Benavente 'sleeps-off' prison

By NICK LEGASPI staff reporter

A former legislative employee convicted for stealing government money is back in a government job while serving his jail term.

This was learned during the hearing Wednesday of Guillermo M. Benavente's motion to reduce his sentence. Benavente pleaded guilty in January to six counts of theft, all involving government money totaling more than $7,000. He was sentenced Jan.18 to a total of 12 years in jail, all suspended except for the first six months.

In addition to the jail term, Judge Ramon G. Villagomez ordered Benavente to pay back the money he stole from the government. He was also prohibited for three years from

MPLC, company settle dispute; AIBIC won't sue for damages

By Nick Legaspi
Staff reporter

AIBIC International Corp. was confirmed by the Marianas Public Land Corp. Wednesday as the official winner of the bid for the lease of a four-hectare public land in San Antonio.

MPLC and AIBIC, in a joint statement filed in Trial Court, agreed not to go to trial on the complaint filed earlier by AIBIC against MPLC.

MPLC also agreed to accept the sum of $783,878.40 to be applied as rental payment for the first five years of the lease. Actual amount of the lease would be eight percent of the new appraised value of the property.

David Wiseman, who represented AIBIC in the case, said the actual rental payment for the first five years of the lease based on the new appraised value of the land could be close to $1.5 million.

The stipulation for dismissal of the complaint was signed by Wiseman, Ramon S. Guerrero (AIBIC's representative), MPLC Chairman Joe Guerrero and MPLC counsel Pete Atalig and approved by Chief Judge Robert

Local workers demand higher wages, gum

By Nick Legaspi
Staff reporter

Local workers at the Sam Marianas Corp. sent company management a list of demands Monday, including a 60-cent increase in basic hourly pay and the privilege to chew gum at work.

The workers, who formed themselves into the Sam Marianas Employees Association,were dragged into the dispute between the company and its 300 Korean workers. The 50 local workers, however, were persuaded by Vice Speaker Benigno M. Sablan to negotiate with their employer rather than join the Korean workers' strike.

The Korean workers went on strike to get a pay increase to absorb their loss of earnings as a result of the increase in the value of the Korean won against the U.S. dollar. In January each dollar that the Korean workers receive from Sam Marianas was converted into 850 won. Last month, the rate went down to 750 won. Most of the Koreans' wages are converted into won by the company and sent to the workers' families in their country.

Because of the strike by the Koreans, the company had to shut down and local workers and some Filipinos were told to go home. The local workers' leaders and Sablan met with management and a Mr.Kim, factory manager, agreed to pay the local and Filipino workers for the two days that they were not able to work because of the strike.

Five escape fire which guts home

By Nick Legaspi
Staff reporter

Five persons, including a two-year-old boy, escaped from a fire that destroyed their house and two motor vehicles early Wednesday morning, police said.

Police spokesman Lino Tenorio said police were called at about 2:40 a.m. Wednesday and reported that the tin house behind the JM Building in Garapan and two vehicles parked near the house were on fire. Firetrucks arrived on the scene at about 2:54 a.m. but were able to put out the fire only after the house and vehicles, a sedan and a pickup, were totally burned.

Ester Koshiro, one of the occupants in the house, said smoke woke her up but did not notice the fire so she turned on her electric fan. The fan cleared the smoke and Koshiro then saw the fire coming from her mother's bedroom.

She rose and woke up her mother, a sister, another person and went out of the house with the two-year-old boy. No one was reported injured.

Investigation is still going on to determine the cause.

Self-defense is shooting reason

By NICK LEGASPI staff reporter

Was the fatal shooting of Abel Rios on Oct.5 last year a deliberate act or an accident brought about by a mixture of hostile memories and the sight of bloody knives?

This surfaced after a three-day jury trial that started Tuesday. Damian Pua has been charged of first degree murder and assault with a dangerous weapon for allegedly shooting in the left eye with Pua's .22 caliber rifle in Tanapag.

There was no lengthy arguments between prosecutor Robert Naraja and defense attorney David Wiseman on whether Pua shot Rios.

Naraja said testimonies presented by his witnesses showed that Pua went to where Rios and other men were, poked the victim and the other men with the rifle, and shot Rios.

Naraja, in his opening statement, said that in the early

Editorial Opinion

Poker machine morality is lame

Why is it that proponents of poker machines cart cans of beer to the legislature and say that nothing is being done to regulate the use of alcohol on the island? Attorney Tim Bellas said in last week's hearings that the legislature doesn't regulate morality or tell people what to do or how to live?

REALLY? That's news to us! We seem to recall a few laws on the books that do just that. Isn't it against the law to steal? Isn't it against the law to rape? Isn't it against the law to take, import or sell illegal drugs?

We could go on and on about how the legislature here, and their counterparts around the world, have always regulated the personal habits of their constituents. So, his argument that our lawmakers are trying to regulate the personal habits of the CNMI is true - but what's the big deal?

Other arguments from the poker machine folks and their lawyer seems to revolve around how much money the Commonwealth loses if one-eyed monsters are banned. OK, let's look at that:

The 'profits' from poker machines are totally unknown, unregulated and UNTAXED. Unlike alcohol, as Mr. Bellas so indignantly pointed to in the hearings, the poker machine folks buy a (relatively) inexpensive license and then can make whatever profit they can program the machines for.

The CNMI makes money on every can, bottle and decanter of drinkable alcohol that comes through the ports. So indirectly, all the people of the Commonwealth derive some benefit from that product.

But NO direct benefits come to the people of the Commonwealth from poker machine profits, and we challenge the poker machine people to show us in black and white how they REALLY help the economy. We also ask them to give the legislature a list of every person employed FULL-TIME by any of the machine operators who are engaged in no other activity for said company.

We also feel that recent donations to the CHC volunteers for their health equipment didn't come from the 'heart'. . . It came as a knee-jerk defense to recent industry criticism. If they had made the donation earlier, then we would have placed more credence in their motives.

The hotels came crying to the legislature saying that removing poker machines would "hurt the tourist

column by
John DelRosario, Jr.

Opinions expressed herein may or may not reflect the editorial opinion of this newspaper. All opinions are strictly those of the author, who also is an employee of the CNMI government.

The effects of the law prohibiting aliens from bringing in their dependents if the head of the household isn't making $20,000 and above has yet to be tested. Its implementation should be permitted so to take an actual assessment of whether its intended purpose is fulfilled.

While I can understand and appreciate the hardship it has placed on a specific group of people, I wish to note without reservations what the current trend has placed on these islands and its people. If it is allowed to continued, it can proliferate into an ugly social and economic issue.

A majority of aliens (especially those from the Philippines) pay far less taxes, hospital fees, among others, than those paid by local citizens. yet, they send their children to the same schools that we send ours, make use of CHC as we do, use the same water and road system like we do AT OUR EXPENSE.

It stands to reason then that we wake up to this trend and demand that solutions be found from our continuing to subsidize (however indirect) their livelihood, again, AT OUR EXPENSE. The Board of Education and the CNMI Legislature should consider imposing an Out of the CNMI Tuition (similar to an out of state tuition) for all children who are dependents of aliens living here.

With regard to CHC, it is quite a thorny issue in that legal problems are bound to crop-up if aliens and their dependents are forced to pay higher fees. It is difficult to impose it here now that we have become a part of the Stars and Stripes Forever. But in the Philippines, there are two hospital rates: 1.) For local Filipinos 2.) For foreigners.

Perhaps CHC should recommend a "privilege tax" for aliens for use of the facility. The State of Texas has in fact imposed a "privilege tax" upon all employees for the privilege of working in that

Barrister says AG is being picked on

Dear Editor:

Alex Castro, the Attorney General for the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands was the focus of a front page story in the Marianas Variety February 26, 1988 issue which I believe was unwarranted and completely blown out of proportion.

The suggestion by Mr. Castro, that my client, Ta Bun Kuy, purchase police radios as a fine to be levied upon him was merely a suggestion, not made to me or Liz McKibben, attorney for the Corporations, but rather to an associate of Mr. Kuy.

At a subsequent meeting however, Mr. Castro as a matter of professional courtesy mentioned that he

Help for burned-out family is asked for

Dear editor:

On the morning of March second tragedy struck in Garapan. The home of Mrs. Antonia Ngirmeriil was destroyed by fire. Mrs. Ngirmeriil and her family have lost everything.

