In a special interview with a reporter from the Hawaii Mainichi yesterday Fred H. Kanee, Territorial Administrator of Defense, said that it was now time to realize the tax burden of defense saved by staggering the tax burden over a ten to twelve-year period in the first instance, rather than the huge sum of $20,000,000,000 now being considered by the committee as a maximum defense tax. John Smith, one of the most influential members of the defense committee, said that it was necessary for the government to seek immediate action in the matter of defense. Smith also said that the committee was considering the possibility of staggering the tax burden over a ten to twelve-year period in the first instance, rather than the huge sum of $20,000,000,000 now being considered by the committee as a maximum defense tax.
MRS. Nina S. Andrus, 45, said she was in her home in the 1200 block of Koko Dial when she saw her 7-year-old son, David, details of the murder. She reported that she heard a noise and turned to see her son lying on the floor. She then ran outside and called for help.

Walter E. Andrus, 35, also reported that he heard a noise and ran outside to see his son lying on the floor. He then ran inside and called for help.

Police arrived and found the boy lying on the floor with a bullet wound. They immediately began rendering first aid. The boy was taken to the hospital and died shortly after arrival.

The investigation is ongoing and no suspects have been identified at this time. The public is asked to provide any information that may be helpful in solving this case.
WASHINGTON, April 18, 1941

City of London, England, April 18, 1941,

To "Finest of All,"

I have been here two weeks and I have found the English to be very friendly and polite. Many of them speak some English and are very helpful. The food is good and the people are very hospitable.

Sincerely yours,

SENSATIONAL HIT STREAK ENDS AT 56

PITCHERS, AL SMITH AND JIM MACK, SHATTER HIT STREAK YESTERDAY

CLEVELAND, July 18—The sensational record-setting hit streak of AL SMITH and JIM MACK, two of the Central League’s best-known pitchers, ended yesterday with the defeat of the Cleveland Indians by the New York Yankees, 5-2.

The hit streak was compiled during a series of 14 consecutive games. The New York Yankees won, however, the game by 5-2.

The record-smashing hit streak was started by Dimaggio, was the most sensational pitching performance in the history of the Major League. Until now the bio shows that there was no streak in more seasons. It is believed this outstanding hit stalking record will be hit only once more in the

Shutters Former Mark

The hit streak showed by Dimaggio sustained the 1922 record of 56 games, the record held by Bob Feller of the New York Yankees. Joe holds another hitting record, however, the record of 64 games, in a single, straight season. Joe, however, in 64 games made in the minor leagues.

The credit of stopping the Yankees' famous hit streak today goes to pitcher Al Smith and catcher Joe Sheets.

Joe Dimaggio just said that he was not too impressed by the streak last night, and that he did not have time to play.
