St. Clement's Church new educational building being dedicated by the Bishop

New Educational Building Dedicated

The Bishop dedicated the Edward Tanner Brown Memorial Education Building at St. Clement's Church on December 4th. The building was named after the late rector of the Church, who served from 1931 to 1948. He had taken a struggling church congregation and formed it into one of the strong parishes of the diocese. His widow, Dorothy Brown, attended the service.

The $125,000 building was erected from a bequest of the late Mrs. Lani Ward Booth, who along with her sisters sang for years in the choir and were active communicants of St. Clement's Church.

Wilson Associates were the architects for this building. Pacific Construction Ltd. built the building, which contains four classrooms, the Day School office, a teacher's lounge, three store rooms and rest rooms. It is a two story building.

The Reverend Paul M. Wheeler, D.D., Rector of St. Clement's Church, assisted the Bishop at the service of dedication.

New Parish Hall

Good Samaritan Church, Honolulu, is proud of the new parish hall that was dedicated by the Bishop on Sunday, December 8th. The building was constructed by Mr. Ronald Hamamoto at a cost of $31,000.

Following the service of dedication a delightful luncheon was served in the new hall. The Reverend George F. Hayashi, Vicar, assisted the Bishop at the service of Holy Communion, which preceded the dedication.

Minuth. The Reverend Arthur B. Ward will read the Gospel and assist with the Holy Communion service.

The Reverend John Paul Engelcke will be ordained in St. Clement's Church, Sunday, January 26th, at 10 a.m., by the Bishop.

St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa, to Build Education Building and Parish Hall

The Reverend Howard B. Kishpaugh, Vicar of St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa, and his Bishop's Committee, have outlined their plans for an extensive building project of a combination educational building and parish hall, and a new parking area.

Advent Tea

An Advent Tea for the women of St. Andrew's Cathedral was held at the home of the Bishop, as guests of Mrs. Kennedy, on December 13th, from 3 to 5 p.m. A very delightful program and period of fellowship were enjoyed by the women.

Academy Boys to Sing At Cathedral

Sunday, December 22nd, at 7:30 p.m., the Boys' Choir from the Hawaii Preparatory Academy, Kamuela, Hawaii, will sing at St. Andrew's Cathedral. These boys are beautifully trained and always afford a delightful evening for those privileged to hear them.

THIS CHRISTMAS, mend a squarrel. Seek out a forgotten friend. Dismiss suspicion, and replace it with trust. Write a love letter. Share some treasure. Give a soft answer. Encourage youth. Manifest your loyalty in word and deed. Keep a promise. Find the time. Forgo a grudge. Forgive an enemy. Listen. Apologize if you were wrong. Try to understand. Flout envy. Examine your demands on others. Think first of someone else. Appreciate. Be kind; be gentle. Laugh a little. Laugh a little more. Deserve confidence. Take up arms against malice. Decry complacency. Express your gratitude. Go to church. Welcome a stranger. Gladden the heart of a child. Take pleasure in the beauty and wonder of the earth. Speak your love. Speak it again. Speak it still once again.

The Reverend Thomas Reed Heimann, Chaplain of St. Andrew's Priory for girls, Honolulu, and assistant at St. Peter's Church, Honolulu, receiving the Bible from the Bishop at his ordination to the priesthood, held in St. Andrew's Cathedral, on Wednesday, December 11th. Mark Kennedy was his father's Chaplain, and the Reverend E. Lani Hanchett, Rector of St. Peter's Church, presented the Ordinand.

The Episcopal Gift Shop

We would remind our people that the Episcopal Gift Shop, in the Diocesan House yard, has some very attractive gifts for Christmas. We urge you to look here in making your selections for things to give.

The Gift Shop is open from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. every morning except Saturday, and after the 9:15 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. services at the Cathedral. The purpose of the shop is to make revenue for the advance work in the diocese.

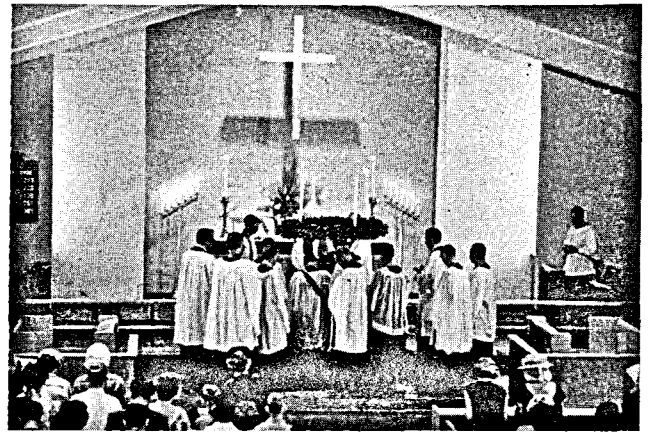

Mrs. Leonard Werner is in charge of the shop. She is assisted during the week by Mesdames: E. Tanner Brown, Leroy Green, and Robert Mitchell. We are deeply grateful for the continued devotion of these women, who give so freely of their time.