Now is the time for all of us to lend a helping hand to a neighbor. Any contribution that you can afford - gifts of household items, clothing or money - would certainly be appreciated by the Ngirmeriil family.

Nothing that we can do can completely replace the home the Ngirmeriils have lost, but at least we can make an effort to ease the sorrow and discomfort they must undergo.

Donations can be sent in care of the Ngirmeriil family to Catholic Social Services, Box 745, Saipan. Please be as generous as you can.

GRIPE LINE

AFTER 5 P.M.

Gripeline will be a little shorter now..... since we are running it twice-weekly, we get more comments in.

To make reading it easier, it will only jump once - if then. Would you - the readers, prefer that it just be a single column or jump to another page? Let us know.

Most of the calls this time were still holdovers about the statement made by the lt. governor last week on water.

A lady caller said she was fed up with the water situation. She asked that she not be quoted by name, but did say that she felt when the governor promised to have water "in six months if he was elected . . .. he meant the the governor's house, and the poor voters thought he meant the whole island . . . "

Most of the callers are women. Where are the guys' opinions? Politicians should take note of this - women can vote and are politically active here and they don't mind speaking their piece.

One concerned caller urged the editor to be careful "you might get hurt . . ." she said. Her question was a good one however, but because of the clandestine activities of the DPS and the AG's office, we can't get an answer. . . .

Her question was; "I'm almost afraid to talk to you about this subject because I am afraid you might get hurt. . .. or some kind of trouble . . . Officer (NAME DELETED) was (one) of the men in charge of investigating the deaths of Connoly and Mack. What information did he have up until the time he got shot? Why won't the police give us a police report or give us the autopsy reports on those deaths? What kind of gun killed Gaylon Mack and Connoly. I wonder if it was .38 - the kinda' gun that's missing from the evidence room? The day (NAME DELETED) got shot we heard that the police picked up two Japa-

GET THE POINT ?

A personal opinion
column by
Variety editor
David T. Hughes

The opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect the editorial policy of this newspaper, management or employees. They are strictly those of the author.

Long-winded editor talks about new paper and gripers

We finally did it! Saipan is progressing toward being more informed about what goes on in its daily life. I think we should pat ourselves on the back. Not only the staff of the Variety and Abed Younis, but you - the readers of his paper.

A lot of people have told us that they like the Tuesday paper, and our initial run sold out almost as soon as they hit the stores. Many of you talked about the color and how it made it more attractive. I kinda' like the blue too, but today's green is also a nice change.

It's a a little strange for me. My life is so used to putting out one paper a week, that I tended to break up things as being "pre" and "post" paper days. Tuesday and Wednesday I went around in more of a daze than usual - my body was suffering "paper-lag". That's like jet lag, you know where you are, but not quite sure what day and time it really is.

I was so used to having pre-paper rushing around and then a sigh of relief on Fridays when the issue is out that when Tuesday came I thought it was Friday! I'm OK now (as much as usual), so please accept my apologies if I said some strange things earlier this week.

One of the standard comments I heard was "why is it so thin?" To save answering the same questions over and over again . . . advertising determines the relative size of a newspaper. Our newspaper still costs a quarter, and that really doesn't even pay for the cost of printing it (labor, paper, ink, etc.) it's the advertisers (bless them) who actually help us stay in business. As we get more advertisers on Tuesdays the paper will get bigger!

Don't dismiss yourself, however. Without you - the reader - our advertisers wouldn't want to put their money in our pages because no one would read their ads. But our circulation has shown a steady increase over the years, and they know YOU read our paper. They too are used to a Friday paper and they have built their marketing and ad sales around that fact. So, we have to give them time to get used to being able to advertise twice as many times - with twice the opportunity for sales, etc.

Enough of the commercial. I just wanna' say thanks for the reception of our new paper. We are trying to put together a subscription package so those of you off-island can get both papers.

The quality of calls to "Gripeline" is gratifying to me personally. It is quite flattering some of the personal and corporate comments which are directed our way. Oh, we still get a few folks who have a gripe about us, too. That's all right. Like Harry Truman — one of my favorite U.S. presidents — said, "if you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen."

ALL here at the Variety - more than just me - generate a lot of heat for what we consider the wrong-doings on this island and Commonwealth.

Putting out the paper is a team effort and Nick Legaspi plays probably the most important role. He does a very good job and helps keep me in line every once in a while.

Who's our cartoonist? have you noticeed our new local issues? Do the initials "AY" mean anything to you? If you like his work, a letter to the editor about it would probably make him feel good. (Don't tell him I said anything . . it can be our little secret . . .)

I was griping about not having the time to write my column that used to have, and Mr. Younis said in his usual diplomatic way, "maybe you can make it not quite so long . . . ."

Do YOU think my stuff is too long? If so, please tell me. I am no Joe Murphy, but I still try to get my point(s) across.

Finally, I am humbled by the trust you place in our newspaper. One caller to the Gripeline said that we have given the community the confidence to stand up for itself again. I disagree. The confidence has always been there - it's just the forum hasn't been there. As long as I am editor here, or anywhere, I will edit the PUBLIC's newspaper - not one for a political party, family or idea.

casually suggested the radios at a prior meeting with said associate.

The said suggestion was also not placed in context with the numerous mitigating circumstances surrounding the charges filed against Mr. Ta Bun Kuy.

The news article referred to above made it seem as though Mr. Castro was doing something underhanded and improper.

Such was not the case.

The said suggestion was not pursued nor did it ever ripen into an offer that could been considered.

If it was, it would have had to be in the form of an agreement placed before the court for its approval or concurrence.

The philosophy of using alternate penalties for crimes rather than paying money to the government fund is not inconsistent with rehabilitative policies of Criminal Law.

Mr. Castro did not deserve the innuendos that were apparent in the news article of the 26th, because in my opinion, he was merely exercising prerogatives of his office. In closing, "What was the Big Deal."

Truly yours,
/s/David A. Wiseman
Attorney at Law

Editor's note: Wiseman was one of the attorneys representing Kuy and has a vested interest in any actions which might affect any civil or criminal charges filed against him by the Commonwealth.

The Bottom Line

Little interest was expressed in last week's question about the legality of putting water pumps on-line to suck up your down-stream neighbor's water.

The two people who answered the question said they felt the situation should be evaluated. One person said if they had a business that depended on water, then the customers have to be kept happy.

So, we have another question this week. Hopefully we will be able to get our box in at Joeten's this week. . . .

Solons want U.S. to realize CNMI is in charge of itself

By Nick Legaspi
Staff reporter

The United States must respect the sovereignty of the Northern Marianas and honor its financial obligations to the Commonwealth, Speaker Pedro R. Guerrero told a congressional subcommittee Monday.

Testifying before the subcommittee headed by Rep. Ron de Lugo, Guerrero said voters in the Commonwealth approved an initiative in November 1987 expressing their "willingness to renegotiate or reject the Covenant should 'substantial matters regarding self-government or financial assistance' be unresolved as of July 1, 1989."

"We wish to continue our relationship with the United States but not as a continual suitor for promised funds,"Guerrero said."The payments we requested herein are moral and legal obligations of the United States, not a luxury or a simple public works project that can reasonably be cut to reduce the federal deficit."

Guerrero asked the congressional body to help solve the following financial problems as a result of the federal government's "overall strategy to ignore the terms of the Covenant...":

—Release of the proceeds of the $140-million bonds which has been delayed because of "obstructionism" by the Department of the Interior;"

—Grant of $34 million to $42 million in additional funds to improve and expand Charlie Dock in Saipan;

—Repair of the Tinian breakwater;

—Payment of the balance of war claims;

—Exemption from the "Buy American" requirement in local projects funded by federal funds;

—$3-million grant for the Northern Marianas College;

—Construction of a war memorial for American soldiers; and —Waiver of local government contribution to the federal disaster assistance program.

Guerrero started his testimony by expressing concerns regarding treatment by the U.S. of the Commonwealth's sovereignty as well as U.S. financial obligations to the CNMI as provided in the Covenant. He said the Territorial Clause of the U.S. Constitution does not apply to the CNMI. "Yet, we are very concerned that the United States has attempted to use, or will attempt to use, the Territorial Clause to ignore the terms of the Covenant and interfere with the sovereignty of the Northern Mariana people over their local internal affairs as guaranteed by the Covenant," he said.

