The message which came from the White House yesterday through the words spoken by President Roosevelt and directed not only to the United States but to the four corners of the world was a clarion call, covered in the following three significant points, namely, America's unflinching determination: (1) to maintain and preserve the freedom of the seas, the right of all alike, covered in the words, "As far as humanly possible without endangering the independence and liberty of the American fathers and mothers from taking the risk of shedding human blood on foreign soil..."; (2) to be employed, until America succeeded in speeding up..."; (3) to maintain and preserve the status quo of the western hemisphere.

"If necessary, to fight for that policy. Here he gave no quarters..." and the British. It was a declaration of war not only to the United States but to the four corners of the world. Roosevelt's words were both penetrated by Japanese troops by yesterday afternoon.

31 Nuuanau Nataters Arrive For Memorial Day Meet

Mainichi Sporitorial

Joe Louis “most-moth” title defense program seems it will be in for a busy time, what with the heat and with Billy Conn coming up on June 13, a return match against Abe Glisson in New York in July, Louis vs. Leo Nova in September and perhaps another return bout with Buddy Baer “of olden days” sometime later on. All this of course is based on the theory that Joe Louis will flatten all his foes.

Joe Louis’s titular fight, his 17th, last Friday night against Buddy Baer ended in a controversy when Manager Anatoll Hoffman claimed the champ was outboxed and Baer, claiming that Louis threw but three blows or four seconds after the bell sounded in the fifth round.

The Columbia commission Monday deferred judgment on the question due to the fact that all the members weren’t present at the fight.

Before Arthur Donovan acted to his decision that the blow was struck after the bell but pressure and movement men claimed that the blow was struck after the bell.

If the sixth round was run into a defensive and triumphant sequence that would follow in the wake of actual combat on a national scale.

It is believed that the bell ended before the blow was struck.

The bell for the seventh round sounded and handlers still carried Louis’ corner and Baer’s corner men believed that the bell ended before the blow was struck.

The decision of the Columbia commission is expected to announce their decision today or sometime shortly. It is believed however, that they will not reverse Arthur Donovan’s decision but they may call for a return bout.
