it by foreclosure of mortgage. Prices at the start were eleven cents a square foot and, consequently, there was nothing doing.

Alewa Heights land is near the top notch now. Owing in part to the vast expanse of sloping land upon which it occupies a little corner, the prices realized on the last sale of lots were too great. It is absurd that a lot on Alewa Heights should be sold at College Hills prices—the Heights yet being without rapid transit, fire protection, pavements, sidewalks, and arboreal charm. We do not say this to depreciate the Alewa site. It will someday be a show place; but that day will be rendered far distant by any boom attempt to make prices of suburban lots any higher than they are. Deliberate inflation means a stagnant real estate market; the only way to keep the market active is to let the amount of available land in sight and the connected public improvements regulate values in the natural way and not get into the habit of marking up real estate and getting hysterical over it every time a regiment of soldiers comes here or a few more tourists than usual arrive.

AMENDED BILL OF COMPLAINT

H. G. Middleditch Wants Cathcart's House Sold to Pay Creditors.

An amended bill of complaint against John W. Cathcart, Mary Cathcart, and Percy M. Pond has been filed by H. G. Middleditch, trustee in bankruptcy for the Chas. F. Herriek Carriage Company, Ltd. The name Edith Pond is substituted in the amended complaint for that of Percy M. Pond, new developments in the case having arisen showing that the alleged contract for the house in College Hills was made by her. Cathcart is again charged with having brought about the contract between his wife and Edith Pond for the purpose of defrauding his creditors out of money due them. All the facts alleged in the primary complaint are set forth, as well as considerable additional information. It is alleged that Mrs. Cathcart paid $2055 on account in accordance with her contract with Mrs. Pond, and that her equity is co-extensive with the payments so made by her in the proportion which they bear to the price named in the contract. Middleditch further alleges that Mrs. Cathcart holds her equity in the contract as trustee in invitum for the creditors of John W. Cathcart. This would be, of course, the manner in which Cathcart evaded the demands of his creditors.

It is asked, therefore, by the plaintiff in the suit, that the defendants be summoned to appear in court; that Mrs. Cathcart be decreed to hold her equity as trustee in invitum for Cathcart's creditors, and that the premises named in the suit be sold. Out of the money thus realized, Middleditch agrees to compensate Edith Pond for the sum still due on the contract, and asks that the remainder be devoted to paying other creditors of Cathcart, named in the suit. The amended bill of complaint will come before Judge De Bolt for argument shortly.

Mrs. Duvauchelle Granted Divorce. Mercedes Duvauchelle, wife of Eugene Duvauchelle, the former police officer who was tried and acquitted on a charge of accepting a bribe some time ago, was granted a divorce yesterday afternoon on the grounds of non-support. Frank Thompson represented the libellant and Clem. K. Quinn presented the case for the libelee. No alimony was asked. Chinese Assault Case Continued.

The trial of Wong Wing and seven other Chinamen, accused of having tried to do up an actor in a Chinese theater about a year ago, was continued all day yesterday in the Circuit Court. At the request of the attorneys, however, the case has gone over until Monday to allow the Chinese to celebrate New Year's day. Several of the defendants in the case have been on the witness stand, all of them so far denying absolutely that they were on the Chinese theater premises on the night in question.

Annual Accounts Approved. E. Faxon Bishop, trustee of the estate of James G. Hayselden, filed his annual accounts in the Circuit Court yesterday. The value of the estate is named at $2701.13. The report of M. T. Simonton, master, on the final accounts of Fred Macfarlane, guardian of the estate of Georgiana Macfarlane Friel, were approved yesterday, and the guardian discharged and removed from further responsibility.

Grants Registered Title. Frederick C. Miller was granted a registered title to 5484 square feet of land on the west side of Makiki street in a decree filed in the Court of Land Registration by Judge Weaver yesterday.

Court Notes. Clerk Simonton of the Circuit Court has filed his bond as commissioner to sell land in the suit of the Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association against Frank E. King and Louise McGrew. Both the Territorial and the Federal grand juries were in session yesterday. The latter will make a full report to the court on Monday. The case of young Stayton, assistant postmaster, as well as that of the Japanese high-wage agitators have been fully investigated.