"We are concerned, that by use of the Territorial Clause or other means, the United States will attempt to undermine the terms of the Covenant and thereby avoid its financial obligations,"he said."We are concerned that Congress has failed to mert its financial obligations under the Covenant in an attempt to force the No

Cop's lawyer goes to court: Wants information

By Nick Legaspi
Staff reporter

Former police detective Alfred Pangelinan's lawyer asked the court Monday to order the government to provide details of the charges against Pangelinan, including documents and the names of witnesses in the case.

Pangelinan was formally charged Feb.5 by Assistant Attorney General Edward Hayden of three counts of theft, a count of misconduct in public office and a count of removal of government property. Marty Taylor, Pangelinan's counsel, asked the court in a motion filed Monday to order the government to provide the accused with information regarding the nature of the properties allegedly stolen by Pangelinan, as well as the nature of the alleged misconduct.

"Failure to furnish the information sought prior to trial would be a denial of due process and a violation of rights guaranteed by the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution," Taylor said in his motion.

He said he needed the bill of particular to enable him to prepare for trial and prevent surprises in court.

Taylor filed a separate motion to compel the prosecutor to provide the defense lawyer with all statements taken from Pangelinan, prior criminal record (if any), reports of examinations done on Pangelinan, including results of physical and mental examinations, documents and other objects to be used as evidence and statements of witnesses in the case.

Hayden, in a press conference following the filing of charges against Pangelinan, declined to say whether there was any connection between the alleged thefts and the Nov.9 shooting in which Pangelinan was wounded in the abdomen and on the head. He only said the shooting led to the investigation which, in turn, led to the filing of charges against the former detective.

During a status conference on the case Feb.17 it was learned that Pangelinan's counsel was not receiving "discovery" or documents, evidence and information about the case.

Taylor's motions were filed to compel the prosecutor to provide discovery as well as the bill of particular. The motions will be heard by the court March 9.

Proctor says U.S. considers NMI under territorial clause

By DAVID T. HUGHES, editor
Copyright, 1988 Marianas Variety

Editor's note: This story originally appeared in Tuesday's editon which does NOT go to regular subscribers yet.

Until we have an in-place way of getting our Tuesday papers to subscribers, selected stories will be reprinted either on Fridays or Tuesdays.

The United States has finally pulled the ace card from their sleeve and called "a spade a spade . . ." Assistant U.S. Attorney George W. Proctor has said in a legal pleading filed with the District Court for the Northern Marianas late Monday afternoon that the Territorial Clause of the United States Constitution DOES apply to the Commonwealth as far as the Justice Department is concerned.

Proctor said in a late afternoon interview that it was unprofessional to discuss cases like this "extra-judicially". "It's against legal canons," he said. However, he would say for the record that his five-page brief "speaks for itself . . ."

The document was filed as an answer to a pleading by Larry Hillblom and James Sirok asking federal judge Alfred Laureta to re-hear their case dealing with the legality of the Covenant. Previously, Laureta had dismissed the suit in several counts, including the fact that the plaintiffs did not prove they were voters, and the issue was "political."

Almost immediately after that ruling was handed down, the Ninth District Court issued the now well-known Fleming decision, which Hillblom and Sirok - both attorneys - interpreted to mean that the "political question" was now moot, as well as other factors.

Proctor's answer to their request didn't pull any punches. He said that the government never really questioned that they were "voters" under the law, but this new attempt for a re-hearing " . . . is one of many telltale indicators that the voting rights issue for plaintiffs is nothing but a stalking horse for their sovereignty argument. . .or as they would prefer to style it, their territorial clause argument. "

Hillblom argued that if the Covenant was supreme then the U.S. government has limited powers in the CNMI, but if the Territorial Clause applies, then the implementation of the U.S. Constitution - including 'one man - one vote" laws of the U.S. should apply. They said because Tinian and Rota each have the same number of senators as more-populated Saipan, then their vote is diluted.

Proctor said the plaintiffs now anted to change things from the way testimony went in court - to suit their own purposes. "They even request that the Court rewrite its opinion to state plaintiff's arguments in the manner that plaintiffs now wish they had stated them."

The U.S. attorney expressed incredulity that the plaintiffs contention that the court misunderstood them to be "making a simplistic either/or argument regarding whether the United States does or does not possess complete immunity. . . " Proctor's written arguments against a re-hearing said that Hillblom et al is trying to disavow their previous statements.

He also said that the case is still "political", Fleming not withstanding because the plaintiffs want the Covenat's key parts, including the voting rights and land ownership restrictions as being invalid.

Dealing with "sovereignty", Proctor said that Hillblom et al's statement that the Territorial Clause itself does not apply in the Northern Marianas can not survive in the Court of Appeals holding . . . that "the provisions of the United States Constitution that expressly apply to the territories apply to the Northern Marianas."

What the whole document boiled down to was that Hillblom's arguments were - at best - invalid, and Laureta should not consent to rehear the case.

Hillblom has been off-island for several weeks and was not immediately available for comment.

Honeymoon couple is "one in a million..."

Tourists 1,000,000 & 1,000,0001 showered with gifts

The one-millionth visitor to the Commonwealth of the Northern marianas, Akihisa Ishida, is welcomed by dignitaries of the MVB, Air Mike, government and beauty queen Luciana Ada, Miss Northern Marianas.

(MVB) The countdown to the "one millionth visitor" from Japan to set foot on the Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas ended on February 24 as Akihisa Ishida and his wife Mayumi stepped out of Continental/Air Micronesia's flight 962 from Tokyo. The Ishidas, a honeymooning couple from Nagano, Japan, were greeted at the Saipan International Airport by Saipan Mayor Gilbert Ada, Marianas Visitors Bureau Managing Director J. M. Guerrero, MVB Deputy Managing Director Bennet Seman, and Continental/Air Micronesia City Manager Frank Camacho.

The suspense of the one millionth visitor began to build up when the announcement was made on the flight that the lucky visitor was onboard the aircraft and the final countdown will take place as the passengers disembarked from the plane on Saipan. The 140 fellow passengers applauded the Ishidas as Miss Northern Marianas Luciana Ada welcomed them with the traditional plumeria leis.

The couple were given red carpet treatment beginning with a chauffered ride in the Governor's limousine to the Hyatt Regency Saipan where they stayed for two days. They were also taken on a personalized sightseeing tour in the limousine.

The Ishidas were hosted by Acting Governor Pedro A. Tenorio at a luncheon. The acting governor presented them with their prize package consisting of two round-trip tickets from Tokyo to Saipan donated by Continental/Air Micronesia, a three-night double room from Hyatt Regency Saipan, a $50 gift certificate from Duty Free Shoppers Limited, sunset dinner show and Managaha tour from Pacific Development Inc., one-day car rental from National Car Rental, and submarine tour from Dosa Subsea Company.

"We are pleased to celebrate this historic occasion with you. We hope you have enjoyed your stay on Saipan," said Tenorio.

Continental/Air Micronesia and Japan Air Lines both started direct air service from Tokyo to Saipan in October 1978. Since then the popularity of the Northern Marianas as a tourist destination increased rapidly. In addition to Tokyo, the islands are now connected to Nagoya, Osaka, and Fukuoka. Japanese investment in hotels, tour companies, and other tourism-related businesses has also increased over the past years.

Ishida is the one-millionth visitor to set foot in the Northern Marianas since the start of direct flight service from Tokyo in 1978.

"FY 1987 posted a healthy 18% gain over FY 1986. The first four months of FY 1988 have all posted increases to the corresponding figures in FY 1987," Guerrero said. Service from Tokyo will expand with the anticipated start of an additional carrier each from Japan and the U.S. on the Tokyo/Saipan route.

"With the increase in availability of air seats to our Commonwealth, our position in the Japanese market will be more competitive with other destinations," said Guerrero.

MADD chapter forming

An organizational meeting of Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) will take place on Friday, March 11 at 11:45 at the Saipan Grand Hotel. Elsewhere, MADD has aided victims of crimes performed by individuals driving under the influence of alcohol or other drugs, and it has helped the families of such victims. It has played an important role in increasing public awareness of the problem of drinking or drugged drivers and has helped reduce the number of injuries or deaths as a result of drinking or drugged drivers.

Founded by a group of angry and concerned mothers, MADD from the beginning expanded to include anyone interested in addressing the problem of drinking and driving in participating communities. Concerned citizens are urged to attend the March 11 meeting and find out what MADD has to offer. For information about MADD, call 234-6401.

