The crisis in the East is caused by the economic consequences certain to follow and to be suffered by the United States and Japan as a result of the diplomatic and military maneuvers of the Japanese residents in Indo-China. Norway's news is showing any re- sults. This is due to the fact that India's southern extension by the British and the United States in the event of Japanese aggression in the Indian Ocean. As a result, it is necessary to prove to the world that Japan's self-motivated armament and militarization is not a negative force, but a positive force, and a positive influence on the world.