KAIMUKI WATER. Editor Advertiser.—At last week's meeting of the club, Mr. Marston Campbell addressed the meeting on the proposed water system. The Waialae, Kaimuki and Palolo Improvement Club resolved to support the scheme, as it not only provided for our district but improved the whole system for the entire city. It was also resolved to ask every improvement club to take the matter up. EMIL A. BERNDT. Honolulu, January 20, 1909.

Transport Dock.

It is likely that the United States government will make a definite decision to take over the Channel wharf for a transport dock shortly. This matter was taken up by Governor Frear while he was in Washington, and, except for the appointment of appraisers of the property, arrangements were practically completed. Appraisers will probably be appointed as soon as the War Department sees its way financially to go ahead with the proposition.

The cost of the Channel wharf was between $80,000 and $90,000. If the dock is taken over by the United States government, it will be entirely remodeled and repaired. It is not in a very good condition at the present time.

No Mounted Formation.

There will be no mounted formation at the cantonment of the Fifth for some time owing to work incident to settling the camp and because the horses are quarantined.

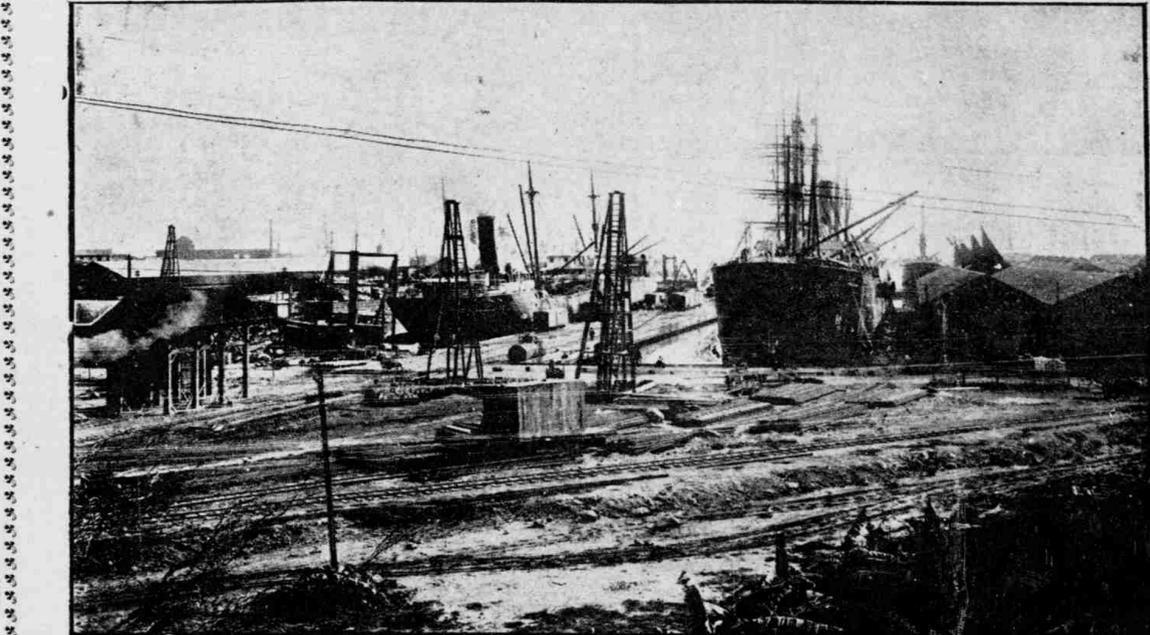

Captain Morse has been appointed sanitary officer, and the important work of keeping the camp healthful will devolve upon him. Lieut. Stewart will have the post exchange open for business by the time the men have an opportunity to patronize it. The commissary is still running in a tent. The entire force is worked to the limit at present, but as the work is for the benefit of each individual trooper, there is little kicking.

Miller is Confident.

Soldier Miller, who is to fight the Punchbowl Demon on the night of the 30th, is confident he can handle his man.

Going to Duty.

First Sergeant Wood of C troop, Fifth Cavalry, who has since his arrival here been in the Military Hospital at Fort Shafter, is convalescent and will

Brigade Hospital.

