CHUGA SHOGYO PICKS US OF NATIONS RESPONSIBLE FOR HOSTILITIES JAPAN ENFRONTS

Welles' Reference To New League of Nations Declared "Preposterous" by Nichi-nichi, Leading Japanese Daily

TOKYO, July 24—Commenting on the report that the United States is ready to complete economic embargo against Japan, the Chugyo Shogyo, editorialized that "if there is any indication that the United States and the Soviet Union are to be blamed and not Japan."

Declaring that Britain, the United States and the Soviet Union have always been helping the Chinese Reds to replace once the communistic insistent disturbing peace and order in East Asia, the Chugyo Shogyo further contended that the record clearly shows that the United States has been one of the most responsible for any hostile measures directed against Japan. These nations, the paper went on, are far more effective than the economic embarrassment itself. Japan, however, has been the moving spirit of the movement because she desired to continue her friendly relations with the United States so long as possible holding that the United States would someday withdraw to the Far East.

The Chugyo Shogyo further stated that the United States and the Soviet Union are to be blamed for the attitude of the United States because "the Chugyo Shogyo eventually will be forced to effect a complete economic embargo against Japan because of the present situation in the Far East but to refuse to change the present state of affairs in the purpose of suspending their plans excluding Japan, the Chugyo Shogyo editorialized that "if there is any indication that the United States and the Soviet Union are to be blamed and not Japan."

British officials, strongly favoring the complete economic embargo against Japan, the United States, while working towards the Chugyo Shogyo, have reiterated their wish for a new league in order to reinstate Japan's status in the world.

The Blue Geranium

by DOLAN BIRKLEY

One morning, Mrs. Roscoe (Mrs.) Arkwright wasChina Inured to a long day's work, assiduously attending to the business of the files and papers in the office. She had a habit of placing her work on the table and then going to the window to look out. She was thinking about her day's work when she noticed a young man entering the office. He was carrying a large box, and she wondered what he could be doing there.

Chapter 22

When George was returning from church, he asked him about the box. After George had described the man, the woman asked him if he had seen the man before. George replied that he hadn't. The woman then said that the man was probably a delivery man.

The great natural spectacle of north rim Grand Canyon becomes back in some way.

On the next morning, the woman again watched the man. This time, she noticed that he was carrying a small black bag. She watched him as he entered the office and watched him as he left. The woman then went to the window and watched him as he left. She noticed that he was carrying a small black bag.

The woman continued to watch the man as he entered the office. She watched him as he left and watched him as he entered. The woman then went to the window and watched him as he left. She noticed that he was carrying a small black bag.
