GOOD LUCK IF YOU'RE STAYING ON THE RED SIDE.

Baseball fans that miss the BIAU Hilo base eliminations are indeed losing out in seeking the best games heretofore, barring none. In the final of the East Division—the runner-up Spoons are left out on the equaled, if not stronger, Olsen team sometime this season.

Both of these teams are composed of mostly Junior League players, with Leppers getting most of their boys from the Hilo district, while the Banana Bats are cur­rently in the Junior circuit along with 299th Infantry.

Olsen team, the 1941 championship Olsen Japanese Junior league team.
The winner of the Leppers-Olsen game will represent Hilo in the Big Island final to be held in Naalehu on July 24th. Hilo and the Okinawa district will also take part in the championship affair.

It is estimated that the Naalehu district will rep­resent the Kau district. They are the Big Island defending champions and last year they also edged the Four Island Amateur Athletic Federation title on Lewis.

The Naalehu team will play the championship favorably in every respect, but the Olsen team will more than enough to make the strongest team produced around those parts with the ex­ cceptions of a few of the big visitors.

Incidentally the Big Island championship has the right to represent Hawaii in the coming JBA baseball league.

DID YOU see the beautiful trophy donated by the Ha­ well Brewing Company, Ltd., bottlers of Primo beer, to the almost invincible Naalehu baseball team now on display at the Hilo Hotel drug store and its branch in Naalehu.

Unquestionably this is the most and most attractive cup ever given away by the Hilo Racing Club. It is 70 inches high and . . . well, take a look at yourself when you pass down Machida Drug way sometimes.

Such a trophy as this is an incentive to the local senior league players. We anticipate that this year’s trophy chase beginning is a heated and a close one.

TOLEDO, June 27—Byron Nelson, National PGA champion, yesterday, said he is having a bad hair day.

In the lone afternoon contest at Philadelphia Golf Club, Nelson’s shots were not as accurate as they ought to be. He got by with a one stroke deficit to lead the final nine holes of the tournament.

The semi-finals matches will be played tomorrow at 50:00 p.m. at the Hokutake Park.

In five days of play thus far, the Oriental Turtles are leading the pack with five straight wins. They have expectedly treated with more than a score below par. The High and Smoke are on top for the other position with a one and a half strokes lead over them.

Barring accidents and weather delays, the four finalists should appear after victory over the first round titlists when they will go on to finish the second round with the final pairing.
