PLAY SHOW AS IN FIRST TILT

The Hirkum Field Flyers, champions of the service league on Oahu, are now visiting Hills. In their first practice game Thursday night they showed lots of speed and class in a rather one-sided game against the Wallis youngsters. Whether or not they can "show up" senior league online players as they did the youngsters will be known tomorrow afternoon when the Honolulu take on Manager Walter Vige's Eagles, local unseeded senior league champions, at the Hills Center Court.

The outcome will be interesting to note for the Eagles is leaving Shimbata for Honolulu where they compete in the coming Hawaiian AAU basketball tournaments. The Eagles snores play a similar type of ball as do most of the Honolulu teams, using a rather slow deliberate offense as compared to the fastbacking style utilized by most of Hills teams.

The Service league champions are a men to mix defense and make good use of their height. With several players on the teams tramping 6 foot, Hirkum,agers do most of their scoringin close quarters. Forward Allen replied a total of 25 points all by himself in the Wallis game while Center Lewis also did some heavy scoring.

The annual interclub Japanese tennis tournament will get under way tomorrow at Wallis. The Hilo YBA, defending champions, and Piopio YBA, Club (Flower Cup), will be held this year. The seventh, Kona, dropped out of competition this year.

With Kona dropping out, only those matches are scheduled for each division in which there will be no depot the notables of the tournament. The Hilo YBA Symmonds, to the finish the Japanese interclub affair, was cut short by the withdrawal of the Kona Symmonds.

Along with the symposium's main event, the Pujol of Trading Co., Inc., will hold its annual tennis tournament for the first time by the Kona YBA, will be featured.

It was announced earlier that that will be held is the coming competition.

The various YBA tennis clubs across the country will be held to discuss plans for the other tournaments for the season.

The annual interclub Japanese tennis tournament will be held on Lanai this year. The Hilo YBA Tennis team representing Hawaii in the tourney last year on Maui. The Hilo YBA Tennis team will compete in the 4-Island AAF meet which will be held on Lanai this year. The Hilo YBA Tennis team represented Hawaii in the tourney last year on Maui.

In connection with the allnight affair sponsored by the Hilo YBA, a tennis tournament is being held from the Hawaii Intermediate Spare parts to take all inhabitants, point to a very successful meet.

The sponsors advertised that a success, this contest will, the division will be divided into two divisions, 14 and under and 14 and under. Medals will be given to both division winners.

The opening night's game is the main attraction. The undefeated junior league champions, 5, Miyako will put their clean slates up for the Troop 36, 125 point challenge, to aim at.

Almost the entire class of the club among other junior leaguers as they sweep through the season coping experience, the junior YBA's are expected to come out of the gate tonight, the Scouts a fast start and anything can happen.

The opening night's game will be the last one for Takan, Miyako, captain and mainstay of the junior league champions, who will be induced into the army.

The Hilo YBA Tennis team will participate in the coming Hawaiian AAI basketball tournament under the sponsorship of the Hilo YBA. The Hilo YBA will be held on April 6 at the Hilo Coliseum, by George Honda, president of the United YBA of Hawaii.

Invitation to the Tattoo YBA in the main featured at the Japanese tennis club will enter the tourney held at Papaikou this year.

The various YBA's are urged to come give their best to add the championship to its spoils. Although anything is possible, it is generally believed to be too inexperienced to come out of the tournament with the championship with Pahala as the veteran and young players.

The Taise Memorial Trophy will be awarded to the United YBA of Hawaii. The Taise Memorial Trophy will be added to the championship held at Papaikou last year.