Nightclubs not too clean

Told to clean up or close up by health department

Two Chalan Kanoa nightclubs scored the lowest grades during the most recent round of inspections by Division of Public Health sanitarians. The Three Star and Body Express clubs both got "C"s and deadlines to meet to avoid being closed.

The Three Star got 48 hours to fix a variety of sanitary problems and was also told to provide a tank to allow toilets to be flushed during hours of low water pressure.

Violations at Body Express ranged from broken and dirty toilet facilities to hazardous electrical wiring. The club was told to carry out a general cleanup, with a re-inspection to follow in two weeks.

Inspections revealed many sanitary problems at other local bars and snack bars, leading to 10 "B" grades. The five "B"-businesses in Garapan included the Round Two Snack Bar which must fix a restroom screen and get rid of cobwebs and roaches. Clogged plumbing and greasy floors were violations at the Futaba Restaurant. The Garapan Safeway Snack Bar, the COM Restaurant and the "Snack-In" also got "B"s.

The Moonlighting Snack Bar in Susupe got a "B", with an order to install a missing sink in a restroom. The Maharaja Night Club, also of Susupe, got a "B", as did the King and I Night Club and Big Garden Restaurant of Chalan Kanoa.

Sanitarians officially stopped use of a private kitchen for packing food items at the "Pick-Up Fresh" in Chalan Kanoa. The business was told to build a "pre-packing" room for fresh food items and to clearly mark and label packages with ingredients. The "B"-graded establishment faces a re-inspection.

"A" ratings in Garapan" Club 19th Hole, Connie's Retail Store, Garapan Safeway Store, Ever Plus Enterprises (food wholesaler). "A"-rated in Chalan Piao: Island Snack Bar. "A"-rated in Susupe" Aiko's Snack Bar. "A"-rated in Chalan Kanoa": Arirang Restaurant.

Island youth can "take over" Mar. 11

CNS - Gov. Pedro P. Tenorio has March 11 as Youth Take-Over Day, with the the signing of a document at his office attended by student council presidents of Marianas and Mt. Carmel High Schools.

On March 11, various government directors and other officials including the Judiciary and Legislative Branches will have student counterparts in their offices for one full day.

The proclamation states that "today's youth are the leaders of tomorrow, in the community, in business, in government and in politics." It added that "it is vital that our youth understand governmental processes" and that "leaders in government need closer ties with and greater understanding of the needs of all youth."

Tenorio urged everyone to look at March 11 Youth Take Over Day "as one step to achieve" the goals and objectives of mutual understanding between the leaders of today and that of tomorrow.

Clarence and Charlotte Tenorio in honor roll

The Canadian Academy of Kobe, Japan, has notified Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tenorio Sr. of Saipan that their children enrolled there have been named to the " Honor Roll" of that school.

Mary E. Freund, counselor at the school said in her letter to the parents that Clarence Tenorio Junior was named to the "High" honor roll. and Charlotte was named to the Honor roll and the school official said that their children's honor "is certainly reflective of the excellent job you are doing as parents in helping stress the importance of a good education."

To achieve this milepost at the Canadian Academy, a student must earn a grade point average of 3.2 or better and take an academic load of at least five credits for regular honor roll and 3. 5 and abovefor the high honor roll.

. No grade lower than a C in any subject can also be earned to qualify for the high honor roll, the school said.

Tenorio voices his unhappiness at meet

Charlotte Amalie, U.S. Virgin Islands (AP) - The Northern Marianas Washington representative said here the Commonwealth has the economic potential to become independent and he wants to exercise that option, if its covenant is not fully implemented.

Froilan Tenorio was one of two representatives of U.S. Pacific island groups who said Friday they were dissatisfied with their current political status.

He and Peter Rosenblatt, former Washington counsel for the Guam Commission on Self-Determination who served as U.S. ambassador to the Micronesia status negotiations during the Carter administration, made the statements on the first of a two-day status conference.

About 100 people gathered at the University of the Virgin Islands in St. Thomas to hear two 4-hour sessions. Nine panelists discussed three types of political relationships with the United States: Commonwealth, Compact and Free Association.

Tenorio called the Northern Marianas Islands experience with Commonwealth status "disappointing and resentful" and said the U.S. government has "never recognized our right to self-government which was part of the covenant."

Tenorio said the United States most recently touched a chord of resentment in the people there when it refused to accept about 1,000 residents as citizens with President Reagan's termination of the trusteeship agreement in November 1986.

Reagan's move allowed the covenant that established the Commonwealth to be fully implemented, which meant that all residents were to become citizens, Tenorio said.

"If they (United States) don't resolve this problem (with citizenship) pretty soon, I will insist that we go for renegotiations of the covenant or to terminate it," Tenorio said.

"We have the economic potential to become independent within five years from now and I would like to seek that opportunity in the future."

Tenorio added that 95 percent of the islands' tourists come from Japan, and tourism is the Mariana's main industry.

Guam, an unincorporated territory like conference host U.s. Virgin Islands, has also become disenchanted with its political status, according to Rosenblatt.

He said an effort that began in 1983 to present a Commonwealth Act to Congress has met with little success because the act limits federal authority and apportions rights on the basis of race.

Rosenblatt said they advocated special rights for Chamorros in determining the future status of their island, which "alienated the non-Chamorro population of Guam and guaranteed a cool reception to the Commonwealth Act in Washington."

Bill would protect those who render aid

By Nick Legaspi
Staff reporter

The Senate Committee on Health, Education, Welfare and Programs will conduct a public hearing March 11 on a bill to protect trained lifeguards and first aiders from any civil liability when they help people in need of emergency medical services.

Senate Bill 6-32 or "The Good Samaritan Act of 1988" grants immunity from civil liability to persons trained in cardiopulmonary resuscitation, first aid, advanced life-saving or life-guarding or medical personnel who, in good faith, rescues or gives first aid to drowning victims and other people in need of emergency help.

The bill was introduced by Sen. Juan T. Guerrero, who is also chairman of the Northern Marianas chapter of the American Red Cross.

Invited to testify during the hearing are Public Health Director Jose T. Villagomez, Chief Judge Robert Hefner, Public Safety Director Edward Manibusan, Education Superintendent Henry I. Sablan and representatives of the attorney general and other agencies.

The following bills pending at the Senate are also scheduled for public hearing:

—Senate Bill 6-41, providing for the establishment of the Office on Handicapped Persons, will be the subject of a public hearing at 1 p.m. March 8; and —Senate Bill 6-18, which grants a three-year extension of exemption for shooting galleries from the Commonwealth Weapons Act, will be heard at 10 a.m. March 17;

—Senate Bill 6-21 which addresses oil spills and abandoned vessels, will be heard March 15;

—Senate Bill 6-62 which establishes medical referral standards, will be heard March 18; and —Senate Bill 6-66 providing for the establishment of an emergency medical services office, will be heard March 25.

THE WAY OF SALVATION

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; It is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works." (Eph. 2:8-10)

Salvation by grace is a fundamental Baptist doctrine. The Scriptures are clear and plain on the doctrine. The passage quoted teaches us that good works have NOTHING to do in obtaining salvation; that instead of works bringing salvation, it is salvation that causes good works.

"If by grace, then is it no more of works, otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then it is no more of grace; otherwise work is no more work." (Rom.11:6)

This passage perfectly exposes the error that salvation results from a MIXTURE of grace and goodness. If salvation is by grace at all, it is altogether by grace. And if it is by works at all, it is altogether by works. The only good works that God accepts as the ransom for our souls is the suffering and death of His Son on our behalf. "In whom (Christ) we have redemption through HIS BLOOD, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of HIS GRACE " (Eph.1:7)

The reason why God can never accept any effort, service, or sacrifice from a sinner so as to count him righteous in His sight, is that ALL the motives, thoughts, words, and deeds of ALL men are tainted and polluted by indwelling sin. That which we may recognize as "good" in ourselves and in each other is unclean in God's sight. "We are ALL as an unclean thing, and ALL our 'righteousnesses' are as FILTHY RAGS." (Isa. 64:6) "As it is written, 'There is NONE righteous, no, NOT ONE: there is NONE that understandeth, there is NONE that doeth good, no, NOT ONE!" (Rom.3:10-12)

Since God cannot and will not find anything good in any man but the Son of Man, two things become obvious. First, If ANYONE is to be saved at all, it must be by sheer MERCY from God and not of his own doing. Second, if any of us is to have any righteousness before the thrice-holy God, it can only be as we are identified with His Son, Jesus Christ, Who ALONE is righteous; and Who ALONE paid the penalty for our sins in His own body on the tree. It is these two truths that are set forth in Ephesians 2:8-9: It is "by GRACE ye are saved," and just as truly it is "through FAITH." The saving grace and the saving faith alike are "not of yourselves" but wholly and totally "the GIFT of God." This being so, it is emphatically "NOT of WORKS." Away with your sacraments, your prayers, your vigils, your fastings, much less your donations to the church whether secret or advertised. What shall be done to the one who would offer HIS Maker a BRIBE?

nese men at the airport. We never heard anything more about that."