The Hawaii Preparatory Academy football team won the championship for the "Big Island" high schools. The Academy is located at Kamuela, on the Island of Hawaii.

The Reverend Guy Piltz

The Reverend Guy Hiwa Piltz, Vicar of St. Matthew's Church, Waimanalo, and Emmanuel Church, Enchanted Lake, being ordained to the priesthood in Calvary Church, Kaneohe, on Saturday, December 7th.

Seabury Hall

The interest in Seabury Hall, the new boarding school for girls, at Makawao, Maui, has been very great. Parents on all our islands and other areas of the Pacific are delighted with the prospects of this new school, with high academic standards.

To get a new school started requires much help with renovations, buildings and equipment. We are asking for assistance and are listing some of our needs. We believe this venture will be a great asset for our State, since we are filling a need for girls of all races and creeds.

The Presiding Bishop's Message

for Theological Education Sunday
January 26, 1964

Our theological seminaries are centers of learning, the life-line of the ministry, forums where the issues of our time are seen and discussed in the light of the Christian revelation. About 350 men are prepared for ordination each year in our seminaries. Adequate leadership demands sound preparation.

No one of our theological schools receives any financial assistance from the national Church. No seminary student pays his own way; in fact, he pays about one-third of it. The other two-thirds must be made up from other sources, and maintenance costs continue to rise.

Theological Education Sunday falls this year on January 26. It is an annual opportunity for all Church people to make an act of faith in the future leadership of the Church, and to express that faith through generous financial support. I commend this cause to your prayers and to your giving.

Presiding Bishop

Church Divinity School of Pacific Launches 2nd Phase of Building Program

The second phase of a $4 million development program for the Episcopal Church's western seminary, The Church Divinity School of the Pacific, began December 2nd with the ground-breaking for the new student dormitory.

Dean Sherman E. Johnson led the assembled guests and student body in prayer:

"We are thankful for the help and prayers of the many people who have made this development program a reality. Our recent national tragedy makes it evident how much our country needs dedicated men with the desire to serve God."

Councilman William T. Brown represented the City of Berkeley at the ground-breaking. Also present was Walter Costa, architect, representing Skidmore, Owings & Merrill and Mr. C. A. Menke, Vice President of the firm MacIsaac & Menke, contractors.

The new dormitory has 40,000 square feet of space and contains 54 single rooms for bachelor students. Four stories high, all of the dormitory rooms are located on the top three floors. The ground floor contains a refectory, a commons room and two large classrooms. It is hoped that construction will be completed by October, 1964.

When the entire development program is completed the seminary will consist of five buildings covering three acres in a university town and in close proximity to the other leading theological schools of the Far West. The Administration Building has been completed. Yet to be constructed are two dormitories, an auditorium and chapel.

The prime reason for the substantial enlargement of the facilities at The Church Divinity School is the spectacular increase in the number of Episcopal Communicants in the West.

Founded in 1893, The Church Divinity School has become recognized as one of the world's finest seminaries. The outstanding faculty has among its members several of national and international fame.

The seminary has an average enrollment of 150 seminarians. While the school is the official seminary of the Eighth Province, the seminary's outstanding reputation attracts students from all parts of the United States.

"De man dat's always kickin'," said Uncle Eben, "ain' got any real trouble on his mind. When real trouble comes you is generally too stunned to kick."

Christmas

The Saviour of The World is born! We cannot decide which of the two great Feasts brings us the more joy, Christmas or Easter. Each is thrilling. But we do know that, when we come to our Christ-Mass, something is born in us that touches our very core. When we ponder on the marvelous Gift which Our Father has sent for us and for our salvation, His very Own Blessed Son, and that we can come and meet Him on His Birthday in the Family House of God, it just seems to sweep away all that is unworthy in us, and to lift us to heights never quite touched at other times. As we come to the Altar Rail to meet Him, knowing that with Him in all the Company of Heaven, including our own loved ones there, it is simply impossible to come away from that sacred place with undimmed eyes. Such tears are badges of love, joy, remembrance, and high thanksgiving. THIS is what avails for us at our Christ-Mass, if we ALL will but come with shriven hearts, souls, and bodies, and offer up our homage to The Little King, Who let Himself be born in a manger instead of a gaudy palace. Don't let ANYTHING but illness keep you away from His Birthday Celebration this year. What a joy it will be to Jesus if He can but see all who profess to be Christians there before His Altar, waiting to receive Him into themselves.

