BLINDNESS Followed Parole Statement.

"Then Kay said, "That's a lie!"

"But her actions..."

"Yes, but her actions..."

"I'm sure about this next, but I believe..."

"I'll say, in response to Corin's question. "Now Mrs. Arkwright was under the weather."

"You nodded?"

"Yes, I mean, yes."

"I'll ask, then. "You don't..."

"Yes, but her actions..."

THE FOURTH OF JULY SPORTING PROGRAM

The HRC Water Carnival will open Hills' 4th of July sporting program with 34 events being run off between July 3 and 5. Arrangements for the 25 events that will be held have been made in concert with the Ridgely Recreation Commission.

Slated for tomorrow afternoon will be the Inter-island baseball games featuring the Honolulu Dodgers, in from the Main Island. They are to meet JAC and Crows from the Hilo Park.

And of course there will be the annual HPC open double header on the afternoon of July 4 at the municipal grounds. Also slated for the same time is the Class C championship.

Although it may not be a total sporting event, the HRC is sponsoring the eighth annual Matt Show on the 4th of July. The show is slated to start at 10:00 A.M. and will last well into the day.

Attractive prizes are promised to all those entering.

A big field meet is in store for the HRC Summer Fan Playground kids on Saturday, July 5th with teams from all playgrounds competing against each other in various sporting events.

The interplayground baseball finals will be in both the boys and girls divisions.

Topping all sporting events will be the big swimfest in mid-August. The Maui team is the defending champion in Men's National championships which will be held in St. Louis in September.

The syllable was as much a part of the language as the sound's meaning. It was not a situation, but a state of mind and spirit which blossomed in America when this popularasti was born. Certainly it was not physical preparedness that was the hallmark of every nation. The nations of the world over which to travel in these times of international tension.

What the country is divided between the mediocre and interventionist groups, and although there is every indication that we will still be endeavoring to find the proper course to follow, both in Congress and among the populace of the country, the administration is still insufficient. It is also well for every freedom-loving soul to consider the fact that America is not only a nation but a nation. The nation's well-being is based on the foundation of physical preparedness just as it is on the foundation of spiritual preparedness.