Our caller said "IF" we followed it up that we should "be careful, it's a dangerous subject. . . "

We agree - but the danger isn't to us on the newspaper - it's to you - the people. Our police won't answer questions either on the record or off about the Mack murders. A lot of them - as well as we here at the paper - wonder why they don't want the FBI looking into the matter.

Of course, cops who hold political positions don't want to make waves, do they? (The last part was an editorial opinion . . . .)

One man called Tuesday evening, saying "I think that banning poker machines is a very controversial issue. It's not necessary to do these things. The legislature has better things to do than ban poker machines on the islands. Those leaders better fix Saipan's roads or the rest of the Commonwealth's roads rather than ban poker machines...."

He also said that high officials in the government "are not going out on the road and getting their faces full of dust!" The caller had a lot of things to say about the bad roads. "They are not getting the roads fixed. When are the potholes and bumpy roadways..... the legislature is slow this year."

The same caller rang back and said that he felt there needed to be a street sweeper bought and used to keep places like Beach Road clear of dust. He also complains that police cars on the islands go fast in the center lanes "the dust goes into your eyes. You have to scratch them, and sometimes you can't even see your way when it's all dusty."

Finally, we appreciate the caller who said the Variety prints "issues are printed as they are - they are not being edited. Please answer some of these public concerns:

"How many more elected and high-ranking officials have shares and deal with the big foreign investors here that are cropping here and everywhere on Saipan. . .

"How big is the official share that they can't tell investors?

"Are unpaid loans on the ETLS by individuals in high government positions collected? The rest of the community can't get loans...

"What types of studies and surveys from the public were conducted when public funds and land are to be utilized."

Our caller also was critical of the number of night clubs on the island. She said, "There are too many for the size of the island. "

She wanted to know why there are no licenses for good public library facilities. "Topless bars, massage parlors, but yet not a single public library. This doesn't say too much for our island and it certainly says bad about our community."

One gentleman said he wanted to know more about the recent land case in which land deals were set aside because of using a local person as a "tool" to get land for others of non-local descent. He asked that this newspaper follow up on land ownership cases. "I belive a lot of foreigners, as well as a lot of locals want to hear more about that case."

More letters to the editor

Dear Editor:

I was astounded by the governor's comments made last week in which he placed the blame for failure of the water system on the "consumers." I would like to know who are these "consumers"?

During the last three or four years, over 20 garment factories and numerous hotels have been established on Saipan. Both of these industries utilize large numbers of alien laborers and our utilities. It is these industries which consume the largest amounts of subsidized power and water. No where else in the world do developers have it so good and easy with virtually no development costs. In fact, these developers often obtain tax breaks! Only on Saipan!

We "resident consumers" are apalled by accusations which place blame for water deficiencies on us for not fixing leaky pipes. Those comments reflect a

NEED group will help clean up area

While other schools in the Commonwealth are adopting a beach as part of their National Energy Education Day (NEED) project, Koblerville Elementary School will be adopting a "dump", if third-grade teacher Jovita K. Masiewemai has anything to do about it.

Masiewemai is sick of jogging past debris along the old Koblerville airstrip. "Four months ago my husband and I could jog down that road." She points to a litter-filled 100-yard-long spur linking the airstrip with a parallel road. "And now?" The litter-clogged spur speaks for itself.

Masiewmai is realistic about how much the school children and parents can do. The dump stretches along the airstrip and the parallel road for .4 miles. It will take much more than a NEED project to clear up the mess, and it will take the personal decision of hundreds of individuals to dump their trash where it belongs, in Puerto Rico, and not on the Koblerville airstrip and adjacent roads.

But one has to start somewhere. Masiewemai has called a parent-teacher meeting at the school Wednesday, March 2, at 7 p.m., to discuss and develop the project. It is hoped that public agencies and the public at large will offer maximum support. The Koblerville "dump" is the first thing the tourists see as their planes come in to land; it does not make a good first impression.

For more information about NEED week and what you can do to get involved, call the Commonwealth Energy Office at 322-9229. NEED week is March 14-18.

Unsightly areas like this dump in Koblerville are prome projects for NEED students. One class has decided the ugliness and health hazards are too much and will be doing something about it.

morning hours of Oct.5,1987 Abel, Mariano Rios and Santiago Iguel were skinning a cow near the Pua house in Tanapag when Damian, with a rifle, and his brother Francisco, with a machete came toward the victim and his companions. Pua allegedly poked Iguel with the gun. Then he poked Abel with the gun and the weapon went off, hitting the victim in the left eye. Rios was taken to the hospital where he died the following day.

Pua, about 30 minutes after the incident, went to the police station in Susupe and gave up his gun and himself. He was later released on bail.

Mariano Rios, in his testimony, said that his brother Abel was kneeling and holding the cow's legs when Pua came and poked the victim with the gun while asking him who stole Pua's marijuana. Rios said Pua was cursing in a loud, angry voice then shot Abel, who fell down on the ground.

Dr. Arthur Loerzel,a pathologist at the Guam Memorial Hospital, who conducted an autopsy on Rios' body, said the victim died of extensive brain damage caused by the bullet.

Francisco Pua said he was asked by his brother to go with him to the farm in Tanapag because the "bad boys" were there. Naraja objected to the use of the phrase "bad boys" and Judge Ramon G. Villagomez agreed.

Francisco's testimony emphasized that the victim and his companions were all holding knives during the fatal confrontation. He also noted that the knives were bloody, adding to the dangerous mood.

Luis Lizama, the suspect's brother-in-law, testified that he saw what happened and that he saw Abel behind Pua and Mariano. He said that when Abel moved Damian turned around, pointed the gun at him and there was an accident and the gun went off.

Wiseman, in his opening statement, told the jury that Rios' death was the tragic result of an accident and misfortune and not of a deliberate act.

The prosecution and the defense were expected to finish arguments yesterday, after which the jury would be confined in a room to discuss their verdict.

Ex-cop, others are convicted of sex crimes by judge

By Nick Legaspi
Staff reporter

Three men, including a retired police officer, have been sentenced by the court in the past several weeks following their conviction for sex-related offenses.

Florencio Tudela of Dan Dan, a retired member of the local police force, was sentenced by Judge Jose Dela Cruz to one year supervised probation after Tudela pleaded guilty to two counts of sexual assault and battery.

Assistant Attorney General Ray Buso,in an information filed Dec.31, said Tudela engaged in sexual contact with a 15-year-old girl in August and several months before that month last year. Court records indicate that Tudela had been drinking when he committed the offense against his stepdaughter.

Dela Cruz imposed special conditions of probation and ordered Tudela to refrain completely from consuming alcohol, making contact with his two stepdaughters. He is also not allowed to have contact with other female minors without supervision by other adults.

In another case, 55-year-old Antonio P. Taitano of San Vicente was sentenced by Dela Cruz Feb.26 to six months in jail, all suspended except for the first two months. Taitano earlier pleaded guilty to a count of sexual abuse of a child in return for which five other similar counts were dismissed.

After his release from jail Taitano will be placed under supervised probation for three years, or until 1991. He was also ordered to pay $500 as restitution to his 14-year-old victim and to perform 160 hours of community service.

According to the original complaint, Taitano had sexual contact with his victim one in November 1987 and every Wednesday from Dec.2 to Dec.23.

Dela Cruz also sentenced Mauridge Pedro to 10 months in jail, all suspended for two years except for the first four months.

Pedro,30, was convicted by the court for having sexual contact with an 11-year-old girl in Chalan Kanoa in June 1987.

