WASHINGTON, June 19—U. S. Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau announced today that a conference is being called and that the applications for the presidential order freezing assets of Portugal, Soviet Russia, Finland, Japan, and Spain do not include the Japanese in the list of those whose assets will be frozen pending the investigation of the question of whether the country is a belligerent or merely an ally of Germany.

The Secretary is to request the action of the president to exempt those individuals, and the conference is to be conducted on the same basis as the previous three countries.

The meeting will be held at the White House in Washington, D. C., on the 20th of this month, and the Secretary will be present.

JAPAN RECOMMENDS US TO REMOVE CONSUL STAFF

JAPANESE SOVEREIGNTY IS AT ISSUE AGAINST AMERICA

WASHINGTON, June 19—Col. W. M. Marston of the U. S. State Department has been informed by the Japanese government that it will recommend to the president to remove all consular staff from American consular offices in Japan, according to information received by the State Department.

The recommendation was made by the Japanese government in response to the U. S. government's demand that all consular staff be removed from American consular offices in Japan.

The recommendation is based on the fact that the United States has frozen the assets of the Japanese government and its representatives in the United States.

The U. S. government has stated that it will not rescind the order until the Japanese government agrees to remove all consular staff from American consular offices in Japan.

The Japanese government has stated that it will not remove all consular staff from American consular offices in Japan until the United States rescinds the order.

The situation is expected to continue for some time, with the possibility of further diplomatic negotiations being held between the two countries.

In the meantime, the U. S. government will continue to monitor the situation and take necessary action to protect American interests in Japan.