When work is begun on the hospital building at the Leilehua cavalry post it will mark the beginning of construction of the $2,000,000 brigade post. At present all sick persons at Leilehua will be treated at the Fort Shafter hospital. No provision was made for a hospital in connection with the temporary cavalry camp, and there is no fund available for even a temporary hospital. The brigade post hospital will be elaborate throughout, although conforming to the general style of all post buildings. Major Wadhams, surgeon, in charge of the hospital at Fort Shafter, is the senior army medical officer now here. His assistant is Lieutenant McCallum. A surgeon is attached to the Fifth.

Navy League Section.

Interest in the Navy League is being revived locally by the advent of the marine reinforcements and the Honolulu section, as it is named, will be called upon to sit up and take notice. Captain Hugh Rodman, U. S. N., while connected with the Naval Station, took a deep interest in the Navy League and it was while he was here that a section of the league is largely composed of citizens. Judge Ballou was president at last accounts.

Buffalo Marineless.

The cruiser Buffalo which brought the marine battalion to Honolulu to garrison the Honolulu and Pearl Harbor stations, will be the first navy vessel to leave here without a marine guard aboard. The president's order to strip all warships of marines has gradually gone into effect and sentry duty in connection with the cruiser is now imposed on the bluejackets.

Y. M. C. A. at Leilehua.

An evening paper recently published an article stating the Y. M. C. A. intended to erect a building at the cavalry post Leilehua. Mr. Super, the secretary of the Y. M. C. A., when seen last evening, said that there is nothing sure about this yet as he had written to Washington for approval but has not received any reply as yet. He further stated that it was customary for the Y. M. C. A. to have a building at all large military posts. Miss Helen Gould, some few years ago, erected a four hundred thousand dollar building for the Y. M. C. A. at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Mrs. Russell

Sage has since added three hundred thousand dollars to the endowment of the same building, making it one of the largest buildings that the Y. M. C. A. has at any post. Now Miss Gould has a boat on the Yukon River in Alaska in which the Y. M. C. A. secretary goes from one post to another and holds his services on board. "I think," said Mr. Super, "that we should, and will in the near future, be able to get a building at Leilehua. The soldiers and sailors are our best friends and for that reason we want to do the best we can for them. I am a strong advocate of the soldier wearing his uniform to church as well as other places. I think the soldier greatly exaggerates the feeling of the civilian toward the uniform. There are the church-going soldiers who will not go to church in the uniform and amalgamating plates of the "Mayflower" are shown in this picture. When the mill is running and the whole 20 stamps are dropping, the noise is so deafening that you can "hardly hear yourself think." After the gold quartz rock is crushed to powder by the stamps, it is washed over copper plates covered with quicksilver. This quicksilver attracts and holds the small particles of gold as they pass. The combination of gold and quicksilver is called "Amalgam." This is scraped off at intervals, and the two metals separated by retorting. The quicksilver is used over again, but the gold is sold, netting upwards of $19 an ounce. It looks good in the form of "bullion" and also looks good in the form of dividend checks.

Please remember that this mill is operated by water power, directed against a "Pelton" wheel. And that the water power is part of our property. One of our best assets.

There is nothing more interesting than a gold factory—especially if you are a part owner. Next time you are near Nevada City, California, don't forget to look "Mayflower" up. You'll be welcomed and treated right, whether you are a shareholder or not. And you'll find no bolts or bars, with secrets behind them. Everything is clear, clean, open and above-board. But get an interest. Mix with action today and take on some stock at 25 cents. It is scheduled for an advance. Fact is, you'll have to pay 35 cents in a few weeks. Get in now and save regrets. If you do not believe what I tell you—if you are a "doubting Thomas," come in and tell me you have to be shown," and it will be a pleasure for me to show you the PROOF. Buy and buy. Not by and by. Do not wait. Don't procrastinate. BUY "MAYFLOWER" STOCK. BUY IT NOW!

because they imagine that they would not be welcome. If ten soldiers would attend church regularly in uniform, then it could not be said the only places where the uniform is seen are the street and in places of amusement, and the feeling of hesitancy on the part of others would undergo a great change."