After his release from jail Pedro will be placed under supervised probation up to Feb.26,1990. He was also ordered to perform 100 hours of community service.

Water is now worse: DEQ

By David T. Hughes
editor

Information revealed from the weekly press release from the Department of Environmental Quality has a new line this week, -- one that poses even more danger for anyone drinking unboiled tap water, or possibly swallowing it as part of bathing.

According to new samples taken this week there is "no chlorine residue" in the water tested in Kagman, Puerto Rico, Navy Hill, San Jose, Susupe, Koblerville (East As Gono), the airport and San Vicente.

The water - (as usually reported each week) contained excessive coliform bacteria and also contained no chlorine residual. A DEQ official said that meant there was no chlorine in the water.

Lorraine Aldan, the laboratory technician, said this made the water more dangerous than usual, but not enough for people not to use it - "just boil it first," she said.

Attempts to reach CUC for comment were unsucessful. Their phone was always busy.

Reagan call gives judge good news

By DAVID T. HUGHES

Copyright 1988, Marianas Variety

Editor's note: This story also appeared in our Tuesday edition.

Trust Territory Chief Justice Alex R. Munson has been officially named by the Reagan Administration to take over the Federal District Court seat now held by Alfred Laureta. Judge Munson confirmed late Monday afternoon that he had personally spoken to U.S. president Ronald Reagan on the telephone Feb. 23. "He asked me if I wanted the job, and I told him that I would be honored . . . ," Munson said in the exclusive telephone interview.

The judge said he was thrilled that Reagan delivered the news personally.

He said that he couldn't initially talk about the appointment when he was contacted by the White House. This newspaper found out about the prospective appointment last week, but Munson said he could neither confirm nor deny the information at that time.

"Everything is settled now." he said, "It's official!"

Munson also said differences with resident representative Froilan Tenorio "have been settled." I met with him and now he is satisfied that all necessary steps were taken and are correct."

Tenorio has been an outspoken critic of the nomination ever since it was announced in the Variety on Nov. 13.

Munson said in an exclusive interview in the Nov. 13 issue of this newspaper - immediately after his name was mentioned for nomination - that he "didn't want to give the impression that I think it's a sure thing. . . . "But now all of that has changed, he said. It's now a semi-sure thing.

Munson still won't be the judge until he is approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee and the full Senate itself. Prior to being approved, Munson said he had to also be given a clean bill of health by a host of other bar and governmental agencies. Such an approval process can take months, the judge said back in November.

Now those hurdles have been taken, but more delay is involved in making that final step up to the Bible and being sworn-in. He said there are still 27 nominees for other federal judgeships nationwide. "That's quite a waiting list - it could take as ,long as 60 days - no more, I hope."

If he is approved then he is next in line to assume Laureta's seat. Judge Laureta's term expires in August, but he has said in interviews that he would like to stay on until he can retire - really just a relatively few months after his 10-year term expires.

Tempted by a beauty . . .

Gloria Patricia Propst, right, took advantage of a gathering of politicians to sell a ticke to the Marianas beauty pageant coming up. Chief Judge Robert Hefner was waiting to testify on Feb. 26 before the senate committee looking into banning poker machines in the CNMI. Hefner bought a ticket, but senate president Benjamin Mangkona and Sen. Juan N. Babauta were in line - ready to get their tickets, also.

Tinian mayor wants his money

Tinian Mayor Ignacio K. Quichocho says in a prepared press release that he sent letters to the presiding officers of both houses of the Northern Marianas Commonwealth Legislature requesting approval of the Tinian Mayor's operations budget for Fiscal Year 1988.

Quichocho said the funding for executive branch's governmental operations for1988 passed the House of Representatives but the Senate made major amendments resulting in differences not agreed upon by both houses even up to the final day of the Fifth Legislature's term in the first week of January this year.

Quichocho's main concern is his office budget which the Senate last November made a drastic cut on more than quarter of a million dollars in personnel funding'eliminating 20 out of 34 full time employees, and about threefourths less in "all others" funding from the amount that the lower house approved which, he says, will critically affect his operations in Fiscal Year 1988.

The mayor wrote to Senate President Benjamin T. Manglona upon the information that the Tinian Legislative Delegation is insisting to have the fiscal year budget approved during the current session of the Sixth Legislature with cuts on the Tinian Mayor's office as was made by the Senate last year.

"As you know, the version of the Senate on H.B. 5-201, SD1, HD1, drastically reduced the figures approved for the Tinian Mayor by the House of Representatives", Quichocho wrote President Manglona, and added that "had the Senate's amendment been accepted by the lower house, my office would have been probably 'budget-dead' by now and operations shut down."

"While we are still operating under continuing resolution with appropriations for FY 1987, I'm afraid I will still have to close operations before the current fiscal year ends due to lack of money if FY 1988 budget is approved based on the Senate's action."

Citing the effect the budget cut would have on his office at the local level, the mayor said that he has an enormous responsibility to oversee the delivery of public services on programs funded by the Commonwealth government as well as the federal government on Tinian, including the responsibility to direct emergency disaster operations and receiving official guests to the island from both domestic and abroad. He said that in undertaking these tasks, he needs to have the necessary funding support for personnel and operations to enable his office to function most effectively, pointing out that during the past year, with adequate funding provided, his office was able to provide immediately, usually on short notice, public services which include manpower and materials for works such as the Tinian School's baseball field, storage building, restroom facilities, classroom, Tinian Courtroom facility, water lines and road repair, general beautification projects, and renovation and repair of government buildings. "I am sad to say that reducing my budget the way the Tinian Delegation would have wanted it would curtail my office to perform these and other much needed services leaving me with no alternative but close shop," Quichocho told the senate president.

According to the mayor, the Senate's action last November on the FY 1988 budget for his office eliminated 20 full time employees at a cost of $336,900 down from $450,000 for 34 positions, and a decrease of $120,000 from $127,800 on "all others" operations. For the Tinian Municipal Council's budget, the Senate increased funding for 17 additional positions at a cost of 4242,000 up from 434,000 for 3 FTEs (full-time equivalent), with no changes on "all others" operations at $43,000. All added up, the mayor says that the FY 1988 Budget according to the Senate's revision reduced the Tinian Mayor to 14 FTEs for a total of $120,900 operating money, whole the Tinian Municipal Council was increased to 20 FTEs with $280,200 total budget.

Quichocho told Manglona that he knew the Tinian Delegation members are desperate to cut his budget so that funds can be directed to the Tinian Municipal Council "to pay those people promised to be hired by the Delegation during the last general election campaign".

Bill would force all to pay insurance cost

By Nick Legaspi
Staff reporter

Editor's note: This story also appeared in Tuesday"s issue.

The Senate passed a bill last week that will require all government employees to join a health insurance program, allow an increase in hospital fees and subsidize medical services to the poor.

The Committee on Health, Education, Welfare and Programs, in recommending passage of Senate Bill 6-9, stressed the need for mandatory participation by the government's 2,500 employees. "The mandatory participation aspect of the bill, that all government employees must enroll, will effectuate a financially sound fiscal management, plus generate some revenue necessary to reduce the annuald appropriation from the Legislature, and to provide for subsidy to low-income families, the disabled or the handicapped," the committee said in its report."If the program were on a 'voluntary participation' basis, this health insurance bill would not have the feasibility of maintaining financial continuity."

The committee said that according to the planning and budget office the Commonwealth Health Center currently collects less than 10 cents for every dollar it spends for delivering health care.

. "Coverage will be provided for all and not only for the few that can afford to purchase private health insurance," the committee said.

Immediate family members of government employees are also covered by the program, whether they are residing within the CNMI or abroad.

The bill provides that government medical and dental personnel and facilities must be used by members in the CNMI. Members or their immediate families who live outside the CNMI are allowed to utilize facilities in their immediate area.

The bill requires the Department of Community and Cultural Affairs to establish a poverty index within 60 days upon enactment of the bill to be used for an indigent population subsidy program. Persons qualified for these programs, including government employees, will be exempted from paying premiums.

Hyatt Happenings

Hyatt Happenings is a new bi-weekly column sponsored by the Hyatt Regency Saipan, which is designed to keep you informed of special events and activities happening at your Hyatt Regency Saipan.

The Hyatt Regency Saipan had some very special visitors this week. A group of 52 third grade students from WILLIAM S. REYES ELEMENTARY SCHOOL found that careers in hotel operations might be in their futures.

