Bossy Is a Real Glamor Gal Now

What good, hard-working one couldn't be a lonesome plains girl with this kind of build-up, say queen of Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona, or their jock to horse country, (what one can't do for pleasure in the horse way, huh?)

ITALIAN GUN.—Recent clashes over aged border disputes between Peru and Ecuador brought out interesting information. When Peruvian captured his gun from Ecuadorian troops, it was found to be a Breda, of Italian make. Here it is processed for exhibition in Lima, Peru.

FIGHTING PROHIBITION

Despite the enactment of Prohibition in 1920, many people continued to enjoy alcohol. In Hawaii, the islanders were particularly fond of their drink and were not willing to give it up easily. Governor Joseph B. Shannon, a non-drinker, was determined to fight against Prohibition, even though it was a difficult task.

A PERSONAL EXAMPLE

Shannon's determination was evident in his personal life as well. He was known for extolling the virtues of teetotalism and for never allowing alcohol to interfere with his work or personal life. His example served as an inspiration to many people in Hawaii, who also shared his commitment to sobriety.

HUMAN STATUE

FRIEND OF SMALL BUSINESS

His appointment in chairman of the house committee to investigate government competition with business was a high honor for a freshman congressman. He was concerned primarily with the fate of the small business man—a concern that animated his favorite Kansas City restaurant, when he learned its business would be affected severely by government's bookkeeping methods, which he said were “muddled.”

In Congress he championed anti-trust law protections and for a national accounting system to replace the government's bookkeeping methods, which he said were “muddled.”

TOKI IMANO HURLES ONE-HIT NO-RUN GAME OVER WRECKERS IN TITULAR TITLE OF TOURNAY

Hideo Suga Beats Out Bunt to Rob Winning Pitcher of a Perfect Game, Shin's Tally Both Runs in Second Inning

Sugauke Toki Imano, turning in his finest mound performance, hurled a one-hit no-run game for the Wreckers in a one-hit shutout for the Wreckers over the Pirates, 3-0.

It was a bats first hit line by Hideo Suga, beet of every inning of the game, from the ninth inning that robbed Imano of a no-hit game. Take Segawa, both infield and the lead, rallied in to Tomosato, according to the ninth inning. Tomosato dropped the throw.

Fan opinion was divided on the Both Wahines Game of the Week Postponed

For another reason, and another, half a dozen women's matches were postponed for this weekend beginning the afternoon session, which was postponed because the sun was shining all day.

The defending champion Lavinia Jones, whose brother Earle Jones was absent from the tournament, said she was greatly relieved that the tournament was postponed.

Eleanor Dudley two and one. Boosted by a World Grand Slam, the tournament was scheduled to begin today, but Miss Charters won the first day.

Orcutt seven and six, and Clara Newell, and Mrs. Frank Goldthorp. Curran, one of the T.R.C. players, got the crowd's vote of confidence in a no-hit, no-run game.

The Pirates, going into the last inning of the game, had a 3-2 lead. But the Pirates had only one man on base and Suga's pitching was too much for the Pirates.

Mike Ferores was called for a double play to end the inning. But the concord had battled back for two runs in the first inning. The Pirates led 2-0 after two innings. Mike Ferores walked on the bases and drove in a run.
