The Classic History of Hawaii's Struggle to Survive

"I'm happy to have it back on my shelf! The effects of World War II are still felt significantly today. To learn about it, 'Hawaii's War Years' is, and will remain, the definitive account of this crucial period of Hawaiian history. And not only is this book packed with information you won't find elsewhere, it's easy and enjoyable to read as well."
DeSoto Brown
Author of "Hawaii Goes to War"

"All students of wartime Hawaii should start here. Drawing on unique primary sources, 'Hawaii's War Years' conveys with a compelling sense of immediacy how an ethnically diverse society on a besieged insular outpost experienced an epic struggle for Asia and the Pacific."
John J. Stephan
Author of "Hawaii Under the Rising Sun"

Available from Pacific Monograph
452 pages, newly indexed, with additional material
A Native Hawaiian Garden
How to Grow and Care for Island Plants
John L. Culliney and Bruce P. Koebele
Hawaii is home to some of the rarest plants in the world, many of them now threatened by extinction. A Native Hawaiian Garden is an effort to help stem the tide. The book offers the most in-depth treatment yet on cultivating and propagating native Hawaiian plants. With over 90 color photographs, the book treats 63 species (many for the first time), giving detailed information on all stages of gardening: from preparing seeds for germination to the care and tending of young plants. $24.95, Paper

Plants for Tropical Landscapes
A Gardener’s Guide
Fred D. Rauch and Paul R. Weissich
Plants for Tropical Landscapes will aid in the selection and grouping of plants to create a successful tropical garden. Plants are organized by size (ground covers, low shrubs, medium shrubs, small trees) and are fully illustrated with more than 750 color photographs to aid in their identification. $39.95, Cloth

Breeding Dendrobium Orchids in Hawaii
Haruyuki Kamemoto, Teresita D. Amore, and Adelheid R. Kuehnle
Information on Dendrobium hybrids, cross-breeding, seed propagation, flower color, and form and controlling disease is presented in language readily understood by the layperson. $60.00, Cloth

Ethnic Culinary Herbs
A Guide to Identification and Cultivation in Hawai’i
George W. Staples and Michael S. Kristiansen
A fully illustrated guide book that describes more than thirty herbs grown, sold, and used in Hawai’i. $29.95, Cloth

WWW.UHPRESS.HAWAII.EDU
University of Hawai‘i Press
A Voyage Round the World
Volumes I & II
George Forster
Edited by Nicholas Thomas and Oliver Berghof
$115.00, Cloth
“The detailed, scholarly introduction and extensive annotations relate the voyage to issues of concern to modern anthropological thought and relevant to the discourses of postmodernism and postcolonialism. It will provide a new generation of scholars with a highly influential travel book of the Enlightenment.”

—Bernard Smith, Melbourne University

“The expertise of the editors is evident both in their fine introduction and, above all, in the annotations. Their own knowledge and their consultation with other specialists have made the annotations of enormous usefulness, and I am full of admiration for them. This is a significant publication.”

—Glyndwr Williams, Queen Mary & Westfield College

The Pacific Islands
An Encyclopedia
Edited by Brij V. Lal and Kate Fortune
$100.00, Cloth & CD-ROM
“A comprehensive and invaluable reference work without parallel in the entire history of scholarship on the Pacific Islands. It is an absolute must for the bookshelf of every serious student of the region and will remain so for many years to come.”

—Robert Kiste, Center for Pacific Islands Studies, University of Hawai‘i

Thirty Years in the South Seas
Richard Parkinson
Translated by John Dennison
$75.00, Cloth

The Hikers Guide to the Hawaiian Islands
Stuart M. Ball, Jr.
$19.95, Paper
A detailed and fully illustrated guide to the best day hikes on the Big Island, Kaua‘i, Maui, and O‘ahu.

WWW.UHPRESS.HAWAII.EDU
University of Hawai‘i Press
Aims to provide comprehensive coverage of contemporary developments in the entire Pacific Islands region, including Melanesia, Micronesia, and Polynesia, from a wide range of disciplines.

- ARTICLES examine social, economic, political, ecological, and cultural topics.
- DIALOGUE ESSAYS offer shorter statements on matters of topical interest and provide a forum for scholarly debate.
- POLITICAL REVIEWS provide overviews of political events, issues, and trends.
- RESOURCE ARTICLES describe regional library holdings, provide specialized bibliographies, and explain how to obtain source materials not widely known.
- BOOK & MEDIA REVIEWS present commentary and critiques.

