Notes on Public Health

The food, drug, and cosmetic bill which will soon be presented to the Legislature contains several features which are of great improvement over Hawaii's present food and drug laws, according to M. B. Fairies, territorial food commissioner.

Outstanding among these, Mr. Fairies said, are provisions for the additional control of advertising, labeling, and the conditions under which products are produced or offered for sale.

Besides these features, the bill, which is based on the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and Uniform Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, which has been adopted in some form by 17 states, has retained ample, it prohibits the sale of any food, drug, or cosmetic which is declared by the director of health to be injurious to health, or which is not truthfully labeled.

The bill is considered more reasonable when taken as a whole, he continued, in the case of the so-called "bogus" foods which are purchased in the absence of such knowledge, and according to M. B. Fairies.

Addition is better than but not better defined, he said. For example, it is more difficult to control the production of any food, drug, or cosmetic than the sale of such products. Additionally, it was directed towards a: C:

Tsun Takahashi's Papakous were covered 1941 Hawaii Junior Baseball League champions on the resumption of an upset 4-2 victory of Shimamura over Showa yesterday afternoon at the podium park. Papakous will represent Hawai'i in the inter-island baseball series to be held in June in Honolulu.

Gordy Shima's Shimamura won--yet another tournament for the 1941 champions, Showa, as a result of their win yesterday over Papakous for the league lead. Shimamura had been the last team to complete their games, therefore, brought down as a result of the defeat.

Shima Tally Eloise

Showa drew first blood in the opening inning, as Shima took home a double, followed by a single. However, this was the only run scored by Showa, as the defense, led by the splendid play of Shima, shut down the offense in the next three innings.

The game continued with no scoring until the fifth inning when Showa took another run off the pitching of Shimamura.

In the sixth inning, Showa increased their lead to 2-1, as they scored two more runs, while Shimamura failed to score.

The seventh inning brought no runs, as both teams were unable to score, leaving the game with a score of 2-1 in favor of Showa.

The eighth inning was a重复 of the previous, with no runs scored by either team.

In the ninth inning, Shimamura made an attempt to score, as they managed to get two runners on base, but were unable to score and the game ended with Showa winning 2-1.

Final Score:

Shimamura 1-2-0-0-0-0-0-0-0
Showa 0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-1

Game Statistics:

Shimamura:

- Batter: 15
- Hits: 1
- Errors: 0

Showa:
