He Covers British Malaya News

DEFENSE WEEK PROCLAIMED BY S. SPENCER

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S PROCLAMATION IS FOLLOWED

Chairman of the Selective Service yesterday proclaimed the President's "Defense Week" proclamation effective through the entire country.

Thus, President Roosevelt's proclamation will apply to all American citizens over 18 years of age, and will be observed throughout the United States.

All in Readiness for Gala Parade Tomorrow Morn.

A gala parade will be the high light of the Defense Week observance in Hawaii tomorrow. The march will include all public service agencies, military and police units, and will be held in Honolulu.

Communication Funds

To Lea Song

TOKYO, Nov. 10—Lea Song, 6, received a gift of $1,000 in communication funds from the Japanese government. The money is intended to help her in her studies.

U.S. Army Calls on WPA Projects

Administration has been asked to extend the defense programs to include the WPA projects. The projects will be used to train defense workers and to prepare for defense emergencies.

ArmY Calls on WPA

Projects Administration has been asked to extend the defense programs to include the WPA projects. The projects will be used to train defense workers and to prepare for defense emergencies.

Premier Stresses Proper Guidance of Public Opinion

"The proper guidance of public opinion is a matter of necessity," said Premier Tojo at a meeting with newspapermen in Tokyo. He stressed the importance of public opinion in shaping public policy and maintaining national unity.

FARM LAW TO BE PROMULGATED IN MANCHUKOY COUNTRY

Manchuko, Nov. 10—The Manchurian government moving to control and foster farm development will promulgate a new farm law here November 15, according to an announcement.

This new law will define the rights of farmers and will bring about a number of important changes in the agricultural system.

Strong Alarm

Fork Pbrown (Top)―Fork Pbrown, 19, of Honolulu, was arrested yesterday for possession of a .32-caliber automatic pistol. It is alleged that he was carrying the gun for protection.

Tough Guy" Scores

Armold Huyda, 17, of Honolulu, was arrested yesterday for assault with a dangerous weapon. It is alleged that he used a knife to defend himself in a fight.

Poker Removal

J. H. Young, 19, of Honolulu, was arrested yesterday for possession of a .32-caliber automatic pistol. It is alleged that he was carrying the gun for protection.

Gilbert Patten, commander of Hilo Post No. 3, and Lt. Col. C. J. Bedwell, commanding officer of the 2nd Infantry, met with the board of directors of the United YBA, Hilo YBA, the United YBA, Chinese community, fire department, Lions club, medicos, emergency nurses, American Society and strengthening the fortification of radio station KHBC.

Mr. Beau

Murasaki is the former Miss Kiyotake, who was once employed by the United States' agriculture department. She is the second wife of Mr. Beau, who is a prominent business man.

To Be Honored—The Society of Americans in Hawaii's 10th Anniversary Banquet will be held tonight at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

Kokumin stressed the close ties between the United States and Japan, particularly in the economic and cultural fields.
Monday, November 10, 1941

Chapter IV

Jane Andrews' one ambition is to be a newswoman. Since she was a little girl, she has hung around the newsroom of the local newspaper, the Call. Her Aunt Emily, who works there, has been her guide and mentor since the age of five. Jane has always dreamt of being a correspondent, but her family is against it. They believe that being a journalist is a man's job and that girls should stick to traditional roles.

When Jane was eight, her Aunt Emily introduced her to a newspaper editor, Mr. Prescott, who took an interest in the young girl's talent. He offered to help her get a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused. Jane was devastated and felt that Mr. Prescott was the only person who believed in her dream.

One day, Jane came across a story about a girl who had become a successful journalist. She was so inspired by this story that she decided to try and get a job at the newspaper herself. She went to see Mr. Prescott again and asked him for advice. Mr. Prescott told her to write a story that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent.

The next day, Jane wrote a story about a local event. She sent it to Mr. Prescott, and he was impressed. He offered her a job at the newspaper, but Jane's family refused again. Jane was heartbroken and felt that she had no chance of becoming a journalist.

Then, one day, Jane's friend Emily hit the roof. Jane was so upset that she didn't care about anything else. She couldn't help but dream of becoming a journalist. She decided to write a story about a local event that would show her talent. (The characters in this serial are fictitious)
A MERICANIZATION DRIVE TO INCLUDE 3 ORIENTAL RACES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—At a direct result of the attendance of Togo Tanaka, national FAC, representative, at the New York Conference of the National Citizenship Education Association, a federal project sponsored by the Department of Justice and WPA, for Japanese, Chinese, and Koreans will be included in the Americanization drive.

The headquarters expressed appreciation to Dr. William P. Russell, national director of the N.C.E.P., Department of Interior, Washington, D.C., for his cooperation with the league representative, Togo Tanaka.

Dr. Russell acknowledged the Japanese American point of view after the three-hour session at Columbia University in New York on Monday night.

He stated at the meeting: “All Asians are necessarily excluded from this program because it would be unfair to invite them to invite, when we know that they are ineligible to American citizenship.”

