Daily Bulletin

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party, But established for the benefit of all.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1891.

The mortality report for December shows a heavy "slaughter of the innocents," out of the 53 who died 19 being children under one year old. This is nearly 36 per cent. Such a large mortality of young infants is an old story in Honolulu, yet there has never been any systematic effort at discovering the cause or finding a preventive. Sixty-six per cent of Hawaiians also seems larger than should be, and the fact is that 15 of the 19 children under one year were Hawaiians.

Fanaticism still pays, or at least is made to pay, by its leaders. The Salvation Army has already acquired property to the value of three and a half millions of dollars. The reclaiming of "darkest England" could easily be accomplished, for a time at least, if a portion or all of this enormous sum was expended, according to Christ's plan for spreading the gospel without price. Even if there was a chance of the Salvationists spending in a practical way out of their own pockets, for the advancement of the world, as much as Stanley personally subscribed for the exploration of "Darkest Africa," there would be some hope for "darkest England" and, perhaps, some more permanent belief in the sincerity and sanity of those promulgating that latest religious fad—it is worthy of no better name. True religion is one of the mainstays of civilization; but religious humbugs, which acquire more money than they display piety and good works outside of making a living, should be most carefully shunned by both Christian and worldling alike.

The St. Petersburg Novoe Uremya, while protesting against English interference in regard to Russia's policy toward the Jews, declares religious intolerance is not the cause of measures relative to the Jews in Russia, but "it is the absolute necessity of saving the rural populace from being drained of their resources by the Jews, who have already ruined the peasants in Galicia, Roumania and Pomerania." The journal quoted from further declares it is Russia's desire to save the Jews from the retribution of the rural populace. It would seem from the above statement that the civilized world has long been hugging the error that it was from the political tyranny of Czardom the peasantry of Russia needed protection! Or perhaps history is about to be repeated, and it will turn out that it is from both political tyranny and unscrupulous foreign capital that the subjects of the Czar need protection. Perhaps the English people, with their usual knack of fair play, have already seen this point and determined that just dealing by the Russian Government in both instances is preferable to the usual makeshifts.

The method lately followed by the United States in summarily settling the Indian question, with force of arms in the hands of mounted police and regular troops, is nothing more than adopting at a late day the plan advocated years ago by Lt. General Phil Sheridan. Sheridan proposed to President Grant to definitely quiet all Indian raiding, providing the President would give him ten thousand regular troops and a six months' leave of absence. General Sheridan proposed, in other words, to put a stop to Indian raids by initiating a vigorous campaign, which would result in either the death or the capture of the leading malcontents. Sheridan's advice was not followed and the result was that a score or more of innocent women and children were slain most mercilessly, besides the men and soldiers butchered and the treasure expended before peace in the West was re-established. Other disastrous raids followed.

The War Department of the United States has begun the late campaign against the Indians of the Western plains, by killing their leader, Sitting Bull, as well as his son, Blackbird, thus making plans for future tribal vengeance next to impossible for many years to come. In any event the backbone of the present rebellion is broken, and the Sitting Bull family will ride their raids no more forever.

AN UNNECESSARY OFFICE.

EDITOR BULLETIN.—I take the opportunity to remark that it is noticeable that you, one of our most vigilant censors and watchmen, haven't a word to offer on the appointment of a journalistic nephew or brother-in-law, as it were, to the most useless and unnecessary sinecure under our Government. There are very few Portuguese now under contract, and all of them are voters, if they chose to qualify. The Japanese have an inspector of their own paid by this Government, who is quite competent to protect his countrymen. He ought to be able to supervise both employers and the Courts, and secure justice for the only body of alien "contract" laborers remaining with us. The need or use of an "Inspector of Immigrants" is a mysterious unknown problem anyhow. There was no marked failure of justice to the immigrants during the months when there was a vacancy in the office, while the ornamental seat of "Inspector" was kept warm for a possible claimant. No bridges were burned. Dec. 31st. Yours Truly.

THE ORATORIO SOCIETY.

