TRIPLE PURPOSE EXPECTED TO BE SOUGHT BY JAPAN
GOVERNMENT, TOGO CLAIMS

Prime Minister Declared Economic Blockade 'Little Less Hostile' Than Armed Warfare

TOKYO, Nov. 17...As a sequel to the “diplomatic set- tlement” which the government had so far obtained in order to safeguard the existence of the Empire and to establish a new order in East Asia, the Japanese government military policy will remain at a standstill, Foreign Minister, declared today. The government's top policy today is to be focused on the previous demands, he said.

TRIPLE PURPOSE OUTLINED

The triple purpose summary, said the Prime Minister, “firstly, secondly, and thirdly,” is to be expected by the government.

Two Nisei Girls Get Capital Posts

PORTLAND, Nov. 19...Two Nisei girls have been appointed to capital posts in the army, Navy, and, according to the Premier, to be used for the defense of the country. The Premier has reaffirmed the policy of our country, and the government is determined to continue its successful conclusion of the China affairs which is aiming at peace in the world.

NEGOTIATIONS UNCERTAIN

In view of past experience, however, as a sequel to negotiations, the Premier said, “It hardly requires an explanation. The war in Asia led to the conclusion that the situation is uncertain, for it is uncertain whether we shall continue to exist as a nation, or whether the nation shall continue to be a nation. The war in Asia is the result of the war in Asia. The war in Asia is the result of the war in Asia. The war in Asia is the result of the war in Asia. The war in Asia is the result of the war in Asia.

VIEWS POSSIBLE

As a result of the hearings, evidence has been presented which is of the utmost importance in the defense of the country. The Premier has reaffirmed the policy of our country, and the government is determined to continue its successful conclusion of the China affairs which is aiming at peace in the world.

ECONOMIC BLOCKADE

Japan's economic blockade is being expected to be less hostile than armed warfare. In order to safeguard the existence of the Empire and to establish a new order in East Asia, the Japanese government military policy will remain at a standstill, Foreign Minister, declared today. The government's top policy today is to be focused on the previous demands, he said.
