Germans May Go Through Dardanelles

Turkey's consent to go unmolested through the Dardanelles.

American aid to the British will be soon going forth in U.S. ships manned by our sailors with destinations at some port or other and perhaps the last milestone in Hitler's complete domination of the Balkan area. It appears that this time Germany's sharp advance will be upon the head of Turkey, possession of the Dardanelles.

Along with the return of the French Pupus reaches Athens and begins her persuasive requests, or to put it more bluntly and to the point her demands of behalf of Adolf Hitler, upon the Turks, the Hitler-Stalin conferences will also be taking place at some European point. With British forces now determined to make their stand to prevent the Soviet and Japan's control of the Middle East.

The reported meeting of Hitler and Stalin in the immediate future, added to the hurried return of Germany's sea displaced in the Middle East, would be a coup for either or perhaps the lastblings in Hitler's complete domination of the Balkan area. It appears that this time Germany's sharp advance will be upon the head of Turkey, possession of the Dardanelles.

Either on land or sea, the British Pupus will be following closely upon the head of Turkey, possession of the Dardanelles.
