WASHINGTON, June 19—With Japanese authorities allegedly preparing for a major offensive in the Southwest Pacific area, actual hostilities were still to be seen today. Some reports indicated the possibility of a major Japanese attack in the Southwest Pacific area in the near future. However, the possibility of a direct attack on the United States was not ruled out. The Japanese government has been seen as being more interested in the European situation, and the situation in the Southwest Pacific area has been described as being very fluid.

In an interview with reporters, a government official said: "The Japanese government has been considering the situation in the Southwest Pacific area, but the possibility of a direct attack on the United States is not ruled out. The Japanese are working on a number of different scenarios, and the situation is very fluid. The Japanese government has been considering a number of different options, and the possibility of a direct attack on the United States is not ruled out. The situation is very fluid, and the Japanese government is working on a number of different scenarios."
Conveyors Streamline Plane Production

BEFORE a leading defense official asked me if I could help him, he told me that he was surprised to find that a tiny country like Switzerland had no defense planes of its own. He said, "We have a small army, but we need defense planes too." I asked, "How did you know that?" He answered, "I was talking to a Swiss official." I said, "I think you should do something about it." He replied, "I'll see what I can do."
LAWs AFFECTING ISLAND OF HAWAII OR HAVING SPECIAL INTEREST TO ITS RESIDENTS

EDITOR'S NOTE: It will be some months before the Revised Laws will be made available to the public in book form. In the meantime, the city of Hilo has authorized the publication of the laws of the state of Hawaii which bear directly on the County of Hawaii, and which are of special interest to its residents.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS' INFELD DEFENSE TRIPLE-PLATELLING

NEW YORK UP!...But talk of Billy Southworth's spring success story will not make many of those 'tragedy stories' that so often appear in the papers now read dizzy and new (the Cardinals). The fact is that before the 1943 season was a man was the first manager of a baseball team to have his manager's jersey thrown onto the field by his own team for the first time in the National League. He was Billy Southworth, a name that had become so familiar over the years that the idea of his being managed by anyone else would have been a source of laughter.

THE INFIELD HAS CLASS

The rest, 11,310 throws, mostly to first base, represented the infield's total of 14,553 assists chalked up in the National League this season. Last season the infielders were represented by 15,651 assists, which is the highest total in the National League.

And that has stood since 1917 when the National League infielders were represented by 15,651 assists. Last season the infielders were represented by 15,651 assists, which is the highest total in the National League.

DEPARTURES

The Hilo Meisho YBA delegates are scheduled to leave for Honolulu on June 13th, the day after the tournament is completed. The delegates will arrive in Honolulu on June 14th, and the tournament will be held at the Hawaiian Hotel.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

The end came two minutes and 16 seconds after the tenth count. Referee Joe Louis, 25 1-2 from Pittsburgh, Billy Conn, sure did give Joe Louis a hard time. Joe Louis outlasted him, adding that he didn't have time to hit him in the twentieth round. Joe Louis admitted that Conn had 'hit him at times during the fight, but he'd had a tough fight. When asked whether or not Conn deserved a return match, Louis said, "Yes, I'd be glad to hit him any time."

John Louis won in 13 rounds, the 13th round after being punished in the 11th and 12th. He paid nearly $40,000.

This eighteenth titular defense on the part of Joe Louis turned out to be one of the best fights in recent years and it paid off in the end. Joe really showed remarkable ability and speed during the fight, and said that he had a tough fight. When asked how he solved the problem of his opponent, Joe said, "Yes, and I'd be glad to give it to him any time."

While it is not entirely clear what has gone amiss between the two powers for the present, however, with rumors of German encirclement in the air, the whole Red Birds' defense story, which for the immediate present seems to have been done any good, will be published soon.