EDITOR BULLETIN.—Will you allow me space to make a few additional explanations with reference to the proposed Oratorio Society?

The suggestion that existing societies should be invited temporarily to suspend their meetings arose from the desire to have all available strength for the better rendering of the choruses. The question resolved itself into one of marked simplicity. Do the musicians of Honolulu wish to hear an oratorio properly rendered? Is it not worth while for all hands, just for once, to put their shoulders together—to unite their voices, and see what can be done? Many people have said that they find it impossible to devote another evening in each week to the study of music. It is not unnaturally suggested that perhaps for a short time they would prefer to unite for the study of the Messiah. Nothing is further from the wish of the committee than the idea of any disbanding. On the contrary we hope to help to build up. Now, the decision manifestly rests with the various societies. If one of them, or all of them, determine, that, as an organization, they will not recognize the Oratorio Society, then things will naturally go on as usual, and I am quite sure nobody will be offended; in which case it is hoped that individual members will find time to attend the rehearsals—not without profit to themselves. I may state that, throughout, I have been acting in complete sympathy with the director of one of the largest and best musical associations in Honolulu, nor have I any interest whatever, save of a musical character, in the success of the Oratorio Society.

In Baltimore this idea of amalgamation was suggested and carried out with enthusiasm, while the oratorio was learning. Some people entertain very erroneous ideas concerning the requirements of an efficient Oratorio Society. Oratorio music is not more difficult than that rendered every week by the choir of the second congregation in St. Andrew's Cathedral, and rendered very efficiently. The only thing is that the more voices you can muster the more effective the chorus becomes. In any case let good will prevail, and let harmony be the rule in all things musical. Everybody is free to do as he pleases; and if suggestions do not suit the public they need not be acted upon, while, at the same time, there may be no occasion for taking offence.

THE ANGLICAN CHRONICLE.

The Zanesville (O.) Times contains the following notice of the Church Chronicle, edited by Rev. Alex. Mackintosh: "The Anglican Church Chronicle, published in far-away Honolulu, behind green coral reefs and under gently waving palm trees, is before us. This publication is largely given over to the special interest of the Church of England, but stowed away in a corner we find this unsectarian and catholic ebullition: "Another athletic association is in embryo. We are not one of the croakers, and hope it will not go the way of the other A. A.'s. A little exertion in the open air will go a long way towards keeping up health and strength." "There rises up the remembrance of a hearty, ruddy Scotchman known and esteemed by the writer of this in times past, who is now the editor of this little paper and who is evidently as little lugubrious over the solemnity of eternal things as ever, and is still a joyous believer in sound body and healthy mind as an encouragement to good deeds and good thoughts. We commend the good man's example."

JOHN H. PATTY, Treasurer.
The report was on motion accepted and ordered to be published in the newspapers of the place.

Mr. Thos. R. Walker stated to the meeting that outside of the funds in the hands of the Treasurer, the amount of $1,905.80 intended for the furnishing and interior ornamentation of the proposed new Sailors' Home building, is in his hands, for which the Society is indebted to the following donors: The Ladies of Honolulu, Mr. F. M. English, B. A., Capt. Turner and the officers and men of H. B. M. S. Nympha and Mr. Lawless, Chief Officer of the S. S. Australia.

On motion unanimously carried, the Secretary was instructed to convey the respective donors by letter a vote of thanks from the Society for their efforts in promoting the construction of a Sailors' Home in this city.

The action of the Trustees, accepting the building site corner of Alakea and Halekaula streets in place of the former site, was unanimously approved of.

The election of six trustees for a term of three years ending December 31, 1893, resulted as follows: Messrs. W. W. Hall, B. F. Dillingham, W. G. Irwin, A. S. Cleghorn, H. F. Glade, T. May. The society then adjourned.

Immediately after the adjournment, the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was called to order for the purpose of election of officers: Hon. Charles R. Bishop, President, Mr. F. A. Schaefer, Secretary; Mr. J. H. Patty, Treasurer. Executive Committee: Messrs. J. B. Atherton, C. M. Cooke, P. C. Jones.