According to LUISA GUERRERO, one of the three teachers who accompanied the group, the students were very interested in learning about possible hotel career opportunities and seeing how the hotel really operates. "Many of the students had never been in the hotel before," said Luisa. "They especially enjoyed seeing the kitchen and how the chef prepares the food. They're already asking when we're going to go back to the Hyatt again!"

OCEANA GETS JAZZY

For the delight of music lovers and dinner guests, the Hyatt's Oceana House recently got some new sounds. MIKE BLAISUS has recently added a touch of jazz with his flute and saxaphone to the versatile piano music of BRUNO DALLA POZZA.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights you can now hear Mike and Bruno play such favorites as "Misty", "Fly me to the Moon", and "Summertime", or the combined rythm and melodies of "Blue Spanish Eyes" and "Brazillian Bossanova".

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH NAMED

Hyatt Regency Saipan employee VICENTA SANTOS has been named February Employee of the Month for her outstanding performance in her job. A room attendant, Vicenta started working with the Hyatt in May of 1984. Since that time she has won numerous awards for perfect attendance and has become known for her dependability and good work.

While this was not the reason for her being chosen employee of the month, Vicenta had an opportunity to help a guest recently when she found his lost wallet with a large sum of cash in it. Thanks to Vicenta, the Hyatt Regency Saipan was very pleased to be able to return the guest's property and provide a very happy ending to his vacation.

Reyes flies coop

Twice . . . . . .

An 18-year-old inmate who had been in jail 19 days out of a year-long sentence escaped twice Sunday and Monday, police said Wednesday.

Sgt. Lino Tenorio, police spokesman, said in an interview that Mario M. Reyes was with other inmates in the field between Marianas High School and the Division of Corrections early Sunday evening when he first escaped. The inmates just finished playing baseball and were being counted by DOC guards at about 7:10 p.m. when Reyes disappeared.

Tenorio said the escapee was captured by the police in a private residence in San Vicente at about 9:30 a.m. Monday.

Reyes was taken back to jail. At about 5:26 p.m. Monday he needed to use the toilet but the restrooms inside the detention facility were full. He was being escorted by a guard to the toilet in a nearby police building when Reyes ran away.

At about 1:30 p.m. Tuesday Reyes made a telephone call to Capt. Joseph M. Castro and said he wanted to give himself up. Police officers picked up Reyes at the basketball court in Chalan Kanoa's sfirst district.

Reyes, who was convicted for stealing a motor vehicle, was sentenced Feb.8 to five years in prison, all suspended except for the first year. He went to jail Feb.15 to start serving the one-year unsuspended portion of his sentence.

In another case, Francisco R. Sablan of Chalan Kanoa told the police Wednesday that his son, a juvenile, had been missing since Monday.

According to the police report, the young Sablan went to work at the Olympia Market at about 4 p.m. Monday. Han Mun Sop, owner of the establishment, said Sablan took the company's pickup at about the same day to take some trash to the dump in Puerto Rico. Sop went to the Sablan residence at about 8:30 p.m. and told the boy's father that the young Sablan had not returned from his trip to the dump.

Police found the vehicle near the airport Tuesday, where it was involved in an accident. The young Sablan, however, was still missing.

Together forever

These ancient bones uncovered during construction of the Duty Free store in Garapan was an exciting find for archaeologists. Here, if one looks closely enough, it can be seen that two or more persons were actually buried with - or on top of - each other.

Former NM worker is "in jail . . ."

taking any government job dealing with government money, checks, payroll, invoices and similar items.

It was learned during the hearing that Benavente has been on a work release program. He is allowed to go out of prison seven days a week, which means that he only goes to jail to pass the night. His motion which was heard Wednesday was to allow him to work after 5 p.mgoing to jail" with that privilege.

Rep. Moises Fejeran, testifying in support of Benavente's motion, said the convict had been working for Fejeran for three weeks as a community worker. He said Benavente was qualified for the job. "I respect him," Fejeran said, according to court records.

Fejeran said reduction of Benavente's sentence was to allow him to go out at night to see people, as part of Benavente's community work function, who are not available during the day.

"That's outrageous," Haggerty said in an interview yesterday.

Senator Juan N. Babauta and Resident Executive for Indigenous Affairs John Del Rosario also supported Benavente's motion. They said Benavente, who stole from government while he was a financial officer at the House of Representatives from 1984 to 1987, was an "honest" man.

Benavente, in his motion, said he had already paid full restitution to the government amounting to $7,038.27 and had served six weeks out of his six-month jail term.

Haggerty countered that restitution was paid only in compliance with the court's order. She saidd Benavente never offered to return the money prior to his conviction.

She said that the court should take into consideration the factor of punishment and deterrence in determining whether the sentence should be reduced and not only good prospects of rehabilitation.

Villagomez agreed with Haggerty and denied Benavente's motion. "To reduce the sentence would result in weakening the deterrence effect of the initial sentence and would make the punishment minimal and insignificant," Villagomez said in his decision.

paternalistic neo-colonial attitude we thought disappeared long ago. I for one wish to be so lucky to even have a leak in my faucet where I could catch a bucket of water to shower or flush the toilet. It's indeed a sad state of affairs that our government blames us for its inability to plan, manage and operate our public utilities.

I always thought it was the government who is responsible for taking care of its people's health, safety and welfare. When it cannot provide enough water-the most basic and essential resource to its people, then it is time for some change.

It's obvious this government's first priority is the big developers, while the little guys [small business and residents], must fend for themselves. One must question the present trend of government encouraging large developers to provide their own power and water systems instead of contributing to the public infrastructure. But of course such policy would benefit the little guys, and we now that would not happen.

The only hope is total privatization of our power, water, sewage, roads and health care! Now!

/s/C.B. Camacho

P.S. Bravo to Senator Juan Babauta for telling it like it is.

Workers demand change

Sablan said he would meet again with the Sam Marianas officials to discuss the list of grievances and demands submitted by the local workers group.

The workers are also asking for the following:

Local workers were going to walk off the job in support of alien laborers, but politicians stepped in and asked for cooler heads to prevail. A settlement is being worked on.

—If a worker is required to report early for any reason or to stay late for cleaning up, the worker should be compensated time-and-a-half for that time;

—Wages should be time-and-a-half for overtime, work during typhoon condition 2 and during tsunamis, double during Sundays and holidays;

—Workers should receive a one-week bonus every year if they meet production quotas and maintain perfect attendance (allowing for excused absencec);

—Workers should be given a 10-minute break for mornings and afternoons;

—All meetings held in Korean should be translated into English and distributed to the non-Korean speaking employees;

—Group leaders should avoid shouting at employees as a form of reprimand and should be prohibited from hitting workers;

—Smoking rules should be enforced fairly among all workers, group leaders and management;

—Each employee must be given six days of paid sick leave every year;

—Workers compensation insurance must be provided;

—Each worker and his or her locally residing dependents must be given medical insurance, with the company paying 50 percent of the premium and the worker the balance; and —Clean and refrigerated drinking water should be available at all times.

Local doctor named to new distinction

All three doctors at the Commonwealth Health Center who specialize in Family Medicine have now been certified by the American Academy of Family Physicians.

Dr. Anthony Stearns

Dr. Anthony Stearns joined 500 colleagues who became "diplomates" of the A.A.F.P. during a recent convention of the 59,000 member organization in San Francisco. The diploma recognizes continuing study and advancement by practicing physicians in this field.

The diplomate status is earned by a combination of completion of a formal three year residency and passing an intensive examination by a national board of senior specialists.

Family Medicine is the successor to what traditionally was known as general medical practice, but as a new specialty, now has more formalized educational and certification requirements. Doctors who specialize in Family Medicine mus be recertified every six years.

Dr. Larry Hocog and Dr. Andrew Weeks, the other Family Medicine specialists at the CHC, had earlier received A.A.F.P. certification.

Dr. Stearns has worked at both the former Dr. Torres Hospital and the CHC since arriving on Saipan in 1985.

Dr. Stearns holds an undergraduate degree from the University of California at Davis. He graduated from the University of Southern California Medical School in 1981. He served a residency at the Glendale Adventist Medical Center from 1981-84.

Dr. Stearns is one of nine National Health Service Corps personnel on the staff at the CHC.