Maj. Ray's Case Settled.

Secretary Wright is authority for the statement that the trouble between Maj. Beecher B. Ray, U. S. A., and Lieut. Col. Hamilton Wallace, U. S. A., both of the pay department of the army at Manila, has been settled and the incident closed. The difference arose over Maj. Ray's accounts, the amount of money involved being only $20. Maj. Ray came into prominence during the recent presidential campaign, during which he had his leave of absence renewed three times. He accompanied Secretary Taft on some of his trips in the west.

Service Retirements.

In the army, navy, Marine Corps and revenue cutter service there will be a total of forty-two retirements for age during the year 1909. Of these fourteen are in the army, twenty in the navy, one in the Marine Corps and four in the revenue cutter service. Of the retirements, in the army there is one each among general officers, the judge advocate general's department, quartermaster, medical and pay departments; three among the Corps of Engineers, two in the ordnance department, and one among the chaplains. There is also one each in the cavalry, coast artillery and infantry. In the navy there are thirteen retirements among the line officers, five retirements scheduled among staff officers, one among the chief carpenters, and one among the boatswains. There is only one retirement in the Marine Corps. In the revenue cutter service there are four retirements.

The following are the dates of retirement in the several branches of the service, arranged in chronological order:

United States Army.

Maj. James W. Dawes, pay department, January 8; Brig. Gen. Robert M. O'Reilly, medical department, January 14; Col. David A. Lyle, ordnance department, January 21; Lieut. Col. Samuel R. Jones, quartermaster's department, February 6; Col. Milton B. Adams, Corps of Engineers, April 11; Chaplain Charles S. Walkley, May 26; Lieut. Gen. Arthur MacArthur, June 2; Col. Frank Heath, ordnance department, June 13; Col. Edgar S. Dudley, judge advocate general's department, June 14; Col. Ernest H. Ruffner, Corps of Engineers, June 24; Lieut. Col. Levi P. Hunt, 2d Cavalry, August 7; Col. Owen J. Sweet, 28th Infantry, September 4; Col. Daniel W. Lockwood, Corps of Engineers, September 21; Maj. Gen. John F. Weston, November 13; Col. Henry L. Harris, coast artillery, December 4.

Col. Knight to Washington.

Col. Daniel W. Lockwood, Corps of Engineers, has been ordered to relieve Col. J. G. D. Knight, Corps of Engineers, temporarily of the river and harbor works in his charge in the vicinity of New York, and Lieut. Col. S. W. Roessler, Corps of Engineers, has been ordered to relieve Col. Knight temporarily of his duties as chief engineer officer of the departments of the east and of the gulf. On being thus relieved, Col. Knight will report to Washington and report in person to the chief of engineer for duty under his orders as a member of the river and harbor board.

Home of Colonels.

The village of Paradise, in Coles county, Ill., has the remarkable distinction of having furnished more colonels to the federal armies in the civil war than any other place, no less than six being credited to the Illinois town, says the Chicago News. One of these, Col. True, was later a brigadier general. The others were Col. R. H. McFadden, who commanded the 53d Illinois; Col. Monroe of the 133d Illinois, who fell in one of the skirmishes with Wheeler; Col. S. Chapman, who led the 44th Illinois; Col. Mitchell, who afterward commanded the same regiment, and Col. Buekner, who commanded the 78th Illinois.

In addition Col. Cofer, who resided at Paradise when the war broke out, but left there to take command of one of the Kentucky regiments in the Confederate army, is numbered among the soldiers contributed by the Coles county village. The remarkable feature of this contribution to the commissioned forces of the armies is the fact that Paradise is a village of only 250 persons and has not increased in population since the war. It is without railroad communication with the outside world and can point to a stage line as its only means of transportation.

Paradise is about the same kind of village today as it was when the news came that Fort Sumter had been fired upon. Grown a trifle older and a trifle more sleepy as the years have rolled by, giving the business which once made a thriving center of the towns adjacent and more favored by the gods and the railroads, the little town goes on its way as quickly as it did half a century ago.

Soldier Rates of Interest.

