COLORFUL PARADE WELCOMES PEARL HARBOR FESTIVAL

The Kaiserhafen Lodge will open its annual road show this year. The festivities will begin on July 7th, 1941.

On Monday night, June 9th, the students of the Kaiserhafen College will perform a variety show to raise money for the college. The show will be held at the College's amphitheater and is open to the public.

The following events are scheduled:

- June 10: The National Song Festival, featuring performances by the College's choirs and orchestras.
- June 11: A dance competition to select the best dance for the upcoming festival.
- June 12: A children's puppet show.
- June 13: A concert featuring local musicians.
- June 14: A parade through the streets of the city, with floats and music.
- June 15: A fireworks display to conclude the festival.

The Kaiserhafen Lodge looks forward to welcoming all visitors to this year's Pearl Harbor Festival.

ESCAPE from HEARTBREAK

by MARGARETTA BRUCKER

Valerie Wentworth, department store clerk in the town of Pennfield, was adopted by Dot Kane. Dot was Mrs. Kane's step-daughter, who had married a penniless assistant manager whose family lived in a log cabin across the street. Dot's parents had run away to Montreal, Canada, leaving Dot to be a friend of Terry's, but Valerie never knew her true past. She was told by Dot that she was a foundling, and that her parents were unknown. Later, Dot adopted Valerie and gave her the surname Kane. However, Dot was often heard saying, "I'm not her mother, I'm her foster mother."

In a training school and lives with a room-mate named Linda, Valerie keeps quiet about her unfortunate past. Terry, her admirer, tells her, "Your flashier escorts treat you to dinner. When he expresses his love, Valerie says, "I'm not your admiring, but Dot's." In response, Valerie asks, "Your admirers, Dot." Valerie, however, is wondering whether she's about to be left out.

CHAPTER XXIII

Valerie was sitting in her bedroom doorway. "What is this?" she asked. "How can I have such a lovely gift?" Valerie's mother was coming to New York, hoping to talk of other things. Valerie decided Dot is right. She was tired. The warm air of school, managed to ask, "Mayoral leader against the White Army, 1919-20." Valerie didn't know. Summer vacation is once more here. The Hilo Recreation Commission will once again open its ever-popular play areas and swimming pools starting from 2 p.m. Monday, June 5, at the various centers. Three playground centers are conducted annually by the HRC and hundreds of youngsters enjoy in its activities.

These playing centers which welcome all youngsters are located at Kamuela park, Hilo park, and the new Kaimuki playground park. A general get-together of the various centers in competitive sports as well as hikes, group singing, field meets, doll show, and a water carnival is also planned.

It was also announced that clubfoot classes under the leadership of Dr. Neil Kishi of the HRC staff will also be added on the program. Here's a good chance for future musicians to learn the art of stringing the violin.

This program by the HRC has proven without a doubt that play areas and swimming pools can save their future lives. Participating in the various activities that are being held by the centers keep a many child out of trouble. All parents of girls and boys in the vacation should urge their children who are not working or those who are too young to begin working to take part in this worthwhile HRC program.

The Hilo Recreation Commission, through Chairman Mother Kasai announced that this year's summer fun program will be bigger and better than ever before. Chairman Kasai extended his thanks to the multitudes of girls and boys who took part in last year's program and the many more that are planning to join this year's.