SPONSORED by the Center for Pacific Islands Studies, University of Hawai‘i. EDITORIAL BOARD: Robert C. Kiste, Chair; Geoffrey M. White, Editor; Terence Wesley-Smith, Associate Editor; Letitia Hickson, Review Editor; Karen M. Peacock, Resources Editor; Linley Chapman, Managing Editor.

www.hawaii.edu/uhpress/journals/cp

Please enter my subscription to The Contemporary Pacific (2 issues a year).

- Individual: Pacific Islands US$23/year; elsewhere (including Hawai‘i, Aust. & NZ) US$35/year
- Institutional: Pacific Islands US$30/year, elsewhere US$50/year
- New    □ Renewal □ US$18 added for airmail postage

Name ____________________________
Address ____________________________
City __________________ State ______ Country/Code ____________

☐ Check or money order enclosed
Checks must be drawn on a U.S. bank, payable to University of Hawai‘i Press. Canadian customers add 7% GST.

☐ Visa    ☐ Mastercard     Card No. ___________________ Expiration ____________

Signature ____________________________

University of Hawai‘i Press Journals Department
2840 Kolowalu Street, Honolulu, HI 96822-1888 USA
Phone 808-956-8833, or toll free in U.S. 888-UHPRESS
Fax 808-988-6052 Email: uhpjourn@hawaii.edu
PACIFIC IMAGES
Views from Captain Cook's Third Voyage

By Eleanor C. Nordyke

in collaboration with

James A. Mattison, Jr., M.D.

This book reproduces the engraved plates, made from John Webber's drawings, and maps published in the rare folio atlas accompanying the British government's official report, A Voyage to the Pacific Ocean (1784). Also included is the engraving of Cook's death added to the 1785 second edition of the atlas. The text accompanying each illustration is taken from the journals kept by Cook and his officers.

Sixty-two engravings, three maps, references, and index; 11 x 10.5 inches, bound in quarter cloth and illustrated sides with foil stamping. Designed and produced by Barbara Pope Book Design. 174 pages. ISBN 0-945048-04-1. $45.00.

Distributed for the Hawaiian Historical Society by the University of Hawai'i Press, 2840 Kolowalu Street, Honolulu, Hawai'i 96822.
The Hawaiian Journal of History

A scholarly journal devoted to original articles and book reviews on the history of Hawai‘i, Polynesia, and the Pacific area. Published annually, beginning with volume 1, 1967. Approximately 250 pages per volume, with illustrations. The journal is distributed free to members of the Hawaiian Historical Society. Single copies ($12.00) and some back issues ($7.00) are available from the Society office. Indexes to volumes 1–25 are also available.

Compiled by Lela Goodell. 49 pages, paper. $4.00.

An index to the first ten volumes of the journal.

Compiled by Lela Goodell; edited by Agnes Conrad. 69 pages, paper. $6.00.

Continues the first index and covers volumes 11 through 20 of the journal.

Compiled by Lela Goodell; edited by Agnes Conrad. 37 pages, paper. $5.00.

Continues earlier indexes and covers volumes 21 through 25 of the journal.

These publications may be ordered from The Hawaiian Historical Society, 560 Kawaiaha‘o Street, Honolulu, Hawai‘i 96813. Society members receive a 10 percent discount.
THE HAWAIIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY is dedicated to preserving historical material relating to Hawai‘i and the Pacific and publishing scholarly research on the history of Hawai‘i and the Pacific. The Society maintains a research library, publishes The Hawaiian Journal of History and limited-edition books, and holds regular lecture meetings. The Society is a not-for-profit membership organization funded by dues, contributions, book sales, an endowment, and grants for special projects.

Membership in the Society is open to both individuals and institutions and includes The Hawaiian Journal of History, Na Mea Kahiko newsletter, membership meetings, and discounts on publications.

NAME AS YOU WANT IT TO APPEAR ON MEMBERSHIP LIST

MAILING ADDRESS

CITY STATE ZIP

LIFE MEMBERS
☐ Founder $10,000
☐ Patron $5,000
☐ Benefactor $2,500
☐ Partner $1,000

HERITAGE CLUB
☐ Friend* $500
☐ Associate* $250
☐ Sponsor $100+
☐ Corporate $250+

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIPS
☐ Contributing $50
☐ Regular (individuals) $40
☐ Senior citizen (65+) $30
☐ Student (full-time) $20
☐ Educational institution $40

Memberships at the $50 level and above are available for couples.
*Consecutive annual donations in these categories are credited toward a Life Membership

ENCLOSED ____________ DATE ____________

Hawaiian Historical Society
560 Kawaiaha‘o Street
Honolulu, Hawai‘i 96813
Telephone (808) 537-6271
Web site: http://www.hawaiianhistory.org