Gen. Bell, chief of staff, has issued general orders to the army promulgating the results of the investigation conducted by a court of inquiry, of which Col. F. K. Ward, 7th Cavalry, was president and Capt. C. R. Howland, 21st Infantry, was recorder, into the administration and discipline of the post of Fort Wayne, Mich. These orders show that Contract Surgeon John L. Burkart loaned money to enlisted men at high rates of interest, but without pecuniary benefit to himself; that his acts were subversive of discipline; that four horses, the property of Burkart or his brother, were foraged by Capt. Charles G. French, regimental quartermaster, as being the private horses of officers entitled to forage allowances, and that Col. Daniel Cornman, commanding, failed to take proper disciplinary action to stop the practise referred to.

Opinion of the Court.

The court expressed the opinion that the following action should be taken: "That the connection of John L. Burkart, contract surgeon, U. S. A., with the military service be terminated. "That Capt. J. J. Toffey, Jr., regimental adjutant, 7th Infantry; First Lieut. Robert G. Peck, battalion adjutant, 7th Infantry, and Second Lieut. J. C. Moore, battalion quartermaster and commissary, 7th Infantry, be informed of the findings of the court, and that the transactions in which they were concerned regarding horses and forage therefor were illegal and highly improper, and that they be admonished to be more scrupulous in their conduct hereafter, and more observant of the high standard expected from officers of the army. This recommendation is submitted, as the court is of the opinion that more beneficial results both as regards these officers and the army at large would thus be secured than if these officers were brought to trial. "That Capt. Charles G. French, regimental quartermaster, 7th Infantry, be brought to trial for making, as post quartermaster, illegal issues of forage. "That Col. Daniel Cornman, 7th Infantry, be brought to trial for neglect of duty in not taking steps to stop illegal issues of forage when it came to his knowledge that such issues were being made in his command. "That Capt. Peter C. Field, medical department, U. S. A., be informed of the finding of this court as regards him and admonished that his action in continuing an investigation regarding matters as to which a post commander is primarily responsible, under an authority which the post commander informed him he (the post commander) could not recognize, was improper and subversive of good order and military discipline. "The President directed that the specific recommendations of the court be carried into execution with the exception of that relating to Capt. Field, which was disapproved.

War Department Action.

The action of the War Department is stated by Gen. Bell as follows: "The resort to disciplinary measures which was recommended by the court has been had, and the results of the trials in the cases of Col. Daniel Cornman, 7th Infantry, and Capt. Charles G. French, regimental quartermaster, 7th Infantry, have been duly promulgated to the army. The employment of Contract Surgeon Burkart has been terminated by the annulment of his contract. In the cases of Capt. J. J. Toffey Jr., regimental adjutant, 7th Infantry; First Lieut. Robert G. Peck, battalion adjutant, 7th Infantry, and Second Lieut. J. C. Moore, battalion quartermaster, 7th Infantry, it is sufficient to say that the department expects that officers of all grades in the military establishment will make it their constant endeavor to secure the protection and proper application of property and stores provided for public use in the operation of the annual acts of appropriation for the support of the army. In the case here presented that expectation has not been realized. The officers above named are therefore admonished that the practises in which they are shown to have been engaged are subversive of discipline, highly disregarding of the laws and regulations governing the issue of and accounting for public property, and evince a willful indisposition to conform to the reasonable and wholesome standards of professional conduct, which cannot be tolerated in the military service. "The court of inquiry is dissolved."

U. S. Navy Second.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 23.—The United States navy stands second among those of the great world powers, according to the navy year book, prepared by P. L. Pulsifer, clerk of the Senate navy committee. Germany follows third, while France has dropped to fourth place, and Japan is fifth.

TRADE LAND WITH M'BRYDE

Territory Plans an Important Exchange With the Kauai Sugar Company.

Governor Frear and Land Commissioner Pratt were in consultation yesterday morning, taking up new land propositions. One of the important things which the Territory will take up in the near future will be the disposal of the Kapaa lands. A sale of Kapaa lots is set for next week in Kauai.

