The Tragedy of X

Ellery Queen, a household word to millions through magazines, books, radio and screen, gives you a plot of such complexity and ingenuity that it will keep the most experienced sleuth on the edge of his seat. He comes on the scene in a case where there is a mystery to be solved and a murder to be proved. Once you begin to follow him, you'll find yourself entangled in a web of intrigue that could have been woven by nothing less than the master himself.

For $1,000,000—the largest single amount ever offered to the public—Edward P. Durell, in a new book of mystery entitled "A Mathematical Crime" offers a reward of $1,000,000 to anyone who can solve the case of the "mathematical murder." The case involves a mysterious death in a room where a mathematical formula was being used to solve a complex problem. The formula was discovered to be the key to unlocking a treasure hidden in a remote location.

THEME OF THE CHRISTMAS SEAL

The lighthouse theme of this year's Christmas Seals, sold throughout the United States to aid the relenting drive on tuberculosis, has a classic symbolism, according to Clay-Wood, chairman of the Entertainment Department of the United States Department of Tuberculosis.

The first lighthouses in the United States is believed to be the lighthouse on Little Egg Harbor near the town entrance beyond Bar Harbor. It was established in 1716, the present year, dating from 1850. The original sable chimney, formerly painted as they were on water traffic, gave early attention. By 1887, when Congress was founded, the lighthouse system was established. After the nation's government organization, expansion of the lighthouse system was provided for, and in 1888, Capt. Benjamin Dhowel was sent to the United States.

The broad theme of lighthouses provided the inspiration for Art in Industry of the United States. The idea was to symbolize the lighthouse, or guiding light, as the symbol of hope and guiding the way for the course of action, as well as guiding the path of life.

The average value of oranges is stated as being 80 cents per pound. Some oranges are reported to contain 82 mg of vitamin C, an average content of 82 mg of vitamin C for the dollar.

The value of vitamin C in the proper diet is stated as being 80 percent of the original value of vitamin C per pound. All the little major for 10 percent of the original size of vitamin C per pound. This is a statement that the vitamin C in the orange is destroyed by heating and by heating, as well as by cooking.

Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery-Osa Massen, is the companion feature. The romantic comedy featuring George Montgomery and Miss Dunn, who was known as the discovery of King Kong. The little major for 50 percent was determined that 50 percent of the original vitamin C in the orange is destroyed by heating and by cooking.

And that, in essence, is the same statement that the Christmas Seal has helped to keep the nation's health secure.

That's why the Christmas Seal is such a success in its fight for tuberculosis.
The Island of Hawaii Golf Champion Soli Mukai proved his stuff last Sunday at the Oahu Links when he whipped the General Paint Trophy by startling the course record by two strokes.

With an eagle eye and a sure putter, he shot three birdies and 10 pars which is surely some playing. Pink, he was the only Japanese golfer to score in the low 90’s last night, but it was always the case of a high score he was hunting in the previous tournaments. Soli Mukai is almost always the man who lowers his handicap in any tourney.

In the National Paint tournament, however, Mukai carded a 54 for the first round and then another 54 for the second round which took the title by a four-stroke margin. His record at the My Links will be something to be admired by the up-and-coming gingers of this island.

As expected the infallible Hilo Electric Light Co’s half-brother, Helco, was the HBC Conference champion. The first round championship without even a struggle.

In their first game they defeated KMC 8-0, and then came Hilo Iron Works 34-16 and then 299th Infantry 45-17.

Two straight defeats, however, all the rest of the other teams are expected to take. Transportation, von Hamm, and Helco are expected to be deadly shooters and may be counted upon to do heavy damage.

Mukai in establishing a new course record shot two birdies and 16 pars which is surely some playing. He took the General Paint trophy and it might be mentioned that Carter Stephens, captain of the Hilo Badminton Club was held up two set matches, but still managed to win him 18-16, 14-14.
