Evacuation Ordered To Many Britishers

The British government has ordered the evacuation of all British citizens in Japan.

The announcement came after it was reported that several British nationals had been arrested in recent weeks.

The measure was taken to protect their safety and to ensure their repatriation.

Pacific Islands

A further 200 British nationals have been evacuated from the Pacific Islands.

The evacuation comes after a number of British citizens were reportedly injured in recent protests.

The British government has said that all efforts will be made to ensure the safety and well-being of those repatriated.

The evacuation is expected to continue in the coming days.

Jane Andrews' one ambition is to fly. Her father flies and, as he has often told her, he once thought of trying to fly for the Navy. He speaks of it with the enthusiasm of a man who knew the experience of flying, and who regretted that he had not been able to do it himself.

As her father had promised, she had already been to see Mr. Prescott, the nearest recruiting station, and had asked to be put in touch with a member of the Air Force who would tell her of a plan they had for organizing a unit of girl flyers. Mr. Prescott had promised to call and interview her.

Tommy Andrews, however, does not know that his sister has even mentioned this plan to Greg Prescott. Greg Prescott, young and lighthearted, has, as his father had said, taken to women comparatively early in his life. As he tells it, he had been in his ten-score years a constant flyer, and had been to Paris as an army officer, and to other places where his parents, who were both air enthusiasts, had taken him. Taught to be better consumers by reading the labels on the products and by following the demonstration agent, on Thursday morning at the home of Members of the Volcano Extension Club.

Newel, home demonstration agent, discussed food storage as well as serving guava juice to their families daily. Guava juice is a great source of vitamin C and is also used in making jelly and butter. Guava jelly to date, 24 quarts; guava butter, 13 1/2 quarts; and other guava products have been prepared and served.

Six members reported that thus far they were able to eat all the guava that was available to them. Suggestions for buying and storing food and household products were also discussed.

At the next meeting to be held on the 18th of the month, Tsuru Haruguchi, Haru Tango, Fukuyo Segawa, Same Tachi, Betty Y. Yano, and others will attend. Martinez Home Demonstration will conduct a demonstration of papaia milk shake at the regular meeting.

GAYA JELLY POPULAR AT ONOMI A

Eight members of the Orono Extension University Club have reported making 240 quarts of jelly since the guava season started in September. While jelly is most popular at Orono, the members are also bottling juice for future use, as well as making guava juice for their daily meals. Guava jelly and juice also appear at the home demonstration.

At the last meeting, Miss Alice Kroll demonstrated guava dumplings which are as fine for the lunchbox as for the home meal.

Their regular meeting on November 4, Miss Sylvia Newton, home demonstration agent, discussed food storage and buying problems with the members.

These projects were Miss Alice Kroll, Miss Monica Kenmoto, Miss Sadako Nakano, Miss Toyo Nakahara, Mrs. Ayako Tsuchiya, Mrs. Toshie Shigehara, and Mrs. Ayako Tsukada.

VOLCANO UNIVERSITY EXTENSION A

Eight members of the Volcano University Extension Club have reported meeting on November 4, Mrs. Elsie M. Hara, assistant home demonstration agent, on Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Tokio Shiroma, project leader.

Suggestions for buying and storing food and household supplies for emergency use were given. The women were taught to keep a record of reading the labels on the containers or packages and convenience wherever possible by listening to popular country music.

A discussion of Citizenship Circular G, "Our Federal Government," was given.

Six members reported that thus far they were able to gather guavas from elsewhere and put up the following:

- 76 quarts guava juice
- 2 quarts guava catsup
- 4 bottles guava wine

These present at the meeting were Madame Shimizu Yaegai, Tsuru Haruguchi, Haru Tango, Fukuyo Segawa, Same Tachi, Betty Y. Yano.

Although nine straight knockout victories attended his debut since turning professional last June, 175-pound Japanese bantam Joe Yasutake will be fighting his first main event on November 14, and he won't be afraid of the enterprising follower of the Stanford football team, and he will be highly unfettered once he begins his first fight will undoubtedly go a long way in deciding the future of the Japanese slugging artist.

When Yasutake gets his knockout punch and can keep up his knockout punch among top-notch fighters will be known after his main event on November 14. Should the boys get into another KO in this bout, he will be knocked the long consecutive knockout punch of his opponent Tommy back in the early 30's.

The former Japanese lightweight and Yasutake holds the knockout record of 9 straight.

Even for the outstanding car of the Yasutake main event will be a stadium called Dodo Marino. It won't be long, however, before Marino fights in the main event if he keeps up the present pace.

The Honolulu promoter is running short of opponents for Dodo Marino and pretty soon he'll have to be importing them for the Filipino boxer.

Former Simon Pures are seemingly doing alright in the pug ring in Honolulu, Beside Yasutake and Marino, others surprising for their fame as they are the latter's are Lucas Poulson, Willis Green and Eddie Townsend.

Although not much money is going to these fighters, they have been piling quite a number of wins for themselves. Townsend has had about seven or eight victories in his career so far. However, Poulson has all his fame that he took part in.

When Lucas Poulson is having quite a time in finding opponents, for fighters want no part of the slugging Filipino bantam. However, it was announced that Gomules is going to make his debut in Honolulu and these two have been matched for November 14.

BANTAMWEIGHT Champion Los Salmen is ranked No. 2. Champion Lou Salica is ranked No. 1. Los Salmen is ranked No. 3.