Negotiations are now pending for an exchange of lands at Kalaheo with the McBryde Sugar Company, and it is probable that the consummation of this will give the Territory a large area of agricultural land suitable for home-steaders. The proposal is to make a trade of sugar land in lower Kalaheo, part of which has to be irrigated, for agricultural land at a higher elevation.

In all there are probably 900 acres of sugar land which the government will exchange for approximately 1700 acres of homesteading land. The McBryde Sugar Company is said to be favorable to the exchange proposition, the only question remaining being a report of appraisers.

The Kalaheo sugar lands are in the middle of the plantation company's holdings, and are very valuable. The land which the government will acquire by the trade will be those of Wahiawa and Laiwai.

AMUSEMENTS.

Moving pictures that talk, sing and act will be the attraction at the Opera House Saturday evening next. The Cameraphone is the latest invention in the moving picture line. Mr. Werner, the gentleman in charge of the Cameraphone, has spent much time securing the best Cameraphone films in the States, and will present a fine program.

A two-hour program will be presented, made up of operatic numbers, comic speeches, coon songs and dramatic.

Seats are on sale at Bergstrom Music Co. Popular prices, 15c, 25c, 35c and 50c.

The Art.

Do not miss it; go tonight and see the new pictures at the Art Theater. There will be an entire new lot today and each worth the price of admission. The orchestral selections at the Art are always enjoyable and are worth going a long distance to hear, but when the pictures are added to the music program people get three times the worth of their money. The admission is ten and twenty-five cents for adults and five cents for children.

The hustle and worry of business men, The hard work and stooping of workmen,

The woman's household cares, Are too great a strain on the kidneys. Backache, headache, sideache, Kidney troubles, urinary troubles follow.

A Honolulu citizen tells you how to cure them all.

Cyrus S. Eason, of Kapiolani Park, Honolulu, Hawaii, says: "I came to this place fifteen years ago from the United States, where I was employed as a stage driver. This work obliged me to be out in all kinds of weather, and my kidneys became disordered. I used any number of remedies, but had almost given up hope of ever being cured, as nothing seemed to have any effect on my trouble. When I heard about Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, I got a box at the Hollister Drug Co. They relieved me promptly, and in return I heartily recommend them."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box (six boxes $2.50), or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

W. A. BRYAN'S TALK ON LOCAL MATTERS AT MOHONK

An Interesting Address on the Mission of the Pacific Scientific Institution--What Is Being Done.

The Mission of the Pacific Scientific Institution. Ladies and Gentlemen: Fortunately there are many present who need not to be reminded of the honorable career that Hawaii has had in connection with the great work of education and philanthropy in the Pacific ocean.

How little we really know today of the physical, mental, moral, linguistic, social, religious, esthetic and industrial characteristics of the people of the Pacific! Think of the dearth of data concerning the problems of race mixture and the causes of racial decay among many of the dependent peoples inhabiting these far-scattered islands! More theories have probably been propounded and dogmatically asserted concerning the origin of the Pacific Islanders than of any other race of men.

It is the design of the trustees to create an international cooperative research institution for the Pacific with its headquarters in Hawaii that will be affiliated with institutions at home and abroad in such a way as to make possible a modern research university for the tropics located in the midst of the region to be studied that will be accessible to all.

A beginning has, therefore, been made. Honolulu has been chosen a center for the work. A board of trustees has been named and authorized to receive in trust funds and property with which to promote the objects of the corporation.

In addition to the educational and scientific institutions already well established in Honolulu, the Pacific Institution contemplates establishing, and has already made substantial progress toward providing such important facilities for research as a biological station, a garden of acclimatization and an aviary or a zoological garden for the region, all of which as organized, will form departments of the central institution.

It seems unnecessary to dwell on the fact that the Pacific ocean has long been recognized as the most fruitful field for scientific and philosophical research on the globe; its vast expanse, its clouds of tropical islands, its vanishing native inhabitants with their peculiar manners and customs, its striking and fast disappearing land fauna and flora, its volcanoes, its coral reefs teeming with marine life, its great ocean currents, are only a few of the many fascinating subjects to be found within this mighty realm of nature, yet, strange to relate, the exploratory and scientific work which has been done in the past, only serves to point the way to the enormous amount of work of a similar nature yet remaining to be done in this great ocean.

