The Japanese Chronicle, an English newspaper published in Kobe, states that the United States, Britain, and Japan are riveting all their efforts toward a peaceful solution and each can gain only by compromise.

The Chronicle says, "It, of course, this rivalry means that both Britain and America have for the moment dropped all idea of reconciliation and are only seeking to protect their national interests. No Japanese can take this without a moment with western powers over a such a desire providing that they really mean what they say and mean it very solemnly."

Britain and the United States have no desire for hegemony in the Far East and they merely desire to protect their interests in the East. Great Britain and her colonies in the Pacific have been depending on America for support and have caused the United States to plunge deeper into the Asiatic conflict. As long as Great Britain and her colonies seek mony in the Far East and they merely desire to protect their...

BELIEVE YOU CAN DO IT

One day in 1907, a little boy of 8 years old was crying in a small room in London, England. He was supposed to be doing his lessons, but he couldn't stand it. He wanted to be a pilot. He was a pilot, though he had never flown a plane before. He was a pilot at heart. He had been promised a job with the Air Corps, but he couldn't wait any longer. He wanted to be a pilot. He wanted to fly. He wanted to see the world from above. He wanted to feel the wind in his hair. He wanted to feel the sun on his face. He wanted to feel the earth beneath his feet. He wanted to feel the freedom of flight. He wanted to feel the thrill of adventure. He wanted to feel the thrill of discovery. He wanted to feel the thrill of being alive. He wanted to feel the thrill of being free. He wanted to feel the thrill of being a pilot. He wanted to feel the thrill of being a hero. He wanted to feel the thrill of being a champion.