Dr. Hocog, a native of Rota, is a 1984 graduate of the University of Hawaii School of Medicine. His residency was in the Family Practice program at San Bernadino County Medical Center.

Dr. Weeks, who joined the CHC staff last fall, received his Family Medicine certification in 1985. He is a 1982 graduate of the University of Washington (Seattle) Medical School and did his residency at Mercy Medical center in Denver.

The doctors are available, and invite their friends to stop by.

Publication of the above list is in accordance with CRM regulations which require all permit applications to be published in a local newspaper within 15 days of receipt of application. The list reflects recently received permit applications and those with a recent change of status. New applications are marked with an asterisk.

the public is invited to submit written comments regarding any of the above projects for which a permit decision has not been issued. All public comments should identify the project by application number. Your comments should be mailed or hand-delivered to the CRM Office. All persons who desire a public hearing regarding any project may do so by submitting a written request for a public hearing to the CRM Office within fourteen (14) calendar days of publication of this notice. Residents of Rota and Tinian may submit comments and hearing requests to their local CRM Coordinator. Persons wishing to retain the right to appeal a CRM Permit decision must file a written petition to intervene with the CRM Administrator no later than seven (7) days following a first date of publication that the CRM Permit Application is certified as complete as provided in CRM Regulations Section 8(F).

A list of the FY 1988 Capital Improvement Projects and further information may be obtained from Henry I. Sablan, Commissioner of Education, Public School System, Saipan, MP 96950.

The selection of a firm will be made on the basis of construction management experience, qualifications of key staff, knowledge of applicable local and federal building regulations, and cost of services.

Proposals must be in sealed envelope, marked RFP88-0027, and submitted to the Chief, Procurement & Supply, Lower Base, Saipan, no later than 2:00 p.m., March 8, 1988. The Public School System reserves the right to reject any or all proposals for any reason and to waive any defects in any proposals if in its sole opinion it is in the best interest of the schools. All proposals shall become the property of the Public School System.

State. This may have been prompted by the economic dive that it took when the oil prices in the world market took a slide.

Again, I might note that I am walking on a very thin line that could easily be misunderstood. But it is an issue for consideration among ourselves. It could very well (discussion) bring up even better solutions. Let us terminate the identification of problems to which we have become no better than a broken record. Please, but please, let us not make it a habit to regurgitate problems (their identification). We know what they are so let us do something about them, now!

The intent of alien bonding is to protect this group of workers from further abuse than what we have seen thus far. It may be a little steep an imposition by law, but it should be understood that its intend isn't to frustrate aliens coming to work here. Rather, it is intended to protect you from being booted out of a job where you end up paying for your return home with your last check being withheld for no apparent reason. I despise the abuse of alien workers. And all abusers deserve a six month stint in jail if caught red handed.

Assistant U.S. Attorney George Proctor finally speaks his mind with regard to the applicability of the so-called territorial clause. I might remind you Mr Proctor that there's the mutual consent provision in the Covenant which in effect says that it takes our consent for any federal law to be made applicable out here. So far, the U.S. has turned its back on its share of responsibility. The question of sovereignty rests with us. There's yet to be a definite or conclusive agreement on where this issue actually rests. But the trend, so it seems, is that this issue is with our people and not with the federal government. I'd be darned if one of these fine days the U.S. GIVES A DARN!!

trade . . " OK, prove it to us. But, we think the hotels' interest in keeping the tourists happy has more to do with making more money than concern for fun. The hotels get a percentage split of 50/50 or 56-40 of the gross of each machine in their facilities.

Don't be so naive to think that the tourists provide the poker industry profits . . . . our family members, friends and fellow CNMI citizens do!

Instead of figuring more ways to get the tourists money, why can't the hotels and other tourist-oriented corporations plan more clean and family-type activities for their guests, or some other attraction which takes advantage of our island's instrinsic beauty and hospitality?

All of the arguments made by the poker machine people play on the emotions of the legislature - just like the addiction of poker machines. We favor and urge the legislature to totally ban poker machines from the Commonwealth. If they have enough courage to do it. Talk is cheap, and it's been our experience our legislators like to talk about changing things, but do little to actually DO IT!

Poker machines are a disgrace to our island and the time has come to do away with them .

Tinian food fair planned for March 25-26 in park

Preparations are underway for the First Tinian Annual Agriculture and Food Fair to be held on March 25 - 26, 1988, at the House of Taga Park on Tinian. Among the objectives of the affair are: to improve production and increase consumption of local food, and to promote local food among tourists and visitors to the Commonwealth. Jointly sponsoring this effort, which promises to be a big event, are the Tinian Agricultural Fair Association Committee under the auspices of the Tinian Mayor's Office, Land Grant Office of the Northern Marianas College, Department of Natural Resources, and Marianas Visitors Bureau.

Tinian farmers and businessmen will be participating in the Agriculture part of the Fair, and since after Typhoon Roy have been "pampering" their crops and livestock that they intend to enter at the Fair. Other sectors of the community are being encouraged to participate in the Food Fair part of the event, in which recipes made from ingredients that are locally grown or harvested, will be submitted. Judges for both fairs have been recruited, and prizes for winning entries are currently being solicited from businesses as well as from private individuals.

Those desiring more information may contact Chairman Ben M. Manglona at telephone number 433-9298, or any of the members of the working committee: on Tinian - Joe Hocog, Don Connor, Dave Maratita (tel. 433-9231), Ray Cing (tel. 433-9235); on Saipan - Gene Santos (tel. 322-9834), Sid Cabrera, Lit Alvarez (tel. 234-9022).

Local swimmers do well in competitions

Some of Saipan's newer competitive swimmers swam in their first off-island meet this past weekend. This Long Course meet was held at the Agana 50M Pool and was open to all age group swimmers in time categories A B and C. (C swimmers are new swimmers, and as they improve and their times get faster, they move up to B, and A times. The older team members also swam, working to lower their times for qualifying for major off island competition.

Breaking into the world of distance swimming was 12 year old Jason Good, posting a 1st place and AA Time with a 6:14.73 in the 400 Freestyle, 30 seconds off his previous best time.

New swimmers making B times were Frank Pangelinan, Robert Etscheit, and Phil Han. Daisuke Yamaguchi got and A and a B time.

The next meet for saipan Swim Club members is the Pentathlon on March 6, 1988 on Guam. The 13th Annual Saipan Ocean Swim will be held on Saipan on March 26, 1988, and swimmers are expected from Japan and Guam.

Diamond Hotel GM Shinichi Yamada presents a $1,000 check to MVB Board Chairman Pete Igitol and Committee Chairman John Flores as MVB Deputy Managing Director Bennet Seman looks on.

Diamond Hotel donates $1,000 to MVB program

Diamond Hotel General Manager Shinichi Yamada presented a $1,000 check to John Flores, Chairman of MVB Education and Training Committee. The donation will be used to fund MVB's Japanese Language programs. The Diamond Hotel's donation brings the total contributions in FY 1988 from MVB membership to about $6,000 for the Japanese language programs.

Flores noted that there are presently two Japanese language instructors, who are sponsored by the Bureau and are teaching at the Northern Marianas College and Mt. Carmel High School. He added, "Because of the generous assistance from our tourist industry private sector, the committee from our tourist industry private sector, the committee can further expand its education and training programs."

The Marianas Visitors Bureau Education and Training Committee was established in October 1986 to coordinate programs relating to the improvement of services offered by the industry and education institution in the CNMI.

Late signups for ball league still going on

All interested teams and individuals should be aware that the 1988 Men's and Women's Volleyball League which was scheduled to start on Monday Feb. 15, 1988 has been extended till March 7, 1988. All interested teams are asked to submit their team roster and $150.00 entry fee to the Division of Youth Services, Dept. of Community and Cultural Affairs in Lower Bas s.

For further information regarding the League, please contact Joe Lizama or Tony Rogolifoi at 322-9366/9075 during working hours.

Two top athletes this month

Co-Athletes of the month were selected in both the male and female categories this month because of the heavy schedule in team sports.

Mary Moses won the Queen of the Lanes Tournament at the Saipan Bowling Center, and Jackie Taitano led her team, Beachgals, to the Y's Tournament Volleyball Championship conducted last month by C & CA.

The male athletes selected for the same month were David Olopai of the Beachboys in Volleyball and Poland Yamada of Kanaka, both for their outstanding play in leading their respective teams to the Y's Islanders Tournament Championships.
