LEADING JAPANESE, DAILY ON ISLAND OF HAWAII

PAPERS CLAIM JAPAN READY TO CONFRONT ANY HOSTILITY SHOWN TOWARD JAPAN BY U.S.

Claim Japan continued negotiating with United States in order to preserve peace.

TOROYOMI, Nov. 5—All metropolitan newspapers braces for news of any rising tension in the Pacific as a consequence of reports that Japan may be preparing to make any move to show its force and military might toward other countries. It was reported that Japan's foreign minister has admitted to reports that the country's military might is being used to make it known to other countries that the military might is being used to make it known to other countries that Japan is prepared to face any hostility toward the country.

Recent reports of alleged Japanese aggression in various parts of the world have caused the newspaper to brace for the possibility of any anticipated aggression by Japan as a result.

UNG EXTENSION NEWS

NAALEHU UNIVERSITY EXTENSION CLUB
Fifteen members attended the regular meeting of the Naalehu University Extension Club on Tuesday afternoon, October 26. Miss Sylvia Nord, home demonstration agent, made suggestions regarding the buying and storing of food and household supplies in the national defense program. The members were urged to stick to the labels when buying canned foods, in order to be wise buyers, and to store as much in the way of canned foods as possible.

Four new members were taken in. They are Mrs. Lola Berdahl, Mrs. Frances Sammarp, Mrs. Romanino Ramos, and Mrs. Lillian De Morales.

PAAHUA UNIVERSITY EXTENSION CLUB MEETS
The University Extension Club at Paahua held its meeting one week earlier than the regular meeting date. The county home demonstration agent discussed Food Storage as possible. Others liked it very much.

PAAUHA UNIVERSITY EXTENSION CLUB MEETS
On October 26, our meeting was held at our leader's home at one o'clock. Twelve members were present at the meeting. Miss Sylvia Newel, home demonstration agent, gave two demonstrations on Papaya Milk Shake and Guava Nog. Pauline Mrs. Kara, our agent, came to visit us and she gave two demonstrations on cakes and cookies. Sevilla and Rose Sevilla were her assistants. We learned that after the marriage, the couple left for a flying honey moon. Miss Betty Lingle, Evanston, Ill., wore a bridal gown made from the parachute that was married when she was married to Richard K. West. After the marriage, the couple left for a flying honey moon.

VOLCANO 4-H CLOTHING
On October 26, our meeting was held at our leader's home at one o'clock.

During our roll call each girl was asked to say what kind of accessories she is planning to make. Some of the things mentioned were purses, belts, kerchief and hat.

After a short business meeting the meeting was turned over to Miss Hongo. She showed the members how to make the pattern on the dress materials and to cut the dress. Five girls cut their designs.

Our meeting was adjourned at our club pledge at four o'clock.

That dark-haired year's most brilliant pianistic prodigy, Ray Robinson, happened most suddenly to flash his presence out of thin air as manager's choice. The 14-year-old prodigy, Fredzie Zivic, last Friday night in the Madison Square Garden, has already been turned into one of the greatest concert artists of the world after winning the Viennese Chopin Competition. Robinson earned himself a crack at the world-championship now held by Felix Vachon. This title bout is slated to be held somew-...