The eagerness with which many of the Pacific Islanders have embraced Christianity and civilization with the consequent loss of all old traditions and customs, makes the study of the Pacific tribes an unusually urgent matter. Much that is desirable to know about their origin has already disappeared. Much more that we should know concerning their environment is passing away or changing in character.

The exploratory work of the institution is by all odds the most pressing, especially that part which will have to do with the study of the people. It must be carried on by an especially equipped vessel provided with auxiliary power. Such a vessel using Honolulu as a center will proceed to visit the Pacific islands, group by group, with its parties of trained naturalists and observers.

As has been intimated, few of the many subjects which cry out for investigation in this vast area are of greater importance to science and to the world at large than are those with which the great subject of ethnology deals. Every one is aware that the Polynesian and kindred races are not only passing away but that they are taking with them into the great beyond all the facts which would elucidate the manifold problems involved in the origin and subsequent distribution of the inhabitants of the Pacific.

We know that the civilization of the Polynesian people, for example, was not only very old at the time of their discovery by the white race, but considering the circumstances of isolation under which the race was developed, it was very far advanced. Yet farther than the meager records of early explorers and the guarded narratives of traders, whalers, missionaries and adventurers, all of whom necessarily stituted especially interested in the welfare of the people of the Pacific. After careful consideration and much preliminary planning, and after full conference with scientists, administrators and organizers in America and Europe, it was decided to take definite steps to inaugurate this work without further delay.

The ethnological result of the missionaries' presence among the natives is also to be recorded. The motive which actuated these workers is irrefragable, but unfortunately, as a class, the ministers of the gospel have been singularly deficient in realizing the importance of preserving an account of native customs and habits.

By the not unnatural antagonism of the Christian missionaries to the heathen cult, all that pertained to the native religion was sternly suppressed. The native converts to Christianity, in the zeal and bigotry of their new faith, in turn did everything in their power to suffocate the earlier religion, and thus effected the extinction of much which cannot be determined.

Together with the ban placed upon the native religion, the whole realm of myth, genealogy, legend and history fell into disrepute, and instead of preserving a more or less accurate record of their race in their elaborate oral traditions, the native tribes in many instances now present the condition of isolated units, lacking the record of their past and severed from their affinity to other peoples.

One especially beneficial work of the missionaries in this region has been the early translation of the Bible into many native tongues, which has thus helped to preserve a record of the languages of the region much in their early purity.

It is probably not too much to say that in the Pacific as great changes are now wrought ethnologically, in five years, as without the influence of the Caucasian would be wrought in many generations. Another ten years will probably be too late in which, with any prospect of satisfactory results, a complete ethnological exploration of this region can be conducted.

That which is true of the Polynesian race as a people is equally true of the material in every department of natural history. That which it is so important to preserve of record is everywhere passing away or changing in character. Then, too, an exhaustive examination of any one subject in the Pacific is so interwoven with others, that the study of the one is remarkably involved by the lack of knowledge of the other.

In this hastily sketching one side of the general purpose of the Pacific Scientific Institution, this paper will have failed of its object if two facts have not been made to stand out in bold relief. The one is that this institution proposes to carry on a work which is in itself of the greatest interest and at the same time of fundamental value and importance to any one concerned in any way whatsoever in the welfare of the dependent people of the Pacific.

The other point to be brought out is that of the unfortunate magnitude of this work. It cannot be carried on without the expenditure of large amounts of time, talent and treasure. However, it is to the latter and more sordid task that the institution is devoting its attention. The financial needs and the financial plan of the institution are just now being brought to the attention of the generously inclined and it is earnestly hoped that the inauguration of the institution's work will at least not be long delayed.

In closing may I venture to express the belief that brilliant as Hawaii's part has been in the past, she is now on the high-road to her greatest usefulness not only to the nation of which she is a part but to the world at large. She occupies a signal and conspicuous outpost for the spread of the arts of peace, and it is to be especially hoped that in the educational, religious and scientific work which is to be carried on from there in the future this progressive spirit of international usefulness in the largest sense may continue to grow and flourish. (Applause)
