WINDING UP—Martha Raye, singer and actress and wife of Ben Hecht, said recently that she had no intention of returning to the screen. "I don't want to go back into pictures, and I don't want to go back into a supporting part," she said: "I don't have any plans to make a picture, and I don't want to make one."

HATE RESOLUTION—An Oklahoma club resolution, which was introduced by Mrs. Margaret Smith of Muskogee, calling for a "peaceful, non-militaristic" solution to the Palestine problem, was carried by the club. Mrs. Smith, who is a member of the Muskogee Federation of Women's Clubs, said that the resolution was inspired by the recent Palestine conference at the United Nations. The resolution called for a "just and permanent solution" to the Palestine problem, and for the establishment of a "sovereign, democratic state" for the Jews in Palestine. The resolution was adopted by the club with a vote of 20-0.

HORSES IN SATIN—Sophisticated gowns of Barbee College, New Orleans, were selected as outstanding and acclaimed as among the most fashionable and striking of the season. The gowns were designed by Mrs. E. S. Barbee, of the Barbee College of fashion, New Orleans, and were made of satin, silk, velvet, and other fine materials. The gowns were characterized by delicate embroidery and intricate lacework, and were worn by the models in a variety of styles, from flapper dresses to elegant evening gowns. The models were dressed in the latest fashion trends, and were presented in a grand fashion show. The gowns were selected as outstanding by the judges of the fashion show, who praised their design, fit, and overall appeal.

HILO THEATER HONORED WITH SPECIAL SONG

"HERE AMERICANS" BY JOHN DEWITT DEDICATED

John De Witt Stock, who heads the Hilo Theater, has just released a new song composition entitled "We're Americans." This patriotic composition is dedicated by Kenneth Nakashima, Marusa Rosario and Jack Field, was recorded for the first time last Friday night by musicians at the HiLO Theater.

The enthusiastic audience shouted for the last notes of patriotic on the theme. Many of the group among them recalled the experience of 1917 when they went marching along the cause of the Allies with songs like "Over There," "Jean of the Art," and "Tip-Top.

Both men and women of the song were created by Mr. Moley generally in commemoration of the HiLO Theater's first birthday.

The versese read:

WERE AMERICANS
From every corner of the earth,
Wishing you a happy and successful
Have gathered and given their
Thank you for being with us.

From little foot and sleepy,
Great voice was there and steady.

Chorus
We're Americans, We're Americans.
We're Americans, We're Americans.

We're Americans, We're Americans.
We stand for right and wrong.
To preserve democracy.
To make our dream come true.
We'll always be there.

Chorus
We're Americans, We're Americans.
We're Americans, We're Americans.

We're Americans, We're Americans.