Survey of Episcopal Clergy

While Episcopal theological education prepares all ministerial candidates for local parish roles, less than two-thirds of the Episcopal Church's 9,800 priests are actually involved in parish work.

This was the result of a first-of-its-kind survey conducted by the New York-based Episcopal National Council's General Division of Research and Field Study. The survey was based on what Episcopal clergy are doing in 1963. Its results were disclosed here today at the end of a weekend conference sponsored by the National Council's Division of Christian Ministries and held at the University of Chicago's Center for Continuing Education.

Of the Episcopal Church's total clergy, only 59.1 per cent are in charge of parishes while an additional 12.7 per cent serve as parish assistants.

Other survey findings show that 10 per cent are retired, 3 per cent are school chaplains, 2.7 per cent are on school staffs, 2.1 per cent are on the staffs of dioceses or the National Council, 4 per cent are chaplains, 0.5 per cent are in monastic orders, 1.5 per cent are doing other than employed ministerial work, and 4.8 per cent have no working titles.

For participants in the Christian Ministries conference led by the Reverend Dr. Robert N. Rodenmayer, the division's executive director, the survey served as a second reminder that all is not well within Episcopal theological education.

From a year-long survey on this subject conducted by the Christian Ministries division and announced at the conference's plenary session, it was revealed that a great gap exists between what Episcopal seminarians are trained to do and what they actually do, once they become ordained.

A speech at the opening session by the Reverend Dr. Joseph G. Moore, Executive Officer of the Presiding Bishop's Strategic Advisory Committee, further backed up the thesis that dramatic changes must take place within the Church and its seminaries if ministry and mission are to be effective.

Christmas Message

It is a warm and somewhat humid day in the middle of September. My telephone rings. It is the man who must see that I have a Christmas message written and ready so that it will be distributed in time. He apologizes for such an early asking; I tell him I understand. So I begin.

But my first thoughts about the Good News of Christmas are all mixed up with the day's news: the bombing of a church and the murder of several Negro children; the opening of the General Assembly of the United Nations; the mustering of the necessary majority of affirmative votes in the Senate to ratify the Nuclear Test Ban Treaty. What will the headlines be in December, and what does this sort of news have to do with the News we sing about at Christmas?

First this. The joy of Christmas and the assurance and strength it brings does not arise out of the circumstances of our lives or the events of our time. It is rooted in this mighty fact: "And the Word became flesh and lived among us." The joy of Christmas is found in God's love poured out for us in Jesus Christ.

But we who celebrate this coming with great joy are in this present world, here, now. We cannot keep the fact of Christmas and the events of our lives in separate compartments; they are all of one piece. For God came into the life of the world in Jesus Christ, that He might take us into His own life. When we worship Christ, the new-born King, we are not taking refuge from the troubles and sorrows of the world, rather we bring ourselves and the world as we know it to God in Christ.

To celebrate Christmas then, is to greet Jesus Christ in our worship and in our work as the Lord of life.

St. Thomas' Chapel, Hanalei, Kauai

Dedication Service

On November 30th the Bishop dedicated the new classroom building for St. Augustine's Church, Kohala. The parish hall has been renovated so that it has taken on a new appearance, and the church has been remodeled. These are all great improvements to the property, and have been done under the leadership of the Vicar, the Reverend Albert J. Collins.

Christmas Song

Every child on earth is holy,
 Every crib is a manger lowly,
 Every home is a stable dim,
 Every kind word is a hymn,
 Every star is God's own gem,
 And every town is Bethlehem,
 For Christ is born and born again,
 When His love lives in hearts of men.

St. Thomas' Chapel, Hanalei, Kauai Consecrated

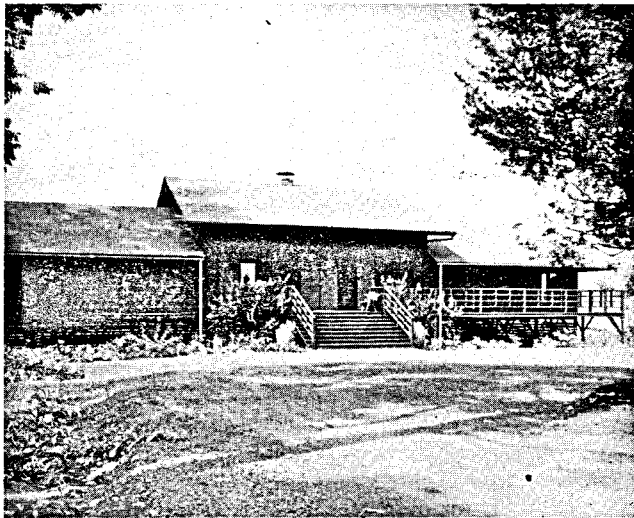

On December 18th, the Bishop consecrated St. Thomas' Chapel, Hanalei, Kauai. It is a beautiful contrast to the quonset hut which for so many years has been used for services.

The Chapel was consecrated to the Glory of God in loving memory of Anna Sophia Wundenberg Wright, and was made possible through the generosity of Mrs. Juliet Rice Wichman and the Episcopal Centennial Advance Program. Mrs. Wright was born in Hanalei in 1849. The chapel is a fitting memorial to her, located at her birthplace.

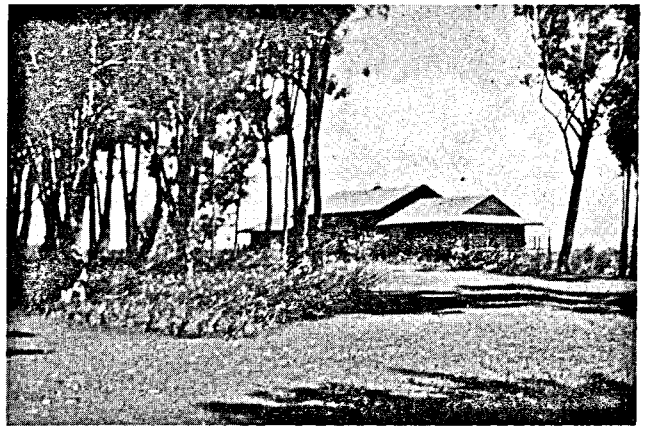

Assisting with the service was the Venerable Charles T. Crane, Archdeacon of Kauai and Rector of All Saints Church, Kapaa, the Reverend Thomas K. Yoshida, Associate Rector of All Saints Church and Vicar of St. Thomas' Chapel, and the Reverend Norio Sasaki, Vicar of St. John's Church, Eleele.

Seven young people were confirmed at the service. All Saints' Men's Chorale sang the Offertory Anthem.

Built on the rear of the Chapel is a room for the mission office, a bedroom and lavatory for the Vicar.

Mountain Home Gift to the District

The District is the recipient of a most wonderful gift. Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Hecht have given their Opaepa Lodge country estate to the Church for a Conference Center. This is located on the side of the mountain above Haleiwa.

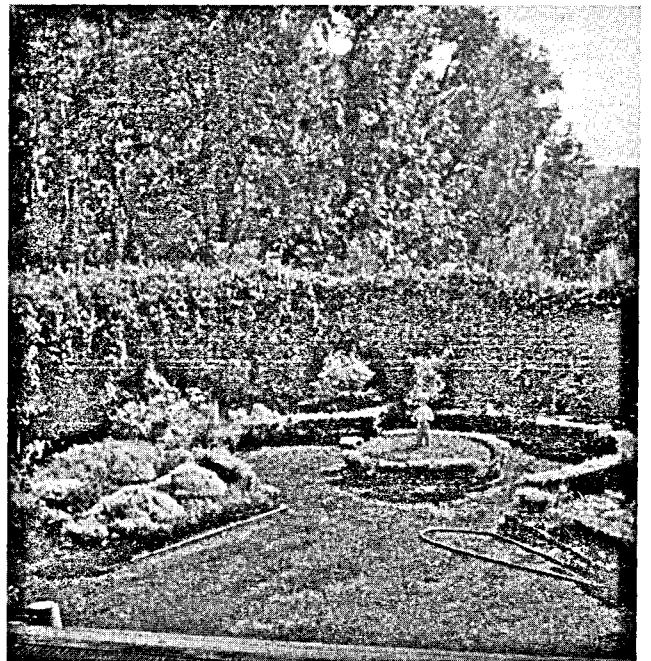

It is an eleven and a half acres of beautiful wooded country with many mountain trails. The view looks across the great valley and Waianae range of mountains.

The main building has five bedrooms and baths, dining room, kitchen and large living room with an open fireplace and huge sun deck.

This gracious gift will enable us to sell our Mokuleia site and build the necessary conference buildings for a year-round program. The site is on Bishop Estate land and has a twenty-nine year lease. The main building was constructed in 1959. There is also a duplex house at the entrance to the estate that may be used for a caretaker and guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Hecht have kindly left much of their furniture, as well as two automobiles for the use of the Church.

More will be printed in the Chronicle in future issues, but this report comes just as we are going to press. We cannot adequately express our appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Hecht for this wonderful and generous gift. We know what it is going to mean to so many in years to come.