Tanaka countered with the suggestion that the so-called “Asians,” particularly Japanese, are permanent residents, with children who are American citizens. He stressed the need for national unity.

During the course of the meeting, Tanaka introduced one of the so-called alien Japanese, who is a permanent resident, and father of three American citizens, Congen Tanaka.

As a result of the meeting, Dr. Russell announced: “We have discovered at the bottom of our program a statement permitting us to extend our activities among ALL FOREIGN BORN, because you two gentlemen have seen fit to make this plan, we are including, not excluding, Asians, from your program.”

Rod Lewis, executive director of the Common Council for American Unity, aid Tanaka in his work with the conference.

The national council’s letter to Dr. Russell stated: “We have discovered at the bottom of our program a statement permitting us to extend our activities among ALL FOREIGN BORN because you two gentlemen have seen fit to make this plan, we are including, not excluding, Asians, from your program.”

The headquarters expressed appreciation to Dr. Russell, whose red-haired, freckled face and quick mind constitute the New York Conference of the National Citizenship Education Association’s “Football Forecast for This Season.”

Coming to the Isle theater to introduce a few words of encouragement to the island drama starting from Woodside, the larger Civic Center program will be a new March of Progress, “Thanks God, Texas.”

AGNIEZ, PAGE 7, HUI HUI.

Arizona Farmers Welcome Class B Cows

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Arizona farmers probably are the only ones in the country who rejoice at the thought of the mild winter which is keeping the cattle vital. The Dixie American, a weekly publication in Arizona which has described that a lingering snow may be needed at a minimum of 28 for a "class "B" cow" and must be taken cautiously.

PALACE THEATRE

"Tumbling in the Dust," an unforgettable story of a woman who defied conventions, in the incomparable drama opening today at the Palace Theater, is being presented in a new setting, with new costumes, new settings, new sets, and new musical settings."

The story is based on the life of Mrs. William Henry, Texas woman who founded homes for more than 2,000 babies and established a new level of philanthropy from which all the world has profited."

The events are depicted in a dramatic and heart-tugging manner, with a score and lyrics by San Antonio, and directed by Mrs. William Henry, Texas woman who founded homes for more than 2,000 babies and established a new level of philanthropy from which all the world has profited."

The picture relays the adventures of a newspaper reporter who wants to get the story of an orphanage which he visits and finds that the president of the orphanage, Edna Gladney, Texas woman who found homes for more than 2,000 babies and established a new level of philanthropy from which all the world has profited."
THE HAWAII MAINICHI

Monday, November 10, 1941

MAINICHI SPORTORIAL

The 70,000 some odd fans that took in the Notre Dame vs. Wyoming game at last Saturday witnessed about the best football game played thus far in the gridiron this season.

Both teams were undefeated until this meeting with each team scoring an identical record of five victories and one loss. It was, however, Notre Dame that defeated the "Cowboys" 21-14 after a one-sided victory.

It was the fighting Irish that first scored 7 points only to have the Mustangs tie the count. Notre Dame again came through with a touchdown in the second quarter to lead 17-7. However, again the Mustangs fought back to knot the count at 17-17.

Frank Leahy's boys in the fourth quarter came through with another touchdown and a conversion which turned out to be the winning margin. Notre Dame fought back gamely in the last quarter trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Irish won 21-17.

The defeat of Fordham from the icy Pennsylvania on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hilo high school is very good,民高 has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.

The announcement that the Maui high school football team will definitely play Hills High on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hills high school is very good, Maui has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.

The announcement that the Maui high school football team will definitely play Hills High on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hills high school is very good, Maui has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.

The announcement that the Maui high school football team will definitely play Hills High on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hills high school is very good, Maui has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.

The announcement that the Maui high school football team will definitely play Hills High on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hills high school is very good, Maui has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.

The announcement that the Maui high school football team will definitely play Hills High on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hills high school is very good, Maui has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.

The announcement that the Maui high school football team will definitely play Hills High on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hills high school is very good, Maui has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.

The announcement that the Maui high school football team will definitely play Hills High on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hills high school is very good, Maui has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.

The announcement that the Maui high school football team will definitely play Hills High on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hills high school is very good, Maui has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.

The announcement that the Maui high school football team will definitely play Hills High on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hills high school is very good, Maui has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.

The announcement that the Maui high school football team will definitely play Hills High on November 29th came as sweet music to the local grid hungry fans.

For the first time in many years the local HSC season will close in the early part of November, just when the football season is at its peak in other parts of the nation and in the territory, and a dull interscholastic football season should draw a huge throng of fans.

While the material of Hills high school is very good, Maui has not played any Honolulu teams but they will be, to some extent, outclassed.

Notre Dame, the high school league champion, will be against Maui Hi and possibly outplayed them in their first round meeting which was played last Saturday trying desperately to at least tie the score but failed to do so as the Sabers won 42-0.
市民の際

断

ボ

THE MOSES (JOMPANY, LTD. HOME APPLIANCE DEPT.

帰家庭に於ける洗濯用ぐ

比嘉

案

川本吾

差

農産同志會で

森

ス

八幡

ル

四十日發午前十時サ分本社直通電