CONTRACTORS ARE GRANTED ROAD WORKS

MOTION ASSURING BETTER CONDITION BETWEEN COUNTY, AGENT FASSED

The board of supervisors was urged to vote in the November regular meeting yesterday to grant the following work contracts:

G. M. Biggert, Folsom road, $14,240.

Morse Atkins, construction of Folsom road, $16,250.

M. L. Chandler, installation of bridge over Bear River, $2,000.

M. G. Skidmore, section of Coloma road, $7,615.

The American Legion was permitted $13 to help defray expenses of a parade and picnic.

November 8 & 9—Curtis introduced a motion, which passed unanimously, to request the county superintendent of schools to survey all the roads in the county and to home the board an accurate account of the road improvements that have been done in the county in the past two years. Curtis said that he is in no way to come to a conclusion or recommendation on the roads in question. He pointed out that property owners are as interested as the county in the county roads. The motion was seconded and the question was put to the vote. The vote was passed unanimously.

November 10—An amendment to the road report was approved to the effect that there are still some roads that need to be repaired.

The motion was seconded and the question was put to the vote. The vote was passed unanimously.

More U. S. British

Aid Asked by Stalin

The anti-American diplomat known as "Shushin" and the Anglo-American diplomat known as "Kasai" have been discovered by the JCAG and the Japanese press. The objectives of the October revolution appeared to be to establish a British-Japanese military cabinet in which the British would be in a position to form a new government in Japan. The purpose of the October revolution was to establish a new government in Japan. The two men were discovered by the JCAG and the Japanese press.

The two men claimed the last 10 months since the beginning of the October revolution as the most important. The two men are stated to be in favor of the British-Japanese military cabinet. They claim that it was decided that the new government in Japan be established.

JAPANESE BUSINESS

BANNED IN PANAMA

Panama, Nov. 8—All Japanese commercial establishments in Panama were banned under the new pro-Japanese status of the Japanese government's action, which is the result of the October revolution. During President Akihito's visit to Panama, some Japanese business concerns were allowed to continue their operations in order to benefit the Japanese government in Panama.

ALL PACKAGES TO BE INSPECTED BY CUSTOMS DEPT.

All packages that were received at the Honolulu postoffice for dispatch to Japan on the 19th were held back for a long period of time. The inspection was carried out by the United States postoffice.

A motion was passed to have the United States postoffice and the Japanese postoffice work together to inspect the packages.

BRETT STUDIES RAF REQUIREMENTS

This week is designated as the fire prevention week. The public is urged to cooperate in the observance of the fire prevention week. Clean up your rubbish and put the Chilean road outside where the county trucks will carry them away.

A neglected rubbish pile often has been the cause of dangerous conflagration, destroying human lives and homes. In advance of the fire week, let the county rubbish men carry away. It won't cost you a cent. You should take advantage of the fire prevention week the firemen are trying to make.

No delay or stop until the new year. Do it now!
BASKETBALL'S GOLDEN JUBILEE—Basketball's 50th anniversary will commemorate the name of Dr. Naismith, the inventor. Here's painting of Dr. Naismith, shown in New York, to be displayed at the exhibition.

"A pretty girl—she isn't your average..."

She glanced at the man's face and then back at the table. Her eyes widened as she realized the implication. "You mean..."

He nodded, his expression serious. "I'm afraid so. I've been trying to warn the authorities..."

She stood up, her voice firm. "And I'm going to help you. We can't let this happen..."

He smiled gratefully. "Thank you. You've been a real help..."

She smiled back, her heart pounding with excitement. "I know. And I'm glad to help. Let's do it together..."

He grinned, taking her hand in his. "I think we can do it..."

She nodded, her eyes shining with determination. "Together, we can make a difference..."

He squeezed her hand, his expression one of hope. "Yes, we can..."

She smiled, her heart full of joy and purpose. "Let's do it..."