Hon. S. M. Damon having resigned his position as trustee, Mr. W. W. Hall was elected in his place a member of the Committee on Building Plans. The Board then adjourned.

NATIVE SONS' BALL.
The calico ball given by the Native Sons of Hawaii, a new organization, on New Year's Eve, was a brilliant and pleasant event. It was held in Mililani Hale in rear of the Opera House, under the patronage of His Excellency J. A. Cummins. The hall was gaily decorated within and without with Hawaiian flags, tropical foliage and flowers, and colored lanterns. Electric lamps gave a cheery glow to everything.

At the opening of the ball partners were selected by the gentlemen picking rosettes at random from a basket, each rosette identifying a lady by being made of the material in her dress. The ladies made a charming picture in their variegated holokus, made with trims and many of them beautifully trimmed. There were forty-two couples present. Princess Poomaikalani with other noble dames viewed the scene from the platform. Mr. W. S. Wood was floor master. The royal orchestra furnished music from a tent in front.

A sumptuous feast laid on tables on the rear veranda was enjoyed by the merry-makers at midnight. Afterward a series of tableaux was presented.

The Royal Hawaiian Band will give a public concert at Emma Square this afternoon commencing at 4:30 o'clock. Following is the programme:—
March—Wiener Herzen... Schild
Overture—Jolly students... Suppe
Waltz—Laura... Millocker
Selection—Italian Melodies—Rampozetti
Polka—Coeuret... King
Quadrille—Hit and Miss... Hervey
Hawaii Ponoi.

AN ICE LYRIC.

Says the New Corporation to the Old Corporation,
"The public, the dear public must be done!"
Says the Old Corporation to the New Corporation,
"Shove up prices and we'll have a little fun!"
Then the New Corporation and the Old Corporation
Squeezed the public till the public sent them both into damnation.
But they still remain, confound them, bosses of the situation.
And the tightening of the cinch has just begun.

Says the New Corporation to the Old Corporation,
"O-ho the nappy 'tis to feel that we are one!"
Says the Old Corporation to the New Corporation,
"'Tis a pity we can't charge them for the sun."
So the merry merry pack keep the public on the rack.
And stand in like honest brigands, to share the common sack.
The Ancient Corporation still hoping to get back the several fat dividends that have been passed, likewise the $4,000 that the New Corporation squeezed out of them on the consolidation. All hands 'round!

TEMPERANCE LADIES' RECEPTION.
The reception held on New Year's day by the ladies of the W. C. T. U., assisted by the Y. S., proved a very enjoyable affair. More than one hundred gentlemen availed themselves of the opportunity offered by this innovation in social life. This being the first New Year's reception ever held in this city, the ladies may congratulate themselves upon its success.

The parlors of the Y. M. C. A. were beautifully decorated by the young ladies with a profusion of roses, ferns and palms, which to a stranger make this tropical winter seem a wonderland. Flags and banners were tastefully hung upon the walls.

The refreshments, abundant and toothsome, were homelike. Indeed everybody seemed to feel at home, the main object of the ladies being to entertain, in a homelike manner, those gentlemen in our city who are far away from their homes and loved ones.

POLICE COURT.
SATURDAY, Jan. 3.
One fine and two reprimands were given for drunkenness.
Pete Larsen was found guilty of the larceny of $47 from Capt. Martin Tobin of the schooner Mille Morris, and was sentenced to nine months at hard labor and to pay a fine of $10 and costs $4.60. J. L. Kaulukou for defendant.

Ab Tuck was fined $100 and costs for having lottery tickets in possession.
CATHEDRAL MEETING.
The meeting of St. Andrew's Cathedral congregation last evening was fairly represented. Messrs. Henry Smith and John Bush were elected church-wardens, and Messrs. E. Stiles, J. N. K. Keola, P. D. Kelleter, Sr., and M. Solomon sidesmen. The meeting authorized the wardens to negotiate a loan to the amount of $800 towards the erection of a parsonage on the cathedral premises.
