AS THE CROW FLIES

It’s Called Far Off Direct Route

DALLAS, Tex. (UP) — There’s nothing direct about the way the crow flies, Roy L. Mitchell, operations manager in charge of flying for American Airlines, Iberico.

“In fact,” he says, “if a transport pilot were to navigate the crow’s flight, he would draw a sharp reprimand from the operations office.”

In debunking the simile of the mythical straight flight of the crow, Mitchell declares there are several birds more directly in their flight.

The American operations chief who has some doubts as to the simile “as swift as a bird.” “You can’t use the bird’s flight as a measure by which speed of flight may be judged.”

Mottled black bird and its speeds, Mitchell said, are the purple martin and the blue jay at 20 miles an hour; the sparrow, 25; ten miles an hour; the hawfinch, 45; the hummingbird, 55; wild turkey, 55 miles; the crow, 60; the swallow, 100 miles, and the golden eagle, 115.

“However,” Mitchell said, “you have to go back to nature for the fastest flight ever recorded, although an insect instead of a bird did the trick. The fastest flying insect known is 18 miles an hour, attained by the male deer fly, a small insect whose mottled wings are still to be matched in efficiency by the propeller.”

On the ground the cattlemen, times at 20 miles an hour, is supreme among living creatures, the operations head said.

“Man’s fastest speed is 21.7 miles an hour, achieved by Jesse Owens at 100 meters.”

HISTORIAN URGES LETTERS OF TRAINEES BE SAVED

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UP) — Save those letters from the boys at camp. That’s the advice of David L. Darden, of the Alabama department of archives and history, who said they may have great historical value 100 years from now.

Among the most interesting papers in one files today, and the ones that tell the true story of the Civil War, are the letters from president in the second army, he said.

"These letters, purely personal when written, were turned over to the state and now reflect the conditions that really existed them."

He urged that families of trainees save their letters, with the provision that they be given to historical agencies.
